AN ORIENTAL INVASION

While French championship races are becoming almost routine pickings now for Japanese-based horses, today's G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket could mark another watershed in Japanese racing history if Agnes World (Danzig) is first home. Seeking the Pearl became the first Japanese-trained horse to win a Group One race in Europe when taking the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest on August 9, 1998, but the island country still does not boast a winner in England. The winner of the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp last season, Agnes World returned this year with a creditable second to Nuclear Debate in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and has been kept in Newmarket since to acclimatise and prepare. As usual, Godolphin uphold the home defence with Lend A Hand (Great Commotion) and Bertolini (Danzig) in their quest to win this for the first time. The former took the G2 Duke of York S. May 18, before finishing third to Superior Premium (GB) in the G2 Cork & Orrery S. at Royal Ascot June 22, while the latter finished best of his racing group, but only third overall in the G2 King's Stand S. Michael Jarvis' Lincoln Dancer (Turtle Island {Ire}) was impressive when running away with the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock May 27 on soft going, and the easing in the ground will benefit him here. Aidan O'Brien, successful last year with Stravinsky, relies on both Monashee Mountain (Danzig) and Rossini (Miswaki). While both had two-year-old form which placed them amongst the best of their generation, they have been relatively disappointing in their efforts so far this season.

Today, Newmarket, England, post time: 3:05 p.m.

A NOT-SO SHOCKING FALMOUTH

An excellent third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 14, Alshakr (Bahri) made good on generous odds given her liking for the prevalent track condition to score a first group victory in yesterday's Falmouth S. at Newmarket. With a distinct lack of early pace, jockey Richard Hills sent Alshakr to the front within the first furlong as Croeso Cariad (Most Welcome {GB}) was settled in midfield with Danceabout (Shareef Dancer) in rear. Challenged by a pair of rivals at the quarter-mile marker, she repelled those bids professionally and entered the final furlong with a one-length advantage. That was to prove enough as Alshakr, racing on the heavily favoured stands rail, ran on impressively for the victory with a little more in hand than the winning margin indicates. Winning trainer Ben Hanbury said, "Sheikh Hamdan told (jockey) Richard (Hills) before the race that if there was no pace to make the running and he had the guts to go and do it. He rode a brilliant race." Of future plans, racing manager Angus Gold added, "I think she will stay at a mile for the time being. If she does step up it will be in the (9 furlong 192 yards) G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood (Aug. 5). With her the ground is crucial; she needs soft ground."

 Emulating last year's success of City On A Hill for owner and trainer, Noverre showed a willingness to battle by regaining the lead in a driving finish to deny the equally tenacious Media Mogul. Noverre retained his unbeaten record having already secured wins in a conditions event at Chantilly May 30, and the Listed Prix La Fleche at Maisons-Laffitte June 14. Unlike in his previous races, Noverre did not set the pace but was settled in third ahead of Bram Stoker and Media Mogul as Bravado (GB) (Zafonic) led. The field as a whole came under pressure to maintain their positions at the quarter-mile marker, but it was Noverre who led approaching the final furlong. Media Mogul emerged from the pack as the main danger soon after and led briefly inside the final furlong, but jockey Jimmy Fortune urged for further effort from Noverre and got the required response as his mount regained the lead close home for a hard-fought win. Bram Stoker kept on well for third without striking a serious blow. Noverre now has alternative options and will point to either the G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte July 29, or the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood
 Aug. 3. Winning trainer David Loder said, "In France he has had to make his own running which hasn't suited him and here he got to the front plenty early enough. He is tough, he loves racing, but is very idle and I don't think he will ever be a ten-length wonder."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

PREAKNESS WINNER RECOVERING Tests taken on Red Bullet (Unbridled) following his disappointing third-place finish in Sunday's GII Dwyer S. revealed a high white blood cell count, indicating an infection, trainer Joe Orseno said yesterday. "It was a pretty good infection," Orseno said. "We never pinpointed it and he never spiked a temperature or was out of his feed tub. He's on anti-biotics and has already started to spark up. The bottom line is that there was an infection and that's why he was dehydrated after the race and blowing so hard." Orseno said the setback is a minor one and Red Bullet remains on course to start in the Aug. 6 GI Haskell at Monmouth Park. He cautioned, though, that Red Bullet will run only if he is training sharply, the way he did prior to winning the Preakness.

