'KATIE' KEEPS ON GOING

Stonestreet Stables's "TDN Rising Star" Kauai Katie (Malibu Moon) had no trouble protecting her unbeaten streak in yesterday's GII Matron S. at Belmont, romping home an effortless 7 1/2-length

Kauai Katie A Mooshian

victress as the prohibitive 1-5 choice. Earning a 100 Beyer Speed Figure for her 12-length debut graduation at Saratoga July 20, the $490,000 Fasig-Tipton Florida buy came into this off a comfortable 2 1/2-length tally in the GII Adirondack S. Aug. 12. Content to concede the early advantage to the fleet-footed Baby J (J Be K), Kauai Katie kept a close eye on that foe from the two path while under a snug hold from Rosie Napravnik. She was given her head after a half in :46.66, and the chalk overtook Baby J with ease and bounded away from her in a laugher. Seasoned Warrior (Majestic Warrior) took third in the field of five. "[Trainer Todd Pletcher] and I talked about [going to the lead] considering our post position gave us options," Napravnik explained. "Katie's always shown that she was ratable, so we figured we'd play the break and, if somebody else wanted it, they were free to have it, but she was so much the best I just couldn't hold her behind them. We just ended up making the lead early and she skipped across the ground. She couldn't have done that any easier." Cont. p3

NO NEED TO 'OVERANALYZE' IN FUTURITY

With the well-stocked arsenal of juveniles at Todd Pletcher's disposal, it should have come as no surprise that Repole Stable's Overanalyze (Dixie Union) would follow in the hoofsteps of Matron winner Kauai Katie two races later in the GII Futurity S. That the winner would pay $13.60? Well, the bettors must have outsmarted themselves. Away sluggishly and cabooing the field early, Overanalyze began to come alive on the turn as four foes were lined up across the track vying for the lead. He was tipped out to the five path by pilot John Velazquez, and kept plugging away to blow past Carried Interest (Henny Hughes) for a convincing 3 1/4-length success. Favored Weekend Hideaway (Speightstown) settled for third in his first try outside of New York-bred company. "He didn't break," explained Velazquez. "I'm thinking he'll come out of there running, and he's on the bit and then the gate opened and the horse next to me went 'vroom.' He closed up really good. You have to be happy with the way he did it. He took a little dirt and came running." Cont. p4

NOT MUCH OF A 'BATTLE' IN BERESFORD

Recording a 12th success for Aidan O'Brien in The Curragh's G2 Juddmonte Beresford S., a Derby pointer and "Win and You're In" qualifier for the Nov. 3 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, Battle of Marengo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) stated his claims for next year's Blue Riband with an uncomplicated staying performance yesterday. Third on debut over seven furlongs at Leopardstown Aug. 9, the bay took a giant leap forward when scoring by 11 lengths in a maiden over that trip at Gowran Park 12 days later. He made all the running in the Listed Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Trial S. over a mile at Leopardstown last time Sept. 8. Taking a lead from Orgilgo Bay (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) here, he was woken up on the home turn and assumed control at the quarter pole en route to a decisive 3 1/2-length score. Orgilgo Bay held second narrowly from Probably (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) "He is tough, as he was not liking that ground," jockey Joseph O'Brien explained. "Wait until he gets better ground in the G1 Racing Post Trophy [at Doncaster Oct. 27] or something like that. He's a very straightforward horse with a great attitude and he's gone the last 100 yards on the bridle. He's done nothing wrong any horse that wins a maiden by 11 lengths, regardless of what type race it is, has to have ability and he proved that today." Cont. p6

MADE IN THE SHADE

Phil Cunningham's Slim Shadey (GB) (Val Royal {Fr}) tugged his way to the lead and forgot to stop in Santa Anita's GII John Henry Turf Championship S. yesterday, besting heavily favored Turbo Compressor (Halo's Image) by 2 1/4 lengths. "He kind of just pulled me around there and stretched me out pretty good, but he still finished well and that's a plus," winning rider Garret Gomez said. "We'll regroup and hopefully be ready for the Breeders' Cup."

