A SPECIAL KING?

The handicap ranks were shaken up a month ago as K One King (Apalachee) made a rousing five-wide move to take the GI Oaklawn H. Apr. 8, leaving him unbeaten in two 2000 starts. Purchased by Madeleine Paulson as a Derby prospect last year, K One King went to the sidelines with a knee chip following an eighth-place finish in the Run for the Roses, the only unplaced effort of his career. He returned with a 3 3/4-length allowance score at Gulfstream Feb. 24 before leaving his rivals flat-footed at Oaklawn. However, all five of his opponents that day have returned to face the four-year-old colt, who tuned up for this outing with a sharp five panels in :59 at Churchill. Golden Missile (A.P. Indy), flying the banner for Frank Stronach, has been pointing for this race since the winter when he finished second in the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream. The big chestnut then ran fifth in the GIII New Orleans H. behind Allen's Oop (Nines Wild), but returned with a game second behind the wind-aided, front-running Yankee Victor in the GIII Westchester H. at Aqueduct Apr. 8. The hard-knocking Budroyale (Cee's Tizzy), still in search of his first Grade I score, came up empty when fifth in the Oaklawn H., but has been working well since that effort, getting a bullet for seven furlongs in 1:25 3/5 at Santa Anita May 8. The seven-year-old had finished first or second in his six previous starts prior to Oaklawn.

GOLDEN CLEOPATRE

Having won two of her six juvenile starts, Gold Round (Ire) (Caerleon) showed enough maturity to finish third to Lady Of Chad in the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp Apr. 24 on her first sophomore start. Afforded a patient ride in yesterday's G3 Prix Cleopatre from Olivier Doleuze, she challenged wide in the straight to take her first group race in comfortable style. Green Image (Fr) (Green Tune), acting as the pacesetter, was ridden to take the lead soon after the start, followed by Seattle Bay (Opening Verse) and Gold Round as Darakiyla (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) settled last of the nine runners. By halfway Gold Round had been shuffled back through the field as Green Image continued to set the pace. As the field was taken into the straight, Green Image began to fade and Seattle Bay took over the leader's mantle entering the final quarter mile whilst Gold Round was taken to the outside and began to make her move. Gold Round's persistent run took her to the lead approaching the final furlong as Darakiyla's sharp maneuver toward the rail impeded the fading Green Image. Gold Round drew clear inside the last half furlong for a comfortable win as Seattle Bay kept on for a safe second. Darakiyla was somewhat fortunate to survive a stewards enquiry and stayed on at one pace to retain third without managing to mount a serious threat.

8 Country Coast	Country Pine	L Meche	10-1
9 Country Only	Carson City	Castillo	5-2

Herbie Castillo will attempt to win back-to-back runnings of the Illinois Derby, having taken this event last year with Vision and Verse. His mount this year is Country Only, who will have to break quickly from the outside post in order to utilize his free-running style. The bay colt set the pace in the Gill Wood Memorial S. and held well for fourth behind divisional luminaries Fusaichi Pegasus, Aptitude and Red Bullet. Harlan Traveler defeated Big Numbers in a Keeneland allowance last fall and has finished third in each of his 2000 starts, both in graded stakes. Third sprinting behind Trippi in the Gill Swale, he rallied for third in the Gill Lexington at Keeneland Apr. 22. Big Numbers missed by a neck two back in the Gill Rebel S. to stablemate Snuck In, but found himself four wide in the Lone Star Derby Apr. 22 and finished third.

In a field loaded with early speed, Imperfect World and Dream for a Moment have both shown the ability to come from off the pace. A Group winner in France, Imperfect World came charging from midpack in taking a money allowance by two lengths at Keeneland Apr. 20. Dream for a Moment makes her stakes debut, but has won her last two, a Feb. 23 Gulfstream allowance and an Apr. 12 Keeneland allowance. The chestnut filly drilled three panels in a bullet :36 May 7. Foil will go postward in defense of her title, but has not run since a second in a Belmont allowance last July.

The classy Puerto Madero has not won since the 1999 GI Donn H., but has been training well in the mornings. Third in the Big Cap, the six-year-old finished well when fourth behind Dubai Millennium (GB) in the Dubai World Cup Mar. 25. Skimming has improved since switching to the dirt and captured his stateside debut over the Santa Anita main Apr. 21. The Juddmonte colorbearer broke his maiden over the Wolverhampton all-weather track in January.

