PEGASUS FLIES TO SAN FELIPE TRIUMPH

Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector), a neck second in his career bow to David Copperfield, broke his maiden sprinting over the local dirt Jan. 2 and stretched out to two turns to score in professional style Feb. 19 by 3 1/2 lengths. Commendable (Gone West) sprinted away to set the pace with Fusaichi Pegasus content to track that one from second. With Commendable showing signs of tiring at the top of the lane, jockey Kent Desormeaux asked his colt to pick it up, took over at the eighth pole and was able to hold off the late run of The Deputy (Petardia {GB}) for his first graded-stakes tally. Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Anees (Unbridled) made a strong middle move down the backstretch and finished third without threatening the top two. "He settled behind the leader and was going very easily. Kent (jockey Desormeaux) never had to hit him," said winning trainer Neil Drysdale, who with GII San Felipe winner War Chant has a lethal Derby duo--Kentucky Derby that is. "This horse will either go in the GII Wood (Aqueduct, GI, Apr. 15) or the Blue Grass (Keeneland, GI, Apr. 15)," Drysdale said. War Chant is likely to contest the Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8. Of the third-place finisher, jockey Jerry Bailey said, "I thought he closed pretty well. He wasn't rubber legged. This is what you want to see first time back." Anees is also likely for the Santa Anita Derby.

FASTER THAN A SPEEDING BULLET

Red Bullet (Unbridled) began his career with an impressive seven-length victory going six furlongs over the inner track at Aqueduct Jan. 8, then won a seven-furlong Gulfstream allowance Feb. 5. Despite his relative inexperience, he was bet down to near even money. Reserved early while saving ground in fifth, the chestnut colt moved three wide on the turn, awaited racing room entering the stretch and, when a spot opened up, fired through to take command near the eighth pole. From there, he was ridden out by Alex Solis and held off the late charging Aptitude (A.P. Indy). Winning trainer Joe Orseno said, "The (GII) Wood Memorial is our next step. He had some traffic on the turn...he was getting bumped pretty bad and showed good determination. He lived up to expectations." Jockey Solis said, "He's a real nice colt. He looks like he's going to be better going longer distances. I see no problem with him stretching out." Bobby Frankel, who conditions the runner up, will also make an April return to the Big Apple with his charge. "I'm really happy with his race. He hadn't run since January. I was just looking for a good race from him today. He's going to go back California and then ship back for the Wood," Frankel said.

Heritage of Gold rose to national attention last summer with a string of five consecutive victories, on turf and dirt, culminating with a very impressive 4 1/4-length victory in Monmouth's GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. July 4 over graded winners Harpia, Tap to Music and Silent Eskimo. Third in the GI Go For Wand in her next start, she returned to the grass to best champion Soaring Softly among others when a one-length of Saratoga's GII Diana H. before finishing off the board in the GI Flower Bowl. Unraced since her third-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Distaff, the five-year-old was heavily favored to rediscover her best form. Heritage of Gold settled last in the field of four, though was kept within five lengths of Tuscania (Woodman), who led the field through soft early splits. Entering the far turn, regular rider Shane Sellers pushed the button and the bay ranged up effortlessly on the outside, took over from second choice Lu Ravi at the furlong marker and cruised home to the win, despite some late race antics. "When she got to the lead, she started looking at the crowd and playing," Sellers commented. "I just hit her a couple of times with the stick and she finished up good." The winner is expected back in Hot Springs to contest the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 9.

After her seven-length maiden victory at Keeneland in her first try at two turns, Secret Status was third in the GIII Golden Rod at Churchill to close out her two-year-old campaign. A 1 3/4-length winner of a Jan. 8 Gulfstream allowance, she returned to win right back by 5 1/4 lengths Feb. 2. Most recently, the chestnut was far back early, but rallied some late to finish third by seven lengths in the GII Davona Dale at Hallandale Feb. 20. Odds-on in this spot with the addition of first-time Lasix, Secret Status broke alertly from the rail under jockey Pat Day and set the pace along the inside, getting the opening six furlongs in 1:13 3/5. Joined and passed on the far turn by I'm Just A Peach (Saint Ballado), Day retained a rating hold on his mount, regained the lead at the top of the stretch and withstood a late charge from March Magic for her first added-money victory. As for when the filly might race again, trainer Neil Howard said, "We were hoping to use this win to go to the Kentucky Oaks (Churchill, GI, May 5) because the mile and an eighth is better for her. We're not ruling out the Ashland (Keeneland, GI, Apr. 8), but six weeks wouldn't be bad for her."

