MONTJEU MANHANDLES KING GEORGE FOES

Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) was sent off the 1-3 favourite in yesterday's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot and bested 12-1 Fantastic Light (Rahy) by 1 3/4 lengths, but the margin of victory does not begin to tell the story. Many great horses have proven themselves in this arena in the past, but not many have done so in hack-canter. The image of Nijinsky and Lester Piggott is foremost in the mind when looking for a demonstration of how to make this race look easy, but Montjeu delivered a masterclass performance yesterday. The winner of the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, G1 Irish Derby and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at three, the colt was not pressed at The Curragh on his seasonal return in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup May 28 and produced another smooth display in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud July 2. Here he was held up in last place early as Raypour (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) inserted vital pace into this potentially muddling race. As Johnny Murtagh on Daliapour (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Richard Quinn on Shiva (Jpn) (Hector Protector) sat second and third, Montjeu was restrained by Mick Kinane alongside Fantastic Light. But the crowd's choice swung around the bend and, before Kinane could curb his enthusiasm, was quickly in third on the outside with the others in top flight. As Raypour faded and Shiva capitulated, it was Daliapour who was committed by Murtagh. Then Kinane moved his hands a few inches and Montjeu put the race to sleep instantly. Daliapour, a winner at this level, gave everything he had, but the French colt just sauntered by. Not asked to do anymore, he cantered past the line with a comfortable margin over a gallant Fantastic Light, who had come away from the rest. Kinane said, "He's just so special--he's undoubtedly the best I've ridden by a long shot. Everything seems to be in slow motion and so effortless with him. He never went more than three-parts pace, but I said in the end just go and enjoy yourself; I didn't even ask him to race. There's plenty ahead." Owner Michael Tabor commented, "I spoke to Michael (Kinane) and he said I could have won on him. He was just brilliant--he's always been a special horse, and he proved it today." He pointed at the G1 Irish Champion S. Sept. 9 as his next target, before another tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 1. Commenting on the fact that he is likely to meet Dubai Millennium in Ireland, he added, "It's what the public would love to see." Chart p.2

GOING FOR GLORY

The much-anticipated rematch between divisional stars Beautiful Pleasure (Maudlin) and Heritage Of Gold (Gold Legend) will take place in today's GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga. The five-year-olds last met in the GI Apple Blossom at Oaklawn Apr. 9, where Heritage Of Gold triumphed while Beautiful Pleasure finished fifth after a rough trip. Heritage Of Gold went on to capture her next two starts, including the GIII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill June 3 by four lengths over Silverbulletday, and is undefeated in four 2000 starts. "In terms of build-up and anticipation, this is the most exciting race that I've been involved in," remarked trainer Tom Amoss. "I've never been in a position where people are saying my mare might be the best in the country." She will have to overcome the sheer brilliance of Beautiful Pleasure, who rebounded from the Apple Blossom defeat to notch a pair of easy wins at Belmont. The defending Eclipse champion annihilated her foes in the June 24 GI Hempstead H. by 7 1/4 lengths under her own steam and will be tough to beat here. "This mare has so much raw talent it amazes me sometimes," said Donna Ward, her exercise rider. "The hard part is saving her from herself." Second to Banshee Breeze in this race last year, the Florida-bred bay tuned up for this outing with a bullet :58 2/5 at Saratoga last Sunday. The trifecta could be completed by Roza Robata (Fire Maker), winner of the GIII Pimlico Distaff May 20. A winner in her lone Saratoga start last summer, she has finished third behind the top two in each of her last two outings. Trainer Dale Romans was realistic about his charge's chances. "You know both of them [Beautiful Pleasure and Heritage Of Gold] aren't going to run bad races, but if one of does, we can be second," said Romans.

