MARVELOUS MILLENNIUM

Beware Charles, there's a new Prince of Wales. Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking the Gold), sent off the 5-4 second favourite in the end here, made all to make a mockery of the expected 'match' with 11-10 favourite Sendawar (Ire) (Priolo) in a majestic display of racing in yesterday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot. There is not much that can be said about Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking The Gold) that has not already been proffered and exclaimed already. He is truly an exceptional racehorse, and he has built on every success to become one of the greatest to race on both dirt and turf. When he won the Dubai World Cup at Nad al Sheba Mar. 25, he was allowed to race in the way he wanted, which was fast all the way. Jockey Frankie Dettori's tactics that evening ensured that he would annihilate a field that included Behrens. Dettori had talked to Jerry Bailey before this and advised him to do the same and the American jockey produced the horse to win this without ever being pressed. The Godolphin team planted a second string in this race, intended 'rabbit' Rhythm Band (Cozzene), but as they broke from the gate it was quickly clear that he was not going to be able to play any part as he dropped away early. After a glance back, Bailey recognised the situation and set about his own task, which was to take Sendawar along in his slipstream. By the end of the first half mile, there were three lengths back to the French horse, and a further 10 to the chasing group. Those three lengths soon became five, and as Dubai Millennium turned for home, Gerald Mosse aboard the favorite was starting to go to work. The run up the straight amounted almost to a parade, as Bailey merely used his hands and heels to ensure the margin of victory his horse deserved. German contender Sumitas (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) won the race for second with a strong run as Sendawar faded to finish fourth. Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum spoke afterwards. "I've said it before and I'll say it again. He is the best we've ever had, a true champion. You don't come across a horse like this in 20 years. I knew from the way he trains, and looks, that there is no horse like this horse."

A Peek Into the Future:

Sheikh Mohammed indicated that the four-year-old will go for the Emirates World Series and will be retired at the end of the year to stand at Dalham Hall Stud. Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford said, "I think ten furlongs is his best trip and although he has been entered for the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. (Ascot July 29), the only time he has been beaten was in the G1 Epsom Derby over a mile and a half. There are no plans for him at the moment, apart from the fact that his last race will be in the Breeders' Cup Classic, and he will probably not do too much travelling before that."

The Jocks Chime In:

Jerry Bailey described the experience, "With a good horse you want the pressure. One was dirt and one was grass, but he's equally impressive as Cigar, without a doubt. I haven't seen any horse on the other side of the pond that can touch him. It's a wonderful experience, but this is Frankie's horse and I just appreciate filling in." Frankie Dettori added, "There are no words to describe him--he brings tears to my eyes. In our heart of hearts we knew it was a one-horse race, but everyone was talking of Sendawar as a great champion. It shows what Dubai Millennium can do with these great champions--he just kills them. He is a great champion."

Observatory is still lightly raced following a fairly low-key two-year-old career. Too keen on his only attempt at pattern company when fourth in the G2 Mill Reef S. behind Primo Valentino (GB) last September, he was a subsequent winner in a Yarmouth conditions race a month later. He returned to run Shibboleth to a 1 1/4 lengths in the Listed King Charles II S. at Newmarket June 3. When that horse went on to run a close fourth in Tuesday's G1 St James' Palace S., the omens were good, and Observatory proved that to be the case with a strong run to claim his first stakes success. Although Darley did not jump too quickly, his mount soon made up the ground to achieve a prominent position after a furlong, and from there he was allowed to settle, tracking Three Points (GB) (Bering {GB}). As the pace increased at the halfway stage, he was finding more and moved to the front with a furlong remaining before going away under a strong drive to hold the challengers. John Gosden, who narrowly missed out when second with Valentino (GB) in Tuesday's St James' Palace S., was pleased that he had gone one better here. "Last year, he ran off in the Mill Reef, so the idea was to get him to switch off and settle him," Gosden said. "He may step up to a mile now, but mentally he's a little bit insecure. Darley added, "He's a nice horse, and he's proved he is a horse on the upgrade. I got a nice lead and once I committed him and put him there he just pricked his ears and was only doing enough. That winning post seems to get further and further away every time I ride here!"

