LASIX-FREE RACES AT GULFSTREAM IN '15

by Mike Kane

In his quest to eliminate race-day medication and improve integrity, Frank Stronach said Wednesday that Gulfstream Park will begin carding some races in 2015 that will be restricted to horses that are not running on Lasix.

Stronach, chairman of the Stronach Group, which owns Gulfstream, Santa Anita and three other tracks, flew in from Austria to be the keynote speaker at the Saratoga Institute on Racing and Gaming Law in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. The annual two-day program is presented by the Government Law Center and the Institute for Legal Studies at Albany Law School.

Frank Stronach
 Mike Kane

During his remarks, Stronach talked about the need to tighten the rules to change the perception that Thoroughbred racing tolerates cheating through the use of medication.

"My inclination is that we not have race-day medication," he said. "I don't want to shoot from the hip and bully anybody, but when we write races in our condition book, most of them will be Lasix-free. Together I think we can learn and hopefully demonstrate that Lasix would not be needed and race-day medication not be used. It's not used in most of the racing countries in the world, except America.

"We have a public out there and we owe it to them. We need to have a measured and logical approach. We're together in this. The horse owners and the trainers have to realize that we have to work together, we have to demonstrate to the public that this is a great place to be. Racing should be a fun place, it should be a family affair and no cheating." Cont. p3

NEW GROUP 1 FOR ROYAL ASCOT

Next year's Royal Ascot meeting will include a new Group 1 sprint restricted to 3-year-olds over six furlongs, the European Pattern Committee revealed yesterday. The announcement was amongst a number of changes to the European pattern schedule intended to address the current lack of opportunities for high-class 3-year-old sprinters. The changes also include upgrades to races in Britain, Ireland, France and Germany for both sophomore and older sprinters. Most notably, the QIPCO British Champions Sprint S. will also be upgraded to Group 1 status next year from Group 2. The as-yet unnamed new race at Royal Ascot will take place on the Friday of the meeting, and will be worth £375,000. The Buckingham Palace S. will be removed from the program. Cont. p4

MILLION FIELD AN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIR

An international field of seven was entered Wednesday for Saturday's 32nd renewal of the GI Arlington Million. The field includes five Group 1 winners and two other stakes victors hailing from Ireland, England, France, America, and Canada and representing ownerships from Ireland, America, Qatar, England, Greece and Canada. Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Susan Magnier's Magician (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), winner of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf, returns to North America for his second stateside outing. The 4-year-old, favored at 7-5 on the morning line, will break from post three. Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Real Solution (Kitten's Joy) was awarded the 2013 Million via disqualification and is back to defend his title this year off a victory in the June 7 GI Manhattan S. Stronach Calls for Lasix-Free Races (cont. from p1)

Stronach said that a program is being developed that will require veterinarians to purchase medication for horses at Gulfstream Park at a track pharmacy.

“We announced a couple of months ago that we’re going to use Gulfstream Park as a prototype,” he said. “What can we do that racing will get a great reputation that it’s a level playing field that there is no cheating and that the horses are well taken care of? That’s not an easy task to do, but we did say that we made a commitment and that we will start with Gulfstream Park very shortly.

“No. 1 we want to make sure that there is no cheating going on so we have developed a program. Any program needs a little fine tuning.”

Stronach said that hopes the programs developed at Gulfstream could be adopted at his company’s other tracks in 2016.

Alon Ossip, CEO of the Stronach Group, said the Lasix-free races are likely to start when next year’s group of juveniles reach the racetrack.

“We’re going to have them for 2-year-olds,” Ossip said. “We’re going to write Lasix-free races. We’ll have Lasix races as well, but we’re going to start with Lasix-free and we’re going to try that. That’s assuming that the industry doesn’t come together and say we’re going to ban Lasix for 2-year-olds.”

On Aug. 1, 25 prominent trainers, including a number of Hall of Fame members, released a statement saying they support the elimination of the race-day use of Lasix, beginning with the 2-year-olds of 2015.

