

ALL THE WEAPONS IN HER ARSENAL

Islington (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) lived up to the pre-race hype here to win in race record time, providing Sir Michael Stoute with his sixth renewal of this trial for the G1 Epsom Oaks June 7. That is where Islington is head ed now and she is likely to start favourite on the day, being quoted at 3-1 after this effort by Coral Eurobet. She is clearly on the upgrade, having finished fifth in a Newmarket maiden on her debut in August before finishing a head and a half length third behind Protectress (GB) and Snowfire (GB) in the Listed Oh So Sharp S. at Newmarket last October. That race appeared one of the most competitive races for two-year-old fillies run last year and she confirmed that impression when beating subsequent Chester maiden scorer Fragrant View in a Newbury maiden Apr. 19. Yesterday, she was kept to the rail in third early, racing keenly as Half Glance (GB) (Danehill) was taken to the front. After settling his filly under cover, Kieren Fallon's major concern was racing room as Frankie Dettori kept him pinned to the fence on the smooth-traveling Fraulein (GB) (Acatenango {Ger}). When the gap came entering the straight, Islington was pointed at it and she showed impressive acceleration to pick up the long-time leader with three furlongs remaining. Lengthening into the clear, she was pushed along from there to maintain her advantage as Jamie Spencer made considerable inroads into her lead on Spinnette (Ire) (Spinning World). Fallon, winning his second Musidora, following subsequent Epsom Oaks winner Reams of Verse in the 1997 renewal, explained: "We've gone three out which is too far--I wanted to wait until I was inside the two but when the gap came I had to take it--she's a dream ride and she has a good turn of foot. She's sharpened up a lot since her win at Newbury, but I didn't want it to turn into a sprint--she'd done well to do it the way she's done it." Stoute added: "I felt that Kieren kicked a little earlier than he would have wanted and she's still a little bit unprofessional and babyish, so wasn't doing a lot in front. She just looks around a little bit and has spooked before, but she's gradually growing up. She'll have to improve again, but she's progressing and going the right way--we can go there with a little bit of hope."

DERBY WINNER WORKS

War Emblem (Our Emblem) worked an easy five furlongs at Churchill Tuesday in preparation for Saturday's GI Preakness S. The Derby winner completed the work in 1:03.20 over a fast track.

War Emblem Horsephotos

Clockers caught the colt in fractions of :25, :37.40 and :50.40. He galloped out six furlongs in 1:16.20 with exercise rider Dana Barnes in the irons. "I just wanted to sort of breeze around there, just to take a little bit of the edge off him," explained trainer Bob Baffert. "He's going to be flying tomorrow [Wednesday] and he's never flown before, so I didn't want him too high to get on that plane. And I didn't want to excite him too much and go too fast. Basically, that's the kind of horse he is. He doesn't need to do a lot because he gets a lot out of his gallops. Every horse is different."

Others On the Work Tab...

Also working yesterday at Churchill, Harlan's Holiday (Harlan) drilled four furlongs in :48.20 with jockey Tony D'Amico up. "It was solid," trainer Ken McPeck said of the work. "That's the horse. I think we got a little fancy in the last breeze before the Derby. Maybe we should have given him a sharp one and popped him away from there when the gates opened, but hindsight's 20-20. I can see clearly now."

Booklet (Notebook) worked four furlongs at Churchill yesterday in :48.60 and galloped out five furlongs in 1:02.60. New jockey Pat Day was up for the work. "This is the first time Pat Day's been on him, so all I wanted to do was mainly let Pat push all the buttons, flip all the switches and see what he was going to be riding so there weren't any surprises Saturday at Pimlico. This horse has got some idiosyncracies about him and Pat was able to probably feel and see all of them, so I think we're set up fairly well."