Amaron had raced exclusively at stakes level in all seven prior starts and seized his opportunity here to claim a career high in game fashion. Successful in the Listed Oppenheim-Rennen on debut at Cologne in July last year, he bagged Baden-Baden's G3 Zukunfts-Rennen the following month, and closed his juvenile campaign with a third in the prestigious G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten back by the Rhine Oct. 16. Amaron regained the winning thread when opening this semester with victory in the Apr. 22 G3 Dr Busch Memorial at Krefeld, but slipped to fourth in Longchamp's May 12 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains before running 12th in a rough renewal of the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 2. The chestnut lined up for this third try at the top tier coming off a fifth in the Aug. 30 G2 Oettingen-Rennen back at Baden-Baden. Positioned in a stalking second behind Silent Killer (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) for much of the contest, the eventual winner was relegated to third when coming under pressure with three furlongs remaining. Answering every call issued by Mirco Demuro thereafter, he battled his way to the front inside the final eighth and kept enough in reserve to withstand the late thrusts of Amarillo and Monami to lead home a German-trained trifecta.

"It was the first time she's been behind someone in the early part of the race," Todd Pletcher explained. "Based on the way she's trained, we felt like she would do that and she's done that in the mornings without any issues, but it's always nice to see them adapt to that scenario in the afternoon. She has a tremendous turn of foot. She just quickly put the race away and idled down the last part. We'll see [about the Breeders' Cup]. We'll see how she comes out of it and talk with the connections." Pletcher and Stonestreet also boast fellow 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Dreaming of Julia (A.P. “We don’t know [whether Kauai Katie will go to the Breeders’ Cup]. We’re going to plot our strategy. We’ll hear from Todd maybe [Monday] and see how she’s doing. She did this easy. I hope she got something out of it; she was huffing a little bit. You never expect [it to be easy], and when you’re 1-9, at one point, you always worry. At least I do.” Just a day after Kauai Katie’s auspicious unveiling, her 3-year-old full-sister Winding Way joined the Overanalyze was one of 16 2-year-old debut winners for Pletcher when he scored by 1 1/4 lengths with an 85 Beyer Speed Figure upstate Aug. 9. He chased an above-average pace last time in that venue’s seven-furlong GII Three Chimneys Hopeful S. Sept. 3, and settled for fourth behind impressive stablemate Shanghai Bobby (Harlan’s Holiday). “We were hoping to maybe be in a stalking-type position, but he didn’t break great, then he got clobbered at the start and ended up way back,” Pletcher said. “He recovered well and was running into the dirt, kept coming, showed a new dimension, finished really well and galloped out strongly. It was a pretty encouraging race.” The conditioner was noncommittal as far as a tilt at the Breeders’ Cup, saying, “We’ll see. We have a few things to figure out with a few of these [2-year-olds] and see how he comes out of it and go from there.” Pletcher and Repole came out on the losing end of a close one with Stay Thirsty (Bernardini) in yesterday’s GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. Overanalyze is a half-sister to Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake), who was a 34-1 upset winner of the Matron S. when it was a Grade I contested at seven furlongs in 2006. Cont. p5

After a pair of off-the-board finishes most recently, the real Slim Shadey bounced back over what seems to be his favorite course. Just one for 13 for trainer Stan Moore in Europe in 2010 and 2011, the homebred took a course-and-distance optional claimer in January in his second stateside start and the GII San Marcos S. over the same trip a month later. He was beaten a head by Bourbon Bay (Sligo Bay {Ire}) in the 10-furlong GII San Luis Rey S. Mar. 25, and filled the same slot in Churchill's GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. May 5 and Betfair Hollywood Park's GI Charles Whittingham Memorial H. June 9. Unable to do better than fifth behind Turbo Compressor in Monmouth's GI United Nations S. July 7, the dark bay returned two weeks later in Del Mar's GI Eddie Read S. with a similar performance. Keen to go early, Slim Shadey tugged his way to the front despite Garret Gomez's best efforts to slow him down. He opened up by as many as eight lengths down the backside, but was still going strong as he turned for home. Turbo Compressor did his best to chip away at the leaders' advantage, but Slim Shadey kept finding more in a very sharp effort. "It wasn't the plan to be in front, but with someone like Garrett, when he rides for you, you leave it to him," trainer Simon Callaghan said. "He's a top-class jockey and I try not to over-complicate it. I said if he wants to take him to the front, that's fine. If [Turbo Compressor], which we all expected to go on, does, then that's also fine. He's shown that he's a very good horse today and we'll look forward to the Breeders' Cup now."