“Part of the issue with Frank being a horseman, he feels very strongly that Lasix is not good for the horses, but you have to educate people,” Ossip said. “The way to educate people is to show them that a 2-year-old [that hasn’t run on Lasix] comes out as a stronger 3-year-old.”

Ossip said that it will be up to Gulfstream Park president Tim Ritvo when to introduce the no-Lasix races into the condition book at the track.

Stronach went into great detail during his speech about the need for a pharmacy on the premises that can be monitored by track officials. He said the track could negotiate with drug companies for better pricing, which would benefit horse owners.

“We want to work together and come up with a different model,” he said. “If we don’t come up with a different model this industry will not survive.”

Stronach said there will be strict enforcement of the policy limiting medication on the grounds to prescriptions from the pharmacy. He said an individual found to have violated the rules a second time would be ruled off the track.

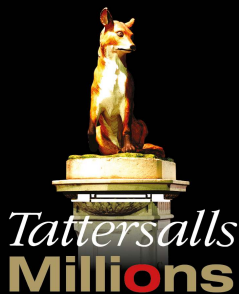

“We have to do it,” Stronach said. “We have to demonstrate to the public that there is no cheating going on.” Cont. p4

Dr. Robert E. O'Neill, the Equine Health and Safety Director for the Stronach Group, said the move to the pharmacy program is a work in progress.

"It's going to be a massive undertaking, but it can be done," O'Neill said. "We've done basic research and we'll see when Mr. Stronach wants to proceed with it. We're going to have our own pharmacy to do what he wants to do, which can be done with no problem. Everything is in the pipeline. It's just a matter of when we want to execute it."

Stronach said that at some point all veterinarians on the property might be track employees, but O'Neill said that for the time being the longstanding program of private vets working for trainers will continue.

Stronach did not give a direct answer to a question about whether he would bid on New York Racing Association tracks if they are privatized and sold at the end of the re-organization period in 2015. He did say that states should not be in the racing business and that NYRA ought to reduce its purses a bit and re-invest in the venues.

"You've got to make great facilities, make it so that it's a cool place to go to," he said.

NYRA does receive a percentage of money from video lottery terminal revenue from the casino at Aqueduct that must be used for purses and another percentage for operations and track improvements.

During an afternoon session on on-line gaming, Brad Cummings of Equilottery said that the proposed venture to create a joint lottery and live racing product has been well received since it was unveiled on July 9.

"Since our launch, we have had 26 different states and provinces with racing and lottery interests reach out to us," he said. "In very serious conversations, we've targeted that down to nine states and a province and we've had serious conversations across five continents. While we are young publicly, we feel very good about the initial response."

Cummings said a six- to nine-month compliance process with the lottery will follow after any deals are completed. He did not want to predict when the Equilottery might move from concept to reality.

"I don't want to give a timeline, but we're much further along than we were a month ago," he said. "We're really pleasantly surprised with the response. It certainly exceeded our expectations. We've had to restructure our internal budgets to reflect the response in a very dramatic way. We're happy to do that because we feel that the opportunity is very strong."

New Group 1 For Royal Ascot (cont. from p1)

The European sprint program was identified as an area of weakness at the EPC's meeting in January, and the proposal for change was developed in consultation with committee members and discussed at a specially convened meeting at the end of July. It received the required unanimous approval of all member countries.

EPC Chairman Brian Kavanagh noted the changes will bring Europe's sprinting calendar more in line with other divisions. "For horses performing at every distance other than sprinting, the European pattern provides a 3-year-old only program until midsummer, when the Classic generation is considered ready to take on the older horses," Kavanagh explained. "The Committee believes it is no coincidence that when it comes to milers and middle-distance horses, Europe can genuinely lay claim to having the best in the world. However, there is a definite lack of top-class European 3-year-old sprinters." Kavanagh continued, "We have introduced a limited number of pattern races restricted to 3-year-olds in the first half of the European season, culminating in a new Group 1 race at Royal Ascot. Secondly, we have sought to deliver a more balanced overall sprint program providing better opportunities and greater incentives to run high-class sprinters in Europe." The other sprint races receiving upgrades are, to Group 3 level: the Prix Sigy, the Pavilion S., the Prix Texanita and the Lacken S. at Naas in June (all for 3-year-olds). New Group 2s will be the Greenlands S. and the Sandy Lane S.; the Sapphire S., the Golden Peitsche and the Flying Five S.

