NEW TRAINER FOR LET'S ELOPE Let's Elope, the champion Australian mare who finished 10th as the favorite in the Yellow Ribbon at Santa Anita Nov. 14, is moving from trainer Ron McAnally's shed to that of Charlie Whittingham's. Said McAnally of the decision, "The owner was not too happy with the way she ran in the Yellow Ribbon, even though she bled." The six year old, who runs for Dennis and Margaret Marks of Victoria, Australia, was treated with Lasix for that race. Let's Elope has not yet arrived in his barn, but Whittingham has said he will not run her in next Sunday's Matriarch at Hollywood.

HOLIDAYFEST NOTES Aqueduct will feature four Grade II events next Saturday, dubbed HolidayFest. Getting ready for the $200,000 Remsen for 2yos are Arrovente, Go For Gin, Malmo, Personal Escort and Warn Me. Robert Petrin's Arrovente breezed a mile Saturday in 1:44.02 over the Belmont training track; Chief's Crown Stakes winner Go For Gin stepped a speedy five furlongs in :57.62 yesterday. Robert Perez' Warn Me is expected to ship from France for the race. "We acquired him a couple of months ago. He has won five of seven, and won a mile-and-a-quarter race last time out. But there's the air strike in France, so we're running into problems," said Perez. Definite for the $200,000 Demoiselle for 2yo fillies are Bunting, Princess Tru, Sovereign Kitty and Strategic Maneuver, GI winner of the Spinaway and Matron Stakes. Set for the $200,000 Ladies H. are Bold As Silver, Fadetta, In Her Glory, Silky Feather, Star Guest and Turnback the Alarm. Multiple Grade I winner Turnback the Alarm worked six furlongs in 1:13.24 Saturday at Belmont. Expected for the $250,000 Brooklyn are Federal Funds, Living Vicariously, Michelle Can Pass, Missionary Ridge and Prospector's Flag. Stuyvesant Handicap winner Michelle Can Pass went three-quarters in 1:14.63 at Belmont yesterday.

BUDWEISER-HAWTHORNE GOLD CUP H.-G2, Haw, 11-20, $400,000, 3yo/up, 10f, 2:02, ft.

- 1—EVANESCENT, h, 6, Northern Jove (El Batey Farm-FL) — Twitchet, by Roberto. O-Mark Levy; B-Kentucky Thoroughbred Associates (KY.); T-Lou Goldfine; $240,000.
- 2—Marquetry, h, 6, Conquistador Cielo (Claiborne Farm-KY) —Regent's Walk, by Vice Regent. O-Morley & Dale Engelson, and Robert Frankel; ($110,000 yearling 1988 Keeneland July select yearling sale); $80,000.
- 3—Valley Crossing, h, 5, Private Account (Claiborne Farm-KY) —Chic and Sassy, by His Majesty. O-Robert E. Meyerhoff; $44,000.

Margins: neck, nose, 1 1/2.

Evanescent came up the inside from the back of the pack to win in a three-horse photo over 3-5 favorite Marquetry and Valley Crossing. "I let him start running about the half-mile pole," said Evanescents' jockey, Aaron Gryder. "When you push the button, he gives you a solid kick. He showed me he's as good on the dirt as he is on the grass." Said owner Mark Levy, "It's been a great year for this horse. You never know when you're switching over to the dirt, but he was very determined today. We're near to $1 million in earnings and we want to get him over that mark. He'll go to Florida and run in the Canadian Turf Handicap." Jockey Mike Smith, who finished second on Marquetry, commented, "It didn't seem like he was leveling off with me. We got away a little bit poorly and it took a little while to establish where we wanted to be. I think with a sharper break, we would have won; he slipped behind when we left and that made me change tactics. I wanted to be on the lead, but I didn't want to send him after the poor start."

HOLLYWOOD DERBY-G1, Hol, 11-20, $400,000, 3yo, 9f, 1:46 4/5, fm.

