SPRINTERS LIGHT UP THE VALLEY

Tomorrow's meeting under the lights at Moonee Valley features the G1 William Reid S., where a field of crack sprinters lines up under weight-for-age conditions in a race won by superstars such as Black Caviar (Aus), Apache Cat (Aus) and Miss Andretti (Aus). Dual Group 1 winner Samaready (Aus) (More Than Ready) gets early favoritism as she attempts to snap a three-race losing streak. The 2012 G1 Blue Diamond heroine wrapped up her spring campaign when eighth in the G1 Manikato S. over this track and trip Oct. 25, after which it was found she had suffered some degree of pulmonary hemorrhaging. She appeared flat before re-rallying to finish third in the G1 Black Caviar Lightning S. resuming Feb. 15, and was most recently sixth, beaten almost six lengths, in the G1 Newmarket H. down the Flemington straight Mar. 8. She does own a Group 1 win over this track and trip in last year's Moir S. Shamexpress (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}) appeared poised for a Group 1 victory after consecutive runner-up efforts in the G1 VRC Sprint in November and first-up in the Lightning, but he too failed to fire in the final strides of the Newmarket. The 4-year-old Danny O'Brien-trained colt, winner of last year's Newmarket, won going 1000 meters over this tricky track last January. The gutsy veteran Spirit of Boom (Aus) (Sequalo {Aus}) seeks his first Group 1 victory in his 39th start, and he could be poised to pounce off consecutive second-place finishes at the highest level, in the G1 Oakleigh Plate Feb. 22 and the Newmarket. Fawkner (Aus) (Reset {Aus}), winner of last year's G1 Caulfield Cup, makes his seasonal debut at a distance well short of his best. He was last seen finishing sixth in the G1 Melbourne Cup Nov. 5, and will no doubt use this as a stepping-stone to longer contests.

MELCHER MAKING STRIDES AT F-T FLORIDA

By J.M. Severni

Although Wes Melcher has only been in racing for the past three years, he's making a mark on the industry that could become more profound after hip 50 goes through the ring at next Monday's Fasig-Tipton Florida 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale. Melcher purchased the War Chant colt, who is a half to graded stakes winners Well Spelled (Spellbinder) and Kobe's Back (Flatter), for $68,000 at the Fasig-Tipton October Sale.

Kobe's Back
Benoit

Melcher, who owns Double Infinity Ranch outside of Dallas, has always been a fan of racing, but has only become involved from the ownership side recently.

"I grew up going to the Quarter Horse races in Ruidoso, New Mexico--my parents had a cabin growing up there as a kid, so we went there every summer and watched the All-American Futurity and watched the Quarter Horse races," the West Texan explained. "So that's really where I first got excited about racing."

It wasn't until after he helped start the Dallas-based World Ventures--one of the largest travel clubs in the world--that Melcher began to take racing more seriously. "I've always been a sports fan and I've always been a racing fan and then I went to the Kentucky Derby five years ago and I decided that I was going to own a horse, so I started doing my research," Melcher said of his start in ownership." Cont. p3

FASIG-TIPTON FLORIDA SALE

Monday, March 24 • Noon
 Under Tack Preview: March 21 • 9 a.m.
 Adena Springs South • Williston, Florida

"I basically read every book that was written about horse racing and I started reading veterinary handbooks and watching conformation videos," Melcher continued. "I basically gave myself a horse anatomy and physiology degree myself. I claimed my first horse in July of 2011."

Melcher now has about 40 horses that run mostly in Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana under trainer Bret Calhoun.

Melcher's commitment to the sport became even more serious last June when he purchased Double Infinity Ranch outside of Dallas. Not only does Melcher keep a string of broodmares on the ranch, but his yearlings are broken there as well.

"I bought a ranch just outside of Dallas in June," Melcher offered. "We put in a 5/8-mile training track, so I bought about 20 yearlings this year. All of those horses, except for the horse that's selling [at Fasig], were broken and trained at my facility."

The War Chant colt has been in Florida with consigner Paul Sharp since being purchased in October.

"Because it was so late in the year, he went straight to Paul Sharp in Florida. Paul actually broke some of my horses last year," Melcher commented.

Although Melcher has pinhooked horses since 2011, hip 50 could turn out to be one of his most profitable ventures.

"The pedigree had already shown one graded stakes horse," Melcher said of his decision to buy the colt as a yearling. "When I had bought the horse, Kobe's Back had broken his maiden in a stakes race in California, so obviously the pedigree was very active. We really liked the horse when we saw him in person and I used John Gasper, who used to be the farm manager at Vinery. He and I work together on a lot of different horses and he's been kind of an advisor for me and he liked the horse as well, so we decided to buy him. When Kobe's Back kept developing, it didn't fit my racing program because the horse was worth so much more than the horses that I run. So, we decided that it was a better pinhooking prospect than a racing prospect for me because we know he's going to be a graded stakes horse caliber."

