BELONG TO ME FILLY TOPS AT KEENELAND

The top price at yesterday's fourth session of the 13-day Keeneland September Yearling Sale in Lexington, Kentucky was brought by hip number 1100, a filly by Belong to Me out of the Seattle Slew mare Lassie Connection. The dark bay yearling was purchased for $600,000 by Frank Mansell and, in a familiar refrain at these sales, was consigned by Lane's End, agent. "I'm really not that surprised at the price that she brought," said Lane's End owner William Farish. "She is a very nice filly and with the pedigree that she has, I thought that she would bring a good price. That family has been a foundation mare for our farm, without doubt. It keeps producing stallion after stallion after stallion." Of his farm's September success, Farish added, "It's been beyond our wildest expectations. But I think the market shows that there is plenty of money out there for the good-looking horses with solid pedigrees. I think it will keep going, too. I think it will be strong right through the weekend. There are still a lot of people here and they are looking for horses." The second highest price of the day was also for a filly. Hip number 1266, a daughter of Honour and Glory--Trust in Me (Procida) brought a final bid of $550,000 from B. Wayne Hughes. The dark bay was consigned by Blackburn Farm, agent for Longleaf Pine Farm. The sale's fifth session will begin today at 10 a.m.

KID TAKES ON FOUR IN WOODWARD

Leading Horse of the Year candidate Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) faces four rivals in his attempt to win a fourth straight graded event in Saturday's G1 Woodward S. at Belmont Park. The four-year-old colt, already booked to stand at Lane's End for a fee of $100,000 next season, is coming off victories in the June 11 G11 Brooklyn, July 4 G11 Suburban and Aug. 6 G1 Whitney. "I've never had one like Lemon Drop Kid, he's exceptional," said Hall of Fame trainer Scotty Schulhofer. "He's the easiest and best horse I've trained. It's going to be tough to replace him." California invader Skimming (Nureyev) will seek his second straight Grade I victory Saturday. The four-year-old Bobby Frankel trainee won the Aug. 26 G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar in his last trip to the post. "We thought he could be a nice horse, but we didn't realize he could do what he did," Frankel admitted. "I'm hoping it wasn't just Del Mar, but it might have been." In addition to the Classic, Skimming captured the Aug. 6 G11 San Diego over the Del Mar strip. "He's trained well at Belmont. He's just got to come out of there and do his running," Frankel added. Behrens (Pleasant Colony), second to Dubai Millennium (GB) in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March, hasn't won since taking the Feb. 26 G1 Gulfstream Park H. Most recently, the six-year-old multi-millionaire has finished second to Lemon Drop Kid in the Suburban and third to that rival after a troubled trip in the Whitney. "That was yesterday and the Woodward is Saturday," trainer H. James Bond said of the Whitney. "He's been doing great since the Whitney."

GODOLPHIN SEEKS THIRD LEGER Kayf Tara (GB) carried the famous Godolphin silks under the wire first in the last two runnings of the G1 Irish St Leger, but with the recent retirement of that talented runner, hopes for a Dubai three-peat in Saturday's renewal of the race at The Curragh rest with Mutafaweq (Silver Hawk). The four-year-old is no Leger novice, winning last year's English St Leger by two lengths before being named high weighted three-year-old at over 14 furlongs. The field of eight also includes the Aga Khan's Katiykha (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}). The four-year-old Irish-bred filly won the Ballycullen S. over this course and distance in August. Michael Tabor will be represented by two runners on Saturday--Lermontov (Alleged), second in last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy and Rostropovich (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), owned in partnership with Susan Magnier, who ran seventh in last Saturday's English St Leger. Another veteran of last week's classic is Chimes at Midnight (Danzig), who finished third behind Millenary (GB) at odds of 40-1. The three-year-old colt, supplemented to last week's race, was supplemented to this affair for Ir£21,875 on Tuesday.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

GEIGER COUNTER EUTHANIZED Arrowfield stallion Geiger Counter (Mr. Prospector), the sire of multiple group winners Gold Guru (Aus) and Nuclear Debate, was euthanized yesterday at the age of 18. He was suffering from cancer of the stomach. Geiger Counter was standing at Chatswood Stud in Victoria for a fee of A$16,500 this season and had covered around 50 mares. He is sire of 42 stakes winners with progeny earnings of more than A$37 million standing in dual hemispheres since 1992. Three-year-old champion of 1998, Gold Guru was Geiger Counter's best Australian representative, winning the G1 AJC Australian Derby, the G1 Ranvet S. and the G1 VRC Australian Guineas. He is also the sire of South African champion Rarotonga Treaty (Aus) and stakes winners Minegold (Aus), Close Your Eyes (Aus), Stella Artois (Aus), Morphy (NZ) and Smytzer's Trish (Aus). Among his American graded stakes winners are Meter Maid and Could Be. "He has been a great horse, but he was having trouble and was losing weight and vets recommended we euthanize," said Arrowfield Stud chairman John Messara. "We stopped shuttling him several years ago and he was covering a reduced book this year as he was 18."