RECORD TWO-FURLONGS AT OBS PREVIEW

Two-year-old filly Imaboveyou (You and I) recorded the fastest quarter mile in OBS history when she stopped the timer in :20 4/5 during yesterday's live under-tack preview. The dark bay, consigned to the sale by James Layden, agent, also breezed and eighth of a mile in :10 2/5 at last Tuesday's video preview. She sells Wednesday as hip number 431. A trio of juveniles shared top honors for yesterday's fastest furlong workout, each clocking :10 1/5. Hip 271, a colt by freshman sire Prospect Bay, is consigned by Cardinal Hill Farm, agent for DEB Thoroughbreds and worked a swift quarter mile last week in :21 3/5. Sunreal (Unreal Zeal), a half brother to a juvenile stakes winner, will sell as hip 368. The colt is offered by Hartley/DeRenzo Thoroughbreds, agent. Hip number 402, a filly by Phone Trick, is from the consignment of Bay Grove Farm, agent. The bay had worked previously in :10 3/5. Snowy Storm, a filly by first-year sire Storm Creek, turned in the fastest three-furlong work on the afternoon. Consigned to the sale by Mark Casse, agent, the bay half sister to a pair of stakes-placed performers, was timed in :34 flat. The two-day OBS March Sale of Selected Two Year Olds in Training is set for tomorrow and Wednesday with bidding beginning each day at 11 a.m.

Unraced as a two-year-old, Wheelaway was a tiring fifth in his career bow sprinting at Gulfstream Park Jan. 3 and returned to score his maiden Jan. 29, coming from off the pace that afternoon to score by four lengths. Well backed for his first start against winners Feb. 19, the gray colt trailed early on, but rallied with good interest to finish second, four lengths behind highly-regarded Rollin With Nolan. After bobbling at the start, Wheelaway was forced four wide into the clubhouse turn while forwardly placed. Three wide on the far turn, Wheelaway took over from second favorite Un Fino Vino (Demidoff) at the eighth pole under jockey Richard Migliore and drew clear to the victory. Un Fino Fino took a short lead on the second turn, but shortened strides late and finished fourth, beaten 5 1/2 lengths. "He really ran a nice race today," Migliore commented. The colt is not yet supplemented to the Triple Crown, according to co-owner Caesar Kimmel, who did not specify a next start for the winner.

The annual Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's annual Day of Champions is set for 1:30 p.m. this afternoon with six stakes and purse money of $375,000 on offer. The $100,000 OBS Championship S. at 1 1/16 miles with one division for three-year-old fillies and one for three-year-old colts and geldings highlights the seven-race card. Miss Inquisitive (Kipper Kelly), the 91-1 upset winner of Gulfstream Park's seven-furlong GIII Forward Gal S., is cross-entered in the Championship S. as well as the OBS Sprint S. for trainer Frank Passero. Kirtons (Distinctive Pro), winner of the Damon Runyon S. for New York bred in December, could go favored in the colts' division.

Pat Kelly and Live Oak Plantation Part Ways:

Pat Kelly will no longer train the Live Oak Plantation horses, the Daily Racing Form has reported. Kelly had trained for Live Oak for 22 years, developing top stakes horses such as Laser Lane, Solar Splendor and Sultry Song. He took over the string from his father, Tom Kelly. "Mrs. [Charlotte] Weber just decided to do something different, so we've gone our separate ways," Kelly told the Form. "The problem now is that most people think I'm a private trainer because of my long association with Live Oak, but that's not true. And I'd just like them to know I'm not going out of business. I've still got a handful of horses for the Fox Ridge Farm and I'll be returning to New York next week looking to build on a public stable if anyone is interested."

Kimberlite Pipe Returns:

Last year's GII Louisiana Derby winner Kimberlite Pipe (Take Me Out), unraced since an eighth-place finish in the Preakness, makes his return to the races in this afternoon's 10th race at the Fair Grounds. Fourth to Menifee in the GI Blue Grass following his Big Easy success, the bay was sixth, beaten only 2 3/4 lengths in the Kentucky Derby. The colt, conditioned by Dallas Stewart, has trained forwardly of late and was nominated to yesterday's Pelleteri Breeders' Cup Sprint, but passed on that spot in favor of today's race. Kimberlite Pipe, who underwent surgery to remove bone chips from two of his ankles, faces only four other rivals sprinting six furlongs.

9th-SAX, $47,000, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, 1:10, ft.
 + TRIPLE THREAT (f, 3, Roy--Country Casual {SW, $120,296}, by Royal Roberto) came into her career debut off a nice six-furlong drill Mar. 12 in 1:13 3/5 from the gate, but was dismissed by the Santa Anita faithful as a 21-1 chance. The homebred dueled two deep through fast early fractions, shook loose on the turn and was kept to task to win by four lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,200.

ROYAL HIGHLANDER ON COURSE FOR GUINEAS

When Royal Highlander (Ire) (Foxhound {USA}) was bought out of John Gosden's yard by Team Valor at the end of last year to race in the United States, Lambourn trainer John Hills was asked to mind the colt for two to three weeks. But when another of Team Valor's three-year-olds, The Deputy (Ire), took to dirt racing with success, winning a Grade II race on his first American start to give the stable a Triple Crown candidate, Barry Irwin and his partners decided to leave Royal Highlander in Hills' hands for a crack at the G1 2,000 Guineas S. at Newmarket before heading across the Atlantic. Hills, obviously delighted with the responsibility, said yesterday of the colt: "He's very, very well. He's a lovely horse and very professional. He looks a picture at the moment. I'm slowly building him up and I'm very happy. He's got a bit of extra, as you can see from his one run last year (he took a Doncaster maiden on soft ground with ease). Everything I hear from the past says he's a soft-ground horse, and he does go in the soft, but I'll reserve my judgment as he moves very well. He'll go to Newmarket at trial time (Apr. 18-20), over seven furlongs, for either the Listed European Free H. or a conditions race at the same meeting. He's certainly a horse with a real future, and he's done everything right. He's a very nice horse."

