FAIR GROUNDS GRANDSTAND DESTROYED BY FIRE

The grandstand at Fair Grounds Race Course in New Orleans was destroyed by a 7-alarm blaze Friday night. Racing had concluded for the day, but the track was open for off-track betting and video poker; the building was evacuated and no injuries were reported. This was the 2nd time the historic track has been devastated by fire. The original grandstand was destroyed in 1913. Reports indicated that the fire began in the jockey's room; it swept through the grandstand but did not spread to the stables on the backstretch. "There's not much left on the frontside," said Richard Mocklin, Fair Grounds director of publicity. "Half the clubhouse and the turf club are still standing, but we haven't made an assessment of the damage yet. It's pretty devastating." As to the track's future, Mocklin said, "Bryan Krantz, the track's president and general manager, had a meeting with the horsemen Saturday morning; he hopes to resume racing Jan. 5. The plan is to bring in temporary buildings and tents for the placing judges, the stewards, the temporary mutuel machines. The horsemen seem receptive. The main track and the turf were untouched, so it's a matter of clearing debris and getting the temporary buildings in place." The cause of the fire is under investigation.

RUSSELL BAZE REACHES 400 Russell Baze became only the 3rd rider in history to win 400 or more races 2 years in a row when he guided Flying Spur to victory number 400 in the 8th race at Bay Meadows Friday night. Baze, who won 433 races in '92 to claim his 1st national riding title, has wrapped up the races-won title for 1993. He joins Chris McCarron (546 wins in '74 and 468 in '75) and Kent Desormeaux, who managed the feat 3 years running (450 in '87, 474 in '88 and 598 in '89).

MIKE SMITH ONE CLOSER TO RECORD

Jockey Mike Smith moved 1 win closer to Pat Day's record of 60 stakes win in a year with his victory aboard Michelle Can Pass in Sat.'s Gallant Fox H. Smith now has 58 stakes wins on the year; he rides Fabersham in the Gravesend at Aqueduct today.

2--Princess Mitterand, f, 2, Seattle Slew (Three Chimneys Farm-KY) --Mitterand, by Hold Your Peace. O-Marge and Irving Cowan; $50,580.

3--Viz, f, 2, Kris S. (Prestonwood Farm-KY) --Shapiro's Mistress, by Unpredictable. O- Shapiro, Stark, and Vizvary; $37,935.

Margins: 1, 3 1/2, 2 1/4.

Also ran (in order of finish): Tricky Code, Private Persuasion.

Sent off as the 1-5 favorite, Sardula sat just off the pace 'til the far turn, bumped with pacesetter Tricky Code in midstretch, then went on to take the lead and hold off the challenge of Princess Mitterand to gain her 1st Grade I win. The stewards ruled that Tricky Code was being outrun at the time contact was made, and allowed the original order of finish to stand. "It would have been a disgrace if they had taken her number down," said jockey Eddie Delahoussaye of his mount, Sardula. "The other filly kind of bumped my horse in the stretch and kind of turned her in. When Corey (Nakatani on Tricky Code) finally pulled out of there, he was about three-quarters of a length behind. My filly, coming down to the wire, she was just looking around. She relaxed well today and rated good." Nakatani countered, "I definitely think the incident cost me a placing. I thought McCarron's horse (Princess Mitterand) was coming out a little and I brushed with her. Meanwhile, Delahoussaye's horse was bumping me back in. I had nowhere to go and clipped heels. It definitely cost me a placing."

MEADOW RENDEZVOUS FOUND DEAD AT BAY MEADOWS Two-year-old filly Meadow Rendezvous was found dead in her stall at Bay Meadows Saturday morning. "We don't know what caused it," said her still-shaken trainer and part-owner, Tony Diaz. "I checked her last night at 9 o'clock and she had a little temperature, but it wasn't bad." The daughter of Meadowlake made her last start in the BC Juvenile Fillies, where she finished 8th; in Sept. she took the $110,000 Barretts Debutante at Fairplex. The filly was uninsured, and an autopsy is scheduled.

