'ANIMAL' FAVORED IN PREAKNESS PARTY

Team Valor International's GI Kentucky Derby hero Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) has been installed as the 2-1 morning line favorite for Saturday's GI Preakness S. The chestnut drew the 11 hole as he continues his Triple Crown quest. "Considering what was left--the one or the 14--I'm very happy," said trainer Graham Motion. "I'm would rather be on the outside than stuck down on the inside."

Graham Motion with Kathleen and Barry Irwin

Motion added that the colt was in fine fettle. "I'd like to say he's doing even better [than before the Derby]," the Englishman commented. "I'm not trying to be cute, but he hasn't missed a meal since. I couldn't be happier." Motion confirmed that the 3-year-old will van over to Pimlico from Fair Hill Training Center Saturday morning. "I've got seven or eight others running that day, and they're all shipping in in the morning. I'd rather leave him in his stall until he has to leave."

Close Call...

Robert LaPenta's Dialed In (Mineshaft) will be directly to the left of Animal Kingdom, having drawn post 10. In line for a huge payday should he win the Preakness, Dialed In ran eighth as the favorite in the Kentucky Derby after breaking tardily. He is 9-2 on the morning line. "He should be in the clear, and [jockey] Julien [Leparoux] should be able to get over and get in a good spot," trainer Nick Zito told HRTV. "He hasn't lost any credibility [after the Derby]. He's a wonderful horse. I'm pretty sure, if he comes with his run, it will be a different story this time. Nick Zito believes that Dialed In is still the best 3-year-old in the country. I believe that in my heart." The GI Florida Derby hero was in a Zenyatta-like spot early during the "Run for the Roses," but put up a final :23.79 quarter to finish eighth. "It wasn't his fault," Zito added. "A horse came over and he got squeezed back, and that cost him a few lengths. And, with the pace, the rest is history." Full Preakness field, p2-3

Elizabeth & John Fort

PEACHTREE STABLES- Flashpoint
Once a top-ranked amateur polo player, South Carolina native John P. Fort attended college at USC, graduating with an English degree. Fort worked as a school teacher after college, but left that career to get involved in racing in 1976. He set up a farm in South Carolina, and learned the ins-and-outs of the business under the guidance of Hall of Fame trainers Max Hirsch and Woody Stevens. In 1981, he moved his stable to Atlanta, GA, and founded the partnership group Peachtree Racing Stable Inc. Among their rising stars is GI Kentucky Oaks winner Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro). Fort currently maintains a farm in Kershaw County, SC.

Patti & Dean Reeves

REEVES THOROUGHBRED RACING & DREAM TEAM ONE - Mucho Macho Man Dean Reeves, CEO of Reeves Contracting, and his wife Patti, who owns Reeves Media, formed a racing partnership in 2009; they are from Atlanta, GA. The Royal Treatment...

With the majority of GI Preakness S. starters slated to arrive at Pimlico late on Wednesday, the place to be yesterday morning was Fair Hill Training Center, current digs of GI Kentucky Derby hero Animal Kingdom

Animal Kingdom in action at Fair Hill

(Leroïdesanimaux {Brz}). Located on a breathtaking piece of property in Cecil County, Maryland, the facility--a scenic 15-minute drive off I-95 and about 60 miles from Pimlico--is spread out over 350 stunning acres, with an additional 5,600 acres of state land adjoining.

On a damp, overcast morning with temperatures in the 60s following another night of rain, media packed the wooden-framed clocker's stand as Animal Kingdom departed Graham Motion's barn shortly before 9 a.m. Team Valor principal and former Turf writer Barry Irwin fit right in among the crowd of approximately 30 as the sun tried to peak through the threatening dark clouds while Motion walked with a set of trainees, keeping a close eye on the big horse.

With the Fair Hill main track left saturated, Animal Kingdom, accompanied by a stable pony, made his way through the underground tunnel to the all-weather Tapeta inner track. The chestnut, sporting a white Preakness saddle cloth, was curious to see what all the fuss was about when jogging by the clocker's stand for the first time, but was all business throughout his strong 1 3/4-mile gallop. Irwin, rocking his regular shades and a flashy yellow striped cap, was the first to exit the stand once the GIII Vinery Racing Spiral S. winner's work was complete. Motion patiently awaited Animal Kingdom's return from the track, then led the cavalry charge on foot back through the adjacent woods to his shedrow just before 9:30 a.m.

