SINN-FULLY GOOD AT EPSOM

Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge), named after a mountain range in Iraq, yesterday became the first Irish-trained winner of the G1 Epsom Derby since Secreto in 1984 and the Aga Khan's fourth winner of the race following the victories of Shergar (1981), Shahrastani (1986) and Kahyasi (1988), all homebreds, with a one-length victory at Epsom. Sinndar's most notable success to date came in the G1 Aga Khan National S. at The Curragh last September. He suffered his only career defeat on his seasonal debut this year when second in the Listed Ballysax S. at Leopardstown April 16, but made amends in winning the G3 Derrinstown Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 14. Kingsclere (GB) (Fairy King) set off at a fast pace taking a wide course going the uphill first half mile in under 53 seconds. Sakhee (Bahri) and Best Of The Bests (Ire) (Machiavellian) then took control to set a more sensible pace with Wellbeing (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Sinndar placed handy in behind and Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells) not far away in mid-pack. Rounding Tattenham Corner on the run for home, Sakhee made his bid, with Sinndar tracking Sakhee's run. Beat Hollow also made a move approaching the final quarter mile, but was blocked at a critical point and the race was beyond him. Sakhee was hard ridden but still led entering the final furlong, yet Sinndar wasn't giving in. Sinndar hit the front in the last 75 yards, staying on strongly to deny the brave Sakhee. The Aga Khan enthused, "My grandfather won the race five times, but not with a homebred, and it was a hidden wish of mine to win the race with a homebred. It has now happened four times, which is a wonderful thing for a breeding operation like mine. It is real happiness." Despite having trained at the highest level for over 20 years, this was John Oxx's first Vodafone Derby winner. Oxx said, "He (Sinndar) doesn't tell you a lot from his homework; he works with handicappers and he'd never make headlines from that. He showed us that he was very well and the omens were good because he looked the best he has ever looked before we left to come here. He was well in himself and we hoped the extra two furlongs would, with a good pace and a test of stamina, be in his favour. He has improved every time he's run and he goes on all types of ground--fast, firm or heavy, it doesn't seem to matter to him. All being well, the (G1) Irish Derby (at the Curragh July 2) will be next." Vodafone Derby chart, p. 2

THIRD TIME THE CHARM

Bob and Beverly Lewis watched in 1997 as Touch Gold snatched immortality away from Silver Charm and just last year witnessed a courageous Charismatic just fail in his Triple Crown attempt. It was hugs and kisses all around yesterday as Commendable (Gone West) gave them their first Belmont, to go along with two Derby and three Preakness wins. Fourth in the GII Del Mar Futurity Sept. 8, the chestnut was fourth in the Mar. 4 GII San Rafael in his two-turn debut and filled the same spot behind Fusaichi Pegasus in the GII San Felipe Mar. 19 with blinkers added for the first time. The $575,000 yearling came fourth as the 2-1 favorite in Unshaded (Unbridled)'s GII Coolmore Lexington, but was a well-defeated 17th in the Kentucky Derby in his last start. Before a crowd of 67,810, Hugh Hefner (Bertrando) set the pace from the outside with Commendable his shadow through the opening furlongs. Wheelaway (Unbridled) was tucked away neatly in third as Unshaded and favored Aptitude (A.P. Indy) lingered at the back of the strung out pack. Jockey Pat Day aboard the eventual winner turned up the heat on the leader rounding the far turn and hit the front turning for home, as the race favorites were rolling up into contention. Commendable began to inch away leaving the eighth pole and was able to withstand late runs from Aptitude up the rail and Unshaded on the grandstand side to give Day his third Belmont victory and trainer D. Wayne Lukas his fourth. Unshaded was quickly dismounted on the clubhouse turn following the race and was treated for "mild" heat exhaustion, but walked back to the barn under his own power. "We felt this might be his best race," Lukas said of the winner. "You have to look at what you are up against in the race and the field you are faced with. A lot of this was contingent on getting Pat Day to ride. I'm not saying we wouldn't have run without him, but getting Pat was important to our decision to run." Day, whose most recent experience on the colt was in the Lexington, rode with supreme confidence. "When we got to the quarter pole, I knew we had a pretty good cushion," he said. "I didn't know what the last quarter mile had in store for us, but he kept rolling and when I asked him, he just kept going." Bobby Frankel, who trains the race favorite, was beside himself following the race. "I'm very disappointed. He was way too far back. He ran a really good race, but used himself up getting to the winner." Belmont Chart p2

