ZITO FIELDS TRAVERS TRIO

Trainer Nick Zito will saddle a trio of three-year-olds in the 141st GI Travers S. at Saratoga. There had been some talk of scratching the speedy Miner's Reserve (Mineshaft), who drew the rail, but Ernie Reichard, racing manager for owner Robert LaPenta, said yesterday, "He's going to run. He's in great shape; he ran a great race last time. Personally, I think with post 1, it's an advantage to him, because he'll just go right out and give it his all." The bay set the pace before weakening to be second behind A Little Warm (Stormin Fever) in the GII Jim Dandy S. July 31. The presence of Miner's Reserve in the 1 1/14-mile Travers will ensure sprightly fractions for his late-running stablemates, LaPenta's Ice Box (Pulpit) and Richard Pell's Fly Down (Mineshaft). The runner-up in the GI Kentucky Derby, Ice Box bids to rebound after finishing ninth in the GI Belmont S. and sixth in the GI Haskell Invitational S. Fly Down rallied to an impressive six-length success in the GII Dwyer S. in May and came running late to be second by 3/4 of a length in the Belmont. The 9-5 favorite in the Jim Dandy, he made up some ground in the lane, but wasn't threatening when he steadied in the shadow of the wire. GIII Pegasus S. hero Afleet Express (Afleet Alex) also came from off the pace on a speed-favoring Spa surface in the Jim Dandy, but looked the sharper of the two, motoring into third in the final strides. He should appreciate the added eighth today. "The water's a lot deeper now, but he's doing great--and he'd better be," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "He'll have to run better than he did the last time to win it, there's no doubt about it." Field, p2

Nick Zito Sarah K Andrew

MID UNVEILS $5.5M PREAKNESS BONUS

MI Developments yesterday announced that, beginning in 2011, it will introduce a bonus program for the GI Preakness S. that could be worth $5.5 million to the winning connections. In order to qualify for the program, dubbed Preakness 5.5, a horse must win two designated races at one of MID's other tracks, and then capture the second leg of the Triple Crown. The qualifying races are as follows: the GIII Holy Bull S. or GII Fountain of Youth S. AND the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park; the GII Bob Lewis S. or the GII San Felipe S. AND the GI Santa Anita Derby at Santa Anita; or the GIII El Camino Real S. at Golden Gate AND the Santa Anita Derby. The purse for the Florida Derby will be increased from $750,000 to $1 million. The program will award the winning owner $5 million and the winning trainer $500,000. In the event that the Preakness winner was not eligible for the bonus, but competed in one of the early qualifying races AND ran first, second or third in the Florida Derby or the Santa Anita Derby, the connections will earn the Xpress Bet .55 consolation prize that awards $500,000 to the winning owner and $50,000 to the winning trainer. The winning rider, if also aboard for a victory in a qualifying race, will receive the $100,000 AmTote Jockey Bonus. In addition, a bonus program for fillies racing in the GII Black Eyed Susan S. will be announced by the Maryland Jockey Club Oct. 1.

Get Stormy won for the seventh time in his last eight trips to the races, coming from just off the pace for an easy victory here. A two-time winner at the meet last year, including a first black-type badge in the Lure S., the flashy bay colt ran his winning streak to five in the May 22 Elkwood S. at Monmouth Park, but faltered to finish fourth over good Woodbine turf in the GII King Edward S. June 27. He rediscovered his winning ways last time out, recovering from a stumble at the start to wire the field in the GII Fourstardave H. Aug. 1. Content to concede the front end to National Kid (Brz) (Dodge) after getting away cleanly this time around, Get Stormy responded when asked the question by jockey Javier Castellano leaving the quarter pole and quickened up nicely to score by a comfortable margin. "He's the type of horse you can do whatever you want with him," Castelano said. "When I pushed the button, he took off. He had a lot left in the end. I was excited for him today because this was a mile and an eighth race. The question was if he could handle the distance, and he did." PAC-10 CLASSIC

A wide-open field of 10 are slated to do battle in today's GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar. Defending champion Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), a close seventh in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 27, enters off a pair of third-place finishes in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup H. July 10 and GIII Cougar II H. July 30. The Zabeel Racing colorbearer has posted a trio of bullets since, including a four-furlong move in :46 4/5 at Del Mar Aug. 23. "He's training well for it," trainer Bob Baffert told Daily Racing Form. "He likes the distance. A mile and a quarter is his deal." Seven-year-old Awesome Gem (Awesome Again) makes his fourth straight appearance in this rich event off the heels of a career high in the Hollywood Gold Cup. All four of Hold Me Back (Giant's Causeway)'s career wins have come over the all-weather, including Woodbine's GIII Dominion Day H. last out July 1.

