INDIAN TAKES GANAY; SALE RUMOURED

Having at last begun to fulfill his true potential, Indian Danehill (Danehill) followed his win in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp Apr. 2, where he was a comfortable winner over Chelsea Manor (Grand Lodge) with his first Group 1 win in yesterday's Prix Ganay at Longchamp in even more convincing fashion, running out an impressive winner. There was a strong race-course rumour beforehand that the Irish National Stud had purchased a half-interest in Indian Danehill in the days leading up to the race, and confirmation of those reports are pending. He was settled in third initially, ahead of Greek Dance as Kabool (Groom Dancer) led at a steady pace from Chelsea Manor, but was relegated to last place when Greek Dance (Sadler's Wells) pulled his way into second at halfway. The order remained the same as the field swung into the straight and it was Olivier Peslier aboard Indian Danehill who was first to get after his mount. The four runners were almost line abreast entering the final furlong where Greek Dance briefly held the lead with Chelsea Manor travelling best of all. Indian Danehill got into top gear on the outside and his relentless momentum carried into the lead with 150 yards as he drew clear in the closing stages to record an impressive win. Greek Dance, perhaps inconvenienced by the trip, stayed on at the same pace to safely hold second and Chelsea Manor moved into third inside the final furlong as Kabool faded to be fourth. Winning owner Edouard de Rothschild said, "We have always thought a lot of this horse and that is why we did not hesitate to supplement him for the (G1) Dewhurst S. as a two-year-old. For various reasons he didn't run his race that day but he has made up for lost time since. A few years ago, in similar conditions, his full-brother, Indian Jones, broke his leg as he was about to win the G1 Grand Criterium. It has taken some time, but we have left that behind us now and Indian Danehill has avenged his brother today. As far as the future is concerned, he will not go to the G1 Coronation Cup (at Epsom) or the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup (at The Curragh), but will probably go for the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp May 21.

ITALIAN GUINEAS SURPRISE FROM XUA

Owing much to a very powerful ride from Max Tellini, Xua (Ire) (Fairy King) gained her first stakes victory in yesterday's Italian 1000 Guineas in Rome. Second in the Listed Premio Novella at Milan Sept. 12 and third in the G3 Premio Dormello at Milan Oct. 10 as a juvenile, she showed her readiness with a win in a conditions event here Mar. 24. Tellini settled Xua in midfield alongside Timi (GB) (Alzao) as Masaniella (Ity) (Masad {Ire}) set a good pace, with English raiders Eurolink Raintance (Ire) (Alzao) and Crimplene (Ire) (Lion Cavern) close behind. On the turn, Crimplene and Timi were switched to the wide outside and this pair were soon clear of the field and looked to have the race between them. Xua, who had been under pressure early in the straight, was switched even wider than the two leaders and, once in the clear, sprouted wings and flew home for what had looked an improbable victory.

TDN Dark Horse Davide Umbro, the top-priced yearling at the ANAC yearling sales in 1998, sprang an 86-1 surprise here, but won deservedly in impressive style in conditions he relishes, giving his young Rome-based trainer Emanuele Russo only his second Group race victory. His chances were not advertised, however, with two poor efforts previously this season, including a lowly finish in the Listed Premio Daumier here Apr. 9. Dauno (Ity) (Mukaddamah) set a fast pace, followed by In The Wait (GB) (Midyan), with Davide Umbro racing in midfield. Around the turn, the whole field spread across the track, but with two furlongs to run Davide Umbro quickened brilliantly on the wide outside and went clear to score by a clear margin, with Golden Indigo staying on strongly for second. Davide Umbro now looks set for the G1 Derby Italiano here May 28.

Catella went from strength to strength last year, winning the G3 Deutscher Herold-Preis and the G3 Lotto Hessen-Pokal in midsummer and the G2 Henninger Trophy in mid-September. Her fourth Group victory was the easiest of them all. After racing in midfield with Flamingo Road (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) as Silvano shared the lead with Montalban (GB) (Mondrian {Ger}) and Bedford Forrest (Ger) (Law Society), Catella moved to the outside on the final turn and cruised into the lead, coming home unchallenged.

