UNDENIABLY UNSHADED IN THE TRAVERS

Trainer Carl Nafzger, yet to send out a winner at this Saratoga meeting, got his first one in a big way as Unshaded (Unbridled) wore down a game Albert the Great (Go for Gin) in the 131st running of the GI Travers yesterday, becoming just the fifth gelding to win America's oldest race for three-year-olds. Nafzger had circled the Travers for his charge back in February and affirmed those plans following Unshaded's good effort when third in the GI Belmont S., despite suffering from heat exhaustion. Off two months after that, Unshaded returned with a solid try when rallying from the back of the pack to be third in the GII Jim Dandy Aug. 5. Sent off as the second choice here, the bay was unhurried in the run up the backstretch as Commendable (Gone West) showed the way, but began to pick it up nearing the far turn. Swinging wide off the turn, he responded to jockey Shane Sellers' urging and gradually cut into Albert the Great's advantage, getting a head in front in the shadow of the wire. "Between the eighth pole and the sixteenth pole, we were not getting to him [Albert the Great]," Nafzger remarked. "At the sixteenth pole I saw we started picking up the pace and we had plenty of time to get by him." Unshaded broke his maiden at Gulfstream in January, and caught the attention of the racing public with a sweeping move in the GII Lexington S., bounding clear to win by three lengths Apr. 22. A run at the three-year-old title may now be in the cards for the Tafel colorbearer, who will seek to emulate former barnmate and fellow Unbridled offspring Banshee Breeze in her 1998 championship season. "He's got to step up," Nafzger continued. "You have to come on strong now, just like I said with Banshee Breeze. We hope he makes the Breeders' Cup [Nov. 4]. There are a lot of decisions to be made. Of course, the Jockey Club Gold Cup [Oct. 14] is definitely one of the races that will be on the consideration list." Trainer Nick Zito was pleased with Albert the Great's effort. "I'm real disappointed that we didn't get there, but I can't thank Albert enough for trying as hard as he did," Zito said. "He just got beat, but that's racing." Favored Dixie Union was well positioned early, but threw his left front shoe en route to a fourth-place finish. A record Travers Day crowd of 54,116 wagered a record on-track handle of $7,371,991.21. "It was a spectacular day of racing," said NYRA president Terry Meyocks. Chart p2

SKIMMING SPEEDS TO DEL MAR GLORY

Less than a week after stablemate Chester House took the GI Arlington Million for Juddmonte Farms and trainer Bobby Frankel, Skimming (Nureyev) set a sizzling pace under Garrett Gomez en route to sparkling triumph in the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar yesterday. Breaking from post five, the third choice quickly showed in front, with Forty One Carats (Tactical Advantage) alongside through a quarter in :22.79. Skimming proceeded to lay down a half in :45.53 and three-quarters in 1:09.86 as Forty One Carats passed the baton to three-year-old Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy), who gamely gave chase. Kicking clear off the far turn, Skimming opened up by 2 1/2 lengths and maintained a two-length advantage over the sophomore to the wire. "We were cookin' out there; I knew that," Gomez said. "But I was just riding him the way Bobby [trainer Frankel] told me to. He said, 'Leave him alone and let him do what he wants.' So I did." Skimming had done nothing but improve since arriving in the U.S. from England; with the switch to dirt and the addition of Lasix, the compact bay burst into Pacific Classic contention with an eight-length tour-de-force in the GIII San Diego H. over this track Aug. 6. "They don't stay up with him when he goes 1:09," Frankel said. "I like a speed horse on a track like this to go fast, because I don't like horses that finish a little bit breathing down your neck and them having an easy go." Budroyale's full brother Tiznow, making just his sixth career start, had a strong showing in his first try against older horses. "Chris [jockey McCarron] was very happy and the owners and I are very happy with the effort he put in," said his trainer, Jay Robbins. "He ran hard. When I looked at the fractions, I thought it was a little quicker than I expected. But nobody was finishing that big from behind either." Favored General Challenge (General Meeting) had a late jockey change to Laffit Pincay Jr. after regular rider Corey Nakatani suffered a fractured collarbone in a fall during the sixth race. The defending champ came with a run, but flattened out in deep stretch, getting nipped at the wire by Ecton Park (Forty Niner). "He's very difficult to ride," said Bob Baffert, trainer of General Challenge. "To put Laffit in that situation is tough. This horse drives you crazy. [But] I don't like the way he came back. He seems like he has some kind of heat stroke right now." Chart p2

