CROWDED CLASSIC AT NEWMARKET

The European Classic season gets underway Saturday afternoon with no less than 27 three-year-olds lining up for the 192nd edition of the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. Distant Music (Distant View) has been the long-time Guineas ante-post favorite, but he must overcome a troubled preparation. Undefeated at two, last year's G1 Dewhurst winner injured a foot in his first start this season and was beaten on the line in the Apr. 18 G3 Greenham S. at Newmarket, finishing a head behind Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) in that test. He had drifted in the pre-Guineas betting after that defeat before hardening to favoritism with most firms once again. The colt looked exceptional when winning the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster last September and, although he wasn't so impressive in the Dewhurst a month later, he nevertheless established himself as a top-class juvenile. The Juddmonte Farms homebred is currently 4-1 co-favorite (with Ladbrokes) after drawing stall 15. The undefeated Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat) shares the favorite's role. The Aidan O'Brien trainee, winner of the G1 Prix de Salamandre at two, came back this year with a victory over older horses in the G3 Gladness S. He breaks from stall 17. Barathea Guest, who trainer George Margaron said to be only 90-percent ready for his win in the seven-furlong Greenham S., drew stall 10 and is at 10-1 with Ladbrokes. Godolphin, which took last year's Guineas with Island Sands (Ire), has three chances to make it two in a row and three in the past five years. Fath (Danzig), 20-1 from stall 14, is the stable's best hope. A maiden winner at first asking at York last August, he has not been out since running second by a neck to Primo Valentino (Ire) (Primo Dominie {GB}) (20-1 from stall 18) in the Sept. 30 G1 Middle Park S. Fath will be joined in the gate by 20-1 Broche (Summer Squall), who has drawn stall 24, and 40-1 Zoning (GB) (Warning {GB}) from stall 19. (2000 Guineas field, p2)

FILLIES MAKE OLD KENTUCKY HOME

A day before their male counterparts run for the roses, 14 fillies take center stage today to run for the lilies in the G1 Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs. The 4-1 morning-line favorite is Kumari Continent (Kris S.). The lightly raced Paco Gonzalez trainee, who narrowly lost to Surfside in the G1 Santa Anita Oaks, is making her first start outside of Santa Anita, but she won at this distance on the turf last time out. Secret Status (A.P. Indy), 9-2 on the morning line, ran third behind Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Cash Run (Seeking the Gold) in the GII Davona Dale and has been off since winning the Mar. 19 GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Bay Downs. Circle of Life (Belong to Me) created a buzz when winning the G1 Spinaway S. in her third outing last summer. Off six months after a third-place finish in the G1 Matron, the filly returned to win a Mar. 5 allowance at Gulfstream before running third behind Rings a Chime (Metfield) and Zoftig (Cozzene) in the Apr. 8 G1 Ashland. Vivid Sunset (Mt. Livermore) is a perfect two-for-two around two turns. She makes her stakes debut off an eight-length romp in a 1 1/16-miles Keeneland allowance Apr. 16.

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Globalize Out of Derby:

Globalize (Summer Squall) has been withdrawn from Saturday's Kentucky Derby after being kicked by his lead pony after a gallop yesterday morning. "[Globalize] is a bit of a tough one," said Renee Wilkins who was ponying the colt aboard her six-year-old pony. "He tries to nibble on me or my horse all the time. Usually it's fine, but this morning he bit my horse a little too hard and he 'cow' kicked him." Globalize suffered a large gash on his left hind leg just below his hock and required stitches. It was the second Derby disappointment for trainer Jerry Hollendorfer who was pointing Event of the Year towards the 1998 Derby when that colt suffered a fractured knee two weeks before the race.

Wheelaway & Ronton Work:

Wheelaway (Unbridled) blew out three furlongs in :34 3/5 yesterday morning under jockey Richard Migliore. "I told Richie not to get after him, just to let him pick up his gallop gradually going into the workout," trainer John Kimmel explained. "I got his first eighth in :12 and at the eighth pole in :24. And he did it without much effort. It's gratifying to see how effortlessly he was traveling and how he was into the bridle and handling the track."

Ronton (Cryptoclearance), seventh in the GII Arkansas Derby, arrived at Churchill late Wednesday. Before leaving Santa Anita, the colt turned in an easy half-mile work in :51.

A champion at two and three, five-time Grade I winner Silverbuletday ended the 1999 season with a disappointing sixth-place finish as the 8-5 favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. The bay came back in the Apr. 19 Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland and won by a neck over Roza Robata. She is a perfect eight-for-eight at Churchill and undefeated in five tries at this distance. Heritage of Gold, six-for-10 last season with a third-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Distaff, hasn't been beaten in two starts this season, taking the Mar. 19 GIII Oaklawn Breeders' Cup S. and the Apr. 9 GI Apple Blossom H. The five-year-old is five-for-six at a mile and a sixteenth. Bella Chiarra is also looking to keep her 2000 record unblemished. The five-year-old opened the campaign with an allowance win on the Gulfstream turf Jan. 21, added the Feb. 27 GII Rampart H. on the main track in her next appearance and ran away to a 13-length triumph in the slop at Gulfstream last time out in the Mar. 19 Columbiana H.

