O'BRIEN ONSLAUGHT AT LEOPARDSTOWN

Trainer Aidan O'Brien has saddled the winner of the G1 Heinz 57 Phoenix S. for two years running, taking the event with Lavery (Ire) in 1998 and with Fasliyev last year. Looking to make it three in a row, O'Brien sends out a five-horse entry at Leopardstown this afternoon. Freud (Storm Cat) has the bloodlines to be a factor. Still a maiden after missing by a half length at The Curragh July 1, the colt is a full brother to the stable's top-class performer Giant's Causeway. His stablemates are Pirate Of Penzance (Southern Halo), winner of the Listed Rochestown S. here June 5, maiden winners Cashel Palace (Ire) (Lure) and La Vida Loca (Ire) (Caerleon), and fellow maiden Minardi (Boundary). The quintet will have their hands full with English challenger Superstar Leo (Ire) (College Chapel {GB}), who followed up her impressive G3 Norfolk S. win at Royal Ascot with success in the Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury July 22. She is drawn in stall one, which leaves her trainer William Haggas concerned. He said, "She's in great form, but I gather she's got the 'coffin' draw--she's drawn one and apparently that's not great." Another smart filly from England is Peter Harris' unbeaten Dora Carrington (Ire) (Sri Pekan), who defeated Enthused in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. July 11. When that filly went on to win impressively in the G3 Princess Margaret S. July 29, it was a boost to the form. "She's 100 percent, she's in great form and she's there to do her best," Harris said. "I'd be disappointed if she's not thereabouts, but then again it is a Group 1."

LONG-DISTANCE CALL

There's no doubt he loves the distance. John's Call (Lord at War {Arg}), who had won two of his three starts at the 1 1/2 miles of the G1 Sword Dancer Invitational H., proved he could handle the route once again, closing from sixth to win by an eye-catching 9 1/4 lengths over a soft turf at Saratoga Race Course yesterday afternoon. The nine-year-old gelding has now won five of his last six last starts. After taking the Sussex H. at Delaware last September, the veteran captured the Bald Eagle Breeders' Cup H. over a soft turf at Laurel Oct. 24 and came back to win the Gill Laurel Turf Cup at a mile and a half over a yielding course Nov. 11. The chestnut ended the campaign with a disappointing ninth-place finish as the favorite in the Nov. 20 Gill Red Smith H. at Aqueduct, but returned in the July 23 Cape Henlopen S. going 12 furlongs at Delaware and added yet another score. "He gets six months off every year, so I don't think he knows he's nine," trainer Tommy Voss said. Part of the mutuel field, John's Call was sent off at 7-1 in the Sword Dancer. He saved ground while sitting near the back of the pack, but came up the inside with a bold move on the far turn, then moved to the outside to take command at the top of the stretch and pull away in an impressive performance. "I knew the rail was the place to be, and I wouldn't have moved off it for anything," jockey Jean-Luc Samyn said. "Once daylight opened up, he just took off and exploded. It was a superb race for a nine-year-old to run." Boatman (Irish River {Fr}), sent off the slight 5-2 favorite, pressed the pace, but tired to be eighth. "He fought hard from the five-eighths pole to the three-eighths pole, but John's Call just went on past all of us," said his jockey, Edgar Prado. "The winner was much the best, and today was not my horse's day." Single Empire (Ire) (Kris {GB}), the second choice at 3-1, closed to get third, but was 5 1/4 lengths behind runner-up Aly's Alley (Alwuhush). Kent Desormeaux, aboard Single Empire, said, "We had a great trip. He was letting me know that he was ready to go whenever I asked him. But the course was tough and it took its toll on him. Maybe the ground was a little softer than he would have liked...in the last eighth of a mile, he had to reach down deep into his heart and class to go from fifth to third. He really fought tooth and nail to get past the horses to his outside." (Sword Dancer chart, p2)

