BEHRENS IS BACK

Behrens (Pleasant Colony) launched himself to national prominence with a victory in last year's Gulfstream Park H., and returned with a vengeance to take this year's renewal. It also marked his first visit to the winner's circle since the Gill Suburban H. at Belmont in July. Freshened up following a dull seventh in the Breeders' Cup, he rallied for third in the GI Donn H. Feb. 5. As the only Grade I winner in the field, he went to post as the overwhelming 1-5 public choice. Breaking in stride, he used his tactical speed as With Anticipation (Relaunch) cut out fractions of :23 1/5 and :47 3/5. The pair quickly opened up on the field, leading the pack by six lengths heading into the far turn. Behrens swallowed the gallant gray pacesetter turning for home and extended his advantage under a hand ride. "When I asked my horse, he really gave me a lot," said winning jockey Jorge Chavez. "He just took off." Behrens may have punched his ticket for Dubai with this effort. "We decided to run him as a six-year-old because we want him to become the winningest horse in money won to never have won an Eclipse Award. His next race will be the Dubai World Cup (G1, 10f, $6 million, 3/25)." Adonis (Kris S.) launched his bid in the stretch and got up for second. Isaypete (Peteski) broke down in the stretch and was vanned off the track.

The winner of the Gill Gardenia H. runs well fresh and may have enough to outlast these. GI Test S. winner Marley Vale, usually at her best sprinting, will try two turns for the first time since she finished fifth in the Kentucky Oaks. She was second in the Gill First Lady H. Jan. 12 and most recently won the Gill Shirley Jones H. Feb. 2.

Also Ran: Tuzla (Fr), Miss Hot Salsa, Perfectly Clear.

Having gained her first U.S. victory in the 10-furlong Reloy H. last out, Lexa's connections might have been a bit apprehensive facing 2-5 Tuzla over a flat mile. All worries were for naught as the French-bred chestnut settled off the pace along the inside, angled out in the straight and kicked on gamely past the pacesetter Here's to You. Tuzla, in perfect position, flattened out in deep stretch. "I wasn't concerned [about the short distance] because she had run second at a mile before," said winning jockey Brice Blanc. "I was also confident because the turf was deep. It seemed like she handled the soft ground in France." Lexa's breeding career may be on hold. "The March Santa Ana H. (GII, $150K, 9f, 3/26) is a definite if she comes out OK," said trainer Ron Ellis. "The increase in distance should help her, and the way she won today, maybe we'll wait to breed her after all."

The peripatetic Maysville Slew confirmed his affection for Oaklawn--three wins in four starts--in collecting his first graded stakes. Winner of the Colorado and Canterbury Park Derbys at three, he concluded his 1999 campaign with a fifth in the Woodchopper H. over the Fair Grounds lawn Dec. 26. Having gone wire-to-wire in an Oaklawn allowance two weeks ago, the dark bay duked it out on the front end with Sand Ridge before edging away in deep stretch.

SAM'S MIKI (c, 3, Gold Alert--Miss Lucky Cut, by Lucky North) broke his maiden in his third start at Churchill May 9, but had not been back to the winner's circle in four starts since. He was most recently seventh in a Calder allowance Dec. 11. Getting the services of jockey Jorge Chavez for the first time, the 9-1 shot raced in the middle of the pack behind a swift pace, angled out at the top of the stretch and got up for the win in a driving finish to win by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 8-2-1-2, $53,219.

The 6-1 shot, stretching out for the first time in his career, was reserved in the early going behind a strong pace, closed well on the outside, grabbed the lead inside the eighth pole and drew off to a 4 1/2-length score. He is a full brother to Flaming Bridle, SW, $224,607. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $43,060.

RUNSPASTUM (c, 3, Woodman--Erandel, by Danzig) aired impressively in his first start against winners. A green fourth in his Dec. 12 debut, the bay colt drew off by 5 3/4 over this strip Jan. 29. Breaking from the rail, the 8-5 chalk set the pace and widened down the lane for a 10-length romp. The colt's connections say that they will take a hard look at the Gil Spiral S. at Turfway Park for his next start. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $42,060.

Hustled from the gate, the chestnut colt contested the pace with Appealing Danger hot on his heels. Shaking free in midstretch, the public choice held his ground gamely for his second straight black-type win. "I feel like I'm spoiled," said winning trainer Ben Perkins Jr. "He's a big, strong horse with a heavy body and he looks like a sprinter. He likes to run head-and-head for the lead. We might look at seven furlongs for his next start."

Heroine of the Gill Anne Arundel at Laurel in November, she concluded her sophomore campaign with a head victory over Silent Eskimo in the Truly Bound H. over this strip Christmas Eve. The second choice in a small but select field, she saved ground while third and launched her bid on the far turn. Looming three wide, the dark bay swept by the leaders and drove home for the daylight score. "Going in, I didn't know how the pace would set up," commented winning trainer Blackie Huffman. "But it turned out best for us. She runs her best off the pace."

Success is no accident..
