WINTER'S DAY AT ROYAL ASCOT

Winter stops the clock in the Coronation | racingfotos.com

Susan Magnier's Winter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) lit up Newmarket's Rowley Mile when annexing last month's G1 1000 Guineas, repeating the dose more impressively when besting stablemates Roly Poly (War Front) and Hydrangea (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Irish equivalent three weeks later, and she powered home in Friday's G1 Coronation S. as that trifecta was replicated at Royal Ascot. Allowed time to find a rhythm under cover in fourth after exiting the outside box, the 4-9 favourite cruised into contention off the home turn and dominated under urging once pouncing for control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining to comfortably account for Roly Poly by 2 1/4 lengths, with Hydrangea a further neck away in third. "She was really impressive and did that really well," said Anne-Marie O'Brien. "She's really good and had to battle, but was by far the most superior there." Husband and trainer Aidan added, "She's a filly thriving from race to race. She travelled well, Ryan [Moore] had her in a lovely position and she came home really well. She's very classy, she gets the [one-mile] trip really well and gallops out strong when asked. [Former trainer] David [Wachman] thought the world of her last year and she's just getting better and better." Moore heaped further praise on the winner and continued, "She's very professional and only does what she has to do. It's a hard task to win two Guineas and then come here, but the trainer can do those magic things. She's beaten good horses from France and America, it's concrete form and she's a high-class filly." FROM HEARTACHE STEMS GREAT JOY

By Emma Berry

One of the most popular winners of Royal Ascot will undoubtedly be Heartache (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), who is owned by 76 members of the Hot To Trot racing syndicate, the brainchild of Luke Lillingston and Sam Hoskins.

On a day when it was too hot even to break out of a walk, the Clive Cox-trained filly had her joyful owners sprinting for the winner's enclosure after her victory over favourite Happy Like A Fool (Distorted Humor) in the G2 Queen Mary S. on Wednesday.

"When we set this syndicate up six years ago, the whole idea was to get people into racing horses who wouldn't normally do so and perhaps couldn't afford to do so on their own but loved racing and loved going racing," said Lillingston. "I know the team behind Merrielle Stable pretty well and I know that they came here full of confidence with Happy Like A Fool. Frankly, I thought that the best we could hope for was second, but two furlongs out I started to think it just might be our day." Cont. p13

Winter becomes just the second filly to complete the 1000 Guineas-Irish 1000 Guineas-Coronation S. treble, following Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) in 2004, and may tread a similar path to that trailblazer, who lost her perfect record in Newmarket's G1 Falmouth S. backing up her win here. "We might head to the [July 14] Falmouth in three weeks' time, but we will see how she is as she has had four quick races in not a lot of time," O'Brien revealed.

Reflecting on the performances of Roly Poly and Hydrangea, O'Brien continued, "We're delighted with them both and they have run crackers." Roly Poly's jockey Seamus Heffernan was in agreement and said, "It was a good run and they are three really good fillies." Hydrangea's rider Padraig Beggy was reading from the same script and opined, "Hydrangea has run a cracker, she does not know how to run a bad race and always tries her best. I got a little outpaced on that ground, but she tries her best and it doesn't really matter what the ground is. On that surface, she'd get a mile-and-a-quarter."

Pedigree Notes...

Winter is the second foal and sole black-type performer out of the impressive 2010 Wokingham H. scorer Laddies Poker Two (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}). She descends from French champion juvenile and G1 Prix Morny winner Ancient Regime (Olden Times), who also produced G3 Concorde S.-winning sire Rami (Riverman), G3 Prix Eclipse-winning sire Crack Regiment (El Gran Senor) and Listed Prix Yacowlef-winning G1 Prix de l'Abbaye runner-up La Grande Epoque (Lyphard). Winter is followed by two more sired by Galileo--the 2-year-old filly Snowflakes (Ire), who ran eighth in the G3 Albany S. earlier in the day, and a yearling filly. Click for the free Equine.com catalogue-style pedigree.

BARNSTORMER

It was billed by many as the race of the current Royal meeting, and Friday's G1 Commonwealth Cup did not disappoint, with Caravaggio (Scat Daddy) getting the better of the Godolphin pair of Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) close home to provide the middle part of a Group 1 treble for Ballydoyle this week. Hardening into 5-6 favourite despite the healthy respect shown to his opponents, Susan Magnier's unbeaten grey--who had given notice that he was back when powering to success in Naas's G3 Lacken S.--gave a moment of concern when rearing in the stalls before racing mid-pack as Harry Angel served it up on the front end. It took until the last 100 yards for last year's G1 Phoenix S. and G2 Coventry S. winner to get to the royal blue contingent, but at the line he had 3/4 of a length to spare with Harry Angel, who heroically held off Blue Point by a half-length. Cont. p4

“He got into a good rhythm in the race and they were two very good colts leading him, so I had to wake him up to do it and it is hard to make up ground here today for whatever reason,” jockey Ryan Moore explained. “It’s the first time he’s been asked a serious question and he was a bit unsure at first. Although they made him work, he picked them up well in the end. I think that was a fairly exceptional race and he beat two very good horses who weren’t stopping. I think there is some more improvement in him.”

Whatever has been thrown at Caravaggio, he has dealt with with an admirable professionalism alongside his obvious class. Contending with rain-eased going when landing the Listed Marble Hill S. at The Curragh last May, he had those conditions again when also overcoming a draw which placed him away from the pace in this meeting's G2 Coventry S. the following month.

His 2-year-old farewell was a premature one, as after his stroll in the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh in August he was ruled out of the G1 Middle Park S. with a setback and as he was prepared for his sophomore season there was talk of a Guineas bid, which only went away in the lead-up to the Poule d'Essai des Poulains. Set fair for a sprinting route which began with the G3 Lacken S. at Naas on May 21, Caravaggio beat the Coventry placegetter Psychedelic Funk by the same margin that he had at last year's Royal meeting, which showed he was at least where he was in 2016.

With Harry Angel blazing the trail up ahead, the much-vaunted pride of Ballydoyle was able to take his time in mid-division and move into the race just as the pace was becoming too hard to sustain. Despite Harry Angel having done too much early on, Caravaggio had to fight to get alongside the talented Clive Cox representative and the determined Blue Point with a half-furlong left, and it was only in the final drag to the line that he asserted his superiority. Interestingly, the Lacken third Mr Scarlet (GB) (Dandy Man {Ire}) was 6 1/4 lengths behind Caravaggio this time, having been 6 1/2 behind in the Lacken.