SCATTER THE GOLD THWARTED IN TRIPLE CROWN BID Scatter the Gold (Mr. Prospector), who captured the June 25 Queen's Plate on the main track at Woodbine while still a maiden and added the July 23 Prince Of Wales S. at Fort Erie to pick up the first two legs in Canada's Triple Crown, was thwarted in his attempt to complete the Triple in yesterday's Breeders' S. on the Woodbine turf. Sent off the 3-5 favorite, the colt settled just off the pace while racing to the outside for six furlongs. Jockey Todd Kabel got into his mount as they raced around the far turn and came wide into the stretch, but the crowd's choice could not muster enough to get the win, ending up third behind 7-2 Lodge Hill (Cozzene). The winner, sixth in the Queen's Plate, was also a maiden in that event, but came back to get his first victory in a 1 1/4-mile special weight test on the Belmont turf July 9--it was his fifth try on turf. Well backed off that effort, he rallied from sixth to come home three lengths ahead of 7-1 Master Stuart (Ascot Knight), with Scatter the Gold another neck back. (Breeders' S. chart, p4)

Looking to make it five straight in graded stakes on the main track, Riboletta was bet down to 2-5 and came through for the crowd. The winner of the May 7 GII Hawthorne H. and May 28 GI Milady Breeders' Cup H., the South American import went off at 3-5 in the GI Vanity H. last time out June 25 and posted an impressive 5 1/2-length tally. Rated in second here as Gourmet Girl set a moderate pace, the bay came with her challenge after six furlongs in 1:11.08, took over at the top of the lane and edged clear, but the race was not without incident for the winner. "My saddle slipped on me twice during the running," jockey Chris McCarron revealed. "It slipped forward, then it slipped back. Then as I was pulling up, it slipped again. I almost went flying over her head." As for Riboletta, McCarron said, "She was trying to take me to the lead right from the get-go. She's aggressive like that. But she's aggressive and very talented. She's a pleasure."

The crowd made With Ability, runaway winner of the June 8 Fashion S. in her latest appearance, the 1-2 favorite over a rain-soaked strip, but it was Stormy Pick who had shown ability in the slop before. The bay made her debut over a sloppy Monmouth strip June 14 and splashed to a 10 1/4-length score as the 13-10 favorite. "When the track came up wet for her first race, [owner Raymond Dweck] asked me what we were going to do and I said, 'we're going to run,'" winning trainer Ben Perkins Jr. said. "You never know when you might need that experience on an off track." That experience paid off. Coming off a second-place finish in the July 23 Colleen S., Stormy Pick broke sharply under jockey Jose Ferrer, but was snugged back to sit second as With Ability cut out rapid fractions of :21.78 and :44.83. Ferrer pushed the button as they came to the half-mile pole and his filly responded, drawing even with the front runner before drawing off in the final furlong to pick up her first stakes score. The race set up perfectly for the winner, but not for beaten favorite With Ability. Still, trainer Mark Hennig was not unhappy with his filly's performance. "I thought she ran all right," Hennig said. "It had been a long time between races and we were a little concerned that she might possibly be a little short for this race. She had never run beyond five-eighths of a mile and then we had to back off on her training when she came down with that little cough. But hopefully she will come out of it well. She'll move forward off this race." What's ahead for Stormy Pick? "She has had four races right in a row now," Perkins said. "The Spinaway [at Saratoga, Sept. 1] is possible, but the Matron [at Belmont, Sept. 17] might be a little better for her. That would give us a chance to give her a little break."

Heat It Up broke her maiden by more than six lengths for a $50,000 claiming tag May 7. Three starts later, she easily won her first-level allowance condition when stretched out to two turns July 20. Shortening up and ignored at 32-1 for her first stakes try, she was unhurried early along the rail, angled out in upper stretch and charged down the center of the track to get up by a neck in the final strides. Previously unbeaten Plenty of Light, making her first start for trainer Elliott Walden after a 4 1/2-month layoff, finished third after stumbling at the break.