- 1—EXPLOSIVE RED, c, 3, Explodent (Gainesway Farm-KY) —Amelia Bearhart, by Bold Hour. O-Frank Stronach; B-Richard D. Maynard (CAN.); T-Daniel J. Vella; ($45,000 yearling 1991 Keeneland September yearling sale); $220,000.
- 2—Jeune Homme, c, 3, Nureyev (Walmac International-KY) —Alydaniel, by Alydar. O-Y. Asakawa; ($2,600,000 yearling 1991 Keeneland July select yearling sale); $80,000.
- 3—Earl of Barking (Ire), c, 3, Common Grounds (Morristown Lattin Stud-Ire) —the Saltings, by Morston. O-Henry Pabst; $60,000.

Margins: 1 1/4, neck, 1/2.

Longshot Explosive Red stalked the pace early, took the lead on the far turn and held off all challengers to light up the tote board at 22-1. It was the third stakes win of the year for the three year old, who earlier in '93 took the American Derby and the Forerunner.

"I had ridden this horse at Arlington Park and I knew he was tough," said jockey Corey Nakatani. "I tell ya, every time I asked him for run, he came up with it. I didn't even have to hit him." Another 22-1 shot, Jeune Homme, was second, while favorites Guide and Eastern Memories were 7th and 13th, respectively. Said jockey Kent Desormeaux of Guide, "He was too French today for Americanized racing. When he gets to lag behind a good pace, there's nobody that can outspurt him. He needs to be pushed along so he can get used to tracking horses that go in :46, not :50, and still maintain his kick." Jerry Bailey had no real excuse for pacesetter Eastern Memories. "He seemed pretty comfortable, but he had no fight at all when they came to him." Fatherland broke down after being bumped just past the half-mile pole.

HOLLYWOOD TURF EXPRESS H., Hol, 11-20, $200,000, 3yo/up, 5.5ft, 1:01 4/5, fm.

1—WILD HARMONY, c, 4, Wild Again (Three Chimneys Farm-KY) —Deauville Dove, by No Robbery. O-Mr. and Mrs. Jerome S. Moss; B-Calumet Farm and Bruce Kline (KY.); T-Brian A. Mayberry; ($240,000 yearling 1990 Keeneland September yearling sale); $110,000.

2—Robin Des Pins, h, 5, Nureyev (Walmac International-KY) —Rare Mint, by Key to the Mint. O-Darby Dan Farm; $40,000.

3—Monde Bleu (GB), h, 5, Last Tycoon (Ire) (Coolmore Stud-Ire) —Make Plans, by Go Marching. O-Wildenstein and Cowan; $30,000.

Margins: nose, 1/2, 1/2.

Despite an eventful trip, Wild Harmony was able to get up in the very last jump to win by a nose over fellow closer Robin Des Pins. "It was a pretty fun trip going into the turn," said jockey Chris McCarron. "Tsunami Spangler went toward the fence; Alex (Solis) was able to pull him back in, but that put Robin Des Pins and me in real tight, and I hit the fence. My horse bounced off the rail at the three-eighths pole. I steadied real hard, but he came on well. He was definitely the best horse in the race." It was the second career stakes win for the four-year-old, who finished fourth to Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Cardmania in the Ancient Title last time out. Favored Western Approach set the pace but tired to finish fifth. Final time was 4/5-second off the course record.

JOCKEY MARY RUSS INJURED AT CALDER; LEE RECOVERING Jockey Mary Russ suffered a slight concussion Saturday morning at Calder when the horse she was breezing bolted off the racetrack and slipped on the pavement. According to her agent, Richard Ancona, Russ was taken to Pines Hospital as a precautionary measure; she is likely to be on the sidelines until Tuesday. Another Calder rider, Michael Lee, remains in stable condition at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Ruth Salathe, his personal nurse, reports that the rider came out of traction Friday and the swelling in his spine has been reduced. Doctors are still optimistic for a full recovery.