Finally getting the Grade I victory that he had flirted with before, More Than Ready made a successful return to sprinting with an explosive win in the King's Bishop S. Rating in last place under new rider Pat Day behind wicked fractions of :21 4/5 and :44 4/5, More Than Ready circled five wide into the lane and stormed down the center of the track to a comfortable victory over Valiant Halory. "We always knew that this was Plan B; that if he couldn't stretch out, he could always go back to sprinting," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "We thought it was so important to get a Grade I on More Than Ready's resume. If ever there was a horse, in my opinion, deserving of a Grade I win, it's him." Dominant in his early two-year-old season sprinting, More Than Ready reeled off five straight victories before finishing third, beaten a half-length in the one-mile GI Futurity S. and finishing fifth in GI Champagne to end the campaign. He began this year's campaign finishing in a dead heat for the win in the GII Hutcheson S. at seven furlongs before running second in the GII Louisiana Derby and missing by a head in the GI Blue Grass S. Though he finished fourth, beaten six lengths in the Kentucky Derby, it was one of his more impressive performances because he held well after attending the fast pace. After the Derby, More Than Ready finished second to GI Travers S. runner-up Albert The Great July 9 and fourth in the GI Haskell Invitational H. Aug. 6. With the classics over, Pletcher said he plans to keep More Than Ready sprinting, using the Sept. 23 GI Vosburgh H. at seven furlongs as a prep for the Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Medicean was unlucky enough to come up against Giant's Causeway on two of his last three starts previous to this, finishing third both times, but never by more than 2 1/4 lengths. The first of those efforts, in the G1 St James' Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 20, and the other, in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2, stamped him as a colt of the highest class, but in between he had disappointed when unplaced in his connections' bid to pick up the valuable John Smiths Cup at York. He had all the answers here over the mile that seems to suit him so well, claiming his first stakes success. As Bachir (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) and jockey Frankie Dettori went to the front early, jockey Pat Eddery aboard Medicean seemed initially content to wait in behind with Observatory, but he soon realised the benefit in taking on that horse for the lead, and moved his mount upsides. From there he was able to hassle Dettori's mount while travelling easily himself, ensuring that he had a position to play a hand in the finish on the rain-soaked ground. Asked to go on with quarter mile remaining, he was threatened briefly by the runner-up before asserting with 200 yards to race, and going clear willingly under the Eddery drive. "I'm delighted for the Thompsons [David and Patricia, owners of Cheveley Park Stud], as they put so much into racing," said winning trainer Sir Michael Stoute. "He'll go for the Queen Elizabeth [G1, Ascot, Sept. 23] next."

Stepping down from graded-stakes company in her most recent race, the John Franks homebred ran second in the Gill Ellis Park Breeders' Cup H., missing the win by 1 3/4 lengths. Let go as the longest shot on the board here, she pressed the pace throughout, taking the lead off the turn and drawing away for her first victory since November of last year.

Theresa's Tizzy returned to her beloved Del Mar and fought it out all the way to record her first graded score. A four-length winner of the Desert Stormer H. at Hollywood June 10, she finished fourth behind Honest Lady in the Gill A Gleam over the same track July 9. Five-for-seven, with two seconds, lifetime at Del Mar, she was sent off as the crowd's choice. Angling in from her outside post, the gray mare duked it out with Hookedonthefeelin through fractions of :21 4/5 and :44 3/5 and inched away in midstretch, holding off the late bid of Nany's Sweep. "My mare broke so good," said winning jockey Laffit Pincay, Jr. "I had a nice, big hold on her and she was still moving right along. When I asked her, she was there. She loves it here."