Having broken her maiden at the second attempt over nine furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte last November, America was put away for the winter. She reappeared at Longchamp to easily win a 10-furlong conditions event Apr. 2. She was made favourite for this and, with the aid of a pacemaker, won her first Group race in authoritative manner. Hannabarbera (Fr) (Darshaan {GB}) went straight to the lead followed at a respectable distance by stable companion America with Hidalguia settled well in third. Hannabarbera's pacemaking duties were soon to finish when America swept into the lead approaching the final furlong and scurried away to a winning lead at that point as Hidalguia went in vain pursuit. Surrendering her hitherto unbeaten record, Hidalguia couldn't catch the impressive America and had to settle for a respectable second. Beyond The Waves ran on well to finish a safe third without managing to mount a serious challenge to the front two. Winning trainer Criquette Head explained, "She is a very light filly and you can't abuse her, so she will go straight for the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 11."

Also ran: Tajoun (Fr), Roli Abi (Fr), Northerntown, Vertimi.

Having raced over inadequate trips on his two starts this year, Amilynx returned to the form of his win in last season's G1 Prix Royal Oak with a commanding display of stamina. This season he had previously run with distinction in both the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 11, and the G3 Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25. The field raced in single file headed by Vertimi (Green Dancer), acting as pacemaker, as the 6-5 favourite Tajoun (General Holme) settled towards the rear. Magnus led into the straight, as Vertimi dropped away, but was challenged at the two pole by Amilynx who had made stealthy progress from the home turn. Amilynx swept to the front approaching the final furlong and drew progressively clear for an easy win. Katun, reproducing his finest form, kept on resolutely in the closing stages to take second from the brave Magnus as the line approached. Neither had an answer to the winner's finishing burst but were safely clear of a disappointing Tajoun. Roland de Longevialle, racing manager to the winning owner, said, "Providing that the ground is soft, Amilynx is almost unbeatable at this level. He might have a tilt at the G1 Ascot Gold Cup (Ascot, June 22) if the ground conditions are suitable." Alain de Royer Dupre merely reported, "Tajoun was on an off day."

All carry 123 pounds.

Andre Fabre holds a strong hand for this intriguing mile event. He runs both Dansili and Kingsalsa and both have solid claims on previous form. Dansili, rated below only Sendawar in France's mile division last year, easily landed the odds when giving weight to both Iridanos and Double Heart in the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc over course and distance Apr. 5. He can confidently be expected to confirm that form now that he is four pounds better off with both rivals and will start as favourite. Kingsalsa, third in last year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) and fifth in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris, won on his return in a minor event at Compiègne before finishing a fine third in the G3 Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba. He has a good chance to give his stable the exacta. Jashin, the German-trained challenger, looks to be thrown in at the deep end and will attempt to at least pay for his cross border journey.

X-RAYS NEGATIVE FOR BEST OF LUCK An initial set of X-rays on Best of Luck (Broad Brush)'s left front leg, taken late Saturday after he was vanned off the track after a second-place finish in the GIII Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. at Aqueduct, revealed no fracture to a medial sesamoid. "The first set of X-rays didn't show anything," said trainer Allen Jerkens, whose four-year-old colt was placed in a splint while he was still on the racetrack. "It's just swollen right now. He's got pressure bandages on and he's standing in his stall okay. They're going to take another set of X-rays (Sunday)." The Bohemia Stables runner has four wins from 23 starts, including victories in last year's GII Peter Pan S. and GIII Stuyvesant H.