Today, Saratoga Race Course, post time: 4:50 p.m. EDT

Dream Supreme fulfilled some very high expectations in winning her first black-type race, rallying up the rail to catch a courageous Big Bambu. The dark bay debuted at the Spa last August, closing with a rush to equal the 5 1/2-furlong track record of 1:03 2/5. She made one more start for trainer Linda Rice, winning a Belmont allowance, before going to the sidelines. After romping by 9 1/2 lengths in a six furlong Pimlico allowance May 19, she weakened to fourth in the one-mile GI Acorn S. June 9 and had a rough time of it when fourth in the GII Prioress July 3. Breaking a bit awkwardly from the eight hole, she was unhurried as she made her way to the inside and began to pick up horses on the turn. Catching Big Bambu inside the final furlong, she bounded past her to give trainer Bill Mott a Grade I birthday present. "I'm glad she chose today [to win]," Mott said. "She got off a little badly; she's not a good gate horse." Big Bambu, dueling from the start, could not hold off the Kinsman colorbearer, but gamely remained clear of the others. Favored Chilukki (Cherokee Run) stumbled badly at the start and finished sixth.

Spain had developed a reputation as a bridesmaid, finishing second in the GI Del Mar Debutante and the GI Las Virgenes, but has now won two of three starts since joining the D. Wayne Lukas stable. After finishing seventh in the May 5 GI Kentucky Oaks, her last start for trainer Jeff Bonde, the filly finished sixth in the GIII Dogwood S. in the slop for Lukas. She returned in a one-mile allowance July 12 at Belmont and gained her confidence back with a front-running 6 1/4-length victory. After some anxious moments in the paddock yesterday, where she reared up before being saddled, Spain was sent to post as the the second choice. She stalked pacesetting Prized Stamp, bid outside of her entering the stretch, seized the lead at the eighth pole and pulled away to win comfortably. March Magic, the 2-1 favorite, finished a non-threatening fifth. "For a while I wasn't sure if I'd get there," said winning jockey Jose Velez. "It looked like the speed might have gotten away from me, but when I angled out turning for home she took off." Assistant trainer Barry Knight indicated that the switch to the Lukas feed program may be the force behind in Spain's recent success. "I don't know where we will go with her next, but I think the [GI Aug. 16] Alabama might be a possibility."

Kona Gold confirmed his status as one of the nation's top sprinters with this game victory. The lightly raced six-year-old had captured two of his previous three starts this year, finishing second by a nose to stable-mate Son of a Pistol (Big Pistol) in the other. Given a brief freshening following his devastating 4 1/2-length victory in the GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup H. at Santa Anita Apr. 8, the Bruce Headley trainee drilled three straight bullets for his return, including a :59 1/5 five-panel breeze July 24 over this surface. As Levelled (GB) (Beveled) and Lexicon duked it out in front, Kona Gold sat just off that pair to the turn, where he revved his motor and moved to take the lead. With Love That Red looming boldly at the top of the stretch, Kona Gold appeared to brush that rival slightly, but edged away slightly after a stretch-long duel. "When I asked him, he showed his class," said winning jockey Alex Solis. "It's fun to ride a horse like this. He's a warrior, a laid-back warrior." The winner, third in the 1998 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and second in last year's renewal, remained unbeaten in four Del Mar outings.

Northern Quest unleashed a powerful stretch rally in garnering his first stakes victory. Having started his career in France for trainer Andre Fabre, the dark bay finished fifth behind Dark Moondancer (GB) in the G1 Prix Ganay and closed out his campaign with a fifth in a French Listed event at Nantes in November. Shipped stateside, he finished third in the Dallas Turf Cup at Lone Star June 17 and was sent off as the favorite here. Saving ground early as Exciting Fanfare (Quintillion {Ire}) opened up seven lengths on the field, he swung wide nearing the stretch and closed stoutly over the soft going. "I was going to take him back, but he got shuffled back anyway," admitted winning jockey Robby Albarado. "He was kind of cranky about that, but then he settled down and relaxed."

