APPLETON OPENS GULFSTREAM SEASON

Hibernian Rhapsody (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) won his American debut over this green last February by 9 1/2 lengths, but would sooner forget his most recent appearance when a dead-heat fourth in the Nov. 5 Fraise S. The Irish-bred returned to form with a come-from-behind victory in the GIII Tropical Turf H. at Calder Nov. 27 and is reunited this afternoon with jockey Jose Santos. New kid on the block Band Is Passing (Pass the Line) is a neck away from a five-race winning streak and has won his last two starts, including a 5 1/4-length victory in the Pete Axthelm S. at Calder in his last start Nov. 13. The new four-year-old has won each of his last two starts off a layoff and looms a ground-saving threat. Divide and Conquer (Danzig) won only twice from 12 starts in 1999, but was third in the GII Dixie in the spring and in the fall was second in both the GIII Fourstardave H. at today's trip and the one-mile GII Kelso. The bay was a non-threatening seventh in the Fraise. "He ran well in New York and I think if he gets a clean trip, he'll run well again," said trainer Shug McGaughey.

GO LIB GO GOES ALL THE WAY

Trainer Kenny McPeek knows a good bargain when he sees it. In 1993, he threw down $20,000 for Tejano Run, who proceeded to run second in the 1994 Breeders' Cup Juvenile and 1995 Kentucky Derby, before going on to win graded stakes on turf and dirt. Now, his $21,000 investment (on behalf of owner Ray Cottrell) in Go Lib Go (Septieme Ciel) looks to be a good one, as the chestnut celebrates the new year with a graded stakes win of his own in the GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder yesterday. The winner of a grassy allowance at the Kentucky Downs meet in September, Go Lib Go returned to win the Frank Arsenault S. at Hawthorne, but was a disappointing eighth in the Prized S. at Gulfstream Park Nov. 5. Well bet here off a narrow miss in the Mecke S. at Calder Nov. 20, Go Lib Go was rank into the first turn while stalking the pace of Mr. Livingston (El Prado {Ire}) from fourth position while saving all the ground. Still scraping the paint into the lane, jockey Jose Santos angled his mount outside of Mr. Livingston, hooked that rival at the eighth pole and prevailed. "I was a little concerned going into the race," McPeek said. "He had gotten a little bug after his last start, which we treated, but you can't be sure they get over it." The sophomore could show up in the Florida Derby series at Gulfstream, according to the trainer.

Could Be, runner-up in the GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup this past summer, came into this effort off back-to-back Churchill allowance wins, on Oct. 31 and Nov. 21. The heavy favorite was never far back and moved forward when asked at mid-stretch to just get up in time. "She wasn't really handling the racetrack today, but she's a classy filly and overcame that obstacle and won anyway," said winning rider Pat Day. Steve Flint, assistant to his father Bernie, added, "She didn't handle it (the track) that well when she ran second here to Show Me the Stage in the Azalea, but she ran well and hadn't had but a few races in her career at that time and was still learning. I can't wait to get her over to Gulfstream on a harder track, which I think she'll love, like Churchill."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races.

BEHRENS BACK AT WORK Unraced since his disappointing seventh-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Classic, William Clifton and Rudlein Stable's Behrens (Pleasant Colony) had his first published workout last Monday at Payson Park for trainer H. James Bond. The six-year-old got four furlongs over the deep surface in :50 flat. "He worked great. He came back well. We're just getting him cranked up for the year," said Bond. "We'll probably make our first start in either the (GI) Donn Feb. 5 or the (GI) Gulfstream Park H. Feb. 26. We haven't really decided yet." The bay was second in last year's Broward H. and Donn H. before winning the Gulfstream Park H. for his first career Grade I victory.

Margins: 3/4, NK, 8 3/4. Odds: 2.85, 1.45, 2.45.

Lorie Darlin broke her maiden by six lengths at Keeneland Oct. 27, finished third when stretched to a one-turn mile at Aqueduct Nov. 24 and most recently logged her first victory against winners when taking an inner track allowance heat Dec. 18. Rainbow Pride quickly established the early lead as Lorie Darlin bided her time along the inside while in close contact with the leader. The chestnut filly rallied wide into the stretch, engaged the front runner inside the final eighth of a mile and inched away to her first stakes victory. "She's real game. She's a very effective filly," said winning jockey Joe Bravo. "I just sat easy with her and she has a great kick in the lane. I'm anxious to see her go two turns."

3rd-AQU, $45,000, Alw, 3yo, 6f, 1:10 4/5, ft. MAX'S PAL (c, 3, Marquetry--Singin Up a Storm, by Storm Cat) won his first two lifetime starts and then led past the eighth pole in the Dover S. at Delaware Sept. 19, only to tire slightly to finish fourth as the chalk. In his last racetrack appearance, the chestnut was fifth in the Morven S. sprinting over The Meadowlands turf Oct. 1. The 5-2 third choice showed good speed along the inside, took over after a half, then held second choice Gangsta Rap (Sultry Song) safe to win by a neck. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-0, $67,350.