As if this success in such a strong renewal of this new contest was not enough, Aidan O'Brien was suggesting there was plenty to come. "We were treating it as a second-stage race, as he had a lovely race at Naas when he won last time," he said. "He was racing against 3-year-olds again today and after that, we thought he would be stepping up against older horses. He was just ready for his next step today. The lads had it in their mind to come here and then maybe somewhere like the [July 15 G1] July Cup [at Newmarket] and then somewhere else after that. The lads have a plan in their mind that he might go to Australia for The Everest [at Randwick on Oct. 14], so we have to be very conscious now if we want him to last for the autumn."

"Every time we get a winner here, it always means something. We were unlucky to lose Scat Daddy a few years ago and this horse is his fourth winner at Royal Ascot this year. Hopefully, this fellow will take his place." - John Magnier

There was a genuine sense of occasion from the associated Coolmore members at Ascot on Friday and O'Brien revealed that he was feeling some pressure. Cont. p6

“I was very nervous as he was just ready to come through today--he was just ready as we hadn't really chased him but we always knew he was very brave,” he said. “Ryan was super confident on him and put him to sleep in the race. He said he would have a look at halfway where everybody was and that is what he did. He had plenty to do at halfway behind two good horses and he only raced for two-and-a-half furlongs. He was very relaxed in himself before the race--he was very natural and there was no edge to him. He is a natural free sweater anyway, but I was surprised by how cool he was--he is a very calm horse. He is very quick, I would be happier at two furlongs than six furlongs with this fella. He is the fastest horse we have ever had. We felt that, because it was his second run back, we were afraid to do too much because we didn't want to lose that brilliance that he has.

I'd say there's plenty left, as he wasn't worked up to it in any way and we were letting him come along slowly.” John Magnier added, “Every time we get a winner here, it always means something. We were unlucky to lose Scat Daddy a few years ago and this horse is his fourth winner at Royal Ascot this year.

Hopefully, this fellow will take his place. He is unbeaten so far, so fingers crossed. He is a better racehorse than Scat Daddy and it is a cross that we need. It's just fortunate for us that he has come at the right time, like the cavalry.”

Harry Angel lived up to his billing and trainer Clive Cox was delighted afterwards. “It was a great run, a great horse race,” he commented. “He wore his heart on his sleeve a little bit there, but when you take the blindfold off them and they jump that quick there's not a lot you can do about it. Adam [Kirby] has given him a great ride and it was a very, very special race. I don't think it will be long before he takes his revenge in a Group 1 race. We'll see how he comes back from this race, but we're just very pleased with this.” Blue Point's trainer Charlie Appleby said of the third, “It was a great race to watch and it was billed as a great sprint, so none of them let it down. From my personal point of view, he needs to get on a flatter track as he has all the attributes for that. He travels very well and has got a turn of foot, so he has an array of options.”

Pedigree Notes...

Caravaggio is a half-brother to the GII Gallant Bloom H. winner My Jen, who descends from the stakes-winning and GII Black Helen H. runner-up Silver in Flight. She in turn is the second dam of the GIII Lexington S. and GIII Lawrence Realization H. winner and GI Secretariat S. third Sharp Performance (Kris S.). Silver In Flight's stakes-winning half-sister Stark Winter (Graustark) is the dam of the four-times Grade I-winning sire Bien Bien and the GIII Long Branch S. and GIII Royal Palm H.-winning sire Dr. Schwartzman. This is also the family of the GI Donn H. winner Spring At Last and the GI Las Virgenes S. heroine Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band), who was responsible for this stable's group performers by Galileo (Ire), Foundry (Ire) and Housesofparliament (Ire), the latter of which was third in last year's G1 St Leger. Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) weakened to finish 10th in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby after beating subsequent G3 Hampton Court S. hero Benbatl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in last month's G2 Dante S. at York, and his aptitude for a battle was in evidence once again as he delivered another Royal winner for trainer Mark Johnston in Friday's G2 King Edward VII S. at Ascot. Positioned in a prominent second after William Buick steadily angled his mount across the track from a wide gate, the 6-1 chance was stoked up on the home turn to seize control at the top of the straight and he kept on ruggedly under a final-quarter drive to bravely hold Khalidi (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) by a half-length, with Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) becoming yet another placegetter for the Sir Michael Stoute team a further 1 1/4 lengths adrift in third. "Mark [Johnston] gave me a lot of confidence beforehand, in the sense that he just wanted the horse to go forward and get across," explained Buick after registering his third win of the week. "I wanted to go forward without asking him too much and the horse did exactly that. You don't want to be traveling too wide around here and he got a nice pitch when they steadied the tempo down. Mark and the team were surprised how bad he ran in the Derby and I wasn't any help as I had no explanation either. He certainly felt like a much better horse today and it was a good performance."

Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's bay was second to Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in Epsom's Apr. 26 Investec Derby Trial before adding the May 6 Listed Newmarket S. to a resume which now reads six wins from a dozen starts. He is not the first to bounce back from a 10th in the Derby to win this "Ascot Derby," as the feat had already been achieved by the Sir Michael Stoute-trained duo Papal Bull (GB) in 2006 and Across the Stars (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) last year.

Permian takes the King Edward VII | Racing Post

Khalidi fared worse than Permian at Epsom, finishing 14th, and he too bounced back here. John Gosden was understandably delighted with his performance and said, "He ran a great race and I am thrilled with him. He's had a lot of racing, as has the winner, and both have run exceptional races for horses who have been so busy. We'll see where we are and where we go from here, but he's a real tough cookie. It was difficult in the race for Olivier [Peslier] to get where he wanted to get. The winner had first run on us, but Khalidi has run his heart out and done nothing wrong at all. It was a great performance." Peslier added, "He has run well, but we just could not get there and the line came too soon."

Sir Michael Stoute remains tied atop Royal Ascot's all-time leaderboard with Sir Henry Cecil on 75 winners after yet another placing this week, but he was nonetheless happy with the run of Crystal Ocean. "It was a good run and it shows he is consistent," said the Newmarket-based conditioner. "He is a horse with a lot of scope and will progress." Crystal Ocean's rider Andrea Atzeni added, "The pace was a bit to slow, but it was a good run and he is improving. He is a horse for the future."

Pedigree Notes...

Permian is a son of the dual stakes winner Tessa Reef (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) and is a half-brother to Listed Wolferton

H. second Second Wave (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), the three-time stakes placegetter Samana Cay (Authorized {Ire}) and a yearling colt by New Approach (Ire). Tessa Reef is a daughter of Listed Prix Amandine victress Massaraat (Nureyev), herself a full-sister to the storied MG1SW multiple champion Miesque, who in turn produced MG1SW sire Kingmambo (Mr. Prospector), MG1SW European highweight East of the Moon (Private Account) and the GSW sires Miesque's Son (Mr. Prospector) and Mingun (A.P. LEAGUE OF HER OWN

Largely ignored at 20-1, Different League (Fr) provided her first-season sire Dabirsim (Fr) with a momentous result as she upstaged the 2-1 favourite Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in a thrilling finish to Friday's G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot. Last seen doubling her tally over this trip at Angers on May 23, the bay tanked her way to the front of the far-side group before the furlong pole under Antoine Hamelin. Kicking decisively passing the quarter pole, she was always holding the similarly unbeaten market-leader in the run to the line, where she held a neck advantage. "She's a great filly and this is a dream," Hamelin said. "Beforehand, I wanted to sit fourth or fifth, but she got to the front and was not at her maximum. The other filly just pushed me on."