Unbeaten in three starts before this, Rolly Polly boasted two conditions wins and the G3 Premio Primi Passi at Milan June 25 on her roll of honour. She retained her perfect record in tremendous style, pouncing late to secure the win. The filly was slowest from the gate, but was soon in midfield as Bram Stoker disputed the lead with Distinctly Dancer (Ire) (Distinctly North) ahead of Iron Mask. Iron Mask hit the front approaching the final furlong, but was immediately tackled by Rolly Polly. The two hooked up for a duel, with the latter seizing the initiative in the last half furlong and running on well for a deserved win. Iron Mask, a consistent yardstick, kept on well but again found one too good.
 Bram Stoker kept on at the same pace in the final furlong, but had enough in reserve to just hold Cupercoy
 (Fr) (Crack Regiment) for third. Winning trainer Bruno Grizzetti, with wife Nicole acting as interpreter, said, "She doesn't normally break that slowly. She ran a very fast time in her last race and I was confident she would run well. All being well, I will bring her back to France for the G1 Prix Morny (Deauville, Aug. 20)."

Iron Punch returned from a three-month break and collected his first graded stakes victory, setting a new track record in the process. The dark bay, adding blink-ers to his repertoire, took the Mr. Nickerson H. over this track Apr. 15 before heading to the bench. Off alertly, he chased Sun Bull (Holy Bull) through fractions of :21 2/5 and :43 4/5, and drew even at the eighth pole.
 Urged on, he quickly pulled clear to break the track record. "When I moved to challenge the leader, I could sense he was tiring," said winning jockey Carlos Cruz. "I ran by him and looked back and saw nothing else coming."

Enthusied looked to have hit the front almost too soon in her two races previous to this, managing to just hold on in a Newmarket maiden first time out before being caught near the line by Dora Carrington (Ire) in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at the same course July 11. Here she was ridden to perfection by Johnny Murtagh, deputizing again for the injured Kieren Fallon and the suspended Pat Eddery, to claim her first stakes success. Held up at the rear of the field early as Zaheemah (El Prado {Ire}) blazed the trail, she was eased through the gap that appeared in front as the horses started to tire from the fast pace. As Autumnal went away, Murtagh was cruising, and when he asked his mount to quicken, she responded with enthusiasm to go clear. From there she never looked like stopping as she spreadeagled a competitive field. Alan Cooper, racing manager to the owners, the Niarchos family, said, "I think she's more mature than last time, and she had more racing experience. She did it very nicely and Johnny (Murtagh) liked her a lot, so we'll get to work with Michael (Stoute) and see where she'll go. There are lots of options, such as York (G2 Lowther S., Aug. 24), and others later on. The dam won the G1 Coronation S. over a mile here, so we're hoping she will get the mile." Murtagh added, "She didn't seem to get home at Newmarket last time, but I got a beautiful run and she quickened up very well."

Takali may have been in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh July 2 to aid stablemate Sinndar (Ire) win the race, but he ran a very creditable fifth, finishing in front of G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Holding Court (GB). Previously he had finished fourth in the Listed Silver S. at The Curragh May 28 and in the G3 Gallinule S. there June 10, but here he progressed to finally make the transition to stakes winner. Settled in mid-division early as Urban Ocean (Fr) (Bering {GB}) made the running, he was moved closer to challenge as the pace increased. Yara went to the front at the quarter-mile pole, but the winner joined her with over a furlong remaining, headed the game filly with 200 yards to race, and from there stayed on well to hold off her persistent challenge.

EDDIE READ H.-GI, $400,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/8mT

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Dark Moondancer (GB)	Anshan (GB)	McAnally	9-5
2	Sunshine Street	Sunshine Forever	Drysdale	5-1
3	Sharan (GB)	Shirley Heights (GB)	Dupuis	8-1
4	Lord Smith (GB)	Greensmith (GB)	Jackson	20-1

6	Gold Nugget	Gold Legend	Mayfield	20-1
7	Ladies Din	Din's Dancer	Canani	5-2
8	Falcon Flight (Fr)	Persian Bold (Ire)	Cecil	8-1