Irwin held court outside of the barn as Animal Kingdom cooled out under the watchful eye of his trainer. How has the homebred handled all of the attention since winning the Run for the Roses? Apparently, quite well. He wouldn't go back to the barn after grazing in front of a crowd on Tuesday until a pony came out to get him, per Irwin.

"He thinks he's running the show, and he probably is," Irwin deadpanned.

Motion was up next to meet the press, politely directing the group away from the barn entrance as horses continued to make their way to and from the track. The affable conditioner had some fun discussing Animal Kingdom's demeanor as well, explaining how the sophomore wouldn't turn around in his stall when a Congressman came to visit the other day.

"He must be a Democrat," Motion said with a smile.

PIMLICO RE-ACCREDITED BY NTRA SAFETY & INTEGRITY ALLIANCE

Pimlico Race Course earned full re-accreditation from the NTRA Safety and Integrity Alliance this week, following a complete review of all racing operations at the Baltimore facility. Host to the Preakness Stakes on Saturday, Pimlico joins Keeneland Race Course and Churchill Downs in achieving Alliance re-accreditation in 2011. The Alliance's full accreditation is effective for two years.

The Alliance promotes the safety of racing's human and equine athletes and protects the integrity of the sport through a rigorous Code of Standards and the accreditation process. The Code covers six broad areas and is updated annually with new standards and protocols to continually raise the bar for accreditation.

The re-accreditation process began with Pimlico completing an extensive 48-page written application and was followed by on-site meetings between Pimlico representatives and Alliance officials, who also conducted thorough inspections of the racing facility.

Pimlico earned "Best Practice" commendation in the areas of infectious disease control protocols; veterinarian's list protocols; substance abuse/addiction program; and wagering security, including stop-wagering protocols.

Sixteen additional racetracks are scheduled to go through the Alliance's re-accreditation process in 2011.

For more information contact Mike Ziegler, director of NTRA Safety & Integrity Alliance, (800) 792-6872, ext. 668 or visit www.NTRAalliance.com.

Sunday, Kranji Racecourse, Singapore SINGAPORE AIRLINES INTERNATIONAL CUP-G1, S$3,000,000, 3yo/up, 2000mT

Globetrotting Presvis (GB) (Sakhee) took the Kranji turf for the first time since his arrival last Sunday and will look to register his first win in the Cup at his third attempt. The reigning G1 Dubai Duty Free S. winner was a head second behind Gloria de Campeao (Brz) (Impression {Arg}) in 2009, but could do no better than a midpack fifth, six lengths behind Lizard's Desire (SAf) (Lizard Island {Aus}) last year.

Presvis Singapore Turf Club

"He had an easy gallop over six (furlongs) on the grass and I was very happy with that," said assistant-trainer Charlie Henson after watching Presvis cover his final three furlongs in a steady :37.8. "I would say he's about the same as how he was last year and the previous year when he came for the SIA Cup. It will be canter tomorrow and we'll see how he is before deciding if he needs any more work." Presvis exits a sixth in the G1 Champions Mile Apr. 25 and should enjoy the additional distance of this event.

Wigmore Hall (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who defeated Presvis into third in the G2 Jebel Hatta Mar. 3, has overcome a minor hiccup since he touched down in Singapore and had his first bit of serious work Wednesday. "We had a bit of a scare [when he pulled a shoe on Monday], but he's all good now," said Gillian Dolman, travelling head lass for trainer Michael Bell. "He was fine, no problem at all. If anything he was a little fresh after his day off yesterday, but I'm happy enough with him now. I'm going to put on these overreach boots on him now--just to be safe." Wigmore Hall was 11th last time out in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin over the SIA Cup distance in a race which was not run to suit his style.

Chinchon (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) has had just one run this season, a fifth to Rewilding (Ire) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 26, did not exactly have his mind on training Wednesday morning. "He refused to head out to the track this morning," said Stephane Laurent Duprey, groom and track rider to trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias. "He did eventually when someone came along and led him out, and we just had a nice hack over 1000 meters afterwards. I wished I had a pony like in the U.S. It's not a great game when you need to coax your horse to work like that." Chinchon's most important win came in last year's GI United Nations S. at Monmouth Park.

