GOOD AS GOLD

They don't get much better. Heritage Of Gold (Gold Legend), sent off the 9-10 favorite in yesterday's GIII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill Downs, put away pacesetter Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) in the final furlong and cruised away to a four-length score to remain undefeated on the year. "This was no fluke today," jockey Shane Sellers said. "As an older mare, she has come into herself." Now five, Heritage Of Gold was six-for-10 last year, winning the GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. on the main track and the GII Diana H. on the turf. She ended the season with a third-place finish behind Beautiful Pleasure and Banshee Breeze in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, but no one has been able to beat her this year. Off for 4 1/2 months, the blaze-faced bay returned to take the Mar. 19 GIII Oaklawn Breeders' Cup S. and then the Apr. 9 GI Apple Blossom H. She ran into a favored Silverbulletday in her latest, the May 5 GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H., and posted yet another win despite a six-wide trip as the crowd's choice faded to fourth. Odds-on to add to her resume yesterday, she sat second while Silverbulletday set moderate fractions, was floated wide on the first turn and again as they raced into the stretch, but had little trouble taking over the lead en route to her fourth straight. The mare could get a rematch with Beautiful Pleasure in her next start, the July 30 GI Go For Wand S. at Saratoga.

French Derby cont.

Kutub and Ciro renew their rivalry for the third time this season and will likely vie for favouritism in today's G1 Emirates Airline Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. Kutub won their first encounter impressively when beating Lord Flasheart and Ciro in the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp Apr. 23. Ciro, winner of last year's G1 Grand Criterium, reversed placings with different tactics when he and Kutub next met in the G1 Prix Lupin at the same track May 14. But the pace of that race was not to Kutub's liking, although Ciro was a game and deserving winner. The extra distance today will be to Kutub's advantage and it will be no surprise to see placings reversed once more. Lord Flasheart, bound for the United States after this, comes into the equation on his Greffulhe run and gave the form a boost on his only subsequent outing when a battling winner of the G2 Prix Hocquart at Chantilly May 8. He has solid place claims for his European swansong. Holding Court, a FF250,000 supplementary entry, is another worthy of consideration based on his recent form. By a French Derby winner, he was a very impressive winner of the G3 Prix la Force at Longchamp May 18. That trial has been a useful pointer in recent years, with Dream Well (Fr) going on to win the Derby in 1998 and Nowhere To Exit (GB) finishing runner-up last year. All carry 128 pounds. *Odds by Victor Chandler.

Giovana, who missed 14 months after being blinded in one eye earlier in her career, was looking for her first Group win after finishing on the board in a pair of Group races in New Zealand this season, but as far as jockey Chris Munce was concerned, "She was half-pace all the way and I never felt like she was going to lose." New Zealand trainer Roger James is unsure whether the filly will head into next week's G1 Queensland Derby at Eagle Farm. "She hasn't had a hard run today and I think we might, but I'll wait and see how she is during the week," James said.

A game Reenact recorded a poignant win for his owners Geoff and Beryl White, carrying the same colours as his 20-year-old sire Marscay, who died three weeks ago following complications from surgery for colic. The late stallion picked up his 13th individual Group 1 winner with this sensational last-to-first victory. Despite drawing the extreme outside barrier in the 17-horse field, jockey Gavan Duffy was confident Reenact had the necessary class to win. "I knew he'd get a long way back from the alley, but I wasn't worried because I knew I was on the best horse," the jockey, who ditched his nascent training career to return to the saddle, told Australian Associated Press. "In the straight he was coming so quickly I knew he had it won even though he was a fair way off them." Geoff White believes the colt is poised to become Marscay's second Derby winner. "It's pretty obvious the way he gets to the line he's going to run a mile and a half at least," White said.

Globetrotting Running Stag, runner-up in this race last year, went on to an impressive success in the GII Brooklyn H., shipped to England to be fifth in the G1 Eclipse S., then returned to New York to win the GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H. and run fourth in the GI Woodward S. He headed back across the Atlantic for his next outing, running second in a conditions race at Lingfield, and finally flew to Sha Tin to run second in his 1999 finale, the G1 Hong Kong Cup. The United Arab Emirates was next on the itinerary, with another second in an allowance race before a seventh-place effort in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai World Cup. The bay came back to the States this spring and picked up a Belmont Park allowance score May 24. Sent off the MassCap favorite after the defection of Behrens, he tracked David through honest fractions, came with his challenge as they raced out of the turn and proved best. "I thought from the day I bought him that he was very special," trainer Philip Mitchell said. "I got such a buzz when I saw him. He's done everything I thought he would do. Who knows where this guy can go." Added jockey John Velazquez, who picked up the mount when Shane Sellers opted to stick with Heritage Of Gold, "I rode him about a year and a half ago and he was very green. He was just never completely focused on what he was supposed to do. He's a much more mature horse this year. He knows what he's supposed to do and he showed it today." While plans for the winner were not announced, trainer Richard Mandella said of his late-running runner-up Out Of Mind, "The horse ran a terrific race. We may have to supplement him to the [July 9] Hollywood Gold Cup."