Ladies Din, second in last year's Eddie Read, took the GII San Francisco Mile H. at Golden Gate in April two back and was second to stablemate Silic (Fr) in the GI Shoemaker at Hollywood June 18. The Julio Canani trainee has displayed tremendous fondness for the Del Mar turf, with a 4-1-1 record in six starts. As a three-year-old, he swept the track's turf series for sophomores in winning the Oceanside, the GIII La Jolla and the GII Del Mar Derby. Dark Moondancer cut back to nine furlongs in his last out, winning the GII American H. July 4 at Hollywood, with Sunshine Street back in third. The blaze-faced bay, pulled up after grabbing a quarter in the GI Whittingham H. May 29, had previously taken the GII San Luis Rey in March and the GII San Luis Obispo in February. Trained by Ron McAnally, he will likely use this race as a springboard to the $2 million GI Arlington Million three weeks hence. Sharan, a 7 1/2-length winner of his stateside debut at Del Mar last September, returned from a seven-month layoff to finish an excellent third at 21-1 in the Shoemaker Mile and should appreciate the added distance here.

8 (8)	Elle Danzig (Ger)	Roi Danzig	Schutz	128
9 (1)	Barathea Guest (GB)	Barathea (Ire)	Margarson	120

A deserving field for this Group 1 event, where domestic hopes will rest mainly on Sumitas. He finished an excellent second to Godolphin superstar Dubai Millennium (GB) over this distance in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 21 and will provide stern opposition to the overseas contenders. He will be ably supported by Elle Danzig, who is back to her optimum trip and, with Andrasch Starke up, could be a place contender. The strong foreign challenge is headed by Greek Dance, who finished ahead of last weekend's G1 WGZ Bank Deutschland-Preis winner Mutafaweq and Golden Snake when beaten by Europe's top older horse Montjeu (Ire) in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 28. The booking of the in-form Johnny Murtagh is another significant plus. Godolphin are unbeaten in three sorties to Germany this season and will be represented by State Shinto, a highly consistent individual who finished second to Dubai Millennium in last season's G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte. He has had only one start this season, when eighth to Greek Dance's fifth in the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot June 23, but should improve for that effort. Barathea Guest, third to King's Best in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, is the only representative of the Classic generation. He has subsequently finished fourth in the G1 Entenmann's Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27, and eighth in the G1 Vodafone Derby June 10, but is sure to give a good account of himself.

Peony lost her unbeaten record when second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas, May 14) last time, but that is hardly a disgrace. She finished a neck runner-up to Bluemamba that day, and had Lady Of Chad behind in eighth there. The latter was the joint-top rated juvenile filly in Europe last year on the strength of her success in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp, but she has failed to live up to expectations so far this season, going on from her effort in the above race to run seventh in the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes June 11. But she returns to a mile here, and should be respected. Of the older horses, Danzigaway is making her seasonal return here, having finished fourth in the G1 Prix de la Foret and first in the G3 Prix Perth last year.

Sadler's Flag has improved throughout this year and her effort when second last time to America in the G2 Prix de Malleret at Longchamp June 25 reads well. Previously she had won the G3 Prix de Royaumont at Chantilly June 3 and, on that form, she is a leading contender for these honours. Polar Charge will be bidding for further French success for Bruno Grizzetti, who took yesterday's G2 Prix Robert Papin with Rolly Polly (Ire). She was third in the G2 Prix de Malleret, but has only a half length to find on Sadler's Flag. The English challenger, Inforapenny, improved out of all recognition when third behind Petrushka (Ire) in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 16 and if she has improves again, she will figure here.

MONTJEU/MILLENMUM MATCH-UP ON HOLD?

Commenting on the possibility of a meeting between Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking The Gold) and Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the G1 Irish Champion S., Dubai Millennium's owner Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum said yesterday, "I think the target with Dubai Millennium is the Breeders' Cup and we have to space his races before then. Dubai Millennium is likely to go to Deauville for the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois (Aug. 13) and then come here for the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. Sept. 23. I'm spacing it out, because that gives him five weeks between races. Why didn't Montjeu come to Ascot last month? He is most welcome to take us on in the Breeders' Cup and I will even pay his entry fee." The pair are equal top with 12 points in the standings for the Emirates World Series.

