DAVID BEATS GOLIATH AT GULFSTREAM

You could hardly be blamed for turning the television off at the top of the stretch of yesterday's GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park. When the $1.05 million favorite from the high-powered barn of D. Wayne Lukas with Hall of Fame jockey Pat Day in the irons collared the less fashionably connected homebred, the outcome seemed a foregone conclusion. Apparently, Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo) hadn't read the script. The three-year-old, owned bred and trained by Harold Rose and ridden by Roger Velez, stepped right out to lead the field of 10 with even money favorite High Yield (Storm Cat) in close attendance. Hal's Hope opened a clear lead leaving the backstretch, but once Day asked High Yield, the chestnut moved up and appeared ready to draw off easily. But Hal's Hope dug in and refused to be passed down the lane and, by the length of his head, reversed the order of finish of the Feb. 19 GI Fountain of Youth S. "Maybe they'll believe me now," exclaimed the octogenarian Rose, whose colt was given little respect despite a win in the GIII Holy Bull and his runner-up finish in the Fountain of Youth. "He doesn't want to let a horse pass him. Once he's in front, he won't let another horse by him. He has a lot of courage." Velez, enjoying one of the biggest moments of his career, added, "At the eighth pole, I knew Pat had a lot of horse. But I switched sticks and tapped my horse left-handed and he just exploded again. This is like a dream come true for me." Velez won the 1976 GI Whitney and the 1978 GI Matron. Day was one of many who thought High Yield was going to blow on by in the stretch. "The winner surprised me," the rider said. "I thought I had him on the turn and thought all I had to do was push the button on my horse and we'd be by him. But the winner hung tough." Although Rose didn't reveal future plans for Hal's Hope, High Yield may make his next start in the Apr. 15 GI Toyota Blue Grass. "I was pleased with his effort although I would have liked to have won the race," Lukas said of the runner-up. "It looks like these two horses are way above the other horses here in Florida." Saturday's handle of $23,967,204 from all sources was a record for Florida Derby Day at Gulfstream Park. Betting on the Derby itself was a record $5,026,048 from all sources. On-track handle for the race was $909,716. The 2000 Florida Derby was beamed to a record 1,450 simulcast locations.

SURFSIDE FACES FOUR IN OAKS

Surfside (Seattle Slew) looks to take another step on the road to Louisville in today's GI Santa Anita Oaks at Santa Anita. The D. Wayne Lukas-trained filly has been a dominant force in her division, winning six of eight starts. She is unbeaten in three starts since running third in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last fall, annexing the GI Hollywood Starlet by seven lengths, the GIII Santa Ysabel by eight and, most recently, the Feb. 12 GI Las Virgenes S. by 3/4 lengths over a muddy track. Lukas has already won seven Oaks titles, including an Oaks, Santa Anita Derby, Kentucky Derby triple with Winning Colors. He hopes to follow the same trail with Surfside. The filly at the other end of that 3/4-length margin in the Las Virgenes was The Thoroughbred Corporation's Spain (Thunder Gulch). After running fourth in the Breeders' Cup, Spain got the winter off and was making her three-year-old bow in the Las Virgenes. Rings a Chime (Metfield) couldn't match strides with Surfside when second in the Santa Ysabel, but was only 3/4 lengths behind Spain in the Las Virgenes.

All runners carry 122 pounds.

Captain Steve, the morning line favorite, is just one of six stakes winners and three graded stakes winners in the 10-horse field. Exchange Rate, unbeaten in two starts this year, will try to repeat the Crescent City double he and stablemate Shawnee Country enjoyed at the end of February. Davona Dale winner Shawnee Country held up her end of the bargain by winning yesterday's Fair Grounds Oaks. In his half of the double, Exchange Rate took the Feb. 20 Risen Star S. at this distance despite hitting the gate at the start. The $1.4 million KEEJUL yearling was second in last year's GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship and GIII Best Pal. New York invader Country Only takes a four-race win streak into his graded stakes debut. The bay colt romped home a 5 1/2-length winner of the Feb. 12 Whirlaway S. at this distance in his most recent start. Local hopes lie with Mighty. The dark bay colt, winner of last year's GIII Iroquois, ended 1999 with a second behind Captain Steve in the Nov. 27 GII Kentucky Jockey Club and started 2000 the same way. He was second in the Jan. 29 Lecomte S. and in the Risen Star.