Dakota Phone (Zavata), two-for-two over the Del Mar Poly including a last-to-first tally over Battle of Hastings (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) in the GII San Diego H. July 31, represents the Jerry Hollendorfer barn, successful in last weekend's GI Alabama S. at Saratoga with Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision). "He's training great," Hollendorfer told DRF. "He didn't train well here last summer. His ankles were flaring up, his feet were bothering him. I think he's ready, but I know it's a tough race." Favored on the morning-line is The Usual Q. T. (Unusual Heat), a multiple Grade I hero on grass who is winless in the three attempts over man-made surfaces. The GI Eddie Read H. victor was ninth as the even-money favorite in his last foray over the all-weather in the Sunshine Millions Classic Jan. 30.

The speedy Smiling Tiger seeks his third straight score following tallies in Hollywood's GIII Lazaro Barrera Memorial S. May 22 and Del Mar's GI Bing Crosby S. Aug. 1. The chestnut placed third behind champion Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) over this track in last term's GII Best Pal S. and GI Del Mar Futurity. Crown of Thorns makes his first start since losing by a whisker in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Nov. 7. The lightly campaigned five-year-old has been training smartly for his return, working six furlongs in a bullet 1:11 at Del Mar Aug. 8. Canadian invader El Brujo was fourth behind Smiling Tiger in the Bing Crosby in his local debut. The blinkers come off for this.

The globe-trotting sprinter Scenic Blast returns to grass following a strong second-place finish in the GI Bing Crosby S. Aug. 1. The six-year-old gelding, second in his only other attempt at this distance in the 2007 G1 Age Caulfield Guineas in Australia, seeks his first victory since the 2009 G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot. California-bred Bruce's Dream steps up to the big leagues after winning five of his first six starts. The gray enters off a narrow success in the restricted California Dreamin' H. July 25. Enriched earned a gaudy 111 Beyer Speed Figure in an impressive allowance victory over the Hollywood turf May 22, and subsequently rolled a pair of three's in the GI Eddie Read S. July 24 and the GI San Diego H. over the Del Mar Polytrack seven days later.

Nearly three months ago, D'Funnybone stamped himself as the nation's leading sophomore sprinter when he defeated Discreetly Mine by 3 1/4 lengths in the GII Woody Stephens S. at Belmont June 5 to go with earlier triumphs in the GII Swale S. and GII Hutcheson S. However, the burly chestnut was up-ended at 1-10 when he returned to his original Calder base for the GII Carry Back S. July 10 and got caught in the final strides. Discreetly Mine has secured morning-line favoritism here off two sharp victories in the GIII Jersey Shore S. at Monmouth July 4 and the GII Amsterdam S. over this strip

Discreetly Mine
Adam Coglianesse

Aug. 2 (video). But the connections of D'Funnybone--who announced himself a year ago with a big win in the GII Saratoga Special S.--are confident their charge can get back on top in the division. "I've got to figure we're as live as [Discreetly Mine] is," said trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. "I'm not afraid of running against him again. He's probably a better horse than when D' Funnybone beat him, but I would expect he would beat him again." Owner Paul Pompa Jr. added, "He was a big favorite at Calder and wasn't able to get it done. Maybe it was the weather, but since he's gotten up to Saratoga, he's really been on his toes." Hurricane Ike faces the starter for the first time since capturing the GIII Derby Trial S. in the slop at Churchill Apr. 24. Bulldogger, sidelined following an impressive maiden win on the Travers undercard last season, bounced back from another hiatus to land a local first-level allowance Aug. 14 (video). "He came out of his race really well," said trainer Bob Baffert. There's no secret to Bulldogger's tactics. "He's speed--he's one-dimensional," Baffert pointed out.

