Keeneland September Graduate
CASSATT
wins the Monmouth Oaks-G3
KEENELAND

KEEPING UP WITH THE KOMPANY

Still underrated despite his exploits in 2014, Kool Kompany (Ire) (Jeremy) enters today's G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. with another point to prove as he continues his relentless progress up the ranks. Already successful in the Listed Rochestown S. at Naas June 2, G2 Railway S. over this track and trip June 28 and Maisons-Laffitte's G2 Prix Robert Papin July 20, Middleham Park Racing's latest bargain buy has far fewer question marks than the majority of his rivals. His last two starts on fast ground here in the Railway and very soft in France were won in different fashion, with an all-the-way aggressive performance in the former complemented by a professional effort taken on for the lead next time. Supplemented earlier in the week, the owning syndicate's Racing Manager Tim Palin is happy with that decision as the crunch-time nears. "The Robert Papin run shows that we don't have to lead, he just doesn't want settling out the back like we did at Ascot [when 12th in the June 17 G2 Coventry S.]," Palin told PA Sport. "He can handle any type of ground but being by Jeremy, we know he will handle cut as well as quicker ground. It's going to be fascinating to watch on Sunday, and after really bringing together the English, Irish and French form last time, we're kind of doing that again with the colts and fillies coming together. We will see if he's really a Group One horse on Sunday, and after that we will have to work out what to do." Of the strong trio of fillies in this line-up, Noel O'Callaghan's Anthem Alexander (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) already enjoys lofty status based on her authoritative success in the G2 Queen Mary S. over five furlongs at Royal Ascot June 18. "The filly has trained well, but there would have to be a question mark about her with the weather forecast," trainer Eddie Lynam told PA Sport. "We've had some heavy rain in Ireland this morning and if the word 'soft' was in the going, I don't think she would run. We'll do what's right for the filly and I'll be discussing it with the owner. We'd be happy enough with the good-to-yielding it was at declaration time, but we will see with the weather. We're stepping her up to six furlongs and I would feel she might not get the trip and she wouldn't enjoy the ground if it were soft. She's as good as we can get her and if she can get some nice ground, I think she will run well."

ANGELA RENEE LOOKS 'TO HONOR' FAMILY

Trainer Todd Pletcher is a three-time winner of the GII Adirondack S., and in Siena Farms' homebred Angela Renee (Bernardini), he will have an outstanding opportunity to add to that mark. A full-sister to MGISW To Honor and Serve, the bay was only the 3-1 third choice in her June 27 debut down at Belmont Park, but turned in a thoroughly professional effort, coming from just off the speed for a 2 1/2-length defeat of Sunday Sonnet (Any Given Saturday), with favored High Dolla Woman (Super Saver) another six lengths back in fifth. The form of the event has been franked by the two latter runners, each of whom returned to graduate over a muddy Saratoga strip July 27. "She has a pedigree that suggests that she wants to run further, yet she was able to win going short," Pletcher stated. "I think that speaks of her quality and class, and the added distance should only be to her benefit." Cont. p4

ELEVEN TRY TO BE 'SPECIAL'

A well-matched field of 11 juvenile colts and geldings head to the gate for today's GII Saratoga Special, fully seven of which are exiting their maiden victories. With that in mind, it seems a prudent idea to give a slight edge to those with more racetrack and/or stakes experience and Mr. Z (Mailbu Moon) could be the right one at a bettable price. The chestnut, produced by a half-sister to two-time Canadian Horse of the Year Chief Bearhart (Chief's Crown), debuted victoriously over the Churchill main track June 28, accounting for the third-placed Hashtag Bourbon (Super Saver), who returned to win the Mountaineer Juvenile S. Aug. 2. Cont. p5

Aidan O'Brien has won this a dozen times, with six coming in the last 10 years and his three colts are headed by Michael Tabor's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ The Great War (War Front). Having lost his unbeaten record when fifth in the G2 Norfolk S. over five furlongs at Royal Ascot June 19, he was sixth in the G2 July S. over this trip at Newmarket July 10, and needs a reversal of fortunes here. He is joined by the July 19 G3 Anglesey S. winner Dick Whittington (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) and the Railway third War Envoy (War Front). O'Brien commented, "Dick Whittington has been a very solid horse. He travels with plenty of pace and gets the trip well, while the other two colts just haven't got it together yet, but we are starting to think that they might." Qatar Racing's silks are sported by the G2 Coventry S. runner-up Capella Sansevero (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) and the unbeaten filly Beach Belle (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who they own in partnership with her breeder Lady O'Reilly. She won on ground similar to what she will encounter here when registering a first black-type success in the Listed Coolmore Stud Fillies' Sprint S. over this trip at Naas last time June 2, and has been laid out for this.