Ramruma makes her seasonal debut and will seek to add to her already impressive record. She won five of her six starts last year including three Group Ones, the G1 Vodafone Oaks, the G1 Irish Oaks and the G1 Yorkshire Oaks. She met with defeat in the G1 St Leger, at the hands of Mutafaweq, but lost no caste in defeat. She has the potential to be one of Europe's middle distance stars this year and will start as favourite. Border Arrow finished third in both the 1998 G1 2000 Guineas and 1998 G1 Derby. In his only race last season he finished third to Handsome Ridge in the Shergar Cup Classic at Goodwood. Although his lack of racing may be a worry, he is proven in the highest company and will have ground conditions to suit. Rhagaas is set to start the Godolphin pattern bandwagon rolling in England and his best form saw him finish third to Montjeu in last season's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby). He is more than useful and has already shown his well being when finishing a running-on fourth to Fantastic Light in the G3 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25.

WRITERS UP

A SYNDICATE'S DREAM by Tom Frary

The racing colours of Highclere Thoroughbred Racing are associated with the dash of the sprinter Tamarisk (Ire), who swept his way through the 1998 season, most notably taking the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup that year. Although this high level of success was a first for a syndicated horse in Britain, it was not an aberration and the year 2000 heralds a new chapter in Highclere's already impressive story.

Sir Michael Stoute's Petrushka (Ire) (Unfuwain) will take the Highclere silks to post as the deserved favourite for Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas S. at Newmarket. Held at 5-4 with Corals, she was bought for 110,000 Irish guineas at the Goffs Sale. The filly looked a force to be reckoned with at Newmarket last time out Apr. 18 when she quickened dramatically past seasoned performers in a quality renewal of the G3 Nell Gwyn S., and she has since thrived on the Heath.

Highclere, one of many such syndicates in Britain, bought its first yearlings in 1992 and had its first runners a year later. Now the leading ownership company in the country, it operates a number of partnerships of different sizes, offering from 20 to 90 shares in each.

Each member makes a one-time payment to buy a share in a group of two-year-olds, with the size of the payment determined by the original cost of the horses. If any of the group continue to race at three there is an additional fee, but it is considerably less than the initial investment. At the end of their racing careers, the horses are sold. Syndicate members share in both the purses earned and the sales price.

All of the syndicates are named for areas in Highclere Castle; Petrushka is owned by "The Library Syndicate."

The secret of Highclere's success is teamwork. John Warren and Harry Herbert, along with their bloodstock advisers, buy yearlings and divide them into the syndicates, while Tim Jones manages the partnerships.

Jones explains, "It is a team effort, with communication vital. We're extremely fortunate to have John Warren for select purchasing, with a major input from Harry Herbert.

"We work extremely hard at it, and we've been extremely fortunate. Our trainers are very professional and they help us to manage the horses, and our share owners put faith in us, giving us their financial backing. While we have to have a commercial eye open, we enjoy it."

Standing on the verge of what could be the first syndicate victory in an English Classic, it is worth considering that this type of enterprise could be the future of race-horse ownership in an increasingly competitive market.

Jones says, "This gives people the opportunity to compete at the highest level, which would be more difficult for the individual. This way we can make a sustained challenge, and it's taken on enthusiastically. I hope it's the way forward."

As for their chances in the 1000 Guineas, Jones says, "The lovely thing is that [in the Nell Gwyn], Petrushka showed lots of speed, the sort you can only dream of. She came out of the race and didn't turn a hair. She is very much on track."

The filly is in good hands at Freemason Lodge, too, and although Sir Stoute has not been shouting her name from the rooftops, he has seemed quietly confident since.

Jones says of the trainer, "I read recently that you learn more from what he doesn't say than what he does, and there's a lot to be said for that. He's always liked her, she's been held in high regard for quite a long time, but before the Nell Gwyn he didn't know where she stood in the big picture. Although he never makes comparisons, he's very happy."

Highclere also have a live outsider for tomorrow's G1 2000 Guineas S. in Mastermind (Ire) (Dolphin Street {Fr}), who beat Kentucky Derby hopeful The Deputy (Ire) convincingly in a Newmarket maiden last year. These are high times indeed for Highclere.

