PREAKNESS 125: CHILD'S PLAY FOR PEGASUS?

From the morning-line odds maker to the man on the street, people are already conceding today's Preakness to Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector). But trainer Neil Drysdale is not about to predict a victory. "I'm never confident," Drysdale said. "I might be optimistic, but not confident." And despite the fact that High Yield (Storm Cat) crossed the finish line 24 lengths behind the flying horse in the Kentucky Derby, his trainer, D. Wayne Lukas, isn't ready to surrender the second jewel in the Triple Crown. "I don't think horsemen and some of the public are as ready to concede the Preakness and Belmont to him as the press has," Lukas said. "You win one or two and you think, or hope, that you can go all the way. But you've got to remember that he has to run in these races. That's why the Triple Crown is here and why it's so tough." The forecast for rain could make the task even tougher. Fusaichi Pegasus has been tested over an off track once, winning the GII Wood Memorial over a strip labeled wet-fast, but has yet to run over a truly muddy track. "The track in the Wood was off and he has trained on an off track," Drysdale said. "Mr. Prospectors generally handle an off track." But he added, "It always makes you a little bit apprehensive. Off tracks can change by the minute. Every time you go into new territory, it's a concern." Captain Steve (Fly So Free) was at his best when he tried the slop, leading every step in the GII Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland last October. "I think he moves up on a wet track," trainer Bob Baffert said. Eighth in the Derby and winless in four starts this year, the chestnut colt will have to improve to get a third Preakness trophy for Baffert. Red Bullet (Unbridled), runner-up in the Wood, joins the Triple Crown fray. But trainer Joe Orseno has his eye on more than the Preakness prize. "I we were able to win the Preakness and beat [Fusaichi Pegasus] in another good race later in the year, we might have a chance to be three-year-old champion," he said. (Preakness field, p2)

HERE'S MUD IN YOUR EYE

She had to wrestle both a muddy track and arch rival March Magic (Evansville Slew) at Pimlico yesterday afternoon, but Jostle (Brocco) just wouldn't be beaten, drawing off to take the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. by 2 1/2 lengths. The performance confirmed her status as a mudlark; the dark bay filly also captured the GII Demoiselle S. in the mud at Aqueduct last November--besting March Magic by a head--and finished just a length behind that foe over a sloppy Big A strip in the Apr. 21 GII Comley S. last time out. Let go at 5-1 off that effort, Jostle tracked 9-2 Cash Run (Seeking the Gold) through six furlongs, swung to the outside to grab the lead on the far turn and held 2-1 March Magic at bay down the lane for her fifth win from nine starts. "She took me to the lead and I grew concerned because she started idling once she got there," jockey Kent Desormeaux, who will try to score the second leg of the Black-Eyed Susan/Preakness double with Fusaichi Pegasus this afternoon, said. "I got even more concerned when March Magic came up on the outside of me, but...she just took off at that point without me even asking her. I knew it was going to take something miraculous to beat her." The filly will be pointed for the 1 1/2-mile GI Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park July 22.

 With Sendawar (Ire) rerouted to tomorrow's G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp, Aljabr can take full advantage of his old rival's absence. Godolphin's colt was second behind Sendawar in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot last June and fourth to him in the G1 Prix du Moulin at Longchamp last September. In between he produced a sterling effort to win the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood, with Almushtarak six lengths back in third. With the Godolphin bandwagon starting to get into gear, he will be expected to justify favouritism. The boys in blue have won the two latest renewals of this race with supposed second strings and their Worldly Manner is the number two choice this time. It would be folly to expect him to line up as pacemaker and, although his recent official form is not spectacular, he was third of eight to Aljabr in a private trial in April. Indian Lodge has progressed with each run this season, following up his impressive win in the Apr. 19 G3 Earl Of Sefton S. at Newmarket, with another success in the Apr. 28 G2 KLM Mile at Sandown.

With a long run to the turn here, the bay mare should get back on track in defense of her title. New York-bred Belle Cherie blossomed last autumn, winning three graded stakes. She returned with a fourth in a 6 1/2-furlong money allowance Apr. 28 at Belmont and gets a more suitable distance today.