Sent to the Maisons-Laffitte-based trainer Matthieu Palussiere after failing to make her reserve at Doncaster in August, Different League became the second winner for her Haras du Grandcamp-based freshman sire when scoring on debut over five furlongs at Lyon-Parilly on May 11 and 12 days later followed up by two lengths at Angers with the first two clear of the remainder. Showing the kind of natural pace expected of a Wesley Ward trainee throughout the early stages, she had that trainer's Fairyland (Scat Daddy) covered inside the last two furlongs as the chief American raider started to tire having led the stand's-side bunch. It was just the Irish sensation Alpha Centauri who could go with the filly who had raced solely in the French provinces as the line approached and although the runner-up never gave up the chase she never looked likely to get there.

Palussiere was entirely surprised by the result, which marks a watershed moment in his career. "I was confident of a very good run, but to win I didn't know," he said. "I was a little worried as she jumped out, but she has a great temperament and is very professional. After two or three furlongs I was confident--the jockey knows her well. Her first start was just an educational, but her performance at Angers on her second start was exceptional. We were always going to come here for this. She has many options now, we have a few ideas in our heads." Palussiere, who previously spent 18 years in Ireland, including four with the Aga Khan Studs and four with trainer Michael Halford, was reflecting on a pinnacle of that period. "It means everything to me, I have always wanted to win a big one in England--at Royal Ascot or Cheltenham, as I have a few jumpers too," he added. Bansha House Stables maestro Con Marnane was on hand for the celebrations and said,

"We picked her up for eight grand, but we couldn't sell her as a yearling--we had her in at Doncaster Sales last year, but couldn't sell her. Nobody wanted her, but I am glad they didn't--she's an absolute beauty. We'd love to put her away for the Breeders' Cup, if failing that returning after the summer for some of the autumn Group 1s."

Different League denies Alpha Centauri in the Albany | Racing Post

Jessica Harrington was unperturbed after Alpha Centauri's first defeat. "The other filly just got first run on her," she commented. "She's never had to race that hard before, she's done everything very easily. The further she was going, the more she was putting her head down. Another couple of strides, she might have got it."

Phoenix Thoroughbred Limited's Take Me With You (Scat Daddy) managed to gain third place and come out best of the stand's side, but trainer Jeremy Nosedo had his own ideas about a track bias. "I'm just infuriated by watering policies," he said. "Why are they watering this ground? Why 4mm of water last night? The whole bias of the track has changed. The watering in this country has become absurd and ridiculous and I'm frustrated. I've never encouraged anyone to water the track. Watering of these racecourses has come to a point where it's absolutely ridiculous. If the Clerk of the Course, by his watering, wants to make results, then make results. But watering is changing results, it's not natural. Watering is not creating fair racing."

"We picked her up for eight grand, but we couldn't sell her as a yearling. Nobody wanted her, but I am glad they didn't--she's an absolute beauty."

CALLING THE TUNE

Royal Ascot's G2 Queen's Vase has been the exclusive domain of Sir Michael Stoute, Saeed bin Suroor, Mark Johnston and Aidan O'Brien this century, but it was the turn of John Gosden—who registered his sole success in 1992 with Landowner (Ire) (Kris {GB})—to crash the party as the Bjorn Nielsen homebred Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) outstayed his rivals to prevail in Friday's latest edition. Fresh from an Apr. 19 10-furlong handicap score at Beverley and a last-out second upped to an extended 12 panels around Chester's tight turns last time on May 10, the 11-2 chance was buried under cover along the fence in seventh as Johnston's Time to Study (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) bounded along on the front end. Andrea Atzeni remained unflustered when caught in traffic off the home turn and weaved a passage to the front with 100 yards remaining, driving out his mount to assert by a neck from Count Octave (GB) (Frankel {GB}) as Secret Advisor (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) ran on from the rear to finish two lengths back in third. "We planned this race for some time after Chester, Andrea's ridden him beautifully from an outside draw and saved ground all the way," Gosden explained. "He slipped here, he slipped there, wriggle, wriggle, and found his way through. He's not a big horse and won it in good style. He's a [G1] St Leger type, he's improving all the time and has a great attitude."

Reduced in distance from two miles and upgraded to Group 2 status for the first time this year, the contest is an ideal trial for Doncaster's Sept. 16 G1 St Leger, notwithstanding Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire})'s victories in both four years ago. John Gosden confirmed the world's oldest Classic as the chestnut's target and said, "He enjoyed the distance and all being well, we will point him to the St Leger. I think he might just have one more run before then. He is a light-framed horse and I want to keep him fresh. He doesn't need over-racing so he can just have a prep run and then go."

Runner-up Count Octave is also a St Leger possible, according to trainer Andrew Balding, and may take in that race's traditional stepping stone, York's Aug. 23 G2 Great Voltigeur S., en route to Doncaster. "This is only his fourth career start, he's still learning and we're delighted with him," Balding said. "He's a horse for the future and is a lovely stayer going forward. He might just be a Leger horse this year, but he wouldn't want the ground too soft as he's a top-of-the-ground horse. I think York would suit him very well as a track. Obviously we've got to discuss it with Sheikh Fahad, but to me it would be the obvious place for him." Cont. p11

Charlie Appleby was equally pleased after Secret Advisor made up ground from rear in the straight to get up for third nearing the line. "I am delighted with that," he said. "We always felt he'd improve with stepping up in trip and he is a nice horse for the future. This is only the fourth race of his career and he should improve more. Staying is going to be his game, that is what he is bred to do." Rider William Buick added, "It was a good run, but he wasn't really travelling early on so I had to settle at the back. They didn't go a great gallop, he made up great ground at the end and is one for the future."

Pedigree Notes...