Mick Channon is becoming accustomed to arriving here and upsetting the home defence after Lady Lahar scored her first stakes success to follow stablemates Pan Jammer and Golden Silca. Third in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket July 11 behind Dora Carrington (Ire) and Enthused, she ran below that form when fourth at the same course in the Listed Sweet Solera S. Aug 12. Her best was good enough here, however, delivering a late rattle to beat the Ballydoyle pair Bonnard and Beckett. Racing in behind the pace set by Down To The Woods (Woodman) early, she looked in trouble with two furlongs remaining, being pushed along by jockey Johnny Murtagh. As Beckett took control inside the final furlong, Lady Lahar was finding another gear, and, brought alongside the strong-finishing Bonnard, hit the front with 50 yards remaining to go on to success. "The seven furlongs and cut in the ground were a help and she came home very well," said Mark Wallace, assistant to trainer Mick Channon.

Adilabad had a light campaign befitting most of his owner's promising individuals at two, ending up by creating an impression in a conditions race at Newmarket that he has a strong finish as his main weapon. He displayed that facet to win the Listed Thoroughbred S. at Goodwood Aug. 5, where he got the better of Summoner (GB) in a thrilling final 50 yards. Ridden too aggressively when fifth in the G3 Craven S. Newmarket Apr. 20, that effort is the only blot on an otherwise faultless copybook, and he extended his portfolio to include this prestigious Group 3 contest. He was positioned on the rail in fourth early as first Kingsclere (GB) (Fairy King), and then Merry Merlin (GB) (Polar Falcon) made it a reasonable test up front. Asked to close the gap before the turn into the straight, he assumed the lead with three furlongs remaining, where Albarahin and Forbearing emerged as dangers. Under strong driving, he managed to shrug off the latter before getting down to a protracted battle with the runner-up. Despite the fact that he was headed inside the final quarter mile, he kept responding to jockey Pat Eddery's urgings to get back in front with 150 yards remaining, then withstood the persistent challenge of Albarahin.

Racing in allowance company for most of the 2000 season, Solitary Dancer earned two straight seconds May 5 and June 10, before running a distant eighth in a Woodbine optional claimer July 13. Back to try that event again Aug. 6, the colt prevailed and grabbed the win at the wire. The David Bell-trained four-year-old saved ground in the rear of the pack early on, turned for home in fourth and was driven home under strong urging from jockey Mickey Walls to get up for the victory. "He's a big colt," Walls said, "and he started to hang on me a bit. He obviously prevailed and he has more in the tank than he showed today. We should have some fun with him in the future."

7 Theoretically	Theatrical (Ire)	Weld	8-1
8 Kumari Continent	Kris S.	Gonzalez	5-2
9 Uncharted Haven (GB)	Turtle Island (Ire)	Frankel	3-1

A field of nine fillies will line up for the 44th renewal of the Del Mar Oaks. Kumari Continent, winner of the restricted Providencia S. on the Hollywood lawn in April and second in the grassy GII Honeymoon H. in May, went back to the main track for her last out and came home with a victory in the GII Hollywood Oaks July 22. The homebred Kris S. filly returns to the turf here and meets Uncharted Haven, a winner over the course, and a quartet of Euro invaders--No Matter What, La Gandilie, Premiere Creation and Theoretically. Uncharted Haven, undefeated in two U.S. starts, closed impressively to take the GII San Clemente H. at Del Mar Aug. 5 and will be tough to beat. Premiere Creation captured her career debut in June and finished second next time out in the G3 Prix Chloe before closing out her French campaign with a fourth to Lady of Chad in the G2 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville July 30.