SPORTS BETTING DEFEATED IN NJ The New Jersey Supreme Court ruled unanimously Friday that the Casino Control Commission cannot authorize sports betting, effectively ending the bid to legalize sports betting for casinos in NJ.

Thoro-Graph Analysis As a wagering event, the Futurity does not offer much interest--the finish should be identical to that of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, with Brocco (Kris S.) being chased home by Blumin Affair (Dynaformer), at a short price. Since Thoro-Graph began putting performance figures on a graph in 1982, a clear pattern has emerged as to the relationship between 2-year-old form and the Kentucky Derby. Every single Derby winner in the last 12 years has been unraced or slow over the summer as a juvenile but developed strongly over the next few months. Two of the major eastern stars, Dehere and Holy Bull, do not fit the profile--they developed too early. But both Brocco and Blumin Affair do fit the bill, and must be taken seriously as Derby prospects. *Thoro-Graph sheets, state-of-the-art performance figures, are used by many horsemen and professional handicappers to evaluate the ability of racehorses. 3--Jacksonport, c, 4, Vigors (Jonabell Farm-KY) --On the Brink, by Cox's Ridge. O-Murray M. Garren; $18,000.

Margins: 3/4, 5 1/4, 1 1/2.

Odds-on favorite Michelle Can Pass took the lead with a quarter left and dug in gamely through the stretch to outfinish 38-1 shot Hugatag and take the Gallant Fox for the 2nd year in a row. Jockey Mike Smith said, "He's like riding a bicycle; you have to keep pedaling, because he likes to wait. You just have to keep him going. We could have gone around again, and they still wouldn't have caught him."

3--Her Temper, f, 2, Temperence Hill (Gainesway Farm-KY) --Marathon Girl, by Fleet Nasrullah. O-Mark Stanley; $13,944.

Margins: nose, neck, 2 1/4.

Favored Sovereign Kitty earned her 1st stakes win after outdueling second choice Seeking the Circle to get the nod in a photo. "That wasn't easy," said trainer Rick Schosberg. "Races just don't get much better than that one. I'll probably give my filly a little breather now; she's earned it." Seeking the Circle was making only her 2nd start after breaking her maiden in her career debut Nov. 2.

3-Personal Girl (Personal Flag--Naskra Fancy)

Claimed for $30,000 Dec. 1 after being haltered for $22,500 in the previous start, 6-5 favorite Take A Powder posted her 3rd consecutive win (and 7th of the year) with a front-running 8-length romp. Earnings now $157,654 with a 53-9-8-9 record.

5th-Aqu, $30,000 Alw., 3/up, f/m, 9f, 1:54 1/5, ft.

MEGAROUX (f, 3, Megaturn--Sauce of Life, by Sauce Boat), back in route races against alw. company, went straight for the lead and was never seriously challenged, winning by 4 for her 4th win from last 5 outings. Record now at 13-6-1-1 & $64,290.

O/B-J. Peace (Ky.). T-B. Enright.

4th-Aqu, $30,000 Alw., 3yo/up, 8.5f, 1:46 4/5, ft.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT (g, 3, Moro--Advancette, by Iron Constitution), looking for his 3rd lifetime win, came from off the pace in the stretch to finish a head in front of pacesetter Tunbridge Wells (Ends Well), increasing earnings to $59,580, record to 15-3-3-0. O-B. Davis. B-B. & A. Davis (N.Y.). T-G. Moschera.

Today's Preview:

A field of 7 sprinters go postward for the 35th running of the Gill $75,000a Gravesend H. at 6 furlongs over the Aqueduct inner track. Heading the field are a pair from the Barry Schwartz stable, Crafty Goldena (Crafty Prospector) and multiple-stakes winner Boom Towner (Obligato); the entry will face Mill House's Ferociously (Topsider), an allowance winner off a 4-month layoff last time out.
