DERBY 126: A LEGEND IN THE MAKING

Not since 1981 had a winner of the Wood Memorial gone on to victory in the Kentucky Derby. Not since 1979 had the favorite worn the blanket of roses. Not since 1967 had a horse which failed to win at two improved so dramatically that he proved to be the best three-year-old in the land on the first Saturday in May. But Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector) doesn't have time for history. Sent off as the 2-1 favorite in the 126th Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs, the brilliant bay added to his own legend yesterday, turning a perfect trip into an impressive 1 1/2-length victory over 11-1 Aptitude (A.P. Indy). "The racing gods smiled on us," said trainer Neil Drysdale, who was participating in the Derby for the first time in the same week which saw him elected to the Hall of Fame. After being beaten by a neck in his December debut at Hollywood, Fusaichi Pegasus made quick work of maiden and allowance company before stepping into a stakes and besting The Deputy (Ire) (Petardia {GB}) (14th in the Derby) by three-quarters of a length in the Mar. 19 GII San Felipe S. Next it was off to Aqueduct and the GII Wood Memorial where, despite pre-race antics which delayed the start, the talented but temperamental colt cruised to a 4 1/4-length score and firmed as favorite for the Derby. He played the role perfectly. After breaking toward the inside from post 15, the $4 million Keeneland July yearling saved all the ground around the first turn and rode the rail down the backstretch, had hole after hole open for him as he raced through the final bend, finally swung out as they came into the stretch and sailed home under only the slightest encouragement. "I just gave him a love tap to the tail and a couple of shoulder spans so he didn't get to gawking and looking and let somebody come and get him," jockey Kent Desormeaux, who rode Real Quiet to win the '98 Derby, said. "When I said go, he took off like you wouldn't believe and the race was over." Spectacular Bid, the last favorite to win, went on to take the Preakness, but could do no better than third in the Belmont. It was the same story for Pleasant Colony, the last Wood winner to taste Derby success. As for Proud Clarion, the 30-1 shot who shocked the crowd in '67, he himself foiled a Triple Crown bid, as Damascus was third in the Derby before victories in the last two jewels. But who needs history lessons when you have a flying horse? (More Derby coverage, p2)

KING'S CORONATION IN 2000 GUINEAS

Bursting from the pack with a furlong to run, King's Best (Kingmambo) thrilled the Newmarket crowd with a brilliant finish to win yesterday's G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas by a widening 3 1/2 lengths over 7-2 favorite Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat). Giving Sir Michael Stoute his fourth 2000 Guineas winner, the bay rewarded the bettors who had backed him down to 13-2. His clearly delighted trainer said, "This horse has always been very exciting. He is one of those Thoroughbreds with a lot of nervous energy...he's a horse I really, really love, but it was just a question of channeling those nerves." Having impressed when winning his maiden at Newmarket last August, King's Best went on to confirm that promise when successful in the Listed Acomb S. in equally awesome style. That run was followed by a first defeat in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October, but there were valid excuses for the reverse. He went to post far too freely, wouldn't settle in the race and ran with his tongue over the bit. He redeemed his reputation to some degree when second to Umistim (GB) (Inchiner {GB}) in the G3 Craven S. over this course and distance Apr. 20. "He just got a little uptight and upset on Dewhurst day," Stoute said. "We didn't get him to the Craven as cool as we would have liked, but today, although he sweated, it didn't bother me. He never jogged around the ring, he walked all the time." Having raced on unsuitably soft ground in the Craven, King's Best returned to the scene of that test and was a spectacular winner of Britain's first Classic. Likely sprinter Primo Valentino (Ire) (Primo Dominie {GB}) led the way at a good pace in what was a rough race. He was followed by Zoning (GB) (Warning {GB}) and Giant's Causeway, with King's Best and Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) reserved in the rear. Going into the dip, Giant's Causeway staked his Classic claim to take the lead, but King's Best had made eye-catching progress onto the heels of the leaders and showed awesome acceleration to settle the issue in an instant. Giant's Causeway kept on well, but could not match the winner's kick while holding off a determined Barathea Guest. Although not definite for the race, the winner is quoted as low as 5-1 favorite (with Corals) for the June 10 G1 Vodafone Derby. Distant Music (Distant View), the 11-2 second choice, was rated early, made a bid a quarter mile out, but couldn't sustain it and finished eighth. ON TO THE PREAKNESS FOR THE ALSO-RANS?