Forced wide early in the 21-horse field, jockey Dan Beasley dropped Miss Pennymoney behind the leaders and she hit the front with about a quarter remaining. "She's the best filly I've ever been on, and no doubt the best there is around at the moment. She was going too easily at the 400-metre mark. I had to let her go out by herself and she just raced away," said Beasley. Trainer Jim Conlan revealed Miss Pennymoney would either be set for the Cox Plate or a trip to the U.S. in the spring (Southern Hemisphere). "They might be pipe dreams, but she's easily the best filly in Australia," he said of the $200,000 yearling purchase.

Trippi sped to an easy victory in his career opener at Gulfstream Jan. 29 and handled allowance foes with even less trouble last time out, dashing away to a 9 1/4-length triumph Feb. 19. Odds-on to make the jump into graded-stakes company, the bay shadowed Ultimate Warrior through a half in :44 2/5 while three wide, drove past the frontrunner in deep stretch and edged clear. "We thought it would be a good day to try him from off the pace, especially if [Ultimate Warrior] gunned it out of there," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "He rated nice for me and he responded when I asked. It was a hard race, but it was encouraging the way he finished. I think he'll go around two turns, but it's too early to say whether he can go a mile and a quarter." Trainer Todd Pletcher said, "He's done nothing wrong so far and we'll keep testing him."

Also Ran: Gold for My Gal, Humble Clerk, Frankly My Dear, Jostle, Chilukki, November Slew.

The winner of the Nov. 2 GIII Tempted S. and third in the Nov. 27 GII Demoiselle S., Shawnee Country was off the board in a pair of stakes at Gulfstream Park to start Y2K and found herself a 28-1 outsider in her latest, the Feb. 19 GIII Davona Dale S. over this track. But the dark bay belied those odds, rallying to best champion Chilukki (Cherokee Run) by a half length. Chilukki was the odds-on choice to turn the tables this time, but after pressing the pace, she faded badly to be eighth. Shawnee Country, allowed to settle off the early pace while inside, came wide into the stretch and finished full of run to take the lead as they reached the eighth pole for her second straight graded score. "The race pretty much set up the same way the Davona Dale did, except without Chilukki [at the finish] this time," Mike Maker, assistant to winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas, said. "November Slew (Seattle Slew) [seventh in the Davona Dale for Lukas after showing brief speed] went to the front and Shawnee Country picked up the pieces." As for the favorite, her jockey, Robby Albarado, said, "She paced herself nicely and in mid-turn I tried to nudge her for a move, but she didn't respond at all."

A handicap winner at The Curragh in his European finale, Beckon the King shipped to the U.S. for a fall campaign last year and won at first asking this side of the Atlantic, rallying to take the Nov. 7 Steinlen S. at Gulfstream Park during Breeders' Cup weekend. The bay headed to the West Coast for his next outing, but bobbed at the start of the Nov. 28 GI Hollywood Derby and was never in the hunt, finishing 12th. Given a 2 1/2-month respite following that effort, the Kentucky-bred came back to try dirt for the first time in a Gulfstream allowance race Feb. 17 and showed good speed en route to a 3 1/2-length score. Back on the grass here, he was sent off the slight choice and, after saving ground while sitting off the pace early, switched to the outside for the stretch run, caught Kettle Won late in the lane and drew clear.

A stakes winner at Delaware Park, the Meadowlands and Laurel Park in three of her final four starts last year, the well-traveled Feisty Countess shipped into New York for her first effort of this season and was second by a neck in the Jan. 23 Busanda S. at Aqueduct. She tried her luck against graded foes at Fair Grounds in her most recent outing, but finished sixth. Back on the road again, the bay was sent off the favorite facing a slightly softer field here and lived up to her odds, closing from third to wrest the lead from Asher and power away for an impressive score. "She was a little uncomfortable down the backside when she was getting some dirt in her face, but once she got clear she handled it well," said winning jockey Tim Doocy.

