CHURCHILL DOWNS SUPPORTS ALTERNATIVE GAMING AT ITS RACETRACK

The Churchill Downs Board of Directors yesterday passed a resolution instructing its management staff to aggressively pursue alternative forms of gaming at its racetrack facilities in Louisville, Kentucky. The action is in response to the immediate threat posed to Churchill Downs by Indiana riverboat casinos on the Ohio River. "After months of in-depth study and careful deliberation of the issue, we have come to the conclusion that now is the time to pursue alternative gaming at Churchill Downs," said William S. Farish, Chairman of the Board of Churchill Downs. "This is an extremely important economic development issue for Kentucky, and one on which Churchill Downs must take a leadership role." The resolution directs Company management "to marshal all forces reasonably available for the purpose of aggressively pursuing legislation which will enable Churchill Downs to conduct alternative gaming." Last month, the Indiana Gaming Commission awarded Caesars World a preliminary license to operate a riverboat casino in Harrison County, just 10 miles from downtown Louisville. Ultimately, this will be one of five Indiana riverboats located within a two-hour drive of Churchill Downs.

ALHAARTH TO IRISH DERBY

Alhaarth (Ire) (Unfuwain), last year's European champion juvenile, is to renew his rivalry with last Saturday's Epsom Derby hero Shaamit (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}) in the Budweiser-sponsored Irish equivalent at The Curragh June 30. The Dick Hern-trainee finished fifth at Epsom, beaten 3 1/2-lengths by William Haggas's charge, but connections of the Unfuwain colt believe Alhaarth should be given a chance to reverse the form on a different course. "He has a bit of leeway to make up on Shaamit, but there is no reason why he shouldn't run well again," said Angus Gold, racing manager for owner Hamdan Al Maktoum. "He certainly seemed to stay the mile and a half." Polaris Flight (Northern Flagship), narrowly beaten in the Prix du Jockey-Club in his latest start and third behind Alhaarth in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket in April, is also a probable starter in the Irish Derby.

STAKES CLOSINGS

TOMORROW, SATURDAY, JUNE 15:

6-29 $200,000 Hempstead H.-GI, Bel,
3yo/up, f/m, 8.5f ($200)

6-30 $100/75,000 Firecracker Breeders'
Cup-GIII, CD, 3yo/up, 8fT ($175)

STEVENS SURGERY SUCCESSFUL Jockey Gary Stevens underwent successful surgery on his left shoulder Wednesday at Centinela Hospital in Inglewood, California. The two-hour operation was performed by Dr. James Tibone and repaired a dislocated shoulder and torn ligaments, which were discovered during the surgery. Stevens, 33, is expected to miss the remainder of the Hollywood Park meeting, which ends July 22.

EL AMANTE INJURED El Amante (Wild Again), winner of the GIII Flamingo S. at Hialeah in April, is out for the remainder of the year after suffering a condylar fracture to his left front cannon bone. The Bill Mott-trainee sustained the injury Sunday morning during a routine gallop at Churchill Downs. The three-year-old colt, second as the favorite in the GII Illinois Derby in his last start, is resting after Dr. Larry Bramlage performed surgery to insert two screws. At the time of the injury, El Amante was being pointed to the June 23 GII Ohio Derby.

FRANKIE DETTORI FRACTURES ELBOW Thursday's Ballymacoll Stud S. for three-year-old fillies at Newbury in England was marred for Britain's champion jockey Frankie Dettori. Dettori was due to partner Shawanni (GB) (Shareef Dancer) in the race, eventually won by Sardonic (GB) (Kris {GB}), but was thrown heavily on a walkway before the start and was taken to the hospital for X-rays on his left elbow. The X-rays confirmed that Dettori, who won six races Wednesday, has fractured the elbow and will require surgery, forcing him to miss next week's Royal Ascot meeting. Dettori said, "I broke the other one a long time ago, so I know how it feels--that is not too good." His agent, Mattie Cowing, said, "It is a very sad thing that it's happened at this time, although you wouldn't want it at any time and you must be glad it wasn't a head injury."