Winner of the G2 Blanford S. in Ireland in her final start at three, Lisieux Rose was winless in five starts last season, ending the campaign with a third-place effort in her attempt to repeat in the Blanford. She made her U.S. bow after a 5 1/2-month layoff and was all out to take the GII Orchid H. at Gulfstream Mar. 5. The second choice to make it two in a row after the three-month break, the chestnut mare was sent right to the lead, set a slow pace on a clear lead, turned back the challenge of stablemate Orange Sunset (Roanoke) after a mile and drove home a decisive winner. "There wasn't a lot of speed on paper and the plan was to slow it down as much as possible," winning rider Jose Santos said. "When her stablemate came to her...I gave her a little more and she responded and drew off." The five-year-old will point for the GII New York H. July 15.

He belied those odds to grab the lead in the closing stages for a belated first Group 2 win. Watching broke well to dispute the lead with Continent (GB) (Lake Coniston {Ire}), but that pair where upstaged as Seltitude went to the front at half-way. Nuclear Debate was reserved in rear, but moved up with two furlongs to run. As the field approached the final furlong Watching, Seltitude and Nuclear Debate were almost neck and neck and it was Nuclear Debate who went to the front inside the final furlong. Unraced at two, Heliotrope captured the Ontario Colleen S. and a Keeneland allowance race at three, but saw her 1999 campaign end prematurely after a sixth-place finish in the Jan. 31 Super Bowl S. on the turf at Gulfstream Park. She came back after nearly 16 months on the shelf and finished fourth in an allowance at Woodbine May 20. Ignored in her second start off the layoff, the Kentucky-bred bay battled on the front end from the break, shook clear at the top of the lane and was stretched to the limit to hang on and take the tight three-way photo. "She just fought all the way," jockey Neil Poznansky said. "She's very game when she gets her race like that."

Highland Gold, blanked in seven tries last year, came back after a seven-month layoff and was dropped in against $55,000 claimers, winning that Golden Gate Fields affair Apr. 13. He moved back up the ladder for his second start after the extended absence and rallied to be second to Mr. Doubledown in the May 13 Oakland H. at Golden Gate. Given little chance to turn the tables here, the chestnut settled in third as 21-1 Dan's Groovy (Groovy) set a solid pace, but kicked it onto gear to take over in deep stretch and edge clear. Said jockey Chris McCarron, "[Trainer Jerry Hollendorfer] called me from up north...he just said, 'Try not to let him drop back too far. If you can keep him within four, five or six lengths of the leaders, then he'll have a better chance of catching them.'" Hollendorfer was not at Hollywood, as he headed to New York to supervise the final Belmont S. prep for Globalize. Mr. Doubledown, the 7-10 chalk, pressed the pace after bobbling at the break, but faded in the final strides to be fourth.

2--Flawly (GB), 126, f, 3, Old Vic (GB)--Flawlessly (Fr), by Rainbow Quest. O-Ecurie Ferdane; B-Dr Fern Krief; FF80,000.

3--Maeander (Fr), 126, f, 3, Nashwan--Massaraat, by Nureyev. O-Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Darley Stud Management; FF40,000. Margins: HD, 3, 5. Odds: 3.20, 6.50, 0.90.

Also ran: Seattle Bay, Skimra (GB), Meadowlark (Fr).

Second in her only juvenile start last year, Sadler's Flag has since made up for lost time with a couple of conditions wins to her name this season. She finished third to Volvoretta (GB) and G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Reve D'Oscar (Fr) in the G3 Prix Penelope at Saint-Cloud Apr. 12 before scoring a decisive conditons win in her latest start over this course and distance May 23. The filly raced keenly in the rear as Seattle Bay (Opening Verse) led on the wide outside, and was still at the tail of the field as Skimra (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) led into the straight. Flawly took over briefly approaching the final furlong as Maeander and Sadler's Flag made their bids on the outside and Maeander led at the distance, but a game Flawly battled her way back into the lead with 150 yards to run. She kept on gallantly, but had nothing left in the tank as Sadler's Flag ran on relentlessly to take the honours in the dying strides. Winning trainer Criquette Head said, "Sadler's Flag doesn't stop improving and the G2 Prix de Malleret at Longchamp June 25 could be a legitimate target." Maeander's dangerous looking effort petered out, but she ran on nonetheless to finish a clear third.