The Fasig-Tipton under-tack show will begin at 9 a.m. Friday morning at Adena Springs South in Williston. The sale starts Monday at noon. CLICK HERE TO SHARE THIS STORY

El Padrino Gets Late Invite for Golden Shaheen...

El Padrino (NZ) (Mr Nancho {Arg}), who carried American jockey David Flores to an upset victory in the Merlion Trophy at Singapore's Kranji Racecourse Mar. 14, is a late addition to the field for the $2-million G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Meydan Mar. 29. Trained by Alvin Tan, who worked for trainers John Ward and Murray Johnson during a stint in Kentucky from 2002 to 2006, El Padrino made three starts during the Dubai International Racing Carnival in 2012, winning a 1400-meter handicap over the Tapeta track before finishing unplaced in a pair of subsequent appearances. Sent off at odds of 11.80-1 in the Merlion Trophy and drawn one from the outside, El Padrino drifted back to the tail of a fairly compact bunch for the opening 800 meters, but exploded when switched out to the grandstand side in the stretch and drew off to score by five handy lengths (video). Word came Tuesday of the late call-up for World Cup night. "It's very exciting and I'm looking forward to it," said Tan, a former Republic of Singapore Air Force regular. Flores will not be in the saddle for the Shaheen, as Oscar Chavez, who had ridden the gelding in each of his 23 prior starts, will jump back aboard.

ZITO LOOKING FOR RIGHT "SPOT"

Trainer Nick Zito continues to mull options for the next start for Joe Moss's Spot (Pulpit), upset winner of the Mar. 1 GII Swale S. "I guess you could say I have to find the right spot for Spot," Zito said. "That's what I'm looking at. Mr. Moss is a gamer and he wants to run somewhere. I'm basically looking at what I should do." Spot is scheduled to work at Palm Meadows Saturday, after which a decision on the Mar. 29 GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby will be made. "I have to see how he works Saturday," Zito continued. "After Saturday, I'm supposed to talk to Joe and tell him what we think," Zito said. "Obviously we're home right now in Florida and I have a good record in the Florida Derby. If there's a small field in the Florida Derby, I know the horse is extremely tough. Everybody's goal, especially Mr. Moss's, is to run in the Kentucky Derby. On paper, the Florida Derby is very, very tough. No matter how you look at it, we're probably better off staying home. He looks good and he's doing fantastic, thank God. He's doing well and we've got a pretty good record in the Florida Derby, so who knows?"

Also awaiting a weekend work before making a decision on a next start is Ron Sanchez, whose Social Inclusion (Pioneerof the Nile) is expected to work at Gulfstream Park Saturday. Both the Florida Derby and Apr. 5 GI Wood Memorial are under consideration. "We are weighing the advantages of running here or running in New York," Sanchez said. "We will make an announcement on Saturday after the workout."

Sanchez is still weighing offers to buy the talented sophomore. "We have a bunch of offers, but some of them didn't send a contract," Sanchez said. "We have a couple of contracts, but that kind of money doesn't make me happy. I have some conditions. Some of the people just want to take the horse and move him to another trainer and run him in the preps. After his next race, I'm pretty sure we're going to have a deal. We're very close to a deal."

John Oxley's Matador (Malibu Moon) has been added to the list of contenders for the Florida Derby. The Ontario-bred won last year's Cup and Saucer S. over the Woodbine turf. He was fourth in the Feb. 1 GIII Sam F. Davis S. and was most recently fifth after a slow start in the Mar. 8 GII Tampa Bay Derby.

"We're going to put blinkers on Matador to try to get him a little more into the race [early]," said trainer Mark Casse. "We think he has a little more speed than he's been showing. He got away a little bit slow [in the Tampa Bay Derby]. They came over on him at the start and he was just plastered with dirt."

FENTON CASE TO BE HEARD TODAY

The case of leading Irish jumps trainer Philip Fenton, who was allegedly in possession of illegal substances—including steroids—when his yard was searched by state inspectors in January 2012, will be heard in a Carrick-on-Suir district court today. To be discussed at the hearing are submissions filed by Fenton’s legal team on issues they claim to have found on summonses detailing the prosecution.