Sunday, Kranji Racecourse, Singapore
SINGAPORE AIRLINES KRISFLYER INTERNATIONAL SPRINT-G1, S$1,000,000, 3yo/up, 1200mT

Jockey Glen Boss took former world champion sprinter Sacred Kingdom (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) for a test drive for the first time Wednesday morning as the Hong Kong raider attempts to land the KrisFlyer for the second time in the last three years. The 2009 winner has been ridden at home by Brett Prebble, but when rumors began to fly that connections were looking for a new rider, Boss stepped in. The Australian was pleased with what he felt underneath him. "He's a loose, free type of horse," said Boss. "He just oozes class. He has plenty of energy and I will be on him for some fast work. I think he's looking for that. What I felt this morning was good. I can't fault him. He was perfect." Trainer Ricky Yiu was scheduled to arrive Wednesday from Hong Kong to oversee the gelding's final preparations. Post positions for both of Sunday's races will be drawn today.

Nathaniel Could Be Epsom Bound...

Lady Rothschild's Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) could take up his engagement in the June 4 G1 Epsom Derby, trainer John Gosden announced yesterday. Runner-up to Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the May 5 G3 Chester Vase when last seen, the 3/4-brother to the stable's 2004 Derby fourth Percussionist (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) has pleased his conditioner since that 12-furlong trial. "I like him a great deal and he's come on hugely since Chester," Gosden said yesterday. "He had to learn a lot around there, and I'll discuss with the owner if she wants to leave him in the Derby--he would appreciate it if the heavens opened, but it looks like we might not get rain until the autumn."

Galikova on Target for Diane...

Connections of ♀ "TDN Rising Star" ♀ Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) have confirmed that she is set to run in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 12. Impressive on her latest start when winning the G3 Prix Cleopatre May 7, the Wertheimers' half-sister to Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) is on track for the 1 5/16-mile Classic, according to trainer Freddy Head. "We're going to the Prix de Diane with her, and I am very happy with her--she is very well," Head told PA Sport. "It would be great if she could win a Group 1 like her sister. We will see and cross our fingers." The owner/breeders' Racing Manager Pierre-Yves Bureau added, "The filly is very well after her win the other day, and it is going to be very exciting to see her in the Prix de Diane. Hopefully, she will be a challenger to Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was very impressive in the French Guineas. I think the Prix de Diane is going to be a very interesting competition this year. This filly has more stamina than Goldikova, being by Galileo, and she is very different physically. She looks more like a Classic-distance filly. The distance in the Prix de Diane will not be a problem--we will have to see if she is the best or not. That will be the question."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

RACETRACK Round-Up

Toby's Corner Ready to Tack Up...

G1 Wood Memorial S. hero Toby's Corner (Bellamy Road), who was withdrawn from G1 Kentucky Derby consideration five days prior to the race, is set to begin walking under tack today, Daily Racing Form reports. Diane Cotter's homebred resides at trainer Graham Motion's barn at Fair Hill Training Center, along with his Derby-winning stablemate Animal Kingdom (Leroideasanimaux {Brz}). The 3-year-old came out of his final Derby work with some lameness in his right hind leg, but a nuclear bone scan performed Tuesday at the New Bolton Equine Clinic did not show any damage. "We're going to go on with him," Motion told DRF. "We never really found out what was wrong with him."

Coronation Cup Aim for MIDDAY...

Khalid Abdullah's MIDDAY (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) is being targeted at the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom, connections confirmed yesterday. Following the 5-year-old's return success in York's G2 Middleton S. on Wednesday, a return to a mile and a half is on the cards. Juddmonte also have Workforce (GB) (King's Best) engaged in the June 3 contest, which attracted a list of 15 entries after the latest forfeit stage. "MIDDAY is the most likely runner of the two in the Coronation Cup," the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Lord Grimthorpe said. "We were very pleased with her comeback run at York the other day, and Henry [Cecil] says she has done well since then. Workforce may well have already had a race before the Coronation Cup comes around, maybe in something like the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. [at Sandown May 26], so we will have to consider our options with him."

RACE DAY MEDICATION SUMMIT SET

Edited press release

The first "International Summit on Race Day Medication, EIPH and the Racehorse" will take place at Belmont in Elmont, NY, June 13-14. The event is jointly sponsored by the American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP), the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA), and the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC). Day 1 of the Summit on Monday, June 13 will be open to anyone who registers to attend.