It took Megans Bluff six starts to break her maiden, but she has now won four of her last five starts and earned her first graded-stakes victory here. After a 5 1/2-length maiden win in April at Keeneland, the filly took consecutive allowance starts on the turf at Churchill May 18 and June 22. She tried the Cleveland Oaks last out July 14, finishing a respectable second. Sent off as the second choice, the bay filly stalked the leaders while off the rail, moved up to challenge on the final turn, took command in the stretch and drew off a much-the-best winner. "She did this easy. All I had to do was keep her in line," jockey Mark Guidry said. "She is such a sweetheart--everything she did was perfect." Feisty Countess (Count the Time), the 6-5 favorite, finished a non-threatening fifth.

Ekraar picked up his first win in five starts since breaking the track record at Goodwood in last season's G3 Champagne Lanson Vintage S. with a victory in a conditions event at Newbury July 16. That effort showed some signs of his fine juvenile form and he continued in the winning vein with a smooth success against a field of quality opponents. Never far from the front as Dehoush (Diesis {GB}) dictated the pace, Ekraar swept into the lead with a half mile to run. Still traveling smoothly at the quarter-mile marker as French Fellow and Inglenook (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) tried to stamp their mark on the race, he was not to be denied, running on strongly to record a comfortable win. Forbearing rallied from the rear in the closing stages and wrested the runner-up spot from French Fellow.

Out of the money in only one of his nine previous starts, Agol Lack had given indication of his potential when second in the G3 La Coupe at Longchamp June 15 and most recently when third in the Listed Grand Prix de Compiègne July 5. He continued along the right road to record his first stakes win in fine style. The colt was settled in a prominent second behind favourite Alrassaam (GB) (Zafonic) in the early stages, but was relegated to third as Kabool moved up from the rear to press the leader after three furlongs. Kabool moved to the front as Alrassaam dropped away tamely at the top of the straight, but jockey Olivier Peslier let out an inch of rein at the quarter-mile marker and Agol Lack responded by smoothly taking command. He quickly established a comfort zone between himself and the remainder and he strode out well to the line for an easy win. Alrassaam proved to be a major disappointment and trailed in last of the eight runners.

Take away Sendawar's last run, when finishing a weary fourth behind Dubai Millennium (GB) in the G1 Prince Of Wales' S. at Royal Ascot June 21, and he has an impeccable record at this level. The question of what was responsible for his disappointing showing there is still not answered--maybe his stamina gave out over the extra two furlongs, or maybe taking on the winner too early finished him--but he is likely to bounce back here in a race he missed last year due to the heavy underfoot conditions. This time the ground is in his favour, due to the dry period at Deauville, and he will take the world of beating in his attempt at a fifth Group 1 success. Clive Brittain has decided to send his tough campaigner Crimplene here, who won only eight days ago in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood over nearly two furlongs further. The filly is a dual Guineas winner, having taken the G2 German 1000 Guineas May 7 and the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas May 28, and a three-times Group 1 winner, adding the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 23 to her impressive portfolio. Another three-year-old filly worth noting is Lady Of Chad, who returned to winning ways impressively last time in the G2 Prix d'Astarte here July 30. Last year she was the joint-top rated juvenile filly in Europe, but she disappointed when eighth in the G1 French 1000 Guineas May 14 and seventh in the G1 French Oaks June 11.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

This could be a big day for the three-year-old Subiaco, runner-up to Samum (Ger) in the BMW Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 2. Of Andreas Schutz's two entrants, he is the preferred choice of stable jockey Andrasch Starke and possesses an outstanding chance. State Shinto, the model of consistency last season, will bid to gain compensation for his defeat in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr Preis at Munich July 30, and also holds a strong chance for the Godolphin operation. The fillies Quezon City and Catella also have solid claims, having finished second and third respectively to Mutafaweq in the G1 WGZ Bank-Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf July 23. Catella can gain revenge on Quezon City for that reverse, given she was injured on that occasion.