Judge Terence Finn, who heard the case when it was before the court last month, said they would be examined to see whether they affect the district court’s jurisdiction ahead of any trial. Fenton faces eight charges brought by the Irish Department of Agriculture in relation to the alleged possession of illegal substances at his Co. Tipperary yard.

Aussie Rider Nathan Berry Hospitalized in Singapore...

Australian jockey Nathan Berry, who has been riding on a contract in Singapore, will spend a minimum of two weeks in a hospital after being diagnosed with a case of viral encephalitis. Berry, the twin brother of top jockey Tommy Berry, collapsed suddenly during trackwork Tuesday morning and was reported to have suffered a seizure before being transported to Gleneagles Hospital, where tests and scans pointed to the diagnosis, an inflammation of the brain caused by a virus. The 23-year-old rode a pair of winners this past Sunday at Kranji and was booked to ride G1 Golden Slipper hopeful Unencumbered (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}) in the G2 Todman S. this coming Saturday at Rosehill.

Nathan Berry
Racing and Sports

Tommy Berry has been named by trainer Bjorn Baker to take over in the irons aboard the Magic Millions

2YO Classic hero. Nathan Berry was also booked to ride White Sage (Aus) (Reset {Aus}) for trainer John O’Shea in the G1 Coolmore Classic. That mount will go to James McDonald. Singapore trainer Michael Freedman has been keeping close watch alongside Berry’s newlywed wife Whitney. “We’ve had many phone calls from people concerned about Nathan,” said Freedman, who has been instrumental in bringing Berry to Singapore. “We ourselves didn’t know what really happened to him until late in the afternoon yesterday. I was told he was not himself [Tuesday] morning at trackwork. At the holding area, he apparently fell asleep. The doctors don’t really know how he got this illness, but it could have been as far back as six weeks ago.” Berry will also be forced to miss the Golden Slipper S. in Sydney Apr. 5. Tommy Berry expressed his appreciation on Twitter, saying, “Thank you to every1 for their concern...he is in great hands with the best medical staff.” CLICK HERE TO SHARE THIS STORY

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

H-2B BILL ADDRESSES ANNUAL CAP, WAGE METHODOLOGY AND OTHER CONCERNS

Congressman Andy Harris (R-MD) recently introduced H.R. 4238 to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act that provides requirements for employers of H-2B nonimmigrant workers and is the basic body of immigration law.

Rep. Harris' bill includes, among its provisions, an amendment that covers returning workers and how they impact the annual cap on the number of H-2B visas available to employers. Specifically, H.R. 4238 reinstates the returning worker exemption so that those workers who complied with the terms of previous H-2B visas can return to the U.S. and not count against the cap of 66,000 visas. Of that number, 33,000 are made available for the first half of the fiscal year and 33,000 for the second half. The first half cap already has been reached.

The legislation also clarifies the methodology used to determine the prevailing wage rate that H-2B employers must pay and ensures that workers receive compensation that is both fair and reflective of current market conditions.

The H-2B visa program is used by many industries, including horse racing, to access temporary seasonal workers when domestic help is unavailable. Horse trainers typically use the program to hire grooms and other barn help.

BRAZIL IS THE EXCEPTION

By Diego H. Mitagstein

Worldwide, getting a Triple Crown winner has become a very difficult journey. Brazil, however, seems to be a special place nowadays. Each year in Brazil there are a pair of Triple Crowns: at Gavea in Rio de Janeiro and the other at Cidade Jardim in the enormous San Pablo City.

The actual record in the country of the samba and the "carnaval" is really incredible. Last Sunday, Bal a

Bal a Bali wins the Brazilian Triple Crown

Bali (Brz) (Put It Back) became the third winner of the series in the last three years in winning the G1 Grande Premio Cruzeiro at Gavea.

Plenty of Kicks (Brz) (Crimson Tide {Ire}), with Jorge Ricardo on the irons, was the first to arrive, when shining at Gavea during the 2012 season, and Fixador (Brz) (Crafty C.T.) enjoyed the same pleasure last year at Cidade Jardim. Now, Bal a Bali joins the team in fashionable form, as he won two of the three gems in record time.

Bal a Bali is the 12th winner of the Carioca Triple Crown and beat Hendrix (Brz) (Honour and Glory) by a length, stopping the clock at 2:23.25, a new stakes record for 2400 meters on the turf track. He took the first leg of the Triple Crown, the G1 Grande Premio Estado do Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 12 in 1:31.36, a new track record for the mile, and the second leg, the G1 Gran Premio Francisco Eduardo de Paula Machado, Feb. 16.