Schulhofer Colts Work:

Preparing for next Sunday's GI Whitney H., Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) breezed five furlongs in 1:01 over the Saratoga main track yesterday with Edgar Prado aboard. "I know [Scotty Schulhofer] was pleased with the workout," said Schulhofer's son and assistant, Randy. "It was what he was expecting." GII Peter Pan S. winner Postponed (Summer Squall) worked five furlongs in :59 3/5 handily preparing for Saturday's GII Jim Dandy S. "He was great this morning," Randy Schulhofer said. "We think the horse is back to where he was when he won the Peter Pan."

Margins: HF, 1 1/4, NO. Odds: 2.35, 4.50, 2.45.

Running third in the GIII Oceanport H. at Monmouth last July, Forbidden Apple finished third again in his next outing and was shelved for 10 months. In his return race June 10, the Clement trainee ran third in a Belmont allowance effort two races back and fourth in the same condition June 30. Taken off the pace, the five-year-old raced under a strong hold near the front of the pack for the opening mile. He took the lead from the tired Count on Willem midstretch and held sway for the victory over the late running Medieval Hero.

5th-SAR, $44,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1 3/16mT, 1:54 3/5, fm.

KEEP IT HOLY (c, 3, Holy Bull--Sweet Willa {MSP}, by Assert {Ire}) finished off the board in three starts on the dirt before leading throughout to break his maiden at 26-1 when switched to the turf June 24. Given little respect off that race, the grey colt was let off at 18-1. The half to Undermine (Miner's Mark), GSW, $304,430 raced in second on the rail early, moved to take the lead in upper stretch and spurred away to win by 2 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $51,600.

O-Lael Stables. B-Lavin Bloodstock (KY). T-Philip G Johnson.

CANFIELD (c, 3, Gilded Time--Frans Lass (MSW, $150,740), by Shanekite) hadn't won since breaking his maiden in June of 1999. Second two races ago Apr. 26 in a Keeneland allowance event, the $150,000 SARAUG yearling returned to finish third at Belmont May 19. Tracking the leaders for the opening five furlongs, he moved outside and took charge late from the fading frontrunners to win by half length over the late closing Bien Lucido (Ch) (Barkerville). Lifetime Record: 9-2-3-2, $86,580.

O-Dogwood Stable. B-T A Aroney, R A Stolich & F M Stolich (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

AMERICAN CENTURY (c, 2, Pioneering--Gold Premieress, by Premiership), a $200,000 KEESEP yearling and $250,000 FTFEB two-year-old, had a troubled trip in his debut at 8-1 June 18, but finished a late-closing second. Adding Lasix and sent off at 8-1, the chestnut shot to the lead, set the pace and finished full of run, drawing off to win by 7 1/4 lengths. American Century is the third winner for his freshman sire (by Mr. Prospector). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $32,800.

O-Peachtree Stable. B-Ellen B Kelley (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

6th-SAR, $41,000, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:12, ft.

+ZONE JUDGE (c, 2, Judge T C--Frigid Zone, by Procida) had been working well for his career opener, but was let go at 20-1. The dark bay contested the pace, assumed command at the top of the stretch and rolled home a 6 3/4-length victor, becoming the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Judge Smells). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600.

Winner of the Jennings H. for Maryland-breds Apr. 22 at Pimlico, Crosspatch ran third in his following start, the W. D. Schafer H., but was fifth in the E. W. Furey Memorial S. July 1. Rated in second behind the Capuano-trained Eastover, Crosspatch pursued this rival for the first three-quarters of a mile. At the top of the lane, he took the lead and, under strong urging from jockey Nik Goodwin, pulled comfortably clear of the five-horse field, reduced from 12 after the event was taken off the turf. "We just bided our time down the backstretch," Goodwin said, "and when I asked him to challenge Eastover he responded very willingly and just sprinted clear of him." Trainer Berkley Kern added, "I knew I had the best horse going in, because he's beaten Eastover before. My intentions were to run on the dirt all along, hoping for enough rain to cancel the turf," he said. "We just needed a good break and a smart ride. I got really lucky."

 racing quietly in midpack for the opening three furlongs.