A trio of ☆ "TDN Rising Stars" ☆ are set to take aim at the morning-line favorite. New York-bred Wonder Gal (Tiz Wonderful), campaigned by Sweet Reason (Street Sense)'s owner Jeff Treadway, could not have been more impressive in her career debut, validating 4-5 favoritism in taking the Lynnbrook S. by 14 1/2 lengths July 6. A few days earlier, Stonestreet Stables' Cavorting (Bernardini) earned the publication's top honors, setting a fast pace en route to an 11-length domination of a four-horse group at Belmont. "You don't anticipate one running like that, but we've always liked her," admitted trainer Kieran McLaughlin. "She came in from Florida ready to go, and she's done everything right." Stonestreet was represented by 2012 winner, fellow ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Kauai Katie (Malibu Moon). One of just two in this field with two races under her belt, Willis Horton's Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) will look to get back to her winning ways after being outgamed by 1-5 Fashion Alert (Old Fashioned) in the July 18 Gill Schuylerville S. Prior to that effort, the $435,000 Keeneland September graduate was never out of high gallop in wiring a field of Churchill maidens June 22.

While the Tony Dutrow barn took a hit with the recent injury to Big Trouble, I Spent It (Super Saver) could prove a capable understudy. A $600,000 Fasig-Tipton Florida purchase by the Lieblongs, the bay overcame some trouble in running to graduate first time out by 3/4 of a length at Belmont July 2. He's drawn awkwardly on the fence, but has a bullet half-mile in :47 2/5 Aug. 4 under his belt.

Seek Again, winner of last December's GI Hollywood Derby while making his first start in this country, overcame some traffic trouble in the stretch to post a dramatic win while lowering the course record here. The Juddmonte homebred nearly got up the pine to knock off Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill Downs May 3, but the dual Horse of the Year called on his class to get home just in front. Faced with a similar scenario in the eighth and final furlong in this one, the handsome chestnut colt was blocked in behind horses with nowhere to go, and that allowed Canadian raider Grand Arch to get the jump. But Joel Rosario managed to keep his cool and drove Seek Again through in the waning strides for a narrow decision. The final time of 1:33.25 broke the previous course record held by L'Oiseau d'Argent by 0.17 seconds.

Favored Silver Max (Badge of Silver) was forced into a suicidal speed duel with Sayaad (Street Sense) and was torched by the time the real running began. Seek Again, cutting back in distance off an alibi-free third behind Real Solution (Kitten's Joy) in the GI Manhattan H. June 7, was a three-time winner in Europe while under the care of John Gosden, including a handicap win at York last October.

"They went along and set an honest pace, and you have to set an honest pace to set the track record," Hall of Famer Bill Mott said. "I thought he got away well, and going into the first turn, I was hoping Sayaad would eventually put a little pressure on Silver Max, which he did. When he left the half-mile pole, he started to turn it up, and he was looking for his best chance to win the race, and it amounted to a good fast pace for us. The only tense moment was when our horse was trying to find his room at the eighth pole."

As for choosing this spot over next Saturday's GI Arlington Million, Mott said, "He can obviously run fast at a mile, but he did win a Grade I at a mile and a quarter, and he was third in the Manhattan. I wouldn't have passed up the Arlington Million if I didn't think he could [succeed at a mile]."

Enterprising--produced by a half-sister to champion Stravinsky (Nureyev)--unleashed a serious late turn of foot to record his first graded victory here. A winner of his first two turf tries, including the Eddie Logan S. Dec. 28, the Glen Hill homebred hit the board in his next two on the Golden Gate all-weather--the California Derby Jan. 18 and the GIII El Camino Real Derby Feb. 15. A narrow winner in Santa Anita's grassy Pasadena S. Mar. 22, he was freshened following a third-place finish in the La Puente S. Apr. 19. The bay resurfaced with a perfect-timed last-to-first tally beneath Mike Smith in the Oceanside S. over this course July 17. Favored by the Del Mar faithful, he was immediately tucked in from his outside draw to caboose the field as Schoolofhardrocks (Rock Hard Ten) showed the way. He advanced a spot while shifted to the outside on the on the clubhouse turn and continued to draft nicely in fifth through a half mile in :48.13. Asked to quicken as Schoolofhardrocks kicked for home with a clear advantage, Enterprising came flying up the inside to post a stylish decision.

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Cassatt made the grade with a popular front-running score here. Moved up to second via DQ after tiring to third in her two-turn debut beneath the Twin Spires last September, the gray returned from the bench with an authoritative maiden win going six furlongs at Fair Grounds Jan. 9. Sidelined once again, Cassatt returned in style with another tour-de-force after a tardy beginning in a Delaware off-the-turfer July 16. Making her stakes debut in this return to two turns, Cassatt was a bit slow into stride, but zipped through from between rivals to head them off into the clubhouse turn. She took some pressure to her outside through the middle stages, but was still in front entering the final three furlongs. Aqua Regia, forwardly placed throughout, came through to try Cassatt on the rail nearing the stretch, but the Fox Hill filly punched back and found the wire first. Aqua Regia crossed the line a length ahead of Saintly Joan, but those placings were reversed after stewards ruled Aqua Regia interfered with Saintly Joan at the three-eighths marker, ultimately costing her a position.