DERBY WORKS AROUND Kentucky Derby favorite Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector) turned in his final Kentucky Derby work yesterday morning, breezing six furlongs in 1:14 3/5, galloping out the seven furlongs in 1:27. "He wasn't given his head until about 100 yards from the finish," said trainer Neil Drysdale. "His last quarter was :23 and change and then he galloped out another eighth in :12 and change. I'm very satisfied. He went well. It was exactly what we asked for; it was his standard work." The colt, who has become known for his on-track hijinks, "behaved well (yesterday) morning," continued Drysdale. "He played around a little bit with a few bucks." Drysdale's other Derby hopeful, War Chant (Danzig), is scheduled to work six furlongs this morning. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas sent his three Kentucky Derby hopefuls out for works early yesterday morning over the Churchill Downs surface. The GI Toyota Blue Grass winner High Yield (Storm Cat) went six furlongs in 1:13 3/5; Commendable (Gone West) went the same distance in 1:12 3/5; and Exchange Rate (Danzig) may have earned his way into the Derby with a five-furlong move from the gate in 1:00 in company under jockey Calvin Borel, who will be aboard Saturday. "I thought I had to do a little more with him because I don't think he got anything out of the Louisiana Derby and the Wood Memorial," said Lukas. "If he is doing as well as I think he is doing, we will go in." A fourth Lukas hopeful, True Confidence (Storm Cat), last in Saturday's Derby Trial, is now being pointed to either the May 13 GII Illinois Derby, May 20 GI Preakness or the June 10 GII Riva Ridge. Undefeated GIII Flamingo winner Trippi (End Sweep) worked five furlongs in :59 3/5. Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo) worked four furlongs in :46 2/5, the fastest half-mile move of the day over the Churchill surface. His 88-year-old owner-trainer Harold Rose timed him galloping out five furlongs in :58 and change and out the six furlongs in 1:13 and change. "I've got to believe he's back to where he should be," said Rose.

The veteran ended a seven-race skid in his last start when he took an overnight handicap at Aqueduct Mar. 31 by a length. The odds-on favorite was reserved early, swung wide into the lane and won going away, despite drifting out in the final furlong.

COLSTAR (f, 4, Opening Verse--Ascend, by Risen Star), second in the Gill Pebbles H. at Belmont Oct. 11 and the winner of the Oct. 30 Gill Martha Washington H. at Laurel, made her seasonal debut in this brutally tough allowance that featured no less than six stakes winners. The 5-2 favorite raced three wide on both turns while close to the pace, gained command in midstretch and just held on for a head win over Melody Queen (GB) (Merdon Melody {GB}). Lifetime Record: GSW, 8-5-2-1, $173,120.

Unhurried early, the bay filly raced on the outside down the backstretch, collared the leader in upper stretch and proved 3 1/2 lengths the best. She is a half-sister to Muscle Car (A.P. Silver Chadra finished third in a Fair Grounds allowance three back and was out of the money over the Fair Grounds turf in his last two starts, including a seventh-place finish Mar. 27. Moved from the barn of Hal Wiggins to that of Tom Amoss, the bay colt responded with a victory, saving ground all the way and powering home to a one-length score.

Endless Parade obviously enjoyed her time at Oaklawn Park, reeling off daylight victories in a Feb. 27 maiden and a Mar. 17 allowance, then picking up her first stakes score in the Althea S. Apr. 15. The odds-on chalk stumbled at the start, but recovered her stride and settled in fourth position. She advanced four wide into the turn and gained command about half-way around, took a clear lead into the stretch and was easily the best of the bunch.

 The only graded stakes winner in the field, Grey Memo came into this event easily the most accomplished runner of the group. The winner of the Gill Hollywood Preview last November, he had struggled since in both graded and state-bred company. Sixth in the state-bred California Breeders' Championship to close out his two-year-old year, he was then thrown to the wolves, finishing fourth in the Gill Santa Catalina to The Deputy, fifth in the Gill San Rafael to War Chant, and fifth in the Gill San Felipe to Fusaichi Pegasus, ironically, the probable first three choices in Saturday's GI Kentucky Derby. Back with softer company in the restricted La Puente S. April 2, he fared no better, finishing last of seven. Trianer Warren Stute took the blinkers off here, however, and Grey Memo woke up, coming from nowhere in mid-stretch to pull away to an easy victory.