COLLMUS TO TAKE OVER FOR DURKIN

Larry Collmus will take over for the legendary Tom Durkin as the New York Racing Association announcer starting in April 2015, NYRA CEO and President Chris Kay announced Wednesday.

"The New York Racing Association was privileged to have one of the greatest voices in professional sports calling our races for more than two decades," Kay said. "With our addition of Larry Collmus, we have another. Larry's highly acclaimed work for NBC Sports, including with the Triple Crown and the Breeders' Cup has inspired excitement and generated lasting memories for horseplayers and racing fans everywhere. We are fortunate that Larry has chosen to bring his talents and passion back to New York, and I would like to extend a warm welcome on behalf of the men and women of this great organization."

Known as the voice of both the Breeders' Cup and Triple Crown on NBC, Collmus held the announcer position at Monmouth Park for 19 years before moving to Churchill Downs this past spring. He has also been the announcer for Gulfstream's elite winter meet since 2007 and will continue to hold that position. Collmus will call the fall meet at Churchill and spend the winter at Gulfstream before starting his five-year contract with NYRA at Aqueduct in April.

Larry Collmus

"I am so excited and honored to become the next voice of New York racing," said Collmus. "The racing in New York is second to none--Belmont Park has such a rich history of championship racing and Saratoga has the best racing in the world and an atmosphere unlike any another place. I have some enormous shoes to fill as Tom Durkin raised the bar of our profession very high over the course of his brilliant career with the New York Racing Association."

The 47-year-old added, "I'd like to thank everyone at Churchill Downs who treated me very well during my brief time there. I am trading one dream job for another. I'm also very happy that the New York Racing Association is also giving me the opportunity to continue my work at NBC and to call the winter at Gulfstream."

NYRA's back-up announcer and Director of TV Production John Imbriale will call the Belmont fall meet and be the Aqueduct announcer until Collmus arrives in April. With 15 years under his belt at the Big A, Imbriale will continue to be the main announcer at Aqueduct each year through the end of March.

In May, Durkin announced that his 24-year stint as the NYRA announcer would come to an end at Saratoga Aug. 31. NYRA will devote the majority of that final day to honoring Durkin's 43-year career.

"I would like to congratulate Larry and wish him the very best," said Durkin. "It has been a tremendous privilege to serve the loyal racing fans of New York for all of these years. I am confident that Larry will find New York racing as exciting and rewarding as I did."

KINGMAN PLEASURES GOSDEN

Trainer John Gosden told Racing Post that star sophomore Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is "in better shape than ever" ahead of an intended tilt at the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 17. The Khalid Abdullah colorbearer, who is in search of his fourth straight win at the highest level, put in a work over the Newmarket Limekilns gallop yesterday.

Kingman

"[Work rider] Rab [Havlin] said he gave him the best feel he's ever done," Gosden told the trade daily. "He's only a 3-year-old and is getting stronger as the season goes on and the plan is to run in the Jacques le Marois. Hopefully the ground won't be as testing as it was there last weekend and I'll have a look when I'm over there in the next few days."

Kingman, who was last seen winning the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood July 30, is one of eight still under consideration for the Jacques le Marois. Trainer Richard Hannon has left in the Al Shaqab pair of Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}), while top-class fillies Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) and Esoterique (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) are still under consideration.

HOOTENANNY REROUTES TO DEAUVILLE

Listed Windsor Castle S. winner Hootenanny (Quality Road), originally slated for a return to Europe for the G2 Gimcrack S. at York Aug. 23, will instead contest the following day's G1 Prix Morny at Deauville, according to trainer Wesley Ward. Ward noted that the decision came down to travel plans, citing that the route to York would have been much more complicated.