Stradivarius is out of the dual stakes-placed Private Life (Fr) (Bering {GB}) and is a half-brother to G3 Bavarian Classic and G3 Furstenberg-Rennen-winning German highweight Persian Storm (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), G3 John Porter S. third Rembrandt Van Rijn (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) and the stakes-placed Magical Eve (Ger) (Oratorio {Ire}). His winning granddam Poughkeepsie (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is the third dam of G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin and G1 Melbourne Cup-winning Australian champion stayer Protectionist (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). His third dam is Pawneese (Ire), who was French champion 3-year-old filly in 1976 courtesy of her triumphs in the G1 Prix de Diane and Horse of the Year in England in the same year having captured the G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at this track. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

JUBILEE OF SPEED

Royal Ascot's action goes out with a bang on Saturday as Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) heads a heavyweight cast in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. While he has his downturns, on his day he is the finest older sprinter in Europe as he proved when running away with last year's G1 July Cup at Newmarket and G1 Prix de la Foret at Chantilly in October. Owner Paul Jacobs and trainer Henry Candy have no doubts that the easy ground scuppered his chance when 10th in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint at Meydan on Mar. 25, and he has needed all of the subsequent time off to regain his verve. "Hopefully it will still be good, fast ground on Saturday," Candy said. "If we don't get too much rain, it should be perfect. I've never seen him more depressed than when he got home from Dubai. I was surprised how much it did affect him. We had to force him a lot to get him as near fit as we could for World Cup night, then the ground was atrocious. He couldn't get any purchase on it and he pulled a lot of muscles and I think that is what got to him.

It has just been a case of giving him plenty of time. It has taken us a long time to get him back to his old self, but he seems to be there now. He is full of cheek and full of fun and he is working well, so I'm happy."

Limato and trainer Henry Candy | Racing Post

Fred Archer Racing's The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) returns to the scene of his career-best win in the G1 Qipco British Champions Sprint S. in October and he was carrying a penalty when fifth on his return in the G2 Duke of York S. at York on May 17. The clear-cut winner of that rain-affected contest was Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Tasleet (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), but he has vastly contrasting ground conditions to deal with as he bids to uphold his 2 1/2-length success from Magical Memory (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}). Tasleet's trainer William Haggas would prefer some rain after that performance, but he remains open-minded about the reason for the 4-year-old's sudden improvement. "He'd struggled on soft ground as a 2-year-old, so if anybody listened to me before he went to York I sadly put them off," he explained. "I'd always tried to avoid it, but he looked to relish it at York. I wouldn't mind a bit of give, but I think the drop back in trip suited him more."

Kennet Valley Thoroughbreds's Magical Memory (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) was fourth when favourite for this race staged on unsuitable good-to-soft last year and although he may have won had the rain not arrived he was seventh behind Limato in the July Cup and now has something to prove. The owners' racing manager Sam Hoskins is keeping the faith. "Charlie [Hills] is very happy with the horse and I think we've got to be delighted with the draw in stall 18," he commented. "He ran a cracker in the race last year to be beaten only half a length and we were really happy with his reappearance at York. Hopefully he should get much closer to Tasleet and hopefully that will be good enough to put him right in the mix."

There was only a nose between The Right Man (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) and Long On Value (Value Plus) when Limato flopped in the Al Quoz Sprint and although the betting suggests they will only be bit-players this time, The Right Man is already on the road for a $1-million Global Sprint Challenge bonus and Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott is saddling his first runner at this meeting in the possibly aptly-named Long On Value. His son and assistant Riley Mott said, "Since we've brought him back in distance he's been coming from well off the pace in his races. With him it's just a matter of getting him relaxed, whether he is up close or further back to allow him to find his stride."

STRONG CURRENTS

The Queen's Royal Ascot fortunes have taken a major upturn in recent times and last year's G2 Hardwicke S. was a notable moment for the monarch as Dartmouth (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) prevailed in a thriller to send the meeting's faithful home fulfilled. Subsequently third in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. and runner-up in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine in October, he was back in rude health to win the May 19 G2 Yorkshire Cup and Ryan Moore has been released by Coolmore to retain his partnership. "He's in good shape and he knows his way around the track," commented Sir Michael Stoute, who already boasts a record-breaking 10 wins in this. "He loves the track--he's solid."

Twelve months ago, Moore was on Exospheric (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) instead of the runner-up Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and this time he deserts that Ballydoyle luminary's full-brother Idaho (Ire). Despite that move, the feeling is very much that 'TDN Rising Star' Idaho is a good horse waiting to happen and this could be the moment his luck turns around. Unseating today's rider Seamie Heffernan in the home straight in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September, last year's G1 Irish Derby runner-up, G1 Epsom Derby third and G2 Great Voltigeur S. winner was slowly away when fifth in the Canadian International and needed his comeback when sixth behind Highland Reel in Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup on June 2.

Lady Bamford's Wings of Desire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) split Highland Reel and Dartmouth in the King George and may have found the G1 Juddmonte International coming too quick when ninth in that contest in August. Not seen since, the homebred faces a tough reintroduction as he prepares for another tilt at next month's showpiece event here. St Albans Bloodstock's Dal Harraild (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) relished an extra two furlongs when winning York's Listed Grand Cup on May 27, but is threatening to mature into a serious pattern-race performer while last year's G2 King Edward VII S. winner Across the Stars (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) needs to find marked improvement off his return fifth behind Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy) and My Dream Boat (Ire) (Lord Shanakill) in the G3 Aston Park S. over this trip at Newbury on May 20.

Royal Ascot Saturday cont.COME SEPTEMBER

After Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) graced the Listed Chesham S. last term, due respect must be given to anything Aidan O'Brien sends over and this time it is 'TDN Rising Star' September (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) who represents Ballydoyle. Successful by 5 1/2 lengths at Leopardstown on June 8, the daughter of Peeping Fawn (Danehill) is met by Godolphin's fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), who promised much when a narrow winner of his maiden on debut over six furlongs at Goodwood on May 25. "Masar won on his first start at Goodwood and the race has worked out very well," trainer Charlie Appleby said. "He has done physically well and I think stepping up in trip can help eke out some further improvement. Coming into Saturday, I think we have a real live shot."

Khalid Abdullah's Westerland (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is a half-brother to Showcasing (GB) and Camacho (GB) who is certain to stay this far on pedigree and on the manner of his latest last-gasp defeat of Hey Gaman (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) in a six-furlong maiden at Leicester on May 30.

Lillingston added, "Clive [Cox] has always thought that she just might be special but he had measured our expectations very well from the start."

Doubtless cheering every bit as heartily as the Hot To Trot members were the filly's breeders, Chris, Nicky and Ed Harper of Whitsbury Manor Stud, who currently lease two fillies to the club.

"Whitsbury Manor Stud have leased us fillies right from the very start which has been a huge help to us as it's not always easy to lease horses that you want to lease," Lillingston added, explaining that all seven of the club's horses in training are leased from breeders. "We started this year thinking that this was the best group we'd ever had but none of that could make us imagine what has happened today. We've had some very loyal owners over the years and our share of winners but today puts the cherry on top of the icing on the cake. Fifty-two members of the syndicate were at Ascot so it was quite a thrill for us all."