Riding high off a win last out in the May 14 G2 Keio Hai Spring Cup, favorite Stinger has a good chance to beat the boys again. Two-year-old champion in 1998, the daughter of Sunday Silence is coming of age, but her trainer, Kazuo Fujisawa isn't counting the winnings yet. "She has been growing up mentally," he said, but added, "I know that it won't be an easy race." Eagle Café is going against past history to try and be the first three-year-old to win the Yasuda Kinen. The Gulch colt has the slight edge carrying low weight in the race, which jockey Yukio Okabe says "is a good advantage. I'm sure he will be able to compete."

Happyanunoit closed out her 1999 campaign with a victory in the GI Matriarch over this course last November. The brown mare attempted to make all the running when returning in the GII Santa Barbara H. Apr. 23 at Santa Anita, but was caught late by Caffe Latte. That effort should set her up for the rematch. Caffe Latte has been impressive in both starts for new trainer Bob Baffert, winning an optional claimer before capturing the Santa Barbara. Astra steps up into Grade I company for the first time, but sailed through her conditions and comes off a win in the GIII Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 13 at Keeneland. Her lone career loss came at the hands of Tout Charmant, when caught four wide at Del Mar last August.

Berine's Son, runner-up to Bachir (Ire) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 14, will be seeking his first Group 1 race. He was running on well at the end of France's first Classic of the year and this extra furlong is sure to suit. The form bears the closest scrutiny given that Bachir added the G1 Entenmann's Irish 2000 Guineas to his record. It will not be plain sailing, however, with the presence of Suances posing a big threat. This Spanish-trained colt created a huge impression when easily winning the G3 Prix de Guiche at Longchamp May 18, and has since been the subject of a deal which will see him race in the United States. It has been reported that there is nothing to match him in Spain and he makes his last European start with a major chance. Purchased by Red Baron's Barn, he will head to California after the race to be trained by Darrell Vienna. Bach won the Listed Leopardstown 2000 Guineas trial over a mile Apr. 18 on his seasonal debut and suffered his first defeat in four starts when beaten a head by Sindar (Ire) in the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial S. over an extra two furlongs at the same track May 14. The Ballydoyle inmate could have been sent to a number of engagements since, but this is the chosen option and he merits the utmost respect.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

INGLIS SALE STARTS TODAY The Inglis Weanling and Broodmare Sale begins its four-day run today in Newmarket, Sydney. A total of 314 weanlings will be offered today, with a further 20 to go through the ring Monday. The first 27 mares in the dispersal draft of Australian Commercial Industries, a company formed by George Hofmeister when he purchased Segenhoe Stud (now Vinery Australia) in 1998, will also be sold Monday. There will be 853 mares on offer over the last three days of the sale. The sale had previously been held immediately following Inglis' Easter Sale, but its repositioning has provided the auction with extra exposure. With the move, the weanling catalogue has doubled, vendors have had more time to prepare their drafts and the catalogue has attracted more attention generally. Moreover, the later date has enabled buyers to have a glimpse at the efforts of first-crop progeny by shuttle sires such as Gold Fever, whose American Grade III winner Gold Mover has not gone unnoticed. Thirteen mares in foal to Gold Fever have been catalogued. Also offered during the sale will be the first Southern Hemisphere weanlings by shuttlers King Of Kings (Ire), Timber Country, Entrepreneur (GB), Spinning World, Desert King (Ire) and Fujikiseki (Jpn). From the broodmare offering, La Rose Noir (Aus) (Centaine {Aus}), in foal to Zabeel, (Lot 671); maiden mare Zastov (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) (Lot 670); and Flight To Fantasy (Aus) (Bluebird) (Lot 748), in foal to End Sweep, are expected to figure prominently. A total of 15 mares in foal to Flying Spur (Aus), eight in foal to Zabeel (NZ), seven to Danehill and 10 to Marscay (Aus) will also be sought after. First Southern Hemisphere season or freshman stallions represented by mares in foal include Distorted Humor, End Sweep, Favorite Trick, Gilded Time, Peintre Celebre, Red Ransom and Sandpit (Brz). A total of 502 mares sold last year for almost A$23.5 million, while 125 weanlings sold for A$2.9 million. A Baramul Stud dispersal brought the overall gross to A$28.5 million.