KNOWN FACT DIES Known Fact (In Reality--Tamerett, by Tim Tam), the first stallion to ever stand at Prince Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte Farms near Lexington, Kentucky, passed away Monday at the age of 23. The winner of the G1 Middle Park S. as a two-year-old, Known Fact won the G1 English 2000 Guineas, G2 Waterford Crystal Mile and G2 Queen Elizabeth II at three en route to being named the champion miler in Europe in 1980. Top offspring of the stallion include the champions Warning (GB) and Markofdistinction. Known Fact cover 20 mares this year, but recently became ill and was buried Tuesday on the farm.

☆ STUD NEWS ☆

YAGLI TO FORENAGHTS STUD Yagli (Jade Hunter--Nijinsky's Best, by Nijinsky II), recently retired due to a breathing problem, will stand the 2001 breeding season at the Smurfit family's Forenaghts Stud in County Kildare, Ireland for a yet-to-be-determined stud fee. The seven-year-old, a three-time Grade I winner in 1999, was winless in three starts in 2000. Madeleine Paulson, wife of owner Allen Paulson, told England's Racing Post that they had received many offers to stand the chestnut, but settled on Forenaghts because she is "friends with Michael Smurfit and wanted to make sure Yagli had a good home."

*You may also pick up a copy of today's TDN at:

SARATOGA SPRINGS TO FRANCE Saratoga Springs (El Gran Senor--Population {Ire}, by General Assembly), one of the top European juveniles of 1997, will stand stud in France at Haras du Mezeray for a fee of FF40,000 (approximately $5,800). The five-year-old parlayed success in the G3 Beresford S. in Ireland into a victory in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster as a juvenile. He carried over his strong form to his three-year-old campaign, where he defeated eventual G1 St James's Palace S. winner Dr Fong in the G2 Dante S. The stallion will stand the Southern Hemisphere season at Milluna Stud in Australia before taking up his duties at the French stud next year.

SMITH EARNS DOMINION AWARD Katherine Todd Smith, known throughout the Thoroughbred community in Ocala, Florida, as Saint Katherine, has been named the winner of the 2000 Dogwood Dominion Award. The award is presented annually to honor an unsung hero in the Thoroughbred industry. Smith, an Ocala-based horse identifier, has rescued and found homes for 17 neglected Thoroughbreds and is known for her generosity and compassion. One of her nominators was (Ocala) Star-Banner columnist Lucy Tobias, who wrote, "She listens well to people, not just what they need for their horse work, but to what they are saying about their lives and their problems. She is a helper, facilitator, a person looking for solutions." Selected from 30 nominations by judges Anne Campbell, Penny Chenery and Pat Day, Smith, will receive $5,000 and a bronze statue of the Dogwood colorbearer Dominion at a luncheon at the Saratoga Reading Room on Aug. 2.

9th-BEL, $44,000, Alw, 3/up, 1 1/4mT, 2:02 2/5, fm. A. P. DELTA (c, 3, A.P. Indy--Lyphard's Delta {GSW-Eng}, by Lyphard) was a narrow maiden winner in his second turf start over this course and distance June 9 last time out. The colt stalked a pedestrian pace, burst clear approaching midstretch and held on late for a 1 1/2-length tally as the 4-5 choice. Lifetime Record: 6-2-2-0, $66,640. O-Saud bin Khaled. B-Palides Investments Nv, Inc (KY). T-William I Mott.

