RUMOR HAS IT IN THE LAS FLORES

Rumor (Indian Charlie) overtook a game Teddy's Promise (Salt Lake) in deep stretch to secure a half-length victory in Sunday's GIII Las Flores S. at Santa Anita. Sent off at 6-1, the bay mare settled into a stalking position along the rail as Shumoos (Distorted Humor) led the field through an opening quarter in :22.11. Teddy's Promise sprinted to the lead leaving the backstretch, had a two-length advantage after a half in :44.64 and looked likely to give trainer Ron Ellis a birthday graded stakes victory. But Rumor was finding her best gear late and she surged to the lead in the dying strides, completing the 6 1/2 furlongs in 1:15.44. "She had a perfect trip," trainer Richard Mandella said of the winner. "I didn't really think we'd beat Teddy's Promise, because she's such a good mare, but my mare ran her heart out today. She's not the best mare in the world, but she's not far off." Cont. p3

FORT LARNED ESCAPES INJURY

G1 Breeders' Cup Classic winner Fort Larned (E Dubai), who fell out of the starting gate and lost jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr. in Saturday's GII Gulfstream Park H., appears to have escaped major injury in the mishap. "He's walking good this morning," trainer Ian Wilkes reported yesterday. "We'll keep a close eye on him a couple more days to make sure nothing else comes up. Otherwise, he looked good this morning. He grabbed a quarter. It wasn't too bad. It could have been a lot worse." Despite the incident, Wilkes was feeling lucky. "How lucky do we get," he asked. "The horse fell on his head; he's lucky he didn't really hurt himself. He could have ripped his whole heel off or he could have broken his leg. The way he fell, his whole head hit the ground." Wilkes said he would continue to watch Fort Larned for the next few days before making a plan for a future race. Hernandez was uninjured in the incident and was back riding at Fair Grounds Sunday. "I'm fine today," said Hernandez. "I didn't get hurt at all. The only thing that was bruised was my pride. Now my only concern is for the horse. I hope he comes out of the race without any problems."

Rumor Has It (cont. from p1)

Rumor, a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆, was already a two-time stakes winner over this track and trip, but was seeking her first graded stakes tally. She won the L.A. Woman S. last October before concluding the 2012 season with a fifth-place effort behind champion Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) in the Nov. 3 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint. In her 2013 debut, Rumor was seventh over the turf in the Feb. 10 Wishing Well S. "She never looked like she really extended herself down the hill," trainer Richard Mandella said of that most recent effort. "I don't think she liked it."

Mike Smith could tell Rumor was ready to give a better effort this time around. "Last time I rode her, she was just quiet, really, really quiet," Smith explained. "Today, I said, 'I really want to warm her up,' at least, at some point, get her into the race and see what would happen. When I did, she just locked on, and once she did that, I knew she was going to run, it was just a matter of being good enough. I'm not too sure Teddy's Promise ran her race today, but when I saw that she wasn't really 'kickin' on, I thought I had a shot to win it. Once I got her clear, she went on about her business. She went to the front a little sooner than you would want, but like I said, you never know with 'Teddy;' she might fire a big one on us. You got to get her when you can, and that's what we did. She kind of loafed a little at the end and she won well within herself."

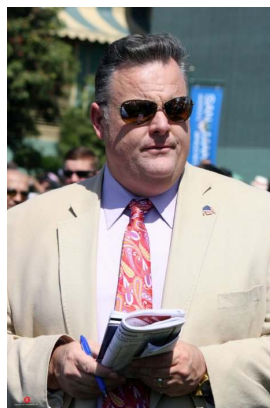

As for where the 5-year-old mare might start next, Mandella said, "She runs well enough on synthetic. We might look at the [Apr. 13 GI] Madison at Keeneland. If she had run poorly, she's done enough to be a broodmare, but the gals [owners Ramona Bass and Adele Dilschneider] have said, if she's doing well, we can keep her racing. We'll see how it goes, but obviously we're in pretty good shape right now."

Ron Ellis wasn't overly disappointed with the runner-up effort of favored Teddy's Promise. "[Victor Espinoza] had a lot of horse and kind of had to let her go," Ellis said. "She just got run down, but we were eight, 10 lengths in front of the rest of the field. Rumor ran a huge race today." As for what is next for the GI Santa Monica winner, Ellis added, "I don't know. The [May 4 GI] Humana Distaff [at Churchill Downs] was a consideration had she won this race easy, but we'll have to see what the owners want to do."

