TERRE A TERRE TOPS SINGAPORE FIELD

A full field of 14, headed by the talented Terre a Terre (Fr) (Kaldounevees {Fr}), will line up for Saturday's G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji. The five-year-old mare, a winner in four of her last five starts, capped a three-race winning streak in France last season with a 1 1/2-length success in the G1 Prix de l'Opera Oct. 7. Shipped to Sha Tin for the Dec. 16 G1 Hong Kong Cup, the gray was third, just a neck behind Agnes Digital, despite the fact that jockey Christophe Soumillon lost an iron 200 yards from the finish. She rebounded to post a game win in the Mar. 23 G1 Dubai Duty Free H., holding off Noverre for a 3/4-length score. The morning line has Terre a Terre at 6-1 behind 7-2 favorite Grandera

Also ran: Daliapour (Ire), Hannibal Lad (GB), Water Jump (Ire).

St Expedit followed up his success in this race last year with a battling display from the front here. Twelve months ago he had his nearest rival 10 lengths back, but this time he had to show different qualities to ward off three persistent challengers in the straight. Taken to the front early by Darryll Holland, he was allowed to dictate the pace. The five-year-old quickened entering the straight and stayed on well as Sagittarius, Ovambo and 2000 winner Daliapour (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) closed and gained the victory. "He goes round there like he's on rails and it helps him, as he's a keen horse," Holland said. "He didn't win as well as last year, but he probably took on better opposition today. He's a horse that's got a big stride and you've got to let him use it." St Expedit followed last year's success at Chester with a close second-place finish to Egyptband in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly, but was a distant seventh in the July 10 G2 Princess Of Wales S. It was discovered he had suffered a fractured pastern in the race, and he was done for the season. He came back in the Apr. 20 G3 John Porter S. at Newbury and finished second by a neck. His next start had not yet been decided.

CONTROVERSY SURROUNDS WAR EMBLEM

BONUS The fact that War Emblem (Our Emblem) won a $1 million bonus for completing the Illinois/Kentucky Derby double is not in dispute, but exactly who will cash the bonus check may have to be decided by the courts. Prince Ahmed Salman's The Thoroughbred Corporation purchased 90 percent of War Emblem from Russell Reineman just after his Illinois Derby win. While the Illinois Derby bonus was not specifically mentioned in the contract signed to complete the sale, a spokesman for The Thoroughbred Corporation said the colt was sold "without any encumbrances or obligations." But Reineman will file suit against Sportsman's Park, where the Illinois Derby was run, unless he receives 50 percent of the $1 million. "What choice do I have now?" Reineman told the Thoroughbred Times. "I owned the horse when he won the first race, so my lawyers think I should actually get 100 percent." Neil Papiano, the attorney for The Thoroughbred Corp., said he has not been contacted by Reineman. Sportsman's Park is expected to receive the $1 million payment from their insurance company in the next 30 days and are supposed to have the final say as to where the money goes, but stated they will not pay out the bonus until the Prince and Reineman come to an agreement.

NYRA HONORS PHIPPS The New York Racing Association has announced that the GI Hempstead H. will be renamed the Ogden Phipps H. Phipps passed away Apr. 22. "Mr. Phipps was a founder of NYRA and an icon in the industry," said NYRA chairman and CEO Barry Schwartz. "We thought it was most appropriate to rename a Grade I stakes after a man who has done so much for New York racing and racing nationwide. Mr. Phipps was renowned for his fillies and mares, so we thought this would be an appropriate manner in which to honor him." Phipps won the Hempstead twice, with homebred champion Personal Ensign in 1988 and with Fantastic Find in 1990. The $300,000 event will be run June 22 at 1 1/16 miles on the main track.

FINAL DERBY RATINGS DROP The final television ratings for Saturday's Kentucky Derby were down 12 percent, dropping from an 8.1 rating and a 21 share in 2001 to a 7.1 rating and an 18 share. But the figures were still the second highest since 1996. "Last year, in our first Derby telecast, we posted a 40-percent increase over the previous year's ratings," NBC Sports President Ken Schanzer said. "Considering this year's Derby had a wide-open field with no 'superhorse,' we are pleased to have retained a sizeable number of those viewers and, in fact, exceeded our expectations."