Roxelana had held the lead at every call but one in her first three starts, breaking third in her career debut on the grass at the Fair Grounds Feb. 7 before striding to the front en route to a 2 1/2-length maiden win. She powered to a 6 1/2-length score against allowance foes on the dirt Mar. 3 and was even more convincing in her most recent outing, taking an Apr. 13 Keeneland allowance by 8 1/2 lengths. The odds-on choice to make it four-for-four, the bay showed some versatility, breaking fourth and rating in second through a half in a blistering :44 1/5 before showing her heels to the field in an eye-catching victory. The final time was a stakes record, breaking the mark of 1:22 1/5 set by the great Cicada in 1962. "I asked her to run just a little today for the first time," regular rider Larry Melancon said. "I have been fortunate to ride some nice horses and I don't like to compare them, but this filly, she's special." Added trainer "Blackie" Huffman, "I was surprised how easily she won. I don't want to sound like I wasn't confident in my horse, I just wasn't sure [the bettors] would be so confident. She outran a great bunch today." No word on where the fleet filly will flash her speed next.

A winner in four of her last five starts, Steal a Heart captured the Feb. 12 Pan Zareta S. on the main track at Fair Grounds, tired to be sixth over a sloppy strip in the Mar. 18 Victoria Lass H., then bounced back to take the Apr. 22 Stravinsky S. on the Keeneland turf last time out. The second choice in this field, she was sent right to the front to duel through rapid fractions, pulled clear after three furlongs, but just held on to take a tight photo over the fast-closing Debby d'Or.

Deep Gold accounted for the GIII Deputy Minister H. at Gulfstream Park Feb. 6, but tired to be sixth behind a reborn Richter Scale in the Mar. 10 GII Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup Sprint Championship H. in his next appearance. The fractions in his latest effort also took their toll as the chestnut pressed the pace before finishing a distant third to Richter Scale in the Apr. 16 GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. Dodging that rival here, he sped right to the lead and, despite being dogged by Master O Foxhounds throughout, prevailed in a game performance.

The 1999 Gil Illinois Derby winner, Vision and Verse went on to be second by a head in the GI Belmont S. and by three-quarters of a length in the GI Travers. Third as the 2-1 choice in the Oct. 15 Gil Pegasus H., he ended the season in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, but was bumped at the break and never got into the game, finishing ninth. Making his first start since as the overwhelming chalk, the bay tracked an easy pace from second, moved to the front as they raced into the stretch and responded to jockey Jerry Bailey's left-handed encouragement to repel the challenge of Guided Tour for a successful return.

Runaway Venus came back after a 6 1/2-month layoff to pick up a six-length Oaklawn allowance win Mar. 18. She tried to run away with the Apr. 9 GI Apple Blossom H. last time out, setting the pace on a clear lead, but tiring to be seventh at 35-1. Facing a much softer field this time, the gray sprinted to the front right out of the gate, zipped through a half in :44 4/5 and six furlongs in 1:09 flat and cruised home a decisive winner as the crowd's choice.

Sweet Ludy, winner of the Gil Honeymoon H. and Gil San Clemente H. last summer, had been off since running 10th over a soft turf course in the Sept. 12 Gil Garden City Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont Park. Favored in the field of five, the filly bid three wide into the stretch, took charge at midstretch and pulled clear late.

BOATMAN (c, 4, Irish River {Fr}--Peplum {SW & GSP-GB}, by *Nijinsky II) started his career in Britain but, after breaking his maiden at first asking, was winless in six subsequent starts and ended the campaign with three consecutive off-the-board showings. Sixth in a handicap at Newbury last October, the chestnut made his U.S. bow in a Santa Anita allowance Jan. 15 and closed from last to get the win. Looking to go two-for-two in the States, he came back after the 3 1/2-month vacation as the 3-1 second choice. Rated in last for a quarter, he made steady progress, followed only 5-1 pacesetter Sky Champion (Skywalker) into the stretch and drove past that one in the drive for a two-length tally. Lifetime Record: SP-GB, 9-3-1-1, $91,341. O/B-Juddmonte Farms (KY). T-R Frankel.

EKRAAR RE-ROUTED TO FRENCH 2000 GUINEAS

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's colt Ekraar (USA) (Red Ransom {USA}) was taken out of the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket tomorrow and will instead will go straight to the French equivalent, the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 14. His Lambourn-based trainer Marcus Tregoning said, "The change of plan may suit him. He's in great form, and I'm very, very happy with him. He'll go to the French Guineas and then possibly for the G2 Dante S. at York May 17 or the Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood May 23. The Dante S. could be a very suitable race, as he wouldn't get a penalty. I don't know whether he'll stay as his dam side is all speed, but Richard Hills thought 1 1/4m would suit him well."