Third in this event over a muddy strip last year, champion Informed Decision will have her preferred fast track this time around. The grey was six-for-seven during her Eclipse Award-winning season, then opened 2010 with third-place finishes in the Apr. 8 GI Madison S. and May 1 GI Humana Distaff S. A head in front at the wire as the 1-5 chalk in the July 4 GIII Chicago H., she went gate to wire to take the July 27 Windward S. on the Presque Isle synthetic last time out. "She's moving well, she looks strong, sharp and happy," trainer Jonathan Sheppard said. After winning five-of-eighth against fellow New York-breds, Rightly So made her open-company bow in the May 29 GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont and, after cutting out a fast pace, held well to be second by a half-length. The four-year-old zipped through a half in :44 4/5 and six panels in 1:09 1/5 in the July 5 GII Bed o'Roses H. going seven panels, and held off Qualia by a head. She'll be tough to catch if she gets loose on the lead again here. Devil By Design, two-for-three at the Spa and the only member of the field with a win at the track, has won three of her last four starts. She exits a victory in the July 29 Lucy Scribner S. over track and trip.

Phola, a half-length behind Proviso (GB) (Dansili {GB}) when second in the GI Just a Game S. at Belmont Park June 5, was beaten just 1 1/4 lengths by that rival when sixth in the GI Diana S. July 31. The dark bay filly kicked off the year with three straight victories, including the May 1 GII Distaff Turf Mile S. at Churchill, and should have enough pace in front of her to maximize her late kick. Maram, a half-length from the win when fifth in the Diana, pressed the pace in that nine-panel test. She is three-for-four at the Ballston Spa distance, and two-for-three on the Saratoga spinach. Miss Keller took a Keeneland allowance in April before running third in the Distaff Turf Mile. Second in the GII Nassau S. June 5 at Woodbine, she comes off a one-length score in the one-mile De La Rose S. at the Spa Aug. 4.

Main Aim heads a depleted field for this usually informative race and tackles a mile for the first time since finishing fourth in last year's G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot. Successful four times over one panel shorter, most recently when retaining his title in Haydock's G3 John of Gaunt S. May 29, he looked in need of this trip when staying on into fourth over that one in the July 27 G2 Lennox S. at Goodwood. Last year's G2 Champagne S. winner Poet's Voice proved his stamina for this trip when making up ground hand-over-fist and ultimately failing by a nose to catch Sea Lord (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in Salisbury's G3 Sovereign S. last time Aug. 12. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "He has come out of that race in good shape and has been working well. We will see how much rain there is ahead of Saturday, but he would ideally prefer good ground."

George Washington's lone progeny Date With Destiny recorded a smooth debut success over this trip at Newbury July 9. The filly represents Richard Hannon, who said, "We have no idea whether Date With Destiny will handle soft ground, but there is only one way to find out. There were mixed messages of the form of the Newbury race, but she could not have done the job better and this is the natural progression."

Theyskens' Theory impressed when beating subsequent winner Blue Bunting (Dynaformer) by five lengths over this trip at Newmarket July 31.

Katy Now made it three in a row in an optional claimer going six furlongs at Belmont May 28, then stretched out for the 1 1/16-mile GI Mother Goose S. A well-backed 9-2, she dashed off a half in :45 2/5 and six furlongs in 1:09 4/5 before tiring to be a distant fourth adrift of Devil May Care (Malibu Moon). She turns back to a sprint, but must overcome the outside post. Worstcasescenario lived up to her name when stumbling badly at the break in the July 29 Lucy Scribner S. at Saratoga. The bay, who captured the GI Adirondack S. over this track last summer, recovered well enough to be third, and rates another chance. Beyondallboundaries bids for her third in a row after taking a Churchill allowance June 18 and the Dearly Precious S. at Monmouth July 23.

NEWS TODAY

CAL BETTING BILL STALLED According to Daily Racing Form, the bill that would increase the takeout on some exotic wagers in California and legalize exchange wagering in the state is currently stalled in committee. The California legislature is scheduled to adjourn Aug. 31, but the session could be extended, as the state budget has not yet been passed. There are factions from the racing industry on both sides of the legislation, with the horsemen, the California Horse Racing Board, Del Mar, Hollywood Park and Oak Tree Racing Association voicing their support. Santa Anita and Churchill Downs, both of which are owned by companies that operate advance-deposit wagering platforms, have issued statements in opposition to the exchange wagering component of the bill. DRF reported that the bill could be divided to allow a separate vote on exchange wagering and the takeout increase.

