FUSAICHI PEGASUS TO COOLMORE?

Kentucky Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector--Angel Fever, by Danzig) has reportedly been sold to Coolmore Stud. The three-year-old has been the subject of a furious bidding war, with Rich Decker, president of WinStar Farm in Kentucky, telling the Lexington Herald-Leader, "I've heard [the bidding] is as high as $60 million." Craig Bandoroff, president of Denali Stud, was quoted as saying, "The last I heard, Ashford [Coolmore's Kentucky division] kind of had it locked up." Richard Henry, representative of Coolmore, would not confirm or deny that the deal had been signed when reached in Ireland last night, and would say only, "In any deal of this nature, the horse would have to pass the vet first." Second in the May 20 GI Preakness is his latest start, Fusaichi Pegasus suffered a slight hoof injury which kept him out of the June 10 Belmont S. and plans for his racing future remain up in the air.

UNBEATABLE IN GRAND PRIX DE PARIS

Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells) has always been considered of the highest class, even when all he had on his resume was a Yarmouth maiden win, and he confirmed that assessment with a one-length win over Premier Pas (Fr) (Sillery) in yesterday's G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp. Rested after his maiden score, the colt made his reappearance in the Listed Newmarket S. May 5 and struck a lasting impression as he quickened away to win with ease and book his Derby ticket. When illness hit the Henry Cecil yard in May he was one of those to go down, but he quickly returned to good health to stake his claim at Epsom June 10. Coltish in the paddock, he nevertheless belied his inexperience to run third behind the more battle-hardened Sinndar (Ire), but Cecil reported that he did not feel that he stayed and therefore decided to bring him back in trip here. Restrained in fourth early as Godolphin's Best Of The Bests (Ire) (Machiavellian) made the running, Beat Hollow was inclined to pull for his head off an easy pace, but jockey Richard Quinn soon had him settled. Third approaching the final turn, he drew on even terms with the Godolphin challenger at the quarter-mile marker and lengthened away to the victory. Cecil said, "I was very pleased, as this horse is still a baby and has a lot to learn. The experience will do him a lot of good. I don't know where he will go yet--we'll have to see."

EGO TRIP FOR RIBOLETTA

Sent off the 3-5 favorite in yesterday's GI Vanity H. at Hollywood Park, Riboletta (Brz) (Roi Normand) made herself look good, sitting second for a half before cruising to the lead and a 5 1/2-length victory over 30-1 Speaking Of Time (Gilded Time). It was the third straight graded win for the five-year-old mare, who came home seven lengths to the good in the May 7 GII Hawthorne H. and wired the field in the May 28 GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. last time out to sweep the Hollywood series for older distaffers. "She was obviously just the best horse in the race," jockey Chris McCarron said. "She's very good. It takes a very good horse to sweep the series, and she showed she's a top-class mare." A Group 1 winner in Brazil, the bay won only one of her first eight starts in the U.S., but opened eyes with a win in the Mar. 5 GI Santa Margarita H. and, after a distant third trying turf in the Miss America H. at Golden Gate, started her current streak. As for where she'll head in search of her fourth in a row, trainer Eduardo Inda said, "We have to keep her fresh. I think she runs good fresh. We'll give her two or three races before the Breeders' Cup." The mare will have to be supplemented to the Breeders' Cup Distaff.

T.M. Opera O ran his winning streak to four and remained undefeated at Hanshin Racecourse with an explosive stretch run. Last year's Japanese 2000 Guineas winner rated far back early and rallied outside on the final turn of the right-handed course. The heavy favorite got his third Group 1 win when he surged to the front in the final furlong and prevailed in a blanket finish.

