DIN'S A SAN FRANCISCO TREAT

Unable to recreate the form which had him as one of the top turf three-year-olds in 1998, Ladies Din (Din's Dancer) was winless, though competitive in seven starts last year, missing by a nose in the Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile and a neck in the GI Eddie Read H. Fourth in the GII San Gabriel H. to begin the new year, the bay came into this race with only five weeks of rest off his fifth-place finish in the Mar. 25 G3 Dubai Duty Free on the World Cup undercard. Spitting directly in the face of the conventional wisdom that the trip to the Middle East knocks horses out for a long time, 'Din' was made the 2-1 favorite. Settled in the back of the pack early on behind a sluggish pace, he was shifted to the outside down the backstretch, responded when called up with a quick burst of speed to take the lead four wide entering the stretch and fought off all challengers late to win by a head. "When he got off the plane from Dubai, he acted like a three-year-old," commented winning trainer Julio Canani. "I told the owners you may think I am crazy, but I'm going to run him right back." Jockey Kent Desormeaux added, "This guy can give anyone hell going a mile. This horse doesn't like to lose. There's no doubt about that." The winner will try to improve on last year's result when he contests this year's GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood June 18.

GANAY DRAWS COMPETITIVE QUARTET

A disappointingly low turnout fro France's first Group 1 of the season, but all four runners are worthy contenders. Indian Danehill (Danehill) confirmed the promise of last year by winning the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at this track Apr. 2 in good style and will be strongly fancied to follow up for his first Group 1 win. The globetrotting Kabool (Groom Dancer) has not won since taking the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville in 1998, but has run consistently in defeat in eight group races since. He will be Godolphin's first runner in Europe this year. Chelsea Manor (Grand Lodge) finished second to Indian Danehill in the Prix d'Harcourt and the placings should be confirmed. One-time G1 Epsom Derby favourite Greek Dance (Sadler's Wells) will get his favoured cut in the ground, but will need his best to be successful.

Today, Longchamp, France, post time: 3:10 p.m.

GUINEAS DOUBLE DIP AT ROME

For the first time, both Italian Guineas are run on the same day and the first leg of the Classic double, the 1000 Guineas, sees a particularly strong challenge from Britain. John Dunlop, no stranger to winning top Italian races, is represented by the smart Eurolink Raintance (Alzao) who confirmed she had progressed from two to three when finishing third to Cape Town in the Listed European Free Handicap at Newmarket Apr. 20. She was giving weight away to some well regarded individuals that day and will be in top shape to justify likely favouritism here. Clive Brittain has always held Crimp-lene (Lion Cavern) in the highest regard and it is interesting that she lines up for this rather than the G1 English version. Queen's Bench (Wolfhound) will be an interesting outsider and has won two of her four starts to date. The home defence is headed by the classy G3 Premio Dormellowinner Sonda (Dolphin Street {Fr}). She has run just the once this year, winning the Listed Premio Torricola at Rome Apr. 2. (Previews cont. p7)

Sunline avenged her Doncaster defeat last week when she returned to weight-for-age and sprinted several lengths ahead of her rivals in the straight to make the All-Aged S. her fifth Group 1 win, bringing her earnings to A$4,701,166. Challenged early for the lead, Sunline relaxed outside Georgie Boy before sprinting at the top of the straight to win as the odds-on choice. "Sydney has taken her to their hearts, it's a great honour," said co-trainer Steve McKee said after the Randwick victory. He said the plan was for Sunline to head back to New Zealand on Tuesday and she would not start in next Saturday's $750,000 Group 1 Queen Elizabeth S. (2000m). "Usually we stick pretty much to the program and that was to go home on Tuesday," McKee said, adding that his father, part-owner of the mare, may issue new instructions. Eight-time G1 winner Intergaze (Integra {Aus}) settled last and, despite making a short-lived move at the top of the straight, languished 12 lengths last. "I'm bewildered," said trainer Rod Craig. "He'll have a full veterinary check this week to decide whether we push on to the Queen Elizabeth. If I'm not happy, I'll pull the plug altogether," Craig said.

Gai Waterhouse declared tough gelding Assertive Lad would back up in next week's G1 Champagne S. at Randwick after the gallant chestnut made up for his last start when third behind Belle du Jour (Dehere) in the Golden Slipper with an impressive win here. Assertive Lad pounced on the leaders and staged a duel with a tiring Belle du Jour approaching the post, before notching a head win from fast-finishing Reenact with early leader Surfboard a further two lengths away third. "He's such an athletic good horse and as far as the mile (1600m) goes next Saturday, he'll run 2000 metres on his ear," she said. "He's certainly the best male two-year-old in Australasia. He showed that today," Waterhouse said. "There is little between he and Belle du Jour. The filly gets weight off Assertive Lad and on level weights it might be a different story, but you've got to respect Belle du Jour, she's very good." Assertive Lad beat Belle du Jour in the Magic Millions in January before finishing third to the filly in her memorable Golden Slipper win on April 15.