For Ed Harper, now director of the Hampshire stud which has become synonymous with breeding classy sprinters, the leasing arrangement works well. He said, "We've leased five fillies to Hot To Trot in total and all of them have won as 2-year-olds. We're proud of that record and the pressure is on to keep it up as Sam and I are good friends."

"The system works for us as we get the fillies back as future broodmares," he added. "We try to put up fillies with nice pedigrees that we think could be good and we're already thinking about what we might have for next year."

A first foal, Heartache remains unbeaten in her two starts to date and her family has served the Harpers well for several generations. Heartache's dam Place In My Heart (GB), by the Whitsbury Manor stalwart Compton Place (GB), won a five-furlong listed race for Clive Cox in Chris Harper's colours, while grandam Lonely Heart (GB) (Midyan) was a dual winner and listed-placed for David Elsworth, who also trained the great grandam, four-time winner Take Heart (GB) (Electric {GB}), for the Harpers. Cont. p14

"It is a family that has really helped dad over many decades--Take Heart broke the track record for a mile at Salisbury," recalled Harper, who noted that Place In My Heart has two fillies on the ground--a yearling by Whitsbury Manor's current flagship stallion Showcasing (GB) and a foal by Iffraaj (GB). The 8-year-old mare is now in foal to the farm's new sire Adaay (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}).

RARE RHYTHM (GB) (g, 5, Dubawi {Ire}--Demisemi-quaver {GB} {SP-US}, by Singspiel {Ire}), who was a 650,000gns TAOCT yearling, had been restricted to just five starts before this Duke of Edinburgh S. with his last one coming when eighth after meeting trouble in running in this race 12 months ago. Sent forward from his wide draw to race prominently in second, the 20-1 shot took over turning for home and stayed on strongly to win by 2 1/4 lengths from Appeared (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Trainer Charlie Appleby said, "He has been off a long time, but we knew we had got him right. I was confident coming into this race last year coming off another layoff, but it didn't pan out for us as it was a bit of a messy race. I thought the ground was key for this horse and that he would like decent ground. He met with a soft tissue injury and it knocked us out of running him in the November Handicap at Doncaster last year. He has twice been to Chelmsford for a gallop and he has also been gelded which has helped him get fitter. It was a great performance from the team and it is a big team effort--these are the days we are all here for, we haven't thought of any races for him beyond this stage." Demisemi-quaver, who was a useful performer who managed a stakes placing when sent to the States, had three dead foals after Rare Rhythm but has a yearling colt by Oasis Dream (GB) and a colt foal by Cable Bay (Ire). Canessar bagged two wins, before running fourth in last year's G3 Prix du Lys at this track, and registered another two scores this term, including over 14 furlongs at Saint-Cloud in his latest start June 2. Reserved off the pace for most of this marathon, he made smooth headway into contention approaching the quarter-mile marker and stayed on well once stoked up to challenge at the eighth pole to hold the vain thrust of Travelling Man for a career high.

The gelded grey is a half-brother to MGSW G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Candarliya (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), the hitherto unraced 2-year-old filly and Alain de Royer-Dupre trainee Canndiya (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), and a yearling filly by Motivator (GB).

WORLDWIDE NEWS*GODOLPHIN IN STRANGLES INQUIRY

Racing NSW stewards are investigating a potential strangles case in a Godolphin racehorse from August 2016. It is alleged that the horse suffered from, or was suspected to be suffering from, strangles and stewards have advised that they will conduct a formal inquiry on June 27. In a statement issued on Friday, Godolphin noted it is assisting with the investigation and will continue to cooperate with stewards.

Trainer Matt Cumani last month copped a six-month ban and a A$20,000 fine after he failed to properly report a strangles outbreak in his stable. John O'Shea was head trainer at Godolphin in August 2016, and he has since left that position, which will be taken over by James Cummings in July.

KITASAN BLACK TACKLES TAKARAZUKA KINEN

Winner of 10 of his 16 career appearances, Kitsan Black (Jpn) (Black Tide {Jpn}) shoots for a sixth Group 1 success as the heavy favorite in Sunday's G1 Takarazuka Kinen (2200m) at Hanshin, a "Win and You're In" test for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

Conqueror of future G1 Dubai Turf hero Real Steel (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the 2015 G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St Leger), Kitsan Black went on a tear in 2016, landing the G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) (3200m) and the G2 Kyoto Daishoten (2400m) ahead of a popular score in the G1 Japan Cup. Just turned over by the talented Satono Diamond (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the season-ending G1 Arima Kinen (2500m), he is perfect in two starts this term and enters off a successful title defense in the Tenno Sho in which he broke the track record previously held by Deep Impact. He'll look to improve on his close third to Marialite (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) 12 months ago.

"I think he ran a very strong race in the Tenno Sho (Spring)," his trainer Hisashi Shimizu commented. "He was more powerful than I had imagined he would be and he really has matured into an incredible horse. He's really something."

At 15-2 ante-post, Satono Crown (Jpn) (Marju {Ire}) is closest in the market to the 1-2 chalk. Sixth in last year's Takarazuka Kinen, Satono Crown was given a perfect ride by Joao Moreira and cut down Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase (2400m) in December. Subsequently too classy in the G2 Kyoto Kinen at this trip Feb. 12, he couldn't quicken with Kitsan Black in the G1 Osaka Hai and settled for sixth.

Looking the unlikeliest of winners for most of Friday's IRT Juvenile S. at Kranji, second betting choice Ferocious lived up to his name with a flying finish to scoop this 5th leg of the Golden Horseshoe style with room to spare.

Off slowly from gate five and at the very back for the opening 100 metres or so, Ferocious had tugged Rizwan Shafiq up into about mid-division in a bunched field, but was short of room and was shuffled back to third last on the far turn.

Steadied off heels with a bit more than a quarter-mile to travel, Ferocious began to make headway at the 200m, knifed through between Charger and Mokastar inside the final sixteenth and pulled away to score comfortably in the end.

Ferocious lives up to his moniker at first asking | Singapore Turf Club

"He was a little slow out of the gates, which threw off our plan to sit handier," winning trainer Mark Walker commented. "But Shafiq was able to hold him together and gave him a lovely patient ride. When the gaps came, the horse quickened away really well. He was a bit of a colt when he first came to us and we gelded him. I think he's a really nice horse."

Ferocious, who hails from the extended female family of the good Hong Kong sprinter Blizzard (Aus) (Starcraft {NZ}), has a weanling full brother. Wynnstay Avenue was most recently bred to Shooting to Win (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}). Torryburn Stud is also the breeder of the promising undefeated young Hong Kong galloper Hot King Prawn (Aus) (Denman {Aus}). Click for the Singapore Turf Club chart. VIDEO.

