GOLD CUP CHALLENGE

A field of nine has been entered for Sunday's renewal of the $1 million GI Sempra Energy Hollywood Gold Cup at Hollywood Park. Morning-line favorite General Challenge (General Meeting) will break from post position seven. The four-year-old gelding jumped to the head of the class with a 1 1/4-length victory in the Mar. 4 GI Santa Anita H., but crashed back to earth with a dull third-place effort in the Apr. 9 GII San Bernadino H. He hasn't raced since, while recovering from surgery for an entrapped epiglottis. The Bob Baffert trainee has the confidence of jockey Corey Nakatani who calls General Challenge, "as good a horse as I've ever ridden." Out of Mind (Brz) (Sestero {Brz}), juvenile champion in his native Brazil, won the GII Mervyn Leroy H. over this track in May before running second to Running Stag in the June 3 GII Massachusetts H. in his last trip to the post. The five-year-old bay will break from post nine in his attempt to earn a first Grade I victory. The Irish-bred Blueprint (Ire) (Generous {Ire}) will be making his American debut Sunday. The five-year-old, off since winning the May 5 G2 Sagitta Jockey Club S. at Newmarket, will break from post four in his first race on the dirt. Both Out of Mind and Blueprint have been supplemented to the race for $25,000. The last supplemental entrant to win the Gold Cup was Sultry Song in 1992. Juddmonte Farm's Chester House (Mr. Prospector), fourth in last year's Breeders' Cup Classic, blew out a half mile yesterday at Hollywood in :48 4/5. After the move, trainer Bobby Frankel commented, "I think he's going to run really well in this race." Post time for the race, which is the fourth of five in the "NTRA Champions on FOX" Super Series, is 2:40 p.m.

CHIEF SEATTLE INJURED

Godolphin's Chief Seattle (Seattle Slew) suffered a knee injury that will force the colt to miss Sunday's GII Dwyer S. and could jeopardize his future racing career, according to Daily Racing Form. The three-year-old, runner-up in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and GI Champagne S., was purchased by Godolphin in February and has yet to run for the Dubai-based stable. Chief Seattle returned lame from a Sunday work at Belmont Park. X-rays revealed no fracture, but there is cartilage damage. Godolphin assistant trainer Tom Albertrani told the Form, "We're still trying to decide if he's going to be a racehorse or if he's going to be retired. At this point, we're not sure."

EL GRAN SENOR PENSIONED

Champion and leading sire El Gran Senor (Northern Dancer--Sex Appeal, by Buckpasser) has been retired from the breeding shed due to continued fertility problems. The 19-year-old will spend the rest of his days at Ashford Stud, where he has stood since beginning his stud career in 1985. Bred in Maryland by a partnership including E. P. Taylor, Vincent O'Brien, John Magnier and Robert Sangster, El Gran Senor was a champion at two and three in both England and Ireland and captured seven of eight lifetime starts, his only loss coming by a nose to Secreto in the 1981 Epsom Derby. From his limited books, he has sired 47 stakes winners and seven champions to date, including champion sprinter Lit de Justice, a freshman sire this season; and dual Guineas winner Rodrigo de Triano. Currently, he is represented by Spanish Fern, winner of the 1999 GI Yellow Ribbon S. and the GII Santa Ana H. this season, and The Seven Seas, heroine of the GIII Bewitch H. at Keeneland in April. As a broodmare sire, his daughters have already produced Grade I winners Grand Slam, Honest Lady, Popular Bluff and Vicar.

Michael Kinane is still hoping that he will be fit to ride G1 St James' Palace S. winner Giant's Causeway, currently available at 7-1 with the firm. Kinane said yesterday, "I am hoping, but I will have to pass the doctor on Friday if I am going to do it." Australian Damien Oliver might step in for the ride should Kinane be unavailable.

COMPTON ADMIRAL TO MISS 2000 Last year's G1 Coral-Eclipse S. winner Compton Admiral (GB) (Suave Dancer {USA}), unraced since finishing fifth in the G1 Juddmonte International S. last August, will not race this year but could be back in action next season, the Sporting Life on-line reports. The four-year-old was reported to have suffered a fracture in his right knee last summer, and trainer Gerard Butler has not been able to get him ready for a 2000 campaign. Butler told PA Sport, "He won't run all year, but he will be back for sure next season. We are a racing operation, not a breeding operation." He added, "Unfortunately, we will both be watching the Eclipse on TV this year." Compton Admiral has had three wins and three seconds from his nine career starts.

COCHRANE'S RETURN ON HOLD Jockey Ray Cochrane, injured in a plane crash last month, will not be back in the saddle for next week's July meeting at Newmarket as he had hoped, the Sporting Life on-line reports. Cochrane was told by Dr Michael Turner, the chief medical advisor for the Jockey Club, to wait until the end of the month to make his return. "Dr Turner has given him another three weeks," Cochrane's agent, Andrew Gilbert, told PA Sport. "Ray was hoping he was fit enough, but he'll just have to wait. Perhaps he was being a typical jockey and just rushing it a bit."

LAND AHEAD (USA) (f, 3, Distant View {USA}--Nimble Folly {USA}, by Cyane {USA}), sent off the 3-1 on favourite, was settled in second early as Abernant Lady (GB) (Absalom {GB}) pulled her way to the front. Taking command on the turn, she had to battle to hold Sabreon (GB) (Caerleon {USA}), who headed her before the line, but won in the end by a short head, with 10 lengths back to the third. He took to the front from the stalls and, cruising on the bridle until well into the straight, simply shrugged off the never dangerous challenge of the favourite to lengthen away before being eased down to win by 13 lengths. A 1/2 to Certainly Classic (USA) (Sky Classic {Can}), GSW-US, $213,045, the winner was a $250,000 KEENOV weanling. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, £9,092.

CURULE SET FOR RETURN

Godolphin's Curule (USA) (Go for Gin {USA}), who was checked on the turn and then eased in the June 10 GI Belmont S., looks to rebound in today's eighth race at Belmont Park. The three-year-old, who was third in the UAE Derby and went on to be seventh in the GI Kentucky Derby, faces seven rivals in the $44,000 allowance test going 1 1/8 miles on the main track. Also in the field is the five-year-old Laurentide (USA) (Pleasant Colony {USA}). Unraced at two, the Virginia Kraft Payson homebred was good enough to finish a nose second in the G3 Queen's Vase at three, but showed little in three starts last season. He has not been out since running 16th, beaten 44 1/4 lengths, in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the 1999 Royal Ascot meeting. Trained by Henry Cecil in Britain, he is now under the care of H. James Bond.