Russian Hope landed the G3 Prix de Lutece at Longchamp in 1998 and the Listed Prix Ville de Nantes in 1999, and returned this year by taking control of the Listed Grand Prix du Conseil General des Alpes-Maritimes at Cagnes-sur-Mer last time, winning impressively. Forwardly placed in the early stages, he travelled handily along the inside as Caitano (GB) (Niniski) made his move on the outside and took the lead entering the straight. Caitano was soon swallowed up by Amilynx (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) and Russian Hope on the rail. The winner strode on two furlongs out and lengthened away from the chasing pack, relishing the ground. "The fact that he had run before this season and was fit was important, as they went a strong pace early," said winning trainer Henri Pontall. "We could not go to the Dubai Sheema Classic at the end of the month as he was not selected, so I made up my mind to come here. I haven't made up my mind where he will run next, but the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp on April 2 is a possibility."

Reporter started the season with a win over $40,000 claimers at Gulfstream Feb. 6 and came right back Feb. 20 to best $50,000 company, leading every step in a 7 3/4-length romp. The 7-5 favorite to make it three-for-three on the year, the dark bay this time hounded Chance Anew through moderate fractions before driving to the lead to win going away.

10th-GPX, $40,000, Alw, 4yo/up, 1 3/8mT, 2:14, fm. STOKOSKY (c, 4, Stack--Fama {MGSW, $301,079}, by Forever Sparkle) was runner-up at a mile over this course in his last start on Feb. 11. Never far back, the 7-1 shot vied for the lead at midstretch, was briefly passed by Ringaskiddy (Slewvescent) before coming on again to win by a nose. A winner in her first start, Shopping For Love had trouble at the break next time out and finished fourth, but bounced back trying two turns for the first time in her latest to win again over restricted allowance company at Aqueduct Feb. 10. Ignored at the windows in her stakes and open-company debut, the dark bay was undaunted by her odds, closing from fourth to outfinished pacesetter Laken as the longest shot on the board. "I knew I had a good horse coming into this race," winning trainer Kenny Nesky said. "In her last start, she had trouble all the way and still won convincingly. We had to take a shot in this race." Favored North Lake Jane pressed the pace, but weakened in the drive to be third. "She didn't handle the track at all," jockey Cornelio Velasquez said. "She was sliding all over the place."

Forgiving Monarch has a penchant for runaway victories, splashing to a 7 3/4-length allowance score over a sloppy Saratoga strip last August and winning by nine lengths in an Aqueduct allowance Dec. 9. But the chestnut miss had also finished off the board in four tries in between those wins and in two of her three starts since her most recent tally, running sixth after pressing the pace last time out Feb. 11. She was back on top of her game here, dueling on the lead early before putting a head in front after six furlongs and opening up in another impressive effort.

NOTEBOOK MAN (c, 4, Notebook--Fairway Belle, by Prove Out) finished second in four of five starts before breaking through with his first victory, taking a special weight event at Aqueduct Feb. 25. The bay wasted little time picking up his second win, however, leading from gate to wire in a Mar. 2 allowance test, and he made it three in a row here. Off at 7-1, he was rated behind solid fractions this time, slipped up the rail as they hit the stretch, found running room between rivals near the eighth pole and pulled away to win by 4 3/4 lengths. Gotham Preps:

Red Bullet (Unbridled), undefeated in two career starts, worked six furlongs over the Belmont training track yesterday in a bullet 1:12 1/5. The Stronach Stables' colt is slated to run in next Sunday's GIII Gotham. "He looked real good out there this morning," trainer Joe Orseno said yesterday. "He's definitely in shape. I wish the race was tomorrow." Alex Solis will ride Red Bullet in the Gotham.

Trainer Bobby Frankel has decided to send Aptitude (A. P. Indy) to the Gotham instead of Promontory Gold. "He'll ship next Thursday," Frankel said. "He worked seven furlongs yesterday (Friday at Hollywood Park) in 1:25 2/5. I was pleased with the work." Aptitude defeated the highly regarded Tribunal when he broke his maiden on Jan. 1.

Performing Magic (Gone West), who made his U.S. debut with a second-place finish in the GIII Baldwin in February at Santa Anita, worked five furlongs Friday at Santa Anita in 1:00 1/5, according to trainer Alex Hassinger, Jr.

Deputed Testamony S. winner Acres (Cryptoclearance) worked five furlongs Friday over Aqueduct's inner track in 1:00 4/5...Critical Thinker (Marquetry) worked five furlongs over the inner dirt in a bullet 1:00 Saturday...Appealing Danger (Appealing Guy), second in the Best Turn S., went six furlongs in 1:14 4/5 breezing on Belmont's training track yesterday.