Cassatt gave trainer Larry Jones--with an assist to wife Cindy--a fourth win in the event. "We love running in that race," Jones said. "It's been very kind to us. I thought we would be on the lead, she was in her first race. That's kind of why we put her in sprinting, just to get her to run behind horses, but she's out there galloping when other horses are running and we don't want to take her out of her game."

Jones continued, "I'm just so glad to get her back to the races. I told everyone last year that she might be the best 2-year-old I ever trained. We're tickled with this. We might be a little too late getting her to the Breeders' Cup, but you never know. The [GI] Cotillion at Parx [Sept. 20] is a possibility and see if she can put herself into the Breeders' Cup picture, but we'll see how she comes out and let her tell us."

Cassatt is the first foal from the unraced Justenufftime, a half-sister to champion Dreaming of Anna (Rahy) and graded winners Lewis Michael (Rahy) and Justenuffhumor (Distorted Humor). The 7-year-old produced an Afleet Alex colt in 2012; a Tapit colt in 2013; and a Discreetly Mine filly in 2014.

Molly Morgan finished fourth when contesting black-type company for the first time in last year's renewal of this event at odds of 50-1, but her resume looked much different this time around. Kicking off this term with an eighth in a turf Gulfstream optional claimer Jan. 15, she improved to third next out over the Hallandale main track Mar. 19. Stepped up in class next time out in the GI La Troienne S. at Churchill May 2, the bay finished a respectable second to On Fire Baby (Smoke Glacken) and got the best of that one next out with a 10-1 upset of that venue's Gil Fleur de Lis H. June 14.

Molly Morgan flattened to fifth when attempting the highest level again last time in the paceless GI Delaware H. July 12. Saving ground in sixth early through a leisurely opening quarter in :24.10, the bay advanced to press from a close third and was at the pacesetting Livi Makenzie's throatlatch by the time they hit the half-mile pole in :47.89. Seizing control on the backstretch, Molly Morgan showed the way into the lane, but was quickly swarmed by rivals on both sides. Grinding it out in the stretch, she determinedly held off those pursuers to clinch a narrow victory over Tapit's World.

Turning his fortunes around remarkably since fading late into sixth when contesting a hot 12-furlong handicap at York May 16, Amralah followed a second placing in the Listed Gala S. at Sandown July 4 with a hard-fought short-head win over the re-opposing rival Vancouverite (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the Listed Steventon S. at Newbury July 19. Sent into a clear early lead here, the bay was feeling the pressure from behind passing the three-furlong marker, but had kept plenty in reserve to dominate a seemingly competitive affair. Connections are looking at the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 13.

G3 Princess Margaret S. over that trip last time July 26. Benefitting from a step up in trip here, the bay overpowered some smart rivals in what was widely held to be an above-average renewal of this early 1000 Guineas pointer--even after some notable withdrawals--including Godolphin's Efflorescence (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). Quickly away and settled in fifth early by Dane O'Neill, the homebred worked her way past the long-time leader Calypso Beat passing the furlong pole en route to a clear-cut success.

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

GREGORIAN'S CHANCE

So often a nearly horse at the top level, Princess Haya of Jordan's Gregorian (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) is presented with an ideal opportunity in today's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville. At his best on his last two starts at Newmarket, when successful in the seven-furlong G3 Criterion S. June 28 and third in the G1 July Cup over a panel shorter July 12, the 5-year-old has ideal trip and ground here as he bids to better four previous placings at the highest level. Jockey William Buick summed up the general feeling as to the quality of this renewal. "There have been much stronger Group 1s than this," Buick commented. "Six and a half furlongs looks a very good trip for him and he's certainly got quicker as he's got older, as he showed when he was 1 1/2 lengths third to Slade Power in the July Cup over six. Before that, he beat one of Sunday's opponents, Garswood (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), over seven in the mud at Newmarket in a Group 3 in June." One who needs the ground to dry is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Aljamaaheer (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) after he disappointed on rain-soaked ground when ninth in the July Cup. "Aljamaaheer was too free at Newmarket in the July Cup and if you put a line through that and look at his Golden Jubilee form, he would have a very strong chance," trainer Roger Varian said of the 4-year-old, who was third in the June 21 Royal Ascot sprint. "Ideally, we would have preferred faster ground but he goes there in good form." Freddie Head has already registered an astonishing seven editions in his relatively short training career, and relies on another Shadwell representative in Thawaany (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). The chestnut showed she was on the upgrade when annexing the G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis over six furlongs here last time June 28, and her conditioner is happy with conditions. "She's a nice filly," Head told PA Sport. "She didn't run much at two, as she had some problems, but she is over them all now. Last time she won her Group Three nicely, so she has certainly earned her place in this." He added, "Soft ground won't be a problem for her, she handles it fine. She'll probably handle it a lot better than most of the others. Unfortunately, she hasn't got a good draw [in 15], but there's nothing we can do about that." Of the 3-year-olds, last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Vorda (Fr) (Orpen) is of interest going back sprinting, but she has significant ground to make up on the ultra-consistent Sommerabend (GB) (Shamardal) after finishing fourth behind that rival in Longchamp's G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot over seven furlongs last time July 5.