A listed stakes winner in England, but never able to crack the upper echelon, Manddar was sent to the U.S. at the tail end of his three-year-old season to finish fourth in the GII Oak Tree Derby and an excellent second in the GI Hollywood Derby. Third in the GII San Gabriel H. in his first try against elders New Year's Day, the bay was fourth in the GII El Rincon H. Apr. 8, before bursting into prominence with a 1 1/2-length victory in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill May 6. Manddar was reserved in seventh while saving ground through the opening furlongs, as Middlesex Drive (Pine Bluff) took the field through moderate fractions. Turning for home, Yagli (Jade Hunter) forged to a short lead, but was soon engulfed by a crush of horseflesh, including Manddar, who tipped out at the top of the lane and closed resolutely through the final furlong to score his second consecutive Grade I. Yagli crossed the wire fourth, but impeded Honor Glide (Honor Grades) at midstretch and was disqualified to sixth. "When you've got the best horse, things tend to go right," said winning jockey Corey Nakatani. "I had the best horse in here and we got the trip. He settled real nicely off the pace and ran when I asked him."

The gate-to-wire winner of his first two starts by a combined 14 lengths, Trippi showed a new dimension in the Mar. 11 GIII Swale S. on Florida Derby day at Gulfstream Park, laying just off fast fractions, and rallying through the final furlong to score by 1 3/4 lengths. The bay maintained his unblemished record with a front-running tally in the GIII Flamingo Apr. 8 and contested the pace in the Kentucky Derby, before tiring to finish 11th. Freshened a bit and dropped back to a more favorable trip, Trippi was the 2-1 second choice. Off a bit slowly, the Todd Pletcher trainee advanced between horses to lead after a quarter mile, was cut loose at the top of the stretch by jockey Jerry Bailey and cruised home to the easy victory. "I just left it in Jerry's [jockey Bailey] hands," commented Pletcher. "He [Trippi] broke a bit slow, as always, but he got going on his own and there was a place to go and Jerry just let him cruise on up there." Pletcher left his options open for a potential next start. "He may not be a mile-and-a-quarter horse, but up to a mile and an eighth, he's a pretty nice horse."

Intidab has been known to uncork a big race from time to time; one need only look at the 120 Beyer Speed Figure he earned when accounting for the 1999 GII A Phenomenon H. at Saratoga, where he had Eclipse champion sprinter Artax in second. The Shadwell homebred was a distant third to the champ in the GII Forest Hills H. Oct. 16 before closing the year with a one-length success in the Eillo S. on the Breeders' Cup undercard Nov. 7. A one-length second behind Bevo in a Belmont allowance May 12, Intidab was the slight second choice behind GI Carter H. winner Brutally Frank. Oro de Mexico set the pace well off the rail, hanging Brutally Frank out wide as Intidab loped along in sixth. Four wide turning for home, jockey Robbie Davis shifted the seven-year-old towards the inside to lead past the eighth pole and inched clear of the pace-pressing runner up. "This horse runs so well on the outside, but when the leaders were drifting out, I had to take him to the inside," commented Davis, an idea which drew praise from victorious conditioner Kiaran McLaughlin. "I thought that was a clever move," he said.

Perfect Sting kept her 2000 record perfect with a last-stride victory. A winner of consecutive Grade I events last year, the bay filly closed out her sophomore campaign with a sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. She returned to action with a half-length score in the GIII Beaugay at Aqueduct May 7 and was sent off as the overwhelming favorite here. Rating along the inside, she switched out for running room and got up just in time to nail Ronda on the line. "There was a 1 3/8-mile race last week [the Sheepshead Bay], but we opted to pass and run her here," said winning trainer Joe Orseno. "Her next race will be in New York in July [the GII New York H., July 15], then the Diana [GII, Sept. 4], then a $750K race [GI Flower Bowl, Oct. 7] and the Breeders' Cup."

