HIGH-YIELDING FOUNTAIN

Ponce de Leon may have never found the long-sought Fountain of Youth, but the connections of High Yield (Storm Cat) have all stood in the winner's circle with a blanket of roses. Robert and Beverly Lewis teamed with trainer D. Wayne Lukas in last year's Derby with Charismatic, while co-owner Michael Tabor watched Thunder Gulch come home first at Churchill in 1995. Having gone in with Sue Magnier on the handsome High Yield as a yearling, they watched him capture the GI Hopeful at two. Third in the GI Breeders' Cup over this surface in November, he concluded his juvenile campaign with a second in the GI Hollywood Futurity. Adding blinkers for his three-year-old bow, High Yield was a game second in the GI Santa Catalina S. at Santa Anita Jan. 20 and shipped eastward to continue his Triple Crown preparations. Breaking alertly from post four with new pilot Pat Day, he dueled with Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo) to the stretch, getting six furlongs in a sharp 1:09 4/5. Shaking free, he came home under a strong hand ride. "I was a little concerned with the 1:09 and change," said Lukas. "I thought it might set it up for a horse coming off of it. He'll go in the Florida Derby. We know where we want to go, we just have to pull it off."

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE?

Tap To Music (Pleasant Tap), winner of the 1998 GI Gazelle H. at Belmont Park, struggled a bit during her four-year-old campaign, with a single victory from seven outings, a 1 3/4-length success in the 10-furlong Gill Delaware H. Fourth in the GI Ruffian in her penultimate start of 1999, the bay was fifth in the Breeders' Cup Distaff before getting a breather. She resurfaced to try the grass for the first time in Tampa Bay's Endeavour S. Jan. 4, but could manage only an eighth of 11 finish. The third choice in the full field, she was void of early speed, but began to advance a bit leaving the half mile pole. Jockey Joe Bravo sent the five-year-old between horses three wide on the turn, collared Her She Kisses (Dehere) at the eighth pole and prevailed over that one after a hard drive. Said Bravo, "This filly is doing really well. Class just prevailed. Joe (trainer Orseno) put me on the best horse. All I had to do was steer her today." Assistant trainer Russ Derderian added, "She has never trained really well, but when we brought her back from Florida, she was like a different horse. We'd like to ship her around a bit to see if we can make her a millionaire."

Also Ran: Foxcaller, Jostle, Fiesty Countess, November
Slew, Cecilia's Crown, Broadway Express.

Last year, trainer Bob Baffert chose this spot for his returning two-year-old filly champion Silverbulletday and she responded with a victory. Baffert was hoping for a similar result with his newest Eclipse winner Chilukki, who was making her first start since suffering the first defeat of her career when second in the Breeders' Cup.
Instead, Shawnee Country spoiled the party with a come-from-behind upset. Chilukki broke alertly, but was outfooted to the clubhouse turn by the Lukas-trained November Slew (Seattle Slew) and took up a stalking position outside that rival. Chilukki put away November Slew and came wide into the stretch, but was able to established a clear, three-length lead with a furlong to run. Shawnee Country, wide early, was closing relentlessly and was able to run down the champ in the waning strides to spring the surprise. "I was concerned I didn't save enough ground at the top of the stretch," said winning rider Donnie Meche. "She really responded well when I asked her to run at the top of the stretch." Baffert was satisfied with his filly's performance. "She ran her guts out," he said. "This race will tighten her up.
(Jockey) Daivd (Flores) said that he went wide in the stretch because he thought the rail was dull," he added.

Gold Tiera, winner of four of five on the main track, was a Grade 3 stakes winner on turf and dirt last year. She was most recently third going nine furlongs at Kyoto in the G3-Jpn Heian S. Jan. 23. King Halo is winless in his last six, but they were all against top notch competition. He most recently finished third in the G1 Sprinter's S. at Nakayama Dec. 19. According to trainer Masahiro Sakuguchi, the five-year-old, "sweats a lot in the summer, so he keeps better condition during the winter time." Meisei Opera is the defending champion of this event. Trainer Shuji Sasaki said, "He still needs to lose weight, but he was given a good workout after arriving at the Miho training center."

Secret Status broke her maiden when tried around two turns for the first time at Keeneland last fall and has been no secret at this meet, with a pair of facile victories at odds-on, including a 5 1/4-length romp Feb. 2 from off the pace, a style which should serve her well in this heat. Cash Run ships cross country to the scene of her greatest triumph, when Jerry Bailey sent the dark bay to lead along the rail and never stopped, besting Chilukki in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Second next out in the GIII Golden Rod at Churchill, the sophomore reportedly coughed after a fourth-place finish in the GII Santa Ynez Jan. 23. Hidden Assets "beyered" a 102 when a four-length winner of a Gulfstream maiden Jan. 9 and followed that effort with a one-length success Jan. 30. She makes her first start around two turns this afternoon.