The program for the first day will include presentations on the current status of medication issues in racing; an overview of exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhage (EIPH) and its impact upon horse health; management and treatment alternatives for EIPH; and testing issues surrounding treatment for EIPH. These topics will be followed by international panel discussions on regulatory issues surrounding race day medication; veterinary viewpoints on the management of EIPH; and the management of EIPH from a trainer's perspective. Among those scheduled to participate in the summit panel discussions are trainers Kieran McLaughlin (U.S./Dubai), H. Graham Motion (U.S.), John Size (Hong Kong/Australia) and John Gosden (U.K., via prerecorded videotape). Participating veterinarians include John McVeigh (U.K., South Africa, France), Foster Northrop (U.S.), Rod Daniel (U.S./Dubai), Treve Williams (Australia) and Rob Pilsworth (U.K., via prerecorded videotape). Participating regulators include Denis Egan (Ireland), Bill Nader (Hong Kong), Brian Stewart (Hong Kong) and Anthony Stirk (U.K.). An overview of the day's discussions will be presented at the conclusion of the panel discussions. The cost to attend the first day of the summit is $40 per person, with admission including lunch at Belmont. There is no charge on Monday for credentialed media. To register for Day 1 of the Summit or to apply for a media credential, please contact Wyndee Eastham of the NTRA at (859) 422-2603. All attendees must register in advance, and the deadline to register is Thursday, May 26. Day 2 of the Summit, which will feature a facilitated discussion among RMTC members and invited guests, is closed to the public and media. There will be media availability following the conclusion of Day 2.

VINERY MADISON UNDER APPEAL Joan Scott, the trainer of G1 Vinery Madison S. third-place finisher Dr. Zic (Milwaukee Brew), has filed an appeal of a complaint with the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission, saying that the filly that finished second, Amen Hallelujah (Montbrook), should not have been allowed to start in the Apr. 14 race at Keeneland, according to Daily Racing Form. Previously trained by Rick Dutrow Jr., Amen Hallelujah was allowed to start under the name of conditioner Justin Sallusto after an 11th-hour court decision. Dutrow was denied a renewal of his Kentucky trainer's license after entries were taken for the Vinery Madison. Scott had filed a complaint shortly after the race, which was denied, and her appeal will now be heard by the KHRC. Scott is seeking a redistribution of the purse. Dr. Zic, the defending champion in the Vinery Madison, earned $30,000 for finishing third, while Amen Hallelujah took home a $60,000 check.

MISREMEMBERED TO HILL 'N' DALE Recently retired GI Santa Anita H. winner Misremembered (Candy Ride {Arg}--Beyond Perfection, by Quack) will enter stud in 2012 at Hill 'n' Dale. He will stand for $7,500. Bred and trained by Bob Baffert, the chestnut was campaigned by Baffert's wife, Jill, and George Jacobs. The son of MGSW Beyond Perfection won the GI Indiana Derby and GI Swaps S. at three before sealing 2009 with a second in the GI Malibu S., and landed the "Big 'Cap" in 2010. Misremembered compiled a record of 13-6-5-0 and earned $1,306,709. "I have a special affection for the horse because of my connections to his sire, his dam and his owner," said Hill 'n' Dale owner John Sikura. "There is something very special at play. We launched Candy Ride on a meteoric rise to stardom, so I have had a watchful eye on his sons. We are very happy to add Misremembered to our roster, where his good looks and brilliance fit the prototype of a classic sire."

