DUBAI MILLENNIUM RETIRED

Just yesterday Sheikh Mohammed challenged Michael Tabor to a winner-take-all match race, suggesting that each side put up $6 million for an event that would have pitted the brilliant Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking the Gold--Colorado Dancer {Ire}, by Shareef Dancer) against Tabor's star Montjeu (Ire). But there will be no match race. Dubai Millennium suffered a lateral condylar fracture of his right hind cannon bone while working on the Limekilns at Newmarket yesterday morning and will be retired to stud. The four-year-old, beaten only once in 10 career starts, will require surgery to repair the injury. He will stand at Sheikh Mohammed's Dalham Hall Stud next year. Originally named Yaazer, he had the name changed before his first race as his owner already had the 2000 Dubai World Cup in mind. The colt ran only once at two, winning a maiden race at Yarmouth. After two winning preps, he went off at 5-1 in the G1 Epsom Derby, but failed to handle the 12 furlongs and finished ninth. It was his only defeat. Dubai Millennium came back to take the July 18 G2 Prix Eugene Adam, the Aug. 15 G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois and the Sept. 26 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. But it was in the 2000 G1 Dubai World Cup that he caught the attention and imagination of the racing world, romping to the easiest kind of victory, dusting Behrens by six lengths. His last start was an eight-length laugh in the June 21 G1 Prince of Wales's S. Sheikh Mohammed once described his star, saying, "You can wait 20 years and never get a horse like this. I have never seen or owned a horse like him--the way he trains, the way he looks. He is quite outstanding." His regular rider, Frankie Dettori, yesterday told Sporting Life on-line, "I'll always remember him as the best horse I've ridden. Hopefully his offspring will be as good as him." Dubai Millennium retires with earnings of £2,752,610.

CRIMPLENE TAKES NASSAU

Crimplene (Ire) (Lion Cavern), already very successful at a mile this season with victories in the May 7 G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas), the May 28 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, and the June 23 G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, stretched out to earn the third Group 1 win of her career yesterday with a 1 3/4-length triumph in the Vodafone Nassau S. at Goodwood, England. Although jockey Philip Robinson was keen to get Crimplene to the front early, Michael Roberts on Ela Athena (GB) (Ezzoud {Ire}) had other ideas, and his close proximity to Crimplene caused the favourite to be keen. While Robinson took a pull, Roberts continued to hassle the pair, and this lasted until the top of the hill where Robinson let his filly go to the front. Crimplene settled instantly and quickly put distance between herself and the rest of the field, so that by the turn into the straight she had her rivals stretched. Keeping on the relentless gallop, she piled on the pressure, which cracked High Walden (El Gran Senor) first, and then Princess Ellen (GB) (Tirol {Ire}), doomed to chase her tail again. As Ela Athena found another gear to take second, the winner was safe and clear. Trainer Clive Brittain said, "People doubted her running over 10 furlongs, but when you have an animal of class you can go distances. She did look to be tying up in the final 100 yards, but she did the same at Ascot. I've not discussed plans but perhaps it will be a prep race and then the Breeders' Cup."

Three races back, Graeme Hall won the Apr. 15 GI Arkansas Derby by a comfortable 3 3/4 lengths, prompting his connections to send him on to the Triple Crown. After flipping his palate and being eased in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby, the Kentucky-bred colt was shelved until his latest outing, Monmouth's Long Branch S. July 16. There he ran step for step with winner Thistyranthasclass, lost his whip in the stretch and tired to finish second by 1 3/4 lengths. Breaking from post position three in this outing, the Todd Pletcher-trained chestnut pressed the early speed, heading Albert The Great (Go For Gin) after a half mile in :46.11. Those two rivals rallied out on the lead alone, but Graeme Hall took command turning for home, responded to the urging of jockey Jerry Bailey and held off challenging Curule and late-closing Unshaded for the full-hearted win. "You've got to give the horse a lot of credit," Pletcher said. "He ran every step of the way. He took it to Albert the Great and kept going. Obviously, when you win the Jim Dandy, the Travers is the race you're pointing for and so as long as he comes out of it in good shape, that's where we're heading," he said. In response to Albert the Great's last-place finish, trainer Nick Zito said, "I'm at a loss for words. Maybe the pace was too fast, but I have no excuse. I thought we were just going to gallop out to the lead and make the move, but we didn't. He's better than that."