3rd-BEL, $44,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1m, 1:35 3/5, ft. SPAIN (f, 3, Thunder Gulch--Drina {SW, $205,682}, by Regal and Royal) had three Grade I placings in her career, but only a maiden score in the win column. Off the board in her last four outings, including a sixth-place finish in the May 27 Gill Dogwood, she was a slight 7-5 favorite here. The filly broke on the lead and stormed home a 6 1/4-length victress. Lifetime Record: MGISP, 12-2-3-2, $234,235. O/B-The Thoroughbred Corporation (KY). T-D Wayne Lukas.

2nd-BEL, $41,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:08 3/5, fm. + MARQ OF BEAUTY (f, 2, Marquetry--Dam Clever, by Damascus), the 6-1 third choice in her debut, was never far back, loomed up four wide into the stretch and battled Killistos (Sky Classic) to the wire to win by a nose. The winner is a half sister to Tricky Code (Lost Code, GSW, $603,981). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O/B-Richard D Schibell (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

6th-BEL, $41,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:09 4/5, fm. RUFF (f, 2, Clever Trick--Marked Well, by Well Decorated) ran second against the boys for a $65,000 tag June 16. Making her turf debut, the filly, sent off at 6-1, swept to the lead off the turn and pulled away to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $31,230. O/B-Robert Spiegel (Ky). T-David Donk.

Hal's Hope to Return Saturday:

GI Florida Derby winner Hal's Hope (Jolie's Halo), unraced since a last-of-eight finish in the GI Preakness S. May 20, returns to action in Saturday's $200,000 Carry Back S. for three-year-olds going six furlongs at Calder Race Course. Owned, bred and trained by 88-year-old Harlord Rose, the dark bay has looked his old self in the morning, most recently clocking a bullet three furlongs July 11 in :34 4/5 at Calder. Saturday's main competition comes from West Coast-based Caller One (Phone Trick), winner in his last start of Hollywood Park's seven-furlong Laz Barrera S. The last time he raced at six furlongs, Caller One was a 10-length winner of the Hansel S. at Turfway Park in 1:08 2/5. Jockey Corey Nakatani will be in from California for the ride aboard the likely favorite.

NUMBERS UP AT TATTERSALLS JULY SALES

Top billing at the second day of the Tattersalls July Sales yesterday was shared at 60,000gns by the breeding prospect Birdsong (Ire) (Dolphin Street {Fr}) and Crest of a Wave (Ire) (Woodman {USA}), a colt whose selling point was his racing ability. It is to Peter Kavanagh's Kildaragh Stud in Co Kildare that Birdsong will eventually retire after selling to Larry Stratton of Southern Bloodstock, but not before she has tried to add to her Newcastle maiden win of last month. "She has a big pedigree and it's nice that she's a winner," said Kavanagh of the half sister to the dam of Needle Gun and Luso. "She will probably race again, although I haven't decided who will train her." Leading Swiss trainer Miloslav Weiss will take charge of Crest of a Wave, a three-year-old who was recently saddled by Dermot Weld to win a Cork maiden in the colours of Moyglare Stud. Initial Figure (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), a member of the same draft, has a different career awaiting him after being knocked down to Linda Tate for 57,000gns. "He is going to stand as a stallion in Germany, but hopefully he can win first in either Britain or Ireland," said the Newmarket-based agent.

FALLON LIKELY OUT FOR THE YEAR Britain's champion jockey of the last three seasons, Kieren Fallon, announced yesterday that he is unlikely to resume race-riding this year. Fallon has been out of action since injuring his left shoulder and sustaining nerve damage when involved in a pile-up at the Royal meeting last month. The injury was so serious it was feared that Fallon would lose the use of his left arm, but for the quick thinking of doctors to operate immediately. Fallon said: "I'm having physio on my left hand, but I haven't had physio on the shoulder yet. It is painful and has to stay strapped [to my body] for another three weeks, but I'm trying to get the power back in my left hand which is coming slowly. I don't think I'll be back this year. The specialist won't know until the strapping comes off in another three weeks."