Affirmed Success Working Towards Carter:

MGISW Affirmed Success (Affirmed) breezed a half in :48 4/5 over the Belmont training track Friday morning in his first move since winning the GII General George H. The Richard Schosberg trainee will start next in the May 7 GI Carter H. "As long as there are graded stakes at seven furlongs, he'll be in them," Schosberg commented. "The (May 29, GI) Met Mile is a possibility and eventually we'd like to try him on grass. The (July 4) Poker is a nice mile turf race to try him in. If he goes back to the Breeders' Cup this year, it will have to be in the Mile. He's not the best six-furlong horse." The six-year-old was 12th in last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint.

After drifting out at the start, the veteran runner was never far back, was wide into the stretch and fought down the stretch to eke out a narrow victory. "There was a lot of speed in there today, but I still wanted to stay close," explained winning rider Roberto Alvarado, Jr. "I had to get after him a little nearing the quarter pole. That other horse (Burger Day) came alongside me, but by the sixteenth pole I could tell he was hanging a little bit. My horse never quits." A Churchill allowance winner in her 1999 finale last November, Reflect The Music was fourth over a sloppy track at Fair Grounds in her first try this year, then stretched out to two turns for the first time and posted a game head victory in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 25. Shipped north to take on stakes competition, the bay was the fourth choice in this seven-horse field but proved narrowly best, launching a bid from midpack that carried her to a short lead at the head of the stretch and holding off the late surge of longshot Barefoot Dyana despite drifting out late for her first black-type success.

Road To Slew broke his maiden over open company on the turf at Hollywood Park Dec. 16 and added an allowance score over fellow Cal-breds last time out Feb. 17, but was given little chance stepping up to a stakes. The longshot pressed the early pace, forged to the lead as they came out of the turn and had enough left to deny the rallying Spinelessjellyfish and pull off the upset. The 15-10 favorite Native Desert (Desert Classic), who lost photos when second in the Nov. 27 GII Citation H. and Jan. 1 GII San Gabriel H. before running fourth in the Jan. 22 GII San Marcos H., trailed the field for a half and finished well but too late to be fourth.

1--EL CIELO, 118, g, 6, El Prado (Ire)--Only Above, by Great Above. O-Carr, Miller Trust & D & P Webber Trust, et al; B-J D Farm (FL); T-Craig Dollase. Lifetime Record: SP, 12-7-2-0, $227,235.

2--Pavillon (Brz), 118, h, 6, Booming (Fr)--Licena (Brz), by Derek (Brz).

3--Lexicon, 122, h, 5, Conquistador Cielo--Felidia (Ire), by Golden Fleece.

Margins: 3HF, NO, NK. Odds: 2.40, 11.50, 1.30.

El Cielo won a Santa Anita turf allowance last April, was sent to the bench, then resurfaced to win again Jan. 5. He moved up the ladder last time out and finished second, beaten a neck, in the Feb. 6 Reb's Policy H. Dropping back to the allowance ranks as the crowd's second choice, he sat second behind favored Lexicon through a half, charged to the lead after six furlongs in 1:07 2/5 and opened it up late to go five-for-eight over this course.

3rd-SAX, $57,000, Alw, 3yo, 1m, 1:37 4/5, ft. DAVID COPPERFIELD (c, 3, Halo--Bannockburn {MSW}, by Count Brook) defeated Fusaichi Pegasus by a neck in his debut win last December, but returned with a fourth-place effort Jan. 15. Favored at 4-5, the colt set the pace early, was challenged around the turn by Wooden Phone (Pick Up the Phone) and battled that one down the lane to win by a nose. David Copperfield is a half brother Rafael's Dancer (Northern Baby, MSP, $240,485); Hollywood Flash (Northern Baby, SW, $165,887); Young at Heart (Ferdinand, MGSP, $350,088) and Bella Chiarra (Phone Trick, GSW, $429,313). Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $57,000. O-505 Farms. B-Jack Mandato (KY). T-John Shirreffs.

2nd-SAX, $49,000, Msw, 3yo, f, 1mT, 1:36 2/5, gd.

LOVELY COZZENE (f, 3, Cozzene--Trickily, by Tremolino), a $70,000 KEESEP yearling and a $400,000 KEENOV purchase as part of the Bea and Robert Roberts dispersal last fall, had finished second just prior to that sale, but was given a couple of months off by her new owners. She came back to be third Jan. 14 and second, beaten a nose, over this course Feb. 9. The 2-1 favorite to improve another notch this time, the gray filly was well back through the opening fractions, but closed steadily to get up in the final strides, beating 13-1 Champagne N' Toast (Fred Astaire) by a head. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-1, $52,840.