5 Mountain Range	Mountain Cat	Lukas	10-1
6 Blazing Sword	Sword Dance (Ire)	O'Connell	4-1
7 Nite Dreamer	El Prado (Ire)	O'Callaghan	7-2

Two Calder shippers will fight it out at the Jersey Shore. G1 winner Sir Bear, third in the Met Mile May 29, came back to capture the GIII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker H. July 5 over Skimming and Ecton Park, respectively first and third in the G1 Pacific Classic yesterday. Blazing Sword backed into a win in the GIII Widener in March via the DQ of Lemon Drop Kid, but showed his class in taking his last two starts. Winner of a handicap at Calder which made him a millionaire, he rallied up the rail at Arlington in the GII Washington Park H. July 22, with Nite Dreamer third.

5 Nite Dreamer	El Prado (Ire)	O'Callaghan	8-1
6 Catienus	Storm Cat	Simon	9-2
7 Pleasant Breeze	Pleasant Tap	Bond	8-5

Lager took two straight, including the GIII Excelsior H. at Aqueduct, before running into a horse named Lemon Drop Kid in his next two, finishing second in the GII Brooklyn and third in the GII Suburban July 4. The six-year-old has not raced since then. "We've had this race in mind all summer because we figured it would be an easier spot than the Whitney," said trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "I'm a little worried that he hasn't raced since July, but we haven't missed a work or gallop all summer long." Lager tuned up with a bullet six furlongs in 1:14 3/5 Aug. 22. Pleasant Breeze spent much of the year chasing the division's top names, but after a ninth in the G1 Hollywood Gold Cup July 9, got a confidence booster in his first 2000 score when capturing a money allowance at the Spa by 4 3/4 lengths over Catienus.

7 (5) Mont Rocher (Fr)	Caerleon	Hammond	130

Daring Miss, a five-lengths second to Montjeu (Ire) in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud July 2, has smart form of her own, having taken the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly June 11. That day she had Little Rock over three lengths behind in last place, and, although that horse has since won the G2 Princess Of Wales' S. at Newmarket July 11, he has a penalty for that success here, and may find it hard giving weight away. If Russian Hope is in anything like the sort of form which saw him take the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 11, he could figure here, although there has been a lot of water under the bridge since then. He only beat one home behind First Magnitude (Ire) in the G2 Prix Jean de Chaudenay at Longchamp May 22 last time, where Crillon was the short-head runner-up.

STORM CREEK SHOWS THE WAY AT OBS

Leading freshman sire Storm Creek continued to be popular at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's August Yearling Sale, siring two of the top three yearlings at the sale's final session on Friday. Showing the way at $90,000 was Hip 1276, a dark bay or brown colt from the stakes-placed mare Sheza My Cissy (Smead). From the consignment of Summerfield, the Florida-bred youngster was purchased by Tom Vanderhyde. Next up at $83,000 was a chestnut colt by End Sweep, the second foal from the young Seattle Dancer mare Seattle Retreat. Offered by Janie Roper as agent, he was bought by Century Venture VI. Storm Creek also sired Hip 1529, a bay colt out of Yardstick (Sunny Clime), a half sister to multiple graded stakes winner Star Gallant. Sent through the ring by Thoroughstock as agent, he went for $80,000 to Murray Smith. Overall on Friday, 179 yearlings were sold for a total of $1,731,200, averaging $9,672 with a median of $5,200. With four open sessions this year, OBS sold 771 yearlings for a total of $7,430,700, with an average of $9,638 and a median of $6,000. These numbers were slightly lower than the three-day Open sale in 1999, where 648 yearlings brought $6,873,600, for an average price of $10,607 and a median of $6,500.

Entrepreneur won consecutive New York-bred stakes last fall, taking the Oct. 23 Sleepy Hollow S. and Nov. 14 New York Stallion S. Turned over to trainer Bill Mott and given time off, the colt missed by a neck in the Mike Lee S. for state-breds July 1 and then finished fourth in this allowance condition in the slop July 30. Moderately supported at the windows, the colt stalked the leaders four wide and surged late to get up over a fast-closing Sun Cat.