DOWN THE SHEDROW WITH CHRISTOPHE CLEMENT

Christophe Clement (r) & Hard Not to Like | Cecilia Gustavsson/Horsephotos

By Christie DeBernardis

Christophe Clement made the move from France to the U.S. in 1991 and quickly established himself as a top turf trainer. He has churned out top grass runners, such as three-time champion Gio Ponti; MGISWs Voodoo Dancer, Winchester and Hard Not to Like; and Grade I winners Rutherienne and Discreet Marq.

In 2014, Clement proved his talent also extended to dirt runners when Tonalist captured that year's GI Belmont S., ending now four-time Eclipse winner California Chrome's bid for Triple Crown glory. The "TDN Rising Star" also provided his conditioner with back-to-back victories in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and closed out his career with an exciting score in the 2015 GI Cigar Mile.

While Tonalist has since retired to Lane's End, Clement still has a Grade I-winning dirt horse in the barn in Yellow Agate (Gemologist) and, as always, is loaded with top turf horses.

● BEST PERFORMANCE (f, 2, Broken Vow)

West Point Thoroughbreds and Tango Uniform Racing's Best Performance donned cap and gown on debut at Belmont May 17 (video) and followed up with a game second in that venue's Astoria S. June 8.

"She came out of it in great shape. Unfortunately, we don't have any races until the Saratoga meet. We have two stakes over there, which are the [GIII] Schuylerville [S. July 21] and the [GI] Adirondack [S. Aug. 12]." Cont. p3

LETTER FROM ASCOT: JOCKEY DREAMS

by Dave Johnson

If you are reading this column, you probably wanted to be a jockey when you were a kid, right? Who didn't want to ride in a race if you went to your local track with family and friends.

I rode the back of the couch, like you did, while listening to the race call. I even rode my bicycle with a whip. One Indian summer evening, I needed a bit more from my Schwinn, and gave it a crack. The stick went through the back wheel and I damn near killed myself.

Today, I found out the most talented rider in Europe, William Buick, also rode the back of the sofa. But, at age 10 and the son Walter Buick, eight-time Norwegian champion rider, William made it a game.

The youngster was so attuned to the styles of the great riders at that time, that he had his dad guess who he was on the back of the couch by the way he was riding! Cont. p6

As the 3-year-old males prepare for the latter half of 2017, the GIII Ohio Derby and GIII Affirmed S. top Saturday's stakes schedule. A collection of G1 Kentucky Derby also-rans take center stage in Cleveland, while 'TDN Rising Star' and Derby third Battle of Midway (Smart Strike) uses the Affirmed as a prep for a bid at Monmouth Park's G1 Haskell Invitational July 30.

● CELESTINE (m, 5, Scat Daddy)

Winner of the 2016 GII Honey Fox S. and GI Just a Game S. for previous owner Phaedrus Flights and trainer Bill Mott, Celestine was purchased by Moyglare Stud Farm for $2.55 million at the Keeneland November sale and transferred to Clement to race another season. Kicking off her 2017 season for these connections with a victories in the Mar. 4 Sand Springs S. and Apr. 1 Honey Fox at Gulfstream, the dark bay was a disappointing fifth when attempting a title defense in the Just a Game June 10.

"She was a little jarred up after the Just a Game and a little bit stiff, but very manageable. She's getting a little bit of a break and then we will bring her back. I'm not sure where at the moment. We will put her well being first, then work her, then go from there."

Celestine | Andie Biancone

● DISCO PARTNER (h, 5, Disco Rico)

Patricia Generazio homebred Disco Partner is two-for-two so far in 2017. Kicking off this term with a win in the Elusive Quality S. at Belmont Apr. 29, the gray set a new world record for six furlongs on the turf with a sizzling victory in the GIII Jaipur S. in 1:05.67 on the GI Belmont S. undercard June 10 (video).

"He trained very well before the race and he was actually very impressive when came back going 7/8ths at Belmont this year. We are going to train him for a race called the Forbidden Apple [S. July 15] in New York. We are going to try and stretch him to a mile or more. Obviously he stays a mile, we will have much more choices, and if he doesn't, I will bring him back to sprinting afterwards."

● PURE SENSATION (g, 6, Zensational)

Three-time graded winner Pure Sensation finished a respectable third in last term's GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint and checked in fourth in his seasonal bow in Churchill's GIII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S. May 5. Sent off as the second-choice in the Jaipur, the Generazio homebred could not hang on after setting very sharp fractions early and finished fourth to his stablemate.

"I think he was very unlucky in the Jaipur. He got into a speed duel and they went too quick, but he still had a good race and only got beat in the last sixteenth of a mile. He is set to work this weekend with Kendrick Carmouche and if he is doing well, the plan would be to run him in the [GIII] Parx Dash [July 8]."

Frostmourne | Sarah K. Andrew

● FROSTMOURNE (c, 3, Speightstown)

Winner of the Awad S. last term, Green Lantern Stables homebred Frostmourne checked in second in Aqueduct's Woodhaven S. Apr. 22 and returned to winning ways with his first graded success in the GIII Penn Mile June 3 (video).

"Frostmourne came out of the Penn Mile in very good shape and is training forwardly. The plan is to run him in the [GIII] Kent [S. July 15] at Delaware, but he is still possible for the [GI] Belmont Derby [July 8]."

● LULL (f, 3, War Front)

Winner of the Juvenile Fillies S. at Kentucky Downs last term, Lull finished second to the highly-regarded La Coronel (Colonel John) next out in Keeneland's GIII Jessamine S. and closed out 2016 with a fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf Nov. 4. A disappointing seventh behind La Coronel in the GIII Appalachian S. in Lexington Apr. 13, the Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider homebred missed by just a nose when second in Belmont's Soaring Softly S. May 20 and is entered in Saturday's Wild Applause S. over that course.

“Lull is doing great. She is supposed to run tomorrow. I just hope the weather cooperates. She is a much better filly on firm than on soft. I have always liked her a lot. I think she is a tremendous filly and she trains like a very nice horse. I know she got beat last time, but I don’t think she lost anything in defeat. Let’s see what happens tomorrow and we will go from there.”

● SQUEEZE (f, 4, Lemon Drop Kid)

Robert Evans’ Squeeze opened her account with a win at Keeneland in April 2016 and was tabbed a “TDN Rising Star” after an impressive allowance score at Belmont last June (video). Sidelined after that victory, the dark bay is scheduled to return in the third race at Belmont Saturday.

“She is coming off a long layoff and also a major soft tissue injury as a 3-year-old, but she seems to have healed well. Her works have been satisfactory and I guess the next step is to run her.”

● YELLOW AGATE (f, 3, Gemologist)

China Horse Club’s Yellow Agate followed up on her debut win at Belmont last September with a victory in the GI Frizette S. a month later. A disappointing 10th in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Nov. 5, the bay made her seasonal bow at Laurel June 17, finishing fourth in the Alma North S.