KUDOS SIDELINED Kudos (Kris S.), who cruised to a 4 3/4-length score in the Apr. 6 GI Oaklawn H. last time out, will be sidelined for the rest of the season due to a chip in his left ankle, the Daily Racing Form reports. The five-year-old also captured the San Marino H. and was third in the GI Santa Anita H. during this campaign and last year set a record on the Hollywood turf course, going a mile and three-sixteenths in 1:51 4/5. Overall, the bay has a record of 19-6-4-1 for earnings of $708,935. He will undergo surgery next Thursday. "He might make it back by fall to start training," trainer Richard Mandella told DRF. "We'll point for next year."

Snowflake was second, beaten only a length and a half by Lailani (GB), in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood last August while still a maiden, but failed to get her first win in two subsequent European starts, running seventh in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and a distant second in a maiden test at The Curragh Sept. 2. The bay made her U.S. bow at Santa Anita Feb. 10 and has been unbeatable since crossing the Atlantic. After polishing off a field of fellow now-winners, she posted a Santa Anita allowance victory Mar. 10 and added another Apr. 18. The second choice to make it a perfect four-for-four in America, Snowflake settled in sixth while on the bridle early, made a four-wide move on the far turn, took over at the top of the stretch and repelled the challenge of longshot Monrow to keep her streak alive. Favored Reine de Romance (Ire) (Vettori {Ire}), winner of the GII San Clemente H. at Del Mar last summer, was making her first start since finishing sixth in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup last October. The chestnut set the pace, but tired to be fourth.

MILAN DECISION IMMINENT Connections of Milan (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) were yesterday considering their options for the four-year-old after his leg injury sustained on Monday. Aidan O'Brien's colt suffered a spiral fracture to his off-fore cannon bone during the Listed Mooresbridge S. at The Curragh and was taken to the Troytown veterinary hospital shortly after. O'Brien told Irish Racing online yesterday: "The situation appears the same as on Monday, but they will decide tomorrow whether or not they will operate. They might just cast it instead. He should be fine. It's just a question of time with him." O'Brien also confirmed High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) to be on course for Sunday's G3 Derrinstown Derby Trial. He said, "He is fine and will run at Leopardstown. We probably won't decide what else we will run in the race until Friday."

Sohaib continued the fine run of Barry Hills in this race, providing the Lambourn handler with his 11th renewal. Last July he came up against Dubai Destination (USA) on his debut in a Newmarket maiden but finished a creditable 3½ lengths second there. He took an Ascot maiden next time before before disappointing when fifth behind that colt again in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in September. Sixth in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket the following month, he returned to finish a length second to Aramram (USA) in the Listed Thirsk Classic Trial at Thirsk Apr. 20. Here he was enterprisingly ridden by Richard Hills, content to race from the front early before bravely holding the late thrust of Sir George Turner in a thrilling finish. The winning trainer said: "Tactically we got it right as he has a high cruising speed, so it was logical to make the running. I think a mile and a quarter is right on the button." Of the runner-up jockey, Mark Johnston said: "He's made his own trouble as he needs plenty of room and should have gone and won. He might go to the G2 Dante S. at York on Wednesday."

Pat Eddery outfoxed his rivals in this tactical affair, guiding Freefourinternet to his second stakes win. Last June he took the Listed New S. at Ascot before finishing sixth behind Adilabad (Ire) in the G3 Winter Hill S. at Windsor in August. He returned to be fifth in the Listed Magnolia S. at Kempton Apr. 1, but disappointed when eighth behind Zindabad (Fr) in the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury Apr. 20. Raced in second early as Rosi's Boy (GB) (Caerleon {USA}) cut out the running, he hit the front with quarter of a mile remaining. Driven out by Eddery to hold the challenge of Island House and Darryll Holland from there, he always had the call over the runner-up and Tough Speed. Winning trainer Brian Meehan said: "I'm very happy and surprised, although I've always thought a lot of him. He's proved as he did at Ascot last year that he's a very good horse, so we'll probably take him to the G1 Prince of Wales' S. (at Royal Ascot June 19) and take on the big guns. He gets a mile and a quarter but no further."