IRON WILL (g, 7, Obligato--Alitina, by House Committee) lost six times in this condition last year, ending his six-year-old campaign with a seventh-place finish: Nov. 21. Returning for his new trainer in an allowance July 16, the gelding finished an even fifth, beaten 6 1/4 lengths. Sent off at 26-1 here, he was outrun early, rallied wide into the stretch and surged outside to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 25-5-4-5, $197,530. O-Randolph Froehlich. B-Keane Stud (NY). In Frank's Honor ran third in the Gil Del Mar Derby Sept. 6, but ran back Oct. 10 without blinkers to finish sixth last time out in the GIII Hawthorne Derby. In this, his first start in 10 months and his first non-stakes race since October of 1998, the $210,000 OBSFEB two-year-old went off at chalky odds and didn't disappoint. Settling off the pace in a tightly bunched field, the colt made headway on the second turn to take the lead midstretch and drive clear for his first win in six months.

2nd-SAR, $44,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT, 1:42 3/5, fm.

WESTERVILLE (f, 3, Gone West--Pleasantville, by Pleasant Colony) broke her maiden in her eighth career start July 4, coming from just off the pace to win her second grass try by 3 3/4 lengths. Off since then, the homebred filly saved ground from her inside post, swung wide into the lane and drew clear late to win by 1 3/4 lengths at 7-1. Lifetime Record: 9-2-4-1, $64,930. O/B-Pin Oak Stud Inc (KY). T-H Graham Motion.

1st-SAR, $43,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:23 2/5, ft.

UNCOMMON VALOR (c, 3, Kris S.--Patchiano, by Fappiano) closed to finish second, missing by three-quarters of a length in his debut last November. The $800,000 FTFFEB two-year-old purchase returned Aug. 5 to break his maiden by 3 1/4 length going seven furlongs. Sent off at 7-2 here after showing a bullet half-mile work in :46 3/5 Aug. 17, the colt lagged well behind early, circled very wide into the stretch and charged down the middle of the track to get up by a nose in the last strides over Famous Again (Thunder Gulch). Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $58,600. O-Team Valor. B-Leonard Barrack (KY). T-John P Terranova II.

3rd-SAR, $41,000, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:11 2/5, ft.

+ OMMADON (c, 2, Grindstone--Missymooiloveyou {GSW, 187,109, by Turkoman) trained down at Belmont for his debut, breezing five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 Aug. 17 and a half in :48 five days later. Sent off at 10-1, the bay set the pace between rivals and gamely drew clear to win by 1 3/4 lengths over Smart Pick (Smart Strike). He is the third winner for his freshman sire (by Unbridled). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O/B-Sorin Stables (KY). T-Thomas M Walsh.

After finishing second in his July 15 debut, Express Tour broke his maiden by 2 1/2 lengths in the Dr. Fager division of the Florida Stallion S. Aug. 5. As the slight favorite here, the colt set fractions of :21 4/5 and :45 and romped to an easy victory. "He just galloped," said winning jockey Julio Garcia. "I think he can win the Breeders' Cup (Juvenile). He's a nice colt."

Bought for $5,000 as a two-year-old, Xtra Heat is fast proving herself a good deal since she is now undefeated in four starts, including three stakes. After breaking her maiden June 30, the John Salzman trainee easily took Laurel's Toddler S. July 16 by 4 3/4 lengths and the Laura Gal S. Aug. 13 in her latest race, before winning here in convincing fashion. Breaking to the lead, the filly set quick fractions from the rail, clocking the half at :45.20, a prevailed despite getting a little leg weary. "She seemed to get a little tired the final sixteenth or so," said jockey Clinton Potts. "And I had to push her through that a bit, but I was never worried that we'd get beat."

Guidry Injured:

Mark Guidry, Arlington's leading jockey, was taken to Northwest Community Hospital following a fall in the seventh race. He was reportedly conscious and alert, but the extent of his injuries, if any, were unknown. Guidry was thrown to the ground when his mount, Lex a Million broke down near the half-mile pole. Guidry was scheduled to ride Bella Chiarra in the Gill Gardenia at Ellis Park, but decided to ride at Arlington when that horse was scratched.