America bounced back here from a disappointing display in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary Longchamp May 21 when only sixth and showed the sort of form that had impressed when winning the G3 Prix Vanteaux Longchamp Apr. 30. She is clearly a filly with a fine turn of foot, and her jockey utilized that here to full effect to place America back into contention for the major races later in the season. The crowd's choice, she settled in third early as Music Park (Ire) (Common Grounds {GB}) cut out the early running, but the lack of real pace ensured an imminent sprint. With this in mind, jockey Olivier Doleuze had her close to the leader; he angled her out with two furlongs remaining and asked her to quicken. Her response was instant, and with one slap of the whip she quickly took to the head of affairs with a furlong to race. From there she had too much pace, and as Polar Charge and Sadler's Flag appeared on either side of her tail, she provided a final burst of speed to make the race safe. Trainer Criquette Head commented, "I always thought that she was a nice filly, and she was the one I had in mind for the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 3, but I had to let her down a bit after the G1 Prix Saint-Alary as she was not well afterwards. I gave her some time to come around again, and she proved all her quality today. She will now have a rest and come back to race in the autumn."

Flamingo Road, winner of last year's G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Mulheim, is used to mixing it with the colts, having been third in the G1 Deutsches Derby here last July and in the G1 E.L.E. Pokal-Grosser Erdgas-Preis at Gelsenkirchen a month later. She was runner-up in the G1 Mercedes-Benz-Grosser Preis Von Baden at Baden Baden in September to Tiger Hill (Ire), form which proved she was good enough for a crack at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Longchamp in October, where she finished a respectable 10th. She has been relatively disappointing so far this year, last time finishing 8 1/2 lengths behind Silvano when third in the G2 Emirates-Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft June 4. She bounced back here with a fine front-running display to readily reverse that form and put herself back in the top league. Although she set a moderate pace in front, Silvano was struggling by halfway and by the time they turned into the straight, the filly was clear and looked in no danger from her old adversary. It was Albaran who loomed, but Flamingo Road shook off her nearest challenger with a furlong to race, going clear to win in style.

Returning from a layoff of nearly seven months, Kahal closed from last to win the Nearctic H. over a boggy turf course. The six-year-old had tried turf sprinting just once in North America last year and was successful, winning the GIII Morvich H. at Santa Anita on Nov. 6. He tried stretching out in his only start this year, the Jan. 1 GII San Gabriel H., but finished a well-beaten sixth behind Brave Act (GB). Neil Drysdale prepared Kahal with a string of six-furlong turf workouts at Hollywood, and the horse was in top shape. Tenth early, the homebred moved up on the turn while saving ground, split horses four wide in upper stretch and outkicked Gone Fishin, the favorite, who also closed swiftly from well behind.

Yankee Victor, unbeaten since losing a testicle to the surgeon's knife, was coming off an impressive 4 3/4-length triumph in the May 29 GI Met Mile and faced a much softer field here. Looking for his fourth straight, all at a mile, the dark bay went right to the front, cruised through a half in :46 2/5, shook off a minor challenge from Bright Valour after six furlongs in 1:10 2/5 and drew off again as much the best. "He did it very easy," jockey Herbie Castillo Jr. said.

"After his effort last time, he just came in and took to the track. Once he got a clear break, he got the first quarter pretty easy and at the top of the stretch he just took over." As for the future, trainer Carlos Morales said, "Right now, our main goal is the Whitney at Saratoga [GI, Aug. 6]. I'll sit down with the owners and decide what to do before then. We'll look at the [July 22, GII] Washington Park H. at Arlington and the [July 22, GIII] Salvator Mile at Monmouth Park."

Josr Algarhoud had won the G2 Gimcrack S. at York in his two-year-old year when trained by Mick Channon, who always considered him one of the best he had handled. Still lightly raced despite being a four-year-old, he produced two fair efforts in Group 2 company last year when second in the Celebration Mile at Goodwood Aug. 28 and third in the Challenge S. at Newmarket Oct. 16. He made his 2000 bow here, having been supplemented, with an encouraging success to beat horses with the benefit of racecourse experience already this season. Racing in mid-division early as Diableneyev (Nureyev) took over from Tumbleweed Ridge, Josr Algarhoud was travelling well. As the pace was picked up at halfway, he loomed closer to the leaders on the outside and as they entered the straight, he was positioned in the slipstream of Diableneyev and Tumbleweed Ridge. He responded gamely when asked to deliver a run which saw him hit the front with 150 yards remaining before holding off the late challenge of Cap Coz, who had threaded her way through the field on the rail. The result represented a unique one-two for the broodmare Pont Aven (Ire), and for Kilfrush Stud Ltd., who also bred the third in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris, Rhenium (Ire).

