SWORD DANCER: A RACE OF IMPORT

Four horses who started their careers on the other side of the Atlantic top the GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. at Saratoga this afternoon. The morning-line favorite is expatriate Single Empire (Ire) (Kris {GB}), who ships in from California after finishing third in the July 23 GII Sunset H. at Hollywood Park. The six-year-old captured the GII San Luis Rey S. and the GI San Juan Capistrano H. last year, but has been held winless in five tries this season while hitting the board four times. Deploy Venture (GB) (Deploy {GB}), second in the Sunset, has won two of his five tries since shipping from Europe for his four-year-old campaign. The gelding took a Bay Meadows allowance in March and, after running a close-up third in the GI Whittingham H., added the GIII Golden Gate H. June 17. Jockey Victor Espinoza, who took the title at the Hollywood Summer Meet and is currently leading the standings at Del Mar, will fly in from the West Coast for the mount. Another import, Shadwell Stable's Elhayq (Ire) (Nashwan), is a perfect two-for-two since adding Lasix for his second U.S. appearance. The bay captured a Belmont allowance June 24 and came back to take the GII Bowling Green H. at 1 3/8 miles July 8. "I looked at his form and noticed that he bled while racing in England," trainer Kieran McLaughlin said. "We scoped him and noticed some blood after his first race here, so it made sense to put him on Lasix, and that has been the biggest plus for him. Last time out, in the Bowling Green, he just exploded." As for the extra furlong of the Sword Dancer, McLaughlin said, "A mile and three-eighths was no problem for him. He wants to go a mile and a half." Boatman (Irish River {Fr}) is the final member of the imported quartet. The four-year-old Juddmonte homebred won a Santa Anita allowance on his U.S. debut in January, took a 3 1/2-month vacation, then captured a Hollywood allowance May 4. He shipped East for his latest try and came away with a second-place finish in the GI Manhattan H. at Belmont Park June 10. He picks up only a pound off that effort and is one of the light weights in the field at 114. (Sword Dancer field, p2)

LEMON DROP KID TO LANE'S END

A Grade I winner at two, three and four, Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo--Charming Lassie, by Seattle Slew) will enter stud at Lane's End Farm near Versailles, Kentucky, in 2001. Plans call for the four-year-old to retire after this year's Breeders' Cup Classic. Bred by Lane's End owner Will Farish and the late W.S. Kilroy, the colt is out of a half sister to Broodmare of the Year Weekend Surprise, dam of A.P. Indy and Summer Squall. Successful in the GI Futurity at Belmont Park during his juvenile campaign, he came back at three to take the Belmont S. and the Travers. One of the leading older horses this season, he has victories in the GII Brooklyn H., GII Suburban H. and GI Whitney H. to his credit. To date, he has bankrolled $2,819,970. "From a pedigree, conformation and performance standpoint, he is certainly the most exciting stallion prospect in training today," Farish said. "I am thrilled to have Lemon Drop Kid returning to the farm where he was born and raised."

GOING FOR GOLD AT WOODBINE

Scatter the Gold (Mr. Prospector), looking to become Canada's seventh Triple Crown winner, is the 4-5 favorite in the C$500,000 Breeders' S. at Woodbine this afternoon. The three-year-old was still a maiden when he captured the first jewel in the Crown, the Queen's Plate, by 4 1/4 lengths. He came back to best fellow Breeders' S. runner For Our Sake (Alydeed) by a neck in the second leg, the July 23 Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie. In his lone previous try on the turf, Scatter the Gold missed by a neck in a maiden race at Woodbine in June. "He gave a pretty good indication in his one start on the turf that he likes the grass," trainer Mark Frostad said. "He got into a lot of trouble and came with a big run at the end. I think he'll get a better hold of the grass and be a little closer than in some of his dirt races." As for his chances at the Triple, Frostad said, "I'm pretty happy with what our situation is now. I thought the real test would be the Prince of Wales, and he had a rough trip and overcame it. I'm more confident coming into this race than I was going into the Prince of Wales." Added jockey Todd Kabel, "I'm looking forward to trying to complete the Triple Crown. I've got the horse. Distance won't be a problem at all, nor will the turf. I just need the trip."