Trainer Bobby Frankel, who has yet to win a Breeders' Cup or Triple Crown race, still had to be pleased with the performance of his Kentucky Derby runner-up Aptitude (A.P. Indy). Third in the Apr. 15 Gil Wood Memorial last time out, he closed from the back of the pack to get second and Frankel said, "Maybe I'll win one of these days." But it won't be the Preakness, at least not this year. "I think as the distance goes on, he'll get even better," he said, adding, "We'll skip the Preakness and head for the Belmont. Someone would have to put a gun to my head to go to Pimlico, and nobody's going to do that." Trainer Todd Pletcher, who saddled a quartet, saw Impeachment (Deputy Minister) close from 19th to get third and More Than Ready (Southern Halo), who pressed the suicidal splits of :45 4/5 and 1:09 4/5 set by Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo) (16th), hold very well for fourth. "I'm proud of all these horses," he said. As for the Preakness, he remarked, "We won't rule anything out, but we won't commit to anything yet, either."

Wheelaway (Unbridled) loomed boldly to take the lead between calls in the stretch, but weakened late to be fifth. "It was a good performance," trainer John Kimmel said. "We'll see what happens down the road, how he comes out of it, and see whether or not we're good enough to go into the Preakness or if we'll wait for the (June 10) Belmont. My inclination is probably to wait for the Belmont." The Godolphin entry of China Visit (Red Ransom) and Curule (Go for Gin) ran sixth and seventh, respectively. Jockey Frankie Dettori, aboard China Visit, said, "At the three-eighths pole I really thought we were going to win. He was really in the bridle. He just ran out of steam at the three-sixteenths pole." The Team Lukas entry was nowhere to be found, with Exchange Rate (Danzig) running 12th, High Yield (Storm Cat) finishing 15th and Commendable (Gone West) beating just two in 17th. "They ran flat today for whatever reason," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "You know, there is always an explanation of some kind. I was disappointed in all three, because they all trained so well for the race." Lukas has no immediate plans for the trio. GI Santa Anita Derby winner The Deputy (Ire) (Petardia {GB}), the second choice at 9-2, was never in the hunt and finished 14th. "He just didn't fire," trainer Jenine Sahadi said. "[Jockey Chris McCarron] said that he seemed to be struggling, but we don't know why just yet. He looks like he came out of the race okay." As for the future, she said, "He has been going pretty good the last four months. We'll go home and regroup and get ready for things later in the summer."

JULEP JUBILATION "When I laid eyes on the colt, I knew he was going to be a Derby winner," Fusao Sekiguchi, speaking through an interpreter, insisted after watching his $4 million baby Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector) romp home in the $1,338,400 Kentucky Derby. "It's very difficult to express my feelings in words," he added. "Right now my mind is just spinning and spinning." The Japanese owner did have the presence of mind to assure Americans that the Derby winner's future lies in his native country. "Mr. Prospector was a treasure for the United States," he said, "so his progeny should remain in the U.S. as well." For the immediate future, the Kentucky bred will remain at Churchill, preparing for the May 20 GI Preakness S. at the Kentucky track before heading to Pimlico.

When Petrushka went to Newmarket for her Guineas trial in what was only her career second outing in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. Apr.18, she carried with her a reputation bolstered by glowing gallops reports and she duly trounced a quality field containing Seazun (2nd) and Auntie Rose (3rd), as well as Halland Park Girl and Princess Ellen. For any of those to turn that form around, the favourite will have to suffer a major reversal, such was her authority that day. However, Seazun was giving away three pounds as a penalty for her G1 Cheveley Park S. success last year and was unlucky in running, so she could be closer. Godolphin, who returned to Newmarket this week, are represented by Bintalreef. A maiden winner on her lone official start at Deauville last October, the filly won her Dubai trial, imposing a 4 1/2-length defeat on the highly regarded Teggiano (Ire), and looks the contender most likely to trouble the top picks.

