IT'S THE BLUES FOR CASH RUN

With Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Cash Run (Seeking the Gold) in the field, as well as dual-stakes winner Classic Olympio (Olympio) and intriguing maiden winner Mean Imogene (Silver Deputy), nobody was expecting much from Penny Blues (Pentelicus), who was a neck winner of a Santa Anita allowance last out. Going off as the longest shot in the five-horse field at 15.10-1, Penny Blues sat along the rail in last, unhurried by jockey Eddie Delahoussaye. The pair stayed glued to the fence as they moved to the front in the stretch, and under Delahoussaye's urging, Penny Blues inched away for a 1 1/4-length win. "We were sure hoping it would set up the way it did," said Delahoussaye. "I sure didn't want to go out with horses up front." Cash Run, the 9-10 favorite, was up with the leaders, went four wide through the turn and had nothing in the stretch, fading to fourth, beaten 12 3/4 lengths. "I ran out of horse a lot sooner than I wanted to," said her rider, Jerry Bailey. "It was just a bad training job," said Cash Run's trainer, D. Wayne Lukas. "I left her short. We'll get them next time."

Brushed Halory spent last winter in the Big Easy and finished second in the GIII Davona Dale and third in the GIII Fair Grounds Oaks to a filly named Silverbulletday. The bay returned from a three-month hiatus none the worse for wear to win the July 24 GIII Delaware Oaks by 3/4 of a length before finishing seventh to the champ in the GI Alabama. The one-length winner of the Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks, Brushed Halory was the runner-up in the GIII Turnback The Alarm H. at Aqueduct, was away for two months and ran fifth in the GIII Ladies H. in her most recent effort. Mop Squeezer dictated a reasonable pace with favored Could Be (Geiger Counter) and Brushed Halory in striking range. The latter advanced between horses on the far turn to take control, was hooked by Roza Robata at the eighth pole and outgamed that foe to the line. "She's just a wonderful filly, as honest as they come," said winning trainer Josie Carroll. "I wasn't worried when they challenged her for the lead when I saw the way she responded." The GII Rampart H. Feb. 27 is under consideration for the winner, according to Carroll.

New Zealand's second Group 1 three-year-old fillies' race of the season went to another daughter of Kenfair, as Ad Alta (NZ) had already taken the New Zealand 1000 Guineas. She was close to being boxed in by Hill Of Grace, but showed a lot of fight to get herself into a gap in the stretch, where she produced a burst to take command, holding off a very game Hill of Grace. She's Country was bred by Whakanui Stud, as was Mythical Play (NZ) (Defensive Play), who won the G1 Paddock S. at Kenilworth in South Africa earlier this year. Cross Country, She's Country's dam, is a half-sister to G1 Florida Derby winner Mercedes Won. Trainer Bruce Wallace said it was likely that She's Country would be set for an autumn campaign in Sydney, including the AJC Oaks April 29, a path that Hill Of Grace is also likely to follow.

CHESTNUT'S PROGNOSIS GUARDED South African champion Horse Chestnut (SAf) (Fort Wood), injured during a Saturday workout at Calder, is recovering in his stall at the Miami oval, his career still in the balance. "It's still too early to say that his career is over," trainer Michael de Kock said yesterday. "There is still a lot of swelling and it's hard to tell how much damage there is to his suspensory." De Kock characterized the injury as "not life-threatening" and suggested a rosy future for Horse Chestnut. "Even if we retire him as a race horse, he'll make a great stallion prospect. We might even think of standing him in America."

