CAN THEY FLY?

A field of 10 three-year-olds will go to the post for today's GII Peter Pan S. at Belmont Park. For some, it is a chance to prove they are fast enough to join the cream of their crop in the June 10 GI Belmont S. Globalize (Summer Squall) was kicked off the Triple Crown trail—literally. The winner of the Mar. 25 GII Turfway Park Spiral S. (his lone previous try at the Peter Pan distance) and runner-up in the Apr. 22 GII Coolmore Lexington S., he was kicked by the stable pony while training for the Kentucky Derby and had to skip the race. "It has healed nicely and we haven't missed a work with him," trainer Jerry Hollendorfer said. "He's been really happy at Belmont." He added, "It's always nice to have a fresh horse in these races...but we would have liked to run in the Derby." The chestnut has been first or second in seven of his nine career starts. Unshaded (Unbridled), winless in two starts at two, has come around this season, going a perfect three-for-three to date. He made his stakes debut in the Lexington and rallied for a three-length score, and blew out for this race with a bullet five furlongs in the mud at Churchill May 23. "He's always been real professional," Sara Dunham, assistant to trainer Carl Nafzger, said. "He has beaten some nice horses and this race should serve as a nice gauge of his ability." Runspastum, fifth making his stakes bow in the Spiral after taking two in a row at Gulfstream Park, ran his record since the addition of blinkers to three-for-four with a win in the Apr. 22 Federico Tesio S. at Pimlico last time out. Five horses have used a win in the Peter Pan as a stepping stone to a Belmont S. triumph: Gallant Man, Cavan, Coastal, Danzig Connection and A.P. Indy.

LUCKY 13 IN IRISH 1000

A full field of 13 fillies will answer the call for tomorrow's G1 Entenmann's Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. While the British-trained horses have a fine record in this Classic, providing six of the winners in the 1990s, Ireland knows how to defend itself when it comes to having a top-class filly in the race. One such prospect could be Michael Grassick's Preseli (Ire) (Caerleon), who will bid to follow the likes of Ridgewood Pearl (GB) and Kooyonga (Ire), Classic Park (GB) and Tarascon (Ire), who triumphed here for the home country during that decade. Rated the joint top juvenile filly of 1999 after success in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. here in September, she returned to give weight and a beating to her rivals in the Listed 1000 Guineas Trial Leopardstown May 14. That was a fine performance, as Guineas hopefuls Storm Dream (Ire) (Catrail) and Theoretically (Theatrical {Ire}) finished behind her that day. Storm Dream was receiving seven pounds, and although she went under by a short head, she will have to improve to figure here. She has been sold to Lael Stables in a deal negotiated by The Curragh Bloodstock Agency. After her Guineas run, she will continue her racing career in the U.S. The British challenge is spearheaded by the G1 English 1000 Guineas S. second and fourth, Princess Ellen (GB) (Tirol {Ire}) and Seazun (Ire) (Ziten) respectively, who chased home Lahan (GB) at Newmarket May 7. The latter boasts two-year-old form that includes success in the G1 Cheveley Park S., while the former's connections will be encouraged by the fact that three fillies who were second in the British 1000 went on to win the Irish equivalent in the last decade. Godolphin, who have yet to add this race to their tally, have supplemented Newmarket maiden winner Meiosis (Danzig), and although she looked very impressive that day, she faces a large task to overcome inexperience here. Aidan O'Brien provides five entries, among which is the progressive Chiang Mai (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who came back this year to beat She's Our Mare (Ire) by a short head in a conditions race here Apr. 9, maintaining her unbeaten record in the process. Torgau, a Group 2 winner and twice Group 1 placed in Britain and Ireland last season, made her 2000 bow against the toughest company in the May 7 G1 English 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Sent off at 25-1, she made a middle move, but flattened out to be seventh. The bay gets Lasix for her U.S. debut. Another import, Islay Mist, looks to go three-for-three on the year. A conditions winner on both turf and dirt in Britain, the bay was fourth in a stakes on the Fairplex main track in his U.S. bow last September, but came back after a six-month layoff to take an $80,000 claiming race Mar. 15 and then rallied to success in the Apr. 28 GIII Seniorita S. at Hollywood Park.