The dark bay was most recently a 1 1/2-length winner of a Churchill allowance May 12. Taking advantage of the inside post, jockey Eddie Martin was able to establish an easy lead, which had expanded to five lengths at the five-furlong marker. Never seriously threatened on the front end, the dark bay was still well five clear past the eighth pole and reported home a much-the-best winner.

David Copperfield, making his first start on the lawn, took the lead at the start and never looked back en route to his first graded success. After defeating eventual Kentucky Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus in his career opener, the dark bay was fourth in a Santa Anita allowance before winning by a nose at the same track Mar. 11. Making his stakes debut Apr. 15, he gave way late when third in the California Derby at Golden Gate. Eager from the outset here, he made all the running and drew away from his rivals down the stretch. He is scheduled to be part of the 505 Farms dispersal at Barretts July 22. Despite the timing of the sale, trainer John Shirreffs expressed his hope to run the winner in the July 23 GI Swaps at Hollywood.

Second in both prior starts this year, Trans Island added a second group win to his portfolio here in a most thrilling finish. He was unlucky to come up against an in-form Indian Lodge (Ire) when runner-up in the G2 KLM Mile at Sandown April 28, and he filled the same berth behind Aljabr in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 20. Kieren Fallon sent Trans Island straight into the lead from a keen Fly To The Stars (GB) (Bluebird) and Duck Row, as Ramooz and Yakareem were ridden with patience in the rear. Once into the straight, approaching the three-furlong marker, Fallon made a decisive kick for home. Duck Row responded and made a bold bid on the outside on the run to the final quarter mile. Both horses proved game as they fought neck and neck throughout the final eighth, with Trans Island rallying courageously to put his head in front on the line. Winning trainer Ian Balding said, "That was good. He's a very brave horse and deserved this win having finished second in two big races. He was giving the second five pounds and Kieren (Fallon) said he was brave to fight back after he was headed momentarily. We were keen for him to make the running as he is a natural frontrunner."

Margins: 3HF, HF, HD. Odds: 5-1, 7-4, 7-4.

Also ran: Takali (Ire), Mythological.

On form, the veteran English challenger Right Wing, a former smart handicapper who finally broke his stakes maiden in April, and the former Vodafone Derby hopeful Media Puzzle looked set to dominate this G3 contest, but it was in fact the Aidan O'Brien-trained pair Glyndebourne and Mythological (El Gran Senor) who took control. The latter set a decent pace for his stable companion until well into the straight, where Glyndebourne grabbed the lead two furlongs out and proceeded to outstay the opposition. Right Wing stayed on well on the outside without ever threatening the winner. Media Puzzle, who had given weight and a comfortable beating to Glyndebourne in a Cork conditions event last month, only stayed on at one pace to be third.

French Oaks cont.

A competitive line up assembles for what is sure to be a keenly contested Classic. The unbeaten Volvoreta, three-for-three to date, is sure to start as favourite and with some justification. On her only start this year she was hugely impressive when winning the G3 Prix Penelope at Saint-Cloud Apr. 12, by six lengths. One of her victims that day was subsequent G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Reve D'Oscar, who reopposes today. The form of the Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp May 21, suggests that Reve D'Oscar should finish in front of Folie Danse, Hidalguia and Goldamix. That may not be the case, however, as all of the aforementioned certainly have place claims at least. Lady Of Chad won last season's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and reappeared with a fine win in the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp Apr. 23. She disappointed when unplaced in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 14, but raced far too keenly on that occasion and can be afforded one more chance. New Story was second to Lady Of Chad in the Prix Marcel Boussac and, because of niggling setbacks, had not set foot on the track until winning a conditions race at Chantilly May 30. She is a filly of some potential and should not be discounted.