TAMARISK BACK IN TRAINING Tamarisk (Ire) (Green Desert {USA}, the highweight three-year-old sprinter in 1998, has been purchased for an undisclosed sum by George Hofmeister's Highlands Farms and put back into training, the Thoroughbred Times reported. Now five, he entered stud at Coolmore in Ireland in 1999, but experienced fertility problems and was shipped to Kentucky for treatment by specialist Phil McCarthy. The bay horse captured the G1 Stanley Leisure Sprint Cup at three. Highlands manager Peter Kirwan said that Tamarisk was a long way off from returning. "We're just playing it by ear now," he told the Thoroughbred Times. "It's early days and he's been off a long time."

Blue Moon, victorious in her career bow in September, placed third in the G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville a month later. Settled at the back of the field Unitaire (Fr) (Vettori {Ire}) cut out the early pace, she gradually moved closer to the leading group before the half-mile mark. Jockey Thierry Thulliez angled her for a run on the outside and she wore down the runner-up in the last hundred metres to win comfortably. Trainer Xavier Nakkachdji had no hesitation in putting forward the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp April 23 as her next target. "I was very pleased with her, as she has a tendency to be too keen early on," he commented. "I don't think she'll stay further than a mile, and if she passes her test in the Prix de la Grotte, she'll go to the G1 Prix d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp on 14 May."

SUNLINE SNAGS APOLLO

Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) brought her record to 11 stakes wins from 21 starts after treating her rivals with contempt in the seven-furlong G2 Apollo S. on a heavy track at Warwick Farm yesterday in Sydney. Sent out 7-4 favourite at her first trans-Tasman appearance this autumn, she held off a late charge by Adam (Aus) (Rubiton {Aus}) to win by a length. She will next contest the G1 Coolmore Classic over 1500 meters at Rosehill April 1, before defending her title in the G1 Doncaster H. (A$2.5 million). Sunline, who has now won $A3,648,076, could campaign in the U.S. next year after a tilt at the Dubai Cup, part-owner Thayne Green hinted. "We got invited to Dubai straight after Sunline won the Cox Plate and we looked at it very seriously; we were quite keen to go," he said in an interview on Radio 2KY. "But in reality, it's one race, against the world's best, and by the time she got out of quarantine both ways it would all take six months. So we decided maybe it was a year too early, and hopefully we will get an invitation next year. We haven't discussed it seriously, but we have had a very good approach from the U.S. for a deal either to purchase or a deal to race her in the U.S., put her to a leading sire there and bring her home. But we are here to race at the moment."

CATBIRD RETIRED

G1 Golden Slipper winner Catbird (Aus) (Danehill {USA}--Fitting {Aus}, by Marscay {Aus}) has been retired and will stand for $A12,500 at Yarraman Park near Scone, NewSouth Wales. The $A400,000 yearling earned A$1,755,670 from five wins in 14 starts. Yarraman studmaster Arthur Mitchell said, "Two-year-old speed is probably the most highly sought after commodity in a potential stallion under Australian conditions, and Golden Slipper winners in particular have an unbelievable record at stud."

EASTER SALE CHANGE

The first session of the three-day Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale from April 25 to 27 will be held at night, Inglis & Son managing director Reg Inglis said Friday. Usually the sale kicks off Tuesday morning, then Wednesday night after races at nearby Randwick, and all day Thursday. But this year races are scheduled for Tuesday--which is Australia's Anzac Day public holiday. In other sale news, the annual Hunter Valley Bloodhorse Breeders Association Scone Yearling Sale will be expanded to a two-day sale this year. This decision to hold the sale on May 21 and 22 was reached following the close of entries for the sale this week with over 420 horses being nominated.

BITE THE BULLET ON THE MOVE

Baramul Stud owner Gerry Harvey has purchased Bite the Bullet (USA) to stand at his property in the Widden Valley in New South Wales. He will stand for A$5,000 "Bite The Bullet is an...impeccably bred young stallion who in my book is entirely underrated," said Harvey. "They win early and train on." He has sired multiple group winner Pleasure Giver (Aus).
