SADLER'S WELLS COLT TOPS DEAUVILLE

A colt by super sire Sadler's Wells brought a final bid of FF6,000,000 to top yesterday's second session of the Agence Francaise Deauville August Yearling Sale. The bay Irish-bred yearling, out of Irish Arms (Fr) (Irish River), was consigned by Haras d'Etream and was purchased by Peter Doyle Bloodstock Ltd. Sold as hip number 91, the yearling is a half brother to stakes winner Charme Slave (Fr) (Sicyos) and Group 1 placed Celtic Cavalier (Ire) (Caerleon). The top-priced filly of the session was lot 108, a daughter of Zafonic and group winner Legend Maker (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Consigned by Haras de la Reboursiere et de Montaigu, the yearling was bought for FF4,000,000 by Shadwell Estate Company. Peter Doyle purchased two of the top five colts and two of the top five priced fillies. John Ferguson brought home two of the top five priced colts. Through two sessions of the five-day sale, 103 yearlings have grossed FF65,940,000 and averaged FF1,244,151. The average rose 29.4 percent over the first two sessions of last year's auction when 115 yearlings grossed FF109,240,000 and averaged FF949,913. The sale continues today at 1:30 p.m.

DREAM REIGNS SUPREME IN BALLERINA

Kinsman Stable's Dream Supreme (Seeking the Gold) bulled her way through in deep stretch to lead home a one-two for her sire in yesterday's GI Ballerina H. at Saratoga. The sophomore filly, who equaled the track record in her career debut over this track, rallied strongly when winning the GI Test S. here July 29. After a sharp half-mile drill in :47 2/5, all systems were go for the homebred. Never far from the front as Cash Run (Seeking the Gold) and Bourbon Belle (Storm Boot) cut out moderate fractions, she angled out off the turn, but switched back inside and knifed between the pace-setters at the eighth pole and drew off powerfully. "The filly ran a huge race today," commented winning trainer Bill Mott. "She broke cleanly, was up close to the pace and when Pat [jockey Day] pushed the button, there was plenty of horse there and she had everyone else at her mercy." A claim of foul against the winner was lodged by D. Wayne Lukas, trainer of Cash Run, but it was disallowed. Even-money Honest Lady (Seattle Slew) attempted to duplicate half brother Chester House's run up the rail, but was forced to steady as Cash Run came over and finished fourth. "I had a clear shot on the fence and it closed up in a second," said her rider Jerry Bailey. "I had no choice but to check out of the race. It's tough to say whether we would have won or not, but I knew Cash Run caused the trouble. Dream Supreme didn't do anything wrong." Dream Supreme became the fourth three-year-old to win the Ballerina.

Bad As I Wanna Be, the outsider of the field, caused the second major shock of the Deauville festival with his win here. Winner of a maiden last time at Windsor, his form was considered far short of what was required to win this, but he made a collection of some of the finest two-year-olds in Europe look ordinary. Bouncing from the stalls, he had the rail position and immediately took to the front as Rolly Polly (Ire) (Mukaddamah {USA}) tracked him and Pyrus (Mr Prospector {USA}) was roused to prominence. As jockey Gerald Mosse picked up the pace with a quarter mile remaining, he had a healthy advantage over the chasing group. Drawing further and further clear, he was in no danger of being troubled, and his jockey rewarded his impressive display with a pat on the neck crossing the line. Endless Summer appeared to confirm Goodwood form with Pyrus, adding significant weight to the form, and justification for the thought that this could be the best two-year-old seen in Europe so far. Mosse said, "He has lots of speed, and when I asked him to accelerate he reacted really well. He handled the soft ground comfortably." Trainer Brian Meehan commented, "I'm obviously delighted. It was a top performance. I wasn't totally surprised as he's a lovely horse. He was disappointing when he made his debut [when unplaced in a Newbury maiden]. Whether the ground was too firm or what I don't know, but he bolted up at Windsor on his next start. He's in the G1 Middle Park S. (Newmarket Sept. 28), but I suppose I'll have to train him as a (2000) Guineas horse now."

Love That Red, winner of the GI Malibu last December, returned from a three-month absence to run second in the July 29 Gill Bing Crosby Breeders' Cup H. in his first start for trainer Bob Baffert. Favored in the short field of five, the gelding stalked the pace, made his bid along the inside on the turn and kicked clear to win going away. "I had a great trip and I had a lot of horse," said winning jockey Corey Nakatani. "I was stalking them today and at the three-eighths I asked him and he just went up in there and did his thing." Baffert added, "We got the perfect trip. We were in the perfect spot and when he got through on the rail, it was all over." The GII Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. winner Elaborate (Gilded Time) reared up at the start and never got into the race, finishing last.