Manndar showed he belonged with top company when he finished a strong third to Dubai Millenium (GB) in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 18 and was third in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange Sept. 18. He shipped to California and ran fourth in the G2 Oak Tree Derby, then ran a huge race to finish second in the G1 Hollywood Derby. His hard luck continued when he ran third by 1 1/2 lengths to top California turf star Brave Act (GB) in the GII San Gabriel H. Jan 1. Given a three-month break after that effort, he came back to be fourth in the GII El Rincon H. Apr. 8. Sent off the 5-1 fourth choice here, Manndar sat just two lengths off a slow pace, split horses going into the far turn to take the lead, accelerated into the stretch and had plenty left to hold off the late run of Falcon Flight (Fr). "He's the kind of horse that you just let do his running and go on about his business," winning jockey Corey Nakatani said. "He was in a little tight into the first turn, but got into his stride about the half-mile pole and then marched on." Looking ahead, trainer Beau Greely said, "We'll consider the Arlington Million (GI, Aug. 19) now...it's awfully tempting at $2 million. There's also the Charles Whittingham Classic (GI, May 29 at Hollywood Park) that we'll think about. I don't want to run him a ton...I'm thinking about five quality races for the rest of the year." The runner-up outdueled veteran Yagli for the place.

Sydney Cup cont.

Tie The Knot's (Nassipour {Ire}) bid to notch a third consecutive Sydney Cup came to an agonizing end as the combination of 60 kilograms and a soft track took its toll. The gallant stayer finished nine lengths from runaway Melbourne invader Streak, who came off a fourth in Tie The Knot's St. Leger last week to power from the rear for a determined win here. Dual Group 1 winner Sharscay, written off by many, flashed home late to just miss. Winning jockey Steve King conceded he had major doubts leading into this race, but trainer Robert Smerdon was always confident. "[Streak] did a few things wrong last time and I thought 'if he does that again he won't win,' but Robert assured me he would improve and he was spot on. It is a real training feat," King said. "He stretched out well. He is a funny horse--he can pull a bit, and usually horses who pull don't finish off two miles." Tie The Knot's jockey Shane Dye said, "He tried his heart out, but the combination of the big weight and the wet track told. He's done a fantastic job, he's a fantastic racehorse. On that [ground], it is not 3200 metres, it is more like 3600 metres, and he had nothing left at the furlong."

Dark horse Georgie Boy stole the Queen Elizabeth S. from Sydney's top guns on a day fittingly billed as Judgment Day at Randwick. A tried New Zealand purchase by the obscure American stallion Garcia, he gave young gun trainer John Size his second Group 1 win for the autumn carnival, following Al Mansour's (Aus) win in the George Ryder S. last month. Georgie Boy led from the barrier rise and crept away from the field at the top of the straight to win comfortably from G1 Adelaide Cup hero Cronus, with grand campaigner Referral a further half-head away third. "He has always had a lot of ability, but he couldn't get enough weight to run in the good races and he missed a run in the Doncaster," said Size. "But I thought his last run in the All-Aged S., hanging on for second to Sunline (NZ), was tremendous, as did everyone else, and as the week went by and the track got a little wetter things looked better and better." An historic tilt at three Queen Elizabeth trophies came unstuck for Intergaze (Integra {Aus}), who struggled from the 200-metre mark after racing on the pace and found it impossible to match Georgie Boy's sprint home, finishing seven lengths away in sixth. Hire (Aus) (Canny Lad), sensationally backed from 7-2 to 9-4 favourite, struggled on slow going to finish more than 10 lengths from the winner.

Assertive Lad and Clonmel gave Gai Waterhouse a quinella in this event. "Once again he proved his superiority over the best two-year-olds in Australasia," the trainer said. "He's just such an exciting horse. He'll go to the paddock now for a well-earned rest and will come back as a great three-year-old. He has a great turn of foot, he can race anywhere in the field and has a big future ahead of him." Added jockey Shane Dye, "He was fit enough to win the [Golden Slipper, where he was third], but the pace of the race on the day was farcical and didn't suit him. He will only get better and is a definite Cox Plate horse in the spring." The colt has now won five of his seven starts, including the Magic Millions in January, and while he is going to the sidelines for a spell, Clonmel will head to Brisbane for the G1 T. J. Smith S. June 12.