In 1986 Sir Michael Stoute saddled His Highness the Aga Khan's Shahrastani to take this contest en route to beating the great Dancing Brave in the G1 Epsom Derby. This year the emerald green and red will be carried by Balakheri as that colt bids to book his place in that Classic. After finishing unplaced in a Yarmouth maiden in September, he contested a seven-furlong Leicester conditions event, where he was beaten 1 1/4 lengths by the smart Lunar Sovereign. Taken to Nottingham next time at the end of October in the extended mile maiden won by Epsom Derby winner Oath (Ire) in 1998, he scored comfortably, appreciating the extra distance. He returned to take the competitive Swaffham H. at Newmarket Apr. 18 and is bound to appreciate this galloping track and test of stamina, his dam having won the 1995 G2 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp in 1995 and being a half-sister to the dam of Bering (GB). He may stay much better than stable companion Right Approach, who raced too keenly when third in the G3 Classic Trial at Sandown Apr. 26. Stoute said of the pair yesterday: "The ground turned soft at Sandown last time, so we are here to find out more about Right Approach. Balakheri hadn't done too much at two and he had improved before his last run. He's got to find a stone to be competitive in a Dante and he's worked satisfactorily at home but he's been keeping a bit up his sleeve." Hills of Gold, who had such as Flat Spin (GB) and Fight Your Corner (GB) behind when winning a competitive conditions event at Doncaster last September on his sole start, is interesting. Sir George Turner, who was second, beaten a short head by Sohaib in Thursday's Listed Dee S. at Chester, makes a quick reappearance here with blinkers fitted.

INFECTION SIDELINES TAKE CHARGE LADY

Take Charge Lady (Dehere) will miss Friday's GII Black-Eyed Susan with a slight lung infection. After the three-year-old filly blew out three furlongs Tuesday at Churchill in :35, a routine medical examination revealed the infection. "She worked good and she feels good," said trainer Ken McPeck. "She's fine and she didn't cough once. She's got some mucous in her chest and we just need to get it dried up."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER

FIGHT YOUR CORNER SOLD

Trainer Mark Johnston yesterday confirmed that Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum had purchased Fight Your Corner (GB) (Muhtarram) for an undisclosed sum. Having won last Tuesday's G3 Chester Vase in course record time, the three-year-old was being pointed for the G1 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 2 as he did not hold an entry for the G1 Epsom Derby June 8. Fight Your Corner will now run in the colors of Sheikh Mohammed's son Sheikh Hamdan, whose Millennium Dragon (GB) scored at Newmarket last weekend, and will remain with Johnston for at least the remainder of this season.

Nonsuch Bay has spent most of her short career in tough spots. She didn't see a racecourse until January 20 this year, when she won a maiden special weight contest at Gulfstream Park. After adding an allowance win at the same venue, she contested the GII Bonnie Miss S., and finished second, dividing the winner Dust Me Off and Belterra, in a race run in stakes-record time. Shipped to New York for the GIII Comely S., Nonsuch Bay ran into another buzzsaw, and finished a distant third to one of the nation's best three-year-old fillies Bella Bellucci.

In the GII Nassau Breeders' Cup S. Nonsuch Bay faced a field which included Infinite Spirit, conqueror of champion two-year-old filly Tempera in this year's UAE 1000 Guineas, the unbeaten Wilzada and Lethal Temper, the highly thought of Wopping, and her Gulfstream Park conqueror, Dust Me Off. Trainer Frank Alexander wanted Nonsuch Bay close to the pace, but in the early stages the still relatively inexperienced filly resented getting dirt in her face and drifted back to seventh, some eight lengths off pacesetter Wilzada. Sent inside in the stretch, Nonsuch Bay charged between Wilzada and Wopping in the closing strides to get up by a nose over Wopping, with Wilzada just a half-length back in third. The first two are expected to renew their rivalry in the G1 Acorn S. at Belmont Park June 7. Cont. p. 6

SECOND-CROP EURO SIRES FIRE

With the French and English Guineas now in the history books, what already looked like a good group of sires is looking even better. This group was among four on whom we ran tables in our May 1 edition (p. 8-9), and was then headed by Royal Applause, Danehill Dancer, and Spinning World, but it's been from the second five from that table--Zamindar, Alhaarth, and Singspiel--who supplied last weekend's fireworks.