The 12-1 chance was pushed along at the quarter-mile marker, was three lengths clear into the short straight and ran on well under strong driving to defeat Blacks Girl by an easy two lengths. The 5-2 favourite was switched to the rail to make her challenge at the eighth pole and was driven strongly inside the final furlong to grab the lead inside the last 50 yards, going away from San Luis Rey by 1 1/4 lengths at the wire. HOLLAND BOOKED FOR REDBACK

Darryll Holland was yesterday booked to renew his partnership with Redback (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), one of 15 horses left in Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp. Although trainer Richard Hannon will leave a decision until today as to whether the G1 2000 Guineas third will take his place in the line-up, he looks likely to take on Andre Fabre's Shaanmer (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) as one of a team of 10 probable overseas raiders in the mile Classic. Frankie Dettori will partner Godolphin's Firebreak (GB) (Charnwood Forest {Ire}) with Jamie Spencer on Waldenburg (USA) (Miswaki {USA}). Aidan O'Brien, who has left four in the colts' Classic, has also left in Pietra Dura (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), unplaced in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket on Sunday, in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas).

JOHNSTON PAIR FOR CHANTILLY

Mark Johnston's Simeon (GB) (Lammtarra {USA}) will join stable companion Fight Your Corner (GB) (Muhtarram {USA}) in a tilt at the G1 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 2, the trainer announced yesterday. Although the French Classic has always been on the agenda for Fight Your Corner, winner of Tuesday's G3 Chester Vase, Simeon, who took the G3 Classic Trial at Sandown Apr. 26, was also nominated for the contest yesterday. "Fight Your Corner would probably be the horse with all the credentials, but Simeon will also go to the French Derby," Johnston said. Although both can dominate from the front, their handler has no concerns about the way the race will be run: "I never worry about tactics and they don't need to lead," he added.

Having previously won only in handicap or claiming company in five season's racing, Subliminal had not been successful since recording his last victory at Longchamp in September. He surpassed all his previous form here to record a fully deserved first stakes win in battling style. He was placed in a tracking fourth from the outset as Axel Des Fieffes (Fr) (True Brave {USA}) led from Al Namix and Cayoke (Fr) (Always Fair {USA}), but began a forward move once turning for home. The eventual winner was pushed along approaching the final furlong as the punters' choice Al Namix seized the initiative, but grabbed the lead with 100 yards to go and ran on strongly thereafter to safely account for that under a well-judged ride from Stephane Pasquier.

HAWKEYE WARMS UP IN THE WET

Michael Jarvis' Hawkeye (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) completed his preparation for Saturday's G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup with two spins on a wet Kranji track yesterday. Regular work rider Bob Parkinson put the four-year-old through his paces with a two-furlong canter followed by a four-furlong blow-out on the turf course. With 33 millimetres of rain falling early morning, the course held up well, draining sufficiently so that track work was not disrupted. Claire Sparkes, traveling head girl to Jarvis, said yesterday: "He's done well since he's been here and we're looking forward to Saturday. He'll cope with the long sweeping bends and the only worry would be the short straight. It's only a two-furlong run-in." Hawkeye will have to overcome a draw from the 11 hole on Saturday, with Sparkes adding: "There should be plenty of pace and he'll be staying on at the end as we consider him a mile-and-a-half horse. Hopefully he'll stay out of trouble there and have a clear run. He's been going well on the track so I'm not concerned about him handling it. There are lovely long sweeping bends, we just need a bit of luck on the day." Meanwhile, Godolphin's Grandera (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}), drawn well in seven, will not wear the visor he sported last time when fifth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Apr. 21. Stable companion Atlantis Prince (GB) (Tagula {Ire}), was drawn in four yesterday, with Godolphin's traveling head lad Ross Campbell commenting: "Before the draw I thought between three and eight would be ideal. Grandera's going to be ridden from off the pace hopefully, and the other one, if there's no pace, will be right bang there. In Hong Kong, Grandera saw too much daylight. Hopefully we can have a good run, maybe with a bit more luck in running than we had in Hong Kong."