NYRA ANNOUNCES WOOD, DERBY BONUS

The New York Racing Association yesterday announced a total of $250,000 in bonus money for the owner and trainer of any horse that wins the Apr. 15 GII Wood Memorial at Aqueduct and the Kentucky Derby three weeks later. The money is to be divided $100,000 to the trainer and $150,000 to the owner of the winner. "The Wood Memorial has, historically, been one of racing's most important races," commented NYRA racing secretary and handicapper Mike Lakow. "The purse increase to $750,000 and now this total $250,000 bonus shows how much NYRA thinks of this race and that sweeping both the Wood Memorial and the Kentucky Derby would rank as a major accomplishment by anyone's standards." Ten horses have completed the Wood/Derby double, most recently Pleasant Colony in 1981. Four horses, including Seattle Slew in 1977, have gone on to win the Triple Crown.

KEN MADDY PASSES AWAY A champion of legislation favorable to Thoroughbred racing while a member of the California state senate, Ken Maddy passed away Friday night after a lengthy bout with cancer. He was 64 years old. A Republican who represented his Fresno, California, district for over 25 years until being forced to leave the Senate due to term limitations, Maddy helped pass Senate Bill 27 in California, called at the time by Oak Tree Racing Association President Clement Hirsch, "the most significant horse-related legislation in the past 65 years." The traditional opening day stakes of the fall Oak Tree meeting, the GIII Autumn Days H., was renamed this year the Sen. Ken Maddy H. to honor his accomplishments and contributions to the Thoroughbred industry. Maddy, a co-owner of crack female sprinter Soviet Problem, was remembered with a statewide moment of silence prior to yesterday's first race at Santa Anita. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Bare Outline may have punched his ticket to the Triple Crown trail with this score. He defeated Country Only when breaking his maiden in November under Corey Nakatani at Aqueduct and landed his second score in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 23. Reunited with Nakatani for this outing, the dark bay was pressed by Wayward Ways (Wild Again) to the far turn, drew clear and staved off the late challenge of graded stakes winner Takhoda Hills. Wayward Ways was pulled up nearing the stretch. "Naturally, you know the routine [concerning a next start]," said trainer Nick Zito. "I'll check with [owner] Mr. Condren and see what he wants to do."

Federal Trial remained unbeaten over the Gulfstream Park turf with this wire-to-wire endeavor. Hero of the GIII Canadian Turf H. over this course last winter, he was last seen finishing third in the GI Man o' War at Belmont in September. The dark bay showed no signs of rustiness in his return, skimming the hedge on his way to a clear success in track-record setting time.

Grade I Fillies on Undercard:

This afternoon's card at Gulfstream Park features the return of a pair of high-class juvenile fillies from last year. In the seven-furlong seventh race, GI Matron and Frizette runner up Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister) makes her first racetrack appearance since her fifth-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She has trained well at conditioner John Ward's Pebble Beach Downs base. GI Spinaway winner Circle of Life (Belong to Me) makes her return in the eighth race, a seven-furlong event for non-winners of two other than. The New York bred is unraced since a third-place finish, beaten two lengths in the GI Matron Sept. 19.

GP 'Cap Next on Agenda for Best of Luck:

Best of Luck (Broad Brush), who rallied from the back of the pack to finish fourth in the GI Donn H. Feb. 5, is scheduled to make his next start in Saturday's GI Gulfstream Park H. "He's been training well since the Donn," said trainer Allen Jerkens. "I'll work him again before the race and Mike (jockey Smith) will ride him back." The four-year-old, winner last year of the GI Peter Pan S. and GIII Stuyvesant H., worked three furlongs Feb. 16 in :37 4/5.

Southern Sandra flew down the stretch to capture her first black-type event. Breaking her maiden by eight lengths for a $50,000 tag at Woodbine in September, she returned to the winner's circle four starts later with a victory in an Aqueduct allowance Jan. 8. In her most recent outing, she ran greenly when beaten a neck by Doc Calls Her Kate in an allowance Feb. 4. Away alertly, she raced close up while four wide as Presumed Innocent (Shuailaan) and Doc Calls Her Kate fought it out on the front end. Proposal grabbed a short lead along the rail in deep stretch, but Southern Sandra came running late and finished determinedly for the narrow score. "At the top of the stretch, it took her a couple of steps to switch leads, but then she started flying," said winning jockey Aaron Gryder. "I wasn't sure if we were going to get there, but we did." Proposal ran gamely in her runner-up effort. "She really tried and dug in," commented assistant trainer Loretta Lusteg. "It was pure slop out there."