BROOKLYN H.-GII, $250,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Ghost Story	Silver Ghost	Clement	15-1
2	Almutawakel (GB)	Machiavellian	Hennig	6-1
3	Early Warning	Summer Squall	Pletcher	5-1
4	Lemon Drop Kid	Kingmambo	Schulhofer	5-2
5	Down the Aisle	Runaway Groom	Mott	8-1
6	Running Stag	Cozzene	Mitchell	8-5
7	Lager	Pleasant Tap	J Jerkens	6-1

With a victory this afternoon, Running Stag would complete a remarkable three-week stint in the U.S. The 1 1/2-length winner of a Belmont allowance May 24 in which Early Warning was second, the six-year-old shipped up to East Boston to win the GII MassCap just eight days ago. Lemon Drop Kid adds blinkers for the first time, as trainer Scotty Schulhofer thought that last year's Belmont winner was unfocused during the stretch run of his third-place effort in the May 13 GI Pimlico Special. The bay has trained forwardly with the hood and looms a threat. Almutawakel has still yet to win a race in this country, despite some top efforts. The 1999 Dubai World Cup winner finished 1 3/4 lengths clear of Running Stag when second in last year's GI Woodward at today's trip, but was most recently a wide fourth in the Pimlico Special.

3 Early Pioneer	Rahy	Cerin	7-5
4 Scooter Brown	Fly Till Dawn	Sadler	4-1
5 Big Ten (Chi)	Barkerville	Mandella	3-1

Lightly raced Mojave Moon was winless in three European starts for trainer Jonathan Pease, but broke his maiden in his first stateside effort at Del Mar last Aug. 21, also his first taste of the main track. The chestnut homebred came from well out of it to claim top honors in a Hollywood allowance test May 1 and could get a similar pace to run at this afternoon. Early Pioneer returned from a two-month hiatus to outnod David for the victory in the GII San Bernardino H. at Santa Anita Apr. 9, before finishing a bang-up, 1/2-length second to GII MassCap runner up Out Of Mind in the GII Mervyn LeRoy H. in his last effort May 13.

5 (5)	Ben Ewar (GB)	Old Vic (GB)	Doumen	123
6 (4)	Daring Miss (GB)	Sadler's Wells	Fabre	120

Andre Fabre holds a particularly strong hand with two entries, likely favourite First Magnitude and Daring Miss. First Magnitude was a consistent three-year-old and gave a number of fine performances in stakes company last year and only disappointed when unplaced in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf. He has gone from strength to strength this season, winning both the G3 Prix d'Hedouville at Longchamp Apr. 27, and the G2 Prix Jean de Chaudenay at Saint-Cloud May 22. Daring Miss would have won last season's G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp but for her jockey mistaking the winning post. She recorded a first stakes success when winning her latest start, the Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid at Chantilly May 15. Britain sends two challengers across the English Channel, Little Rock and Lucido. Little Rock, one of last season's TDN Dark Horses, would appear to have the better chance of the two and was second to G1 Derby winner Oath in the Listed Dee S. at Chester last year. The winner of the Listed James Seymour S. at Newmarket in October, he won the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown Apr. 29.

All carry 128 pounds.

This major Derby trial should provide Indian Ruby with every chance of rehabilitation. He finished a close second to the unbeaten Samum (Ger) on his seasonal debut and pulled hard in the G2 Mehl Mulhens Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne May 14. The colt should find the longer distance today more to his liking as well. His main opponent could be the Anzillero, winner of the Listed Jean Harzheim-Rennen at Cologne Apr. 24, who beat Network in that race. Well Made will have improved by now and can beat them all as he has been working extremely well since finishing third in the G2 Grosser Muller Brot-Preis at Munich May 21. Diamante is highly rated at home, but has not shown any sparkle yet, while Kreuzkonig is very consistent and a candidate for placing. Duke D'Alba is an interesting outsider who is unbeaten in two starts, but has to prove his value in this class.

BEAT HOLLOW'S CONNECTIONS FINED

Trainer Henry Cecil was fined £3,200 and jockey Richard Quinn £1,000 after Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells) did not take his proper place in the Vodafone Derby's pre-race parade Saturday at Epsom. Beat Hollow went on to finish third as the race favorite. Cecil's former stable jockey Kieren Fallon was fined £1,000 a year ago when Oath (Ire) broke the Vodafone Derby parade on the trainer's instructions, and this time the fine was the maximum that racecourse stewards are allowed to impose. Although horses are required to parade in racecard order, permission can be sought and given for them to parade out of sequence. No such request was made on behalf of Beat Hollow, who paraded last when he should have been third. The stewards did not accept the explanations offered by the trainer and jockey at the subsequent inquiry.