Takali deserves his own share of the limelight since he helped his stablemate Sinndar (Ire) to claim the G1 Irish Derby July 2, when he was employed to hassle Holding Court (GB) in front. In this race he built on his recent success in the G3 Meld S. July 29 to win his most important prize yet. He tracked the pacesetter in second early, and, with two and a half furlongs to race, was asked to take up the running by jockey Johnny Murtagh. From there he had to shake off the attentions of Molomo, but managed to do so and win by a head. John Oxx said afterwards, "He'll be a better four-year-old than a three-year-old, as he's a big, tall horse, and will take time to fill out his frame. He could possibly be pacemaker to Sinndar in the G2 Prix Niel (Longchamp Sept. 10) next."

Showing that he still retains all his powers, Persian Punch bravely secured the G3 Henry II S. at Sandown May 29 and followed up with a creditable sixth to Kayf Tara (GB) in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup June 22. He was fifth in his latest start in the G2 Goodwood Cup Aug. 3, but returned to winning form in emphatic style here to add another group race success to his already impressive tally with in-form Richard Hughes showing why he is rated one of Europe's top jockeys. Another trip to Australia to contest the G1 Fosters Melbourne Cup at Flemington in November is still very much on the cards. He finished third in that race in 1998. Persian Punch was sent straight into a four-length lead from 9-5 favourite Pairumani Star (Ire) (Caerleon), Wajina and Three Cheers. They remained the same almost throughout and the race began in earnest as Hughes increased the tempo turning out of the back straight. Persian Punch poached a three-length lead into the straight and was ridden to maintain his advantage from the quarter-mile marker. He had the race in the bag at the distance, as the remainder fought for the minor honours, and he only needed to be pushed out to record a comfortable victory. Wajina stayed on well to hold second place as Three Cheers ran on in good style in the closing stages to secure third.

Edneator broke on top and led every step to light up the board in winning his first stakes. A true local hero, the son of the Storm Cat horse Delineator had made all 14 of his previous starts at Emerald Downs. Second two back for a $60,000 tag July 16, he followed that up with a fifth in the July 30 Mt. Ranier Breeders' Cup H., finishing behind four of today's rivals. Off smoothly from post six, the Washington-bred was pressed by Handy N Bold (Bold Laddie) through testing fractions of :44 3/5 and 1:07 4/5. As that horse faded, Edneator fended off the challenge of favorite Big Ten down the stretch and equalled the track record.

Golden Silca turned in perhaps her best performance this year when fourth last time in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2 behind Giant's Causeway, but the closest she has got to Group 1 success came here in last season's Irish 1000 Guineas when beaten a short head. At this level she is a force to be reckoned with, however, and proved that again by claiming her fifth stakes success. With two rivals to beat here, she raced in second place early as Muakaad made the running. Entering the straight, she was relegated to last by Duck Row, before being produced to go to the front with 150 yards remaining and sprinting away to win with something in hand. Mark Wallace, assistant to winning trainer Mick Channon said, "There are no firm plans. She's a tough and honest filly, and this was the ideal opportunity for her."

Saratoga Worktab:

Impeachment (Deputy Minister), working in company, went five furlongs over the Oklahoma training track yesterday in 1:04 with jockey Richard Migliore up. The Todd Pletcher trainee will start next in Saturday's GI Travers. Stablemates More Than Ready (Southern Halo) and Left Bank (French Deputy), pointing towards the GI King's Bishop on Saturday, also worked in company yesterday. The pair was timed in :50 for the four-furlong breeze over the training track. "I like the way Impeachment finished and I like the way he galloped out," said Pletcher. "He's a fit horse; I want to keep him where we've got him. More than Ready and Left Bank were both well in hand and on cruise control. I don't specifically try to match them up, but they are two horses on the same schedule and they needed the same type of work."...Travers hopeful Albert the Great (Go for Gin) worked five furlongs over the main track yesterday in :59 2/5. "That was close to what I was looking for," commented trainer Nick Zito. "We've got a million-dollar race less than a week away. I've got to push him a bit. I want him ready."...Milwaukee Brew (Wild Again) worked five furlongs on the main track yesterday in 1:00 4/5...Sept. 2 GI Hopeful hopeful Yonaguska (Cherokee Run) breezed five furlongs over the training track yesterday in 1:01 3/5. "We just wanted to keep him sharp. We're looking at the Hopeful, but we're not positive," commented trainer D. Wayne Lukas...Chilukki (Cherokee Run) worked five furlongs on the main track in :59 4/5. No decision has been made on the 1999 champion two-year-old filly's next start, but the Sept. 9 Floral Park H. at Belmont is listed as possible.

AMARETTA (f, 2, Woodman--Quickshine, by The Minstrel), a $105,000 KEENOV weanling and a $75,000 FTFFEB juvenile, showed some early lick in her debut July 9, but tired to sixth going 5 1/2 furlongs on the Saratoga main July 27. Figuring to appreciate the surface switch here, the 56-1 shot quickly went to the front, opened up six lengths on the field and finished strongly for a 2 1/4-length score over West Side Maria (Judge T C). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $25,200. O-Dogwood Stable. B-The International Breeding Venture (KY). T-Dallas Stewart.

Also ran: First Truth (GB).