Collmus Calls Race of Different Variety:

Suffolk Downs and Monmouth track announcer Larry Collmus has called over 20,000 races in his career, but never one like this. Collmus was recently hired by CBS to do a voice-over for a cartoon horse race scheduled to be run Feb. 26 on the TV version of the "Howard Stern Radio Show." "I can't give away the ending, but racing fans and those who enjoy Howard Stern will get a big kick out of the race," Collmus commented. "It's a short piece, but overall it was in good taste for the game and it was fun just to be involved," he added. The show airs nationally at 11:30 p.m. on CBS.

GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup hero Saints Honor (St. Jovite) worked four furlongs in :48 2/5 at Hollywood Park. A decision on the four-year-old's Big 'Cap status is expected next week, according to trainer Craig Dollase. Breeders' Cup Classic fourth Chester House (Mr. Prospector) is still a likely starter in the $1 million event, but has missed some training at Hollywood Park due to the inclement weather, according to conditioner Bobby Frankel. "I might have to take him over to Santa Anita. I still hope to get him in, but we have missed a couple of days."

GOLDEN SNAKE RETURNS TO TRAINING G1

Prix Jean Prat Emirates Airlines winner Golden Snake (USA) (Danzig {USA}), who had been retired and advertised to stand at the National Stud for £6,500 this year, has returned to training, reported the Racing Post. Previously trained by Barry Hills for Mohamed Obaida, the four-year-old is now in the care of John Dunlop and will be the first horse to race in the colors of the National Stud. Miles Littleworth, the National Stud's Chief Executive, told the Racing Post that there is "no problem" with the horse's fertility and the decision to put him back into training was "to see if he can fulfill his potential as a four-year-old." Golden Snake, who most recently finished out of the money in the G1 Dubai Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 16, is expected to contest Europe's top middle-distance events.

BRITAIN'S FIRST INTERNET RACE A SUCCESS

The first Internet broadcast of British racing was called a success by the organisers, with a peak audience of 23,000 logging on for Ascot's Mitsubishi Shogun Ascot Chase yesterday. Ascot's chief executive Douglas Erskine-Crum said, "We are very pleased with the broadcast, though I would stress that it was only a trial designed mainly so that we could assess the limitations of current technology. While the picture quality was variable at times and suffered when the peak audience was reached, the people I have spoken to were impressed overall. I think it bodes very well for the future." British racing hopes to generate significant sums of money in the future from Internet broadcasts.

ROCKFORCE (GB) (g, 8, Rock City {GB}--Sleepline Princess {GB}, by Royal Palace {GB}), going for his fifth straight win and his fourth in four starts this season, was sent off the 2/1 favourite. Always travelling well in fourth as Celibate (Ire) (Shy Groom {USA}) led, he made smooth progress to join the leader at the third-last fence, grabbed the lead and, despite going lame, galloped on bravely to win by 1 ½ lengths. Sadly, due to his injury, Rockforce is most unlikely to run again this season. Lifetime Record: 11-7-1-0, £79,023.

Also ran (not classified): Feenkönig (Ger), Mandilak (USA), Battle Green (Fr), Rain Lily (Fr).

Winner of the G3 Prix de Lutece in 1998 and the Listed Grand Prix de Nantes in November and runner-up in the Listed Prix Max Sicard in December, the classy Russian Hope was making his seasonal debut here. After racing in midfield until well onto the second circuit, he cruised up to join the leaders around the final bend, grabbed the lead after being brought over towards the stands rails early in the straight and ran on well under a hands and heels ride to win comfortably from Milord Fontenailles and late-closing Ben Ewar. Winning trainer Henri-Alex Pantall said, "Russian Hope could go to Dubai for the $2-million Dubai Turf Classic, if he gets an invitation. We have had that race in mind for him for a long time, but he needed to run here before that. He is a very generous horse and we thought that it would be better to run him here, rather than wait for a race in Paris in March. That would have been too close to the race in Dubai. If he doesn't get an invitation to Dubai, we'll wait for a mile and a half race in Paris for his next race."

ONE-DAY STRIKE CALLED IN ITALIAN RACING:

Italian racing is in turmoil again. Racing has been cancelled for Sunday after a one-day strike was called by sections of the trotting fraternity who are upset by the decision of an Italian Parliamentary Committee not to give its approval to the Minister Of Agriculture's appointment of Guido Melzi d'Eril as the new President of U.N.I.R.E. Melzi D'Eril, who has been acting as temporary President for the past few months, would be the first official President of UNIRE inside a dozen years.