Coupled with Strike Smartly (Mr. Prospector), who is a half brother to his dam Dance Smartly, Scatter The Gold went into the race a maiden, but followed in his mother's hoofsteps to post a decisive win in the first leg of the Canadian Triple Crown. It was the third Plate victory for Sam-Son, coming exactly one month after the stable's owner, Ernie Samuels, passed away. "I know that Ernie is right here with me," said his wife, Liza Samuels. Scatter The Gold had made four starts in the maiden ranks, most recently trying turf for the first time and finishing second by a neck at Woodbine June 3. Back on the dirt and stretching out to 10 furlongs for the first time, the dark bay was well back early, but circled the field on the far turn, took over at the top of the stretch and pulled away impressively. The colt goes next in the second leg, the Prince Of Wales S. at Fort Erie July 23. His stablemate came with a weak bid at the top of the lane, but weakened to be 10th, while 3-1 favorite Pete's Sake (Peteski) settled in the middle of the pack through the opening fractions, but stopped suddenly and had to be pulled up, then was vanned off.

Squirtle Squirt has not been beaten since finishing fourth in his Apr. 21 debut going a quarter mile at Santa Anita. The dark bay came back to win a maiden test going 4 1/2 furlongs at Hollywood May 5 and added the William L. Proctor Memorial S. over that track and distance May 29. Stretching it out a little this time, the favorite sprinted right to the lead, set a serious pace and opened it up down the lane to win impressively. "He did everything right again," jockey Laffit Pincay Jr. said. "I put him on the lead and waited for everybody to come after him, but nobody came. This horse is a professional." The colt will be pointed for the July 23 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship.

Office Miss captured the restricted Ticonderoga H. over the Belmont turf last October and ended the season with an open allowance score on the Aqueduct lawn Nov. 18, then came back Jan. 4 to make it three in a row in a stakes at Tampa Bay Downs. Off the board facing graded-stakes foes in her next try at Gulfstream in February, she had not been out since running second in the Mar. 19 Hillsborough S. at Tampa. The crowd's choice despite the layoff, the gray mare settled in eighth through six furlongs, but came motoring down the lane to catch Bridal Glow in the final strides.

ISTINTAJ (c, 4, Nureyev--Mathkurh, by Riverman) took one start to get acquainted with American racing, but has annihilated his competition in two subsequent races. The homebred spent his two-year-old season in England, winning one of four starts. In his U.S. debut in a May 10 allowance, he finished fourth, beaten by five lengths. He returned two weeks later and romped by 4 1/2 lengths in a similar spot. Sent off as the 9-5 second choice here, the dark bay colt sprinted to the early lead and was never challenged, winning by 4 1/2 lengths. Istintaj is a half to Asfurah (Dayjur), Hwt. 2yo Filly-Ire, GSW-GB & G1SP-Ire, $117,622. Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-1, $63,595.

HOTSPUR (c, 3, Pine Bluff--Black Foot Beauty, by Devil's Bag) returned after a four-month break to finish fourth in a Belmont allowance event May 11. Run back a week and half later, the chestnut colt missed a win by three-quarters of a length in the same type of event. Racing ninth out of a field of 10 for the opening mile here, he made his way towards the front of the pack on the turn. The 2-1 favorite took the lead midstretch and held off a late surge from second-place finisher Go Go Juice (Lac Quimet) to win by a neck. Lifetime Record: 8-2-1-0, $53,530.

Margins: 3/4, 4HF, HD. Odds: 2.45, 8.60, 5.35.