"I was really looking forward to seeing him run at York and I'm told it's a great meeting, but we can get a direct flight to Paris for the Morny and to run at York would have added another 10 hours on to his journey," Ward explained. "He would have had to get off the plane and pretty much go straight into the paddock if he were running at York. It would have been tough enough for him to overcome the journey, let alone win the race."

Ward won last year's Morny with No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) who, like Hootenanny, won a Royal Ascot contest in the G2 Norfolk S. Cont. p8

Ward has also ruled his GIII Jaipur S. winner Undrafted (Purim) out of the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 22. He noted a drop back in class would be in the 4-year-old gelding's best interest. The Wes Welker colorbearer was last seen finishing fourth in the G1 July Cup July 12.

"He's with my good friend [trainer] Robert Cowell," Ward said. "I had a talk with him after the horse had a good stretch the other morning and together we decided not to run in the Nunthorpe. I don't want to run my horses over in England unless I think they have a good chance of winning, and he might be better running in a Group 3 or a Group 2. He's staying with Robert and will come back to the States with Hootenanny after the Morny."

BYRON ON TARGET FOR YORK DATE

Globetrotting sprinter Gordon Lord Byron (Ire) (Byron {GB}) is on track for a reappearance in the Listed City of York S. at York Aug. 22. According to trainer Tom

Gordon Lord Byron

Hogan, the 6-year-old gelding will use that seven-furlong contest, which he won in 2012, as a springboard to a title defense of the G1 Betfred Sprint Cup at Haydock Sept. 6.

Gordon Lord Byron, who was last seen finishing eighth in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, pleased his handler in a racecourse gallop at The Curragh Sunday.

"He is in wonderful form and his work was very exciting," said Hogan. "The City of York S. at York on Friday week is his initial target, and then the Haydock Sprint."

Gordon Lord Byron has won Group 1 races in England, France, and most recently Australia, where he took the G1 George Ryder S. Mar. 29.

YORK POSSIBILITIES FOR ANTHEM

Noel O'Callaghan's G2 Queen Mary S. winner Anthem Alexander (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), ruled out of last Sunday's G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh due to the rain-softened ground, could resurface at York's Ebor meeting at the end of the month.

Trainer Eddie Lynam noted the 2-year-old filly holds entries in the G2 Lowther S. as well as the G1 Nunthorpe S. against older horses, and both races are under "careful consideration."

"She has a couple of entries in York next week and we will make a decision over the weekend about what we are going to do," Lynam said. "I've discussed it with her owner and we are going to talk again later in the week."

The juvenile remains on target for the Sept. 1 GI Hopeful S. "It was more of the same," Pletcher said. "He's a very, very impressive work horse. He went :47 and change effortlessly, and he came out of it well." In his bowt, Competitive Edge went wire-to-wire and won by 10 1/4 lengths. # op/ed feedback

The Blind and the Deaf Eugenio Colombo

The vast majority of owners, breeders and 100% of the public want ZERO medication on racing days. The major reason is to show to our society we are not animal abusers, but horse lovers and civilized sportsmen.

The total transparency of the races will give more credibility to bettors, who will be more supportive of betting and then more will come. No more cheaters, trainers and smart asses with exotic juices.

For the breeders, zero medication will show the true class of the horses and the correct financial value.

But to achieve this we MUST give American trainers better conditions to be competitive/equal with Euro and Australasian colleagues. How? Read on...

The track managements are responsible for some of our unsoundness issues. I am not referring to the track surface, but to the training and racing issues. First of all, in America we only have 3 1/2 hours, after breaks, to train in the morning versus the six hours of European trainers, forcing sets of 30 minutes versus 1 1/2 to 2 hours of Europe. Our horses do not have time for a proper warm up and cool down, everything is done under very stressful conditions, with negative consequences.

The condition book is more and more boring: 6f, 6f, 6f, 1 1/16...we must add more distance to races. Fast food does not leave emotional memories. Add more 1 1/8, 1 1/4, 1 1/2 distances, not only in graded races but at all racing levels. Our young trainers will have no idea how to train a real Thoroughbred versus a quarter horse.