Blazing Glory!

First time back in 8 months, G1 Winner CONFESSIONAL streaked to victory, leading the field through a half in :44 3/5 to win by a length. Now 4 wins, 4 times placed, $420,043

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

ERNIE SAMUEL DEAD Ernie Samuel, one of the most influential and powerful forces in Canadian Thoroughbred racing, passed away Thursday night. He was 69. Born in London, England, Samuel, a vice president of the Board of Directors of The Ontario Jockey Club, founded Sam-Son Farm in 1972. Sam-Son has received 39 Sovereign Awards for its horses, including Horse of the Year six times, leading Owner five times and top Breeder twice. In 1991, Samuel received an Eclipse Award in the U.S. as Owner of the Year. His horses have earned three Eclipse Awards: Dance Smartly (1991), Sky Classic (1992) and Chief Bearhart (1997). In addition, Sam-Son Farm bred and owned two Canadian Triple Crown winners--Regal Intention (1988) and Dance Smartly (1991). "Ernie Samuel was one of the giants of Thoroughbred racing, both in Canada and internationally," said David Willmot, president and CEO of The Ontario Jockey Club. "He was a treasured friend, a man of great integrity and compassion and a tireless contributor to our sport in many capacities. His accomplishments in racing are immeasurable and our sense of loss is just as profound."

LORD FLASHEART TO CALIFORNIA One of this season's better French-trained three-year-olds, Alain de Royer-Dupre's Lord Flasheart (Blush Rambler), has reportedly been sold to American owner Edmund Gann and will continue his racing career in the U.S. after one final run in Europe. The gutsy winner of the 11-furlong G2 Prix Hocquart at Chantilly May 8, he was a leading candidate for this year's G1 Emirates Airline Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly June 4, but will point instead to the nine-furlong G1 Prix Jean Prat Emirates Airline on the same card. He will then ship to California, where he will be stabled at Bobby Frankel's barn.

1--PENTATONIC, 121, m, 5, Cure the Blues--Aljadam, by Anticipating. O-Sherry Sheila; B-Dr Herb Sherry (NY); T-Richard Schosberg. Lifetime Record: SP, 14-5-2-2, $167,969.

2--Nikita, 119, m, 5, Slew City Slew--Threat of Peace, by Hold Your Peace.

3--Slightly Scarlet, 119, m, 5, Scarlet Ibis--Harvard Mistress, by Harvard Man.

Margins: 2 1/4, 5 3/4, 6 1/4. Odds: 1.40, 17.40, 5.00.

Pentatonic came back after more than six months on the shelf to be second in the restricted Broadway H. at Aqueduct Apr. 8. Sent off the favorite in her latest try, the bay bested open allowance company at Belmont May 11. The slight choice to put them back-to-back, the New York bred shadowed the pacesetters from the outside and drove to the front at the top of the lane to win going away.

6th-BEL, $42,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/4m, 2:09, ft.

PROCESSION (f, 3, Private Terms--Duty Dance {MGSW & GISP, $432,114}, by Nijinsky II), a 1/2 to Party Manners (Private Account), GSW, $227,640; and Errant Escort (Devil's Bag), SP, $175,040, was sixth on the Keeneland dirt in her debut Apr. 15 and finished fourth on the Belmont turf in her next try May 12. Trying her luck at a distance on the main track, the bay sat just off the leaders early, moved to the front after a mile and pulled away to a two-length tally as the 9-10 chalk. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,720.

2--Kutsa, 119, c, 4, Stuka--Spankey's Seconds, by Wig Out.

3--Hangin in There, 117, c, 4, American Chance--Primed to Win, by Irish Tower.

Margins: 3/4, HF, 1 1/4. Odds: 0.80, 3.30, 4.60.

