KEENELAND JULY STARTS TODAY

Tonight at 7:30 p.m., auctioneer Tom Caldwell will slam his hammer and it will be time to "Play Ball," as Keeneland hosts the first session of its 57th July Selected Yearling Sale in Lexington, Kentucky. A total of 208 yearlings are catalogued for this year's two-day, three-session event. The first of two Tuesday sessions begins at 10 a.m. and the second, the sale's final session, will begin at 7:30 p.m. "The success of our past July sale graduates speaks volumes about the quality of horses in this sale," said W.B. Rogers Beasley, Keeneland's director of sales. "The caliber of horses that have gone through our ring is a real credit to our consignors. In 1999 and 2000 to date, we've had 17 July Sale graduates who have won 26 Grade I or Group 1 stakes. And we believe the quality of horses in this year's sale rivals the quality of recent years." The Who's Who list of sires represented at the auction, includes offspring by such great stallions as the late Mr. Prospector, A.P. Indy, Danzig, Deputy Minister, Nureyev, Sadler's Wells, Seattle Slew and Unbridled. Mr. Prospector is represented by five colts and three fillies in this year's event. Buyers will have their first opportunity to purchase yearlings by such promising young stallions as Atticus, Boston Harbor, Pulpit, Siphon and Spinning World. Recent graduates of the July sale include Grade/Group I winners Agnes World, Banshee Breeze, Behrens, Black Hawk, Cash Run, Catinca, Commendable, Eagle Cafe, Fasliyev, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Gracioso, High Yield, Stephen Got Even, Stravinsky, Tranquility Lake, and Vicar. "I think people that come to the July Selected Yearling Sale are really looking for that Classic, that special horse," said Duncan Taylor, who oversees Taylor Made Farm and who has consigned over 25 horses to the Keeneland auction. "We try to raise a horse for them and we hope that we have one." All three sessions of the sale can be seen live on ESPN.com.

PETRUSHKA ADDS A CLASSIC

Petrushka (Ire) (Unfuwain), at odds of 11-2, produced an emphatic performance to take her first Classic, handing a five-and-a-half length beating to 2-1 favorite Melikah (Ire) (Lammtarra) and record a memorable Irish Derby and Oaks double for jockey Johnny Murtagh. She was brilliant in her first start this year, winning the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket Apr. 18, but failed to shine when a one-paced third behind Lahan (GB) in the G1 1000 Guineas S. at the same course May 7. When she had to come from a long way back at her next attempt at a Classic in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 9, she did well to finish fourth behind Love Divine (GB). The feeling entering this race was that she had yet to recapture the form of her seasonal return and the hope was that she could finally show her mettle in this company. She turned those hopes to hard reality here with a powerful display in the straight under a suitably confident ride from Murtagh to make history as the first syndicate-owned horse to win a Classic. She settled in fourth on the rail early as Littlepacepaddocks (Ire) (Accordion {Ire}) set out to make it a true test of stamina. As they swung off the turn into the straight, Murtagh kept his head and waited for the gap to appear on the rail. When the leader veered off in front, he had his opening and he went for it, taking her to the front with one and a half furlongs remaining before bursting clear and settling the result in a matter of strides. The further she went, the more she turned this competitive Classic into a procession, powering away to comprehensively reverse Epsom placings. While Melikah stayed on well for a clear second, Richard Fahey's Inforapenny (GB) (Deploy {GB}) ran on to claim third place at a mighty 100-1. Tim Jones, speaking for the Highclere Thoroughbred Racing Syndicate, said afterwards, "We're thrilled to bits; she was awesome. The mood here is ecstatic, as it is our first Classic glory, and it's something you dream can happen, but never dare to imagine. It's easy in hindsight to say this, but we came here with that confidence because she had done everything right since Epsom. She's at least turned the tables on two of the three that beat her at Epsom, and without wishing to be too cocky, it would be nice to have the opportunity to have a go at the other one (Love Divine) now." Trainer Michael Stoute added, "The G1 Yorkshire Oaks (York, Aug. 23) would be the obvious target, but I would like to take plenty of time to think about it. She is very well entered up and there are lots of opportunities for her."