UNBRIDLED JET RETIRED Double H Stable's Unbridled Jet (Unbridled) has been retired following a recurrence of the suspensory injury which took him out of training over the past winter while preparing for the GI Donn H., according to the Daily Racing Form. The four-year-old was second by a nose in the 1999 Long Branch S., a prep race for the GI Haskell Invitational. In the Haskell, the dark bay found trouble at two critical spots and made a nice run once clear to finish fourth. Second by a nose in the GII Pegasus to close his sophomore campaign, Unbridled Jet raised eyebrows with a 12 1/4-length demolition of a Gulfstream allowance field Jan. 9 in what would become his final start. He retires with three wins from 13 starts and earnings of $255,363. No decision has been made on where he will enter stud.

LEFT BANK (c, 3, French Deputy--Marshesseaux {MSP, $201,710}, by Dr. Blum) got some time off after fading to seventh in the Great Navigator S. at Gulfstream Feb. 21. Getting Lasix for his return, the 11-1 shot contested the pace, shook free entering the stretch and powered clear by 4 1/4 lengths. He is a 1/2 to Code Blum (Lost Code), SW, $151,630; Marsheslew (Houston), SW, $289,233; and Flag on the Play (Meadowlake), SW, $156,397. Lifetime Record: 6-3-1-0, $71,140.

RUTHIAN (f, 4, Rahy--Adoryphar {GSP-US & SP-Fr, $141,909}, by Lyphard) scored at first asking, but couldn't find her way back to the winner's circle. The bay filly was third in her last out, beaten just a half-length, at Belmont May 14. The 3-1 shot contested the pace, stretched her legs turning for home and strode clear by 3 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 9-2-2-3, $82,950.

Sent off at 3-1 for his return, the 1/2 to Yarrow Brae (Deputy Minister), GSW, $571,580, rated just off the pace while four wide, kicked into gear in the stretch and got the nod from Unbridling (Unbridled). 2--Mountain Angel, 121, f, 3, Mt. Livermore--All An Angel, by Alydar. $100,000.

3--Forest Princess, 121, f, 3, Hansel--Victorious Vice, by Vice Regent. $55,000.

Margins: NK, 2 1/4, 1. Odds: 0.50A, 0.50A, 10.45.

Catch the Ring got up just in time to defeat her stablemate at the wire, maintaining her unbeaten 2000 record. After breaking her maiden at Fair Grounds in her seasonal bow, she captured a Keeneland allowance in April before stepping up to stakes company with a victory in the Fury S. at Woodbine May 7. Unhurried early here, the dark bay launched a three-wide bid on the far turn and caught long-time leader Mountain Angel in the final stride. The Canadian Oaks is the first jewel of the Canadian Filly Triple Tiara. The second gem is the Bison City S., set for Fort Erie on July 4. The third jewel is the Wonder Where S. at Woodbine on Sept. 30. A $350,000 bonus will be presented to Sam-Son Farm if Catch the Ring sweeps the series. "It was a tough race, so we'll give them a few days to settle down and then assess them," said winning trainer Mark Frostad. "We'll see which one or both of them go on to the next race at Fort Erie."

VICTORIA PARK S., $109,800, WOX, 6-10, 3yo, 1 1/8m, 1:50 4/5, ft.

1--KISS A NATIVE, 121, c, 3, Kissin Kris--Ronique, by Raise a Native. O/B-John Franks (FL); T-David R Bell; J-T K Kabel; $65,880. Lifetime Record: 6-4-0-0, $336,380.

3--Opus Won, 115, c, 3, Fit to Fight--Darling Dutch, by Nasty and Bold. ($10,000 yrl '98 FTMOCT). $12,078.

Margins: 2 1/4, 3/4, 4HF. Odds: 2.30, 1.05, 12.30.