Sun Bull won two in a row over this track last year, then shipped to Del Mar, but with little success. Off the board in three Southern California starts, including a seventh-place finish in the Aug. 14 Gil Pat O'Brien H., the $410,000 KEESEP yearling was then given nearly nine months off. He came back May 3 and led every step en route to a 5 3/4-length allowance score at Churchill and picked up his fourth straight over the surface here. Rated off sizzling fractions this time, the odds-on choice swept to the lead as they came out of the turn and had enough left to get the better of Kutsa at the wire.

8th-CDX, $47,200, Alw, 3yo, 1m, 1:35 3/5, ft.

HARLAN TRAVELER (c, 3, Harlan--Protostar, by Procida) was third in the Mar. 11 Gill Swale S. at Gulfstream to start the season and came back to be third again in the Apr. 22 Gil Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland, but showed little in the May 13 Gil Illinois Derby last time out and was seventh. Bouncing back against a softer field, the 2-1 shot closed from the back of the pack to take a short lead at the top of the stretch and battled 6-1 Gilt Trip (Gilded Time) to the wire before earning a half-length decision. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 10-3-0-4, $134,795.

ABOVE THE ODDS (f, 3, Wild Again--Doppio Espresso {GSP}, by Java Gold) was second in five of her first six starts, but finally broke through with her first victory, winning at Keeneland Apr. 9. She wasted no time making it two in a row, wiring a Churchill allowance field last time out May 4. Off at 3-5 to add another to the skein, the dark bay put a head in front after a half, turned back challenges after a half and again at the top of the lane and then had to dig down deep for the final drive to best 25-1 Stars In Your Eyes (Pentelicus) by a half length. James McKnight Honored:

Canadian jockey James McKnight has been presented with the 2000 Avelino Gomez Memorial Award. The award has been presented annually since 1984 to someone who has made significant contributions to the sport of Thoroughbred racing; the recipient must be Canadian-born, Canadian-raised or have been a regular rider in Canada for over five years. McKnight, who began riding in 1968 at the age of 17, has over 2,800 lifetime wins for career purse earnings of over $25 million.

Million-dollar Baby on Work Tab:

Songandaprayer (Unbridled's Song), who was purchased for $1 million by basketball's Bobby Hurley at the Fasig-Tipton Calder Two-year-old in Training Sale two months ago, worked a half mile in a rapid :46 at Monmouth Park yesterday morning. "He's getting close to his first race," trainer John Dowd said. "I'm looking forward to seeing him run."

DERBY HOPES TO THE RACES FOR WORKS

King's Best (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}), winner of the G1 2000 Guineas S. at Newmarket May 6, will travel to Sandown racecourse for a canter Monday morning as part of his preparation for the June 10 G1 Epsom Derby S. He will be accompanied by a stable companion over seven furlongs at 7:30 a.m. The colt has suffered close examination after losing his chance at the start of the G1 Dewhurst S. by being too keen in the race, which had led to doubts about his temperament in the lead-up to the G1 2000 Guineas S. He dispelled those doubts with a remarkable winning performance, but he was described by trainer Sir Michael Stoute as "a horse with a lot of nervous energy." Joe Mercer, Racing Manager to owner Saeed Suhail, commented: "He's just a very good racehorse, and his temperament is wonderful. He's going down to Sandown as part of his preparation, and at Sandown he can hear the mics. As for the Derby, he's bred to stay a mile-and-a-half, and we're hopeful he'll stay and handle the track." Another trainer preparing to go to the races with his Derby hopefuls as part of the training plan is Henry Cecil, who takes Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), Wellbeing (GB) (Sadler's Wells USA) and Bien Entendu (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) to Yarmouth Wednesday. The colts had all scoped with mucus in the lungs, which meant that they missed their racecourse trials in preparation for the G1 Epsom Derby S., but they are back at work now. Cecil said: "They might work in between racing, but it hasn't been decided yet. I don't want to drag them around the country, but I want to put them on a course."