Uncharted Haven, a maiden winner in France last September, came off an eight-month layoff to win her American debut by three lengths May 24 against Hollywood allowance company. Off slowly in her graded stakes bow, the bay filly was unhurried early as Automated set an uncontested pace. She swung four wide into the lane, collared the game runner-up in deep stretch and was inching clear late. "She hopped at the start and we were dead last," explained winning rider Alex Solis. "I didn't see any point in rushing her. I just tried to improve my position. She's a nice filly. And I think the farther they run, the better she'll go." Winning trainer Bobby Frankel added, "This crowd didn't know how to handicap this race. She was coming out of an allowance race, but she was so impressive in that one. She got steadied [on the backstretch]. She had to find a hole. Now [Solis] gets out. He never hits her inside the sixteenth pole. He just hand rides her. Alex was right; he loves her."

Hidalguia, a Listed winner in April, has been campaigned at the highest level so far this season, producing a creditable effort when third in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp May 21. Either side of that, she was second in the G3 Prix Vanteaux at the same course and last in the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 11. Held up early, she was asked for her effort as they turned into the straight but still had more than half the field in front of her. With one slap of the whip, jockey Gerard Mosse got the response he wanted, and his mount flew to the front with a furlong remaining before going away to win comfortably. Winning trainer Jean De Roualle said, "Freshened up for two months she returned today stronger than ever and will now be aimed at the [G1] Prix de l'Opera on Arc day as the trip in the [G1] Prix Vermeille is too far for her."

 Confessional won the GI Frizette S. by more than 10 lengths as a two-year-old, but has been most effective on turf with age. She finished second in both the GII Lake Placid H. last August and the GIII Boiling Springs H. last October before being given 7 1/2 months off. Transferred from the Bill Mott stable to trainer Graham Motion for this year's campaign, the gray filly took consecutive allowance sprints at Delaware May 24 and Laurel June 25 before this. Sent off as the favorite, she sat off the early pace, took the lead just outside the eighth pole and drew clear for the win in stakes-record time. "She's doing so well right now," said Motion. "I walked the course this morning and it didn't seem to me to be really firm. I thought there was a little give to it. So the (running) time is even more impressive under the circumstances."

The colt returned from a two-month layoff to win the July 15 GII Ohio Derby with a determined six-wide stretch rally. More Than Ready, second in the July 9 GII Dwyer S. in his last start, will be ridden by Richard Migliore after John Velazquez was injured in a spill at Saratoga Saturday.

The four-year-old will be starting at his sixth different track of the year. He most recently ran fifth in the Gold Cup.

The team that was successful last year with Diktat (GB) is represented this time by Lend a Hand, and this could be the perfect opportunity for Godolphin to pick up another Group 1 sprinting success with this horse. A winner at this level in the 1997 Gran Criterium at Milan, he was second in both the 1998 G1 2000 Guineas and Sussex S. over a mile to add weight to his reputation. Reverted to sprinting this year, he was an impressive winner of the G3 Duke Of York S. May 18 before being a luckless also-ran in the G1 July Cup July 13. Here he has what looks the ideal distance of six-and-a-half furlongs. Opposition comes in the form of Bluemamba, who is dropped back in distance after finding the mile at Royal Ascot in the June 23 G1 Coronation S. too far. Earlier she showed speed when holding all challengers in a thrilling finish to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 14. If she can use that tactic here she will figure in the finish. Henry Candy's evergreen sprinter Gorse holds the German challenger Tertullian on last year's form, comprehensively beating him in the G3 Holsten Trophy at Hamburg and then taking second place from him in the G2 Jacobs Goldene Peitsche at Baden-Baden in September. Last time he took the G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis here July 11.