ALLOWANCE RESULTS:

9th-Grd, $31,000, 2yo, 8f, 1:41 1/5, ft. Mr. and Mrs. D. G. McClelland's Canadian homebred YONGE CASTLEFIELD (c, 2, Regal Classic—Conquering Angel, by Conquistador Cielo), a SW of $112,749, triumphed by 5 lengths after leading the entire distance. The David Brown trainee has won 3-of-last-4 and is 4-of-9 overall.

8th-Lrl, $27,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:11, ft. Constance Capuano's SILVER TANGO (m, 5, Silver Badge—Royal Tango, by Princely Pleasure), a 10xSW of $450,478 under trainer Gary Capuano, edged...by a nose...the favored entry of MIXED APPEAL (Mighty Appealing, $287,139) and MIGHTY ROSE (Believe It) to collect her 17th career victory from 37 lifetime starts.

3rd-BM, $24,000, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09 2/5, ft. A move up in class did not deter WING OUT'S SON (g, 4, Wing Out—Matinee Girl, by Hy Swaps) from spoiling INDIAN SCHOOL'S (Text) chances of remaining unbeaten since 1991, as he defeated that pacesetter rival by a neck in the final yards. The Fred Watarida colorbearer, conditioned by Charles Jenda, extends record to 19-7-1-2 and $97,475.

10th-Grd, $22,900, 3yo/up, 8.5f, 1:19 2/5, ft. AVID AFFECTION (g, 4, Lord Avie—Water Spider, by Briartic), a 13-1 outsider from John Cardella's stable, produced his fourth win since being claimed ($20,000) in June by CEC Farms and improved to 20-7-4-2, $191,054 overall. Aubrey Minshall bred the SW in Canada.

7th-Grd, $22,500, 3yo/up, f/m, 8f, 1:39 2/5, ft. Silverbrook Stable's PENNYHILL PARK (f, 3, Ascot Knight—Middlemarch, by Buckpasser), bred in Canada by R. M. Anderson and trained by Laurie Silvera, stalked the early leader for a 1/2-mile before taking control and coasting in by 3 lengths. Record now 17-4-3-4, $129,446.

11th-Crc, $20,000, 3yo/up, 8ft, 1:48 4/5, fm. STUBASS (Ire) (c, 3, Alzao—St. Louisan, by St. Chad), a GSW in Italy but winless in France and U.K., turned his NA debut into a 2 1/2-length victory for owner L. Salice and trainer Christophe Clement.

7th-Crc, $19,400, 3yo/up, 8ft, 1:50 1/5, fm. Al Ross' FL-homebred SCANNAPIECO (c, 3, Silent Review—Cawela, by Seat of Power) dropped out of stakes company and came from nowhere to win by a 1/2 for 1st win since July. Pushes stats to 19-4-6-2, $74,290.

6th-Lrl, $18,800, 3yo, 8.5f, 1:47, ft. Bettors' choice WOODLIKETOBE (c, 3, Baederwood—Gladscanbe, by Little Riva), racing in the silks of his breeder Albert Allen Jr., won by a head in a close contest, as all seven starters finished within 5 1/2 lengths of the victor.

6th-Grd, $18,000, 3yo/up, 8.5f, 1:21 3/5, ft. Green Meadows Farm's LEGS BENEDICT (g, 4, Smarten—Queen's Warning, by Caveat), content to trail until the top of the stretch, made a furious rush to the front and triumphed by 3/4 length for his 6th career tally. The move up from claiming netted him $10,800, pushing his account to $109,456.

3rd-Haw, $16,000, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10 3/5, ft. Nebraska-bred LIL BIT DEADLY (g. 5, Bates Motel—Lil Bit o Soul, by Kaskaskia), haltered for $16,000 in his last start, didn't waste any time collecting for new owners Le Vin and Campbell, winning a three-horse photo by a head.
