ROYAL ANTHEM OUT OF DUBAI SHEEMA

CLASSIC Prince Ahmed bin Salman has withdrawn The Thoroughbred Corporation's GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. winner Royal Anthem (Theatrical {Ire}) from the Mar. 25 Dubai Sheema Classic after the horse sustained a minor training setback in Florida. "Royal Anthem will need a short break from training and we had no choice, in the horse's best long-term racing interest, other than to scratch him from the Dubai race," said The Thoroughbred Corporation President Richard Mulhall. Speaking from Riyadh, Prince Ahmed added, "My good friend Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum has done wonderful things for racing in Dubai and I am truly disappointed that Royal Anthem will not be able to compete on this great day of international racing."

BEHRENS LOOKS TO START NEW STREAK

Last year, Behrens used a victory in the GI Gulfstream Park H. to propel him into the national spotlight and begin a four-race win streak. After a disappointing seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic a third as the favorite in the GI Donn H. Feb. 5, the six-year-old is looking for his first win in eight months. Of his five opponents in what looks to be a pacesetter field, Augustin Stable's With Anticipation may be the biggest threat to Behrens' defense of his title. The five-year-old gelding has done well over the Gulfstream surface, breaks from what has been a golden rail for most of the meet and will most likely set a lonely pace. Coming from off the pace will be multiple graded stakes winners Adonis and Best of Luck. Adonis was most recently second in an allowance heat over the Gulfstream strip Feb. 5, and Best of Luck ran fourth last time in the GI Donn. H.

It would be hard to make a case against Tuzla (Fr), a winner of four of eight starts and nearly $900,000 last year, who makes her seasonal debut here. What was a great 1999 for Tuzla could have been an Eclipse Award-winning campaign had it not been for two heartbreaking neck defeats, one in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile and the other in the GI Matriarch S., to close out the year. Sapphire Ring (GB), the winner of the Nov. 7 GII Las Palmas H. two starts back, could be the upsetter if the favorite should struggle. She was most recently a troubled fourth in the Matriarch. Here's To You shipped from Florida to win the restricted Feb. 5 Pro Or Con H. at this trip in good style and appears to be the best of the rest.

HIALEAH AT GULFSTREAM? A source close to South Florida racing said on condition of anonymity that the two tracks are close to signing a deal that would allow the upcoming Hialeah meeting to be run at Gulfstream Park. "They have cleared all the hurdles but two," said the source. "It could happen as early as Monday or ten days from now. It depends on when they can work out the problems." The problems center around concessions and tote companies. Gulfstream has a contract with Levy Concessions while Hialeah runs their own stands and Gulfstream uses AmTote while Hialeah uses Autotote. "The contracts and software for the two tote companies don't match up and some kind of arrangements would have to be made to meld them together," added the source. Commenting on the possibility of the deal, Calder lobbyist Wilber Brewton added, "They're going to do it this year. But I think they'll be flirting with danger because, although the regulations allow for a permit holder to conduct their meeting at another facility, there is a penalty of twice the tax rate for both meetings that has to be paid." Gulfstream president Doug Donn had no comment on the situation and Hialeah owner John Brunetti didn't return phone calls placed yesterday.

REFLECT THE MUSIC (f, 4, A.P. Indy--Light On Your Feet, by Nijinsky II) concluded her sophomore campaign with an allowance score at Churchill Nov. 26. Returning Jan. 28 at Gulfstream, the bay filly tired in the stretch, finishing fourth in an allowance. Favored at 6-5 to rebound here, she pressed Principal Affair (Colonial Affair) through the early fractions, drew even on the far turn and edged that rival by a neck after a stretch-long duel. Lifetime Record: 9-3-2-0, $92,760.

Scottish Halo to Run Sunday:

GIII Laurel Futurity winner Scottish Halo (Jolie's Halo), unraced since running fourth in the Nov. 27 GII Remsen, will run in the eighth race at Gulfstream Sunday, an allowance for older horses on the turf, to prep for the GI Florida Derby Mar. 11. The unusual decision to run against older horses was necessitated when a straight three-year-old allowance for Saturday did not fill. "I wanted to get a race around two turns under him before I ran him in the Florida Derby," said trainer Paul Rizzo. "All I'm looking for is that he give me a solid performance and it should serve as a good tightener for him."

Mycupoftea went wire-to-window despite breaking through the gate before the start. Victorious for a $40,000 tag three back, she was nipped at the finish in her most recent outing, a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 24. Away smartly, the bay filly quickly sprinted clear and maintained her advantage under the line.

Victor Cooley, sidelined since June, returned with a vengeance, earning his first victory in over a year. A nose winner of a Fair Grounds allowance last February, the old warrior finished second in his next three starts, and went to the bench following a fifth in the GII King Edward Breeders' Cup H. over the Woodbine lawn June 13. The second choice at 6-5 in his comeback, he tracked the pace while three wide, grabbed the lead near the eighth pole and proved best in the final strides.