Considered a Triple Crown prospect before running third in the GIII Derby Trial and then faltering to be 11th in the Sir Barton S. on the Preakness undercard, Straight Man returned from a six-month hiatus to finish second by a 1/2 length in a his Dec. 4 prep for the GI Malibu S. The bay came back at 17-1 in the seven-furlong Malibu and, rated just off the early pace, he was in the running every step of the way and missed by just a neck to Love That Red. Sixth stretching out for the GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup H. three back, Straight Man returned from another rest to wire a two-other-than allowance going seven eighths at Santa Anita Mar. 31. With a local bullet in tote, the four-year-old went right to the front under jockey Jorge Chavez, repulsed a challenge from favored Kimberlite Pipe (Take Me Out) at the top of the stretch, then held off the late-running Mula Gula for his first added-money score. Said winning trainer Bob Baffert, "He is so much better on the lead by himself. When he shows up, he can really run."

Ruby Surprise, winner of the GIII Turfway Breeders' Cup H. in 1999, returned from a four-month absence to take a money allowance event at Oaklawn Park before finishing one length back in third in the Carousel H. at Hot Springs Apr. 8. With the scratch of Bourbon Belle, it appeared the race would be devoid of speed, but a three-way battle for the lead developed and forced fractions of :22 and :44 2/5 as Ruby Surprise waited in midpack and favored Honest Lady was in her customary position in the rear. Leaving the far turn, jockey Joe Judice angled Ruby Surprise out three wide for run, took over from Swingin On Ice (El Prado {Ire}) at the eighth pole and held off the late run of Honest Lady for the 16-1 surprise. Said victorious trainer Bob Holthus, "She got beat the second time we ran her at Oaklawn, but she had a lung infection. We got that cleared up and she's been training well. She loves this track."

It took five starts before Big E E broke his maiden Jan. 29 at Aqueduct in what was his first start with new trainer James Jerkens. Never out of the money under Jerkens' care, he most recently took a mile allowance at Aqueduct by six lengths. The 7-2 third choice sat five lengths off the scorching pace of :21 4/5 and :43 4/5 set by Precise End and Port Herman, rallied three wide under jockey Herbie Castillo Jr. entering the stretch and surged to the front as the leaders gave way. Precise End was vanned off following the race with an injury to his right front leg. Jerkens said, "We had no set plan going into the race, we were just going to play it by ear. When you have a good jockey, you can leave it up to him. We've figured him to be a miler or middle distance horse. That's what his breeding and conformation suggest. We'll look at the GII Peter Pan (May 27 at Belmont, 1 1/8m) for his next start."

Fourth in both the Furl Sail H. and the Sixty Sails H. at Fair Grounds in January, Don't Be Silly was laid off for three months before resurfacing in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 15. In that race, she showed speed but absolutely folded late to finish sixth, beaten 15 1/2 lengths. Dismissed off that effort at 30-1, the bay mare sat off the fast pace set by Pricearose, angled to the outside in the stretch and rolled home a clear winner over the late charging Really Polish. Jockey Jorge Chavez said, "It was a big surprise for me to win this race. I knew I was going to be one, two or three in the beginning, but I didn't know about the end. She ran very, very good today."

Spindrift won two out of three of the Maktoum Challenge Rounds at Nad Al Sheba last year on the main track, but had failed to return to that form in 2000. He was third in the Jebel Hatta S. on the turf at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 5 and was most recently third in the Godolphin Seven Stars H. over the main track Mar. 16. Ignored at the windows in his U.S. debut, the Irish-bred bay was reserved near the back of the pack behind the good pace set by Middlesex Drive, found running room along the inside on the turn, came out for the stretch run and rallied late to get up for the win. "He was a little fractious before we loaded, but once we were in the gate he was fine. He just took himself far out of it and once I got him in the clear he took off," said jockey Jean-Luc Samyn. The 2-1 favorite Beckon the King (Ghazi) finished well back in eighth with no apparent excuse.