Yet another day of rain washed out turf racing at the Spa, but the switch of the downgraded Glens Falls H. to the sloppy main track didn't bother l'm Indy Mood, who rallied to earn her first stakes victory and her first victory on the main track. The mare, who has gone winless since last October, finished second in her latest dirt start, the Feb. 9. Very One H. at Gulfstream. She returned June 3 to finish sixth in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. and followed that with a second in an allowance June 23. Last out she finished sixth in a stakes at Delaware July 22. "I thought she had her best shot to win on the dirt," trainer Jimmy Toner said. "I don't think she could beat some of these fillies on the turf." As the second choice in the field reduced to six, the Texas-bred stalked the pace early, angled out into the lane and wore down favored Idle Rich after a prolonged stretch duel. While the winner has made 20 of 26 career starts on turf, the performance may have convinced Toner that her future may be on the main track. "I just might keep her on the dirt and wait for a sloppy track," he said.

DANZIG TOPS STALLION ACCESS SALE AGAIN

For the third straight year, seasons to Claiborne Farm's Danzig (Northern Dancer) topped Fasig-Tipton's Stallion Access Inc. Champagne Sale of Selected Seasons and Shares. The 2000 edition of the event, held last night in Saratoga Springs, New York, saw the first 2001 no-guarantee season to the top-class sire go for $262,000, and a second bring $235,000. The price for the 23-year-old stallion has risen each year. In 1997, he averaged $130,000 for three seasons; in 1998, he topped the sale at $215,000; and last year he attracted a high bid of $225,000. Lane's End's Kingmambo (Mr. Prospector) was the second-most popular stallion at the sale, with his one nomination attracting a bid of $190,000. Overall, 27 seasons brought $1,045,000, an average of $38,704. There were 12 nominations listed as not sold.

Officialpermission, a $75,000 claim June 2, set the Belmont Widener turf course record for seven furlongs July 23, winning an allowance by 1 1/2 lengths in 1:19 4/5. However, he finished off the board in his only race on the main track, which came during his two-year-old season. After heavy afternoon rains forced this race to the main track, the gray contested the pace three-wide, took over at the top of the lane and was passed in deep stretch by Weatherbird, but came again late to snatch the victory.

VALIANT HALORY (c, 3, Valiant Nature--Private Reply {GSP}, by Private Terms) finished third in the GIII Derby Trial Apr. 29 and fourth in the Sir Barton S. May 20 at Pimlico. Returning to the allowance ranks June 10, he finished third behind stakes-bound Left Bank and a close second last out July 15 after battling for the lead. The 4-5 favorite here, he was hustled to the lead from his rail post to set the pace before drawing off to win by 6 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 9-3-3-2, $118,438.

The $185,000 KEEJUL yearling trailed the field while saving ground early, rallied wide into the stretch and charged to beat another debuter, Dr. Kashnikow (El Gran Senor), by three-quarters of a length. She ran an improved race in her first start at Saratoga, a second-place finish, beaten three-quarters of a length last out July 28. Sent off at 6-5, the filly raced up close early, rallied wide into the lane and withstood a late charge by Regent Gold (Seeking the Gold) to win by a nostril. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-2, $41,820.

Artax Works at Saratoga:

Champion sprinter Artax (Marquetry), who suffered a minor suspensory injury and was retired after taking the 1999 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, then covered a full book of mares this season, worked a half in :47 3/5 over Saratoga's Oklahoma training track yesterday morning. "He did it very easily, we never had to ask him at all," trainer Lou Albertrani said. "He really is in a class of his own. He's even better now than he was before. He's not studdish around the mares at all, it's really amazing." The Eclipse Award winner is being pointed for another tilt at the Breeders' Cup, but as for his immediate future, Albertrani said, "I'm not sure where we're going to run him next--the horse will tell us when he's ready."

Swamp won the GII Jersey Derby over the course last May and was beaten a neck in the GIII Kent Breeders' Cup at Delaware in July before going to the sidelines for an extended layoff. He returned this year with three disappointing efforts. After finishing sixth in the GII Fort Marcy H. May 6, he was beaten as the chalk in two allowance races, running third May 27 and fourth July 1. Facing a bit softer, the 3-5 favorite stalked the pace, pulled ahead around the final turn and drove to a 1 3/4-length victory.

She ended her season finishing ninth in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. The filly returned in April with a pair of easy allowance wins, but finished off the board in the GIII Nassau S. June 3 and in the GIII Delaware H. July 23. Off at 6-5, she stalked the pace and drew clear to win by 7 1/4 lengths under a hand ride. Golden Missile to Iselin:

Golden Missile (A.P. Indy) will make his next start in the $350,000 GII Philip H. Iselin H. at Monmouth Park Aug. 27. "It looks like we're going to the Iselin," trainer Joe Orseno said. "It's good money and it's a prestigious race." One of the top handicap horses in the country after wins in the GI Pimlico Special and GII Stephen Foster H., Golden Missile was sent off at 2-1 in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga last Sunday, but tired after pressing the pace to be fifth, 13 lengths behind winner Lemon Drop Kid. "It was a roughly run race and he got the worst of it," Orseno said. "He was blocked badly. I'm just going to throw that race out." Lemon Drop Kid was third behind Golden Missile in the Pimlico Special before getting his revenge in the Whitney. Orseno is looking forward to a rematch. "I'd like to see Lemon Drop Kid somewhere else down the road," he said. "But the final verdict will come in the Breeders' Cup. We've both had great years, and we're both on course."