3--Media Puzzle (USA), 120, c, 3, Theatrical (Ire)--Market Slide (USA), by Gulch (USA). Ir£2,250

Margins: HF, 4HF, 1. Odds: 13-8, 40-1, 3-1.

Also ran : Kahtan (GB), Dutch Harrier (Ire), Morning Breeze (Ire), Winged Hussar (GB), Simplicity (GB).

Katiykha has been unstoppable since she found the winning thread in the Listed Victor McCalmont Memorial S. at Gowran Park June 7. She went on to master handicap company in the Duke Of Edinburgh H. at Royal Ascot June 20, and, given a break since then, returned to racecourse action with another stakes success here. Held up in fourth early as Kahtan (GB) (Nashwan {USA}) assumed his customary front-running tactics in company with Simplicity (GB) (Polish Precedent {USA}), Katiykha was moved up to join the leader with quarter of a mile remaining. She hit the front soon after, and stayed on well from there to comfortably hold the challenge of the consistent Chimes At Midnight, to give Murtagh his third success of the four that made up his afternoon.

3.55 The Curragh, TATTERSALLS BREEDERS S. (Cond.) (Class C), (R), Ir£200,000, 2yo, 6fT, 1:14.90, yl.

Also ran: Galanta (Ire) (16,964gns), Bee One (Ire) (18,750), Tender Cove (Ire) (2,678), Promised (Ire) (9,375), Innit (Ire) (11,160), Gallito Castao (Ire) (2,857), Kachina Doll (Ire) (10,267), Witney Royale (Ire) (6,696), Gotarapofahames (Ire) (2,232), Open Warfare (Ire) (3,392), Fiamma Royale (Ire) (8,035), Common Venture (Ire) (13,392), Flame Of Passion (Ire) (13,392), Bijan (Ire) (8,928), Cabo Salinas (Ire) (16,071), Calumet Spice (Ire) (WD), Ameras (Ire) (17,857), Solar At'Em (Ire) (16,071), Brandon Wizzard (Ire) (24,107), Pigeon Top (Ire) (4,910), Junior Brief (Ire) (5,357).

Blue Goddess, purchased for 13,392 guineas at the September Yearling Sales by Richard Hannon, Jr. last year, Blue Goddess produced an impressive display here to extend her unbeaten run to three and keep this race in the family for the fifth year in succession. She broke well and raced prominently in the far-side group taken along by Brandon Wizzard (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) early. She took to the front with two and a half furlongs remaining before being pushed clear by jockey David Harrison to record a memorable first and third for her trainer. Said Hannon, Jr. of Blue Goddess, "It's been a great race for us. She is tiny, but I love her. She doesn't show much at home but does it on the track where it matters."

That Alva Glen was brought back to a racecourse just four days after a creditable sixth in the Tote Ebor H. at York told a story of its own, and he rewarded such enterprise with a facile victory to earn his first stakes success. After rain lashed Goodwood all morning, the pace here was considerably slow and steady, as Going Global (Ire) (Bob Back {USA}) made the running early. Eddery was content to sit off the stop-start pace until the approach to the straight, where he cruised upsides Kuwait Trooper. Asked to go on there, he enthusiastically stretched clear under easy riding to put the result beyond doubt.

+ YOU ARE THE ONE (GB) (f, 3, Unfuwain {USA}--Someone Special {GB} {GSP-Eng}, by Habitat {USA}) looked something special with this impressive debut. Well back early on, while racing greenly, she made good progress at halfway, came to challenge the more experienced long-time leader Azaan (Ire) (Lure {USA}) a quarter mile out and edged ahead at the furlong marker. Once in front she appeared to idle and the persistent Azaan made a race of it up to the line, with the filly just staying on the stronger to win by a head. Winning trainer Luca Cumani said, "She's been ready to run, but the ground has been too firm. They'd done a good job watering here and I was happy to run her. She might be upped in class now." The winner is a 1/2 to Alnasr Alwasheek (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), MGSW-Eng; SP-USA, $224,428; Relatively Special (GB) (Alzao {USA}), GSW-Eng, G1SP-Ire, SP-Fr, $134,199; One So Wonderful (GB) (Nashwan {USA}), Hwt. She took the lead a furlong out and, despite hanging in towards the rail in the closing stages, causing Lunevision to check, ran on well up the hill to beat that rival by a length and three-quarters, with the 11-10 favourite Mine (Ire) (Primo Dominie {GB}) finishing well for third, a half-length further away. Elmonjed looked the probable winner well inside the final furlong, but Muqtadi finally got into top gear and caught his rival in the final strides to win by a neck, while Tara Gold may have been unlucky in third, when squeezed for room when trying to come again. DEAUVILLE READY FOR FIREWORKS