Purely Cozzene scored his first stakes victory last time out with a front-running win in the La Puente H. at Santa Anita Apr. 2. The chestnut colt was made the 6-5 favorite to make it two in a row. Vying for the lead on the outside, he put a head in front on the second turn and kicked clear in the stretch to ring up a length tally. "This horse is very fast from the gate," winning jockey Victor Espinoza said. "The problem is trying to relax him a little bit, because he wants to go as fast as he can. Then, at the five-eighths pole, my saddle slipped--that caused me a bit of trouble. I had to stand up and try to push the saddle back a little. But he was able to finish really, really strongly. This horse is improving. He still pulls hard, but not nearly as hard as he used to, and that helps him finish better." The colt goes next in the GIII Cinema H. at Hollywood June 10.

Tenacious, gutsy and consistent are words that have often been used when describing Pipalong and it is not common that those words are misplaced. Once again displaying her trademark qualities, she battled gamely in the closing stages to thrust her nose in front in the shades of the post for her first Group win. Trailblazing Perryston View (Primo Dominie {GB}) headed the field from fellow frontrunner Afaan (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and Kier Park as Pipalong tracked the leaders in sixth. Kier Park seized the initiative in smooth style at the furlong marker, but could not pull away from his rivals and Pipalong, under pressure from at least the quarter-mile marker, came with a gallant final thrust put her head in front inside the final 50 yards. "She's a star, she'll be the sprint queen this year," trainer Tim Easterby said. "If it is soft and over six furlongs, she won't be beaten."

The expected favorite, last year's Japanese champion two-year-old Eishin Preston (Green Dancer), was forced to the sidelines after suffering a fractured left front leg, leaving this a wide-open affair. Machikane Hokushin, the morning-line favorite at 3-1, was second to the champ in the prep for this test, the Apr. 8 G2-Jpn New Zealand Trophy Yonsai S. He looks for his first graded-stakes win, but trainer Hidekazu Asami said, "He has done well since his last race. He is on his toes and ready to go again." A close-up third in the New Zealand Trophy Yonsai S. last out, Agnes Digital is 4-1 in the early betting. "He likes the counter-clockwise course at Tokyo," trainer Toshiaki Shirai said of the colt, who is two-for-three at Tokyo. Eagle Café captured a Group 3 race in Japan in February, but finished seventh after a two-month layoff on the NHK Mile Cup prep. Trainer Futoshi Kojima is not discouraged, however, saying, "He is ready for this race. It has ben our main target of the year. I'm not worried about his last start, because he was coming off a short layoff. It was just a prep for him. I know the Tokyo course is more suitable for him, and we'll send him over there in the best condition possible." He is 7-1 on the morning line. The filly Sweet Orchid, 6-1, has never finished off the board and captured the G3-Jpn Crystal Cup last time out Mar. 12. "We'll have to see if she can get the mile," trainer Kazuo Fujisawa said. "She needs to be rated."

Odds-on choice Affirmed Success bounced back after finishing 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint to end his 1999 campaign with a five-length win in the GI Cigar Mile over this track and has started just once since, posting a half-length score in the Feb. 21 GI General George H. at Laurel Park. The six-year-old gelding has been first or second in all seven starts at the Carter distance and finished second to champion-to-be Artax in last year's edition of the race, which was run in a track-record 1:20. "Form-wise, I would say he is the best he's ever been," trainer Rick Schosberg said. "He did have a great four-year-old season, and he closed out last year winning a Grade I, but he's doing super now." Brutally Frank rides a three-race winning streak into this event. The son of champion sprinter Groovy won the seven-furlong Toboggan H. in March and the Apr. 15 GIII Bold Ruler H. at six furlongs last time out.

Four-time Grade I winner Excellent Meeting makes her first start since finishing ninth in the Aug. 22 GI Del Mar Oaks. The filly finished a respectable fifth, beaten only 2 1/4 lengths by Charismatic in last year's Kentucky Derby, but was eased after losing touch with the field in the GI Preakness. She rebounded to take the GI Princess S. and was second in the GI Hollywood Oaks before trying the turf unsuccessfully at Del Mar and then heading to the sidelines. Four-for-five at the Hawthorne distance, she has been working brilliantly for her return.