Federal Trial Retired:

Five-year-old Federal Trial (Skip Trial), who set a Gulfstream Park course record of 1:39.08 for a mile and a sixteenth in what would be his final career start, an allowance test Feb. 19, has been retired after sustaining an unspecified injury while in training for a comeback. The Florida-bred started only 14 times, but notched seven wins, three seconds and a third for earnings of $445,790. Last year, the Arthur Appleton homebred captured the GII Hialeah Turf Cup and GIII Canadian Turf H., finished second in the GI Manhattan H. and third in the GI Man o'War S.

SOVEREIGN S.-Listed, £23,300, Salisbury, England, 8-11, 3yo/up, c/g, 1mT, 1:43.21, gd/fm.

1--#HOPEFUL LIGHT (GB), 126, g, 3, Warning GB--Hope (Ire), by Dancing Brave (USA). O-Khalid Abdullah; B-Juddmonte Farms; T-John Gosden; J-Dane O'Neill; £14,446. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-0, £24,715.

2--Late Night Out (GB), 126, g, 5, Lahib (USA)--Chain Dance (GB), by Shareef Dancer. £5,126.

3--Crimson Tide (Ire), 126, h, 6, Sadler's Wells (USA)--Sharata (Ire), by Darshaan (GB). £2,563.

Margins: SHD, 3/4, 3/4. Odds: 11-4, 5-2, 8-1.

Also ran: Smart Ridge (GB).

Hopeful Light has not made near the same progress as subsequent G1 Epsom Oaks winner Love Divine (GB) since he beat her in a maiden at Doncaster last November. This year he had been disappointing until taking a conditions race here at the end of June, and he has since been gelded. Breaking well, he took up the running and set a steady pace for the first six furlongs. As Late Night Out (GB) challenged inside the final quarter of a mile, he was headed briefly, but dug deep and kept responding to inch ahead near the line for a narrow short-head success. Winning trainer John Gosden said: "He just got a little bit tired coming to the two pole, but he found a second wind. He's quite a character, and I've gelded him since his last run as all he thinks about is sex, but at least now he's getting on with the job. I'll simply look for another Listed race for him, or a Group 3 race abroad if the owner is game."

8.15 Newmarket, Richard Bolton Insurance Group Conditions S. (Class C), £10,775, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT, 2:04.16, gd/fm.

REACH THE TOP (GB) (c, 3, Zafonic {USA}--Andaleeb {USA} {GSW-GB}, by Lyphard {USA}), who made an impressive winning debut in a Goodwood maiden in May and then finished last in a Sandown conditions event July 7, was sent off at odds of 6-1. After racing in third early on, he looked tapped for speed a half mile out as the field grouped and Mastermind (Ire) (Dolphin Street {Fr}) grabbed the lead. Under strong driving, he was switched away from the rail and found a perfect split between horses. Up the hill, he closed on Mastermind and ran on gamely to beat that rival by 1 1/4 length. He is the half brother to Prophecy (Ire) (Warning {GB}), G1SW-GB, $139,301. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £12,129. O-K Abdulla; B-Juddmonte Farms; T-J Gosden; J-J Fortune.

7.35 Haydock, Countrywide Freight Conditions S. (Class C), £10,200, 2yo, 6fT, gd.

WHERE'S JASPER (IRE) (g, 2, Common Grounds {GB}--Stifen {Ire}, by Burslem {Ire}), who made all the running to break his maiden here by five lengths June 9, was sent off the 7-4 second choice and again led throughout, quickening away inside the final furlong to come home three lengths clear of the previously unbeaten 10-11 favourite Galapagos Girl (Ire) (Turtle Island {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 5-2-2-0, £13,518. O-Jimm Racing; B-C Farrell; T-Kevin Ryan; J-John Carroll.