Tillerman, sent off at 10-1, was slowly away, which placed him in last position early as El Gran Lode (Arg) (Lode {USA}) set the pace up front. Still last with two furlongs remaining, he was travelling easily and, when jockey Mick Kinane got the gap he needed, quickened brilliantly to close the gap on El Gran Papa (USA) (El Gran Senor {USA}) in a matter of strides before hitting the front with 200 yards remaining. He had enough left from there to comfortably hold the runner-up for this valuable success.

5.00 Ascot, European Breeders Fund Crocker Bulteel Maiden S. (Class D), £10,325, 2yo, c/g, 6fT, 1:15.61, gd/fm + RUMPOLD (GB) (c, 2, Mister Baileys {GB}--Southern Psychic {USA}, by Alwasmi {USA}), sent off at 12-1, broke well and took up the running early, pressed by Dane Flyer (Ire) (Danehill {USA}). He was headed before halfway but, from his rail position, he soon got back in front to take command as the rest of the field floundered. He ran greenly in the final furlong, but he was already clear and, only having to be kept up to his work, he stretched away to win impressively by five lengths. The winner was a 30,000gns TADEF weanling and a 30,000gns TAOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,711.
O-Anthony Speelman; B-P & Mrs Venner; T-Paul Cole; J-Jimmy Fortune.

She came under pressure at the distance as Land Ahead (USA) (Distant View {USA}) crept closer to challenge. The pair fought nip and tuck throughout the final furlong, with the former holding on well for a deserved neck success. The winner is a full to Allurement (Ire), GSW-Fr. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £4,771.
O-Godolphin; B-Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum; T-Saeed Bin Suroor; J-Daragh O'Donohoe.

TEREED ELHAWA (GB) (f, 2, Cadeaux Genereux {GB}--Dimakya {USA}, by Dayjur {USA}), the 1-2 favourite, was soon at the head of affairs travelling well and held a commanding advantage at halfway. She never came under any semblance of threat and was pushed well clear inside the final furlong, easing to an impressive six-length win. The winner was a 40,000gns TADEF weanling and a 50,000gns TAHOU yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, £4,968.

Scratched: Tribal Instinct (Ire).

Softly Tread had not been seen since she caused an upset at Cork in early May when overturning the odds-on favourite, a Ballydoyle newcomer called Cashel Palace (Ire). In hindsight that did not look such a shock result, as a full 82 days later she was produced to win her first stakes race here. Settled in mid-division as Modigliani (USA) (Danzig {USA}) and the newcomer Northern Rock (Jpn) (Northern Tast {Can}) dominated the early stages, the winner was asked for her effort past halfway and she produced a sustained run to get on top with 200 yards remaining before battling well to hold off the challenge of the runner-up.

2.30 The Curragh, Rosslare European Breeders Fund Maiden, Ir£9,600, 2yo, 5fT, 1:00.00, gd/fm.

LA VIDA LOCA (IRE) (f, 2, Caerleon {USA}--Sharata {Ire}), by Darshaan {GB}), sent off the 6-4 second favourite after finishing second in the Listed Silver Flash S., was held up early as Poppy Lewis (Ire) (Paris House {GB}) took them along. Moved up to challenge by halfway, she grabbed the lead with two furlongs remaining and from there she was pushed out to go clear and win by a length and a half. A half to Crimson Tide (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), GSW-GB, Ger & Ity, $181,405; and Pharatta (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}), GSW-Fr & US, $226,513, she could now go for the G1 Heinz 57 Pheonix S. at Leopardstown Aug. 13. Lifetime Record: SP-Ire, 3-1-1-0, Ir£11,650.

She was under pressure with quarter of a mile to race, but responded well to gradually wear down Shakespeare (GB) (Rainbow Quest {USA}) and win by half a length. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, Ir£12,505.