Germany's first Classic of the year showcases two from Peter Schiergen's yard, who are set to dispute favouritism. Sommernacht was the leading juvenile filly last year and has already won over this course and distance, taking the Listed Dusseldorfer Stutenpreis Apr. 15. Mosquera, unbeaten in three starts, has had things very much her own way and was the comfortable winner of the Listed Kolner Fruhjahrs-Stuten-Preis at Cologne Apr. 8. Stable jockey Terence Hellier has chosen the latter, but the former is likely to be more adept at handling the track. Another candidate is the English-trained Crimplene, who finished third in the G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) at Rome last Sunday. Margay has good form in Ireland and, on her most recent start, finished third in the Listed 1000 Guineas trial at Leopardstown Apr. 16.

THOROUGHBRED DAILY NEWS

☆ AMERICAN EDITION ☆

Sunday, May 7, 2000

MANISTIQUE RETIRED Multiple Grade I winner Manistique (Unbridled) tore a tendon during a workout at Hollywood Park Apr. 23 and has been retired, the Daily Racing Form reports. The five-year-old captured the GI Vanity H. and the GI Santa Margarita Invitational H. last season and added the Feb. 13 GI Santa Maria H. in her lone start this year. She goes to the breeding shed after winning 11 of her 15 career starts and earning $1,311,800, but plans for her future are uncertain. She was campaigned by 505 Farms, whose owner, Marshall Naify, died last month at age 80. Commenting on the plans for the Naify estate, which includes a farm in Kentucky and more than 200 horses, attorney Joe Wolberg told the Form, "All we are doing now is exploring alternatives, from the most extreme, where you sell everything, to the other extreme, which is selling nothing. No decision has been made yet."

BRAHMS BOUND FOR U.S. Brahms (Danzig), who was purchased for $1 million at the 1998 Keeneland July Sale, has been sold again and will head to America to continue his racing career, according to the Daily Racing Form. The dark bay started his juvenile campaign in Britain for owners Michael Tabor and John Magnier, breaking his maiden at Fairyhouse in Ireland before running second in the G3 EBF Futurity at The Curragh, third in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket and second again in the G1 Dewhurst S., also at Newmarket. He returned to his native country for his 1999 finale and finished seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The colt has been bought by an American partnership which includes Vinery, it was reported. He will arrive in the U.S. later this month and is to be trained by Elliott Walden.

Unbridled Time was the easy winner of his lifetime bow at Keeneland Apr. 19, recovering from a slowish start to lead past every pole en route to a 3 1/2-length victory. Unfavorably drawn in the 12 hole, the gray was again sluggish at the start, but was second, just a length off the lead after two furlongs in :21 4/5. Sent to the front midway on the turn by Pat Day, he continued strongly to the wire and was gathered up late by his rider to win in track record-equaling time.

Bright Valour was two for three in California as a two-year-old before injury sidelined him for 14 months. He returned with a bang, taking a Fair Grounds allowance by two lengths in fast time, but bounced next time out, finishing ninth in an Apr. 7 Keeneland allowance. The 3-1 third choice was rated well off a quick pace, moved up on the outside on the turn and unleashed a run with 100 yards left to get up in the final strides.

Yankee Victor has rounded into career form in his last three races, beginning his streak with a three-length victory over GSW Adonis at Gulfstream Feb. 5. Second by a length in the Gill Creme Fraiche H. Mar. 11, the dark bay was a "wind-aided" 3 3/4-length winner of the Gill Westchester H. in his most recent start. The heavy favorite sprinted to an early lead along the inside and drew away to win as the jockey pleased. The winner goes next in the GI Met Mile at Belmont May 29.

RAMRUMA RETURNS LAME

Ramruma (USA) (Diesis {GB}), who faltered to finish last as the 11-4 favourite in the G2 Sagitta Jockey Club S. at Newmarket Friday, came up lame, reported The Sporting-Life. "She pulled a muscle and was quite lame afterwards," said trainer Henry Cecil of the dual Oaks victress. "There will be another day for her."

Today, Newmarket, England, post time: 3:05 p.m.

