DANCING IN THE SAN LUIS REY

Dark Moondancer (GB) (Anshan {GB}) was bet down to 2-5 off the strength of his impressive score in the GII San Luis Obispo H. over this course Feb. 21, but had to summon all of his class for a desperate victory over defending champ Single Empire (Ire) (Kris {GB}) in yesterday's GII San Luis Rey. The crowd's choice stalked pacesetter Foggy Day (Fr) (Pistolet Bleu {Ire}) to the straight, where he kicked into gear. Briefly clear, he bravely held off the late charge of Single Empire in the shadow of the wire. "He fought some kind of hard today. Single Empire made a great run at him, but this horse just pinned his ears and showed a lot of determination," said winning jockey Chris McCarron. "He's an awful nice horse. He was on a little bit of a loose rein [early], and I love that." The top two finishers will head on to the premier U.S. turf marathon at this course Apr. 22, the GI San Juan Capistrano over 1 3/4 miles. "I can't say enough about him [Dark Moondancer]," said winning trainer Ron McAnally. "We'll run next in the San Juan Capistrano."

MARCH MADNESS IN THE SAN FELIPE

With less than two months remaining to the Kentucky Derby, a deep field of seven will go postward in Southern California's toughest prep yet. Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector), the $4 million-dollar wonder horse, makes his stakes debut. The handsome bay, easy winner of a Santa Anita allowance a month ago, tuned up for this with a bullet six furlongs in 1:14 3/5 at Hollywood Wednesday. "We'll just see how he matches up with the others," said trainer Neil Drysdale, who also trains the undefeated War Chant. "He's athletic. He's talented. Everything is very straightforward." The Thoroughbred Corp's Anees (Unbridled), the object of much speculation this past week, will be attempting to buck trends as he makes his three-year-old bow with new pilot Jerry Bailey. With no two-year-old champions/Breeder's Cup Juvenile winners having yet worn the blanket of roses, last year's Eclipse winner will be pointing for Kentucky off just two starts. The Hassinger trainee worked a handy three-quarters in 1:12 4/5 at Santa Anita last Monday. The Deputy (Ire) (Petardia {GB}) went wire-to-wire when defeating High Yield and Captain Steve in the GII Santa Catalina Jan. 30, a race which marked his dirt debut. Trained by Jenine Sahadi, he may be looking to rate off the pace this time around. "I think we should be right in the middle early in the race Sunday," said co-owner Jeff Siegel. "He should get a good chance to sit and get some dirt in his face, and we need to see that."

It was his second consecutive Chipping Norton victory. "He went to run off at the turn," Dye said. "I pulled the whip through to my other hand and gave him one to straighten him up. He's a five-year-old now and has lost a bit of his finishing dash. He grinds away at it now." Trainer Guy Walter said, "As he gets older it's a little more difficult to get him back up again, but he proves himself so resilient every time."

Second in a pair of allowances at Aqueduct, the six-year-old bay prevailed by a neck over Unreal Madness (Unreal Zeal) in an overnight handicap over the inner track Feb. 27. Flashing speed from his outside post, he drove clear in the stretch and prevailed over Master O Foxhounds, stopping the clock just three ticks shy of Artax's track record. "That's certainly fast," said winning jockey Shaun Bridgmohan of the time. "In the stretch, he just dug in and got the victory." Favored Unreal Madness wound up sixth after a wide trip.

BET DIRECT WINTER DERBY-Listed, £55,000, Lingfield, 3-18, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT, 2:05.03, stn.

1--#ZANAY (GB), 133, c, 4, Forzando (GB)--Nineteenth Of May (GB), by Homing (GB). O-Sanford Racing; B-A Walder; T-Jacqueline S Doyle; J-Tom McLaughlin; £31,900. Lifetime Record: 11-5-2-1, £60,271.

2--Aljaarif (GB), 133, h, 6, Rainbow Quest (USA)--Jasoorah (Ire), by Sadler's Wells (USA). £12,100.

3--Widar (GB), 133, h, 6, Soviet Star (USA)--Waseela (Ire), by Ahonoora (GB). £6,050.

Margins: 1 3/4, HF, 2. Odds: 5-4, 25-1, 20-1.

Also ran: Just In Time (GB), Invader (GB), Buggy Ride (Ire), Hugwity (GB), Stayin Alive (USA), Service Star (Ire), Roymillon (Ger), Boldly Goes (GB), Ursa Major (GB), White Plains (Ire), Nautical Warning (GB).