War Game showed promise with a half length second to Super Tassa (Ire) in the G3 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud May 17 last time out and a win in the Listed Prix de la Pepiniere at Longchamp Apr. 20 in her second start. Here she was ridden with utmost confidence by Olivier Peslier to record her first graded stakes success. Peslier was content to let Mayaro (Fr) (Saumarez {GB}) put 10 lengths between him and his filly with a mile to race. That decision proved decisive, as Mayaro came back to War Game and Lucky Dream turning into the straight. Cruising with three furlongs remaining, she quickened to lead shortly after and only had to be kept to her work to hold off the spirited challenge of Herculano and win comfortably in the end. Ben Ewar (GB) (Old Vic {GB}) was pulled up midway through the race after hemorrhaging badly and falling before jockey Davy Bonilla could get him to a complete stop.

Rob's Spirit may be the second-best three-year-old turf runner in Bill Mott's barn behind King Cugat, but he drew closer to his stablemate with an impressive victory yesterday. He won his only start as a two-year old last August at Saratoga and returned off a long layoff in April to finish a close fourth in a Keeneland allowance. Shipping north to Belmont, the bay narrowly won an allowance May 11. He made his stakes debut in the GII Hill Prince S. June 17, missing by a half length. As the heavy favorite over the boggy going, Rob's Spirit raced up closed to the early pace, rallied on the final turn and drew away when roused to earn his first graded stakes victory. "He's got great cruising speed and he lets you sit him where you need to," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "The turf didn't seem all that soft to me, but he handled the going great anyway."

 Also Ran: Academic, Allende, Tiltam, Tempered Appeal.

Think Red debuted with an easy win over this course June 11 and returned to win a June 24 allowance contest. Heavily favored to remain undefeated in his stakes bow, the bay colt rated well off the pace early, drew even with the leaders at the three-eighths pole and pulled away down the lane. "I was hoping to take this horse off the pace and he did settle nicely for me," said winning rider Todd Kabel. "I knew the pace was slow, but I thought the middle fractions would pick up. I did get a little worried going down the backside when he started to get a little anxious with me. He showed a lot of determination though once I asked him to kick on. He's got a lot of class, a lot of talent and I think he's going to continue showing us that down the line."

When Pirate Of Penzance got the better of Pan Jammer in the Listed Rochestown S. at Leopardstown June 5 in his 2000 debut, the runner-up had to make the running, which his trainer believed did not suit him. He had since gone on to be third in the G3 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot June 22, but he returned to his winning ways here to claim his first stakes race. Held up in fourth early as Cashel Palace (Ire) (Lure) made the early running, he was brought to the outside of the favourite, traveling easily, with two furlongs remaining. From there, the result looked inevitable, as he quickened to lead with one-and-a-half furlongs remaining before going away to comfortably reverse the Leopardstown placings. Channon said, "Things have gone right for us today. There was no pace at Leopardstown and he had to make his own running. He is a great horse to train as he is very laid back and we knew we had a decent horse after his run at Ascot."

Shibl is a horse on the upgrade, having taken the step from maiden company to conditions class, and now to stakes level within a few weeks. Last time out, he had handed a length-and-a-half beating to Margay (Ire) at The Curragh July 1, and he produced a fine display here to account for a competitive field including last year's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Saffron Walden. Held up early as McDab cut out the running, he was moved up steadily by Craine to race in second with over a furlong remaining before being asked to quicken and take the lead with 200 yards to race. He veered slightly right under pressure and caused interference to the long-time leader, but it was minimal, and he had enough to draw away and put daylight between himself and the runner-up.

Winner of the G3 Quotenhaus Frankfurt-Preis here in April last year, Imperioso was then fourth in the G2 Grosser Muller-Brot-Preis a month later, after which he did not run again all season. After finishing third behind Karakal in the Listed BMW Sachsen-Preis at Dresden June 11, he could do no better than fifth in the G2 Idee Hansa-Preis at Hamburg June 25. Banyumanik (Ire) (Perugino {USA}) and Speedmaster (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) disputed the lead from the start, while Imperioso raced towards the rear. Half brothers Kalatos and Karakal looked set to dominate the finish halfway down the straight, but Imperioso, racing on the wide outside, quickened brilliantly to overhaul them and flew home for an easy win, giving his owner/breeders their second straight win in the race following the filly Catella (Ger) (Generous {Ire}) last year.