FILLY FOR PASEANA Two-time champion older mare Paseana (Arg) (Ahmad {Arg}--Pasiflin {Arg}, by Flintham) has produced her first foal, a filly by Lode, at Dr. Ignacio Pavlovsky Sr.'s Haras San Ignacio de Loyola in Argentina. The 13-year-old Paseana has a history of troubled foalings and the healthy filly represents two years of effort by Dr. Diego I Ayerza. An Eclipse champion in 1992 and 1993, Paseana won the 1992 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff as well as nine other Grade I races.

VINERY STALLIONS TO ENGLAND Two Vinery stallions will return to England to stand the 2001 season. Cheveley Park Stud in Newmarket has agreed to stand Loup Sauvage (Riverman--Louveterie, by Nureyev) next year for a fee of £5,000. The six-year-old stallion captured the 1998 G1 Prix D'Isipahan, was second in the 1997 G1 Dubai Poule d'essai de Poulains and G1 Dubai Champion S. and was third in the 1997 G1 Irish Derby and 1998 G1 Dubai World Cup. He stood his first season at stud at Vinery in 1999. He stood last season for a fee of $10,000. "Loup Sauvage is an exciting stallion to be associated with," said Cheveley Park managing director Chris Richardson. "Not only was he a very talented racehorse, but also, being from the Never Bend line, he fills a void left by the likes of Mill Reef and Shirley Heights (GB)." Kern Lillingston Association and Warrender Associates have purchased Mister Baileys (GB) (Robellino--Thimbleigger {GB}, by Sharpen Up {GB}) and the nine-year-old stallion will stand the 2001 season at Chris Harper's Whitsbury Manor Stud in Hampshire. The 1994 English 2000 Guineas winner will be re-syndicated in 2001. "We are sure he will be very well received by European breeders and we have great expectations for a very successful future standing in the country where he belongs," said Lincoln Collins, a partner in Kern Lillingston. Mister Baileys's first crop of foals are three-year-olds and include stakes winner Cool Ashlee. He stood at Vinery last season for $7,500.

DEL MAR 2000 WRAP-UP Del Mar completed its 61st season of racing Wednesday. Total attendance for the 43-day meet was 612,818. The daily average was 14,252, down 4.8 percent from the 1999 average of 14,973. On-track handle, including wagering on Northern California races, was $99,376,089. The average of $2,311,072 was down 4.4 percent from the 1999 average of $2,419,616. Total handle reached $504,651,128 and averaged $11,736,073. The 1999 average total handle was $11,848,501. Victor Espinoza added to his first Hollywood Park riding title with a first Del Mar riding title. The 28-year-old rode 52 winners, compared to runner-up Kent Desormeaux's 32. Bob Baffert won his fourth straight trainer's title at the seaside oval. Juddmonte Farms was the leading owner at the 2000 Del Mar meeting with record earnings of $950,607. The previous high for an owner was the $859,564 earned by Golden Eagle Farm in 1991.

3rd-BEL, $46,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:43 1/5, ft.
ROSIE DOOLEY (f, 3, Trempolino--I's Right {MSP, $108,738}, by Deputy Minister) went four wide when winning by 5 3/4 lengths in a six-furlong Saratoga allowance Aug. 18. Contesting the pace, the 9-5 second choice dug in to hold off favored Flirtatious (A.P. Indy) by a half-length. She is a 1/2 to Zephyr (His Majesty), GSP, $150,690; and Corporate Vision (Corporate Report), GSP. Lifetime Record: 10-3-2-2, $110,760. O-Sullimar Stables. B-Andrade Farm (KY). T-Philip G Johnson.

4th-BEL, $42,000, Msw, 2yo, 1m (off turf), 1:40 2/5, ft.
CHAIRMAN A. P. (g, 2, A.P. Indy--Morning Dove, by Fortunate Prospect) showed little in his first two starts, including a ninth at Saratoga Aug. 19. Breaking on top, the 8-1 shot was pressed throughout by Al Ghazi (Storm Cat) and prevailed by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $25,200. O-Frank L Jones & McKee Stable. B-Brereton C Jones (KY). T-Dale Romans.