May 29. The big Cal-bred, who worked six furlongs in 1:13 3/5 Monday at Santa Anita, has been bedded down in D. Wayne Lukas' barn. "He seems to have bounced back from the Dubai race very quickly," said trainer Tim Pinfield. "We had him in Dubai a month before that race so he would be ready for it. The Met Mile is the next major goal for him. He hasn't missed a day of training and he's in the best form of his life." Other possible starters in the Met Mile are Affirmed Success (Affirmed), Honest Lady (Seattle Slew), More Than Ready (Southern Halo), Richter Scale (*Habitony) and Yankee Victor (Saint Ballado).

MONTJEU TO RETURN AT THE CURRAGH

Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), winner of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, G1 Irish Derby and G1 Prix du Jockey Club last season, is expected to make his 2000 debut in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 28, according to published reports. Trainer John Hammond told the Racing Post, "Montjeu was worked at Chantilly [Thursday] morning with two lead horses. He's really well and is pleasing me. The colt appears to be on top of his game." Away since running fourth in the Nov. 28 G1 Japan Cup, the four-year-old has won seven of his nine career starts. As for after the Gold Cup, Hammond said, "We'll see how he comes out of that race before making any further plans."

BEAT HOLLOW BACK IN DERBY PICTURE

Prince Khaled Abdulla's Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) is back in the reckoning for the June 10 G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom after working satisfactorily at Newmarket yesterday. He is currently being held as 6-1 second favourite for the race with Ladbrokes. The Henry Cecil-trained colt, winner of the Listed Green Ridge Stables Newmarket S. May 5, has, like many of his trainer's string, been under a cloud in recent weeks; a veterinary check-up had found mucus in his lungs, and he was not entered in next week's Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood. There are very few options left for him before Epsom and it now seems likely that, instead of racing again before the Derby, he will undergo a serious racecourse gallop, but no time or track has yet been decided for the prep.

BARATHEA GUEST POSSIBLE FOR IRISH GUINEAS

John Guest's Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), winner of the G3 Lanes End Greenham S. in April, is still being considered for the May 28 G1 Entenmann's Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh. But he would have to be supplemented to the race at a cost of IRE£25,000, and Guest and trainer George Margarson could instead send the colt to the G1 Epsom Derby despite doubts about his stamina. "There's a chance he might stay the mile and a half," said Margarson, "and there's only one Derby. It's a difficult decision to make, but it's very tempting to let him take his chance." The colt was third to current 3-1 Derby favourite King's Best (USA) in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas.

Bookmakers quote Whitefoot as a 16-1 shot for the G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom June 9 after this battling victory. Winner of a Sandown maiden in September, she stepped up to be third in the Listed NGK Spark Plugs Zetland S. at Newmarket in October. On her only previous start this term she finished fourth to this week's G2 Dante S. winner Sakhee (USA) in the G3 Thresher Classic Trial at Sandown Apr. 29. Coming from the in-form Gerard Butler stable, she was well backed here, but looked to have plenty to do a half mile out as Circle Of Light led from Broadway Legend (Ire) (Caerleon {USA}). She was still well off the pace two furlongs out, but made good progress on the wide outside and was the only filly to quicken inside the final furlong, where she swept past Circle Of Light to win comfortably. Butler said: "The Oaks has always been on her agenda, no matter what happened here, and this trip was on the short side. We are only a small stable and nobody seems to take us seriously, but they will."

2.10 Newbury, Woodcote Conditions S. (Class B),

£15,860, 3yo, 6f 8ydsT, 1:14.49, gd/fm. JARN (GB) (c, 3, Green Desert {USA}--Alkariyh {USA}, by Alydar {USA}), an 11-2 chance, was settled at the rear of the nine-runner field as Russian Fox (Ire) (Foxhound {USA}) set the pace. He made good headway on the outside from halfway, led approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to hold the late surge of Winning Venture (GB) (Owington {GB}) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £13,991. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Estate Company Ltd; T-Ben Hanbury; J-Richard Hills.

