CHESTNUT ROASTS 'EM IN BROWARD

Horse Chestnut (SAf) (Fort Wood) accounted for the South African Triple Crown in 1999, winning the first leg, the G1 Cape Argus Guineas last January by 6 3/4-lengths. After his first score against older horses in the G1 J & B Met S. in February, he captured the G1 The Classic S. Mar. 27 before completing the Triple Crown with an easy 10-length win in the G1 South African Derby in his last racetrack appearance Apr. 24. With the Dubai World Cup on the horizon, Horse Chestnut was shipped to the U.S., cleared his 60-day quarantine and began training with vigor at Calder and Gulfstream, where he zipped five furlongs Jan. 5 in :59 3/5. Wouldn't We All (Woodman) showed the way from the bell with Rock and Roll (Cure the Blues) to his inside in second and Horse Chestnut tucked neatly in behind those two. Jockey Mike Smith asked the South African champ to take up the running nearing the half-mile pole and the homebred responded, collaring the top two while three wide into the lane and drawing easily away to the victory. Calder Derby winner Isaypete (Peteski) rallied late to outfinish Rock and Roll for the place spot. "What can I say, I'm happy," said winning trainer Mike de Kock. "I'm not too surprised he won like that, but I wasn't sure about the horses in another country." The winner goes next in the GI Donn H. Feb. 5.

STRETCH BATTLE PUNCTUATES SAN MIGUEL

A battle between established Classics contender Forest Camp (Deputy Minister) and new kid on the block Swept Overboard (End Sweep) engaged the Santa Anita faithful Saturday afternoon with the latter proving narrowly best after a stretch-long duel. Swept Overboard, second in his career bow at Santa Anita Oct. 9, graduated in his next and most recent start by 3 1/2 lengths Nov. 8, a race in which he earned a 102 Beyer. Forest Camp, sixth as the favorite in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile in his last effort, blasted away from the gate, but had Joopy Doopy (Gilded Time) staring into his right eye and Swept Overboard just a length further back. As the field swept into the far turn, the top two were still inseparable with Swept Overboard commencing a three-wide move. He locked horns with Forest Camp a furlong from home and the duet battled gamely to the wire, with Swept Overboard finishing a nostril in front. But is the gray a Classics contender? Said winning trainer John Shirreffs, "This is a big step for him. We're not holding any false expectations. We'll let the horse dictate where he wants to go, not where we want to put him." Of the runner up, trainer Bob Baffert commented, "He ran a great race. He ran with Swept Overboard every step." The Feb. 5 GI San Vicente at seven furlongs is next for Forest Camp.

SLEW FILLY TOPS MILLIONS DAY TWO

The sole offering by Seattle Slew starred at yesterday's second Magic Millions session, going under the hammer to agent Anton Koolman for A$425,000. The filly from the Miswaki mare Missa Brevis, a half-sister to Breeders' Cup Turf winner Miss Alleged, was offered by Victorian stud Roselands. The night session aggregate was A$8,650,000 with an average A$87,373 for 99 sold and the cumulative aggregate was A$26,008,000 with an overall average of A$82,828. Magic Millions managing director Don Hancock said the market for fillies was strong in line with increased quality in the catalogue. "The clearance rate tonight was 91 percent, which is terrific. In the first few lots, there were frequent pass in because vendors were misreading the market and getting carried away, but they adjusted their expectations for a good result." While several first-crop shuttle sires are performing only moderately, buyers can't get enough of Australian stalwarts, including Rory's Jester (Aus), Marscay (Aus) and Snippets (Aus). One Southern Hemisphere freshman making his mark is Hennessy, who has had 10 from 11 offered sell for an average of A$97,750 to date. Of the second-crop stallions, locally-based sire Flying Spur (Aus) (Danehill), who shuttles to the Irish National Stud, is consolidating his first crop average of A$91,594 for 50 sold at the major sales last year. Flying Spur has had 19 progeny go under the hammer for an average of A$105,131, with 11 of those fetching A$100,000 or more. A total of 29 lots broke the A$100,000 mark yesterday, with triumphant trainer Gai Waterhouse, whose A$110,000 purchase of Assertive Lad last year, claimed today's $1 million Magic Millions race, continued her spending spree. Waterhouse gave A$782,500 tonight for 10 lots, including an A$110,000 filly by Danzero. Waterhouse, Australia's third-largest buyer last year spending A$3.8 million on 47 yearlings, has spent A$1,912,500 on 21 lots to date.