No match for Viztoria (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) when third on debut over this trip at Naas July 11, Magical Dream beat the subsequently group-placed Diamond Sky (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and TDN Rising Star Big Break (GB) (Dansili {GB}) next time at Galway July 31 before disappointing when last of six in the G2 Debutante S. over this track and trip Aug. 12. Given a short break, the bay returned to be fourth in the Sept. 9 G1 Moyglare Stud S. and secured a first black-type win in these testing conditions. Racing in second early, the daughter of Red Evie (Ire) (Intikhab) was in front passing the quarter pole and kept grinding to hold Rawaaq comfortably at bay. "Seamus [Heffernan] thought she would improve a lot for her run in the Moyglare and she was very uncomplicated today," jockey Joseph O'Brien said. "She won nicely and is entitled to take her place in a better race."

 up here to further boost her profile. Settled in rear early, the daughter of the globe-trotting Golden Silca started her forward move before the final turn and after gaining the lead passing the furlong pole drew away despite veering right late.

Nova Hawk was just off the board in last term's G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, and also placed second in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. during here sophomore campaign. Acquired by Teruya Yoshida towards the end of last year, she remained on the fringes and, after 12 straight stakes tests, garnered lesser events at La Teste de Buch Aug. 11 and at Fontainebleau last time Aug. 31. Held up racing keenly in fifth through the early fractions here, she cruised into contention on the bridle approaching the final quarter mile and easily asserted under a late drive to register a belated first pattern-race score.

Politicallycorrect had been knocking on the door against some of the better members of his generation, and finally broke through here. He was second to GI Belmont S. third-place finisher Atigun (Istan) in a sloppy allowance on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard May 5 and checked in third in Belmont's productive Easy Goer S. June 9. He improved one slot behind Prospective (Malibu Moon) in Thistledown's GIII Ohio Derby July 7, but never got involved when last of seven on the turnback in Saratoga's GII Amsterdam S. July 29. Saving ground from midpack early, the Ramsey homebred was tipped out for clear sailing in the lane and kept plugging away as he kept edging closer to the outside rail, nailing GI King's Bishop S. winner Willy Beamin on the line despite being in a different zip code from him.

Lord Kanaloa, trained by Takayuki Yasuda, unleashed a powerful late run under Yasunari Iwata to hold off stable companion Curren Chan by three quarters of a length and claim his first victory at the Group 1 level while establishing a track record. Breaking well from the outside post, Lord Kanaloa was settled into midpack, keeping his stablemate and favorite, Curren Chan, in his sights. Swung out wide while following the defending champion into the straight, Lord Kanaloa overtook his chief rival in the final 100 meters and inched clear to post the win. Dream Valentino came on late to be third, outgaming Group 1 winner Lucky Nine. This season's G1 King's Stand S. hero Little Bridge was 10th. According to Yasuda, the colt and runner up will be pointed to the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint. The winner of last season's G3-Jpn Keihan Hai, the 4-year-old kicked off the year with a score in the Jan. 28 G3 Silk Road S. before finishing third in the G1 Takamatsunomia Kinen Mar. 25. Runner up behind Dream Valentino in the June 17 G3 Hakodate Sprint S., he was only a head behind in second last time in the G2 Centaur S. Sept. 9.