“I thought the first race back was actually better than it looked. To finish fourth is a disappointing performance, but the winner was very impressive. I thought she went okay to tell you the truth. She was not 100%. She will be 100% next time. I have not yet pinpointed a race that I like. Maybe it will be to go a mile somewhere and we will go from there.”

● PORTMAGEE (f, 4, Hard Spun)

Capturing a Gulfstream optional claimer Mar. 19, Waterville Lake Stable’s Portmagee made it two in a row with a victory in Belmont’s License Fee S. Apr. 30 at odds of 7-1 (video). She led every step of the way in Belmont’s GIII Intercontinental S. June 8, but was run down late and finished third, beaten less than a length.

“She’s a nice filly, an improving kind of filly. Six furlongs is great for her. Obviously, 7/8ths is pushing it a little bit and she’s not a miler. She will run in another sprint stakes somewhere.”

Yellow Agate (L) | Sarah K. Andrew

● GUCCI FACTOR (g, 4, Gio Ponti)

Shelved after finishing ninth in a nine-panel test on the dirt at Saratoga Aug. 26, Castleton Lyons’ Gucci Factor returned from a 10-month layoff to run away to a 16-length graduation going a mile in Elmont June 15 (video).

“He’s got talent. He won very impressively. We will probably for Saratoga and find a race over there. The idea at the moment would be to find another race going 7/8ths or a mile. I’d probably prefer to go 7/8ths at the moment.”

● GOVERNOR MALIBU (c, 4, Malibu Moon)

Runner-up in last term’s GII Peter Pan S. and GII Jim Dandy S., Jump Sucker Stable and Oak Bluff Stables’ Governor Malibu checked in third in the NY-bred Commentator S. May 29 and returned just 12 days later to be fourth in the GII Brooklyn S. June 10.

“The Commentator and the Brooklyn were only 12 days apart. We will give him a little time now. There is a New York-bred stake coming back up July 2, but we are not in a hurry to run him right back, so we may wait.”

● LUBASH (h, 10, Freud)

Hard-knocking, New York-bred veteran Lubash has 12 black-type wins to his credit, including three graded stakes. Closing out 2016 with a victory in the GIII Tropical Turf H. Nov. 26, the Aliyu Ben J Stables homebred was third in the GIII Miami Mile S. Apr. 29 and completed the trifecta again in the NY-bred Kingston S. last time May 29.

“Lubash is doing great. I wanted to run him last weekend, but we know he doesn’t like soft and he is 10-years-old. He can compete on soft, but his best form has been on firm. He is another one that could run in the Forbidden Apple or we could find another spot.”

● BLACKTYPE (FR) (g, 6, Dunkerque {Fr})

Victorious in the GII Commonwealth Turf Cup S. last term, Jumpe Sucker Stable’s Blacktype checked in fifth in the GI Maker’s 46 Mile at Keeneland Apr. 14 and was third last time in the GII Longines Dixie S. at Pimlico May 20.

“Blacktype got sick. He had a high temperature on Belmont week, but he is in good order now. He is another horse that could come back in the Forbidden Apple if we need to.”

● DOVER CLIFFS (c, 3, English Channel)

Robert S. Evans homebred Dover Cliffs followed his second out graduation at Gulfstream Feb. 19 with a win in that venue's Cutler Bay H. Apr. 1 (video). The bay weakened to ninth behind "TDN Rising Star" Yoshida (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) last time in Pimlico's James W. Murphy S. on the GI Preakness S. undercard May 20.

"Dover Cliffs is doing well. He had a disappointing race last time on softer turf. He is training forwardly. There is a stake coming up at Belmont July 4 [the Manila S.] going a mile on the grass for straight 3-year-olds. That will be the plan at the moment."

Letter from Ascot (cont. from p1)

William Buick | Racing Post

The guy always wanted to be a champion jockey. Presently in the race for top rider of the five-day Royal Ascot meeting, he is tied with Ryan Moore. They both had two winners Friday, so Saturday will be the showdown at the Queen's corral.

Young Buick rode a few races for Todd Pletcher in the winter of 2007 at Gulfstream, but did not win from that handful of longshot mounts. It was during that season that Angel Cordero, Jr. tried to talk him into coming to New York as an apprentice. No dice.

Walter sired three sons, but only Will is a rider. Martin is an assistant to the racing manager for the Niarchos family, and Andrew works in the financial industry in London.

Remember "Ussery Alley?" That far-outside part of the far turn at Aqueduct where Bobby Ussery showed us he could go faster by going farther, taking his mounts to the banked part of the track on the outside fence. Then off the turn he would cut to the inside and seemed to always find himself in the one-path and on the lead.

Well, Seamie Heffernan tried to do that with Wisconsin in Friday's Queen's Vase S. at one mile and six furlongs. Seamie covered two miles with his mount, and had the lead at two calls during the race, but the mount was difficult to handle, and faded badly. No Heffernan alley here.

In the feature race of the day, the G1 Coronation S., trainer Aidan O'Brien continued to absolutely dominate the training standings, finishing first, second and third. Winter, the winner, followed home by Roly Poly and Hydrangea.

I saw Mark Casse in the car park after the races, and even though his terrific filly, La Coronel was unplaced in the Coronation, he was all smiles.

"What a beautiful day!"

That is what an afternoon at Royal Ascot does for you.

Old pal John McCririck, who fans will remember for his outlandish outfits and description of odds with hand signals on several NBC telecasts, leaned out of his car to shout, "Isn't it great that all the fans in the States can watch this meet on the telly?"

Yes, John. Odds on, right again.

‘MIDWAY’ HEADS BACK INTO ‘BATTLE’

By Christie DeBernardis

“TDN Rising Star” Battle of Midway (Smart Strike) makes his first start since a game third in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby in Saturday’s GIII

Affirmed S. Runner-up in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8 prior to his effort at Churchill last time, the bay hopes to use this test as a stepping stone to Monmouth Park’s GI Haskell Invitational S. July 30, according to his trainer Jerry Hollendorfer.

The favorite’s biggest competition is likely to be Rockingham Ranch’s Arms Runner (Overdriven), if he can prove to be as talented routing on dirt as he is sprinting on turf. A debut winner on the Santa Anita lawn Apr. 20, the half-brother to GSW & MGISP Calculator (In Summation) followed suit with a victory in the Desert Code S. going 6 1/2 panels on the grass May 13.

Doug O’Neill saddles Calumet Farm’s Term of Art (Tiznow), winner of the GIII Cecil B. DeMille S. last term. Third in the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 11 and seventh in the Santa Anita Derby, the bay was 10th when last seen in the GI Preakness S. May 20.