☆ SARATOGA ☆

Ecton Park Works:

Ecton Park (Forty Niner), aiming for the Aug. 26 GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar, breezed five furlongs in 1:01 at Saratoga yesterday. The four-year-old won last year's GI Jim Dandy and GI Super Derby.

Trippi Bruises Foot:

Trippi (End Sweep), third as the odds-on favorite in Friday's GIII Amsterdam, came out of the race with a bruise on his left front foot. Trainer Todd Pletcher does not expect the colt to miss his next scheduled start in the Aug. 26 GI King's Bishop. "He's not that bad and the normal routine is to walk for three days after the race," Pletcher said. "He seemed to come out well yesterday, but I noticed a little heat this morning. There's 22 days between starts, so we're not under any huge pressure."

Yesterday's Results:

Margins: 2 3/4, 3/4, 3. Odds: 1.20, 4.30, 7.50.

Left Bank was scratched from Friday's GIII Amsterdam S. in favor of his stablemate Trippi (who finished third at 1-2), but his connections must be wishing they left him in that spot after this impressive win. Earning his third consecutive sprinting victory since returning from a layoff, Left Bank easily beat a stakes-quality field of older horses. The chestnut colt finished seventh in the Great Navigator S. Feb. 27 at Gulfstream before being freshened. Returning June 10 at Belmont, he won an allowance by 4 1/4 lengths and 18 days later smoked another allowance field by nearly nine lengths. Sent off the favorite here, Left Bank sped to the early lead and shook off all challengers before drawing away by 2 3/4 lengths at the wire.

5th-SAR, $44,000, Alw, (S), 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:46, gd.

1--HAM SANDWICH, 118, c, 3, Halissee--Dana's Wedding, by Compliance. O/B-Leonard Leveen (NY); T-Flint S Schulhofer. Lifetime Record: 8-2-4-0, $67,600.

2--My Pal Al, 118, c, 3, Compliance--Queen's Statue, by King's Bishop.

3--Appleturnover Mike, 118, c, 3, Ends Well--Reinvesting Ada, by Reinvested.

Margins: HF, HF, NO. Odds: 2.20, 6.20, 15.00.

Ham Sandwich ran second three times in a row, missing by no more than a half length May 5 at Aqueduct, and June 16 and June 29 in Belmont maiden special events. Returning July 19, the colt won by 2 3/4 lengths last time out. Racing quietly on the rail in the back of the pack, the Schulhofer-trainee waited until the turn to challenge for the lead, avoided a spill down the lane and rallied with Stogie Two (Compliance), but fell short at the wire. After Stogie Two was disqualified and placed eighth for interference in the stretch, which caused Repute (Cormorant) to fall, Ham Sandwich inherited the win.

3rd-SAR, $42,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 1:45 3/5, gd.

KILLISTOS (f, 2, Sky Classic--Princess Valid, by Valid Appeal) ran third in her career opener June 4 and was unsuccessful again June 25 in a Belmont maiden, finishing sixth out of a seven-horse field. Moving to the turf in her latest start, the filly took to the grass and came in second, defeated by a nose July 12. The bettors' 6-5 choice here in her longest race to date, she was rated off the pace for the opening three-quarters of a mile, closed on the frontrunners down the stretch and got up for the one-length win. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $37,910.

UNCOMMON VALOR (c, 3, Kris S.--Patchiano, by Fappiano), an $800K FTFEB two-year-old, was tried last year, finishing second to stakes-placed Ben The Man (Gulch) by three-quarters of a length back in November. Working consistently since June, the colt breezed a bullet July 12 running five furlongs in :59 3/5, followed by three more works before this start. The 6-5 favorite settled outside in midpack, took the turn three wide and closed in the stretch, clearing the field for the 3 1/4-length win. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $32,800. O-Team Valor. In a stellar career debut last trip to the post, Valid Forbes won by an extensive 8 1/2 lengths in a time of 1:00 for five furlongs July 4. Coming into this race at odds of 8-1, the filly ran off the pace in behind horses at the back of the pack. Waiting to make her move until the stretch, she went on from third to snag the lead late and pull clear of stablemate Silk Concorde. "They are both nice fillies," said Ralph Ziadie, trainer of the first and second-place finishers, "and it's a nice position to be in. If everything is okay, they will come back in the next one [Susan's Girl at seven furlongs on Aug. 26]."