Favored at 6-5, the colt jumped out to set the early fractions and stormed home an 11-length winner. Lifetime Record: 16-7-1-2, $136,345.

4th-AQU, $41,000, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, 1:12 1/5, ft. SANTO MIO (f, 3, Southern Halo--Mio Grande, by Private Account), third in her career bow Oct. 7, found trouble in a fifth-place finish in her next out Nov. 10, but was most recently a much improved second in her first start over the inner Dec. 19, beaten 5 3/4 lengths. The $40,000 KEESEP yearling was unhurried in the early going, was sent five wide into the stretch and closed willingly to win by one length as the 2.35-1 slight second choice. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $38,540.

Ocean Princess, looking for her fourth straight victory, was coming off a Dec. 17 win in a Laurel optional claimer. The filly battled with In Due Time from the start and outgamed that rival in the fight to the wire. "She's getting a little better each time out," said winning jockey Mark Johnston. "She's a gritty sort of filly. In her last start, I thought she was beat at the eighth pole and she fought back to win. Today, when that other horse (In Due Time) came up alongside, she just dug in."

Schulhofer Recovering from Surgery:

Hall of Fame trainer Flint "Scotty" Schulhofer is making steady progress from triple bypass surgery in a Miami hospital and was expected to be released by today, according to the Daily Racing Form. Schulhofer, 73, will reportedly recuperate at his South Florida home and hopes to return to work in six weeks. Randy Schulhofer, who will oversee his father's stable in his absence, told the Form, "So far the progress has been great. It's a matter of time to get his strength back." The senior Schulhofer enjoyed a prosperous 1999, thanks mostly to the Belmont and Travers victories of stable star Lemon Drop Kid.

Calder Meet Ends:

Jockey Javier Castellano was the leading rider at Calder's Tropical Meet which ended yesterday. It was the first American riding title for the 22-year-old from Venezuela. Joseph Calascibetta, Bill White and Ralph Ziadie all saddled 14 winners to share top trainer honors. Calder's leading owner was Monarch Stables. The nom de course of Frank Bertolino, Monarch won 15 races.

Korte Still in the Saddle:

Karl Korte, a 65-year-old veteran jockey, will ride Pistols Prospect in today's seventh race at Gulfstream Park. Korte rode extensively on the Florida circuit in the 1950s and 60s. His mount on Monday means he will have ridden competitively in six consecutive decades.

Daniel Coa Takes Turfway Title:

Daniel Coa, a 17-year-old apprentice rider, captured his first riding title at the Holiday Meet at Turfway Park which concluded Dec. 31. Coa ended the meet with 36 winners from 160 mounts. The Venezuelan native, nephew of veteran rider Eibar Coa, is a finalist for the Eclipse award as the country's best apprentice rider. Jack Poole, Jr. was the meet's top trainer with 12 victories. The team of Wayne Bearden and Dave England finished atop the owner standings with eight wins. Turfway kicked off its Winter/Spring Meet on Jan. 1. The season concludes Apr. 6.

Freespool, sixth in the Sept. 25 Gil Kentucky Cup Sprint two starts back, set the pace before tiring to third in a Nov. 17 Hollywood optional claimer last time out. The bay colt, fifth choice in the field of six, quickly opened a three-length advantage and was never seriously threatened down the lane. "That's the easiest kind of horse to ride; the one that opens up four lengths and stays there," commented Chris McCarron after the winning ride. "He's very very quick. We were working with him all summer to relax him and conserve some of his speed, but he didn't want any of that. He sort of told us that he didn't want to be rated, 'just let me roll.'" Trainer Ted West added that Freespool will likely start next in the Jan. 29 Palos Verdes H. Even-money favorite Son of a Pistol (Big Pistol) stalked the pace into the stretch, but lacked a late response, finishing fourth. "All I know is Garrett (Gomez) said that he just couldn't keep up and that he was wide," said the favorite's trainer Bruce Headley.

How They Fared:

3rd-Santa Anita, $75,000, Hill Rise H., 1-2, 3yo, 1mT, 1:36.28, fm.

THE DEPUTY (IRE) (c, 3, Petardia {GB}--Manfath {Ire}, by Last Tycoon {Ire}) hadn't been out of the money in all five of his lifetime starts for John Hills and his Timeform ratings had been steadily increasing. He was off a bit slowly here, moved between horses around the turn and ducked down to the rail to challenge 9-10 favorite Promontory Gold (Gone West) for the lead. The two pulled away from the field through the stretch with The Deputy proving best by a length at 2.70-1.

SENURE (USA) (c, 4, Nureyev {USA}--Diese {USA}, by Diesis {GB}) was off awkwardly and went straight to the back of the seven-horse field. Jockey Corey Nakatani angled him in down the backstretch and then out around the final turn. Closing well, he split horses, caught leaders Killer Image (USA) (Sultry Song {USA}) and Astra Ridge (USA) (Cox's Ridge {USA}) and drew off to a two-length win as the 3.30-1 co-second choice. He was trained by Roger Charlton in his nine-race British career, last winning May 2 in a Salisbury handicap. O/B-Juddmonte Farms (KY); T-Bobby Frankel; J-Corey Nakatani.