Alborada Arrives in Kentucky:

Kirsten Rausing's homebred grey mare Alborada (GB) (Alzao--Alouette {GB}, by Darshaan {GB}), heroine of the past two runnings of the G1 Dubai Champion S. at Newmarket, has arrived in Kentucky after her abortive trip to the Japan Cup in Tokyo and is awaiting a visit to Danzig. She is boarded at Bill Marquard's Eaglestone Farm in Carlisle, where Rausing has boarded mares for the past 10 years. After her date with Danzig, Alborada is expected to return to Rausing's Lanwades Stud near Newmarket, where she will join her dam, who is in foal to Nashwan and will be bred to Selkirk, and her granddam Alruccaba (Ire) (Crystal Palace {Fr}), who is in foal to Green Desert and now visits Alzao.

Buck's Boy makes only his fourth start since winning the 1998 Breeders' Cup Turf. The Illinois bred won a Woodbine allowance before getting upset in the GIII Sky Classic H. two back. In his last start, the seven year old led this year's Turf field to the stretch before finishing third, 4 1/2 lengths behind Horse of the Year candidate Daylami (Ire). Unite's Big Red has been off form of late, but had five board finishes and two graded victories over this lawn, including last year's GII Pan American H. Special Coach was second behind Appleton H. winner Band Is Passing in the Pete Axthelm H. in November and was most recently a pace-setting third, placed second, in the GII W. L. McKnight H. at Calder Dec. 18.

The original plan was to keep GI Hollywood Starlet winner Surfside in the barn in favor of the GI Las Virgenes next month, but plans change and the daughter of Flanders returns a month early. "We've been looking forward to a big winter meet out here," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "We agreed that Surfside should be out here and race at this meet. Surfside is looking more and more like the real thing so we're excited to see how she can perform as the races get tougher." Pat Day is in from Florida for the ride. Chief competition looks to come from She's Classy, second by seven lengths behind Surfside in the Starlet and runner up in a pair of stakes prior to that effort.

Country Only, fresh from a front-running maiden score, led every step in collecting his first added-money event. Sent two turns for the first time Dec. 18 over this surface, the bay colt overcame the disadvantageous 12 hole to set the pace and cruised home by 3 1/2 lengths. The third choice came out running from the rail post, carved out easy fractions and repelled a challenge from favored Ben the Man before drawing away for the victory.

CHARMING CHESTER (g, 4, Tricky Creek--Fabulous Bella, by Dauphin Fabuleux) won the first two starts of his career and was second in his next two before a sixth in the Col. R S McLaughlin S. at Woodbine Sept. 18. The dark bay returned to be third in a Nov. 21 optional claimer at Woodbine and was most recently fifth in his inner-track debut Dec. 17. The gelding raced up with the pace along the inside while in hand, took over when roused and drew off to win by 3 1/2 at odds of 13-1. Lifetime Record: 8-3-2-1, $91,530. O-Ross Donald. SOUTHERN SANDRA (f, 3, Dixie Brass--Sandra's Bid, by Liloy {Fr}) aired by eight lengths in her lone turf start at Woodbine, but had yet to translate that form in three New York starts. Third in an Aqueduct allowance Dec. 4, the chestnut filly added blinkers for this outing. The 4-1 shot, in touch with the leaders early, split horses in midstretch and drove clear by 3 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 7-2-0-1, $47,063. O-Sabine Stable. B-Hargus & Sandra Sexton (KY). T-Robert Barbara.

3rd-AQU, $41,000, Msw, 3yo, 6f, 1:11 3/5, ft. ALF (c, 3, American Chance--Wilson's Courage, by Known Fact), one of the more experienced runners in this maiden heat, put it all together and graduated. Third in two straight efforts at Aqueduct, the bay colt was bumped on the turn when fourth over this trip Dec. 30. Sent off at 3-1, the homebred colt broke well from the rail, contested the pace with favored firster Tothe Chase (Caller I. D.) and drew away from that rival through the stretch for a 2 3/4-length score. Lifetime Record: 6-1-1-2, $39,280. O/B-Paraneck Stable (KY). T-Louis Albertrani.