Bred by Haras Santa Maria de Araras and owned by Stud Alvarenga, Bal a Bali was ridden by V. Borges and trained by Dulcino Guignoni. He has won nine of 10 starts and finished third in his lone loss.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

They both have records. They both have tattoos.
Because of the TRF, they both have a second chance.

Saving horses. For over 30 years, the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation has saved thousands of off-track Thoroughbreds from abuse, neglect, and slaughter.

Saving people. Through its innovative Second Chances Groom Elite™ program, the TRF trains inmates at 10 correctional facilities around the country in Groom Elite™ Horsemen's Education and they, in turn, provide compassionate care for the TRF's herd.

The TRF saves horses and people, alike.

The TRF's Second Chances Groom Elite™ program is exactly that: an unparalleled shot at redemption—a chance to learn practical and life skills and reenter society equipped for a fresh start.

The TRF thrives because of the generosity of those who believe in compassionate aftercare for our Thoroughbreds, the therapeutic relationship between animals and humans, and promoting animal welfare.

PAPY (g, 4, Dynaformer--Sacred Feather {GSP, $187,177}, by Carson City), third on debut here Dec. 29, was fifth last time over this course going 1 1/16 miles Feb. 9. Firing a five-furlong bullet at Payson in 1:04 flat Mar. 9, he was selected as the 2-1 chalk for this rare marathon maiden. The dark bay tracked from third through an opening quarter in :23.49 then slid onto the rail to sit in fourth through a half in :47.73 and three-quarters in 1:13.30. Swung out for a three-wide bid entering the lane, he cruised clear under a hand ride to earn his diploma by 2 1/4 lengths over Boss Man (English Channel). Sales history: $350,000 RNA yrl '11 KEESEP. Michael Ritvo Makes Riding Debut:

Jockey Michael Ritvo, the son of Gulfstream Park President and General Manager Tim Ritvo and trainer Kathy Ritvo, finished fourth aboard his first-ever mount, 17-1 longshot Tiz Naughty (Tiznow) in Wednesday's third race in Hallandale. "That felt wonderful," the 19-year-old Ritvo said. "I was actually nervous getting to the gate, but as soon as I was in the gate, it all went away and I was ready for business." The 4-year-old Tiz Naughty, who was making his second start in Wednesday's maiden claimer, is trained by Howie Teshler. Kathy Ritvo, who trains GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), admitted she had some anxious moments as her son headed out to the post. "I was a little nervous before the race, but he did good," she said. "I'm proud of him."

Apprentice Jonathan Zayas Suspended:

Apprentice jockey Jonathan Zayas has been handed a five-day suspension for 'failure to finish' the fourth race at Aqueduct Mar. 14, 2014, 'in a professional manner,' according to a ruling on the New York State Gaming Commission website. Zayas was aboard the Jena Antonucci-trained Lady C Note and sat a stalking second in the $12,500 maiden claimer before joining the leader midway on the turn. He was outfooted into the stretch and was a clear second into the final furlong, but appeared to put forth little effort in the waning strides and was relegated to third at the finish (video). Zayas will be suspended Mar. 24 and Mar. 27 through Mar. 30.

INDUSTRY INFOTERF Endowment Passes $2 Million:

The Thoroughbred Education and Research Foundation, a non-profit charitable organization which provides scholarships in equine veterinary medicine, is accepting grant applications for 2014. Grant applications are being accepted for both scholarships and equine education initiatives. "The TERF Board of Trustees is personally committed to funding education and has had the good fortune and foresight to prudently oversee the original endowment dedicated to our mission, with the fund now valued at over $2 million," said TERF co-founder Herb Moelis. "We will continue to safeguard this endowment so we can continue to provide equine veterinary education scholarships, and grants for worthwhile equine advocacy." For more information, visit www.TERF.info.

Jockeys' Guild Calls for Minimum Accident Policies:

The Jockeys' Guild has put out a call for the need for all tracks to have at least $1-million in on-track accident coverage. "It is fundamentally unfair to ask riders to risk death or paralysis without keeping in place adequate on-track insurance to deal with the actual costs of their injuries and rehabilitation," National Guild Manager Terry Meyocks said in a statement. "All racetracks that only have $500,000 on-track coverage must raise their on-track insurance to equal at least $1 million. Furthermore, we call on the industry to study whether the $1-million on-track policies are even adequate for today's medical costs. While the Guild assists its disabled and permanently disabled riders, that assistance is no substitute for adequate on-track insurance to pay for the medical and rehabilitation that jockeys today face. Our industry's old fashioned response of holding a fundraiser or a bake sale, however well-intentioned and meaningful as a show of personal support for an injured rider, should be in addition to, and not a substitute for at least $1 million in on-track insurance coverage."