TDN Q & A

‘EXCHANGE’ RATES A CHANCE

A fight is brewing in California over AB2414, a bill currently before the state’s legislature that would, among other things, bump up the percentage of takeout on certain exotic bets. More significantly, AB2414 could pave the way for a new type of wagering platform in the U.S.: exchange wagering. Made popular in Great Britain and Australia by operations like Betfair, exchange wagering is a system in which bettors can wager against each other on things like which horse will win--or even lose--a race (click here for a detailed description of betting exchanges).

The California Horse Racing Board (CHRB), Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC), and California Thoroughbred Breeders Association (CTBA) all support the bill. But the measure has its opponents, too. Magna Entertainment, which owns Santa Anita Park and Golden Gate Fields, as well as the advanced deposit wagering (ADW) service XpressBet, and Churchill Downs, Inc., which owns the ADW TwinSpires.com, have come out against it.

One company keeping a close eye on the proceedings is Betfair, which established a presence in the U.S. when it purchased TVG, the television network and ADW, in January of 2009 for $50 million. Earlier this week, the TDN’s Lucas Marquardt sat down to a phone interview with Stephen Burn, director of Horse Racing at Betfair and CEO of TVG, to talk about AB2414, funding purses through exchange wagering, and his personal feelings on racing.

AMERICAN GRADED STAKES COMMITTEE RULING

LAKE PLACID S.: In accord with American Graded Stakes Committee policy, the Aug. 22, 2010, renewal of the Grade II Lake Placid S., scheduled for the Saratoga turf course, but switched to the main track, was automatically downgraded to Grade III status and was conducted as a Grade III stakes race. The American Graded Stakes Committee has reviewed the off-the-turf renewal and has determined that the original Grade II status will NOT be reinstated for this renewal.

This bill has caused a good deal of controversy, including a strong denouncement by Magna and Churchill Downs.

I think it’s important to keep in mind that this is a consensus bill, first and foremost. There’s been a lot of work put into it by an awful lot of people, starting a significant time ago. And there’s really only one organization that has any kind of California base at all that is objecting to the bill as it currently stands, and that’s Magna. The only other opponent that I’m aware of is Churchill Downs. Magna, throughout the process, have been involved in helping to draft the bill, and have seen earlier versions of it and various amendments to it since probably April, I think, when they were first circulated. So it feels a little scurrilous and disingenuous to try and suggest something’s being crafted at the last minute.

Stephen Burn

All the bill is, AB2414, is an enabler for a betting exchange to be brought into California at such a time when the racing establishment and the operator can come together and agree on the particulars. It doesn’t matter if the legislature authorizes a betting exchange; nothing can happen if the CHRB isn’t comfortable with the rules and regulations, without the owners agreeing to terms that suit them, without the track operators or fairs agreeing to terms. Lots of factions in the industry will have to come together subsequently on the commercial and regulatory model.

The thing is, if Magna doesn’t want this at their tracks, they never have to have it. Not only do they have a full veto on their own tracks, but they could stop exchange betting in the state when their track is operating. There are a number of safeguards built in. Their main motivation is to secure their business model as much as possible. I don’t blame them for it, and we certainly understand what they’re doing--I just wish they were being honest about what they’re doing. Churchill just paid a significant amount of money for YouBet, and they have TwinSpires, and that’s the main competitor to TVG’s ADW business. And obviously Magna has XpressBet.

We want to find the optimal pricing model that works for the sport, for the horse owners, ultimately the breeder, so that the right money goes back into purses or wherever it's required in order to help the sport prosper. Because without a healthy sport, we don't have a business. But also, crucially, we need to make sure something is competitively priced for the customer, the bettor. In the U.S., we're probably only talking about the win wagers. We're not talking about cannibalizing the Pick 6 pools or whatever. It's a model that works on the win, place and show markets. It's not very good going into other markets beyond that.

Perhaps from a lack of understanding, some here in the U.S. look at exchange wagering as something that could attract an undesirable element to the windows.

Betfair is particularly proud of its audit trail. We've been pioneers in the world on trying to shine a spotlight on nefarious activities in the horse racing industry, or indeed in any other sports betting industry. It is absolutely paramount to us that cheats aren't allowed to prosper, so we developed something called the Bet Monitor with British Racing, and we give access to the regulators to our trading when they have any concerns about betting patterns. There is a full and explicit audit trail, and that data can be shared with them.