Winner of last year's Gill Natalma S. at Woodbine, Mema's Turning Red hasn't seen the winner's circle since that race. Fourth in an allowance event June 17, the filly was defeated again July 20 in an $80,000 optional claimer. Back in form here, she raced patiently in fourth for the first three-fourths of a mile, caught the leaders midstretch and edged her way to the hard-fought victory.

ReRun to Host Thoroughbred Adoption Seminar:

ReRun, Inc. will host a seminar for Thoroughbred adoption and retirement groups on Sept. 16 and 17 in Lexington, Kentucky. "The time has come for adoption and retirement programs to be recognized for what they are--a vital, necessary part of the Thoroughbred industry," said ReRun co-founder Lori Neagle. "We hope that this seminar will be seen as the logical next step and will go a long way toward educating everyone in racing that these horses, handled properly, can have a very bright future after their racetrack career has ended."

★ EUROPEAN EDITION ★

Sunday, August 6, 2000

DETTORI VICTORIOUS ON RETURN Jockey Frankie Dettori, making his first appearance since suffering a broken right ankle, cuts, bruises and burns in a plane crash June 1, found himself right back in the winner's circle. The champion jockey guided 11-4 Atlantic Prince (GB) to victory in the Tote Exacta Conditions S. at Newmarket. "That was unbelievable," Dettori said. "I thought I might have to settle for second, which wouldn't have been too bad, but all credit to the horse. It's great to be back." He went on to win the Tote Scoop6 Nursery aboard Dim Sums (USA).

GODOLPHIN PAIR HEADED TO U.S. The Godolphin duo of Group 1 winner Slickly (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) and Best Of The Bests (Ire) (Machiavellain {USA}), who captured the G3 Solario S. last year and was fourth in the G1 Epsom Derby this season, are scheduled to fly to Chicago Aug. 10 to compete at Arlington International. Slickly, winner of the G3 La Coupe S. at Longchamp in his latest, is being pointed for the $2 million G1 Arlington Million, while his stablemate will go for the G1 Secretariat S. Both races will be run during Arlington's International Festival of Racing Aug. 19.

★ BRITAIN ★

SADDLER'S QUEST OUT FOR SEASON

Gerard Butler's dreams of winning his first English Classic this year were seriously diminished yesterday as news broke that his Saddler's Quest (GB) (Saddler's Hall {Ire}) will miss the rest of the season. The G3 Lingfield Derby Trial winner will not be able to compete in the G1 Rothmans Royals St Leger S. Doncaster Sept. 9. The trainer said yesterday, "The vets feel he requires more time and we have come to the decision to retire him for the season and start fresh next year. He will come back next year for races like the G3 Dubai Sheema Classic and the G1 Coronation Cup. It is a shame for the owners as it was their chance of a lifetime."

DISTANT MUSIC BACK ON TRACK

Unbeaten at two but winless in two starts this season, Distant Music (USA) (Distant View {USA}) is scheduled to have a workout between races at Newbury this afternoon, according to PA Sport. The colt has not been out since running eighth in the May 6 G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas. The colt is expected to be back to the races next month.

NEW TRAINER FOR BARATHEA GUEST

Group winner Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}), third in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas and most recently fifth in the July 30 G1 Grosse Dallmayer-Preis at Munich for trainer George Margarson, is moving to the barn of trainer Mick Channon, the Sporting Life on-line reports. Channon also has a string for the colt's owner, John Guest. Tim Corby, Guest's racing manager, was quoted as saying, "Mr Guest considers that a change of scenery could be beneficial to the colt. George Margarson will continue to train from Graham Lodge at Newmarket for Mr Guest and his family."