Take Note Of Me prospered, as usual, at his New Orleans base this past winter, scoring a 3 3/4-length victory in the Tenacious H. before losing the Louisiana H. by a neck. Last of five in the sloppy Diplomat Way H., the gelding won the Whirlaway H. Feb. 13 prior to a bang-up, one-length second at 30-1 in the Mar. 12 GIII New Orleans H. The chestnut shipped over from Arlington to show good zip in a local morning trial Apr. 16 and ran to that drill, teaming up with Glacial to dispute the early pace. The six-year-old advanced on the final turn, overtook Glacial in upper stretch and strided away to his first graded-stakes success. Nite Dreamer raced forwardly and closed for third. "This is no one-dimensional horse," commented winning jockey Robbie Albarado. "He's the kind of horse who, if he could talk would say 'Where are they at? Bring 'em on.' He'll fight with the best of them every step of the way." The winner could go next in the GII Washington Park H. at Arlington July 22.

Lager was claimed by his current owners for $45,000 out of a winning effort at Monmouth Park in September of 1998, but was not able to win again until dropped in for a $25,000 tag at The Meadowlands last Oct. 1. Switched to the barn of Jimmy Jerkens, the gelding scored for a $35,000 sticker Mar. 12, was second in starter allowance company two back before scoring impressively last out by three lengths going 11 panels Apr. 6. Lager was rated towards the back of the pack in the early stages as the field was guided through slow fractions. Jockey Alex Solis aboard favored Chester House made an early move leaving the half-mile pole to assume command, but was joined at the head of the lane by Lager and Best of Luck, who raced closer than is his custom to the slow pace. Chester House began to fade while the latter two fought it out to the line, with Lager getting the photo. Best of Luck was vanned off after the race with a medial left-front sesamoid injury, according to veterinarian Neil Cleary. Of the winner, trainer Jimmy Jerkens said, "He's really turned into a top horse over the last few weeks. He just keeps getting better with each race."

One Way Love was out of the money in two New York starts this winter, but ran second Apr. 14 when he returned to Canada in the Jacques Cartier S. The 2-1 favorite layed close to the pace, took the lead on the rail on the turn and rolled home to a 3 3/4-length victory.

Senure had a largely undistinguished nine-race European stint, winning a Leicester maiden in late 1998 and taking a Salisbury handicap event last May. Shipped to the Juddmonte's U.S. base, the dark bay was unveiled at Santa Anita Jan. 2 and could hardly have been more impressive, recovering from a slow start to take an allowance by two lengths. Off since then, the homebred was made the second choice for his return. Away in good order from the outside, Senure settled off the rail through a methodically run opening half mile. Jockey Brice Blanc awaited room turning for home and showed his mount daylight along the rail, shot through the opening to lead with a furlong to run and inched away to the victory. "I was a little bit worried about the pace, they weren't going very fast," commented Blanc. "I was waiting for a spot and then at the top of the stretch, the rail opened up beautifully and the horse just exploded."

Winner of two of his three starts as a juvenile, including a conditions event here on a soft track Oct. 2, Sakhee was well backed on his seasonal debut and started second choice. Going straight to the front, he was pursued by the recent Listed Feilden S. winner Pawn Broker and these two had the race between them throughout the straight. Sakhee led by more than a length two furlongs out, with Pawn Broker beginning to close, but every time the pursuer appeared set to make race fitness count, Sakhee found extra and the strode out well up the stiff Sandown hill and won readily. An entry for the Vodafone Derby at Epsom June 10, he may go straight there without a further race. "I really don't know how good he is," said winning trainer John Dunlop, "because we don't know the quality of this field. He's a very nice horse, but he had never been tested properly before today, because we didn't run him in any of the big juvenile races at the end of last season because the ground was so soft. The Derby is a target, but we'll have to discuss things with his owner. He's not guaranteed to stay the mile and a half. I feared Pawn Broker might make his fitness tell, but Sakhee kept finding more. Next time we'll know more about him. The (G3) Lingfield Derby (May 13) and the Dante S. at York (May 17) may come a bit quick, so we might go straight to the Epsom Derby." Olivier Peslier said of Pawn Broker, "He's a nice horse, but he couldn't handle the going, which is like glue. If the ground is better, he should be a good prospect. He could be a Derby horse under the right conditions."