Romantic Myth, from the stable of Tim Easterby, arrived on the scene in a Ripon maiden Apr. 5, and followed up success there with a win a conditions race at Chester May 9. Here she was ridden to perfection by Kevin Darley to maintain her unbeaten record whilst collecting an impressive first stakes success. She broke well and raced prominently in fourth early while travelling easily, and was moved up by Darley to take command with over a furlong remaining. As the others lined up to challenge, she was gone, and her turn of foot was telling as she left Al Ihsas (Ire) for dead, rushing to the line and extending under Darley to win going away. Owner and breeder Terry Holdcroft, who stands the sire Mind Games (GB), said, "It's marvellous--really thrilling. We're over the moon. I've always wanted to win this race since I started breeding 25 years ago, but I've never had anything good enough to run in it before. I'm particularly delighted as we stand the sire (at Bearstone Stud)." Darley, recording a quick double with this win, commented, "From day one she's been outstanding, and the big plus about her is she is so laid back about her job. She was a bit keen early and was running into daylight, but when I gave her the office she pricked her ears but every time I asked her she kept finding." The winner could resurface in the G2 Lowther S. at York Aug. 24.

When Mark Johnston stated earlier in the week that Celtic Silence was the most exciting two-year-old he had had at Kingsley House for a while, it paid to take notice as he has handled such horses as Lend A Hand (GB), Mister Baileys (GB) and Bijou d'Inde (GB) thus far. The horse in question looked impressive in an Ayr maiden June 2, winning with authority, and he came into this race as favourite to prove his trainer right. He raced in mid-division in the centre of the track early as Celtic Island (GB) (Celtic Swing {GB}) took them along at a steady pace, which saw Baaridd suffer as he pulled for his head. Fallon was busy riding at halfway and it looked for a while as if he would not get there, but Celtic Silence kept responding to his rider's urgings and wrested the lead from Baaridd with 100 yards remaining before going away at the line to put safe distance between them. Mark Johnston said that the winner will now go for either the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot Sept. 24 or the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster Oct. 21.

Ladbrokes Odds: 7-4 Kayf Tara; 4-1 Enzeli; 5-1 Endorsement; 14-1 Arctic Owl, Rainbow High, Celeric & Compton Ace; 16-1 Far Cry, Life Is Life, Persian Punch & Orchestra Hall; 20-1 San Sebastien; 100-1 Ashgar.

The stage is set for Kayf Tara to reaffirm his position as the leading European stayer. Having missed last season's G1 Melbourne Cup due to injury, he reappeared as well as ever when easily taking the G2 Merewood Homes Yorkshire Cup at York May 18. He will start as strong favourite and if repeating the form of his York win can justify that status. The Godolphin hopeful won this race in 1998 and will be opposed by 1999 winner Enzeli and 1997 hero Celeric. Enzeli was a thoroughly deserving winner last year and will appreciate this extreme test of stamina. He showed his wellbeing when just touched off by Royal Rebel (GB) in the Listed Saval Beg S. at Leopardstown May 24. Celeric, on the other hand, still exudes class, but is not the force he once was. The prevalent fast ground will be in his favour, but he will do well to trouble the judge. Endorsement, returns after an absence of 326 days, is an undoubted stayer and was successful at this meeting last year as the winner of the G3 Queen's Vase.

NOTE: Ratings in bold are official BHB handicap ratings, all others are unofficial estimates where no official rating is available. The ratings of non-British trained horses and overseas performances are not available from the BHB. A consolation prize for the G1 Vodafone Oaks vanquished, yet a classy event in its own right is the G2 Ribblesdale. Kalypso Katie is something of an obvious choice, but has an outstanding chance to gain compensation for her two-length second to Love Divine (GB) in the Oaks at Epsom June 9. She was experiencing defeat for the first time in three starts on that occasion and will start at short odds to return to winning ways. She should comfortably confirm Oaks form with Clipper, Whitefoot and Miletrian. Godolphin have won the two latest renewals of this event and are represented by the hitherto-unraced-this-season Teggiano. She makes her first start since courageously winning the G1 Meon Valley Stud Fillies' Mile, under the care of Clive Brittain, at Ascot last September. The Queen's TDN Dark Horse Interlude overcame a variety of problems to be successful on her only juvenile start when scoring in a mile Doncaster maiden in October. Despite a slow start and enduring traffic problems during the race, she eventually won in good style. Unraced since, she has the potential to make the step up in grade.