SPINNING WORLD TO WINDSOR PARK GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Spinning World (Nureyev--Imperfect Circle, by Riverman) will stand at Windsor Park Stud in Cambridge, New Zealand, relocating from Coolmore NSW for the Southern Hemisphere season. Intikhab (Red Ransom) was scheduled to stand at Windsor Park before suffering an injury. Studmaster Nelson Schick says he is more than pleased with Intikhab's replacement. The five-time Group 1 winner stood his first season at Coolmore in 1998 at A$50,000 and his first crop foals have averaged A$228,802.

ROBIN PLATTS RETIRES Jockey Robin Platts, inducted into the Canadian Hall of Fame in 1997, announced yesterday at Fort Erie Race Track that he is hanging up his helmet. The 51-year-old rider said, "I thought about it all week long. It was just time. Your heart has to be in it." Platts, who picked up his very first victory aboard Lily at Greenwood in November of 1966, was born in England. He captured the Queen's Plate four times, and was named the Sovereign Award-winning rider of 1979. As for future plans, Platts said, "I'll always be around horses. I plan on continuing to gallop in the morning."

Bet Me Best returned to the winner's circle for the first time since winning the GII Hutcheson S. in 1999. In his most recent outing, the chestnut was a good third to Big Jag in the Listed Dubai Golden Shaheen at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25. The heavy favorite contested the pace and held sway late.

8th-CDX, $47,200, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT, 1:42 4/5, fm.

WATCH (f, 3, Lord At War {Arg}--Watch the Time, by Timeless Moment) drew in off the A-E's to remain unbeaten on the grass. A winner of her turf debut over this course May 14, the 3-2 favorite stalked the pace, took command by the eighth pole and pulled clear by 3 3/4 lengths. She is a full to War Thief, GSW, $608,912; Stop Watch, SW & GSP, $348,813; and a 1/2 to Prime Meridian (The Prime Minister), GSW, $254,745 Lifetime Record: 5-3-1-0, $81,105.

Trainer John Gosden thought enough of Mount Abu to run him in top-class juvenile company last year, the colt finishing a short neck runner-up in the G3 Prix de Cabourg at Deauville in late July and sixth to champion Fasliyev (USA) in the G1 Prix Morny at the same track three weeks later. Fourth in a Newmarket conditions event in mid-April, he stepped up to win the Listed Sodexho Pavilion S. at Ascot May 3. Racing behind the leaders for much of the way here, he went for a wide gap over a furlong out, but after Winning Venture drifted in from the wide outside, he then became squeezed for room between Hot Tin Roof and Trinculo (Ire) (Anita's Prince {Ire}). Not to be deterred, however, he stuck his neck out bravely and ran on well to win on the line from Hot Tin Roof. Winning rider Robert Havlin said, "This colt is as tough as nails, a real battler. Perhaps being squeezed helped him as he had to battle hard. He really stuck his neck out well." Mount Abu now heads for the Royal Ascot meeting and a run in either the G3 Jersey S. June 21 or the G2 Cork & Orrery S. the following day.

After winning impressively by five lengths on his debut at Newmarket Apr. 20, Shibboleth was quoted at odds as low as 8-1 by some bookmakers for the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas but his owner and trainer decided he was not experienced enough to take his chance in the Classic. There had been rumours that his work at home had not been satisfactory, but he was always traveling well here. Fifth early, he quickened smoothly to grab the lead over a furlong out and lengthened away from the opposition to win comfortably. Prince Khaled Abdullah's racing manager Teddy Beckett said, "When he worked the other day his tongue slipped over the bit, so he had his tongue tied down today and experienced no problems. He's entered in the G1 St James' Palace S. at Ascot June 20 and we will certainly look at that race, but [trainer] Henry [Cecil] will obviously talk to the owner before any firm decision is made."