Caspar Fownes, the trainer of Lucky Nine, may have been disappointed with the final placing, but not his three-time Group 1 winner's effort. "He should be the winner--if he had jumped properly," said a rueful Fownes, who also saddled the horse to be an unlucky-in-running fifth in the race 12 months ago. "We have a great horse and you would love to see him jump nicely and get a position. He'd have won even after missing the start but for having to come around horses on the turn. He was two lengths off the winner at 500m and Brett had to cut back and around, which put him four lengths back into the stretch, but he still came through with a strong finish." Little Bridge, under Zac Purton, broke sharply before settling in sixth along rail behind a fast early pace. Lacking his usual late punch, the 6-year-old finished 10th, beaten just over four lengths. "It was a little bit disappointing but he wasn't quite 100% fit," said Purton. "They go on very fast in Japan and he was struggling to hold his position. If he had one or two runs before he came, then he would be perfect. After England, he had a little bit of time off and put on a little bit more weight. Coming to Japan you have to be 100% right. [Trainer] Danny [Shum] did his job to get him to his racing weight but fitness told and, although people will be disappointed, by the time of the international races in December, he'll be at his peak."

Mott-ley Crew All Pointing to Breeders' Cup...

Hall of Famer Bill Mott confirmed yesterday that his four runners from Belmont's Super Saturday card would continue on to the Breeders' Cup. GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Flat Out (Flatter) will be joined by sixth-place finisher Ron the Greek (Full Mandate) and GII Kelso H. fourth-place finisher To Honor and Serve (Bernardini) in the Nov. 3 GI Classic; while GI Beldame S. heroine Royal Delta (Empire Maker) will look to defend her title in the GI Ladies' Classic a day earlier. "Everybody came back good. I feel like I've been run over by a truck," quipped Mott. "You've got a number of big runners and for some it worked out well, and others it didn't. The good thing is that everybody did come back good, and it looks like we have another chance, another day." Confident in his charges' respective demeanors, Mott, who took last year's Classic with Drosselmeyer (Distorted Humor), will wait for the Sunday or Monday before the Breeders' Cup to ship out to Santa Anita. "These horses are all very professional," said Mott. "Ron [the Greek] could probably fly the plane out there."

Stay Thirsty Future Still Undecided...

Owner Mike Repole was still recovering from a tough-beat second for Stay Thirsty (Bernardini) in yesterday's Jockey Club Gold Cup. "I watched the race 47 times hoping that Stay Thirsty would win one of them," Repole said yesterday from trainer Todd Pletcher's Belmont barn. "But he lost every one." While last year's GI Travers S. winner certainly earned a shot in the Breeders' Cup Classic, his owner would not commit to a trip out West. "He's going to tell us whether he wants to go to the Classic," Repole said. "This, quite possibly, could have been his last race. I have no problem with it. He'll probably have a work two Sundays from now, and he'll tell us." He added, "If you have a stallion farm in Kentucky, you're interested in Stay Thirsty. Great pedigree, great conformation and great ability. He checks all the boxes. So, there will be stallion plans sometime this week."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

CAMELOT ARC BID IN THE BALANCE

Aidan O'Brien yesterday refused to commit Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) to Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, but confirmed that if he does line up Joseph O'Brien will not be in the saddle. Defeated for the first time in the Sept. 15 G1 St Leger at Doncaster, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Derby hero is set to contest either the Longchamp feature or Oct. 20 G1 Champion S. at Ascot. "Bar cutting off one of his arms, Joseph will not be on Camelot as nine stone or eight stone thirteen is the lowest that he can do so getting down to eight eleven in the Arc is not an option," the Ballydoyle conditioner said yesterday, before stating that a decision on the colt's participation would be made either on Tuesday or Wednesday.

OPTIONS FOR THE LUMBER GUY

While Barry Schwartz's The Lumber Guy (Grand Slam) earned an automatic bid into the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint with his 1 1/4-length victory in Saturday's GI Vosburgh Invitational S. at Belmont, his connections may opt for a different race. "We talked about [the races] again; we're going to keep talking," trainer Mike Hushion said. "One consideration is that the [GI Dirt Mile] is two turns out there, which I'd like him to do, but I'd like him to do what he's already proved he can do around one turn this time. So, we'll see. We'll see what the competition looks like. My best guess would be I'd go five to six days before; I'm not interested in going out there for a couple weeks. We'll let him gallop over the track."