But first...another word about Danehill, who ended up as Andrew Caulfield's Selected, as he detailed, from a lot of choices for his column yesterday. Already champion sire in Australia five times and champion sire of two-year-olds in Britain and Ireland the last two years, he is now looming up alongside Sadler's Wells as Europe's top sire. Not only did he have this tremendous English-French 2000 Guineas double compliments of two of those top two-year-olds from last year, Rock of Gibraltar and Landseer, but he's also got the four-year-old filly Aquarelliste, second in the Arc to Sakhee last year, and already winner of the G1 Prix Ganay this term. He is on fire, the unfortunate loss of Mozart notwithstanding.

Second-Crop Sires in Europe...

Back to business...European second-crop sires. The biggest win fell to Zafonic's younger brother (you can't say 'little brother,' he's 16.3), Zamindar (by Gone West). He was not so good a racehorse as Zafonic, who was a superstar, but displayed plenty of ability nonetheless. Like Zafonic bred by Prince Khalid and trained by Andre Fabre, Zamindar ran four times at two in 1996, winning his maiden and the G3 Prix de Cabourg (6f), and placing in two Group 1s, second to Bahamian Bounty in the six-furlong Morny and third behind Revoque in the seven-furlong Salamandre. Fabre brought him over for the English 2000 for his first start at three, and he was an arguably unlucky three-length fifth behind Entrepreneur. That was about it. He ran two more times, but cut no ice. He went to stud at Banstead, but transferred to Marablu Farm in Florida for the 2001 breeding season, just as he was about to have runners. Up until last weekend, he was a good sixth among this group, with 14 winners, including the useful 2001 Listed SW Lipstick. He's in the top five now, after the canny J. Gosden produced Zenda, under a fine, front-running ride by Prince Khalid's stable jock, Richard Hughes, to hold off Firth of Lorne (by some unknown, Danehill) and Sophisticat in the French 1000. It was a very fast time, and you wouldn't be confident of calling it a front-running fluke until we see what happens in the Coronation at Royal Ascot, which lately has been settling the issue of who is the top three-year-old mile filly in Europe each year. So, a major credibility boost for Zamindar.

Alhaarth's Feat...

Barely less impressive was the double scored by 1995 European champion two-year-old Alhaarth, who had the winners of both the Lingfield Derby Trial (G3) and the Lingfield Oaks Trial (L) last Saturday, both run at 11 ½ furlongs. Derby Trial winner Bandari, one of a passel of big three-year-old winners lately for trainer Mark Johnston, was hugely impressive, winning by 13 lengths, and he would be third favorite for the Epsom Derby (behind Hawk Wing and High Chaparral) if he'd been entered. He could still be supplemented for £90,000, but the trainer rightly considers that's rather a big bet to make. He is Alhaarth's third Group 3 winner (Oaks Trial winner Birdie is his fourth SW), following Nell Gwyn winner Misterah last month and last year's Cornwallis winner, Dominica. Considering the Cornwallis is at five furlongs and the Nell Gwyn seven furlongs, Alhaarth is looking very good on the versatility scale. This horse, by Northern Dancer's last sire son to way outsize his race record, Unfuwain, is in the process of making an excellent start.

MORE SMART WINNERS FROM SMART STRIKE

Singspiel Rising...

Still in the second five, as of today, but poised to blast off, is Singspiel. No less than a half brother to Rahy (and champion South African sire Rakeen), Singspiel's not been getting many calls among this group so far. With a crop of fewer than 40 named foals, it's been taking a while for things to happen; but that's all about to change. On Sunday Singspiel colts ran second in the G1 Prix Lupin (Secret Singer, behind French Derby favorite Act One, who is by Singspiel's sire, In the Wings) and in the G3 Derrinstown Derby (In Time's Eye gave High Chaparral plenty to think about). And today, Godolphin's Moon Ballad, fourth to Essence of Dubai in the G2 UAE Derby and a nose second in the Newmarket S. (L) at the Guineas meeting, has a real chance in the G2 Dante. They're all three 10-furlong three-year-old colts, and they are saying, "Wake up. Here comes Singspiel."