Unhurried early down on the inside, the chestnut colt bulled his way through traffic on the turn, came wide into the stretch and sailed home a seven-length victor. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. Swept Away, unbeaten in two career starts, came away with a victory in her first foray into stakes company. After breaking her maiden at first asking in June at Churchill, the dark bay resurfaced with a 7 3/4-length romp in a Calder allowance Dec. 20. Slightly favored here, she chased the pace through a half in :44 4/5, took command nearing the eighth pole and powered home by five lengths. "The way she broke today, I knew we were going to win the race," said winning jockey Eibar Coa. Swept Away will stick around Gulfstream for the time being. "We're not going to ship her anywhere," said winning trainer Steve Flint. "She'll stay here for the series. She'll go in the seven-furlong race (Gill Forward Gal S., Jan. 20). After that, we'll see. We're taking it one race at a time."

Shipped to Florida, he made two starts for trainer Frank Gomez, breaking his maiden when switched to the dirt and returning with a 4 1/4-length romp against winners at Calder Dec. 19. Back on the turf for new trainer Norman Pointer, the 7-2 shot saved ground early, angled out for the drive and wore down Kettle Won (Colonial Affair) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 7-3-0-0, $47,850.

Dismissed at 13-1 here, the 1/2 to Tri Bowl (Tri Jet), MSW, $206,121; and Cearas Dancer (Gate Dancer), GSP, $117,234, opened up in midstretch and held off favored Drama Critic (Theatrical {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths. Aimed for another turf route in his last start, the bay was an easy eight-length winner at Calder Nov. 21 in a race that came off the lawn. The gelding settled in midpack to the far turn and found a hole along the rail to lead turning for home. As Star of Rio came off the rail in the stretch, Willowick Lad (Silver Hawk) tried to slip through and got in tight quarters, but Star of Rio withstood the challenge to prevail by 1 1/2 lengths at 19-1. Lemon Drop Kid Back at the Track:

The hero of the 1999 Belmont and Travers S. Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) has returned to the barn of trainer Scotty Schulhofer at Gulfstream Park. "He's going to the track now," said Randy Schulhofer, who is managing his father's stable while he recovers from triple bypass surgery. "He likely won't be ready to run until later in the meeting. The Donn H. (GI, Feb. 5) is out, but there is a chance he might be ready for the Gulfstream Park H. (GI, Feb. 26)."

Davona Dale for Marigalante:

Marigalante (Silver Ghost), a 1/2-length winner of a Gulfstream allowance this past Thursday, is being aimed for a run in the GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 20, according to trainer Frank Alexander. The dark bay, third in the one-mile GIII Tempted S. at Aqueduct in November, was making her first start around two turns. "I liked the way she won (Thursday)," the conditioner commented. "That was her first win around two turns and now I know she can successfully get a middle distance."

2.20 Leopardstown, Ladbroke Handicap Hurdle-G1, Ir£95,100, 4yo/up, 2mT, 4:07.80, sf.

MANTLES PRINCE (GB) (g, 6, Emarati {USA}--Miami Mouse {GB}, by Miami Springs {GB}), who came into this valuable handicap off an easy win in a Fairyhouse handicap Jan. 3, was sent off at odds of 12-1. Racing in midfield until well after halfway, he made smooth progress at the end of the backstretch, came to challenge Geos (Fr) (Pistolet Bleu {Ire}) between the last two flights of hurdles, jumped into the lead at the last and soon went clear, winning easily by six lengths from Geos. Lifetime Record: 10-4-3-1, Ir£92,692.

Yesterday's Result:

2.35 Sandown, Sun 'King Of The Punters' Tolworth Hurdle-G1, £16,500, 4yo/up, 2m 110ydsT, time: n/a, sf.

MONSIGNOR (IRE) (g, 6, Mister Lord {USA}--Dooney's Daughter {Ire}, by The Parson {GB}) was sent off the 11-8 favorite to complete a hat-trick in as many starts this season and his fourth straight overall. He shared the lead with Grief (Ire) (Broken Hearted {Ire}) until taking command early in the backstretch and led into the straight from the unbeaten Best Mate (Ire) (Un Desperado {Fr}). Best Mate appeared to be going well, but Monsignor quickened away and was never challenged up the stiff Sandown hill, winning easily by 2½ lengths from Best Mate. Lifetime Record: 7-5-0-1, £50,437.

DINELEY WINS FIRST IN 15 YEARS

Flat jockey David Dineley rode his first winner in 15 years, aboard Lucky Star (GB) at Lingfield yesterday. The 46-year-old former champion apprentice of 1976, who returned to race riding in April last year after a 14-year break, said, "I had a bit of luck. The pin in the iron on my right leg came out and ... I was riding six inches longer on one leg than the other."