GI Personal Ensign S. Ask the Moon was sold at last year's Keeneland November sale for $800,000.

Leading the sale's 2011 graduates is So Many Ways (Sightseeing). Purchased for $22,000, the 2-year-old filly, now owned by Maggi Moss, is undefeated in three starts, including wins in the GI Spinaway S. and GIII Schuylerville S.

"There's a horse for everyone at this sale," said Paget Bennett, Sales Director for Fasig-Tipton Midlantic. "There are horses that will go on to the 2-year-old sales, and there are horses here people will buy to race."

This year's catalogue features 375 yearlings, including stock by accomplished sires including Awesome Again, Bernardini, City Zip, Elusive Quality, Flower Alley, Ghostzapper, Harlan's Holiday, Lemon Drop Kid, Malibu Moon and Stormy Atlantic. Popular young stallions represented include Colonel John, Majestic Warrior and Spring at Last.

"We've had a lot of shoppers [inspecting yearlings] both Saturday and Sunday, so we're cautiously optimistic," said Bennett. "The consignors have all been commenting on how busy they've been, and it's been a while since it's been this busy. So I think everybody has a pretty good feeling going in."

Bennett noted that healthy state-bred incentives in the Midlantic region, particularly New York, should give buyers confidence. There are 101 New York-bred yearlings in the catalogue.

"I think there are a lot of good things happening in the area with surrounding state-bred programs, so I think we're going to get another group of people here Monday from the racetrack that will just be here to look [today], and hopefully make some purchases."

The sale is set to begin at 10 a.m. EST.

Coverage from Sunday night's Thoroughbred Club of America's 81st annual Testimonial Dinner will appear in Tuesday's TDN.

The 6-5 favorite settled into third as Ruthie Blue Eyes (Stormy Atlantic) set the pace through fractions of :24.13 and :50.12. The pacesetter was joined by Flashy Gal and Coarsegold (Giant's Causeway) and the trio hit the quarter pole in 1:15.15. Flashy Gal surged to the lead at midstretch and quickly opened a clear lead, coming under the wire 1 1/2 lengths in front of the late-closing Zadina (Malibu Moon). Viztoria had subsequent G1 Moyglare Stud S. fourth and G3 CL Weld Park S. winner Magical Dream (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) back in third when scoring by 7 1/2 lengths on debut for the Adrian McGuinness yard over this trip at Naas July 11 and repeated the feat despite this rise in class. Settled behind the early pace traveling easily, the bay cruised to the fore at the quarter pole and quickly opened up a sizeable margin before being geared down late. "She was very impressive and galloped and went through the ground well," jockey Johnny Murtagh said. "I think she's a very good filly and she should improve. Sometimes, when they win by large margins on debut, you think it could be a fluke, but there was no fluke about that today--she absolutely destroyed the field. [Trainer] Eddie [Lynam] said that she'll come on for the run today and he was hoping she'd do something like that. I don't know if soft ground is important to her, but she travels through it so well when it inconveniences others. If she was trained in one of the bigger stables, she would be a 6-4 chance and you can underestimate fillies because of the stable they come from. She's quick and professional and sharp and Eddie is thinking of the Nov. 6 G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte--that is a nice race for her, as it's always soft at that time of year." ### VIZTORIA GIVES LAVERYS STAKES SUCCESS

It is no secret that large operations like Coolmore, Darley and the Aga Khan hold a strong hand in Irish racing, and that fact was evidenced yesterday when Coolmore swept both group stakes on the Curragh card with juveniles by their prized sire Galileo (Ire). The most impressive performance of the day, however, may have come from the two-horse stable of the Lavery family when their 2-year-old filly Viztoria took the Listed Blenheim S. by a dominating 7 1/2 lengths to remain undefeated in two career starts.

Yesterday's win was an exciting encore to Viztoria's 7 1/2 length-debut victory at Naas Racecourse July 11, a performance that gained added significance yesterday when the third-place finisher, Coolmore's Magical Dream (Galileo {Ire}), won the G3 Park S. Viztoria's owners are rightfully basking in the excitement of their star filly's talent.