Adilabad still holds an entry in the G1 Champion S. Newmarket Oct. 14 and he showed that he is worthy of such an entry by taking this above-average Listed contest in a thrilling finish fought out with Summoner. He was ridden very aggressively by Walter Swinburn last time in the G3 Craven S. Newmarket Apr. 20 and he did not have much left in the tank when the others came at him in the final quarter of a mile in that test. Here he was ridden differently to great effect by Pat Eddery in a vintage performance to record his first stakes success and give his jockey the ideal comeback win after his lengthy suspension. Held up early as Merry Merlin was allowed to bowl along in front, Summoner looked to have first run on the winner with two furlongs remaining, quickening clear. But Eddery was gradually getting a response to his urgings, and Adilabad lengthened well inside the final furlong pass the favourite yards from the line under a determined drive.

HURRICANE FLOYD (IRE) (f, 2, Pennekamp {USA}--Mood Swings {Ire}, by Shirley Heights {GB}), sent off the 10-11 favourite after a promising debut at York July 14, was always travelling well never far off the lead, came through to grab the lead over a furlong out and ran on well up the hill to beat the well-backed Bannister (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) by a comfortable length and three-quarters. She becomes the third winner for her freshman sire (by Bering {GB}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £6,707.

BANCO SUIVI (IRE) (f, 3, Nashwan {USA}--Pay The Bank {GB}, by High Top {Ire}), sent off the 15-8 second favourite, won this through the clever tactics of his rider. Going straight to the front, she was 10 lengths clear at halfway, slowed the pace at the half-mile mark and allowed the evens-favourite Second Affair (Ire) (Pursuit Of Love {GB}) to close, then took off again over a furlong out and went clear with enough in reserve to hold off the favourite's late challenge by three-parts of a length. The winner is a 1/2 to My Branch (GB) (Distant Relative {Ire}), MSW-GB, G1SP-GB & Ire, $206,524. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-1, £7,500.

At halfway the pair quickened to close up on the leaders and at the quarter mile Alnahaam went on, but Tarfshi was soon on terms, grabbed the lead inside the final furlongs and battled on well to hold Alnahaam's renewed challenge by a head.

The winner is a 1/2 to Embassy (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), Hwt. 2yo Filly-GB, G1SW-GB, $177,665. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,770

Astonished caused a stir in Britain last year when he simply destroyed a competitive sprint handicap field at Doncaster in June. This year he has made the successful transition to stakes level, having won the Listed Flieger-Preis Cologne May 14 and the Listed Dash S. Epsom June 10. Here he had to battle to win again, but at the end he came out on top to claim his third stakes success. Although he was prominent early on the outside behind the leader Kirkwood (GB) (Selkirk {USA}), he was inclined to take a pull, as jockey Cash Asmussen attempted to harness his speed for the finish. As the leader faded, he was brought with a sustained effort which took him to the front with a furlong remaining. From there he had to fight off the persistent threat of Bahama Dream and Thierry Jarnet, but at the line he still held a minor but decisive advantage.

2.15 Deauville, Prix Des Yearlings (Cond.) (Class A), FF360,000, 2yo, 7fT, 1:27.10, gd.
SAIGA (FR) (f, 2, Baryshnikov {Aus}--Shining Molly {Fr} {SW & MGSP-Fr, $122,482}, by Shining Steel {GB}), sent off at odds of nearly 10-1, was held up at the back of the field early, but made a decisive move from last to first inside the final quarter of a mile and got her head in front of the long-time leader Storm Boy (Fr) (Bering {GB}) in the final strides to win by a short neck. Lifetime Record: 4 starts, 3 wins, 0 places, FF288,000. O/B-Haras d'Etreham; T-Carlos Laffon-Parias; J-Dominique Boeuf.