Sea Reel started her career with an easy win over maiden claimers and was 10-1 in the GIII Landaluce S. in her second start, but finished well to be second and should appreciate the extra sixteenth of a mile here. Undefeated Rachel's Viva ships in from Lone Star Park. A winner over Texas-bred maidens in April, she came back to beat open allowance foes July 1 and added a victory in the July 23 Silver Spur S. last time out. "If she's within four or five lengths of the lead when they turn for home, they'd better not slow down any because she's going to be coming at 'em," said her trainer, Robert Norman. Fort Lauderdale is the only filly in the field that boasts a win over the track after breaking her maiden in front-running style July 30.

2--Phone the King, 118, g, 5, Phone Trick--Gale the Queen, by Dr. Blum.

3--Blacksage Alley, 118, c, 4, End Sweep--Healing Touch, by Dr. Carter.

Margins: 18 1/4, 8 3/4, 21HF. Odds: 1.15, 10.90, 3.75.

Early Warning, who won the Gill Gallant Fox H. last December at this marathon distance, toyed with this depleted field and won for fun. The five-year-old was beaten a neck in the Gill Ben Ali S. in a April and lost by 1 1/2 lengths to Running Stag in a Belmont allowance May 24. He then tried the Gill Brooklyn H. June 11, but finished last of seven. Given a brief freshening, he returned to Saratoga last out, finishing last of five behind Pleasant Breeze after dueling through brutal fractions in that Aug. 4 test. As the favorite here, the horse took command from the gate, slowed down the fractions and built a 25-length lead at the top of the lane before being eased up inside the eighth pole to win in a canter.

2--Big E E, 115, c, 3, Jolie's Halo--Proud Clarioness, by Tri Jet.

3--Quick Punch, 123, c, 4, Two Punch--Smart 'n Quick, by Wise Exchange.

Margins: HD, 2 3/4, 5 1/4. Odds: 1.20, 3.70, 11.50.

After two straight convincing wins in Calder allowance events May 27 and June 24, both by at least six lengths, Fappie's Notebook ran second in his last outing July 15, Calder's $200,000 Carry Back S. Bet down to the favorite here, the Kentucky homebred settled in back of the pack, waited until the stretch to advance and got up at the wire for the win.

9th-SAR, $43,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:24 3/5, my. AWAY (f, 3, Dixieland Band--Be a Prospector, by Mr. Prospector) won her career debut back in November and hadn't finished out of the top three since that 11-length victory. Taking two seconds in her last two starts, June 3 and July 20, the filly just missed in her latest try, defeated by a half length in a Belmont allowance race. Settled a head off the lead through the first four furlongs, the 3-5 favorite took command in the stretch and widened the margin for a driving 3 1/2-length win. Lifetime Record: 6-2-3-1, $80,930.

4th-SAR, $41,000, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:11 4/5, sy.

WICKED WILL (c, 2, Runaway Groom--Filadiz, by Our Native), a $25,000 KEESEP yearling and $50,000 OBSMAR two-year-old, finished a well-beaten third in his debut June 24. He then tried the Belmont turf July 14, finishing fourth after forcing the pace. Racing with blinkers on here, the 8-1 shot stalked the pace along the inside and scooted up the rail to win by 3 1/4 lengths. Devil's Domain (Devil's Bag), the 3-5 favorite, set the pace and tired to finish fourth. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $31,570.

Saturday's Card Cut Short at Philly Park:

A violent thunderstorm which dumped rain at the rate of two inches per hour on the track caused yesterday's program at Philadelphia Park to be called off after the fifth race. Officials decided the combination of lightning and a flooded surface made it too dangerous to continue with the card. The track is expected to be back in action this afternoon.

It took Include three attempts to break his maiden, but since that win June 25 at Laurel, he has been unstoppable. For his second straight success, he took an allowance event July 13 and followed that race with his latest effort, an impressive eight-length victory in a Laurel optional claimer Aug. 3. Stepping up again for this stakes debut, the Meyerhoff homebred raced just off the pace for the opening mile. Turning for home, the 6-5 chalk took the lead, pulled away from the six-horse field and galloped to the wire under a hand ride by jockey Mark Johnston. "He might be a superhorse," Johnston said. "I think he has the potential, but he still needs to prove it. He didn't run too hard and I think he is just going to get better."