New Jersey-bred Thistyranthasclass became the talk of the Monmouth Park backstretch after an 11-length maiden romp May 28, covering six furlongs in 1:09 1/5. He strolled through allowance conditions after that, beating state-breds on June 10 and June 24. Despite his three-race winning streak, the chestnut had a tough task stepping into open stakes company and stretching to two turns for the first time. Under a hustling ride from Jose Velez, Thistyranthasclass sprung from his far outside post to duel for the lead with GSW Graeme Hall. They raced neck-and-neck until the winner slowly pulled away in midstretch to record his first stakes victory.

Xtra Heat, a neck winner for a $25,000 tag in her June 30 bow, was lightly regarded in her jump to stakes company. The filly stepped right out to the lead, set all the fractions and came home an easy winner. "She's really quick on her feet," said winning jockey Mark Johnston. "She stumbled a little bit leaving the gate, but she recovered fast and got the lead in an easy fashion. I said to myself, 'I hope she keeps going like this. If she kicks on I don't think anybody can catch her.' I'm really thrilled to have a two-year-old to ride that can really run."

Barretts Topper Nearing Debut:

Gotham City (Saint Ballado), who sold for $2 million at the Barretts Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale in March, worked four furlongs in :48 1/5 Saturday morning at Hollywood Park as he continues to advance towards his career debut. The move impressed trainer Bob Hess, Jr, as well as the Hollywood clockers. "The clockers didn't know who he was," Hess said from Keeneland, where he is attending the July Sale. "They thought he was some European import that I brought in, he trains so well." The colt, owned by David Shimmon, could make his first start in a matter of weeks, according to the conditioner. "He's ready to go five-eighths right now, but an educated guess is (for a six-furlong race) around August 15," he said.

Full Moon Madness, away from the races for 17 months, returned to win five of eight starts since January. The gelding was coming off back-to-back stakes wins in the May 28 Radar Ahead H. and the June 17 Answer Do S. The slight second choice in the field of six, he chased the pacesetting Prince Foley and wore that rival down in deep stretch for a driving victory. "I know what [trainer] Bob Marshall did today," admitted winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "He left the TV in the stall so this horse could watch the [Olympic trials] track meet. I mean, he ran just like Mike Johnson. This horse, he just put on a 100-yard sprint and it was over. We got to the apex of the turn and it was time to start making decisions. I picked his head up and he just took off. I said to myself, 'Oh, yeah, we've got horse today.'"

6th-HOL, $62,910, Alw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:34 2/5, fm. SKY JACK (g, 4, Jaklin Klugman--Sky Captive, by Skywalker) easily won a state-bred allowance on the dirt May 5 and made a smooth transition to the turf and to open company, taking another allowance June 2. Placed in the Answer Do S. for California-breds June 17, he dueled before finishing fourth. Stretching to two turns and back into open company here, the gray sped to the early lead, set the pace and held off a challenge from Chatting (Exbourne) for a half-length win at almost 3-1. Lifetime Record: 6-4-0-1, $144,117. O-Ren-Mar Thoroughbreds. B-Rene & Margie Lambert (CA). T-Doug O'Neill.

7th-HOL, $54,000, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($80,000), 3yo/up, 6f, 1:09 2/5, ft.

GRADY (g, 5, Prospectors' Gamble--Petadear, by Subpet) was claimed for $32,000 last December and has now won three of six starts since then. Most recently, he took a May 12 optional claimer and finished second June 21 when entered for an $80,000 tag. Without a tag here, the hard-hitting five-year-old settled early and rallied to split horses and get up by a nose over Elegant Fellow (Memo {Chi}). The winner is a half to O.K. No Problem (Tim Tam Aly), SP, $158,269. Lifetime Record: SW, 31-6-8-7, $500,263. O-Alesia & Bran Jam Stable & Ciaglia. B-Hart Farm Inc. (FL). T-Peter Eurton.