INGLIS CLASSIC SALE PREVIEW

William Inglis and Son will hold its first yearling sale for 2000, The Classic Sale, over the next two days at its elegant Newmarket complex near Sydney's Randwick racecourse. While the sale average is likely to be roughly one-fifth the average of the blue ribbon Australian Easter Yearling Sale last April, the industry's major players can't afford to overlook the Classic Sale, which is fast garnering a reputation for producing winners. Three years ago, Inglis gave the sale a solid boost by creating the A$610,000 Inglis Classic, exclusively for graduates of its sale. Inaugural winner Laurie's Lottery (Aus) (Sir Laurence {NZ}) cost only A$17,000, but has won more than A$1 million to date, including the G1 Doomben 10,000 H. last winter. "There are some nice horses here, they are not top-bred horses and they won't compare with Easter, but...there will be some racehorses come out of this sale," says Randwick trainer Graeme Rogerson, who last year was Australia's leading buyer. The Classic Sale average has risen from A$12,557 in 1996 to A$18,572 last year, and the sale's move back from the first week in January, when everyone scrambled back from holiday to the sale, has been well received. "This is the best catalogue we've ever put together for the Classic sale, there is real stallion strength and every major stud in New South Wales has supported the sale, along with the best of our smaller breeders," says Inglis associate director Jonathan D'Arcy. Star youngsters include Lot 456, a colt by Sillery out of Cowboy Kate (Aus) (Rancher {Aus}), and Lot 297, a Hurricane Sky (Aus) (Star Watch {Aus}) half-sister to stakes-winning Classic graduate Little Miss Marnie (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}), offered by Wakefield Stud. At Magic Millions earlier this month, buyers leaned toward stallions proven in Australian conditions, such as the Slipper-winning Danehill pair Flying Spur (Aus) and Danzero (Aus). "I think it is fairly indicative of the marketplace at the moment that buyers are out there looking for horses they know can handle our race conditions, and some of the stallions coming from overseas may not be capable of standing up," says Byron Rogers of Arrowfield Stud.

The John Toffan and Trudy McCaffery homebred, fifth by 3 1/4 lengths in the 1998 Breeders' Cup Sprint, won the Desert Stormer H. to begin her five-year-old campaign, but was winless in five subsequent starts, including a seventh-place finish in Saturday's GI Santa Monica H. The dark bay ends her career with five wins from 14 starts for trainer Paco Gonzalez and earnings of $381,691.

The slight favorite busted out of the gate and set fast fractions for this surface, shook loose to lead by two past the midstretch marker then held on to win by a length from 1999 Gill Holy Bull S. winner Grits'n Hard Toast (Bates Motel), who was making his first start since finishing seventh in the Indiana Derby Oct. 2. A 14-1 longshot off a seventh-place finish in his two-turn comebacker at Gulfstream Jan. 8, the 1/2 to Carreras (Seeking the Gold), MSP, $181,230, stalked the pace, took over on the far turn and was kept to task to win by two lengths. CHIEF GOSSIP (f, 3, Chief's Crown--Track Gossip {SW}, by Shahrastani) took seven tries to break her maiden, but showed some courage in doing so Dec. 16 at Calder after being steadied on the far turn. Her last was a troubled fourth in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 5 and she went off as the 3.20-1 second choice. Once again, she had to be steadied, this time after being bumped at the start. The 1/2 to Crash Course (Holy Bull), SW & GSP, $109,815, came out for her stretch run and drew clear for a 1 3/4-length win. Lifetime Record: 9-2-0-1, $35,835. O/B-Jesse M Robinson (KY). Debuting with Lasix, the even-money favorite chased the pacesetters while three wide, forged a short advantage at the furlong marker and withstood a late run from first-time starter Babala (Relaunch) to win by three parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $18,000. O/B-Edward P Evans (Ky). T-Mark Hennig.

Migliore Revels in Return to Winner's Circle:

"I'm overwhelmed," was the simple sentiment expressed by jockey Richie Migliore after his victory in Saturday's fourth race aboard the John Kimmel-trained Maundays Bay, his first victory since returning from a wrist injury sustained last July. "The release of energy and emotions I'm feeling now. It's been a long road but I'm just so happy to be back it's hard to describe."

Kip Aiming for Deputy Minister:

Kelly Kip (Kipper Kelly), a somewhat disappointing fourth in the Jan. 16 Gill Hallandale Beach H. in his first start in nine months, will make his next start in the Gill Deputy Minister H. at 6 1/2 furlongs Feb. 6, according to trainer Allen Jerkens. The six-year-old breezed four furlongs Saturday in a leisurely :49 4/5, a satisfactory work according to Jerkens. "It was what I wanted from him and he's doing fine."

Lemon Drop Kid Breezes:

Last year's GI Belmont and Travers S. winner Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) went three furlongs Saturday morning in :36 2/5 in his first work since returning to trainer Scotty Schulhofer's barn from a brief respite on the farm. "We're going slow with him and he's still a ways away from the races, but he might be ready for something during the later part of this meeting," Schulhofer commented. Schulhofer, a month after triple bypass heart surgery, is now spending several days a week at his barn.