Sent off the bettors' 1-5 favorite, the filly took the lead with a half mile still remaining. Entering the stretch, she had already handily cleared away from the pack and then strode home for the easy success. She is the half sister to First Arrival (Deputed Testimony), SW, $112,620. SHERGAR CUP DAY A SUCCESS The second annual Blue Square Shergar Cup Day, held yesterday at Ascot, was a huge success, according to Ascot's Chief Executive Douglas Erskine-Crum. "The crowd has been tremendous, almost 19,000 and about 2,000 children," he said. "That is a huge increase on this day last year, and the Tote turnover was also very well up." British Horseracing Board Chairman Peter Savill agreed, "We have made terrific progress this year. The day comes at an awkward time between Goodwood and York and the races do not yet have black type, and that is another aspect that we shall have to look at. This event is here to stay." Jockeys from two teams--the Virgin Atlantic European Team and the Dubai Duty Free Rest of the World Team--were pitted against each other, with jockeys names being picked out of a hat for their mounts. The European Team took honors with 157 points, versus the Rest of the World Team's 83. Pat Eddery, captain of the European Team, said, "It was great fun, and of course we won because we had the best jockeys on our team!" The European Team's star was Mick Kinane, who had three winners from three rides. "A 100 percent day is always very special," he said.

2--Bring Plenty (USA), 120, f, 2, Southern Halo (USA)--Alcando (Ire), by Alzao (USA). £4,730.

3--Rizerie (Fr), 120, f, 2, Highest Honor (Fr)--Riziere (Fr), by Groom Dancer (USA). £2,365.

Margins: 1 1/4, 3/4, 1. Odds: 7-1, 4-1, 5-1.

Also ran: Lady Lahar (GB), Chaguaramas (Ire), Goodie Twosues (GB), Fastina (Den). Scratched: Saudia (USA).

Having won her maiden at Kempton June 28 in her second attempt, Peaceful Paradise went on to contest the Milcars Star S. at Sandown July 27. That experience proved beyond her, as she finished fifth behind Bring Plenty. She turned the form around with that rival here to score her first stakes in impressive fashion. She always held a handy position and led the stands side group from Bring Plenty, as early leader Chaguaramas (Ire) (Mujadil {USA}) veered across the track to the far side rail. Going to the final quarter mile, Peaceful Paradise was ridden to maintain her advantage and she quickened decisively as she started her ascent approaching the final furlong. She was ridden out to assert her superiority thereafter. Bring Plenty kept on well to claim second inside the final 100 yards.

DUBAI INTERNET CITY SHERGAR CUP CLASSIC (Class B), £100,000, Newmarket, 8-12, 3yo/up, c/g, 1 1/2mT, 2:33.13, gd/fm.

1--ARCTIC OWL (GB), 129, g, 6, Most Welcome (GB)--Short Rations (GB), by Lorenzaccio (Ire). (10,000gns yrlg '95 TAOCT). O-The Owl Society; B-J M Greetham; T-James Fanshawe; J-Johnny Murtagh; £56,000. Lifetime Record: MGSW-Eng, GSW-Fr, 20-8-4-4, £241,154. *1/2 to Marooned (GB) (Mill Reef {USA}), G1SW-Aus.

2--Murghem (Ire), 129, h, 5, Common Grounds (GB)--Fabulous Pet (Ire), by Somethingfabulous (USA). £18,000.

3--Little Rock (GB), 134, c, 4, Warning (GB)--Much Too Risky (GB), by Bustino (GB). £10,000.

Margins: HD, 5, 4, 24, 1. Odds: 9-2, 7-4, 3-1.

Also ran: Mukhalif (Ire), Kingsclere (GB), Kumatour (GB).