Kiss a Native resumed his winning ways with this victory. After capturing his first three starts by 36 lengths, he finished last in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and was given some time off. Making his 2000 bow in the Marine S. at Woodbine May 21, he dropped back on the far turn and was eased in the stretch. Settling into a stalking position here, the homebred colt rallied four wide into the stretch and got clear late.

2nd-WOX, $51,912, Msw, 2yo, f, 4 1/2f, :52 3/5, ft. + APPEALING SATIN (f, 2, Valid Appeal--Made for Satin, by Premiership) debuted as the 5-2 choice. The bay filly took command at the outset and never looked back en route to a 6 1/4-length tally. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $30,240.

King Cugat continued his domination of the three-year-old turf ranks with another lengthy victory. The bay colt returned victoriously from a six-month layoff, winning the GIII Crown Royal American Turf over this course May 5, and was sent off as the prohibitive choice here. Rating patiently while five wide, he moved smoothly to assume command at the quarter pole and was ridden out down the lane. "Take nothing away from the rest of the field, but he just took over the race on his own," commented winning jockey Robby Albarado. "I was just a passenger. If he gets any better than this, it's scary."

Paying a more than handsome compliment to Bram Stoker (Ire), Atmospheric stepped up on his recent second in a Nottingham conditions event May 19 to record a first stakes win in impressive style. He broke well from the chute and disputed the early running with Triple Blue before taking an outright lead after a furlong. Rounding Tattenham Corner, Atmospheric still held the call from Triple Blue as Stregone made progress into a dangerous looking third. Jimmy Fortune got to work on the leader as Stregone made a bid on the outside. Atmospheric responded with enthusiasm and ran on to the line in tremendous style to record a comfortable win.

Scoring a treble with this win, in-form Kieren Fallon brought the French-trained challenger Astonished with a perfectly timed run to give the horse his second stakes of the year, following his win in the Listed Grand Cove Koln Flieger-Preis at Cologne May 14. The fast breaking Repertory and Jackie's Baby (GB) (Then Again {Ire}) set off at breakneck speed over the world's quickest five furlong track as Astonished was reserved in the rear. Proud Native tracked the leaders from halfway and went to the front at the distance. He seemed to have poached a winning lead inside the final furlong but Astonished found room on the rail with 150 yards to run. Finishing like the proverbial train, Astonished grabbed the lead close to home with Fallon taking a cheeky look over his shoulder at the runner up.

Also ran: Muchea (GB), Now Look Here (GB), Warningford (GB), Arctic Char (GB), Bomb Alaska (GB), Manorbier (GB), Adjutant (GB).

Winner of the Listed Knockaire S. at Leopardstown in November, the evergreen One Won One had gone five starts without a win this season, but had been third in Listed races in his two previous starts. Always travelling well behind the leaders, he found a perfect split over a furlong out, quickened into the lead and ran on well to hold the persistent challenge of Pulao Tioman, who had grabbed the lead at halfway but could not match the winner's finish. Victorious trainer Joanna Morgan said, "One Won One is easily the best horse in my stable and he always tries his hardest. We used to run him in handicaps, but he gets hammered at the weights. This was his ideal trip around one turn." Winning rider Eddie Ahern added, "The pace was steady, but he was always travelling well. The split came just right and he came up the best of the ground."

CECIL FRAIL S.-Listed, £24,100, Haydock, England, 6-10, 3yo/up, f/m, 6fT, 1:15.42, gd/sf.

1--PIPALONG (IRE), f, 4, Pips Pride (GB)--Limpopo (GB), by Green Desert (USA). (7,000gns yrlg '97 TAOCT).

O-T H Bennett; B-Yeomanstown Stud; T-Tim Easterby; J-Michael Roberts; £15,665. Lifetime Record: 23-8-7-0, £236,493. *GSW-Eng. 1/2 to Out of Africa (Ire) (Common Grounds {GB}), SW-Eng, $102,644.

2--Romanylei (Ire), 118, f, 3, Blues Traveller (Ire)--Krayyalei (Ire), by Krayyan (GB). £4,820

3--Seraphina (Ire), 118, f, 3, Pips Pride (GB)--Angelic Sounds (Ire), by The Noble Player (USA). £2,410

Margins: HF, 2HF, 1 1/4. Odds: 10-11, 12-1, 12-1. Also ran: Auratum (USA), Cotton House (Ire), Out Of Africa (Ire).

