CHALLENGE SWEEPS TO BIG CAP VICTORY

Golden Eagle Farm's General Challenge (General Meeting) bided his time towards the rear of the field early, then swept past ultra game Budroyale (Cee's Tizzy) in deep stretch to win the $1 million GI Santa Anita H. Saturday at Santa Anita. The homebred gelding scored an easy three-length victory in the GI Pacific Classic last summer, was rested and came back with a narrow defeat at the hands of Budroyale in the Oct. 16 GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. Tenth in the Breeders' Cup Classic, the chestnut was a narrow winner of the Dec. 12 GIII Native Diver H. and was a troubled fourth in the GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup Jan. 15. Jockey Corey Nakatani took over the reins for the GII Strub S. and circled the field turning for home en route to a 9 1/2-length shellacking. Sent off the slight 2-1 favorite over Cat Thief (Storm Cat, 2.20-1), General Challenge was taken in hand and saved ground from seventh as Cat Thief towards the rail and Budroyale dueled over the "good" going. Nakatani gave the Bob Baffert pupil the green light entering the far turn, shifted out four wide and loomed up menacingly as the field turned for home. Cat Thief hoisted the white flag and the race was down to the two Cal-bred geldings, but General Challenge had the momentum and gradually inched away from Budroyale late. Puerto Madero (Gallantsky) was along late for third. For Nakatani, second in last year's Big 'Cap aboard Golden Eagle's Event of the Year, redemption was sweet. "It's nice to win one. My horse was a little on his toes coming up to the gate. My key was to get him to break decently and try not to leave him with too much to do turning for home." Baffert was quoted earlier in the week as saying that the white-stockinged General Challenge does not enjoy getting dirt kicked in the race and praised Nakatani's mid-race decisions. "He (Nakatani) called an audible and dropped back and made one run. The horse relaxed unbelievable for him." Ted West, trainer of the runner up, commented, "He ran his race. Our horse ran as good as he could. We just keep picking up these seconds in Grade I races, but we'll get there." Cat Thief reported home a well-beaten sixth. "On this particular racetrack when it gets some moisture, he doesn't seem as comfortable," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "Pat (jockey Day) said the same thing, that he didn't get a hold of the track." General Challenge becomes the ninth horse to complete the Strub-Big Cap double and is the sixth leading Cal-bred money earner, just behind Budroyale. (Big 'Cap Chart p2)

BUCKING A TREND

"Three-race losing streak" are words not commonly uttered by the connections of Buck's Boy (Buck-splasher), but that was exactly the situation coming into Saturday's GII Pan American H. The winner of this event in 1998, Buck's Boy raced only three times in 1999, scoring an easy victory in a Woodbine allowance before disappointing when second in the GIII Sky Classic at the Toronto track, but redeemed himself and defended his crown well when third to Daylami in last year's Breeders' Cup Turf over this surface. Most recently, the gelding was run into the ground in the GIII Mac Diarmida Jan. 9 and finished seventh of eight. With jockey Edgar Prado in the irons, the bay was on the lead after half a furlong and dictated realistic fractions of :47 4/5 and 1:12 for three quarters. Still on the engine but surrounded by Thesaurus (With Approval) and Epistolaire (Alzao) at the quarter pole, Prado called on his reserves, got away from the field and held off Thesaurus for the victory. Beautiful Dancer, who came out and caused Monkey Puzzle to take up near the eighth pole, was disqualified and placed sixth. "Everything went according to plan," Prado commented. "He made the lead then relaxed for me. Near the end I heard that other horse coming, so I tapped him a couple of times. He responded and that was it."

Der-by, Der-by. That is the chant emanating ever louder from the Neil Drysdale barn as War Chant, out of the 1993 juvenile filly champion Hollywood Wildcat, made the transition to graded-stakes company a success with a hard-earned victory in the GII San Rafael. Well fancied in his career bow and only start at two at Hollywood Park Nov. 28, the dark bay rated professionally while four wide, took over at the eighth pole and crossed under the wire two lengths the best. Given some time off, the Cowan homebred returned to make his two-turn debut at Santa Anita Jan. 16, leading through well-measured fractions and drawing off at will to win by five lengths. The least experienced of the septet, War Chant broke alertly and settled along the rail while stalking the pace of GII San Vicente winner Archer City Slew. The Triple Crown wrested a short lead from that one after four furlongs and dueled with him for the duration, finishing narrowly in front, despite ducking out a bit nearing the sixteenth pole. "I did have to move a little early," said winning jockey Kent Desormeaux. "When we turned up the backside, the leader came off the inside and that's all this horse needed. He went up in there, pricked his ears and said 'Okay, jock, I'll take it from here.'" Trainer Neil Drysdale was equally pleased with the effort. "It was a good race for him because he needs to get some serious racing under his belt," he commented. "It wasn't a perfect scenario when he had to start moving on him a half mile out. He really responded." The Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8 is next for the winner.