All of Arctic Owl's major victories have been over further than this trip and his connections will still look at the 1 3/4-mile G1 Irish St Leger Sept. 16 and the two-mile G1 Melbourne Cup in November as his major targets, but he showed he can handle the shorter distance against horses of this class. Towards the rear for most of the race as Murghem led, he made swift progress on the wide outside in the straight and quickened into the lead over a furlong out. Murghem would not give in easily, however, and Arctic Owl had to fight to just hold on at the line. "I always used to think he wanted two miles and soft ground," said trainer James Fanshawe, but if anything he's gotten faster and speedier as he's gotten older. He was really tough today and Johnny (Murtagh) rode him beautifully."

Also ran: Awake (GB), Bally Pride (Ire), Mister Superb (GB), Trinculo (Ire), Selking (Ire), Littlefeather (Ire).

One-time Classic hope Bernstein is back. Reverting to sprinting after two failures over a mile in the G1 National S. at The Curragh last September and the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, the Ballydoyle colt upset the Godolphin even-money favourite Auenklang with this battling effort and will now head for the G1 Stanley Leisure Sprint Cup over this same trip at Haydock Park Sept 2. Always close to the pace set by Auenklang, Bernstein threw down his challenge to the favourite over a furlong out and the two market leaders battled all the way to the line, with Bernstein proving just the stronger, while 33-1 shot Vita Spericolata came out of the pack to run them close. "He is very fast," said winning trainer Aidan O'Brien. "I had just trained him too light for the Guineas as we tried to make him settle and relax to get the mile. He was just about ready now for a racecourse gallop, so we felt that we might as well bring him here and let him gallop for this prize. It was a very nice way to come back. Mick (Kinane) said he was racing very lazily and laid back early on today, which is the result of us trying to get him like that for the Guineas, but he has tremendous speed. Bernstein is a possible for the Breeders Cup Sprint because he is coming on in leaps and bounds."

Winner of a Gowran Park maiden in late June on his only previous start, Turnberry Isle was well backed to maintain his unbeaten record, but he looked to have it all to do as the field straightened for home, when Spirit House (USA) (Hansel {USA}) led. But the Ballydoyle colt quickened well on the wide outside to join the leaders inside the final furlong and edge ahead of Vicious Knight at the line. Winning trainer Aidan O'Brien said, "The plan was to give him a run around the track and then come back here next month for the (G2) Royal Lodge S. (at a mile Sept. 24). He's very tough and mentally strong, although a bit lazy. Michael (Kinane) gave him a lovely ride."

Also ran: Miletrian (Ire), Dignify (Ire).

Winner of the G3 Premio Mario Incisa in Italy June 18, Sailing then ran poorly in a Newmarket Listed race July 22. She looked to have a tough job here against G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Miletrian (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) and Littlepacepaddocks, fourth in the G1 Kildangan Stud Irish Oaks on her last start. But Miletrian lost her chance at the start, refusing to race until the four others had gone half a furlong. Littlepacepaddocks set a good pace and was still in command until over a furlong out, where Sailing was switched away from the rail and closed the gap on the leader with every stride until sticking her head out right on the line, giving her rider, top Australian Damien Oliver, his first win in Britain on the eve of his return home. "Sailing is very brave and loves this fast ground," said trainer Paul Cole. "She is very well-bred and won black-type in Italy. Maybe she can do the same over here now. Damien told me there would be a strong pace and that he was going to come as late as he could."

Unplaced in the Listed Prix de Saint-Patrick at Chantilly June 28, Cheshire had previously won his only other start when successful in a conditions event on his debut at the same course May 15. He secured his first stakes win here by finishing with a rattling late run to snatch victory in the closing stages with Belgian-born Christophe Soumillon once again excelling in the saddle. He was dropped out in the early stages as Spencers Wood led, with Skipping tracking the leaders in fourth. Skipping made his bid for glory approaching the final furlong and led at the distance. At that point he seemed set for victory. Cheshire didn't look like a threat until switched to the outside at the furlong pole, when he ran on in tremendous style to deny the bold Skipping by grabbing the lead in the last 25 yards.
