*Outstanding Hero finished first, but was disqualified and placed third.

Apremont, helped by the disqualification of first-place finisher Outstanding Hero, remained unbeaten at Santa Anita with his victory here. The dark bay began his career with a pair of impressive efforts, capturing his debut by 6 1/2 lengths before defeating Charismatic and Forestry by five lengths in a Santa Anita allowance last February. Shipped east for the GIII Gotham, he finished second to Badge, but was taken off the Triple Crown trail. Resurfacing in May in California, he took an optional claimer at Hollywood before running second to Love That Red in the Laz Barrera H. at Hollywood May 31. Second in his turf debut Nov. 12, he gave a lackluster try when sixth in the Dayjur H. on the Hollywood lawn Dec. 20, his only unplaced effort. The second choice dueled between horses through the turn and battled gamely with Outstanding Hero in the stretch, but could not hold off that foe. Outstanding Hero drifted into favored Lake William's path, causing that rival to steady, and was subsequently placed third by the stewards.

MUCHEA BACK WITH CHANNON

Six-year-old Muchea (GB) (Shalford {Ire}), winner of two Group 3s and one Group 2 in Europe, has returned to trainer Mick Channon from Hong Kong. Channon said, "He's come back from David Hayes in Hong Kong and arrived just before Christmas. I'm pleased to have him back--he's a grand little horse. He was very disappointing over there but it looks as if he's had problems. He seems fine at the moment. Obviously, we're only just starting with him and we'll just go quietly as it looks as if he's had a fair time off." Channon is now based in the West Ilsley yard formerly occupied by Dick Hern. "We're up and running. People think Flat trainers do nothing at this time of year but there's an awful lot of work goes in. I'm pleased we've managed to keep some real nice three-year-olds such as Rowaasi (GB) (Green Desert {USA}), Seazun (Ire) (Zieten {USA}), Ma Yoram (USA) (Dayjur {USA}), Hunting Lion (Ire) (Piccolo {GB}) and Areydha (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB})."

PETER BELL RESIGNS FROM BHB

Sporting Life reports that Peter Bell, communications director for the British Horse Racing Board, resigned Thursday. "After a fascinating year at the heart of an industry which deserves the wholehearted commitment of all who work in it, I have decided the time has come to move on," Bell told Sporting Life. "The job of communications director was a new one when I joined. With the interests of the Board in mind as well as my own, I have been concerned for some time about the way the role has evolved and the effectiveness of the contribution it makes to the aims and objectives of the organisation. It is for the Board to decide how the function might be best performed in future and, after much reflection, I have come to the conclusion that the directors should be free to make that judgement on the basis of a blank sheet of paper."