Zaajer had been off the course for 92 days, after finishing just under three lengths third to Sea Wave (Ire) in the Listed Aston Park S. Newbury May 20. That day he had Lightning Arrow ahead of him, but here he was ridden to defeat that rival and, surviving a stewards' inquiry, held on to win his first stakes since last year's Listed Glasgow S. at York in May. Richard Hills was allowed to dictate the pace from the front, which he did to great effect, causing Lightning Arrow to lose his rhythm in behind off the slow-slow-quick-slow pace. Turning for home, he had the call over that rival, and, as he edged toward the rail, he took the ground of Taufan's Melody, who held every chance at that point. As the runner-up lunged toward the line in company with the luckless third, it was too late as Hills and Zaajer managed to hold on for the win.

Arabesque knew this company well, having raced against most of her opponents here so far this season. She had followed Hot Tin Roof (Ire) (Thatching {Ire}), the favourite here, home in fourth in the Listed Kilvington Fillies' S. Nottingham May 20. Here she was produced by Henry Cecil to reverse that form comprehensively for her first stakes success. Prominent early as Damalis (Ire) (Mukaddamah {USA}) blazed the trail, she was moved up to challenge in the straight before hitting the front with 200 yards remaining. From there she kept on well to deny the challenge of Jezebel and the late flourish of Jemima.

Making steady headway throughout the race, he was brought with a sustained run which got him to the front on the line to win by a head from Brilliant Red (GB) (Royal Academy {USA}). OCTAVIUS CAESAR (USA) (c, 3, Affirmed {USA}--Secret Imperatrice {USA} {SW-US}, by Secretariat {USA}), sent off at odds of 6-1, was sent to the front early by jockey Fergus Sweeney, and by the time they had entered the straight, the pair were five lengths clear. Although they were chased by Saluem (GB) (Salse {USA}), the advantage they had stolen earlier saw them cross the line with a five-length gap to the runner-up. Jockey Michael Roberts eased him to the front with three furlongs remaining, before going away for an easy one-length success from Mush (Ire) (Thatching {Ire}), with six lengths back to the third. Affianced has raced only three times now, but each time she has made her backers sweat, being headed and then beating her rivals on the line in two maiden events at Leopardstown. Here she produced the same late antics to record her first stakes success at first asking. She was held up in last place throughout the first five furlongs here as Aidan O'Brien's Imagine (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) took the field along. As Sequoyah robbed her stablemate of the lead with a furlong remaining, Affianced was only beginning to get going, and, finishing with a flourish, got to the front where it mattered to claim the prize.

MURTAGH HAS MIXED DAY

It was a day of mixed emotions at The Curragh yesterday as Johnny Murtagh was handed a two-day ban, on Aug. 29 and Aug. 31, alongside taking three races, including the G2 Royal Whip S. and G3 Desmond S. It was the latter race that landed Murtagh in hot water with the stewards, as he was judged to have been guilty of careless riding on the winner, Golden Silca (GB). Stuck on the rail, he leaned out onto Duck Row (USA) and did not switch his whip. The jockey, who has been a revelation this year thanks to his exploits on dual-Derby winning Sinndar (Ire), among others, nevertheless has the ride on that colt to look forward to in either the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp Sept. 10, or the G3 Blandford S. here Sept. 17, according to trainer John Oxx.

Ridden in the straight, he headed that horse with a furlong remaining before going away to win by a comfortable length from Benovia (Ire) (Ridgewood Ben {GB}). Lifetime Record: 10-1-4-0, Ir£50,580.

Scratched: La Gandilie (Fr).

A winner on her debut at Newmarket May 5, May Ball suffered two reverses before entering the winner's circle once more when winning at Ascot July 15. She was given an enterprising ride by Frankie Dettori to record her first stakes success albeit by an ever diminishing margin as French 1000 Guineas runner-up Peony reduced the arrears in the closing stages. Ever In Love dictated the early pace from a close up May Ball and Miss Dordogne (GB) (Brief Truce {USA}) as Peony was reserved in midfield. May Ball was ridden to take the lead at the quarter-mile marker and she held a decisive two-length lead at the distance where Peony moved into third. With Dettori keeping May Ball up to her work inside the final furlong, Cash Asmussen conjured a strong late charge from Peony, but her effort was in vain as May Ball held on well as the line approached. Ever In Love kept on once headed and safely held third from the running on Zeiting (Ire) (Zieten {USA}).

MIGHT AND POWER BACK ON TRACK

Might And Power (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), scheduled to make his first start in nearly two years, was scratched from Saturday's G2 Warwick S. at Canterbury in England, with swelling in his right foreleg. After tests, the Australian superstar has been diagnosed with a bruise, most likely received in his stall. "He has simply knocked his leg in the box," owner Nick Moraitis said. "He had both legs scanned and the other leg (which sustained a bowed tendon last March) was perfect." The seven-year-old gelding resumed exercise yesterday with swimming and was expected to be back on the track this morning.