TEGGIANO SIDESTEPS GUINEAS

Bintalreef (USA) (Diesis {GB}) will be the sole Godolphin representative in the G1 1000 Guineas S. at Newmarket on Sunday, as Teggiano (Ire) (Mujtahid {USA}) will instead go to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches Longchamp May 14. Teggiano, long-time ante-post favourite for the race, will go to France to ensure "strong representation in both Classics", according to a Godolphin spokesperson.

AREYDHA ON COURSE FOR GERMAN GUINEAS

Mick Channon's Areydha (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) flies out in the morning to contest the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) at Dusseldorf. The decision to sidestep the English Classic in favour of the German equivalent was mainly influenced by the likely conditions, which are currently riding good-to-soft. Her trainer said yesterday, "She's a good filly in her own right, and she could run a very big race."

Beat Hollow makes his seasonal debut and reports emanating from Newmarket suggest he is a colt of the highest order. He is currently quoted as the clear ante-post favourite for the G1 Vodafone Derby and is rumoured to be the best of Henry Cecil's Derby possibles at present. He was mightily impressive on his only race-course outing to date when trouncing a quality field of maidens over a mile at Yarmouth last September.

Entisar is set to be Godolphin's first British runner of the year and is a graduate of Godolphin's all beige French operation. He was third on his only appearance to date when tackling Longchamp's mud last October.

Sandmason is another to have made only one start and was impressive when winning a Kempton maiden over a mile in heavy conditions last September. He is the stable's number two choice, but is an able deputy nonetheless.

Having raced throughout 1999 in the exclusive company of group and stakes opponents, Pinmix had his first three runs this season in lesser company, yielding one win and two places. The drop in class seems to have worked the oracle as Pinmix recorded his first stakes winning the Listed Prix Servanne at Chantilly last year. Comillas (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}) quickly raced into a three-length lead ahead of Dionello (Fr) (Le Glorieux {GB}), Pinmix and Royal Command (Ire) (Green Desert {USA}) as Kirkwood settled in midfield, with Bartex in the rear. As the field raced to the final quarter mile, Pinmix grabbed the lead closely attended by Royal Command and Kirkwood as Bartex made progress to track the front three. Pinmix responded gamely to Alexandre Roussel's urgings to stay ahead of his challengers and staved off the persistent challenge of Bartex to record a determined win. Kirkwood, running on gamely against the rail, finished close up and just got the better of Royal Command for third.

She was ridden to lead at the quarter-mile marker, was headed briefly as Cybele Eria rallied, but was ridden out to reassert inside the final furlong for a cozy one-length win. SUBORICS RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

Trainer Andreas Wohler's first string stable jockey, Andreas Suborics, has been taken seriously ill with haemorrhaging blood vessels in his brain. Suborics suffered a horrific spill at Frankfurt on April 23, but kept on riding. He fell again last Saturday at Gelsenkirchen, but rode again on Monday where he scored in both the main events on the card. He then claimed to be suffering from severe headaches later on Monday and he was subsequently rushed to the hospital. It is estimated that Suborics will be out of action several weeks.

EDDERY MOVES TO GERMANY

Young trainer Marco Lucke pulled off a sensational coup last Monday when he announced that former top British-based Paul Eddery is to become his new stable jockey. "People thought I was pulling their leg when I told them, but I am very happy to have won such a top class man for the job." Lucke is based at Hoppegarten and currently trains a string of approximately 40 horses. He also made a strong impression with his first starters and winners this season which are mostly middle class handicappers. Eddery is said to want to leave Dubai as soon as possible to take up his new position.

BLOOD SAMPLES STOLEN FROM ROME RACETRACK

Blood samples taken from winning jockeys and horses at last Sunday's Classic meeting in Rome, including those of the G2 Premio Parioli (2000 Guineas) and G2 Premio Regina Elena (1000 Guineas) were stolen from the Capanelle racecourse Monday night. Thieves broke into the racecourse complex, opened a secure box containing all the samples and later discarded the samples and associated materials in a field close to the racecourse. The tests were originally due to be sent to a Milanese veterinary laboratory for testing last Tuesday. Sunday's winners were re-tested on Tuesday morning but should there be a positive reading as a result of the re-testing procedure, then nothing can be done as trainers are allowed to treat their horses for lameness and soreness after racing. Further reports indicated that Mario Masini of Scuderia Colle Papa, for whom Davide Umbro (Ity) (In The Wings {GB}) won the Parioli, has declared that if necessary he will give his share of prize money to the racecourse in order to organize a better security system. Masini, president of the Italian Owners Association, has recently been elected the new UNIRE council as thoroughbred racing's representative.

GUINEAS WINNER TO TACKLE FRENCH EQUIVALENT

Xua (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}), winner of last Sunday's G2 Premio Regina Elena (1000 Guineas) will tackle the French equivalent, the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, on her next start. The first French distaff Classic of the year will take place at Longchamp May 14.