 Winner of the Listed James Seymour S. at Newmarket on his last start Oct. 28, Little Rock was winning on his seasonal debut for the third season running with this convincing victory, his first in Group company. Settled in third as Alrassaam (GB) (Zafonic) led, Little Rock appeared short of room early in the straight, but once he found an opening between the two leaders two furlongs out, he quickened well in the testing conditions and galloped on resolutely up the stiff Sandown hill, with Bomb Alaska and Diamond White both finishing well. "I have never seen Little Rock travel so well in a race," said Sir Michael Stoute. "He is entered in all the big races and he should handle a mile and a half as well as this trip."

Progressing with every race last year, Sugarfoot captured the GNER Park S. here Sept. 9 and was then runner-up to Trans Island in the G2 Prix du Rond-Point at Longchamp Oct. 3. Making his first start of the season, he pursued the fast pace set by Tumbleweed Ridge, quickened to challenge the leader inside the final quarter mile, grabbed the lead entering the final furlong and was ridden out to the line for a comfortable success. "It was testing ground and he was only 90 percent right," said winning trainer Nigel Tinkler, "so I am absolutely delighted. Tumbleweed Ridge went a great gallop, faster than I expected in these conditions. But Ray (Cochrane) gave my horse a great ride. He won on him as a two-year-old, so it was lovely to see him win on him again. I'm sure my horse will improve seven to ten pounds on this performance and he'll now go for the (G1) Lockinge S. at Newbury (May 2). I know that's a tall order, but Sugarfoot was only just beaten in a Group 2 in Paris last October and we'd love to make him into a stallion. I'm confident the horse will maintain his form, even if he's getting older."

The colts version looks the least competitive affair of the two Classics and the British have a solid chance of dominating. Ed Dunlop holds a strong hand with two runners. He runs both Catchy Word and Nothing Daunted, but the former is the number one choice. Catchy Word was an excellent second to Cape Town when vainly trying to make all the running in the Listed European Free Handicap at Newmarket's Craven meeting Apr. 20. He is the likely favourite, but will have to overcome slight doubts about his ability to stay the sharp Capanelle mile. On soft going the main domestic hopes would include Golden Indigo, In The Wait and As You Like, but if it were to come up good Dauno, Caluki and Makeup A Mystery would offer the best chance to keep the prize at home. The Listed Premio Daumier and the Listed Premio Gardone are usually the most informative local trials and they were won by Dauno and As You Like respectively. The current going is good to soft with the weather set to play a major role.

This stayers event could be dominated by two fillies. Last year's G2 Preis der Diana heroine Flamingo Road will meet the triple group-winning Catella for the first time, and there is not much to pick and choose between these two top class fillies. Peter Schiergen's second entry is Damiano, a much improved runaway winner of the Listed Buchmacher Springer Grand Prix Aufgalopp 2000 at this track Mar. 19, but he needs soft going at least. Silvano is an interesting outsider who took the G2 Colonia Union-Rennen here last year, but he has been sidelined with injury since then. Laveron and Montalban need heavy going and could be caught for lack of endspeed, whereas Wins Fiction is an interesting place candidate.

The unbeaten Hidalguia will bid to enhance her burgeoning G1 Prix de Diane claims. She was not fully wound up for her seasonal debut, but was impressive nonetheless in winning the Listed Prix Finlande. She will start as likely favourite and boasts the best credentials in this traditional Oaks trial. Overbrook Farm's homebred Penny's Gold finished fourth on her sole juvenile start, but left that form well behind when impressively winning a mile conditions event at this track Apr. 9. She will need to improve further to handle this step up in class, but has the potential to do so. Starine is by far the most exposed of these with 14 runs already and, Hidalguia apart, is the only stakes winner in the race. She has had two runs already this term, finishing second in both the Listed Prix Ronde de Nuit at Saint-Cloud Mar. 11 and the Listed Prix La Camargo at the same course Mar. 28.

Wheelaway Works Easy Five Furlongs:

Kimmel and Solondz's Wheelaway (Unbridled), who finished well to be third in the GI Blue Grass in his most recent start, worked five eighths of a mile in 1:02 1/5 officially for trainer John Kimmel yesterday. The conditioner clocked the gray from the 3/4 pole in 1:15 with a final quarter mile in :24 and out the mile in 1:43. "It's hard to gauge the workout," Kimmel commented, "because the track is pretty dead. I hope the track is not this way on Derby Day. It seemed like it was cupping out on him around the turn and he was struggling. [Jockey] Richard [Migliore] said he had to get after him to finish."

The favorite tracked the leaders while forwardly placed, advanced on the turn and drew clear down the lane to an easy score and first against open company.