Walking Around Lucky...

After successfully pinhooking a pair of Lawyer Ron colts at the 2012 OBS March Juvenile Sale--including GI Kentucky Derby hopeful Itsmyluckyday--former-trainer-turned-bloodstock-agent Nick Hines marches back to Ocala with another set of promising prospects on behalf of his growing list of clientele.

First up to bat for "the Sarge" is hip 135, a Horse Greeley half-brother to Strike the Bell (Mizzen Mast), GSW, $301,112. Consigned by Eisaman Equine, the $95,000 KEESEP yearling breezed in :10 2/5, and galloped out in fractions of :11.57 and :12.67, per Hines.

"He's cat-like and is very quick on his feet," said Hines, who also splits his time as an analyst for TVG. "He has a great disposition. I'm convinced that he's an early horse that has the capabilities of getting a mile. Personally, I think he's a star."

Hines continued, "He got a little aggressive prior to his work. It's just one of those things. He did everything right up until that day, then he kind of goofed off a little bit and it may've cost him a 1/5 or 2/5 of a second. But he's a wonderful specimen, has a beautiful walk, and Barry Eisaman has done a wonderful job with him."

Hip 327, a Latent Heat colt out of the stakes-placed Fred Astaire mare Mesabu, sells during the second session. The dark bay, consigned by Paul Sharp, worked in :10 1/5 and was caught galloping out by Hines in splits of :11.07 and :12.86. He was acquired for $37,000 at last year's KEESEP sale. Cont. p4

“He’s an albatross and makes it look easy,” the 42-year-old commented. “He’s a two-turn colt with a nice turn of foot and he has a great mind. He reminds me a lot of Itsmyluckyday, but he’s stretchier and has more scope. He’s shown the proper development since the fall. Paul Sharp thinks he’s just starting to come around now.”

Hines added, “When he breezed Friday, he looked like an aircraft carrier. He’s got a huge stride on him.”

Sherackatthetrack

Itsmyluckyday, last seen dethroning champion juvenile Shanghai Bobby (Harlan’s Holiday) in the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Jan. 26 (video), brought $110,000 from trainer Eddie Plesa at last year’s OBSMAR sale. Hines plucked him out of the 2011 Keeneland September sale for $47,000.

“Itsmyluckyday displayed something that you don’t normally see with yearlings,” the Las Vegas native explained. “When he came across, he looked like a horse that had an old soul and appeared to have the potential to be any kind. His walk and overall aptitude were beyond his years.”

The GI Florida Derby-bound Itsmyluckyday has won five of nine career starts, including four stakes races, and has posted $425,600 in earnings.

“He’s definitely a throwback—he’s not your 2000s type animal,” Hines offered. “He’s already run nine times, and he’s done everything that Eddie Plesa felt he could do and probably more. It’s been a magical ride.”

Will True Up, the other son of the ill-fated 2007 GI Whitney H. and GI Woodward S. hero, also proved popular in the OBSMAR ring for Hines and company last spring, attracting a $165,000 bid from trainer/juvenile sales sharpshooter Peter Miller. The $65,000 KEESEP yearling was recently a rallying second in the grassy Baffle S. going down the hill at Santa Anita Mar. 2.

Itsmyluckyday
Horsephotos

“Prior to buying Itsmyluckyday and Will True Up on behalf of my clients, I probably only purchased three yearlings in my life,” Hines revealed. “They are really the first two pinhooks that I ever got involved with.”

Hines, a former racing manager for Michel Moreno’s high-powered Southern Equine Stables, is quick to pay tribute to owner Mike Shustek for helping him launch his career as a bloodstock consultant.

“He was the first one who stepped up and said, ‘I want you to find me a Derby horse,’ and the first big horse that I bought for him [$140,000 OBSJUN 2-year-old purchase Behindatthebar] became Derby eligible by winning the [GII] Lexington S. [at Keeneland],” Hines said. “I’ll never forget him for that.” Cont. p5

In addition to selling, Hines is also keeping his eyes open for potential acquisitions. He's had some good luck at this sale before, advising on the purchase of subsequent 2011 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship S. hero and GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity runner-up Majestic City (City Zip) ($180,000 2yo '11 OBSMAR). Hines also bought last month's GIII El Camino Real Derby hero Dice Flavor (Scat Daddy) privately off Eddie Woods during last year's OBS April Sale before pinhooking him through the Stephens Thoroughbreds consignment for $100,000 at BESMAY.