6th-BEL, $41,000, Msw, (S), 2yo, 7f, 1:25 3/5, ft.
NATIVE RHYTHM (c, 2, Woodman--Igotrhythm {MGSW, $415,666}, by Dixieland Band) raced greenly in his Aug. 14 debut at Saratoga, but rallied for second. Benefiting from that outing, the 4-5 chalk took command turning for home and rolled home by 5 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $32,800. O/B-Chester & Mary R Broman (NY). T-John C Kimmel.

HEMINGWAY OUT OF SALAMANDRE The eagerly awaited clash between Hemingway (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), ante-post favourite for next season's G1 2000 Guineas, and Bad As I Wanna Be (Ire) (Common Grounds {GB}) in this Saturday's G1 Prix de la Salamandre at Longchamp will not materialise as the former has been ruled out of the race. Speaking at the Gowran Park races yesterday, trainer Aidan O'Brien said: "Hemingway has a slight infection in a hock, his blood was not right and we have decided to give him a week off." The Ballydoyle stable is instead set to be represented by King Charlemagne (USA) (Nureyev {USA}), a maiden winner at Leopardstown last Saturday, and Honours List (Ire) (Danehill {USA}), a comfortable winner of the G3 Railway S. at The Curragh July 2. In further Ballydoyle news, O'Brien confirmed Darwin (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) as a definite runner in this Sunday's G1 National S. at The Curragh. Darwin, also prominent in all ante-post lists for next year's 2000 Guineas, was a highly impressive seven-length winner of his only start to date, a Curragh maiden May 28.

Having finished sixth in what now looks something of a hot maiden, the Moorestyle Convivial Maiden S. at York Aug. 23, Vicious Dancer confirmed the promise of that run to break his maiden at the same track Sept. 3. That victory was no run-of-the-mill win as he beat 14 opponents by more than eight lengths and he continued his good form to secure a first-stakes success in game fashion. Jockey Dean McKeown positioned his mount behind the front rank who were headed by Red Millennium, Elsie Plunkett and Silca Legend (GB) (Efisio {GB}). McKeown asked his mount for his main effort approaching the final furlong as Red Millennium and Elsie Plunkett continued to duel for the lead. The response was encouraging, but Vicious Dancer looked held inside the last half furlong. With one last lunge, McKeown got his partner to stick his neck out nearing the wire and claimed victory in the very last stride. Red Millennium and Elsie Plunkett both proved game rivals with the former gaining the verdict for the runner-up berth.

Capal Garmon took the lead at the quarter-mile marker, but was challenged and headed by Referral (USA) (Silver Hawk {USA}) at the distance. The pair fought nip and tuck thereafter as Mot Juste moved into third at the furlong marker. With jockey Willie Ryan applying one tickle of the persuader, Mot Juste quickened inside the final 100 yards and grabbed the lead close to home for a cheeky half-length debut win at odds of 9-1. TOP RACE CARD AT NEWBURY

Newbury opens today for two days of racing, including the Listed Dubai Arc Trial, the Haynes, Hanson & Clark Conditions S. and tomorrow's G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef S. An important prep race to the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the Arc Trial produced last year's winner Fantastic Light (USA). An event for two-year-olds going a mile, the Haynes, Hanson & Clark S. has seen such horses as Derby winner Shergar (Ire) and Arc winner Rainbow Quest (USA), in its 20 years of running. Rounding out the meet is the G2 Mill Reef S., which will draw some of the best two-year-olds in the country. "With £374,000 in prize money, we hope to attract some established stars," said Mark Kershaw, Newbury's chief executive and clerk of the course.