Winner of the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket May 6 and runner-up in the G3 Duke Of York S. at York May 18, Pipalong looked a class above her opponents and won this comfortably. After racing in fourth as Romanylei led, she quickened to challenge for the lead over a furlong out and only had to be shaken up to assert her superiority, going on to win cleverly. Her trainer Tim Easterby said, "She's a true professional and she beat a very decent filly in Romanylei. She'll go to Royal Ascot now, with either the (G2) King's Stand S. (June 20) or the (G2) Cork & Orrery S. (June 22), and I think the latter over six furlongs would suit her better." Winning rider Michael Roberts added, "They dodded along for the first quarter mile and Pipalong relaxed really well. She had the race won for most of the way and it was easy for her."

4.15 Doncaster, Worthington Conditions S. (Class C), £10,600, 3yo/up, 10f 60ydsT, 2:08.66, gd.

KING ADAM (IRE) (c, 4, Fairy King {USA}--Sailor's Mate {GB} {GSW-Ire, GSP-Fr}, by Shirley Heights {GB}), winner of the Listed Mowlem Gala S. at Kempton last year, looked to have an easy task here and was duly sent off the 5-4 favourite despite not having run since last July because of some minor injury problems. Always travelling smoothly on the outside of this six-horse field, he was doing little more than cantering as he closed on the leaders two furlongs out and quickened smoothly into the lead with a furlong to run to win comfortably by three-parts of a length from Tissifer (GB) (Polish Precedent {USA}). Lifetime Record: SW-GB, 6-3-2-0, £27,456.

O-Lord Weinstock; B-Ballymacoll Stud Farm Ltd; T-Sir Michael Stoute; J-Fergal Lynch.

4.55 Haydock, Warrington Wolves Maiden S. (Class D), £6,130, 3yo, 8f 30ydsT, 1:48.10, gd/sf.

CROWN LODGE (IRE) (f, 3, Grand Lodge {USA}--Itqan {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells {USA}), sent off at odds of 3-1, raced towards the rear early on, made progress at the half-mile mark and chased the favourite Paragon Of Virtue (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). Having grabbed the lead over a furlong out, she engaged in a brief battle with Grey Eminence (Fr) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and, despite drifting right inside the final furlong, took command close to home to win by two lengths. A 48,000gns yrlg '98 TAHOU, the winner is a 1/2 to Hello (Ire) (Lycius {USA}), G1SW-Ity, GSW & GISP-US, $491,631. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £5,220.

O-Robert H Smith; B-H Volz; T-Luca Cumani; J-Jamie Spencer.

3.25 Haydock, European Breeders Fund Maiden S. (Class D), £5,425, 2yo, 5fT, 1:03.30, gd/sf.

AUTUMNAL (IRE) (f, 2, Indian Ridge {Ire}--Please Believe Me {GB} {GSP-GB}, by Try My Best {USA}), sent off the 4-6 favourite after a promising first effort at Windsor May 22, disputed the lead from the start with Attorney (GB) (Wolfhound {USA}) and these two dominated the race throughout, with Autumnal edging ahead over a furlong out and just staying on the stronger to win by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, £4,219.

However, the latter swerved violently towards the stands rail fifty yards out, allowing the filly to come back and snatch the spoils on the line by one and a half lengths. BEADMAN SUSPENDED

Jockey Darren Beadman incurred the first suspension since his comeback to riding when stewards outed him for nine meetings at Eagle Farm yesterday. Stewards charged Beadman with careless riding over his ride on Zulu Zeal in the Queensland Derby, in which he was found to have caused interference to Borelli. Beadman's suspension will take effect after he completes riding engagements Thursday and will expire at midnight on June 29, effectively a fortnight's stint on the sidelines.

SQUIRES INJURED

In Sydney yesterday, apprentice jockey Michael Squires was unconscious for several minutes after being catapulted from the saddle aboard Crispin at Warwick Farm. He was taken by ambulance to Liverpool City Hospital where he was kept overnight for observation and precautionary X-rays.