The grand old Son of a Pistol returned to form with a game victory over his superstar stablemate Kona Gold. Now eight, the chestnut had last graced the winner's circle when taking the GIII Los Angeles H. at Hollywood last May, and had been third behind Hollycombe (Capote) in his most recent outing, a money allowance at Santa Anita Jan. 15. Primed for his return with a series of five-furlong breezes, he pressured Kona Gold throughout, finally putting a head in front nearing the line. "He really ran gamely," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "This was more like the old horse we know. I didn't know if I could beat Kona Gold or not. But when they straightened away, his old self showed up and he fought back and showed why he is such a good horse." Bruce Headley, trainer of the top pair, was not hard to please. "This time, I didn't care too much how the photo went," he said. "After the Los Angeles H. last summer, he nearly died when he choked on some hay and it really messed up his throat. I think it has really just taken him a while to completely get over it, but he obviously has now. I think we'll come back with both him and Kona Gold in the Potrero Grande (GII, $100,000, 6.5f, Apr. 8), if they come out OK."

Though slightly lower in stature than Budroyale, Not So Fast is another in a string of reformed claimers who have gone on to future success. Taken for $35,000 by his current connections out of a two-length victory at Belmont July 14, he was second for $50,000 next out. The 5 1/4-length winner of a main track allowance Nov. 19, the bay was third next out before dropping into state-bred company to win the Alex M Robb H. two back. Most recently, Not So Fast took a "three-other than" allowance by 1/2 length Jan. 23. The six-year-old broke sharply and was forwardly placed through the early stages. Fifth with three furlongs to run, Not So Fast was sent four wide for home, shared the lead with Tarquinius at the eighth pole and dug in for the victory. "He broke sharply. I wasn't thrilled with where he was," said winning trainer Bruce Levine. "He dropped back, but he came on and made his own run. He's coming along real nicely." The winner could show up next against Empire bred in the King's Point H. Apr. 2, but with this win against open company, "we'll wait and see," Levine commented.

In a dramatic conclusion to a dramatic evening, local favorite Ouzo, ridden by local sensation Saimee Jumaat, overtook Group 1 winner Jim and Tonic nearing the line to take the inaugural running of the S$3 million Singapore Airlines International Cup. Despite the race having no pace, with a half in 52.77 and a mile in 1:39.78, Saimee and Ouzo sat confidently in the middle of the pack. Saimee knew that Singapore's tropical weather would sap the leaders' strength, even at what the Europeans considered a crawl up front. "It's a miracle," said Saimee, who thrilled the crowd with a Frankie Dettori-style flying dismount. "I honestly thought he could at best run third or fourth," said winning trainer Malcolm Thwaites. Frankie Dettori, rider of Goldolphin's also-ran Sea Wave (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), said, "Sea Wave wasn't too convinced about racing for the first two furlongs, then when he decided to race we ran into a pocket and I couldn't stop him and we clipped heels with the horse in front. We managed to finish the race but my chances were gone after that incident."

An A$50,000 late entry gamble returned a big score for the connections of Road To Success, who raced in the middle of the pack early before he got two lengths clear at the furlong pole and held on for the victory over a fast finishing Ponton Flyer. Jockey Jim Cassidy predicted a huge future for the gelding, saying, "He's got the same attitude as Redoute's Choice. He was the only horse who didn't need anyone to lead him out of the mounting yard and he impresses me."

Testa Rossa, who was ridden for the first time by Damien Oliver to win the G1 Lighting S. Feb. 13, was sent straight to the front and set a cracking pace along the fence. Second choice Redoute's Choice, winner of the G1 Orr S. last time Feb. 19, sat a half-length off the leader. Testa Rossa opened up a length advantage rounding the turn and held off the late run of Miss Pennymoney to win by 3/4 of a length. "What an amazing horse. Gourmet Girl was third in her Dec. 31 sprint comebacker off a sixth-month absence before finishing fourth in the seven-furlong GI Santa Monica H. Jan. 22. The dark bay was stretched back out to two turns and was overtaken late by California queen Manistique when two lengths third in the GI Santa Maria H. in her last outing Feb. 13. The prevailing underfoot conditions could suit the five-year-old, who has a victory and a third in two wet-track efforts. Keeper Hill was a 2 1/2-length winner of Keeneland's GI Spinster last fall before finishing a non-threatening fourth in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. The 1998 Kentucky Oaks winner endured a four-wide trip in the Santa Maria and could do no better than fifth, beaten 4 3/4 lengths. Bordelaise, a Group 1 winner on the main track in her native Argentina, rallied from off the pace to win the Run For Roses H. Jan. 1, but bled when sixth in the Santa Maria. She adds Lasix for trainer Ron McAnally, who has had his fair share of success with South American horses.