THREE GREEN LEAVES (IRE) (f, 4, Environment Friend {GB}--Kick The Habit {Ire}, by Habitat {USA}), sent off at odds of 9-2, gained her first victory since October 1998 here in a very tight finish with all seven starters in with a chance entering the final quarter mile. After hitting the front at the furlong marker, she looked set to win comfortably, but the unlucky Westender (Fr) (In The Wings {GB}), who had nowhere to go until the final 100 yards, flew home after finally finding a gap and only just failed to catch the filly, going down by a head. Lifetime Record: 17-6-1-2, £50,928

In a few strides he closed on the leaders and flew home to win comfortably by 3/4 lengths from another debutant, the well-backed 4-1 joint favourite Arhaaff (Ire) (Danehill {USA}), who had looked the probable winner until cut down by Volata, who now heads for a Group race at the Royal Ascot meeting in three weeks' time. Volata, a half brother to Mensa (GB) (Rudimentary {USA}, SW-HK), became the third winner for his freshman sire (by Danehill {USA}). He was a 20,000gns TADEF weanling and 37,000gns TAOCT yearling. Unseen for the first six furlongs, he made significant progress on the outside of the field and came to throw down his challenge over a furlong out and ran on well up the hill to win by a comfortable 1 1/2 lengths from Burning Sunset (GB) (Caerleon {USA}) who had looked the probable winner a furlong out. The winner, a 100,000gns TAHOU yearling, is a half to Special Nash (Ire) (Nashwan {USA}, GSW-Ity, $179,246). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £4,695.

RACES CANCELED AT CHANTILLY

Following a thunderstorm and torrential downpour at Chantilly yesterday, the last two races on the eight-race card were abandoned. Racing was delayed after the fifth race but the sixth race went ahead on rain-soaked ground. The going was changed from good to soft following the heavy rain. Conditions thereafter were considered unsafe and there was no alternative but to cancel the remaining races. They will be restaged June 9 at Maisons-Laffitte. No problems are foreseen for today, with the G1 Emirates Airline Prix du Jockey-Club card set to go ahead as planned.

+ RED CORAL (IRE) (f, 2, Fairy King {USA}--Coral Fury {Ire}, by Mill Reef {USA}) was sent off as the 8-13 favourite and always maintained a handy position until going into a clear lead with 1 ½ furlongs to run. She only needed to be pushed out to record a comfortable 1 ½-length debut success. Given ease in the ground she could be a contender for the G3 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 21. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, Ir£6,900. O-Manchester United Racing Club; B-Orpendale & Samac; T-Aidan O'Brien; J-Michael Kinane.

FIRST SON (IRE) (c, 3, Baratheia {Ire}--Turban {GB}, by Glint Of Gold {GB}), an 8-1 chance, raced in a prominent position throughout as Night Shadow (Ire) (Distinctly North {USA}) led but joined the leader with 1 ½ furlongs to run. He was pushed clear inside the final furlong for a snug two-length victory. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, Ir£6,210.

O-Neil Jones; B-Abergwaun Farms; T-John Oxx; J-Johnny Murtagh.

3.00 Naas, Irish Thoroughbred Breeders Supporting Naas Race (Cond.), Ir£8,160, 3yo/up, 7fT, 1:25.10, yl.

MURAWWI (IRE) (c, 3, Perugino {USA}--Pheopotstown {Ire}, by Henbit {USA}) bounced out of the gate to set the pace but was passed by On The Batter (Ire) after a quarter mile. He was pushed along to regain the lead approaching the final three furlongs and ran on well to the line for a comfortable five-length win as the even-money favourite. Lifetime Record: G1SP-Ire, 7-2-2-0, Ir£51,671.

5.00 Naas, Titus Livius Maiden, Ir£7,680, 3yo/up, 6fT, 1:12.50, yl.
CONORMARA (USA) (c, 3, Carr De Naskra {USA}--Teeming Shore {USA} {SW-Eng & GSP-Ire}, by L'Emigrant {USA}), was badly drawn but managed a place in the front rank in the early stages until taking a definite lead approaching the final furlong. He was headed by Anns Gamble (Ire) (Unblest {GB}) just inside the furlong marker but battled back gamely and was all out to regain the lead close to home for a short head win as the 2-1 favourite. Lifetime Record: SP-Ire, 4-1-1-0, Ir£10,270.

AUSTRALIA CHANGES BIRTHDAY RULE

The much-debated rule regarding the date a foal is considered to be one year old has been updated following an Australian Racing Board meeting Monday. In the past, a foal born in late July was automatically deemed a yearling only days later while one born Aug. 1 or after was deemed to turn one the following year. Under the new rule, even if a foal is born before Aug. 1, it will not be considered a yearling until Aug. 1 of the following year, provided the dam was first covered on or after Sept. 1 of the previous year. If the mare was bred before Sept. 1, the resulting foal's first year of life will be deemed to begin on Aug. 1 of the year it was conceived. To enforce the new rule, stallion owners will have to sign a memorandum of understanding and suspicious returns will be investigated, with severe penalties for breeders who state their mares were covered in September when it was really August.