With three Group races on the card, it will be fireworks in Deauville today, for the last day of the August meeting. The afternoon's racing will start with the spectacle of the trainers turning jockeys in the first race. The traditional 'trainers race' has now been firmly established as a leading event on the last day of the meeting. Eight two-year-old fillies will line up in the first of three Group races, the G2 Prix du Calvados. Four of them, Wooden Doll (USA) (Woodman {USA}) for France, and Ascension (Ire) (Night Shift {USA}), Peaceful Paradise (GB) (Turtle Island {Ire}), and Silver Jordan (GB) (Imp Society {USA}) for England, are already stakes winners. Daring Miss (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) will be the probable favorite in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville. The four-year-old won the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly before finishing second in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud to Montjeu (Ire). Little Rock (GB) (Warning {GB}) represents England, while Flamingo Road (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), for Germany, help to make it a truly international event. Ten will go to post for the G3 Prix de Meautry, where Danger Over (GB) (Warning {GB}) is likely to be sent off favourite to add to his Listed Prix Djebel success at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 14. He was off until July, when he was a close second to Gorse in the G3 Prix de Ris Orangis here July 11. Seltitude (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}), Blu Air Force (Ire) (Sri Pekan {USA}), now trained by André Fabre, and English challengers Three Points (GB) (Bering {GB}) and Mount Abu (Ire) (Foxhound {USA}) will be putting it up to the favourite.

A DANDY PERFORMANCE

Glamour filly Dandify (Danehill {USA}) established her spring credentials by overwhelming her male counterparts when she came out of a seemingly hopeless pocket with 300m remaining to win the G2 Peter Pan S. by 1 3/4 lengths as 9-4 favourite. She beat Outgate (Lake Coniston {Ire}) with Free Ranger (Danehill {USA}), who is closely related to 1995 Victoria Derby winner Nothin' Leica Dane (Danehill {USA}), a further long neck away third. Dandify was a $600,000 Easter purchase by owner-breeders Geoff and Beryl White and she is a daughter of 1992 Caulfield Cup winner Mannerism (Amyntor). "She is a star in the making. A furlong out I thought it was hopeless, but she showed today she is very, very special," Geoff White told AAP. Dandify will next contest the G2 Gloaming S. before the G1 Spring Champion S. (2000m) at Randwick Oct. 2 with the Victorian Oaks her ultimate goal. "The Victorian Oaks in November is where she's headed, but who knows what she can do in the meantime?" he said.

NO EX-SKOOZ-ES PLEASE

In Melbourne, Skoozi Please (Prince Of Praise {NZ}) settled just off the pace and gained a vital split in the straight before nosing out Go Flash Go (7-1) in a tight photo finish in the G2 J.J. Liston S. (1400m) at Sandown. Trainer Graeme Rogerson plans for Skoozi Please to race in the Cox Plate in October before flying to Hong Kong in December and then on to his stables in Dubai next year. "He's a very good horse who can be competitive in just about everything," Rogerson said. "We'll be taking on Sunline in the Cox Plate and although you can't say we can beat her, I'm sure he'll acquit himself very well. The only times he's missed a place has been through bad luck." Skoozi Please, purchased as a tried horse from NZ, has already visited Dubai but didn't race there owing to a muscle complaint. Rogerson said the horse would remain in Dubai until next April, when he would fly a team of horses back for the Sydney autumn carnival.
