BROCCO SET FOR FUTURITY Trainer Randy Winick reported Saturday that BC Juvenile winner Brocco (Kris S.) is almost definite for the Dec. 19 Hollywood Futurity. He will ship from Santa Anita Tuesday, gallop Wednesday and work Thursday. "If he ships over okay, and if he handles the track in his work, we plan to run," said Winick.

AAEP PRESENTS FIRST GEORGE STUBBS AWARD The American Association of Equine Practitioners announced the 1st recipients of the George Stubbs Award during its 1993 convention Dec. 5-8. Thoroughbred owner and breeder Paul Mellon and the late R. Richard Rolapp, past president of the American Horse Council, were honored for their contributions to equine veterinary medicine. The award, named for the 18th century artist, recognizes those contributions made by non-veterinarians. In other convention news, Dr. A. Gary Lavin was installed as 39th President of the AAEP. The '94 convention is scheduled for Dec. 4-7 in Vancouver, British Columbia.

RACING CANCELLED CLOSING NIGHT AT THE MEADOWLANDS Live racing for Saturday, closing night of the '93 Thoroughbred meet at the Meadowlands, was cancelled because of unsafe racing conditions, caused by the freezing rain and snow which fell throughout the afternoon and evening.

UPDATE ON LAUREL JOCKEYS Jockey Mike Roll, who was injured in a spill at Laurel following the 5th race Thursday, suffered a broken left ankle. Inocencio Ayarza, involved in the same incident, was admitted to Baltimore's Shock Trauma Hospital for observation, but all tests were negative. The diagnosis was a bruised chest wall and several contusions. He was expected to be released over the weekend.

The Nashua was mostly obscured by falling snow, but the camera showed Popol's Gold in front at the wire. According to jockey Herb McCauley, the New York-bred went to the front early and held on to beat a closing Personal Merit. "Nobody really wanted to get mud kicked in their faces, especially being on 2-year-olds. I was fortunate enough to have a good post and I was able to get out of there fast." Trainer Billy Turner said the colt would get the winter off and come back to New York to run again next spring.

GI $500,000 Hollywood Turf Cup, 3yo/up, 12f

PP	Horse	Trainer	Jockey	Odds
1	Miatuschka	Jackson	Black	20-1
2	Know Heights	Hess	Desormeaux	4-1
3	Explosive Red	Jones	Stevens	6-1
4	Bien Bien	Gonzalez	McCarron	7-5
5	Fraise	Mott	Valenzuela	3-1
6	Square Cut	Devereux	Antley	12-1
7	Jeune Homme	Boutin	Jarnet	6-1

Thoro-Graph Analysis In analyzing the performances and predicting the outcome of thoroughbred races, it's important to keep a clear mind and leave emotion out of it. So while two of our clients have horses in the Turf Cup (Miatuschka {General Holme} and Square Cut {Assert}) and we will be rooting for them, reality indicates that they are going after a bear with insufficient ammunition. If this were a handicap, Bien Bien (Manila) would be spotting his field a whole bunch of weight, but this one is weight-for-age, so he's holding a big edge. In fact, his last three efforts over a firm course would all win this by open lengths, so barring a monsoon, he's too short a price to bet on, and too tough to bet against. *Thoro-Graph sheets, state-of-the-art performance figures, are used by many horsemen and professional handicappers to evaluate the ability of racehorses. 3	Sheila's Angela M	Rigattieri	Alvarado	10-1
4	Wonderlan	Rice	Davis	4-1
5	A Day To Remember	Picou	Carr	12-1
6	Seeking the Circle	Kimmel	Migliore	3-1
7	Cavada	Smith Jr.	Samyn	4-1
8	Sovereign Kitty	Schosberg	Velazquez	2-1

The morning-line odds maker has made GI-placed Sovereign Kitty (Sovereign Dancer) the early favorite, but trainer Rick Schosberg indicated yesterday that he would scratch if the track was sloppy. That would leave Seeking the Circle (Seeking the Gold) in the favorite's role as she makes her stakes debut and her 2nd start. The Kentucky-bred was even money when she broke her maiden at 7 furlongs Nov. 2