STRAIGHT LINE training and racing (is the egg of Colombo) to build and keep the soundness, especially in young horses. The Mickey Mouse spins of 5/8ths-6 furlongs are the foundations of unsoundness. The first breeze on such tight turns is the favorite for vets and pharmaceutical companies. Adding swimming pools at the major racecourses would also be very helpful.

There are several reasons to move in this direction, besides protecting the soundness of the horses and the owners' investment; racing in a straight line will allow fields of 15/20 runners, making more spectacular races and more interesting betting.

Without fundamental changes in training and racing conditions/facilities, the battle for zero medication is an academic battle, a waste of time. These are not revolutionary ideas, but the evolution we need to give us a better chance to run on zero medication. They are not personal inventions, just suggestions of proven winning systems.

GULFSTREAM UNVEILS FALL STAKES

Gulfstream Park, which will operate a boutique meet at Calder this fall, announced the stakes schedule for the 40-day stand Wednesday. The schedule features 23 stakes races, including 12 turf stakes, worth a total of $1.775 million in the inaugural Fall Turf Festival. There will be three multi-stakes cards: the Nov. 8 $600,000 Sunshine Millions Preview Day; the Nov. 22 card highlighted by the $100,000 GIII Tropical Turf H. and $100,000 GIII My Charmer S.; and the Nov. 29 card six stakes for juveniles. "We believe the stakes schedule for the first Fall Turf Festival presented by Gulfstream Park will serve as a bridge between the summer and winter meets and benefit local horsemen as well as those shipping to Gulfstream and Palm Meadows for the winter season and championship meet," said Gulfstream's Vice President of Racing P.J. Campo. "Obviously, this will be a new experience for all of us, but we intend to learn from this inaugural meet, get feedback from horsemen and fans, and begin building on what we hope will be a great fall tradition in Thoroughbred racing." The meet runs from Oct. 8 through Nov. 30.

Spring to the Sky, a runaway debut winner in the Belmont mud during his 2-year-old season, continues to fire on all cylinders. Third in last term's GIII Woodford S. at Keeneland, Spring to the Sky ran them off their feet in an optional claimer at Belmont June 29, then added Saratoga's Lucky Coin S. in similar fashion July 20. Making his first start on dirt since a ninth-place finish in the 2012 GIII Bold Ruler H. in this off-the-turfer, the second-choice broke from the gate like a shot. With leading rider Javier Castellano in the irons, he zipped through an opening quarter in :21.68, and held off the heavy chalk despite drifting out through the stretch. The result stood despite a claim of foul by the connections of the runner-up and a stewards' inquiry. "It was a last-minute decision [to stay in and run]," trainer Bruce Brown revealed. "When Jason [Servis'] horse [Tightend Touchdown] came out, we figured, 'Let's give it a shot.' He's really been breaking great, and then he can take advantage of his speed after that. When he starts to get tired, he tends to drift a little bit."

Eastwood was a smart winner in his first two attempts for owner Chris Baccari and trainer Mike Mareina at Belmont Park last term, then switched hands for $800,000 at the Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age sale. The chestnut had failed to live up to the billing in his first four tries for the Todd Pletcher barn, including a fourth-place finish in the GII True North S. June 6 and a close second behind the streaking Confrontation (War Pass) in an optional claimer downstate July 5. Favored in this scratched-down off-the-turfer, he stalked Zee Bros through a hot opening half in :44.89 and blew by that one in the stretch to win for fun. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Kentucky Downs Renames Franklin-Simpson Mile:

The Franklin-Simpson Mile will now be known as the More Than Ready Mile and will be worth $200,000, Kentucky Downs announced yesterday. The race will be held Saturday, Sept. 13. "It is an honor to involve WinStar Farm in the upcoming live season and to rename our prestigious one mile event the More Than Ready Mile," said Kentucky Downs President Corey Johnsen. "More Than Ready has international acclaim as a stallion, so it is appropriate that he be identified with our unique one mile course, which is run with one long sweeping turn." Elliot Walden, President and CEO of WinStar Farm where More Than Ready stands at stud, added, "WinStar is proud to be associated with such a lucrative and high profile day of racing at Kentucky Downs. More Than Ready is a world class stallion, so he was an obvious choice as the namesake for this stakes race."