LODER LOOKING FORWARD TO GETTING BACK

Speaking after Noverre (USA) (Rahy {USA}) had won yesterday's G3 TNT July S., trainer David Loder discussed his thoughts on his return to England next year, as he prepares to leave Evry and start training at Stanley House Stables in Newmarket. "I think the English staff are looking forward to getting back," he commented. "We had a good thing going when we were here before, and so we're looking to get back into the old routine. I had a filly that ran third in France the other day, and had she run in a maiden at Nottingham she would have won easily. They tended to have to make the running out there at first, but they now sit second in their races. I have some nice horses this year, but they are very backward and immature. The plan on the return to England is to train privately for Godolphin, and there is a possibility that we will have a few older horses too, although we have some at the moment and use them as lead horses. I'm looking forward to getting back."

Disappointing when sixth in a Haydock handicap June 10, Cephalonia had previously been successful in similar events at Newbury May 20 and Pontefract May 3. She banished the memories of her most recent run to score a first stakes win with a battling display to deny her favoured stablemate. Cephalonia led from Shuwaib as Samsaam took close order in fourth. Samsaam went second with a half mile to go and took the lead briefly at the quarter-mile marker. With Pat Eddery aboard and at the top of his form, Cephalonia was galvanised back into the lead and gamely fought her way up the hill to record a deserving win. Samsaam was just denied having given his best, but was safely clear of the running on Shuwaib. John Dunlop enthused: "That was vintage Pat [Eddery], he has ridden a lovely race from the front. She is a sweet, honest, genuine filly. I don't know what happened [at Haydock] last time, she just had an off-day. I think her probable target would be the [G3] Park Hill S. at Doncaster [Sept. 6]."

3.50 Doncaster Racecourse Sponsorship Club Conditions S. (Class C), £10,950, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:39.32, gd. FRENCH FELLOW (IRE) (c, 3, Suave Dancer {USA}--Mademoiselle Chloe {GB} {SW & GSP-GB} by Night Shift {USA}), runner-up in the Listed Thirsk Classic Trial in April and 17th in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, after which he was found to have a foot injury, was heavily backed to start 8-15 favourite, but made heavy weather of this. Pursuing the good pace set by Meadaar (USA) (Diesis {GB}), he took a long time to overhaul the leader inside the final furlong, but finally found his stride and went on to win in workmanlike style by a length. ECOLOGY (IRE) (c, 2, Sri Pekan {USA}--Ecco Mi {Ire}, by Priolo {USA}), sent off the 10-11 favourite to secure a hat trick of wins and giving away weight all round, put up a very smart performance, making every yard of the running, quickening clear at the quarter-mile point and winning by an easy four lengths. Lifetime: 4-3-1-0, £15,977.

O-Hesmonds Stud; B-John Foley; T-John Dunlop; J-Willie Ryan.

4.15 Newmarket, EBF Swaythling Memorial Novice S. (Class D), £9,250, 2yo, 6fT, 1:15.33, gd.

DOMINUS (GB) (c, 2, Primo Dominie {GB}--Howlin' {USA}, by Alleged {USA}), sent off the 15-8 favourite after good efforts at Newmarket and Ascot, led from the start and after being headed by his stable companion, the newcomer Red Magic (Fr) (Grand Lodge {USA}), inside the final furlong, fought back to regain the lead and won going away by three-parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, £10,939.

Recently a conditions winner at Maisons-Laffitte June 14, Greengroom stepped up on his two previous performances to record a brave first stakes win. He travelled well in third on the rail as Marliana (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}) led from Alfa Blade (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}) with Si Je N'Avais Plus and Rajam close up in fourth and fifth respectively. Greengroom went to the front approaching the final furlong but was immediately challenged by Rajam and, to a lesser extent, Si Je N'Avais Plus. Greengroom showed a willing attitude for a battle and kept on well to assert inside the final half furlong and won going away in the closing stages. Rajam was not disgraced in defeat yet had nothing extra to give close home, but safely held Si Je N'Avais Plus for second.