Ironically, on the integrity side, it's the sort of thing I want to bring to more pari-mutuel wagering in the U.S. I have some concerns about the origin of money that is being put into tote pools. For instance, there's no audit trail right now. Anyone could effectively walk about to a track window with $100,000 in cash, and no one is going to ask where that money came from. We take issues like fraud and money laundering incredibly seriously. We welcome regulation, because we think, ultimately, customers get a degree of comfort when that happens.

Parting thoughts?

Honestly, passionately, looking you in the eye over a telephone, I'm a horse bettor and an owner of very bad horses. I've kept them going for a very long time and they're absolutely hopeless, but I do it enthusiastically and I completely love it. And I don't ever want to be in a situation where I do things underhandedly with racing. I want to do something for the long-term good of the sport. This is not a silver bullet. It's not going to cure or kill or fix all the problems that we have in the U.S. and elsewhere, but it is potentially an exciting tool that I think is worth a shot. It might just galvanize people and give them the same buzz about racing that I get every time I go to the track by offering the kind of product and innovation that younger people seem to be attracted by. It was a real sense of excitement to it, and I think we have a proven track record in markets where we've operated, and not cannibalizing the "old-fashioned" betting products. The UK totes sitting alongside us have grown 54 percent since Betfair came along, and that was an ailing, dying business.

RACETRACK Round-Up

Karelian on the Mend...

Eight-year-old Karelian (Bertrando--Leaning Tower, by Theatrical {Ire}), hero of this spring's GI Maker's Mark Mile S. at Keeneland, has been released from Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, according to Thoroughbred Times. The Green Lantern Stables homebred suffered multiple fractures as well as a dislocated fetlock during a Keeneland workout in mid-July. Dr. Larry Bramlage performed the lengthy surgery on the gelding. "If I handed Karelian a script to follow from the beginning he could not have done better," Bramlage told the publication. "He responded well to treatment, regained the blood supply to his foot, and has progressed without complications. Though not totally out of the woods, his fetlock joint fusion is progressing well. His pastern support is holding up nicely, and he is getting more comfortable day by day." Bramlage continued, "Also importantly the [left front] foot shows no evidence of overload laminitis, which we always worry about. This is truly a humanitarian mission for his owners. He was good to them and they are just anxious to have him around to live out his days in his home paddock." Karelian won 10 of 22 starts and bankrolled $788,675 for trainer Rusty Arnold.

Trickmeister was purchased by IEAH Stables off a front-running score in the July 10 Barbaro S. at Delaware Park, with an eye on the Midsummer Derby. He was entered for this restricted spot instead, and, following this performance, may have connections thinking they zigged when they should have zagged. A half-length winner on his May 25 debut over six furlongs of Delaware Park's main track, the bay added a 4 3/4-length allowance win going that same distance June 19, earning the  "TDN Rising Star"  moniker. He upheld his lofty reputation in the Barbaro, where jockey Gabriel Saez dropped anchor through six furlongs in 1:14 2/5 and outkicked his rivals to the line. Even-money in his Saratoga unveiling, Trickmeister bobbed a bit at the break, then went up to set the pace from Our Dark Knight while well off the inside on the clubhouse turn. He went along easily up front, clicking off a half in :46.58 and three-quarters in a demanding 1:10.41. With Our Dark Knight hard at it and now three lengths behind at the head of the lane, Trickmeister was cracked once by Gomez and coasted home under little subsequent encouragement. And, if you believe trainer Rick Dutrow Jr., the best is yet to come. "Even though this looked very impressive today, he's better than this," the conditioner said. "He's got talent, but we just have to straighten him out. If we get him right and he starts training unbelievably, we can pick whatever spot we want." The $1-million GII Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 25 could mark Trickmeister's next spot.

Third in the GI Carter H. and GI Met Mile in 2009, Driven by Success crushed a field of open second-level allowance foes by six lengths going this distance down at Belmont Park May 31 and added a 3 1/4-length tally against state-bred $100,000 optional claimers July 1. His mini winning streak came to an end in his latest when a clear second to Endless Circle (Precise End) in the Aug. 5 John Morrissey S. contested over a sloppy strip. He gave his backers not one moment of worry this time around, leading through easy splits before leaving them in the dust through the final furlong. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

