UNYIELDING IN BLUE GRASS

High Yield (Storm Cat) couldn't get past Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo) in the GI Florida Derby, but he wasn't about to let yesterday's GI Toyota Blue Grass get away. Dogged by his Florida Derby nemesis as he set a lively pace from along a golden rail at Keeneland, he left that one behind after six furlongs, then outgamed 9-2 More Than Ready (Southern Halo) down the lane to win it by head. "High Yield took control going into the [first] turn and I was able to secure room down inside," jockey Pat Day said. "He was very relaxed at that point...then turning for home he fought back very gamely. It was a heroic effort." The chestnut runs for the partnership of two-time Kentucky Derby winners Bob and Beverly Lewis, one-time winner Michael Tabor and for Mrs. John Magnier, and he will make his next appearance at Churchill Downs. "We're going to go over there with great optimism," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "But we know it's going to be a tough year--there's just so many good three-year-olds out there." More Than Ready is one of them. Making only his second two-turn attempt, he sat third until they hit the stretch and gave High Yield everything he could handle in the final furlong. WINGING TO VICTORY IN THE WOOD

He's no myth. Sent off the 9-10 choice in yesterday's GII Wood Memorial at Aqueduct, Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector) soared past 3-1 Red Bullet (Unbridled) in the stretch to win by a widening 4 1/4 lengths. "He was very fluid all the way around," said jockey Kent Desormeaux, who rated the colt in third through six furlongs in 1:10 2/5 before pulling the trigger. "On the turn, he just reached forward and went after the targets. At that point, I was really confident...he did everything I asked in fine fashion." The $4 million baby, who beat GI Santa Anita Derby hero The Deputy (Ire) in the Mar. 19 GII San Felipe S., has now put together a four-race winning streak and is sure to be the choice to make it five in a row in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby. "He's certainly got a world of talent," Desormeaux, who won the 1998 Derby aboard Real Quiet, said. "The only question now is can he get the mile and a quarter. I think so, but it's a question we'll have to answer on the first Saturday in May." The only difficulties Fusaichi Pegasus faced yesterday were when he got a little balky going to the gate and then wending his way back to the winner's circle. "He's got a bit of a mind of his own and he loves to look and stare at things," trainer Neil Drysdale explained. "He should have gone with his own pony. Next race, we'll send him with the pony he's accustomed to. He doesn't get excited--he just gets to looking around. It's like he's saying, 'I'll come when I'm ready.'" Previously undefeated Red Bullet, winner of the GIII Gotham S. last out, stalked the pace set by 18-1 Country Only (Carson City), got to the lead as they raced into the stretch and continued on well to hold second. Trainer Joe Orseno said, "He was up closer than I would have preferred him to be, but that really was no one's fault. If [Alex Solis] had taken him back, he most probably would have gotten into traffic trouble. It was his first time around two turns and I didn't want to cause too many problems for him. Will he move up from this race? I think he will, but the question is, how much? The winner ran a very big race." Aptitude (A.P. Indy), second in the Gotham, closed well to be third. "He was a little fussy in the gate--we'll have to work on that," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "Otherwise, he ran a good race. We'll ship to Kentucky on Monday and go from there." ON TO THE DERBY FOR BLUE GRASS

RUNNERS "My horse ran as good as anyone could run against the grain of the track," trainer Todd Pletcher, a former D. Wayne Lukas assistant, said of his Blue Grass runner-up More Than Ready. "If we could have switched post positions with High Yield, we would have won today." Trainer John Kimmel was also pleased with his third-place finisher, the lightly raced Tampa Bay Derby winner Wheelaway (Unbridled). "He really ran a huge race, especially when you consider that the track was playing to all the speed," Kimmel said. "I think this horse really proved himself today to be a legitimate contender. I think my horse ran his way into contention, but we might not have the earnings to get into the Derby. I think we have the horse, but we may not qualify and that would be a shame." GII Louisiana Derby winner Mighty (Lord At War {Arg}) bumped the side of the gate at the break and never got into the hunt, finishing seventh as the 2-1 second choice. "He didn't really care for the racetrack," jockey Shane Sellers said. "He didn't move like he did at the Fair Grounds or at Churchill. The main thing is that, mentally, he is good. We'll go on to the next city and see what happens." GI Florida Derby hero Hal's Hope tired after pressing the pace and ended up eighth and last. "I don't know why he ran the race he did today," owner/breeder/trainer Harold Rose said. "I'll have to make up my mind about going [to the Derby]. I'll throw this race out if I go." Jockey Roger Velez added, "He pulled up OK. He kind of propped on the first turn at the sight of a camera--he's never done that before. We'll just have to go back to the drawing board."