THE NEED FOR SPEED

Today's G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin at Hoppegarten is lacking a genuine top-class performer, and is therefore open to Lucky Speed (Ire) (Silvano {Ger}) to regain the winning thread in this category following last year's G1 Deutsches Derby exploits. Fully excused his defeat on his first run since that Hamburg Classic victory when third under a six-pound penalty in the 11-furlong G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Unternehmer at Baden-Baden at the start of June, Stall Hornoldendorf's bay failed to build on that in the G2 Hansa-Preis next time. Fourth and outpaced in that 12-furlong Hamburg contest named in his honor four weeks later, he has had time to regroup as he prepares for a showdown with the three-times Group 1 winner Earl of Tinsdal (Ger) (Black Sam Bellamy {Ire}). The latest of those came in San Siro's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club over this trip in October, where Italy's premier performer Biz the Nurse (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) was among the vanquished. Open to progression is Stall Molenhof's 3-year-old colt Sirius (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), who was a place ahead of Lucky Speed when third in the Hansa-Preis.

'MABEE' MCANALLY CAN LOSE THE DUCK

Trainer Ron McAnally is off to something of a rough start at Del Mar, having finished out of the top three with each of the first five horses he's started, but the veteran horseman has a good chance to stop that dubious streak with Miss Serendipity (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}) in the GII John C. Mabee S. at Del Mar. The dark bay, upset winner of the

Miss Serendipity Benoit

G1 Estrellas Distaff in her final Argentinian start in June 2013, the sturdy dark bay mare faced the starter five times at Santa Anita over the winter and spring and improved steadily, if not dramatically. Off the board in her first two tries, the 6-year-old rallied for third to Stormy Lucy (Stormy Atlantic) in the GII Santa Ana S. over this distance Mar. 16 and dropped a neck decision to that rival in the Apr. 13 GIII Santa Barbara H. going 10 panels. She cut back to the mile and an eighth for the GI Gamely S. May 26 and picked a good spot for her first North American victory, defeating Emollient (Empire Maker) right on the money. Cozze Up Lady (Cozzene), a Grade III winner on Polytrack, took an off-turf renewal of the Mardi Gras S. while under the care of Bret Calhoun earlier this winter, but was only seventh in defense of her title in the GIII Chicago H. June 28. The bay made a favorable impression in her first start for this barn, overcoming a high draw to post a game half-length success in the restricted Osunitas S. July 19. She should be able to sit up on a moderate pace and is a major factor. Wishing Gate (Indian Charlie) won the GII San Clemente S. and was runner-up in the GII Del Mar Oaks at this meet last year before adding the GIII Autumn Miss S. at Santa Anita in October. Likely in need of the run when fourth in the one-mile GII Royal Heroine S. June 28, the Glen Hill homebred can do better at this slightly longer distance.

FOAL CROP OF 22K PROJECTED

Edited Press Release

The Jockey Club is projecting a 2015 North American registered Thoroughbred foal crop of 22,000. The projections for the 2013 and 2014 foal crops were 23,000 and 22,000, respectively. "The projection for the 2015 foal crop is based on reports of mares bred received to date, and we estimate that approximately 80% of those reports have been received," The Jockey Club Executive Vice President and Executive Director Matt Iuliano said. Additional foal crop information is available in The Jockey Club's Online Fact Book at jockeyclub.com/factbook.asp and in the online state fact books. The foal crop projection, traditionally announced in mid-August, is computed by using Reports of Mares Bred (RMBs) received to date for the 2014 breeding season. RMBs are to be filed by Aug. 1 of each breeding season.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Belmont Winner Works for Travers...

Robert S. Evans' ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Tonalist (Tapit) returned to the worktab with a five-furlong

Tonalist
NYRA/Adam Coglianese

move in 1:03 1/5 (video) over the Saratoga training track Saturday. With exercise rider Alvaro Hernandez aboard, Tonalist worked in company with stablemate Life In Shambles (Broken Vow), most recently a disappointing seventh in the Curlin S. July 25. Tonalist galloped out six furlongs in 1:16 3/5. It was the first work back for the GI Belmont S. hero since finishing second behind Wicked Strong (Hard Spun) in the GII Jim Dandy S. July 26. He will square off against Wicked Strong again in the GI Travers S. Aug. 23. "He's hardly blowing, so, obviously, [the Jim Dandy] did him a lot of good," said Christophe Lorieul, assistant to trainer Christophe Clement. "He was moving well, no problem. I liked the gallop out. He went away from the other horse. Nothing fancy today. We'll try to bring him back next week. The plan is to work him next Saturday."

Wise Dan Works at the Spa...

