KEENELAND SALE POSTS 14.6% INCREASE

The seven-day Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale ended yesterday with an overall average of $43,345, up 14.6% than the 1992 sale's average of $37,832. Median price of $20,000 was 17.6% higher than last year's $17,000 median. In all, 2,072 horses brought an aggregate $89,810,500, while a year ago, 1,929 lots sold for $72,977,900. An additional 28 shares brought $1,583,900, compared to last year when nine shares sold for $251,000. Yesterday's session sold 266 horses for an average of $9,528, up 42.9% from the comparable '92 segment when 170 hips averaged $6,669. The final session was topped by a weanling colt by NORTHERN FLAGSHIP out of the IT'S FREEZING mare ANYTIMEATALL, which sold for $70,000 to Richard Kaster. Wooden Shoe Farm, agent, consigned the colt.

UPDATE ON JOCKEY MICHAEL LEE Jockey Michael Lee, injured in a spill at Calder Friday, is showing improvement at the Jackson Memorial ICU in Miami. According to a hospital spokesman, Lee suffered a bruised spine, but there were no apparent fractures. The rider is able to move all four limbs and is listed in stable condition. He was to begin physical therapy Sunday, and there is cautious optimism for full recovery.

CHURCHILL DOWNS BENEFIT RAISES MONEY FOR BACKSTRETCH Saturday night's "Benefit for the Backside", a charity event held at Louisville's Sports Spectrum and attended by 450 people, has raised more than $20,000—and counting—for the Churchill Downs backstretch. The money was raised through a live auction of racing memorabilia, led by auctioneer and Hall of Fame trainer Jack Van Berg; there was also silent bidding on some items. A Churchill Downs quarter pole, dating from the 1930's, attracted the highest bid of $4,000 from Gwyn Lavin, whose father, Doc Lavin, served at one time as the Churchill Downs Racing Secretary. The event was co-sponsored by Hickory Bark Thoroughbreds, a group of owners who race at Churchill, and Churchill Downs. The proceeds will be shared by Metro United Way, which serves the Churchill backstretch, and trainer Ed Reynolds, who was severely injured in an accident in October.

YELLOW RIBBON INVITATIONAL S.-G1, SA, 11-14, $400,000, 3yo/up, f and m, 10ft, 2:02 4/5, fm.

- 1—@POSSIBLY PERFECT, f, 3, Northern Baby (Stone Farm-KY) —Avasand, by Avatar. O-Blue Vista, Inc.; B-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Witt (KY.); T-Robert Frankel; $240,000.
- 2—Tribulation, f, 3, Danzig (Claiborne Farm-KY) —Graceful Touch, by His Majesty. O-Seelbinder and Phillips; ($35,000 yearling 1991 Keeneland September yearling sale); $80,000.
- 3—Mlatuschka, m, 5, General Holme (Haras de Meaurio-Fr) —Melite, by Caro (Ire). O-Bollinger, Ramirez, and Jackson; $48,000.

Margins: 1 1/4, head, nose.

Possibly Perfect, Thoro-Graph's live longshot for the Yellow Ribbon, set all the pace and had enough left in the stretch to win at odds of 16-1—and according to her trainer, Bobby Frankel, the decision to run the three year old came at the last minute. "To be honest with you, running was just an afterthought, because when she came off the van (from Keeneland after finishing third in the Grade I Queen Elizabeth II) she was dead lame. She had a pus pocket, but it healed up so fast I asked to be put on the eligible list. There was no pace in the race, and I thought she'd be on the lead. I thought if she could make an easy lead she'd be very tough. The lightly-raced filly is now four-for-nine lifetime and 6-for-six in the U.S.; she was winless in three starts in France. The daughter of Northern Baby had just one previous stakes win, the limited Marie P. Debartolo Memorial Oaks. Her career earnings now total $405,373. Favorite Let's Elope stalked the pace early but had nothing left for the finish. "I was sitting in good position the whole way, thinking I had plenty of horse, but she just couldn't get hold of the turf course," said her jockey, Pat Valenzuela. "She was running, but she wasn't going anywhere."

OVERHEARD—

"Maybe the best juvenile colt did run on Breeders' Cup Day—but he ran at Aqueduct." Trainer Nick Zito on his two year old, Go For Gin (Cormorant), who took the November 6 Chief's Crown Stakes at Aqueduct by nine and three-quarter lengths for his second win in four starts.

NEWS, CONT.

REIGN ROAD RETIRED Trainer Jay Robbins reported yesterday that five-year-old Reign Road has been retired and will stand at stud in 1994. "I believe he'll stand at Elmendorf," said Robbins. Reign Road, a son of Sovereign Dancer, won the Grade II Goodwood and Del Mar Breeders' Cup Handicap in 1992; he won six of his 29 career starts and earned $898,975.

'SENSATIONAL' EYES LA CANADA SERIES

Sensational Eyes, who finished sixth and last as the 3-5 favorite in Saturday's Grade III Linda Vista Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita, will be freshened and return to the Arcadia, California oval for the La Canada Series this winter. Explaining her disappointing performance in the Linda Vista, trainer Gary Jones said, "She bled, and there was mucous in her throat. She just didn't punch in like she normally does; I guess that's why."