LAUREL OPENS TODAY The Laurel Park summer meeting opens today with the first of 29 live racing programs. The highlight of the meet is the July 20 $300,000 GII Frank J. De Francis Dash, a six-furlong event which annually draws many of the country's top sprinters. Live racing will be held every day except Mondays and Thursdays, with the exception of Thursday, July 4, when the track will hold a special holiday card.

LUKAS, ZITO SHARE TRAINER OF THE MONTH AWARD

D. Wayne Lukas and Nick Zito, who have combined to win the last nine Triple Crown races and who each captured one during May, dead-heated for the Trainer of the Month award for that period. A featured segment on ESPN's Racehorse Digest, the award is co-sponsored by Vinery of Midway, Kentucky and United Thoroughbred Trainers of America. Lukas won his second consecutive Kentucky Derby and sixth consecutive Triple Crown event with Grindstone (Unbridled). His other big wins last month came with Honour and Glory (Relaunch) in the GI Met Mile and Serena's Song (Rahy) in the GIII Pimlico Distaff. Zito captured the Preakness with Louis Quatorze (Sovereign Dancer), the GI Pimlico Special with Star Standard (Risen Star) and the Sir Barton S. with Saratoga Dandy (Saratoga Six).

LORD ROTHERWICK DEAD Leading British stud owner Lord Rotherwick has died at his Oxfordshire home. The second Baron Rotherwick, whose full name was Herbert Robin Cayzer, based his breeding operation at Cornbury Park. His most successful product was the 1982 Champion Three-Year-Old Filly in Ireland Swiftfoot (GB) (Run the Gantlet), trained by Dick Hern. In addition to that year's G1 Irish Oaks, Swiftfoot won the G3 Cheshire Oaks at Chester and G2 Park Hill S. at Doncaster. The following season, Rotherwick's light blue and white silks were carried to victory by Morcon (GB) (Morston {Fr}) in Goodwood's Predominate S. and the Valdoe S. In 1984, that same colt collected Royal Ascot's G2 Prince Of Wales's S., but arguably his best performance came in defeat, as he took third behind Sadler's Wells and Time Charter in Sandown's G1 Coral Eclipse S.

Margins: head, 1/2, 5.

Sardonic (GB) upped her career record to a perfect two-for-two with a frontrunning win and has now earned herself another step up in class. The Henry Cecil trainee, whose dam scored in Newmarket's listed Pretty Polly S. in 1990 and was also Group-placed that year, had made most of the running on her maiden race debut last month and employed similar tactics under Willie Ryan here. She tired in the dying strides and wandered from a straight line. But Ryan had kept just enough up his sleeve to hold the runner-up's determined late challenged.

Local News, England:

Ocean Ridge (Storm Bird) put up probably the best performance seen by a distaff juvenile in England this year when winning the six-furlong EBF Kennett Maiden Stakes at Newbury Thursday. The Robert Sangster-owned filly, whose dam was a multiple sprint-race scorer, led after 200 yards, quickened impressively at halfway and cantered home four lengths clear of the colt Eurolink Excaliber (Red Ransom) to register a spectacular debut success. Ocean Ridge is now to be entered in next week's G3 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot. But trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam is inclined to miss that event to wait for Newmarket's G3 Cherry Hinton S. July 9. He said, "It wasn't a bad performance to beat the colts at this time of year. She's pretty good and in my heart of hearts I'd prefer aiming for the Cherry Hinton rather than the Queen Mary."

Different was making her first start outside Argentina here. In that country, she had won five of six starts, including a pair of Group 1 victories and a pair of Group 2 victories. Her only loss was a second-place effort as the 4-5 favorite in the G1 Polla de Potrancas last September. Unraced since winning the G1 Copa de Plata December 9, the chestnut returned from her six-month layoff here as the even-money favorite. She broke inward and bumped ALYSHENA (Alysheba) (4th), raced just behind the pacesetters early, ranged up three wide entering the stretch, swept to the front in midstretch and drew off in hand. She was ridden here by Chris McCarron, who also partnered Argentine import Paseana to two championship seasons for owner Sidney Craig and trainer Ron McAnally.