Second to King Of Kings (Ire) in the 1998 G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas, Lend A Hand exhibited his ability to excel over shorter trips when winning the G3 Duke Of York Victor Chandler S. at York May 18 at this trip. He showed the true sprinter's trait when quickening off a good pace to beat Pipalong and Bold Edge who reoppose here. He is the pick ahead of stablemate Sampower Star. Tomba won the 1998 renewal, but is not at ease on firm ground as he is with cut. Mount Abu comes into the reckoning on the basis of fine wins in the Listed Sodexo Pavilion S. at Ascot May 3, and the Listed Bet Direct From Littlewoods Leisure S. at Lingfield June 3. The mighty Ballydoyle operation is represented by Rossini who finished fourth to Umistim (GB) in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 20 and followed with a third to Namid (GB) in the G3 Weatherbys Ireland Greenland S. at The Curragh May 27.

Memories of days gone by are bound to come flooding back should Superstar Leo take the honours. Former champion jockey Lester Piggott is one of the part-owners of the Willie Haggas-trained filly and he has sound reason to be optimistic. Second on her debut to G3 Queen Mary S. sixth Flying Millie, Superstar Leo has won her two subsequent starts and was a most impressive five length winner at Catterick June 9, her latest start. She will, however, have to contend with a host of speedy types, chief among them Keats. The Aidan O'Brien-trained colt merits the utmost respect and was a solid, if not extravagant winner of a five furlong maiden at Cork Apr. 24. Mick Channon's team are in good form at present and he won the G3 Coventry S. on Tuesday with CD Europe (GB). His chosen representative for this is Pan Jammer, who has a one-for-three record and in his latest outing was second to Aidan O'Brien's Pirate Of Penzance in the Listed Rochestown S. at Leopardstown June 5.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

HORROR PILE-UP ENDS SECOND DAY Kieren Fallon, who took two further races yesterday at Royal Ascot to put himself two in front of his nearest pursuer in the London Clubs Trophy with a total of four, may miss the rest of the meeting after a horror pile-up in yesterday's final race, the Ascot S. The incident occurred as the fall of Prairie Falcon (Ire) (Alzao), ridden by Michael Hills, brought down Fallon's mount, and also that of Seamus Heffernan and Alan Daly. While the other three jockeys got away unscathed, the champion jockey was diagnosed before leaving the course as having sustained injuries to his left shoulder and maybe to his neck, and he was taken away by police escort to Wexham Park hospital for x-rays. The doctor at the scene said that the jockey was complaining of pain in his left shoulder, which was becoming swollen all the time. He was totally conscious throughout and more will be known when the x-rays are carried out. The other jockeys escaped without incident, but Seamus Heffernan said, "I am fine, but Kieren's arm does not look very good."

ICSC ANNOUNCES UPGRADES The International Cataloguing Standards Committee has announced that 11 international races run in Hong Kong and the United Arab Emirates have been upgraded for the racing season between September 2000 and June 2001. ICSC Chairman Louis Romanet said, "By upgrading these races, our committee is giving recognition to the Hong Kong Jockey Club and the Emirates Racing Association for their remarkable efforts to promote and develop international racing at the highest level."

SURGERY FOR WHEELAWAY Wheelaway (Unbridled), fourth in the Belmont S., underwent surgery Tuesday to remove a chip from his left ankle, according to Daily Racing Form. He will be on the sidelines until late fall. "He'll get two weeks stall rest and three weeks of hand-walking and then he can start back under tack," trainer John Kimmel told the Form. The three-year-old colt, winner of the Tampa Bay Derby and third in the GI Toyota Blue Grass, has raced seven times with two wins and earnings of $249,760.

5th-BEL, $42,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/4mT, 2:02, fm.

SOUND OF THE WEST (f, 3, West By West--Burst of Sound, by Stop the Music), half sister to Bursting Forth (Alwasmi), MGSW, $524,474, was making her first grass start off a third-place effort in an off-the-turfer June 8. The 7-2 shot sprinted into contention along the rail around the second turn, was wide into the stretch and got up late for a neck win over Miss Class Action (Alleged). Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $38,570.

Florida-Bred Stakes Program Instituted:

The Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association, the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Association and Calder Race Course have agreed to a series of Florida-bred and Florida-preferred stakes during the Calder and Tropical meetings. Six stakes for Florida bred and 14 stakes with Florida-bred preferred bonuses will be run during the Calder summer meeting, while six Florida-bred preferred stakes will be conducted during the Tropical-at-Calder meeting in the fall. The program will make use of a $600,000 windfall made available to the Florida-bred incentive program by the recent passage of pari-mutuel legislation.