Viztoria, who made her first start for trainer Adrian McGuinness before being switched to the yard of Eddie Lynam, is owned by Sheila Lavery and her brother John, and races under the name of John's wife, Karen Lavery.

Sheila owns and operates Chinook Farm, a 24-acre property in Summerhill, Co. Meath, with her husband, Jim Daly. The couple are responsible for four broodmares and yearlings, and Sheila Lavery considers Viztoria the best horse they have ever had.

Lavery comes from an eventing background, and still rides sport horses. She began dabbling in Thoroughbreds about 10 years ago.

"Originally I was into eventers, and then just started to breed Thoroughbreds," she explained. "I sold foals, and did a bit of pinhooking. I still do a little bit with the sport horses, but the Thoroughbreds are definitely taking over."

Lavery noted that she rarely does work for outside clients, and that all of her partnerships, which are mostly foal-to-yearling pinhooking ventures, have been with her brother.

While shopping at the 2011 Goffs February sale, Lavery came across a bay filly by Oratorio, out of the Darshaan (GB) mare Viz (Ire), from the draft of Airlie Stud.

"She just looked athletic," Lavery explained. "For me, a huge thing is their eye. She seemed to have a lovely attitude."

The Lavery family shelled out €15,000 for Viztoria and took her home to Chinook Farm with the idea of turning her around at the Tattersalls October yearling sale eight months later. As Lavery had learned in the past, however, sometimes the best laid plans don't come to fruition. Placed in book two, Viztoria failed to reach her reserve when bringing 9,000gns, and Lavery was not prepared to part with her filly at that price.

"I brought her to the sales, but didn't sell her," she explained. "We had previously had another filly in training that I had bought back and we did quite well with, so we decided to put [Viztoria] into training."

Brought back home to Chinook, Viztoria continued to display the athleticism and personality that had drawn Lavery to her as a foal in her early training.

"She had a really nice personality as a foal, and she stayed that way as a yearling,"

Lavery said. "I broke her and pre-trained her, and she was totally professional about everything she did."

Anyone who has been involved with racehorses knows it is hard to not get excited about the future, and Lavery is already looking ahead with her family's stable star.

"I think Eddie [Lynam] is aiming for the [G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte] in France [Nov. 6]," Lavery said. "Then I think we'll put her away for the winter. She's entered for the [G1 1000] Guineas at The Curragh."

Lavery is hoping that Viztoria is just the beginning of a successful future for her family's partnerships. The Laverys have four yearlings set to go under the hammer at the fall sales, and one particularly exciting foal on the way next year from their homebred mare Ultra Cool (Ire) (One Cool Cat), who is in foal to Group 1-winning sprinter Haatef.

"[Ultra Cool] won a couple races, was placed six or seven times, and finished rated at 84 and is now in foal [with her first foal]," Lavery explained. She also noted that Ultra Cool's pedigree has had a significant update, as her dam's half-sister Tamara Moon (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) is the dam of 2012 Group 3-winning juvenile Chilworth Icon (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}).

Lavery noted that in the past she and her family were more inclined to re-sell the majority of their purchases, but with the success of horses like Viztoria and Ultra Cool, their business model may be changing.

"We've changed our operation slightly," she admitted. "Before this it was mostly selling, but now that the racing has kind of worked, we'll look at racing a couple more." --by Kelsey Riley

Cruising to the quarter pole, the 11-10 pick was driven soon after to grab the lead passing the furlong marker and assert for a 3 1/2-length success from Ebazan (Lemon Drop Kid). Driven to challenge that half-sister to Giant's Causeway as the pair drew away from the remainder, the 5-2 favorite asserted in the final yards to score by a head. "She's a tough filly and handled the ground," trainer Dermot Weld said. "She is very fit and determined and is a staying filly. She could come back here in two weeks' time in the Silken Glider S. if it doesn't come too soon." Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, €13,170. Video, courtesy attheraces.com.