Coteau Grove to Expand Breeding Operation:

Keith and Ginger Myers's Coteau Grove Farms, based in Sunset, Louisiana, has revealed plans to expand its breeding operation, while reducing its racing program. "From the outset, our business plan was to build our brand through racing while continuously evaluating, upgrading, and growing a high-quality broodmare band," said Keith Myers. Through Select Sales, Coteau Grove has consigned 21 Louisiana-bred yearlings and horses in training to the Sept. 3 Equine Sales Company of Louisiana Yearling sale and the Sept. 23 Breeders's Sales Company of Louisiana Yearling Sale. Among those on offer at the first sale will be Afternoon Tango (Afternoon Deelites), winner of the Aug. 2 Louisiana Cup Filly and Mare Sprint.

He went to the sidelines after a distant 11th-place effort in the GII Woody Stephens S. last June and resurfaced with a fourth-place finish in his turf debut in a July 18 optional claimer. Merit Man settled just off the pace through an opening quarter in :21.93. 5th-SAR, $73k, Msw, (S), 2yo, f, 5 1/2f

Bernstein Flambe (Bernstein), a homebred for the Rosenthal & Bernstein partnership, has shown some talent besting a number of teams and catching our eye. She has a very solid pedigree and looks like she can break maiden early in her first or second lifetime start. She did well at Belmont and may be live second time out and maybe off the rail?

The Lewis Dinner (Posse) caught the eye in the paddock first out here at Saratoga July 18. She ran a winning race, but fell just short. The $50k OBS April purchase was a tail swisher in her :10 flat preview over the synthetic OBS surface. She is bred to win early.

Go Babe hails from the first crop of Tale of Ekati. She was purchased for $115k after a good breeze at OBS March. Excellent gate work on Oklahoma training track while best over a workmate, and also bred to win early and best around one turn. This one looked fast at OBS and looks fast here.

Lady Daphne is a well-bred NY filly by Harlan's Holiday out of a Carson City mare. Bought as a weanling for $55k at the Keeneland November Sale, she has grown into quite the young lady. She has made our ALL-STAR-WORK REPORT and boasts excellent gate works, including Javier Castellano being on board in Aug. 8 gate work with nice filly Fila Primera. Bred for a high turn of speed and a win-early type.

Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) is most likely the filly to keep an eye in the future. Not saying she can't win today, but has some upside and is likely to be smart down the road with seasoning and more distance. Having said that, she does possess strong speed in her pedigree as well the ability to stretch speed out, and looks like a very solid horse for her 3-year-old season. She has also landed on our ALL-STAR-WORK REPORT.

Saluda (Congaree) is lucky to have escaped injury after going down to her knees and nose in last start. She goes from two rail draws to the far outside. She has shown very good speed for Mike Dilger. She is bred to have excellent early speed around one corner. This is her game, one turn, and with a better start, she could be right there. Click for the Brisnet.com PPs.

6th-SAR, $83k, Msw, 2yo, 5f

Dark Moon (Malibu Moon) is bred to be a nice horse later in the fall as his pedigree suggests. He caught the eye at Belmont, but looks like he has gone through the motions at Saratoga. Also, five furlongs is a little short for him. Most likely may need a race and 2-year-olds improve leaps and bounds in second lifetime start. He looks like a quality colt off his :21.2 OBS March preview.

El Kabeir (Scat Daddy) has impressed me in the a.m. Loved his July 30 Saratoga main work in :48.1. We had him finishing like a freight train. He has speed in a win-early pedigree for Terranova. The $250k OBS August yearling could be very well live here despite the short five-furlong distance.

Blofeld (Quality Road) is 8-5 on the morning-line here, and really hasn't done much other than that fast gate drill Aug. 8, where he blazed a shade under :46 on our watch and beat a fast horse in own right, 2-year-old Vandalize. Was an expensive 2-year-old in training purchase out of the Florida Fasig- Tipton sale at Adena in Ocala, Florida this past spring. Been waiting to see what the Quality Roads can do, and we get the chance at a short price here.