"We're scouting--I've got various clients and I'm just trying to build my business," Hines concluded. "It's a work in progress. It really comes down to the opportunity of a client having faith in you, and in that regard in a short amount of time, I've been quite blessed." -Steve Sherack

Bringing the Thunder to OBS March...

Randy Bradshaw--one of most respected names in the breaking-and-training game--returns to the sales' scene with a five-horse draft courtesy Everett Dobson's Cheyenne Stables at this year's OBS March Sale.

Randy Bradshaw
rkbbreakingandtraining.com

Dobson, a minority owner in the NBA franchise Oklahoma City Thunder, is best known for racing millionaire and MGISW Caleb's Posse (Posse) in partnership.

"Everett and I got together last fall and talked about doing a 2-year-old consignment," said

Bradshaw, who helped facilitate the former Adena juvenile auctions during his tenure with Frank Stronach's operation. "We specifically went to the sales and tried to find yearlings that would fit in the $100,000 or less range, and ones that we thought we could make some money with. It's a nice group--we have five really good horses. They are all quality."

"I have one colt that really stands out, the Yes It's True half-brother to Neck 'n Neck," Bradshaw continued. "He's a second foal and is a big colt--he's about 16.1 hands--and he's extremely fast for a big horse. He's impressed me since day one."

Bradshaw certainly has the credentials to recognize a good one when he sees it. The native of Wyoming's 35+ years of training experience includes a pair of invaluable stints as an assistant under Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas in the 1980s and late '90s. He has also overseen the breaking and training of champions Vindication (Seattle Slew) and Ginger Punch (Awesome Again) while at the helm of Satish Sanan's Padua Stables in Florida and Frank Stronach's Adena Springs South, respectively.

Bradshaw has done it on his own on raceday, too. He trained millionaires Artax and Urbane, multiple graded stakes winner Petionville and also tightened the girth on six-furlong world-record holder Petro D. Jay back in 1982. Does Bradshaw get the same rush in his current role behind the scenes?

"I do enjoy it," he replied. "I have the opportunity to go at a steady pace and not get in a hurry [training wise], and with young horses, it's all about letting them develop. Sometimes, at the racetrack, you have outside pressure and that can make you do things that you really don't want to do. I'm very fortunate to have quality people and clients that are very patient and allow me to do the right thing by the horse. That's always been the bottom line, and if you could do that, you can put out a good product."

Bradshaw breaks and trains approximately 75-85 head per year for a high-profile list of clients at his Adena South, Williston, Florida, base, including the aforementioned Dobson, Bobby Flay, Hidden Brook Farm, Irving Cowan, Marylou Whitney, et al. The latest big-name graduate to make headlines from his program was 2011 GI Kentucky Derby hero Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}).

"We want to keep it select and boutique," Bradshaw said of his fledgling pinhooking venture. "Keep the quality up and the numbers down. I also have five for OBS April, including a couple that I bought for myself. It's just something that we can supplement our income with and have some fun at the same time." Cont. p7

NEWS TODAY

DOMINGUEZ NEARS RETURN

Jockey Ramon Dominguez, sidelined since a spill at Aqueduct Jan. 18, visited the track Sunday and said he is hopeful his return to the saddle is imminent. The 36-year-old could receive the ok to start exercising horses at a Mar. 25 doctors appointment. "I'm pretty optimistic that he will find me good enough to come back," said Dominguez. "From that point on, if he OKs me, it will just be a matter of getting fit again, and that shouldn't take too long. I'm speculating, but it depends on what they say, and on the 25th we'll see."

Dominguez, a three-time Eclipse Award winner, fractured a skull in a spill the day before this year's championship ceremony.