A close-up second in her career bow while trying a sixteenth further at Gulfstream Feb. 20, Savvy Supreme broke through in style in her latest--scoring by 5 1/4 lengths over this distance at the Hallandale oval Apr. 2. Well backed this time, the bay broke a step slow, but soon raced up to poke her head in front, carving out a half mile in :45.56. Narrowly in front at the head of the stretch, the Todd Pletcher trainee was kept under steady encouragement to post her initial black-type success. The filly becomes the 100th stakes winner for Distorted Humor. The WinStar resident stallion is also responsible for the last four NYRA stakes winners. Radiohead came home a winner of Royal Ascot's G2 Norfolk S. before hitting the board in both the G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Middle Park S. later in his juvenile season. In his final start for trainer Brian Meehan, the chestnut was seventh in his U.S. bow in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita. A 3 1/4-length winner against allowance company at Gulfstream in February of 2010, he was a well-beaten ninth in his two latest starts--the GI Florida Derby and eighth in the one-mile Fifth Marine S. over a yielding turf course here Sept. 17. Sent off second choice in this weather-decimated test, Radiohead allowed Papa Bear to set early splits of :22.44 and :45.11, took over from that rival at the head of the stretch and had enough in reserve to hold Temecula Creek at bay at the wire. SANTA (g, 4, Mr. Greeley--Christmas Gift {MGSW, $387,176}, by Green Desert) tired to fourth going a sixteenth further for trainer Todd Pletcher at Gulfstream Jan. 15 before being claimed by Wesley Ward for $35,000 following a second-place finish over that course and trip Feb. 11. In his sole start for Ward, the bay played bridesmaid once again, this time going a mile over the Hallandale turf Apr. 10. Making his debut for his new connections here, the 4-5 choice sped to the front early and never looked back, racing to a 4 3/4-length victory over Silver Rock Star (Rockport Harbor). KHRC Approves Recommendations Proposed to the Kentucky Thoroughbred Breeders' Incentive Fund:

Edited press release

The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission has approved 10 recommendations that will affect the administration of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Breeders' Incentive Fund (KBIF). The recommendations were formed by an advisory committee that met numerous times to review 810 KAR 1:070, which governs KBIF. Committee members considered input from members of the industry and reached a consensus that there should be no discrepancy between awards for breeders winning races at Kentucky tracks versus Kentucky breeders winning races at tracks outside of Kentucky. The recommendations include:

- Removing age restrictions on races outside Kentucky to support longevity in the sport.
- Expand stakes races to races won anywhere in the United States.
- Recognize Woodbine under the USA component.
- Redistribute the Kentucky Claiming component to the top 20 claiming horses with the most wins in Kentucky.
- Expand the international component.
- Move mare nomination deadline to Aug. 15 and reduce the fee from Aug. 16-Dec. 31 of the cover year from $750 to $150.

"The action by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission today signals to the racing industry around the world that Kentucky is open and ready to do business with breeders everywhere," said KHRC Commissioner Frank Jones Jr. "This is a unique program that is enhanced by the actions of the Commission and, we believe, will begin to bring breeders and their stock back to Kentucky where they belong." For a complete listing of the approved recommendations, please visit www.khrc.ky.gov or call 888-KYBREDS.

Off the mark in a mile maiden at Newmarket in September, Beatrice Aurore was too keen when dropping to fifth in an extended 10-furlong handicap at Doncaster on her sophomore debut Apr. 3. Back to a mile and to winning ways in a fillies-only handicap at Salisbury last time May 5, the bay showed she had the requisite staying power for this extra trip to open her black-type account and book a potential Classic ticket. Again free initially, the homebred soon settled for a lead as Highest was sent on to make stamina count. She had saved enough energy to reel in that rival passing the furlong marker. "I couldn't be more impressed with the way she won, but the question is what did she beat," trainer John Dunlop commented. "Ted [Durcan] is dubious about her staying a mile and a half, but I think she will, as they didn't go very fast early on here and she settled very well. I think she's got a bit of class, she acted well around here, and if she was mine, I'd run her in the [June 3, G1] Epsom Oaks--I suspect the owner will want to run there, too." John Gosden said of the second and third, "Highest and Imperial Pippin aren't in the Oaks, but I have no fears about running them both in the G2 Ribblesdale S. [at Royal Ascot June 16]. Highest has improved greatly and is coming on in leaps and bounds, while I missed some work with Imperial Pippin and she wasn't in love with the downhill part here. You'll see the best of them come the autumn." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

MIDSUMMER SUN (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) was scratched from his intended debut at Newbury on Saturday due to the fast ground, and gets easier conditions here as he bids to build on a debut fifth at Newmarket's Craven meeting. Khalid Abdullah's half-brother to leading stable companion Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) meets a pair of significantly bred newcomers in Rishikesh (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire})--a half-brother to Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Ahmad Al Shaikh's Al Khawanej (GB) (Arch)--a son of the 2002 GI E. P. Taylor S. heroine Fraulein (GB) (Acatenango {Ger})--who are saddled by trainers Michael Bell and Ed Dunlop, respectively.