Morton Fink's two-time reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) took to the Saratoga main track Saturday morning in preparation for a possible start later in the meet. Working in tandem with a stablemate, the two-time GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero covered six furlongs in 1:13 1/5. "I thought he went really well," trainer Charlie LoPresti said. "We broke a horse off about six lengths ahead of him and he caught him, went to the wire with him and galloped out real good. I guess the time was good. He got a really good blow out of it, so that told me I was probably a couple breezes short of the [GII] Fourstardave. Maybe we could have won it, but I think we did the right thing by giving him a little more time." LoPresti continued, "We worked him pretty hard today. He's had two five-eighths [of a mile breezes] and two halves [since May 16 colic surgery]. I pressed on him today because he needed that kind of work."

Wise Dan

"If he's going to start getting ready for some of these races I want to see how he comes out of this," LoPresti said. "He's not tired, I can tell you that." Wise Dan may return in either the grassy GII Bernard Baruch H. miles or the GI Woodward S. on the main track. Both races are Aug. 30. He was last seen successfully defending his GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. at Churchill Downs on GI Kentucky Derby day. "The only way I'm going to know [which spot to go in] is in a few weeks time when I see how he progresses," LoPresti concluded.

Pletcher Duo on Worktab...

Four-time Grade I winner Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior) worked four furlongs in :49 3/5 Saturday morning in preparation of the GI Personal Ensign Invitational Aug. 22. The Ed Stanco homebred was upset when second at 1-5 in the GI Delaware H. July 12. She will race with blinkers on for the first time in the Personal Ensign. "She's very focused with them, so we'll plan on running her in them, but she doesn't need them every time she breezes," Pletcher said. "She worked very well. It seemed like she was in good form." Pletcher also worked GI CCA Oaks heroine Stopchargingmaria (Tale of the Cat) four furlongs in 47.52 seconds. The Mike Repole colorbearer is targetting the GI Alabama S. Aug. 16. "She worked great, very well," Pletcher said. "It seems like she's in super form at the moment. She's really just had a great summer and just seems like she's getting better all the time."

'Beast' Mode for King's Bishop...

Alex and JoAnn Lieblong's The Big Beast (Yes It's True), tabbed as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ off a powerful first-level allowance win over older horses at the Spa July 26, dazzled with a five-furlong bullet workout in :58.92 Saturday morning. Trained by Tony Dutrow, The Big Beast will start next in the GI King's Bishop Aug. 23.

"That may have been the most impressive workout that I have ever seen in my whole life," Dutrow

The Big Beast
NYRA/Adam Coglianese

said. "I really don't think I've ever seen a horse go so fast, so easily. And, we didn't get paid for that out there today, so I'm not trying to impress." Dutrow continued, "He's seven or eight months into his 3-year-old year now. You see what a big horse he is. He's such a big horse, so maybe he's just maturing and coming around and now's his time. It certainly looks like now's his time. He's figured it out and he looks like he's looking to build on it."

Fast Anna Settles in at Saratoga...

Unbeaten Fast Anna (Medaglia d'Oro), a son of champion Dreaming of Anna (Rahy), worked seven furlongs in 1:28 2/5 at Saratoga yesterday. The Frank Calabrese homebred, a 13-length allowance winner at Gulfstream July 6, will be tested for class in the GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 23. "He had a good work," trainer Kathy Ritvo said. "It was his first work over the surface, so we just took it easy and had a nice, easy work. He was very professional. He just does his business; not too much bothers him at all. Now that he got that underneath him, he'll have one more work and be set for the race." Ritvo continued, "This horse just seems to get better all the time. We're going to take a big swing, but he's doing so good there's no reason not to run him. I don't think it's going to make a big difference, the traffic or the people or anything that happens. He's professional. He's smart. He couldn't be doing any better."

ZITO RETURNS TO ICE BOX EARLY AT FASIG

Trainer Nick Zito, who trained Ice Box (Pulpit), was forced to $230,000 to secure a yearling from the first crop of the 2010 GI Florida Derby winner during Saturday's first session of the Fasig-Tipton New York Sale. The yearling was consigned by Chris Shelli's Fort Christopher's Thoroughbreds. Shelli purchased the unraced Fear This (Ghostzapper), with this foal in utero, for $5,000 out of the 2012 Keeneland November sale.

"Obviously, I'm partial to Ice Box," Zito admitted. "I think he is going to make it as a stud--that's number one. He's a nice horse, he has all the qualifications."

Of the price tag, Zito commented, "Unfortunately, Lee Einsidler was bidding on the horse, too. So I probably had to pay a lot for him. I think that was my last bid, but I wanted to have the horse."

Zito said the colt's ownership was still up in the air.

"I don't know, yet, but we're ok," he said. "I had somebody ask me about him, so he'll get first shot."

The yearling (hip 302) is out of Fear This, a daughter of graded stakes winner Susan's Angel (Cape Town).

Ice Box stands at Three Chimneys. His 2014 fee was $7,500.