CHELTENHAM GOLD CUP HERO DONE FOR SEASON

Tote Cheltenham Gold Cup hero Looks Like Trouble (Ire) (Zaffaran {USA}) will not attempt the Martell Cup at Aintree next month, the Racing Post reports. "We were considering the Martell Cup for him, but realistically I think we'll put him away and give him the summer off," trainer Noel Chance told Racing Post. "The horse is good...he didn't have that hard a race...but you can go to the well too often." The Gold Cup favourite, however, See More Business (Ire) (Seymour Hicks {Fr}), remains possible for the Martell Cup despite exiting his last with sore shins. "He came back with very sore shins and, although it's not in any way a serious problem, it just goes to show how fast the ground can be," trainer Pal Nicholls told Racing Post. "Given two or three days, he ought to be fine again."

Winner of the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) here in 1998 and short head runner-up to Midyan Call over this course in the '98 G2 Premio Ribot, Crisos II Monaco lost his form last year, but bounced back in impressive style on his first start of the season. Martino Alonso set a fast pace from last year's Premio Parioli winner Alabama Jacks (Ire) (Magical Wonder {USA}), but early in the straight Midyan Call shot through to grab the lead and looked the probable winner. However, Crisos II Monaco, who always runs well on fast ground and when fresh, finished strongly to gain an impressive victory going away.

2.25 Milan, Premio Calvaire (Cond.), L45,900,000, 3yo, 1mT, 1:42.70, gd/fm.

MAKEUP A MYSTERY (USA) (c, 3, Mystery Storm {USA}--No Makeup {USA}, by Proud Truth {USA}), a juvenile stakes winner and the 7-10 favourite here, justified the punters faith to secure victory. He was forced to set a sedate pace, which does not suit him, and held on well in the closing stages from the fast finishing Mac River (Ire) (Tenby {GB}) to win by a neck. He will now target the G2 Premio Parioli at Rome Apr. 30, but will take in another race in the meantime. Lifetime Record: MSW-Ity, 8 starts, 3 wins, 5 places, L146,115,000. Yesterday at Aqueduct:

MERCALDO (USA) (c, 3, Quiet American {USA}--Dormcat {USA}, by Storm Cat {USA}) was sent off at 7-1 in yesterday's seventh race, an allowance going seven furlongs on the main track. Bumped at the break, he stumbled and trailed the field through a half in :45 1/5, but rallied up the inside in the stretch to get fourth, beaten four lengths by 9-5 Major Adonis (USA) (Major Impact {USA}).

Yesterday at Santa Anita:

5th-SAX, $47,000, Msw, 4yo/up, a6 1/2fT, 1:13, fm.

WESTWOOD HO (USA) (c, 4, Gone West {USA}--Zarani Sidi Anna {USA} {G1SP-GB & US, $146,942}, by Danzig {USA}) was winless in five European starts for trainer Andre Fabre, but did hit the board in four of those outings and ended the campaign with a solid third-place finish at Deauville Aug. 24. Bet down to 7-5 in his U.S. debut despite that eight-month layoff, the bay was without speed early, but angled to the outside for the stretch drive and finished full of run to catch 6-1 Overbidagain (USA) (Caller I.D. {USA}) by a neck at the wire. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-2, $51,724. O-Sheikh Maktoum al Maktoum. B-Gainsborough Farm Inc (KY). T-Neil Drysdale.

ROYAL ACADEMY COLT TOPS NATIONAL OPENER

The first session of the South African National Yearling Sale, held yesterday at Gosforth Park in Germiston, Johannesburg, saw an Australian-bred colt by Royal Academy (USA) (Nijinsky {Can}) take top honours. Consigned by Varsfontein Stud and appropriately named Millennium Diamond, he was bought by Delta Bloodstock for R.350,000, R.25,000 higher than the tops at the first session last year. The brown colt is out of the mare Bridget's Daughter (Aus) (Best Western {Aus}), who won 12 races in Australia and comes from the family of Australian multiple Group 2 winner Staging (Aus) and G1 Caulfield Cup winner Mannerism (Aus). Another yearling to reach the R.300,000 mark was Ascot Stud's Cayman Warrior (SAf) (Al Mufti {USA}), sold to trainer Dennis Drier for exactly that figure. The colt is a half-brother to the multiple winner Coded Missile (SAf) (Forest King {SAf}). On the first day of the three-day sale, 81 lots were sold for a gross of R.7,644,000 at an average of R.94,370, up 8.2 percent on last year's figure of R.87,184.