Yesterday's Results:

7.35 Pontefract, Parfett's Cash & Carry Conditions S. (Class C), £10,300, 2yo, 6fT, 1:19.10, gd.

AFFARATI (GB) (g, 2, Emarati {USA}--Affairiste {Ire}, by Simply Great {Fr}), sent off the 9-4 favourite, was held up on the rail in fourth early as Open Warfare (Ire) (General Monash {USA}) took the field along at a steady pace. Boxed in with no room for his challenge as they turned into the straight, Egan managed to get him out to come wide with his run and he picked up well to chase Wilson Blyth (GB) (Puissance {GB}), before heading him with a hundred yards to go, going away to win by three parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £7,154. O-David Scott; B-Roy Matthews; T-Les Eyre; J-John Egan.

2.30 Haydock, Leahurst Conditions S. (Class C), £10,200, 3yo/up, 1m 30ydsT, 1:45.70, gd/sf.

DUCK ROW (USA) (g, 5, Diosis {GB}--Sunny Moment {USA}, by Roberto {USA}), sent off the second favourite at 9-4, raced prominently early in second behind the pace-setter Tactful Remark (USA) (Lord At War {Arg}). As the pace started to increase on the turn into the home straight, he took command of the race, only for the favourite Exeat (USA) (Dayjur {USA}) to loom up-sides with over two furlongs remaining. As they fought out the last quarter-mile, the winner had the most to give under strong driving, pulling out all the stops to win by three-quarters-of-a-length, with 11 lengths back to the third. Lifetime Record: G1SP, 12-3-0-3, £51,032. O-Duke Of Devonshire; B-Cambreumont Limited Partnership; T-James Toller; J-Simon Whitworth.

4.30 Haydock, Eagle Park Maiden Fillies' S. (Class D), £5,860, 3yo, f, 11f 200ydsT, 2:43.76, sf.

RIYafa (IRE) (f, 3, Kahyasi {Ire}--Riyama {Ire}, by Doyoun {Ire}), sent off the 2-1 on favourite, was settled in third early as Titain Angel (Ire) (Brief Truce {USA}) set a funereal pace. Fallon brought her to challenge with two furlongs remaining and, letting her down slightly, she cruised to the front before putting enough daylight between herself and Clepsydra (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) to allow her jockey a few glances over his shoulder. She came home the facile three-quarters-of-a-length winner. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £4,807. O-H H The Aga Khan; B-H H The Aga Khan's Studs S C; T-Sir Michael Stoute; J-Kieren Fallon.

2.25 Chantilly, Prix de Puits Aux Chiens (Class D) (Cond.), FF140,000, 3yo, c/g, 1 5/16mT, 2:12.70, gd. MISTER KICK (IRE) (c, 3, Linamix {Fr}--Mrs Arkada {Fr} {SW, G1SP-Fr}, by Akarad {Fr}), the 11-10 favourite, was settled in third as River Pink (Fr) (River Mist {USA}) led and travelled smoothly into the straight while Caldera (USA) (Tremolino {USA}) took over in front. He was pushed along from the quarter mile marker, ridden strongly at the distance and kept on well to lead close home for a hard-earned short neck win. Lifetime Record: 4 starts, 1 win, 3 places, FF144,000. O-Jean-Luc Lagardere; B-SNC Lagardere; T-Andre Fabre; J-Olivier Peslier.

3.25 Chantilly, Prix de Brunehaut (Class D) (Cond.), FF140,000, 3yo, f, 1 5/16mT, 2:15.90, gd. BLACK TRUFFLE (USA) (f, 3, Mt Livermore {USA}--Mariella {USA} {GSP-US & GB}, by Roberto {USA}) was soon racing smoothly in third on the outside as Nicosia (Ger) (Subotica {Fr}) led at a steady pace. She moved into a challenging second with two furlongs to run, came under pressure soon after and was ridden out strongly to turn down her rivals' best effort to record a neck success from Veiled Wings as the even-money favourite. Lifetime Record: 5 starts, 1 win, 3 places, FF143,000. O-W McAlpin; B-Paradigm Thoroughbreds Inc; T-Carlos Laffon-Parias; J-Dominique Boeuf.