Yesterday's Results:

Cash Run Set for Princess:

Cash Run (Seeking the Gold), winner of last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, was shipped from Churchill Downs to Hollywood Park Tuesday and will go postward in Saturday's GII $150,000 Princess S. for three-year-old fillies. The Padua Stables colorbearer had a very successful winter in Florida, with victories in the GII Davona Dale and GII Bonnie Miss, but has been off the board in three subsequent starts, including a fourth-place finish in the GII Black-Eyed Susans S. at Pimlico May 19. "She's a bit fussy about her racetrack," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "But she looks good. She seems to be doing better."

Hollywood Hosts "For Women Only" Seminar:

Hall-of-Fame electee Julie Krone and trainer Jenine Sahadi headline the "For Women Only" seminar to be held Saturday, July 15, at Hollywood Park. Jockey's agent Michelle Barsotti will also participate in the program which is to be moderated by Hollywood in-house television analyst Joanne Jones. The day's activities will begin with an hour-long panel discussion to be followed by a handicapping seminar. "I want the women of Los Angeles to see that going to the races can be an elegant and entertaining afternoon," Jones said.

Gibson County won back-to-back stakes against state-bred foes last winter before finishing third in the Feb. 5 GII San Vicente. Unraced since running third in the Apr. 15 Cal-bred Zany Tactics S., the colt was second choice in the field of six. He took the lead from the start, opened a four-length advantage after half and finished under a David Flores hand ride.

MARY KIES (f, 3, Opening Verse--Flying Girl {Fr} {SW-US & Ity}, by Rusticaro) won last year's restricted Hidden Light S. at Santa Anita in her second start before finishing third in the Nov. 26 GII Miesque. Off six months after that effort, the filly returned to run third in a May 24 allowance. In her first start not at one mile on the turf, Mary Kies was sent off the 3-5 favorite and dallied near the back of the five-horse field, came four wide into the stretch and got up late for a one-length victory. The winner is a half sister to Gotha (Jade Hunter), GSP, $232,598. Lifetime Record: SW & GSP, 5-2-0-2, $92,310.

NTRA To Sponsor Mystery Voucher Promotion:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association will send mystery mutuel vouchers to over one million U.S. households beginning July 24. Each voucher is worth a minimum of $2 with one worth $1 million. The vouchers are redeemable at NTRA-affiliated race-tracks and OTB facilities on Sunday, Aug. 6 only. "The Mystery Mutuel Voucher promotion is designed to bring fans to the track on one of the biggest days of racing," said Keith Chamblin, NTRA vice president of industry relations and marketing. Scheduled for that Sunday afternoon are the GI Whitney at Saratoga and the GI Haskell at Monmouth.

TOP CLASS ENTRIES FOR KING GEORGE

Forty entries stood their ground yesterday for the 50th running of the £750,000 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 29, and intriguingly yesterday's G1 Prince Of Wales' S. winner Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking The Gold {USA}) is included, one of 10 Godolphin representatives in the list. Others in the line-up are G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), who has this race as his mid-summer target; G1 Epsom Derby winner Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}); and G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Holding Court (GB) (Hernando {Fr}).

Yesterday's Results:

ROYAL HUNT CUP H. (Class B), £120,000, Royal Ascot, 6-21, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:41.91, gd/fm.
1--CARIBBEAN MONARCH (IRE), 122, g, 5, Fairy King (USA)--Whos The Blonde (Ire), by Cure The Blues (USA). O-Pierpont & C H Scott; B-W & P Scott; T-Sir Michael Stoute; J-Kieren Fallon; £69,600. Lifetime Record: SP-GB, 11-3-1-1, £94,081.
2--John Ferneley (GB), 121, g, 5, Polar Falcon (USA)--I'll Try (Ire), by Try My Best (USA). £26,400.
3--Persiano (GB), 118, g, 5, Efisio (GB)--Persiandale (Ire), by Persian Bold (Ire). £13,200.
Margins: NK, HF, NK. Odds: 11-2, 12-1, 14-1.
Also ran: Pythios (Ire), Tillerman (GB), Black Silk (GB), Speedfit Too (Ire), River Times (USA), Zanay (GB), Omaha City (Ire), Exeat (USA), The Prince (GB), King Priam (Ire), Mayaro Bay (GB), Slip Stream (USA), Green Card (USA), Muchea (GB), Jo Mell (GB), Easaar (GB), Cardiff Arms (NZ), Pantar (Ire), Free Option (Ire), Tactful Remark (USA), Bomb Alaska (GB), Espada (Ire), Calcutta (GB), Hornbeam (GB), Tissifer (GB), Welsh Wind (Ire), Holly Blue (GB), Yarob (Ire), Latalomne (USA).