But there's another statistic from the last three weeks which suggests to me that, ultimately, the very best sire of this very good group is going to be Spinning World, who I now think will be the best sire son of Nureyev since Theatrical. I know, I know. He's benefited from the Coolmore 'overpower them with numbers' policy, but even so, he's had nine stakes horses so far, including G3 Craven winner and English 2000 second favorite King of Happiness and he's had no fewer than 30 individual runners in the last three weeks (Northern Hemisphere only). Five of them won, the best of those being Common World, who won a good nine-furlong three-year-old handicap at Sandown, and Fomalhaut, a half brother to Machiavellian, who won a 5 1/2-furlong conditions race at Chantilly. His latest stakes filly is Spinnette, who ran second to Oaks favorite Islington yesterday in the G3 Musidora at York, finishing the race with one shoe off. One after another by this sire is showing up in the right kind of places, so I would say it is strictly a matter of time before the right one shows up in the right place at the right time.

Nonsuch Bay is a daughter of the Gone West stallion, Mr. Greeley, and the weekend was a good one for sons of Gone West. In addition to the victory of Nonsuch Bay, Zenda, from the first crop of Zamindar, won the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) and Maybe Forever, a daughter of Zamindar's brother, Zafonic, captured the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges.

Mr. Greeley is a member of Gone West's fourth crop. A winner twice in six starts at two, Mr. Greeley really bloomed at three. At that age, he took a trio of graded stakes over six and seven furlongs--the GIII Spectacular Bid Breeders' Cup S., GIII Swale S. and GIII Lafayette S.--and was four times graded-stakes placed, confirming his place as one of the best sprinters of his generation when running Desert Stormer to a neck in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint on his last racecourse appearance.

Mr. Greeley retired to stand at Dixiana Farm, Lexington, Kentucky (he moved with the other Dixiana stallions and management team to Spendthrift Farm for 2001), at a fee of $10,000, which has now risen to $25,000 for the current season. Like his sire, Gone West, Mr. Greeley wasn't an instant hit with his first juveniles, although 10 of his first crop two-year-olds were winners. However, that first crop proved their worth with time, producing four stakes winners, including the extremely talented El Corredor, winner of four graded stakes, including the GI Cigar Mile H., and the multiple-stakes winning and graded-stakes placed Lucky Livi. Mr. Greeley's second crop has so far produced five stakes winners, and is headlined by Celtic Melody, winner of the GI Humana Distaff S. at Churchill Downs on Kentucky Derby day; GII American Derby winner Fan Club's Mister; and Reel Buddy, unbeaten in three starts, two in stakes events in England this year, and currently pointing for the G1 Golden Jubilee S. (formerly Cork and Orrery S.) at Royal Ascot.

Nonsuch Bay and the OBS Championship S. winner Bronze Autumn are stakes winners from Mr. Greeley's third crop, which are currently three-year-olds and include several impressive maiden special weight and allowance winners. Nonsuch Bay's dam, Brighter Than Gold, is a minor winner by Light Idea. This son of Majestic Light won three of 10 starts, for earnings of $11,284. Standing in Ohio, he has sired 13 crops and just three stakes winners, the best of which is Brighter Than Gold's full sister, Light's Question, a multiple-stakes winner in restricted Ohio-bred company. The female family hasn't been an exalted one in recent generations either, as prior to the appearance of Nonsuch Bay, Light's Question was the only stakes winner to have been produced by Nonsuch Bay's first four dams. We can note, however, that Brighter Than Gold's first foal (Nonsuch Bay is her second), What's Up Dog, by another Mr. Prospector-line sire, Roy, finished fifth to City Zip, Yonaguska and Macho Uno in the GI Hopeful S.

Nonsuch Bay's pedigree represents a duplication of Raise a Native in the tail-male line of the sire and broodmare sire via Raise a Native's very different sons: Mr. Prospector and Majestic Light. This cross has produced at least 18 unrestricted stakes winners, including two-graded scorers by Mr. Greeley's sire, Gone West, as well as Grade I winners Gold Fever and Mahogany Hall, and other graded-stakes winners King Cugat, Life's Luck and Petionville. Various forms of Raise a Native duplications also appear in Mr. Greeley stakes winners El Corredor (who is inbred to Mr. Prospector), Dr. Lewis and Lovewithoutend.