2.50 Nottingham, 'Try Race Sponsorship At Nottingham' Classified S. (Cond.) (Class C), £10,355, 3yo, 1m 54ydsT, 1:47.50, gd/sf.

TUMBLEWEED TOR (GB) (g, 3, Rudimentary {USA}--Hilly {GB} {SW & GSP-GB}, by Town Crier {GB}), the 3-1 favourite, led from flagfall three lengths in advance of Risk Free (GB) (Risk Me {Fr}). He was ridden from the quarter-mile marker, increasing his lead to four lengths, and drew clear inside the final furlong for a very easy five-length success. The winner was a 9,200gns TADEF weanling and a 12,000gns TAOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 6-1-0-2, £9,948. O-The Sixth Tumbleweed Partnership; B-D P Martin; T-Brian Meehan; J-David McCabe.

2.40 Newbury, Highclere Stud Fillies' Conditions S.

Always travelling well, she drew clear from the furlong pole to record an easy two-length win from the running on Fair Princess (GB) (Efisio {GB}). Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, £11,439. O-C J M Partnership; B-Lostford Manor Stud; T-Richard Hannon; J-Dane O'Neill.

4.40 Newbury, Furlong Platinum Club Maiden S. (Div 1) (Class D), £6,220, 3yo, 1mT, 1:41.95, gd/fm.

+ TAKRIR (IRE) (c, 3, Bahri {USA}--Ice House {Ire}, by Northfields {USA}), a 20-1 outsider on his racecourse debut, raced in midfield early on. At halfway he made good progress on the outside of the field, quickened well two furlongs out to catch another debutant, Hobb Alwahtan (GB) (Machiavellian {USA})--himself a half-brother to Dubai Millenium (GB)--and was ridden out to score a comfortable 3/4-length victory from the more experienced Grey Eminence (Fr) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). The winner was an 80,000gns TADEF weanling and a 95,652gns GOOC1 yearling. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,043. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Mrs A J Brudenell; T-John Dunlop; J-Richard Hills.

5.10 Newbury, Furlong Platinum Maiden S. (Div 2) (Class D), £6,180, 3yo, 1mT, 1:41.67, gd/fm.

FOREIGN SECRETARY (USA) (c, 3, Kingmambo {USA}--Misinskie {USA}, by Nijinsky {Can}), sent off at odds of 4-1, was held up at the rear early on, made good progress over two furlongs out and then hit traffic problems. Once he found an opening he stayed on well under strong driving to grab the lead close home and win by a half length from the well-backed 5-2 shot Argentan (USA) (Gulch {USA}). The winner, a $100,000 KEENOV weanling and $385,000 KEESOP yearling, is a 1/2 to Space Cruiser (USA) (Foolish Pleasure {USA}), MSW-Nor, MSP-GB; Afjan (USA) (Woodman {USA}), MG1SP-GB, $123,325; Minds Music (USA) (Silver Hawk {USA}), SW & G1SP-GB, $149,716; and Turning Wheel (USA) (Seeking the Gold {USA}), GSW-Fr, $142,092. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,442. O-OBill Gredley; B-Flaxman Holdings Ltd; T-Sir Michael Stoute; J-Kieren Fallon.

3.20 Nottingham, EBF Colwick Park Novice S. (Class D), £5,200, 2yo, 6f 15ydsT, 1:16.60, gd/sf.

BRAM STOKER (IRE) (c, 2, General Monash {USA}--Taniokey {Ire}, by Grundy {Ire}) travelled sweetly in fourth as Carraban (Ire) (Mujadil {USA}) led at a good pace. He made smooth headway from the quarter-mile pole, led with 1 1/2 furlongs to run and was ridden clear inside the final furlong for a comfortable 2 1/2-length victory as the 8-13 favourite. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, £7,270. O-Allessandro Gaucci; B-Ronnie Boland; T-Richard Hannon; J-Richard Hughes.