★ ROYAL ASCOT ★

Today at Royal Ascot

5.30 Britannia S. (Handicap), (Class B), £55,000, 3yo, c/g, 1mT.

Top weight will be carried here by Cornelius (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), who was third here last year in more exalted company, chasing Fasliyev's tail in the G3 Coventry S. He has a stiff task carrying this burden, but his efforts at Doncaster and Newmarket (in the Listed Fairway S. June 11) suggest he is more than a handicapper. Atlantic Rhapsody (Fr) (Machiavellian {USA}) has been making his name in competitive handicaps this year, taking a valuable contest at Haydock May 27 in eye-catching style, and he will benefit from the likely furious gallop.

4.55 King George V S. (Handicap), (Class B), £55,000a, 3yo, 1 1/2mT

The Queen may have her first Royal Ascot winner here with the filly Film Script (GB) (Unfuwain {USA}), who took the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial last time on only her third race. There was a lot to like about the way Cover Up (Ire) (Machiavellian {USA}), who will be bidding to give Sir Michael Stoute his fourth Royal Ascot winner, returned this season to beat Buckminster (USA) (Silver Hawk {USA}) into third in a Windsor maiden Apr. 10, but the beaten horse has since gone on to win very easily at Redcar May 15, and must be respected as Kevin Darley rides. In good form, Darley took two races here yesterday.

Caribbean Monarch was settled in amongst the far side group taken along early by Latalomne (USA) (Zilzal {USA}). Ridden with two furlongs remaining, he picked up well as Speedfit Too (Ire) (Scenic {Ire}) went for home in front of him. He quickened to put himself into the firing line as the that horse faded, and as a wall of horses plunged towards the line, he was going better than the strong-finishing Tillerman (GB) (In The Wings {GB}) to his right. Under a typical Fallon drive, he wandered right in the closing stages as soon as he had hit the front with 100 yards remaining, but he had enough left to hold all the late-finishing John Ferneley (GB) (Polar Falcon {USA}).

ASCOT STAKES H. (Class B), £46,000, Royal Ascot, 6-21, 4yo/up, 2 1/2mT, 4:25.91, gd/fm.

1--BARBA PAPA (IRE), 133, h, 6, Mujadil (USA)--Baby's Smile (GB), by Shirley Heights (GB). O-Glen Devlin; B-Rathasker Stud; T-Tony Martin; J-Johnny Murtagh; £29,900. Lifetime Record: SP-Ire, 15-4-2-1, £69,902.
2--Seliana (GB), 117, f, 4, Unfuwain (USA)--Anafi (GB), by Slip Anchor (GB). £9,200.
3--Heros Fatal (Fr), 133, g, 6, Hero's Honor (USA)--Femme Fatale (Fr), by Garde Royale (Ire). £4,600.
Margins: 1 1/4, 7, 1 1/4. Odds: 10-1, 25-1, 9-4.

Also ran: Thames Dancer (USA), Eastwell Hall (GB), Tonic (GB), Bangalore (GB), Historic (Ire), Treasure Chest (Ire), Mane Frame (GB), Be Gone (GB), Rainbow Frontier (Ire), Captain Miller (GB), Son Of Snurge (Fr), Galapino (Fr), Sharazan (Ire), Wild Colonial Boy (Ire), Renzo (Ire), Daraydan (Ire). DNF: Prairie Falcon (Ire), Alhawa (USA), Natural Eight (Ire), Generosa (GB), Sposa (USA).

Sent off at odds of 10-1, Barba Papa was settled in mid-division early as Historic (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) made the running. The pace was steady, which did not help the heavily-gambled on favourite Heros Fatal, who was seen early. Johnny Murtagh held his position before making steady headway towards the final turn, avoiding the carnage in behind as Prairie Falcon (Ire) (Alzao {USA}) fell and brought down other horses. He challenged on the outside with two furlongs remaining, and as Seliana went for home, Barba Papa came for the lead with 50 yards to race and finally prevailed.

Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), third in the G1 Epsom Derby S. June 10, heads the nine horses left in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp on Sunday. The colt overcame a setback to finish in the money at Epsom, and it was thought by trainer Henry Cecil after that Classic that he needed to step back in trip. If he goes, he will face the horse who finished a place behind him there, Godolphin's Best Of The Bests (Ire) (Machievellian {USA}). Aidan O'Brien has left in Ciro (USA) (Woodman {USA}), winner of the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 14, while the home defense, including G2 Prix Greffulhe (Longchamp Apr. 23) winner Rhenium (Ire) (Rainbows For Life {Can}), accounts for the other six entrants.