Nonsuch Bay's dam is also inbred 3x4 to Hail to Reason, with one strain coming through Proud Clarion; a Hail to Reason/Djeddah cross. Hail to Reason also turns up in the male-line of Mr. Greeley's stakes winners Fan Club's Mister and Bronze Autumn, who is out of a mare by another Hail to Reason/Djeddah cross, Mr. Leader. Hail to Reason is a grandson of Royal Charger, so Proud Clarion and Mr. Leader are bred on very similar lines to Never Bend (by Royal Charger's three-parts brother, Nasrullah out of a mare by Djeddah). Never Bend appears in three of Mr. Greeley's stakes winners, including his Grade I winners El Corredor and Celtic Melody.

KINGMAKER (c, 3, Langfuhr-Esscorrie, by King Pellinore) made a mild bid late to place third in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden over this track Apr. 29 and appeared poised to win his second try with the aid of the added distance. The half to King Corrie (Bold Ruckus), 2X Ch. Sprinter-Can, MSW & GSP, $430,281, took the lead straight out of the gate, repelled the challenge of 9-5 choice Jugal (Salt Lake) on the turn and drew off in the stretch to win by an impressive 10 1/2-length margin. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $14,600. O-M H Sherman. B-Farnsworth Farms (KY). T-Angle Salinas.

STORMY IMPACT (c, 3, Major Impact--Cloudy Spot, by Solar City) ran third and second in a pair of six-furlong Sportsman's maidens Apr. 8 and Apr. 23, respectively, and was sent off the 9-5 chalk to finally get the win. Off to a quick start, the bay was challenged early by second choice Cowboy Junction (Muldoon), but would prove too much for that foe in the stretch, going on to score by an eye-popping 13 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $25,480. O/B-Jerrold Schwartz (KY). T- Frank Kirby.

Monday's Late Results:

BALLA TWINE (f, 4, Twining--Double Wedge {MGISW, $435,522}, by Northern Baby) won three straight earlier this year while racing against lesser company at Oaklawn, but could not carry over that form in three recent starts over that track, including a distant fifth in allowance company Apr. 11. Still searching for her first win at this level, the 9-5 second favorite challenged for the lead through the opening half mile, took command soon after and added to her advantage through the stretch. The chestnut appeared to tire late, but had enough in reserve to hold off 8-5 choice Bonita Rose (Slewacide) by a length at the wire. Lifetime Record: 10-4-1-0, $49,580.

WELD TURNS EYE TO EPSOM

Dermot Weld may run In Time's Eye (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) in the G1 Epsom Derby June 8, Irish Racing online revealed yesterday. Having finished a length second to High Chaparral (Ire) in Sunday's G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown, Paddy Power quoted the maiden at 16-1 for the Epsom Classic. "We are quite happy with him and we will make a decision about Epsom in a fortnight's time, after the Irish Guineas," Weld told Irish Racing online. "But the Derby is definitely being considered. He was getting seven pounds from the winner, but I thought he ran an excellent race. He will improve for the run, but he was only beaten a length by the Derby favourite, so he won't have to improve substantially. He will have learned a lot and he showed he likes that good ground." Weld also explained the poor run of Rum Charger (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) in Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. "She was struck into on both hind legs and she was pretty sore afterwards," he continued. "She even had to be bandaged on the plane coming back. But she is okay now, and in time we will think of her next race."

SHAANMER MAY DODGE ACT

Connections of Shaanmer (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) are keen to avoid taking on Act One (GB) (In the Wings {GB}) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 2. Although Andre Fabre's colt, who was fourth in Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas), was muted as an Epsom Derby contender, his run on Sunday suggested to connections that he would not handle the track there. Fabre explained that he was also keen to avoid Jonathan Pease's unbeaten colt, telling PA Sport: "Shaanmer didn't handle the downhill part of the course at Longchamp, so we ruled Epsom out after Sunday. We were then looking at the Jockey Club instead. However, this isn't an easy option with serious customers like Act One around. So Shaanmer may instead go for the G1 Prix Jean Prat [June 2]."