Tale of the Cat Colt to Blue Bison

David Greenhouse and Chris Boehning, who race as Blue Bison Stable, were on hand when a horse named Sioux (Awesome Again) romped by 5 1/4 lengths in an allowance at Saratoga Saturday afternoon. The two men were in action Saturday evening at Fasig-Tipton to purchase the 3-year-old's half-brother by Tale of the Cat for $225,000.

"Our trainer Mike Hushion trains the half-brother who won today in the seventh race and he was very, very impressive," Greenhouse explained. "Mike loves that horse."

Sioux brought $200,000 from John Fort when selling at the Fasig-Tipton New York sale in 2012.

Greenhouse admitted Sioux's victory prompted him to bid more than he had originally planned.

"We went a little more than we expected, but I think we're happy," he said.

Of the yearling, Greenhouse added, "He's a beautiful horse. He's just a really, really nice-looking horse and correct. Hopefully he will stay sound and we'll have some luck."

Greenhouse and Boehning are both 1983 graduates of Shaker High School in nearby Latham. They named their racing stable, which currently includes eight head, after the high school's mascot. Greenhouse owns a food distribution company in Denver and Boehning is a New York attorney.

Blue Bison Stable, along with Hoffman Thoroughbreds, campaigned stakes winner Shine Upon (Congaree). The two operations join forces in Sunday's first race at Saratoga with the mare's first foal, first-time starter Tiz Time to Shine (Tiznow).

The Tale of the Cat yearling, hip 226, is out of Andraste (Pulpit), a half-sister to Grade I winner Vicar (Wild Again) and to the dam of multiple Group 1 placed Astronomer Royal (Danzig). He was bred by Waterville Lake Stables and was consigned by Winter Quarter Farm.

Malloy Splurges for Medaglia d'Oro Filly

Vivien Malloy, sitting alongside bloodstock agent Mike McMahon, went to $210,000 to secure hip 247, a filly by Medaglia d'Oro Saturday at Fasig-Tipton's New York sale. Malloy, owner of Edition Farm and a longtime director of the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, admitted the stallion's most famous daughter was a major factor in the purchase.

"She vetted out very, very well, that was number one," Malloy said of the youngster. "Number two is [Horse of the Year] Rachel Alexandra. We had her measured, we had her cardio done. She had very good cardio, very good biomechanics. Her temperament was good. She is beautiful."

Edition Farm in Hyde Park, New York currently has a broodmare band of 10 head.

"I was shopping for a filly to increase and enhance my broodmare band and she checked all the boxes on that," Malloy explained.

The yearling, consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, is out of Blush (Menifee) and is a half-sister to graded stakes winner Derby Kitten (Kitten's Joy) and to multiple graded stakes-placed William's Kitten (Kitten's Joy). She was bred by Newtown Anner Stud.

Blush was claimed by Ken and Sarah Ramsey for $30,000 in 2006. In foal to Kitten's Joy, she sold for $390,000 at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November sale to the bid of bloodstock agents Nick Sallusto and Hanzly Albina.

A debut winner over the Aqueduct turf last November, Storm remained in New York over the winter and posted a pair of thirds from four tries on the main track. The bay returned to winning ways with a 3/4-length defeat of state-breds in a first-level Belmont allowance back on the grass May 22 and most recently overcame the 11 hole to clear his final New York condition downstate June 28. Favored here against open rivals, Storm was able to get down onto the fence crossing under the wire for the first time and raced on his own in fifth in the middle stages. Guided to the two path nearing the turn, he came three deep into the stretch, grabbed Iron Power inside the final 70 yards and prevailed to remain perfect on the lawn. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Sent through at the fence by Jose Ortiz to take up the running as the pace was slow to materialize, Sioux got the half in a relatively comfortable :46.73, and the 4-1 chance stayed on to best $220,000 FTNAUG grad Groupthink (Majestic Warrior) by a comprehensive 5 1/4 lengths. Produced by a half-sister to French Group 3 winner Dance Dress (Nureyev)--the dam of MGSW Costume (Danehill)--he was sent off the 3-2 chalk and made no mistakes. Quickest away, Designed for War was able to make an easy lead and backed down the pace through leisurely splits of :25.11 and :50.81. Still on cruise control following six furlongs in 1:15.80, he had plenty in the tank late and rolled home to score by 1 3/4 lengths. King of New York (Street Boss) covered ground and stayed on well for second in a promising debut. The winner was purchased in utero for $95,000 at Keeneland November in 2011. (Harlan's Holiday). Asked right from the opening bell by Joe Rocco Jr., Requite responded well and cleared his rivals, sailing through an opening quarter-mile in :22.26 with the well-bet Call Daddy (Scat Daddy) and Two Weeks Off in hot pursuit. Still traveling strongly approaching the stretch, Requite turned back Call Daddy with three-sixteenths of a mile to race, got a few right-handed reminders from his rider inside the final furlong and ran out a 3 1/2-length winner over Two Weeks Off. He becomes the seventh of his freshman sire (by Medaglia d'Oro)'s first-crop progeny to win at first asking. Da Jenius (Malibu Moon), a 3/4-brother to GISW Mi Sueno (Pulpit), came from the backfield to grab third from longshot Proven Commodity (Bernardini), who loomed boldly on the turn, but flattened out a bit in the final 100 yards. Blame Dixie (Blame) was bought out of the OBS March sale for $300K by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Bridlewood Farm. She has shown speed from the gate for Todd Pletcher in two five-furlong works and going 5 1/2f she is more than fit. She is in the right barn to win first out.