Malibu Warrior (Malibu Moon) demands the same comments as Dark Moon above. Bred to be better later, but also possesses speed for longer races down the road. He does sport three five-furlong works, including one on the grass course. He also has been working since June 10 and may have a good foundation. Not sure if he's five furlongs quick, but overall like his foundation.

Bingley (Medaglia d'Oro) has shown speed in the morning, which most likely comes from his Distorted Humor mare. Bred to a good middle-distance runner, he has shown he can run from the gate, especially working with Proven Commodity, who ran fourth to Requite Saturday. Darley spent $400K on him as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton August Select Sale here at Saratoga last year. Five-furlong race, however, may be too quick. Expect better later? Click for the Brisnet.com PPs.

Lady Pimpernel had contested handicaps in 11 of 13 prior starts and was unconsidered at 20-1 for this black-type bow coming off a 10-furlong handicap score at Newmarket Aug. 2. The chestnut was roused from an outside box and settled on the lead after the first turn. Building up a sizeable buffer by halfway, she allowed the pack to close when given a breather approaching the three-eighths pole and re-established daylight under a final-quarter drive to claim a career high in determined fashion. "It was the plan to make the running, but we didn't break very well and it looked like we might have to go to Plan B," explained rider Dane O'Neill. "She's a better filly when she's up front--she's got that big stride and has won over further in the past. We wanted to make use of her stamina and the worry was, if we dropped in, it might be stop-start [pace] and turn into a mile race. She's an ideal front-running ride and is nothing if not resolute and genuine, and it's nice to get the black type."

FRANKEL NAMED HOSPICE AMBASSADOR

Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) has been named an ambassador of the East Anglia Children's Hospices in recognition of the £12,000 raised for the hospice by donations from his merchandise sales.

Frankel's late trainer Sir Henry Cecil and owner-breeder Juddmonte Farms chose EACH as the beneficiary charity of sales of Frankel merchandise in 2012. The funds also include proceeds from tours to meet Frankel, donations made by Juddmonte clients and proceeds from Frankel Breyer models.

EACH Fundraiser Karen Newton said, "We wanted to recognize the fantastic funds and publicity Frankel has raised for us thanks to the late Sir Henry Cecil and Juddmonte Farms, and we're delighted Frankel has become an EACH Ambassador. Frankel joins the rank of other EACH Ambassadors including musician Ed Sheeran, author Anthony Horowitz and celebrity chef Delia Smith, and will be an asset to us."

Juddmonte's General Manager Philip Mitchell added, "Sir Henry Cecil had huge admiration for all that EACH does and members of our team have seen first hand the Hospice at Milton, and were extremely impressed with the facilities and level of care. It is wonderful that through the continued interest that the public have in Frankel he, together with Juddmonte Farms, can help in this meaningful way."

Mixing it with the best at two, Carla Bianca gave Australia (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) something to think about when second to that Ballydoyle luminary on debut over seven furlongs at The Curragh in July before finishing fourth in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. over the same track and trip in September. Slow to come to hand this term, the grey broke her maiden at the fifth attempt over 10 furlongs at Navan June 14 before adding the Listed Naas Oaks Trial to her tally at that distance last time June 25.

Carrying a three-pound penalty as a result of those exploits, the homebred--who settled in mid-division early--was delivered wide at the top of the straight and, after gaining the lead passing the quarter pole, quickly asserted from a clutch of smart fillies. "It was an exceptionally good listed race, run at Group 3 or 2 standard given the pace they ran it at," trainer Dermot Weld told Irish Racing Online. "She has progressed very well from the spring. She took time early and we paced it slow, which has paid very good dividends. That's her trip. We'll take it one step at a time, but we'll find a big one before the year's out. Physically, she's developing all the time and is a filly who will make a lovely 4-year-old. She loves fast ground and that's as slow as she would handle." Jockey Pat Smullen added, "We were a little bit worried about the ground, but she traveled very strongly through the race and the very quick pace suited her. We always thought a lot of her and the penny's only starting to drop with her now that she's starting to relax and race properly."