In recent times, a race with both Godolphin and Ballydoyle entries has been perceived as a straight match. Thus, the promise of Dubai Two Thousand's Longchamp maiden success last October, together with the smart form Aidan O'Brien's Apollo Victoria showed at Gowran Park when narrowly beaten by subsequent Listed scorer Grand Finale (Ire), does nothing to dissuade the observer of this belief. However, the arrival of Gerard Butler on the British racing scene has served as a warning shot to the big stables, and his Saddler's Quest looked a very useful prospect when thrashing four rivals in a conditions race at Kempton Apr. 22. Luca Cumani saddled the winner of this race in 1998 with High-Rise (Ire), who went on to G1 Epsom Derby glory, and he provides Trumpet Sound, who won a Brighton maiden May 4. The winner here will likely figure prominently in the betting for the Epsom Classic in June.

Bevo returned triumphantly from an eight-month hiatus. Winner of the Gil Saratoga Special in August, the chestnut colt was a determined winner of the GI Futurity over this track last September, defeating Greenwood Lake and More Than Ready. Sidelined by a knee chip following that effort, he had been working bullets for his comeback, most recently going :59 May 2. Breaking alertly from the rail, the crowd's choice set a pressured pace and dug in gamely to defeat his elders.

ALBERT THE GREAT (c, 3, Go For Gin--Bright Feather {SP, $105,870}, by Fappiano), a 1/2 to Watch the Bird (Rahy), SW, $228,080, took five starts to break his maiden, but did so in style last time out when he added blinkers and took the field from gate to wire to win by a widening 10 lengths going 1 1/8 miles at Keeneland Apr. 22. Off at 9-10, the bay once again went right to the lead and this time turned back a challenge from 6-5 Perfect Cat (Tabasco Cat) at the top of the stretch before drawing off to best that rival by 2 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 6-2-1-2, $71,270.

ROGAN JOSH RETIRED Rogan Josh (Aus) (Old Spice {Aus}), winner of last year's G1 Melbourne Cup, has been retired from racing, according to Sporting Life. The seven-year-old gelding suffered a tendon injury several weeks ago. "If we gave him enough time, he could make it back to the track, probably next year, but I would never forgive myself if he broke down again," said part-owner Wendy Green. "What Rogan Josh achieved last spring has given me some wonderful memories that will last a lifetime. He's been so good to me--now I just want to look after him." Rogan Josh, a four-time Australian graded stakes winner, won 13 of 38 starts and earned A$2,683,692.

This G1 Epsom Oaks S. trial offers fascinating insight into the power of the big British stables, with Sir Michael Stoute's powerful three-year-old team represented by Karaliyfa, still a maiden after an eye-catching third in a Newbury maiden in September. John Dunlop has two entries, but Dream Quest could be the more interesting contender, having won a hotly contested maiden at Sandown Apr.28. The Lambourn presence dominates the race, and Barry Hills also provides two. Although they are relatively unexposed types, there was a lot to like about the way Banco Suivi went through the soft ground in her maiden Kempton at Apr. 24.

RECORD PRIZEMONEY FOR HAYDOCK

Haydock Park will boast a total of £1.35 million this season, a record for the track. Sept. 2 will see the track's richest day of racing ever, with the G1 Stanley Leisure Sprint Cup as the highlight. Race-course managing director Richard Thomas said, "To ensure that we continue to attract the highest calibre horses throughout the summer we have invested once again in an increase in prize money."

GUINEAS RUNNERS GOING IN DIFFERENT DIRECTIONS

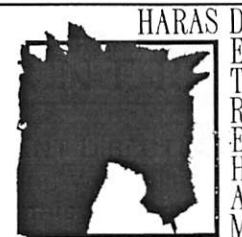

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum, who will be well-represented in French group races this weekend, had mixed news on G1 1000 Guineas S. winner Lahan (GB) (Unfuwain {USA}) and Misraah (Ire) (Lure {USA}), who was unplaced in the G1 2000 Guineas S. "Lahan has come out of the race well, and although no decision has been made, she is a possible for the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas S. (The Curragh May 28) or the G1 Coronation S. (Ascot June 23)," said the sheikh's racing manager Angus Gold. "The news of Misraah is not good, as he was wrong behind, again. We'll have to see what comes out of the tests." The sheikh will run Kutub (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) in the G1 Prix Lupin on Sunday and Alshakr (GB) (Bahri {USA}) and Ekraar (USA) (Red Ransom {USA}) in the G1 Poule de'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Poule de'Essai des Poulains, respectively.