Sophonria (Street Sense) was a $150K purchase at the Fasig-Tipton August sale at Saratoga. She looked great working from the gate here for Catalano Aug. 6, showing excellent speed. She looks like a sprinter, and acts like she wants to win early.

Coral Beach (Tale of the Cat) is the other Pletcher. She has been working on both turf and dirt--not sure this is her best surface.

Super Saks is a Sky Mesa filly out of an Unbridled's Song mare for D. Wayne Lukas, and she can fly. She worked from the gate on July 31 and flew. A $250K yearling buy at Fasig-Tipton here last year, she trained at Churchill Downs before coming here--she is fit.

Puca is a Big Brown filly for Bill Mott who has shown talent, but not sure she is ready to win first out. She showed some immaturity in a fast July 20 work where she broke slow, and then whistled to a :46 and change final four furlongs (1:00.14 work), finishing as much the best over a wokmate. She didn't show the ability to slow down that morning and Mott waited 10 days to breeze her back. Maybe it was the weather or maybe she came out of it shaky mentally--that happens to young horses who do too much too soon. A good trainer like Mott has seen it all and is not going to push the envelope. Brisnet.com PPs

Second on debut in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden special weight over this strip June 24, Sing Praises wired the field to graduate by 5 1/2 lengths next out in the track and trip Birdonthewire S. July 12.

Heavily favored to repeat while drawn on the outside of this field of eight, the chestnut gave the bettors exactly what they were looking for. Sprinting up to seize a clear lead just off the rail, he doled out early splits of :22.38 and :45.53. Still going well in the stretch, Sing Praises was well clear of his rivals and held off a late running Of Course for his second straight success. "He ran right back to his last race," winning trainer Stanley Gold remarked. "He broke good and was well in reserve and had plenty left. He went 57-and-change for five-eighths and kept going. Of Course was inching up to him, but he wasn't going to catch him. [Jockey] Ramsey [Zimmerman] had him measured." Leap Year Luck didn't show much when well beaten going 4 1/2 furlongs here May 16, but improved with the addition of Lasix and blinkers to miss by just a neck over track and trip July 19. Dismissed here as the second-longest shot on the board, the homebred broke quickly before settling off the early pace in fifth as her stablemate Standard Deal and Katie's Kiss knocked heads up front. Still left with plenty to do while moving into third entering the lane, the bay revved up with a head of steam under energetic right-handed encouragement to take over in midstretch and draw off. "I thought [Standard Deal] was going to maintain it, but she probably weakened a bit going with the other horse [Katie's Kiss], and that's why the other horse wasn't there either," trainer Stan Gold said. "They were cutting it out together and didn't get a breather. I was afraid the winner was too far back if the other one got tired battling with the other horse. Gulfstream Presents Check to PDJF:

Edited Press Release

Following Saturday's second race, Gulfstream presented a check for $6,183 to the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF), a public charity that works to provide financial assistance to former jockeys that have suffered severe, career-ending injuries on the racetrack. Incorporated in 2006, the organization supports approximately 60 former riders.

On hand to receive the check was former jockey and PDJF representative Gary Donahue. Donahue rode for six years and won 564 races before a riding accident at Suffolk Downs ended his racing career and left him paralyzed from the waist down.

"It means a lot," Donahue said. "It goes a long way and it helps--I believe it's 63--permanently disabled riders. It just helps them so much. It helps them to have a better life."

Saturday marked the second time in the past two weeks that Gulfstream acknowledged the work of the PDJF. On July 26, Gulfstream participated in the PDJF's Taking the Reins day, an event created to educate about and fundraise for the organization. Current Gulfstream riders signed posters for fans that afternoon and donations were taken.