★ STUD NEWS ★

OFF THE MARK AT ASCOT

First-year sires Celtic Swing (GB) (Damister {USA}) and Mind Games (GB) (Puissance {GB}) swept yesterday's juvenile races at Royal Ascot. Celtic Swing, himself a champion at two in 1994, sired the Listed Chesham S. winner Celtic Silence (GB), who took the seven-furlong event going away. He stands at Haras d'Etream in France. Mind Games, the top-rated English sprinter at three, sired the G3 Queen Mary S. heroine Romantic Myth (GB), who burst clear in the final furlong in winning by 2 1/2 lengths. The eight-year-old stands at Bearstone Stud in Shropshire.

Yesterday's Results:

7.35 Kempton, European Breeders Fund Novice S. (Cond.) (Class D), £6,300, 2yo, 6fT, 1:13.34, gd/fm. ECOLOGY (IRE) (c, 2, Sri Pekan {USA}-Ecco Mi {Ire}, by Priolo {USA}), sent off the prohibitive 4-9 favourite after a decent win in a Ripon maiden June 11 and carrying 131 pounds, made heavy weather of beating modest opposition here. After breaking well he was outpaced and had to be hard ridden to take part in the finish, running on well eventually to beat Double Brew (GB) (Primo Dominie {GB}) by three-quarters of a length. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, £9,776. O-Hesmonds Stud; B-John Foley; T-John Dunlop; J-Pat Eddery.

9.05 Kempton, June Maiden S. (Class D), £6,510, 3yo, 1 1/8mT, 1:58.29, gd/fm. TARABAYA (IRE) (f, 3, Warning {GB}-Tarakana {USA} {MSP-Ire}, by Shahrastani {USA}), who had a late change of rider after Kieren Fallon's fall at Ascot, was sent off at odds of 3-1. After leading for the first quarter mile, she surrendered the lead a quarter mile out, but regained command quickly. She ran on well to beat the 13-8 favourite Tango Two Thousand (Ire) (Sri Pekan {USA}) by 2 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,232. O-H H Aga Khan; B-The Aga Khan's Studs S.C; T-Sir Michael Stoute; J-Richard Hills.

9.25 Ripon, Coverdale Maiden S. (Class D), £5,320, 3yo, 1mT, 1:42.50, gd/fm. RAINBOW HILL (GB) (c, 3, Rainbow Quest {USA}-Hill Hopper {Ire} {GSW-GB}, by Danehill {USA}), runner-up in a good Yarmouth maiden on his debut June 7, was heavily backed to start the 3-10 favourite. After setting out in front, he showed his inexperience by running wide on the turn and had to be shaken up and hard ridden a furlong out to hold off the challenge of Woodland River (USA) (Irish River {Fr}) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £4,688. O/B-Cheveley Park Stud Ltd; T-Sir Michael Stoute; J-Fergal Lynch.

IDLE POWER (IRE) (c, 2, Common Grounds {GB}-Idle Fancy {GB}, by Mujtahid {USA}), a 6-1 shot, raced towards the rear early and closed on the leaders over a furlong out, but looked short of room. Well inside the final furlong the 4-5 favourite Attorney (GB) (Wolfhound {USA}) asserted command, but the 33,000gns TAOCT yearling purchase quickened well, found a perfect split with 25 yards to run and finished powerfully to get up to beat the favourite on the line by a head. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, £4,520.

8.55 Ripon, Leyburn Maiden S. (Class D), £5,280, 3yo/up, 12f 60ydsT, 2:40.40, gd/fm.

RED EMPRESS (GB) (f, 3, Nashwan {USA}-Nearctic Flame {Ire} {GSP-GB}, by Sadler's Wells {USA}), coming from the all-conquering Stoute stable and having shown good form on her debut in a Newbury maiden May 20, was heavily backed to start 4-7 favourite in this three-horse field. She grabbed the lead three furlongs out and cruised home to win by six lengths. Her dam also produced Blushing Flame (USA) (Blushing Groom {Fr}), GSW-Ire & SW-GB, $108,380; and Happy Valentine (GB) (Rainbow Quest {USA}), SW-GB. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, £4,920.