+ EXCITED (f, 2, Giant's Causeway--Path of Thunder {SW, $246,170}, by Thunder Gulch) hinted at some affinity for this surface with a bullet five-eighths move around the turf dogs in 1:00 4/5 July 28 and was dispatched the 7-2 third choice to open her account at first asking. Using the inside draw to her best advantage, Excited saved every inch of turf into and up the backstretch as they went a glacial half in :51.44. Still tucked away inside after three-quarters in 1:15.90, Excited was blocked behind a wall of horses from the quarter pole to midstretch, but found a seam and finished fast for a half-length victory. Mirimichi Babe (Milwaukee Brew) closed nicely at 40-1 to complete a $307 exacta. Excited is the first foal to race from her dam, a $1.2-million KEESEP yearling who is a full sister to GI Breeders' Cup Distaff upsetter Spain. BRAMPTON (f, 3, Smart Strike--Honor Point, by Honor Grades) was forced into a four-wide journey after departing from the 10 hole in her June 13 bow going six grassy furlongs at Belmont June 13, and nearly got the job done after all that, missing by three-parts of a length in second. Favored here at 27-10, the Shields homebred set a pressured pace, going the opening quarter in :21.26 and the half in :44.46. She had the license to tire from those efforts, but stayed on gamely late and lasted for a 1 1/4-length victory over the debuting Jazz Life (Brz) (Gilded Time). The winner is out of a half-sister to Shields's talented Puzzlement (Pine Bluff), winner of the GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H. back in 2003. FAVORITE HOUR (c, 2, Tiznow--Favorite Times {SP}, by Souvenir Copy) finished a ground-saving third going six furlongs over the Belmont turf course July 11, but found plenty of traffic woes in a 6 1/2-furlong main-track maiden at the Spa Aug. 7, checking in a distant seventh. Trying synthetic and two turns for the first time in his career, the $155,000 KEESEP yearling purchase settled in centerfield for the opening six panels, rallied four deep at the quarter pole and got the better of a long stretch drive to score by a neck over War Whoop (War Front) at odds of 3-1. NTRA Events to Be Held at Symposium Annually:

The University of Arizona's Race Track Industry Program's Symposium on Racing and Gaming National has been announced as the permanent site for the Thoroughbred Racing Association's Annual Meeting, and its Marketing Summit. This year's Symposium will be held Dec. 6-9 in Tucson, Arizona. "By scheduling their meetings in conjunction with the Symposium, organization leaders take advantage of having a large number of industry representatives already in attendance, providing opportunities for discussion of issues and sharing of ideas between tracks, jurisdictions and suppliers," said Doug Reed, Director of the Race Track Industry Program. "In this day and age, it makes even more sense to have everyone at the same place at the same time."

Eight New Members for Jockey Club:

The Jockey Club yesterday announced that eight new members had been added to the roster. They are: Antony Beck, Adele Dilschneider, John Ferguson, Joe Ford, Craig Fravel, William M. Lear Jr., Chris McCarron and Arnold Zetcher.

DONCASTER TARGET FOR PETER MARTINS

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Peter Martins (Johannesburg) is set to race at the Doncaster St Leger Festival, trainer Jeremy Nosedo announced yesterday. Despite his planned racecourse gallop at Newmarket canceled yesterday, Earle Mack's five-length Newmarket debut winner remains on course for alternative targets in the second week of September. "My plan had been to work him here today, but after all the rain the ground would have been softer than I'd have liked," his conditioner explained. "We'll train him at home, see how he is and look at the [Sept. 11] G2 Champagne S. or the conditions race on the Friday and make the next step from there. He's in great order, I'm delighted with how he's gone after his first race and his attitude is good."

CELEBRATION CARD SURVIVES Today's fixture at Goodwood has been given the green light following the abandonment of Thursday's meet. Clerk of the Course Seamus Buckley carried out an inspection yesterday morning and reported the track fit again ahead of the G2 Celebration Mile and G3 Prestige S. "The going is soft and we are perfectly raceable," he told PA Sport. "We had just two millimetres of rain since midnight and there is no more standing water on the track."

 + SEATTLE DRIVE (IRE) (c, 2, Motivator {GB}--Seattle Ribbon, by Seattle Dancer) raced in rear after an early bump. Making smooth headway from halfway, the 33-1 outsider challenged at the distance and quickened smartly in the closing stages to account for Fulgur (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) by two lengths. Utley, a half brother to Rainbow View (Dynaformer), raced prominently throughout and kept on at the same pace in the latter stages to finish fifth. The winner is a 3/4-sibling to Snoqualmie Boy (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), SW & GSP-Eng, $155,352; and Snoqualmie Girl (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), MSW & GSP-Eng, $127,528. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,533.