Dixie Twist made her career debut in this track's Shady Well S. July 13, but was broadsided and knocked off stride before somehow managing to finish second. The betting public was forgiving and sent her off the second choice to Shady Well winner Starless Night (Grand Slam) and the Oxley filly took care of business late. Sent up to vie for the early pace inside of Starless Night, Dixie Twist had her head in front midway on the turn, but looked in some trouble as "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Unhindered (Stormy Atlantic) made a sweeping move to lead cornering into the stretch. That gray filly seemed to have the race in safe keeping, but began to idle on the engine, and Dixie Twist came back at her to score in a blanket finish. "We didn't expect to be that close, but she broke hard today and was doing it easy," said rider Gary Boulanger. "I just went with the flow of the race. I knew I had quite a lot of horse and I didn't want to move any sooner than I had to. TEAM EUROPE TAKES SHERGAR CUP

The Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup went to Europe again, after a winning performance by Frenchman

Olivier Peslier
Racing Post

Olivier Peslier prevented the Girls Team from snatching the victory by a point at Ascot Saturday, 69-68 according to PA Sport. Canadian Emma-Jayne Wilson dropped her whip aboard Astronereus (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) who finished a nose-second behind Our Gabriel (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) piloted by Peslier in the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup Classic. Peslier also clinched the Silver Saddle Award for individual jockey with his consistent finishes, beating out Wilson--who collected two wins on the card with the Lady Cecil trained Retirement Plan (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) and Don't Call Me (Ire) (Haafhd) for David Nicholls--for that title as well. Neither team improved their score with the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup Sprint, but they were well clear of their rivals.

Team Europe captain Italian Frankie Dettori commented, "Olivier has been my good friend for more than 20 years. Just a wonderful natural jockey, cooler than a cucumber when it mattered, as cool as an iceberg. In truth we did have the most experienced team. And we just had to beat those girls." Dettori added, "But that's the great thing about the Shergar Cup, it gives people a chance to see these top riders. It's great fun for us and I hope is great fun to watch."

"I'm very happy," Peslier told PA Sport. "It's been a competition everyone could follow until the end. Everything happened in the last race."

Wilson, who was winless in two previous Shergar Cups added, "It means absolutely everything, I'm elated. It's not just winning the Shergar Cup for the team, winning a race over here means a lot to me personally."

Team Great Britain and Ireland was not shut out with two wins: in the Challenge with Tom Queally aboard Semeen (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the Dash with Highland Acclaim (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) piloted by Richard Hughes.

Australian rider Craig Williams gained his first Shergar Cup victory aboard Goldream (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) for trainer Robert Cowell and the International Team in the opener.

"It's the third time I've ridden in it and my first winner so I've probably got more points on the board there than from my other two times," said Williams. "I love the concept and the way the public embrace it--it's one of those events you hope to get the phone call for."

After running out the comfortable winner of an ordinary Newmarket handicap over this trip June 21, Token of Love stayed on for second in a more valuable contest at Newbury at the same distance July 19, before stepping up in this first stakes try. Racing in third initially several lengths off the frenetic early gallop set by Alutiq (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), the bay moved smoothly into second as the rabbit capitulated at the quarter pole. Pushed into the lead approaching the furlong marker, the homebred stayed on strongly to stamp her authority on a race in which the G1 English and Irish 1000 Guineas runner-up Lightning Thunder (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) was never a factor, reporting home a lackluster fourth. Coming to the fore when winning the prestigious Rockingham H. over this trip at The Curragh July 20, Sir Maximilian was seventh by just over three lengths in Goodwood's Stewards' Cup over a panel further on Saturday, and bounced out of that war of attrition to secure a first black-type success here. Struggling with the early pace, the bay chased from the rear to halfway and found a wet sail soon after to reel in Abstraction down the center of the track in the final yards. "He's a proper horse and has won well on ground that has dried out to be as fast as he'd want it," trainer Tim Pitt said. "Five furlongs at a good pace suits him, and we took a punt running here, but it worked. He'll run in the G3 Flying Five [at The Curragh Sept. 14] and then the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 5] and maybe Dubai in the Spring." on today's European racing scene

2.00 Leicester, Mdn, £8,000, 2yo, 7f 9yT

PLEIADES (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) debuts for Lady Rothschild and Sir Michael Stoute and is out of 2005 GI Beverly D S. and 2006 GI Diana H. victress Angara (GB) (Alzao). Meeting a clutch of more experienced rivals here, the homebred from the family of Arcangues (Sagace {Fr}) is likely to need more time.

2.35 The Curragh, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, 8fT

JOHN F KENNEDY (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) bids to build on a debut second at Leopardstown last month for Susan Magnier and Aidan O'Brien. Out of the dual Group 1 winner Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) (Danehill) and a full-brother to this year's G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Tapestry (Ire), the significantly named colt meets Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Dunquin (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), a Jim Bolger-trained half-brother to the multiple Graded-Stakes scorer Rebellion (GB) (Mozart {Ire}) who was fourth on debut over six furlongs here in late June.

3.05 The Curragh, Cond, €30,000, 2yo, f, 7fT

POUR DEUX (IRE) (Dansili {GB}) makes her debut in a hot contest against previous winners, but has much to commend her as a daughter of the dual Group scorer and G1 Prix Saint-Alary and G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Gagnoa (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a three-quarters sister to Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). John Oxx introduces Lady O'Reilly and Clodagh McStay's blueblood against another in Susan Magnier's Flowing (Tapit). Out of a half-sister to the high-class Etoile Montante (Miswaki), the David Wachman trainee cost $300,000 as a KEENOV weanling and is a fascinating contender.