SCOOP 6 HIT FOR £917,000

The Tote Scoop6 was won yesterday by a syndicate of seven, headed by David Connolly-Smith, the Racing Post's German correspondent. Keltoi has shown a distinct liking for Jebel Ali, finishing second in last year's Jebel Ali S. He won his previous two starts, and has always hinted that there was a big race within his limits. Having being allowed to settle back in the field by Eddie Ahern, Keltoi appreciated a solid tempo in front, set by Get Away With It. Pulled to the outside at the top of the straight, Keltoi tracked up to the leaders nicely to be in a strong position to challenge Get Away With It, who had raced clear and appeared to be the winner, but Keltoi's turn of foot was enough to bring him the victory. Redbridge, having his first run of the season, finished well for third. Last season's Maktoum Challenge winner Spindrift (Mukaddamah {USA}) ran well first-up, putting himself in a position to challenge at the 600-meter mark, however his run ended shortly thereafter and he eventually finished sixth, beaten just over 5 1/2 lengths.

EUROPEAN-BRED WINNERS:

Jalaab (Ire), h, 5, Green Desert (USA)--Stay Sharpe (USA), by Sharpen Up (GB). Jebel Ali, 1-8, 4yo/up, 1m. O-Sheikha Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Estate Company Ltd; T-Paddy Rudkin. *Taken straight to the front and rated perfectly by Eddie Ahern, Jalaab had too much of a break for runner-up Jila (Ire) (Kris {GB}) to overhaul him, taking a neck decision.

Hadith (GB), h, 5, Nashwan (USA)--Azyaa (Ire) (SP-GB), by Kris (GB). Jebel Ali, 1-8, 4yo/up, 1m. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Estate Company Ltd; T-E Charpy. *1/2 to Ihtiraz (GB) (Soviet Star {USA}), GSP-US, SP-UAE, $191,535. **Hadith burst back into form here, overcoming traffic. He quickened nicely to win by a comfortable 1 1/4 lengths.

Yajree (Ire), g, 5, Selkirk (USA)--Ustka (GB), by Lomond (USA). Jebel Ali, 1-8, 4yo/up, Hcp., 5f. O-Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-London Thoroughbred Services Ltd; T-D Selvaratnam. *13,000gns wnl '95 TADEF; 35,000gns yrl '96 TAOCT. *Yajree trailed for just over a half before easing out to make his run while Green Barries (GB) (Green Desert {USA}) was having trouble getting clear. By the time he did, Yajree had the race won, going on for a three-length score.

Zaya (GB), h, 5, Zafonic (USA)--Ayah (USA), by Secreto (USA). Jebel Ali, 1-8, 4yo/up, Hcp., a1 1/4mT. O-Sheikh Maktoum bin Mohammed al Maktoum; B-Sheikh Mohammed bin Mohammed al Maktoum; T-E Charpy. *1/2 to Aylesbury (Ire) (Lycius {USA}), GSW-Ire. **Considering he ran over a second faster than Keltai, who won the Jebel Ali S. earlier, simply confirms his dominance here. Both placegetters Shaalayn (GB) (In The Wings {GB}), who resumed with an impressive win at his previous start, and Mufarej (USA) (Riverman {USA}), a Jebel Ali specialist, both chased hard all the way up the straight, but couldn't get closer than the 10 1/2-length final margin.

★ U.S. PREMIERES ★

U.S. Debuts:

9th-Gulfstream Park, $45,000, Alw, 1-9, 4yo/up, 7f BOLD FACT (USA) (h, 5, Known Fact {USA}--Sookera {USA}, by Roberto {USA}) is coming off of two terrible outings, although both were against top-notch company. His last race was a 15th-place finish in the G1 July Cup July 8 for Henry Cecil, and he was 17th in the G2 Cork and Orrery S. June 17 at Ascot. Against lesser opponents, though, he has been quite good, earning a Timeform rating of 114 in winning the Listed Leisure S. May 22 at Lingfield under 131 pounds. He gets 115 here and has been working well. First time on dirt, first time on Lasix. Lifetime Record: 13-5-1-2, $159,280. O/B-Juddmonte Farms (KY); T-John Kimmel; J-Edgar Prado.

He was settled in the middle of the field, rallied five wide and closed well, finishing second by a neck.