GREENHAM S. RESCHEDULED Following yesterday's abandonment of Britain's Newbury meeting, it was announced that Newmarket racecourse has re-scheduled the G3 Lane's End Greenham S. as the first race on the Tuesday card next week. The race has been re-opened, giving trainers a choice of the traditional 2000 Guineas trials. The delay also will allow connections of Distant Music (Distant View) to go in the event race, which was their initial target before the heavy rains came. The G3 Watership Down Stud John Porter S., also lost yesterday, will be run at Haydock Saturday.

Belle De Jour has overcome grave obstacles before, such as the career-threatening gash in her tendon she suffered soon after being purchased as a yearling for A$200,000. Another setback occurred at the start of yesterday's Golden Slipper, when she almost fell and spotted the field four lengths. However, under a masterful ride by Lenny Beasley, the remarkable filly weaved her way through traffic and got up late to win the race by a half head. Part-owner John Singleton offered the 23,000 racegoers free beer for the remainder of the afternoon in the wake of the win. "I was so disappointed when she stumbled, I thought I had lost all chance," said jockey Len Beasley. "I almost fell off." Trainer Clarry Conners showered bystanders with champagne. "She's a freak--this just doesn't happen. I pulled my hair out when she missed the start, I just couldn't believe it. You just can't believe a horse can win like that. I sold out, I'm a realist, but what a super, super filly," he told the Australian Associated Press. The win gave Conners his fourth victory in the world's richest race for juveniles.

Endearing stayer Tie The Knot snared his 10th Group 1 win and became the third highest Australasian stakes earner with his second consecutive Mercedes Classic score. The favorite appeared to be blocked as place getters Arena and Showella fought out the finish. But Shane Dye, collecting his fifth Mercedes trophy, urged the gallant gelding through a momentary gap on the fence and the lengthy chestnut exploded to win by a long neck. "I went to come out and I changed my mind and that is what won me the race," Dye said. "He is such a big bulldog of a horse, he really wants to win."

Backed in from 10-9 to 9-10 favoritism, Hill Of Grace was always up near the lead and held on to win by three-quarters of a length over the fast-finishing 150-1 outsider Kirkstall Lane. Trainer Robert Priscott said Hill Of Grace would not start in the AJC Australian Derby next week, but would be saved for the Oaks a week later. "The owner Terry Jarvis had thought about the Derby," Priscott said, "but we've decided to run her in the Oaks against the fillies. There's a lot of improvement left in her and the two-week break is a better option." The winner of the Mar. 25 G2 Moonee Valley Oaks, she takes her record to four wins from just eight starts and gives supersire Zabeel yet another individual Group 1 winner.

Graeme Hall secured the lead heading into the first turn and was never seriously threatened while giving trainer Todd Pletcher a one-three finish in this Kentucky Derby prep. Multiple graded-stakes placed at two, he finished 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, a race which marked the only unplaced effort his career. The consistent colt opened his sophomore season with an allowance score sprinting at Gulfstream before finishing a game second in the Mar. 25 Rushaway S. to Ronton (Cryptoclearance) last time out. The longshot settled in front on a long rein for jockey Robby Albarado, getting a half in :46 4/5. He gave the field the slip approaching the stretch and drew clear in the final furlong. "I didn't have to do much to get in front going into the first turn and after that he relaxed completely," said Albarado. "We really didn't feel any pressure down the back-side...he was really strong through the stretch run." The winner will join barnmate More Than Ready at Churchill Downs, but will need a new pilot as Albarado is booked on Captain Steve. Favored Snuck In held on for second. "He leaves for Kentucky in the morning," said trainer Steve Asmussen. "The Kentucky Derby is a possibility, but so is the Illinois Derby (May 13)." Second choice Elite Mercedes (Mercedes Won) loomed at the top of the stretch, but failed to sustain his bid and was fourth.