Kiss A Native won his first three races as a two-year-old at Calder by a combined 36 lengths, including a five-length romp in the Florida Stallion S. Tried in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, he finished last before being laid off for six months. He returned in the Gill Marine S. May 21, but was pulled up in the stretch. Rebounding, he came back June 10 to win the Victoria Park S. The bay gelding was the 2-1 second choice here and rated kindly before making a quick four-wide move on the turn, taking command in the stretch and driving to 3/4-length victory.

Precious Feather began her career last September at Calder for James Hatchett, but seemed to enjoy the move to Kentucky and the switch to the Dallas Stewart barn when she finished second in maiden special weight test at Keeneland Apr. 19 and at Churchill May 18. Reunited with Hatchett and returning to Calder on June 13, the dark bay led throughout to romp by four lengths and break her maiden. She was last early here and got bumped when between rivals, but rallied, slipping along the rail to take the lead in upper stretch and drawing clear under urging.

SILVER RAIL (f, 3, Dispersal--Silver Doe, by Silver Buck) won her debut at Monmouth breaking from the rail and going two turns in gate-to-wire fashion. She returned here from the outside post and remained undefeated with an impressive victory. The gray filly, sent off as the 2-1 second choice, showed good speed again, but got hung up four wide on the first turn and lost several lengths. She then made a wide bid on the final turn, snatched the lead at the head of the stretch and coasted home by 4 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $32,400.

FALLON COULD BE OUT FOR SEASON

It now seems that the injury Kieren Fallon sustained at Royal Ascot on Wednesday may rule him out for the rest of the season. After the operation to repair nerves in his shoulder and re-align ligaments at the National Orthopaedic Hospital in Stanmore, Middlesex, Fallon's doctor said, "Kieren's operation was very complicated, but thankfully all the feeling has returned to his arm and he can move his hand quite freely. It's impossible to say at this stage whether he'll be back before the end of the season. The surgeon has told Kieren that he must be patient and let the damage repair itself, which may take some time." This will come as a considerable blow to the Irishman, as his bid to retain the jockey's championship now looks forelorn, as he has ridden 59 winners so far.

IRISH DERBY FIELD SHAPING UP

With the news that G1 2000 Guineas winner King's Best (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}) might yet make the field for the G1 Budweiser Irish Derby at The Curragh on Sunday, the contest is looking more competitive all the time. Although Aidan O'Brien has many entries, it is suspected that the choice will be between G1 Prix Lupin winner Ciro (USA) (Woodman {USA}), Shakespeare (GB) (Rainbow Quest {USA}) and Glyndebourne (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}). Muakaad (GB) (Muhtarram {USA}) looks to be Dermot Weld's likely runner, while John Oxx has two to support G1 Epsom Derby winner Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}). Holding Court (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), impressive winner of the G1 Prix du Jockey Club, is almost certain to be supplemented. In other news, G1 Epsom Oaks runner-up Kalypso Katie (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}) may go for the G2 Pretty Polly S. at the same meeting on July 1.

BLU AIR FORCE TO FRANCE

Blu Air Force (Ire) (Sri Pekan {USA}), winner of the G3 Prix de Palais Royale Longchamp May 25, is due to change stables and be trained in France by Andre Fabre. His main goal will be the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest Deauville Aug. 6.

SHOPPINGWITHBETTY (USA) (f, 3, Danzig {USA})--Buy The Firm {USA} {GISW-US, $735,409}, by Affirmed {USA}, sent off at odds of nearly 4-1, was brought to the front early by jockey Gerald Mosse to control the pace. Those tactics paid off, as the $950,000 KEESEP yearling managed to hold off all-comers, including Fuerta (Ire) (Foxhound {USA}) and Slow Down (Seattle Slew), quickening again with two furlongs remaining before staying on well to win by half-a-length. The winner is a 1/2 to Storm Broker (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}), GSW-US, $138,714. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, FF70,000.

JARNET SUSPENDED

Thierry Jarnet was suspended for 15 days by the Longchamp stewards yesterday for careless riding in the last race. He took the ground of another horse which caused a fall, with the jockey Yanis Aouabed luckily not injured. The suspension will run from July 4 to July 18 inclusive.