Wired To Fly broke her maiden over this track last spring then came back to win the May 15 Nursery S. She then went on a winless cross-country tour, finishing seventh in a Belmont allowance in September, eighth in the Hoosier Debutante in December, third in a Jan. 22 Fair Grounds allowance and most recently sixth in the BooLaBoo S. at Santa Anita Feb. 19. Rested since then, she was sent off the favorite for the fourth straight time and didn't disappoint, pressing the pace outside Theresa's Tizzy, taking the lead leaving the turn, and edging clear.

Claimed for $25,000 at Golden Gate in January, 1999 as a four-year-old after just five starts, Dexter Drive had since won three of 10 outings for trainer Peter Levine while racing mainly in claiming and optional claiming ranks. All of those wins came after a switch to the turf seven starts back, which impressed the Hollywood faithful enough to send him off the 9-5 choice. Saving ground off the pace early, he came four wide into the stretch, took the lead halfway home and drew off.

Part of the odds-on three horse entry, Rebuild Trust won two races over the Santa Anita main track earlier this winter and was most recently second in an Apr. 13 turf allowance at the Arcadia track. Margins: 1, 9, 4. Odds: 0.60, 14.50, 7.40.

Horseplayers and fans at Hollywood Park had to be rooting for Nationalore at the top of the stretch, even if their money wasn't on him, as he looked poised to take over and free himself of the title of "World's Richest Maiden." But alas, Nationalore didn't have enough left in the tank and although he added another $14,000 to his bankroll, his record dropped to zero wins from 23 starts. He was defeated by another up-and-comer from the deep stable of 505 Farms. Matriculate had broken his maiden by a neck in his first start going six furlongs at Santa Anita Apr. 9. Going two turns for the first time, the 3-5 favorite led throughout while racing off the rail, repulsed Nationalore's bid at the top of the stretch and held on for a one-length tally.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.  Making it worth his while for New York-based jockey Jorge Chavez to come west for Gold Rush day, Guiding Force, whose lone start had been a fifth-place finish in an open maiden special weight event at six furlongs at Santa Anita April 9, proved a mild upset here in a stakes race restricted to maidens. The Bob Baffert-trained Inexcess Express (In Excess {Ire}) was sent away the 3-5 choice off the strength of his one start, a second-place finish April 16 at Santa Anita against state-bred company. The favorite, however, could manage no better than fourth while Guiding Force, rushed straight to the lead by Chavez, wired the group for his first stakes win.

 After just missing in her first two outings when second at Santa Anita Feb. 6 and again Feb. 27, Pirate's Captive turned in an uncharacteristically poor performance in her next, a March 24 maiden special weight at Santa Anita when fitted with blinkers. Trainer Grant Hofmans pulled the blinkers off after that affair, and Pirate's Captive responded for him here, coming from far off the pace to run down a determined Jeweled Pirate, who held the lead until the shadow of the wire.

Yesterday at Churchill Downs:

8th Race, $47,200, Allowance, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8mT, 1:50 1/5, fm.

LA SERINA (IRE) (f, 4, Royal Academy {USA}--Hi Bettina {Ire}, by Henbit {USA}) was forwardly placed in the opening stages of the race, carried a narrow lead past the eighth pole, but yielded late to finish a good second, beaten 3 3/4 lengths at 22-1.

3rd-Race, $33,825, Maiden Special Wt., 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10 1/5, ft.

+ KALDOUNYA (GB) (f, 3, Kaldoun--Minya {GSP-Fr}, by Blushing Groom {Fr}), purchased for 72,149gns as an AFAUG yearling, had been working smartly over the Churchill strip for her debut. Bet down to 5-2 favoritism, the filly drifted in and bumped an opponent at the start, saved ground while tracking the dueling leaders, came out five wide entering the stretch and closed well to win by 1 3/4 lengths.

STAR QUEEN (USA) (f, 3, Kingmambo {USA}--Starboard Tack {USA}, by Seattle Slew {USA}), sent off a 16-1 outsider, was bumped at the start, but was outrun thereafter, finishing last of 11.