Third in last year's Gil Cowdin S., Precise End had not been out since leading every step en route to a one-length win in the Display S. at Woodbine Nov. 14. Sent right to the lead by jockey Jorge Chavez, the dark bay had opened up by seven lengths by the time they hit the top of the stretch and cruised home to an impressive victory--not bad for a colt who only narrowly survived an accident as a yearling. "I was away in Ocala in May of his yearling year and I got a call at 5 a.m. that they would have to put the horse down," trainer Mark Casse revealed. "He had cut his leg real bad. But I went there and said, 'Let's try and stitch it up,' and it healed well." The Florida bred now points for the May 6 GIII Withers S. at Belmont Park.

Brutally Frank, in the best form of his career, denied Kelly Kip a third straight Bold Ruler victory. The Mitch Friedman trainee won an allowance over the inner track before annexing the Toboggan H. on the Aqueduct main Mar. 18. Off alertly from the rail, he stalked Kelly Kip to the stretch, came wide for the drive and narrowly prevailed. "My horse wasn't comfortable running on the inside," said winning jockey Shaun Bridgmohan. "As soon as I took him outside, he jumped in the bridle and took off. Kelly Kip had a lot of fight in him, but my horse was double game."

Favored Daitaku Riva has won four of five starts, including triumphs in the Jan. 9 G3 Shinzan Kinen and the Mar. 19 G2 Spring S. The colt, the only two-time graded-stakes winner in the field, will break from the three post among 18 horses. "My only concern is the time he'll be waiting in the starting gate," said trainer Kojiro Hashiguchi. "I hope he will be able to get out of the gate without any trouble." Hopeful S. winner Air Shakur was runner-up in the Mar. 5 G2 Yoyoi Sho, a traditional Guineas prep. His regular rider Yutaka Take said, "I have lost this race two years in a row on the favorite, so I really want to win to make up for it this time." G3 Radio Tampa Hai Sansai S. winner Rugged Regulus will look to avenge a seventh-place finish in the Dec. 12 G1 Asahi Hai Sansai S. He lost a shoe in that race. Trainer Masaki Okubo commented, "His best selling point is his fighting spirit. He really never gives up running whatever happens."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

International raiders have taken four of the last five editions of this event. Defending champ Jim and Tonic likely will start the favorite. The runner-up in the Singapore Airlines International Cup last time out, the six-year-old is a perfect three-for-three in Hong Kong, taking the G2 HK International Bowl in 1998 and the International Cup last season. Godolphin's Iscan, the runner-up in last year's G1 Derby Italiano, shortens up to a mile and a quarter for the first time since finishing third in a conditions event at Newbury a year ago. "The form might suggest that his best trip is a mile and a half, but he has shown speed in his training at home on sand in Dubai, so let's hope he can reproduce that here on the turf," said trainer Saeed bin Suroor's travelling head lad, Steve Avis. America's hope, Thesaurus, has been second in all three outings this year, finishing three lengths behind Royal Anthem in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. and missing by a half length to 1998 champion Buck's Boy in the Mar. 4 GII Pan American H. last time out. The local hopefuls are headed by 2000 Hong Kong Derby winner Keen Winner.

It will be hard to beat the speedy Richter Scale, who bids for his fourth consecutive stakes win. The six-year-old captured the Phoenix Breeders' Cup S. over this track last October before ending the season with a 5 3/4-length score in the Nov. 25 GII Fall Highweight H. at Aqueduct. He came back in the Mar. 10 GII Gulfstream Breeders' Cup Sprint Championship H. and led every step to win by a length, and put in a sharp seven-furlong work at Keeneland in preparation for this start. Son's Corona ships in from California. An allowance winner in an off-the-turf affair at Santa Anita Jan. 26, he was then third behind subsequent GII San Bernardino H. winner Early Pioneer in a mile allowance test Feb. 18 and was most recently fourth in the off-the-turf GII Arcadia H. in the slop Mar. 5.