KY DERBY ALSO RANS HEADLINE OHIO

DERBY By Christie DeBernardis

Girvin | Hodges Photography

Brad Grady’s Girvin (Tale of Ekati) is one of four runners in Saturday’s GIII Ohio Derby looking to get back on track after a lackluster effort in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6. Surging late to best the reopposing Untrapped (Trappe Shot) by two lengths in the GII Risen Star S. Fen. 25, the dark bay followed suit with a victory in the GII Louisiana Derby Apr. 1, but never came with a run beneath the Twin Spires, finishing 13th in the Derby. Hall of Famer Mike Smith, who climbed aboard for the first time at Churchill, makes the trip to Thistledown from California to take the reins.

“TDN Rising Star” Untrapped went to Hot Springs after the Risen Star, where he finished third in the GII Rebel S. Mar. 18 and checked in sixth next out behind champion Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile) in the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 15. The Steve Asmussen pupil finished just ahead of Girvin in 12th on the First Saturday in May. Fourth in the GIII Sunland Derby Mar. 16, which has proven to be one of the key Derby preps this year, Irap (Tiznow) blew up the tote with a 3/4-length victory at 31-1 in Keeneland’s GII Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 8. The bay faded to 18th last time in the Run for the Roses.

SHORT, BUT SWEET FIELD FOR PRECISIONIST

By Christie DeBernardis

Speedway Stable's Collected (City Zip) headlines a small, but strong field of five in Saturday's GIII Precisionist S. at Santa

Collected | Benoit

Anita. Winner of the GIII Sham S. and GIII Lexington S. last term, the chestnut ended his sophomore season early after a disappointing 10th in the GI Preakness S. last May. He made a successful return to the races off an 11-month layoff April 1, scoring a decisive victory in the Santana Mile and followed that with another solid success in the GII Californian S. Apr. 22. Baffert also saddles Cat Burglar (Unbridled's Song), who kicked off 2017 with an optional claimer success sprinting over this strip Mar. 31.

Doug O'Neill also saddles a pair of runners in Reddam Racing's Donworth (Tiznow) and Zedan Racing Stables' Argentinian import Keane (Arg) (Equal Stripes {{Arg}}).

"TDN Rising Star"

Donworth has been winless in three starts since being transferred to O'Neill after Reddam purchased him at the 2015 Keeneland November sale. The dark bay has been on the shelf for 14 months since finishing third in last term's GII Charles Town Classic. Victor of six of nine starts in Argentina, most recently capturing the G1 Mio Dardo Rocha Internacional in November, Keane receives Lasix for the first time in this U.S. debut.

Rounding out the quintet is Hronis Racing's GSW Accelerate (Lookin at Lucky). The chestnut was third in the GII San Antonio S. Feb. 4 and finished second to "TDN Rising Star" and subsequent graded stakes winner Danzing Candy (Twirling Candy) in a local optional claimer last time May 5.

SILLY SISTER (f, 3, Broken Vow--Giggly, by Distorted Humor) encountered a fair amount of trouble at the start of her Apr. 28 bow sprinting over the local turf course and never reached contention thereafter, finishing a distant ninth. Switched to the main for her latest, she bobbed at the break, but recovered and was along late to graduate by a length May 19. Outsprinted and settled in fourth spot for the run into the turn, the 49-10 gamble traveled on the bridle and pushed out three deep to launch her bid nearing the stretch. Roused to the lead with a furlong to travel, the $150,000 SARAUG yearling purchase was never in danger from there, coming home three lengths to the good of Mizzen Max (Mizzen Mast). Silly Sister, a half-sister to Moanin (Henny Hughes), G1SW-Jpn, $1,984,106, is the last listed produce for her dam. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $75,778. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Trying grass for the first time here, the Godolphin homebred drafted nicely while racing under cover in fifth. The 6-1 chance was steered into the clear on the far turn and kicked home on the outside in the stretch to reel in his stablemate and other half of the entry Peace Speaker (Elusive Quality) by a neck. The winner's dam, a half-sister to GISW Sky Mesa (Pulpit), has a 2-year-old gelding by Street Cry (Ire), a yearling colt by Tapit and filly of this year by Medaglia d'Oro. SPRING FOLLY (f, 3, Spring At Last--Wallstreetmadness, by Rahy) rallied through traffic to finish a good third at 12-1 sprinting on the Belmont lawn Apr. 28. Adding an additional furlong here, the 2-5 chance chased from the inside in third, was angled out and inhaled the leader to take over on the far turn and had 2 3/4 lengths over Out of Nowhere (Girolamo) on the wire. The winner's unraced dam Wallstreetmadness, a $235,000 KEENOV purchase in 2011 by Gallagher's Stud, is a half-sister to MGSW Yearly Report (General Meeting), also the dam of GI Spinaway S. heroine Condo Commando (Tiz Wonderful). SMILING CAUSEWAY (f, 3, Giant's Causeway--Shandra Smiles {SW}, by Cahill Road) was allowed a very soft time of it on the front end in her six-furlong debut over the Pimlico main track, but was tagged on the money while finishing nearly eight lengths clear of the third. Ridden for speed from the inside box in this first grass try, the chestnut clicked off fractions of :21.35 and :43.89, had already built a winning advantage into the final eighth of a mile and was ridden out to score by 3 1/4 lengths as the 3-5 chalk. STATS, Equibase Launch Mobile Version of Race Lens:

STATS and Equibase Company have created a mobile version of STATS Race Lens, the interactive past performance product released last summer, it was announced Friday.

"STATS Race Lens is a truly unique and innovative tool for horse racing that uses algorithms similar to those we have developed for other major sports," said STATS Chief Revenue Officer Richard Henderson. "By developing a mobile version of the product we have opened the platform to a wider audience and to bettors who want to access the performance data at the track."

STATS Race Lens includes a number of features that can be viewed regardless of the user's screen size: advance search and custom handicapping angles, the ability to back-test handicapping theories, customized past performance data with conditional formatting, and STATS proprietary predictive modeling.

"One of the unique qualities of STATS Race Lens is the ability to create an angle specific to the way you handicap and then test that theory based on past races to see how the angle would have performed," said Equibase President and Chief Operating Officer Jason Wilson. "Now the easy access to STATS Race Lens from your phone makes it perfect for checking your angles on race day wherever you are."

Listen to our TDN PODCAST

with Alex Waldrop

There is increased talk that sports betting may soon be legal in the U.S. Due to a crackdown in immigration policies, there's a work shortage that is causing problems on backstretches across the nation. The Horse Racing Integrity Act is once again making its way through the nation's capital. For the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, those issues and others must have its President and CEO Alex Waldrop working overtime. Waldrop is this week's guest on the Thoroughbred Daily News podcast, brought to you by Taylor Made.