9th-HOL, $51,765, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($40,000), 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:43 2/5, ft.

MOVING'S GOLD (g, 5, Falstaff--Glance's Gold, by Fast Gold), off for two years, returned to the track with a sixth-place effort for a $40,000 tag in April, then was off until running fifth in a June 14 Hollywood allowance last time out. The 4-1 shot stalked the pace, bid three wide into the stretch and forged to the front in the final strides for a head victory. The winner is a half brother to Golden Remark (Regal Remark), MSW, $136,540. Lifetime Record: 8-2-2-1, $70,160. O-Luis Asistio. B-G Comrie & Little Mountain Stable (Alb). T-Bruce Headley.

10th-HOL, $45,675, Msw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:35 3/5, fm. TIMBER THUNDER (c, 3, Woodman--Secreto's Glory {SW, $126,618}, by Secreto) was never in the mix and finished an uninspired 10th in his bow over 1 1/16 miles June 18. The 9-5 favorite to improve on that effort here, the colt stalked the pace and gamely outkicked Giverny (End Sweep) by 3/4 lengths in a long drive. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $27,000. O/B-Frank Stronach (Ky). T-Robert Frankel.

He was still plenty fit for his debut, however. The 13-1 shot dueled for the lead, inched away on the turn and prevailed by a length over Street Cry (Ire) (Machiavellian), a debuter owned by Godolphin. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,800. 3--Zilina (Ire), 120, m, 5, Pips Pride (GB)--Tatra (GB), by Niniski (USA). Ir£4,500.

Margins: 1, 1HF, HD. Odds: 16-1, 4-1, 14-1.

Also ran: Social Harmony (Ire), Conormara (USA), Tiger Royal (Ire), Newpark Lady (Ire), Damalis (Ire), Kenema (Ire), Antinnaz (Ire), Eveam (Ire), Romanylei (Ire), Miracle Ridge (Ire).

Inourhearts is one of those types that has always shown bags of speed, but for whom even five furlongs seems far enough. Here she held on to some reserves to last the trip and record her first stakes success in the process. She broke well and tracked Kenema (Ire) (Petardia {GB}) early as the blistering pace took no prisoners. She struck the front at halfway before keeping on well to hold off the attention of Warrior Queen, who looked as though she might catch the flying filly at one stage, but who was never nearer than the length that separated them at the line.

3.40 The Curragh, BPB Gypsum Industries EBF Maiden, Ir£14,400, 2yo, 7fT, 1:26.00, gd.

+ DERIVATIVE (IRE) (c, 2, Erins Isle {Ire}--Our Hope {GB}, by Dancing Brave {USA}) was sent off at odds of 12-1, with the Ballydoyle hope Leopard Spot (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) the 4-9 favourite after placing third in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot. Always racing handy, Derivative closed on the leaders Echo Canyon (Ire) (Lahib {USA}) and Silver Skates (Ire) (Slip Anchor {GB}) over two furlongs out, grabbed the lead at the furlong marker and despite drifting away from a straight line, ran on well to win comfortably by three-parts of a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, Ir£9,750. O/B-D H W Dobson; T-Jim Bolger; J-Kevin Manning.

3--Way For Life (Ger), 126, f, 3, Platini (Ger)--Waitotara (Ire), by Habitat (USA). DM6,000.

Margins: 7, 1 1/4, 1. Odds 1.50, 6.00, 4.30

Also ran: Tres Ravi (Ger), Simply Red (Ger), Wurfspiel (Ger), Salve (Ger).

Winner of her first two lifetime starts, at Mulheim and Baden-Baden, Wild Side made the jump into Group races on her third start and finished third in the G3 Deutscher Herold-Preis at Hamburg June 24, with Tres Ravi (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) the runner-up. She gained comfortable revenge on that rival here, leading throughout. When the pack closed on her early in the straight, she simply took off and was never challenged, winning impressively and suggesting she has a very bright future.

Quickening all the way up the straight, she was pressed on either side by Virginian (Ire) (In The Wings {GB}) and Golani (Ire) (Nikos {GB}) in the closing stages, but showed gameness to hold on by a short-head from the former in a pulsating finish.