"Unless they're lying to me, everyone is happy, not only with my condition, but with the progress I've made in a short period of time," said Dominguez. "In the beginning, I felt like, 'I'm OK! I don't need this,' but right away I realized I was getting a lot of help from all of the different types of exercises."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

GOLDEN MYSTERY RETURNS FOR NEW OWNER

Golden Mystery (Awesome Again), last seen on the racetrack winning the Feb. 10 Gill Hurricane Bertie S., will make her first start since being sold to Regis Farms for $625,000 out of the Fasig-Tipton February Winter Mixed Sale in next Saturday's GII Inside Information S. at Gulfstream. The 7-year-old mare shipped to Kentucky for the sale the day after her Hurricane Bertie victory and had returned to the Calder barn of Marty Wolfson by the end of the week.

"I had hoped they [Regis Farm] would send her back to me," said Wolfson Saturday. "She's just doing so well this winter. She's in the best form of her career. She worked good [Saturday, a half-mile in 48 1/5]. She only missed training for about five days, which is as long as she would have had off anyhow after a race, even without going through the sale. I think seven-eighths is probably her best distance."

Wolfson has five fillies nominated to the Inside Information and said, "Actually I could enter up to four in there. If one of the others hits the board in a graded stakes it could possibly double their value."

One of Wolfson's five nominees is Spectacular Sky (Sky Mesa), owned by Golden Mystery's previous owners Farnsworth Stables.

MORE CHOCOLATE FIRES BULLET

Michael Talla's More Chocolate (Malibu Moon) worked a bullet six furlongs at Santa Anita Sunday in 1:12. The 4-year-old filly won the Jan. 20 Gil La Canada S. in her most recent start and goes postward in next Saturday's GI Santa Margarita S. "She went beautiful," Larry Benavidez, assistant to trainer John Sadler, said of the work. "She galloped out strong. She was about eight [lengths] behind a workmate and did it the right way. She's ready to go."

CARVE BEATS THE RAIN FOR REBEL WORK

Michael Langford's Carve (First Samurai), claimed for $30,000 out of a debut win at Oaklawn Jan. 25, tuned up for the Mar. 16 Gil Rebel S. with a half-mile breeze in :50.40 Sunday at Oaklawn. He completed the drill just before heavy rain left the track sloppy. "All's well and the work went as planned," said trainer Steve Asmussen. "We got a little lucky that this was his normal set and we were able to get him out and back without any problem. We feel good about where he's at. That's what we were looking at today and he's on the way to the Rebel, like we'd been pointing him." Carve was claimed from his breeder Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider. He returned to take a 1 1/16-mile Oaklawn allowance Feb. 17.

Cross Traffic earned the prestigious "TDN Rising Star" distinction, going two-for-two with this impressive performance. In his only previous start, the $300,000 FTSAUG yearling graduated by 1 3/4 lengths going 6 1/2 panels at this track, earning a 94 Beyer

Speed Figure, Jan. 24. Wickersheim (Unbridled's Song), who was runner-up that day, came back to romp by 11 lengths and earn a 96 Beyer Feb. 17 before facing off with Cross Traffic again in this contest. Backed at even-money in this one, Cross Traffic broke well and chased the pace set by

Wickersheim off the rail down the backside. He moved up to challenge on the turn and pulled away down the stretch to finish 7 1/2 lengths in front of last year's GI Travers S. third-place finisher Fast Falcon (Awesome Again). Wickersheim was third. The winning time of 1:35.17 matched the clocking for Cross Traffic's stablemate Discreet Dancer (Discreet Cat)'s win in Saturday's GII Gulfstream Park H. His dam Stop Traffic was purchased for $300,000 at the 1996 Keeneland November sale by Gerald Ford of Diamond A Racing after finishing third in that year's GI Acorn S. Kept in training and transferred to Richard Mandella, she took the 1998 GI Ballerina H. and 1999 GI Santa Monica H. for Diamond A. She had a full-sister to Cross Traffic sell for $500,000 as a yearling at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale, and an Indian Charlie filly go for $350,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale--both were purchased by Tom McGreevy for Fox Hill Farm. Stop Traffic produced a Medaglia d'Oro colt in 2012. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $51,300. CLOSE HATCHES (f, 3, First Defence--Rising Tornado, by Storm Cat) earned the "TDN Rising Star" distinction for a seven-length romp from off the pace going seven panels here Jan. 26, and was made the 4-5 choice on the stretch-out having scratched from the previous day's Suncoast S. at Tampa. Right to the front this time from her rail draw, Close Hatches doled out opening splits of :24.24, :48.51 and 1:12.61 while pursued by Montana Native (Yes It's True). She shook free from that foe at the top of the lane, and had enough left in the tank to hold Kimberly Jean (More Than Ready) at bay by a measured 1 1/4 lengths. Montana Native held third. With yesterday's score, Close Hatches increased trainer Bill Mott's next-out record to 4-3-1-0 with his quartet of sophomore fillies tabbed 'Rising Stars' this meet, following Tapicat (Tapit)'s score in Tampa's GIII Florida Oaks Feb. 2; Calistoga (Speightstown)'s facile allowance tally Thursday; and Flashy Bull (Flashy Bull)'s runner-up finish in Saturday's GIII Honeybee S. "They're all nominated for the [May 3 GI Kentucky] Oaks," Mott said of his formidable group of 3-year-old fillies, which also includes fellow Juddmonte colorbearer Emollient (Empire Maker), runner-up in the GII Demoiselle S. in November and a Gulfstream allowance winner Feb. 16. "There are good races for them about every two weeks and we'll see which one's up for which races as they come along. It is a good position to be in." Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $51,300. Saez, Lezcano Recovering from Saturday Spill:

Jockeys Luis Saez and Jose Lezcano were both recovering Sunday from a spill in Saturday's fifth race at Gulfstream Park. Saez was resting at Memorial Regional Hospital with what agent Richard DePass called "a very small hairline fracture of the hip, pelvis area." DePass added, "He's going to be out between three and five weeks, according to the doctors. They think because of his age, and the fact he's an athlete, he will heal a lot quicker. Considering what happened, he's doing very well." Lezcano was released from the hospital Saturday evening. He suffered a sprained ankle and was off his mounts Sunday. Jockey Francisco Torres walked away from the spill. The three horses involved in the incident were also uninjured.

Flattered by two fast-figure next-out winners from that heat in Governor Charlie (Midnight Lute) and Salutos Amigos (Salute the Sarge), the bay was backed down to 2-5 with a :59 flat bullet work over the strip Mar. 4 on display. Looking like a candidate for the All American Futurity early, Let Em Shine built up a large advantage through a half in :43.88. He showed no signs of stopping in the lane, and cruised home a 4 1/2-length winner from MGSP Special Jo (Johannesburg) in a jaw-dropping display of speed. The winner's third dam is a full-sister to the dam of Unbridled's Song, the sire of Songandaprayer. Sales history: $10,000 yrl '11 KESEP; $100,000 2yo '12 BESMAR. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $73,800. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

SHIRLEY'S KITTEN (f, 3, Kitten's Joy--La Cat, by Mr. Greeley), who suffered her only defeat when third in the Oct. 21 G3 Premio Dormello at Milan last time, was steadied off the pace in fourth for most of this sophomore bow. Making smooth headway in the long straight, the 3-4 chalk was ridden along to challenge passing the two pole and drew off late under continued urging to score by 2 1/2 lengths from Savana Pearl (Ire) (Byron {GB}). The winner is a half to Picou (With Approval), MSW, $244,872. Lifetime Record: GSP, 4-3-0-1, €33,660.

BEST TANGO (ITY) (c, 3, Mujahid--Nikita Tango {Fr}, by Sicyos), a last-out fourth going an extra panel here in the Nov. 1 G3 Premio Guido Berardelli, broke well from the outside box and bounded to the fore after the initial strides of this seasonal return. Unflustered when headed by Rock of Malta (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) with three furlongs remaining, the 2-1 second choice regained control inside the final quarter mile and was driven out to repel that persistent rival by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 6-3-1-0, €33,762. O/B-Elia Tanghetti; T-Gianluca Bietolini.

MULAAZEM RETIRED

G2 MRC Autumn S. winner Mulaazem (Aus) (Dubai Destination--Watchful {Aus}, by Danehill), a half-brother to Australian 2-year-old and sprint champion Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality), has been retired to stud at Emirates Park Digger's Rest in Victoria, Australia. He will stand for A$7,700, with a limited number of lifetime breeding rights available. A winner of three of seven starts, Mulaazem was last seen finishing eighth of 10 in the G2 Hobartville S. at Rosehill Mar. 2, where he sustained a career ending injury.