Back after the four-month freshening, the chestnut was last after a quarter and had only two behind him after a half, but swept to the front after six furlongs and maintained his advantage down the lane to best Respect The Game (Supremo) by a length and a half. Last year's GI Belmont S. and GI Travers winner Lemon Drop Kid was heavily favored to bounce back from his DQ in the GIII Widener H. at Gulfstream. The bay colt sat off the pace, moved to the front at the top of the stretch and was caught at the wire by the late-charging End of the Road. "Once I saw him take the lead, I knew he was in trouble," commented winning trainer Scotty Schulhofer. "Jose (jockey Santos) knows the horse, and he's got to make his move at the last second. This race should set him up good for the Pimlico Special [May 13]. He had to work for the dead-heat."

No New York Track for Stronach?:

While at Aqueduct yesterday to watch his colt Red Bullet (Unbridled) run second in the Gill Wood Memorial, Frank Stronach said he may not build a racetrack in upstate New York after all. Magna Entertainment Corp. recently purchased a large plot of land near Niagara Falls and applied for a license to build a racetrack. However, Stronach said yesterday he's not sure he can compete with Woodbine because that track recently added slot machines to its wagering menu. "My plans have changed a bit for the simple reason that Woodbine has slot machines," he said. "When we bought the land, they hadn't started up yet with slot machines. We have to reason that it would be very hard to compete against them." Stronach said that if a racetrack is not built on the property, he will likely use it to construct an auto parts factory. In other Magna news, Stronach said he intends to build an upscale restaurant at Gulfstream based on the one already in place at Santa Anita and is considering building a second turf course at his South Florida track. "In order to continue to have high quality racing there, we need a second turf course. We would consider having a turf course similiar to the one at Woodbine or having two on the inside," he said.

★ PREVIEW ★

Sunday, Leopardstown, post time: 3.00. p.m.

LEOPARDSTOWN 2000 GUINEAS TRIAL S.-Listed,
Ir£25,000, 3yo, c, 1mT

SC (PP)	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1 (4)	Bach (Ire)	Caerleon (USA)	A O'Brien
2 (3)	Golovin (Ger)	Bering (GB)	Grassick
3 (1)	Legal Jousting (Ire)	Indian Ridge (Ire)	Weld
4 (2)	River Sounds (Ire)	Shalford (Ire)	Murphy

All carry 122 pounds except Bach, 125 pounds.

A disappointing low turnout where another of Ballydoyle's juvenile Class of 99 lays his credentials on the line. Bach has the necessary class and form to account for a small yet select field. He won his maiden easily but was made to work harder on his only subsequent start when beating Hastenby (GB) the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot last June. Legal Jousting comfortably landed the odds in a 27 runner Curragh maiden and hails from Dermot Weld stable and should merit respect.

Sunday, Leopardstown, post time: 3.30. p.m.

LEOPARDSTOWN 1000 GUINEAS TRIAL S.-Listed,
Ir£25,000, 3yo, f, 7fT

SC (PP)	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1 (5)	Amethyst (Ire)	Sadler's Wells (USA)	A O'Brien
2 (3)	Aretha (Ire)	Indian Ridge (Ire)	Bolger
3 (4)	Bells Are Ringing (USA)	Sadler's Wells (USA)	A O'Brien
4 (1)	Cois Cuain (Ire)	Night Shift (USA)	Oxx
5 (6)	Margay (Ire)	Marju (Ire)	Grassick
6 (8)	Romanylei (Ire)	Blues Traveller (Ire)	Burns
7 (7)	Sand Partridge (Ire)	Desert Style (Ire)	Prendergast
8 (2)	Faithfulbond (Ire)	Elbio (GB)	Ennis

All carry 122 pounds except Faithfulbond, 119 pounds.