Quit Complaining was second and third in her first two career starts before going to the sidelines and returned from 2 1/2-month rest to break her maiden at Delaware Park Aug. 29. The bay led through the opening half mile of the Blue Hen S. at Delaware Sept. 18 before tiring to fifth and did not race again until airing by six against an Aqueduct allowance field Dec. 8 in her first attempt at a route with Lasix and front wraps added. Sent off the second favorite off that effort, the $1,100 FTKOCT yearling purchase attended slow fractions, took over on the far turn and repulsed a stretch-long challenge from favored Fiesty Countess to score the victory. Yakh Forty, widest into the stretch, rallied gamely for the show. Said winning trainer Steve Klesaris, "I wanted her to just sit comfortably off the lead. It worked out well. We'll evaluate her before deciding what's next, but it'll be here in New York."

Max's Pal took a Delaware Park maiden event by a nose in his career bow Aug. 4 and shipped up to Monmouth Park to make it two-for-two with a 1 1/4-length victory Aug. 27. A pace-pressing fourth in the Dover S. back at Delaware Sept. 19, the chestnut ended his two-year-old season when fifth in the Morven S. over the Meadowlands turf Oct. 1. Favored here off a neck victory Jan. 2, Max's Pal disputed the early pace three deep with Lord Of Time (Gilded Time) and Rich Down, accelerated away from those two entering the lane and held Citizen at bay for his first stakes score. "It didn't look like there was alot of speed in the race and he'd be able to dictate the pace," said winning trainer Ben Perkins Jr. "He looks like a real nice sprinter. I'm not sure if we'd stretch him out," he added.

Toscano Undergoes Surgery:

Jockey Paul Toscano, injured during the running of Saturday's sixth race at Aqueduct, was to undergo surgery yesterday morning at Jamaica Hospital in New York. "He severed the bone in his left arm in a few places," said Toscano's father, John Toscano Jr. "They are going to have to put a plate in his left arm and a couple of screws." The elder Toscano also said that there was the possibility that the rider had also fractured his pelvis, which could also require surgery. The jockey is expected to be out from four to six months, according to Toscano Jr.

Allen's Oop punched his ticket to the Gill New Orleans H. at the Fair Grounds Mar. 5 with a gritty victory as the odds-on favorite. The gelding, winner in his last start of the seven-furlong Sam Houston Sprint H. Jan. 1, prompted the pace outside Chief Three Sox, overtook that rival at the eighth pole and held off Vilaxy for the victory. "He's a very versatile horse, he has got that kind of speed and can still carry the distance," said winning trainer Dallas Keen.

Pikepass certainly doesn't need, or even have, a home track. He won at first asking Aug. 28 at Remington Park and followed that up with an allowance score Oct. 16 at Keeneland. His last was a game second in a Churchill allowance Nov. 26, trying to go wire-to-wire. Sent off as the second-longest shot in this five-horse field at 8-1, Pikepass quickly opened up two lengths out of the gate. Desert Air closed on the leader turning for home, but Tim Doocy asked Pikepass for more and he kicked clear, romping home by 5 1/2 lengths. "I wanted to keep him in allowance company," said trainer Kenny Smith, "but [owner] Mr. Jiles wanted to start running him in stakes. We just hope he continues to progress." Take Note of Me (Notebook), the 7-10 favorite off of several stakes wins at the Fair Grounds, never put in a run and finished last.

WILLIAM HILL MAY GO PUBLIC

William Hill, Britain's second biggest bookmaker, is contemplating floating on the London Stock Exchange to take advantage of the interest in companies with internet businesses. William Hill last year started three internet gambling sites and is about to, closely followed by rivals, offer tax-free betting to British bettors via the 'net. The bookmaker is considering either floating the whole company or the telephone and internet betting interests. Chief executive John Brown said, "We'd be floating an internet company that actually made money from the very start."

ELSWORTH TO LEAVE JUMPING

One of Britain's leading dual-purpose trainers, David Elsworth, announced yesterday that he is withdrawing from jump racing to concentrate on the flat at the end of the season in June. "I am not enjoying it any more," he said. "What is the point in doing something you don't enjoy? We have got 100 horses for the flat and they are the best bunch we have ever had." He has won nearly all the top jump races and is best known for training Desert Orchid (GB), one of the most popular horses ever to race in Britain.