Since her arrival in the U.S. at the end of 1998, Idle Rich has four wins from eight starts, including a very easy victory in the 11-furlong GIII Glens Falls H. at Saratoga last August. Sent to the sidelines for a four-month break, the chestnut returned to dispute the pace in the GII La Prevoyante H. at Calder Dec. 26, but was overtaken late by the classy Coretta to lose by one length. Cerulean Sky won the G1 Prix Saint Alary at Longchamp last May and was eighth in the Longchamp bog in the Arc de Triomphe before shipping overseas. Second in the GII E.P. Taylor at Woodbine in her North American bow, she was sixth in the GI Matriarch and fifth in the GIII Brown Bess H. in her latest at Bay Meadows Feb. 5. Circus Charmer won Calder's Supah Gem H. in her debut for Eddie Plesa and was a neck second in the GIII Joe Namath H. over this course two back. Fifth in the GIII Suwanee River H. Feb. 13, the bay worked a mile at Calder Feb. 25 and could be a threat on or near the lead.

Sixth in the Breeders' Cup Mile, the striking dark bay rallied from well off the pace to win the GII Citation H. at Hollywood Park Nov. 27 by a neck and gutted out another narrow victory when he was up in the final strides to win the GII San Gabriel H. by a head Jan. 1. Chullo was an absolute machine in Argentina, consistently winning Group 1 races at this trip in very fast times. He made his first start in 15 months when sixth behind Breeders' Cup Mile hero Silic in the GII Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile last June 13. He sports a three-for-four record at the distance and has trained well of late. Fabulous Guy, seventh in the Shoemaker, returned to be a neck winner of the Reb's Policy H. after stalking fractions of :21 and :42 4/5 down the hill. He will appreciate the added 3/16ths of a mile of this event.

TEAMS SET FOR JOCKEY CHALLENGE

The field for the third annual British Airways International Jockey Challenge, to be held at Santa Anita Park Mar. 18, have been set. Bill Shoemaker, captain of the Americans, has chosen Pat Day, Chris McCarron, Laffit Pincay Jr. and Mike Smith, while European captain Steve Cauthen has picked Frankie Dettori, Kieren Fallon, Michael Kinane and Olivier Peslier. The two teams will compete for points in four races--one sprint and one distance test each on the turf and dirt. Santa Anita will offer a special Pick Four wager on the event. Team USA captured the inaugural Challenge in 1998, but Team Europe won three of the four races last year to beat the hometown favorites, 49 points to 35. Fallon was the individual winner last year with two wins and 22 points. The Arcaro Cup, a perpetual trophy, marks each year's winning team.

Hal's Hope In Pre-Derby Breeze:

GIII Holy Bull S. winner and GI Fountain of Youth runner up Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo) breezed four furlongs Saturday morning in :48 3/5 at Calder, out five furlongs in 1:02, to the delight of trainer Harold Rose. "He went well," Rose commented. "The track was very heavy this morning. They cut it up now that the two-year-olds have left after the sale here (earlier in the week)." Dismissed at 40-1 in the Holy Bull, the sophomore validated that performance with his strong performance at 10-1 behind High Yield in the Fountain of Youth.

Circle of Life Returns Against Older:

GI Spinaway winner Circle of Life (Belong To Me) finally makes it back to the races in this afternoon's eighth race at Gulfstream Park, where she will take on older fillies and mares at seven furlongs. Entered against three-year-old fillies Feb. 20, she was veterinarian scratch that afternoon. None the worse for wear, the New York bred drilled a bullet five furlongs at Hialeah four days later in 1:00 4/5.

Goldfine On Fence With Trial:

Federal Trial (Skip Trial), who set a course record for a mile and a sixteenth in a Feb. 19 allowance race, is only questionable for the GIII Fort Lauderdale H. on the Florida Derby undercard Mar. 11. "I wish there were a little more time between races," Goldfine said. "I've found out in the past when horses win big they have a tendency to bounce in their next start." The five-year-old, a perfect three-for-three over the Gulfstream turf, breezed an easy four furlongs in :50 3/5 Friday.

Hialeah Horsemen Meet:

Trainer Larry Kelly said a group of Hialeah horsemen met yesterday with racing secretary Sean Greely to express their concerns over the proposed move to Gulfstream Park. "There were about 35 to 40 horsemen who met for 20 minutes. We talked about the safety of Gulfstream main track and the turf course. Many of us come to Florida because of the Hialeah grass course. We'd like to find out how our horses will run on grass. If they're not going to use the (Hialeah) turf course, we wondered why we couldn't work more horses on it." Kelly said he then passed along the substance of the meeting to the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association. He described the Hialeah meeting as upbeat and positive.