7 (6)	Naval Affair (Ire)	Last Tycoon (Ire)	Stoute
8 (5)	Titian Angel (Ire)	Brief Truce (USA)	Allen

All carry 120 pounds except Hypnotize, 125.

Sir Michael Stoute has a solid chance of providing the winner given that he saddles two, with both making their seasonal debut in this traditional Oaks trial. Naval Affair won in good to soft conditions when breaking her maiden on the second attempt at Kempton last August and is the choice of stable jockey Kieren Fallon. Hypnotize was a game winner of the Star S. at Sandown last July and finished fifth in the G3 Prestige S. at Goodwood on her final start as a juvenile. Godolphin's selection from three original entries is Melikah. She is the daughter of two Arc winners and is officially unraced, but that may be a touch misleading as she has already tasted the experience of the Nad Al Sheba trials. She is reported to have shaped well when finishing second to Dignify over a mile in a good time and therefore merits respect. Barry Hills also has two runners and G2 Rockfel S. runner-up Clog Dance, with the benefit of a previous run this season, would appear to hold the better chance of his pair.

2--Selking (Ire), 117, c, 3, Selkirk (USA)--Stay That Way (Ire), by Be My Guest (USA). £4,820.

3--Now Look Here (GB), 129, g, 4, Reprimand (GB)--Where's Carol (GB), by Anfield (Ire). £2,410.

Margins: HD, 3, HF. Odds: 9-1, 9-2, 9-4.

Also ran: Ramooz (USA), Desert Knight (GB).

Unplaced in a Newmarket handicap on her only start this season, Arctic Char returned to the form of her second-place finish in the Listed Prix de Saint-Cyr at Deauville last October and took her first stake with a display of pure tenacity. She tried to make all and led from the outset ahead of Selking and Now Look Here. Arctic Char surrendered the lead to that pair approaching the final quarter mile, but did not drop away as may have been expected. Selking fought off the challenge of Now Look Here and looked set for victory entering the final furlong, but David McCabe was persistent aboard Arctic Char and his mount rallied gamely. Answering all of her rider's questions, Arctic Char kept on resolutely against the rail and got her head back in front of Selking in the dying strides for a deserved win.

ISLAND HOUSE (IRE) (c, 4, Grand Lodge {USA}--Fortitude {Ire}, by Last Tycoon {Ire}), settled at the back of the six-horse field and was switched to the wide outside three furlongs out as Mutamam (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) swept into the lead. With a furlong remaining, Island House came to challenge Mutamam and these two had the race between them, with Island House proving the stronger by a half. Lifetime Record: 10-3-2-0, £27,281. WELLBEING (GB) (c, 3, Sadler's Wells {USA}--Charming Life {NZ}, by Sir Tristram {Ire}), an entry for the Vodafone Derby, broke his maiden here on his second lifetime start Apr. 18. Sent off the 7-4 favourite, he justified the support with this comfortable victory. Settled in third for the first 10 furlongs, he was switched to the outside of the leaders two furlongs out and quickened well to grab the lead in a few strides and was clear at the furlong marker. Despite drifting to his left, he was always in command and ran out a two-length winner from the previously unbeaten Gargalhada Final (GB) (Sabrehill {USA}). The winner is a 1/2 to Kingfisher Mill (USA) (Riverman {USA}), MGSW-GB, $210,328. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, £12,192.

SALIM (GB) (c, 3, Salse {USA}--Moviegoer {GB} {GSP-GB}, by Pharly {Fr}), well beaten at Yarmouth on his only previous start last October, was sent off a 10-1 shot against several much more fancied runners. Settled in third, he was switched to the outside two furlongs out and soon collared the warm favourite Tigre (GB) (Mujtahid {USA}). He went clear, but then had to be ridden right to the line to see off the fast-closing Thermal Spring (GB) (Zafonic {USA}) by three-parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,306

Ridden strongly, the 95,000gns TAHOU yearling regained the lead a furlong out and then ran on well to win by 1 1/4 lengths from Solitary (GB) (Sanglamore {USA}). The winner is a 1/2 to Eurostorm (USA) (Storm Bird {Can}), MSW-Ire & MSP-US, $103,316. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,258.