An impressive winner of his last three starts over course and distance, Zanay had attracted six figure offers from both sides of the Atlantic off the back of his most recent start when romping to a five length victory in a quick time Feb. 26. He started here as a strong favourite but had to work hard to record his third victory of the year and his first stake to boot. He broke well and was settled in the front rank as Buggy Ride (Ire) (Blues Traveller {Ire}) set a strong pace, with Widar close up in fifth and fellow German raider Aljaarif restrained in rear. Entering the straight Zanay went into the lead ahead of Widar and drew progressively clear inside the final furlong to record an impressive win. Aljaarif stayed on well from the rear and grabbed second from his compatriot Widar in the dying strides.

GERMAN FORAY TO LINGFIELD A SUCCESS

With three runners yielding second and third placings in the £55,000 Listed Bet Direct Winter Derby at Lingfield, the German challenge can be considered a resounding success. Roymillon (Ger) (Milesius {USA}), Widar (GB) (Soviet Star {USA}) and Aljaarif (GB) (Rainbow Quest {USA}) finished first, second and fifth respectively in the Listed Sandbahn Grand Prix der Deutschen Buchmacher at Neuss Feb. 27, and became the first German-trained horses to appear at the Surrey track. It was 25-1 chance Aljaarif who emerged the best of the three when running on strongly to deny 20-1 Widar second place in the lateclosing stages of a fast run race which was won by the 5-4 favourite Zanay (GB) (Forzando {GB}).

An easy five-length winner over Tiger Groom on his seasonal debut at Maisons-Laffitte Mar. 3, Sobieski showed continued improvement to record his first stakes win. He raced in second, ahead of Hanover House (GB) (Goofalik {USA}) and Petroselli, as old adversary Tiger Groom set a mellow pace. The order remained the same into the straight but it wasn't long before Sobieski joined issue with the leader approaching the final quarter mile. He quickly asserted and readily drew clear from the furlong marker for an impressive win. Petroselli, under pressure from the two-furlong pole emerged as the closest pursuer but never threatened the eventual winner. Tiger Groom held on well for third as the remainder closed. Sobieski has the G1 Prix du Jockey Club as his ultimate target and will point to either the G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp Apr. 9 or the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp Apr.23 for his next race.

The winner of a good conditions race in controversial circumstances at Saint-Cloud Mar. 1, Bartex is at last beginning to emerge from the shadows having been used as one of El Condor Pasa (USA) (Kingmambo {USA})'s lead horses last year. He was settled one place in front of Iridanos, who settled in last as Plan De Paix (Fr) (Panoramic {GB}) led at a sensible gallop whereas Dionello, banned from running in handicaps until May 2, was reserved in midfield. Iridanos and Dionello came through to dispute the lead approaching the final furlong but Bartex had made eye-catching progress from the rear. Quickening up inside the final furlong, Bartex's relentless momentum carried him into the lead in the last fifty yards for a deserved success. Winning trainer Tony Clout said, "Bartex has maintained his enthusiasm through to this season and will now go for the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc back here on Apr. 5."

2.10 Saint-Cloud, Prix Cerisoles (Cond.), FF180,000, 3yo, f, 10f 110ydsT, 2:25.00, sf.

EGYPTBAND (USA) (f, 3, Dixieland Band {USA}--Egyptown {Fr} {MSW-FR}, by Top Ville {Ire}), winner of her only previous start, a minor event in the French provinces in mid-November, pulled hard in second as Keiko (Fr) (Always Fair {USA}) set the pace for the first mile. Set about her business early in the straight, Egyptband was soon a couple of lengths clear, but then had to be ridden out in the closing stages to hold the late closing Reve D'Oscar (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) by a half-length, winning at odds of 11/5. The first two finished four lengths in front of the others. Egyptband is a half sister to Northerntown (USA) (Manila {USA}), GSW-Fr, $108,770. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 2 wins, FF125,000.

BARATHEA GUEST POINTED TO CRAVEN

G1 Vodafone Derby entry Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), winner on merit of the G1 Grand Criterium at Longchamp last October only to have the race taken away in the stewards' room in favour of the Aidan O'Brien-trained Ciro (USA) (Woodman {USA}), has had the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 20, pencilled in by trainer George Margaron as his first target en route to a possible tilt at the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at the same track May 6. Margaron said Saturday of his Deauville stakes winner, "He's in good form, he had his second piece of work (Saturday) morning, a quiet half-speed breeze over seven furlongs, and I'm very pleased with him. The main aim is the (2000) Guineas but I will start him out in the Craven. The ground will be a factor. He would want good ground, or even good to firm, but not firm. I would not be bothered if it was good to firm because it would give him a chance to prove he is not a slogger."