BUNKER HUNT HORSES ARRIVE IN FRANCE

Nelson Bunker Hunt, who is making a return to the European racing scene, has shipped three two-year-olds to be trained in France by his longtime friend Maurice Zilber. Three colts arrived at Roissy Charles de Gaulle Airport Tuesday afternoon and were transferred to Zilber's yard in Chantilly. The three colts who will carry the famous check colours are Blowing Rock (USA) (Kris S {USA}), Hilton Head (USA) (Pleasant Colony {USA}) and Mexia (USA) (Kris S {USA}). They will be joined by a further three horses who will be shipped after completing the necessary period of quarantine in the U.S.

GUILLOT MAKES QUICK RETURN

Sylvain Guillot has made a quick return to the saddle after suffering a heavy fall at Saint-Cloud May 12. Originally thought to be out of action for up to a month after breaking his sacrum, he returned to riding with a low-profile one race at Longchamp Thursday, finishing second aboard Irish Dream (Fr) (Double Bed {Fr}) in the 10-furlong Prix Pantin, a conditions race for three-year-olds. He had three further rides at Chantilly yesterday afternoon but could do no better than fifth.

Today at Hollywood Park:

6th Race, $51,000, Allowance, 3yo/up, 1mT CANALETTO (GB) (c, 4, Royal Academy {USA}--Diavolina {USA}, by Lear Fan {USA}) was ambitiously placed in his first start, the 1998 G3 Futurity S. at the Curragh, where he finished ninth. He reappeared in a Leopardstown maiden in July, 1999 and followed that up with a fifth in the Listed Platinum S. Aug. 2 at Cork. Rested since, he has worked sharply for his U.S. bow, races with the addition of Lasix here and will give handicappers some pause. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $4,462. O-Alvarez & Blue & Donn; B-Lady Richard Wellesley and Grange Nominees (GB); T-Mike Mitchell.

8th Race, Honeymoon H.-GII, $150,000, f, 3yo, 1 1/8m TORGAU (IRE) (f, 3, Zieten--Snoozy Time {GB}, by Cavo Doro {Ire}) won two of six starts in Great Britain, including the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket last July. She followed that effort up with a second in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at the Curragh, was then second by a head in the Sept. 28 G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket and was most recently seventh in the May 7 1000 Guineas S. at Newmarket in her lone start at three. Running with Lasix for the first time, the filly is the morning-line favorite under jockey Chris McCarron. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-0, $134,717. O-Heiligbrodt Racing Stable & Team Valor; B-B Kennedy (IRE); T-Jenine Sahadi.

8th Race, Honeymoon H.-GII, $150,000, f, 3yo, 1 1/8m SHERICAINE (IRE) (f, 3, Shernazar {Ire}--L'Americaine {USA}, by Verbatim {USA}) sports less stellar credentials than fellow European firster Torgau (Ire), having most notably put together a three-race win streak at Cagnes-sur-Mer this winter. Each of those wins came at a mile and a quarter, but she just missed at this distance in her final European outing, the April 5 Listed Prix Finlande at Longchamp. She, too, starts with Lasix. Lifetime Record: 12-3-4-3, $49,011. O-Red Baron's Barn; B-Kildaragh Stud (IRE); T-Darrell Vienna.

★ AUSTRALIA ★

Oliver To Ireland

Australia's most talented rider, Damien Oliver, has happily forfeited his daily surfing expeditions to fulfill a lifelong ambition--he'll partner Urban Ocean (Fr) (Bering {GB}) in the Tattersalls Gold Cup and Alluring (Ire) (Lure {USA}) in 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh this weekend for Aidan O'Brien. Oliver will be based in Ireland for three months. "After such a busy schedule in Australia, I've really enjoyed just riding out this week," he said. "It's great to get a couple of rides in races like these. Ballydoyle is an amazing set-up, different to anything in Australia, working horses up hills and in straight lines. You can see how much easier it is to get a horse ready for a staying trip whereas in Australia we tend to use races to bring horses to peak fitness. It's much more conducive to that here."