PROMISING ANAC CATALOGUE

The 2000 ANAC (Associazione Nazionale Allevatori Cavalli) September Yearling Sale on Friday offers some stand-out pedigrees among its 141 lots. With many major sires represented here, from Alzao (USA) to Zilzal (USA), there is more than enough incentive to buy, especially as all purchases qualify for owners' bonuses of up to 100 percent extra prize money in Italy. The pick of the offerings is lot 9, by Charnwood Forest (Ire) out of Rare Sound (Ire), he is a half-brother to this year's G2 Prix Robert Papin winner Rolly Polly (Ire). Of particular interest are current freshman sires Ashkalani (Ire), Halling (USA), Spectrum (Ire), Monsun (Ger), Pennekamp (USA), and Mark Of Esteem (Ire). Although Ashkalani has two offerings and Halling has only one, Mark Of Esteem has four representatives here, including lot 23, a son of Group 3 winner Siddharta (USA). Another son of a Group 3 winner, Lasting Lass (Ire) (lot 122), is one of six lots to represent Spectrum (Ire), while Monsun and Pennekamp have one lot each. With stallions such as Spectrum, Lycius (USA), Bluebird (USA), Grand Lodge (USA), Charnwood Forest and Sri Pekan (USA) all heavily represented here, it promises to be a lively day.

MIGHT AND POWER LAST AGAIN

In spite a lacklustre last-place finish in yesterday's Shannon S. at Sydney's Rosehill racetrack, Might And Power (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ})'s connections will press on with a G1 George Main S. start at Randwick on Sept. 23. Nine lengths behind the winning Al Mansour (Aus), the dual horse of the year's performance didn't worry jockey Jim Cassidy. "His action was much better than his last start and he is getting fitter," Cassidy said, adding that trainer Jack Denham wanted the former front-runner settled back in the field. "Give him one more run, which he'll need, then the run after that you'll see him do something." Owner Nick Moraitis said: "I haven't come this far to turn back now. He didn't shirk his task and racing back in the field isn't what he's used to, but it's the way he's had to be ridden."

A DIRECT EXPRESS TAKES HILL STAKES

Injury-plagued Pasta Express (Aus) (Rigoletto {Aus}) cemented his G1 Metropolitan H. credentials with a neck win in yesterday's G2 Hill S. at Rosehill. Overcoming a fractured fetlock at two and suffering a hairline fracture to his cannon bone as an early four-year-old, the John Anderson-bred gelding rewarded his patient trainer, Paul Cave, who is traditionally a pointer to Melbourne spring carnival winners. Sitting one from the lead, Pasta Express got up to fend off a fast-finishing Pravda (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) with Padfoot Charlie (Aus) (Chimes Square {Aus}) landing third with a powerful charge from the rear. Pasta Express, now six, has nine wins including a last start G2 Chelmsford S. win, the highlight of Cave's training career. The A$600,000 Metropolitan H. is at Randwick on Oct. 7 after which Cave will decide whether to take Pasta Express to Melbourne for the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups.

UNWORLDLY PROVES STAR QUALITY

Unworldly (Aus) (Quest For Fame {GB}) added the G2 Tea Rose S. to a record that stands at four wins from five starts yesterday at Rosehill and owners Jack and Bob Ingham hope she'll balance their score. The pair have 36 Group 1 wins since trainer John Hawkes took over Crown Lodge about five years ago, but only five of those have come from fillies. The daughter of the Danehill mare Spirit (Aus), Unworldly is widely regarded as this season's potential star and she was sent out the odds-on favourite after winning the G3 Furious S. in her last outing. Beating a speedy Dynamic Love (Aus) (Brave Warrior {Aus}) by three-quarters of a length with Lady Mulan (NZ) (Bigstone) the best of eight others, five lengths back, Unworldly clocked :34.17 for her last 600m. In each of her wins, she has hardly been extended, but Hawkes has typically downplayed the filly's prospects. "There's no doubt she's a very nice filly who finds the line well. But she hasn't run against top company yet. She isn't beating much in Sydney," Hawkes said. He remains non-committal over whether she will start in the G1 Epsom H. at Randwick on Oct. 2 after she received just 47kg for the race, with the G1 Flight S. for fillies over the same trip on the same day.

INAFLURY RETIRED

Inaflury (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) has been retired after suffering a leg injury in a track accident at Caulfield. She started just once this campaign for new trainer Jim Conlon, when fifth in the Memsie S. The five-year-old mare's last win was 1999's John Feehan S. at Moonee Valley on Sept. 11, before her Caulfield Cup third. Conlan said Inaflury, winner of the G1 Thousand Guineas at three, split her off hind heel after kicking out at a fence.

SUNLINE EARLY FAVORITE

Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {USA}) is the early 1-4 favourite for Saturday's G2 John F Feehan S. at Moonee Valley chasing her 20th win at her 27th outing. Trainer Trevor McKee required stitches to his hand after the mare, notorious for her short temper, bit him. The five-year-old worked solo Thursday over 1200m at Flemington, running 1:20, with her last 600m in :39.4.