SOLAR SKY (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was an eye-catching second on debut behind stable companion World Domination (Empire Maker) in last month's Newbury maiden, which has already thrown up three winners. Henry Cecil saddles Lordship Stud's half-brother to the millennium G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Love Divine (GB) (Diesis {GB}), who is also the dam of the 2006 St Leger hero and sire Sixties Icon (GB), also by Galileo.

Successful on debut over a mile at Sandown in September, Masked Marvel's bubble burst with a tame effort when sixth in the following month's G3 Autumn S. over that trip at Ascot. He fared little better when fifth on his return in the Apr. 24 G3 Sandown Classic Trial. Held up early off the generous pace here, the bay traveled best entering the straight and, when asked the question, rolled by Namibian and Picture Editor passing the furlong marker en route to a comfortable win. "He's a horse we've always liked; the ground was loose at Ascot last year, and I didn't have him fully tuned for Sandown last time," trainer John Gosden explained. "I'm not sure of the quality of the race, but I like what he's done. He'll be left in the Derby and, although I think Carlton House is outstanding, somebody has to go for the place prizemoney. I've had horses placed at Epsom many times and it's huge on their CVs." Video, courtesy Racing UK.

VERGLAS DIES

The Irish National Stud's 17-year-old resident Verglas (Ire) (Highest Honor {Fr}--Rahaam, by Secreto) died Tuesday as a result of an accident in his stable, the Racing Post revealed. Having been purchased from France after a bright start at stud in 2005, the 1996 G3 Coventry S. winner and 1997 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas runner-up had enjoyed much success, and was standing at a fee of €10,000 this season. "He was very close to us," the Stud's Chief Executive John Osborne told the trade daily. "He made it the hard way and was very popular with breeders." Verglas, who is a half-brother to the high-class sprinter Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire})--later the dam of the 2005 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Nassau S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. heroine Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB})--counted among his progeny 2009 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Silver Frost (Ire), 2006 G1 Prix Jean Prat scorer Stormy River (Fr) and 2004 GII Del Mar Derby hero Blackdown (Fr). Others to fly the flag for the near-white sire include the talented Ozone Bere (Fr) and Glass Harmonium (Ire), who was recently second in the G2 A D Hollindale S. in Australia, where Verglas successfully shuttled in 2003 and 2004. Among his runners to make a splash in that country was Spirited One (Aus), who numbered three stakes on her resume.

TIME OFF FOR TAMAYUZ

Shadwell's stallion Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef--Al Ishq (Fr), by Nureyev) has sustained an injury and will be rested for the remainder of the breeding season, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. With the 2008 G1 Prix Jean Prat and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois winner's first crop due to race next term, the news is a setback to Derrinstown Stud. Manager Stephen Collins told the daily, "He became cast in his box, injuring his left stifle, and was given a month off to recover. He has healed very quickly and is back to 85- or 90% fitness, but as it is late in the season, we have taken the decision to wait until next year when he will be 100%. Sheikh Hamdan visited him recently and he is delighted with his Tamayuz yearlings and foals, and he wanted to bring him back in peak condition next year."

VOCALISED AT REDMONSTOWN

Vocalised (Vindication--Serena's Tune, by Mr. Prospector), winner of the 2009 G3 Tetrarch S., will stand at Jim Bolger's Redmonstown Stud for the remainder of the 2011 season. Also successful in that season's Listed Loughbrown S. and G3 Greenham S., the 5-year-old, whose fee is on application, is a grandson of the stellar racemare and producer Serena's Song (Rahy), from the immediate family of sires Grand Reward and Harlington. "We hope to cover between 40 and 50 mares with him," Ken Bolger told the Racing Post. "He's a rare stallion from the Bold Ruler line and he's a gorgeous-looking horse."

GREAT SOUTHERN WEANLINGS REMAIN

LEVEL The two-day Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale concluded Wednesday with overall figures remaining on par with those of the 2010 event. Over the course of the sale, a total of 292 horses found homes for gross receipts of A$3,014,109. The average of A$10,252 was fractionally off last year's A$10,717. "We were particularly pleased with the prices achieved by the better-quality lots, which attracted serious competition across both days," Inglis Director Peter Heagney said. "But, in keeping with yearling sales across Australia this year, the lower end of the market was much softer. Overall though, we are very happy with the result and pleased to see the clearance rate hit 80% this evening."