BRITISH RUNNERS ARRIVE IN SINGAPORE

Showboat (GB) (Warning {GB}) and Monsajem (USA) (Woodman {USA}), the British-trained entries for the March 4 S$3million Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji, arrived in Singapore yesterday morning after a 23-hour flight from London Heathrow. They were joined by Night Style (Fr) (Night Shift {USA}), a stablemate of Monsajem who is entered in the S$750,000 Singapore Plate. Showboat's trainer, Barry Hills, who intends to travel to Singapore Tuesday to supervise the horse's final preparations, said: "The horse is fine. He arrived safely and had a good trip, although it did take 23 hours. If all goes well, the plan is to then go to Dubai and he will come back to Britain in early May after going through the necessary period in quarantine." Showboat will be ridden by the trainer's son, Michael. Ed Dunlop's Monsajem and Night Style were accompanied by traveling head lad Robin Trevor-Jones and work riders Steve Nicholson and Tommy Imrie. They all enjoyed a trouble-free trip and are relaxing at Kranji's quarantine compound. Monsajem will be ridden by John Reid, while Night Style will be partnered by Gary Carter. Said Dunlop, "They arrived well after a particularly long flight and the next 24 to 36 hours are going to be of critical importance with travel sickness an obvious danger. We are going to go gently with them for the next 36 hours or so which should give them a good chance to rehydrate. Monsajem is going as a longshot considering he will be up against some race-fit Southern Hemisphere racehorses and Jim And Tonic (Fr) will be hard to beat. Night Style will be the only three-year-old in the Plate, which is against him, but the race is worth an awful lot of money. It is going to be hard for him this year as he was a Group 1 winner in Italy at two and win, lose or draw, he has an entry in the UAE Derby so we will just have to see how it goes. If all is well, I expect the pair to have a light canter on Monday and a good blow on Tuesday." In other Singapore news, Timahs (GB) (Mtoto {GB}) will replace Grazalema (USA) (Storm Bird {Can}) as Godolphin's entry in the Singapore Plate. The United States will be without a runner in either race following the defections of the California-based Patrick Gallagher-trained Cerulean Sky (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) and the Laura de Seroux-trained Pavillon (Brz) (Booming {Fr}).

GODOLPHIN SPONSORS ON-LINE COMPETITION

Godolphin plans to launch an on-line competition offering an array of prizes including a Rolls Royce, a Mercedes 500 and a solid gold bar. Beginning March 1, the 'Seven Stars' competition offers participants who log onto www.godolphin.com a chance to create their own seven-horse stable from among Godolphin's thoroughbreds, awarding points based on on-track performance to an individual's stable runners. Players have until March 24 to select their team. All winners earn a seven-night stay for two at the world's first seven-star hotel, the Burj Al Arab, Dubai, and will be on hand for the 2001 Dubai World Cup. The competition is free to enter and begins with the US$6 million Dubai World Cup--the world's richest race--on March 25, and concludes with the Hong Kong Cup Dec. 17. The highest points will be awarded for horses who win or are placed in the Emirates World Series Racing Championship. Other points are awarded for victories or placings in any other type of race around the world. Godolphin will regularly update the leader board on the website. "We are launching our Seven Stars competition for the first time on the worldwide web to attract a new generation of racing fans," said Simon Crisford, the Godolphin Racing Manager. "And by allowing entrants to read the details in their own language on the website, we are hoping to create the first truly global racing competition." Godolphin, founded in 1994, is the private racing stable of Dubai's ruling Maktoum family.

INGLIS MIXED SALE

The first Inglis mixed thoroughbred sale for 2000, the one-day Summer Thoroughbred Sale, brought a gross of A$473,200 for 120 lots, an average of A$3,943. Nine horses sold for A$10,000 or more. The top price of A$42,000 was paid for the five-year-old gelding Du Bourg (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) by William Inglis as agent. Still in training, Du Bourg has won close to A$90,000 in his career to date and is best known for a win in the AJC Racing Club H. The second-highest price was A$21,500 for Mustaway (Aus) (Marauding {NZ}), a four-year-old gelding purchased by Mr. P. Lafferty for A$21,500. The four-year-old has won three races. Top price for a broodmare was the A$12,000 paid for Sueford (Aus). She was sold with a foal at foot by Knowledge (Aus), is in foal to Filante (NZ) and was purchased by Ken Delforce of Kendell Park Stud, New South Wales.

CORAL TO GO PUBLIC?

Britain's third largest bookmaking firm, Coral, could be floated on the stock exchange, the company revealed yesterday. Coral was bought last year by investment group Morgan Grenfell Private Equity, and some estimates suggest a flotation could generate up to £1 billion, given its move last year into Internet betting. A statement by Coral read: "We can confirm that we have appointed both CSFB (Credit Suisse First Boston) and Deutsche Bank to advise us on our strategic alternatives, which include the possibility of a stock market listing."

HILLER/VAN DEKEERE HOLD WINTER LEADS

With the winter flat racing on the sand tracks of Dortmund and Neuss winding down, trainer Hans Hiller and jockey Pascal van DeKeere hold unassailable leads in their respective categories. Hiller heads the leaderboard at both tracks with 11 wins at Dortmund and 12 at Neuss, whereas van DeKeere has been even more dominant with 23 wins at Dortmund and 22 at Neuss. The Dortmund/Neuss stranglehold will be broken when Frankfurt stages its first meeting of the season Sunday, March 5. Mulheim and Cologne follow suit March 11 and 12 respectively, as the German season swings into action in the forthcoming weeks.