Amethyst will start as the likely favourite and deservedly so. She possesses solid juvenile form, the best of which was suffered in defeat. She was placed twice in Listed company but her best effort came when she finished a troubled fourth to Preseli (Ire) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at the Curragh in September. She is the one to beat. Aretha finished third to Corinium (Ire) and Iftiraas(GB) in the Listed Radley S. at Newbury in October and the form was given a timely boost with Iftiraas' bloodless win in last Friday's G3 Dubai Duty Free S. at the same track.

Sunday, Leopardstown, post time: 5.00. p.m.

BALLY SAX S.-Listed, Ir£25,000, 3yo, 1 1/4mT

SC (PP)	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1 (1)	Sinndar (Ire)	Grand Lodge (USA)	Oxx
2 (3)	Castleshane (Ire)	Kris (GB)	Prendergast
3 (4)	Grand Finale (Ire)	Sadler's Wells (USA)	Weld
4 (2)	Lammas (Ire)	Lammtarra (USA)	Weld
5 (5)	Shakespeare (GB)	Rainbow Quest (USA)	A O'Brien

All carry 124 pounds except Sinndar, 131 pounds.

An intriguing pointer to better things ahead with a mixed bag of proven and potential ability. Sinndar may well find it hard to give seven pounds all around but there is no denying his battling qualities which were amply illustrated when he won the G1 National S. at the Curragh last September. He lays his perfect two-for-two record on the line but looks vulnerable with his G1 penalty. Shakespeare, a 2000 Guineas and Derby entry, possesses plenty of ability and the form of the win on his solitary juvenile start has a solid look to it. He merits the utmost respect given that he is the Ballydoyle choice. Grand Finale is the number one pick of Dermot Weld and, on his only start this year, broke his maiden in battling fashion to deny Aidan O'Brien's Apollo Victoria (Fr). He is another worthy of consideration.

Giant's Causeway (USA) boosted the form of the 1999 running of the G1 Prix de la Salamandre last Sunday with his win in the G3 Gladness S., and it was expected that Race Leader, who was second that day in France, would be a warm order here. He drifted from favouritism in the market, however, in the face of strong support for French Fellow, but in the end made his odds look generous by taking this. Settled in fourth on the rail off a fast pace set by Whyome early, John Reid took his time before angling him to the outer of French Fellow as that one made his move to the front with two furlongs remaining. The winner had another gear, however, and in the end managed to shrug off the determined runner-up in an exciting finish to win a shade cosily, with daylight back to third. He is in the G1 2000 Guineas S. at Newmarket May 6, but it is his stablemate Distant Music (USA) (Distant View {USA}) who is the main Hills contender for that Classic. Jockey John Reid said, "Michael and Richard (Hills) have both sat on him and they told me he's a real pro, and that's just what he is. They went a good strong gallop and I got him relaxed and happy, and when he went he was just super. He's certainly justified a run in the 2000 Guineas, and I don't know whether he'll win it but he'd have a chance."

PIPALONG (IRE) (f, 4, Pips Pride {GB}--Limpopo {GB}, by Green Desert {USA}) was sent off the 11-10 favourite and was covered up early in fourth behind the trail-blazing Eastern Purple (Ire) (Petorius {Ire}). Jockey Kevin Darley always had his hands full and when he made his move on the outer of Hot Tin Roof (Ire) (Thatching {Ire}), he was never in danger as his mount picked up really well to go clear, winning easily by three-and-a-half lengths. She may now go for the G3 Duke Of York S. at York May 18. Lifetime Record: SW-Eng, 20-6-6-0, £183,827.

Placed second in the G3 Premio Primi Pasi last year, Germany's leading juvenile filly Sommernacht justified favouritism on her seasonal debut to land her first stake and continue the fine run of in-form trainer Peter Schiergen. She was ridden patiently in a tightly packed midfield as Casey S (Ire) (Ezzoud {Ire}) led. Reve de Nuit took the lead into the straight as Sommernacht began to make her move. Sommernacht, busy from the quarter mile marker, eventually asserted inside the final furlong and ran on well for a cozy win. Reve De Nuit kept on for second, safely clear of Turning Leaf who finished strongly from the rear to secure third close home.