3.50 Salisbury, European Breeders Fund Douglas Maiden Filies' S. (Class D), £5,890, 2yo, f, 6f 212ydsT, 1:28.43, gd/fm.

+ FANTASY RIDGE (GB) (f, 2, Indian Ridge {Ire}--Footlight Fantasy {USA}, by Nureyev {USA}), sent off at odds of 5-1, was held up in mid-division early as Golden Beach (GB) (Turtle Island {Ire}) cut out the running. Switched wide for a run in the straight, she was still on the bridle when jockey Craig Williams had her to the front with two furlongs remaining. From there she simply eased clear of her rivals to win very impressively by eight lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,815. O-Helena Springfield Ltd; B-Meon Valley Stud; T-Mick Channon; J-Craig Williams.

7.15 Newmarket, City Truck Group Maiden S. (Class D), £6,405, 2yo, 7fT, 1:27.37, gd/fm.

EMMS (USA) (c, 2, Fastness {Ire}--Carnation {Fr} {SW-Fr}, by Carwhite {Ire}), sent off the 8-15 favourite after promising runs in maidens at Newmarket and York, led from the start. At a quarter mile out, the $80,000 KEESEP yearling was headed by the newcomer Muqtadi (Ire) (Marju {Ire}), who had quickened through a gap along the rail and looked set for victory. Emms' previous experience then paid off as he battled back and this pair engaged in a furious duel up the hill, with one bumping the other as they raced through the final furlong. Emms gained the upper hand close to home to win by three-parts of a length. A lengthy stewards' enquiry followed, but the placings were allowed to stand. He is the second winner for his freshman sire (by Rousillion {USA}). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £7,365.

STAR-STUDED ARRAY OF INT'L JOCKEYS AT ASCOT

Blue Square Shergar Cup Day at Ascot today features one of the highest-calibre group of international riders ever assembled on a single day's racing in Britain. Champions from Britain, Ireland, Hong Kong, Singapore, Italy and star names from Australia and Japan, who have won over 20,000 races between them, will be in the saddle for this £400,000 Europe versus the Rest of the World challenge. Frankie Dettori, one of the world's best-known jockeys, has just returned to action after recovering from injuries sustained in a plane crash in June and is to captain the Dubai Duty Free Rest Of The World Team. He will be leading a side that includes Jumaat Saimee, the charismatic three-times champion of Singapore; Japanese star Masayoshi Ebina; South African Basil Marcus, who is the most-successful overseas rider in the history of Hong Kong racing with seven titles; and two of Australia's most-famous jockeys, Greg Hall and Damien Oliver. The European defence will be captained by the 11-times British champion Pat Eddery, who has over 4,300 career wins to his name in many of the world's top races. Kevin Darley and Richard Quinn, the pair with whom Eddery is fighting a battle for this year's domestic jockeys' title, will be on his side in the Shergar Cup. They will be joined by the Italian sensation Mirco Demuro who, despite being just 21, has been champion jockey in his home country three times. The Virgin Atlantic European team is completed by Johnny Murtagh, the three-times Irish champion who won this year's English and Irish Derbys on Sinndar, and his compatriot Mick Kinane, who can boast 11 Irish championships and victories in such races as the Belmont S., Melbourne Cup, Japan Cup, Epsom Derby and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Douglas Erskine-Crum, Ascot's chief executive, said: "We are thrilled to be able to welcome two such outstanding teams of jockeys to Ascot for Blue Square Shergar Cup day. I cannot think of another occasion when such a distinguished group of riders has ridden on the same day in Britain and it will be a privilege to watch them in action." Sponsors Blue Square have made European team captain Pat Eddery their 2-1 favourite to gain the most points at today's Shergar Cup meeting. Dettori is next best at 11-4, with Darley at 7-2 and Murtagh at 5-1.

MILLENNIUM RECOVERY CONTINUES

Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking The Gold {USA}) is reported to be doing well after the surgery that pinned his cannon bone on Sunday. Yesterday, a statement on the Darley website said: "Dubai Millennium continues to make pleasing progress after his operation last weekend. The cast on his off-hind was removed and he is getting around his box very well. He has support bandages on all four legs and is being treated with antibiotics. He is proving to be an excellent patient and has settled into his new home remarkably quickly."

FORTUNE'S BAN UPHELD

In an effort to appeal his eight-day ban for careless riding handed to him in June, jockey Jimmy Fortune was denied Sunday by the Jockey Club's disciplinary committee, according to Sporting Life online. Under the 'totting-up procedure,' Fortune's deferred six-day suspension was activated with a more recent two-day penalty, totaling eight days of missed action from Aug. 15-22. This ban will cause him to sit out the first day of the Ebor meeting at York.
