DERBY WINNER DETHRONES THE CHAMP

Last year, Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) captured the French and Irish Derbies, then used the G2 Prix Niel as his springboard to victory in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. He was odds-on to add a second Arc to his impressive resume at Longchamp yesterday, but this year's Epsom and Irish Derby and Prix Niel winner Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge) turned the dream that he could beat the champ into reality to take his greatest prize, besting Egyptband (Dixieland Band) by 1 1/2 lengths. Sinndar came into the public consciousness only when he passed the post first at 7-1 in the G1 Epsom Derby, but he followed that effort with a tremendous display in the G1 Irish Derby July 16, where he galloped clear to win by an astounding nine lengths. Rested over the summer, he was brought back to turn the Sept. 10 Prix Niel into a procession. Given the perfect lead by stablemate Raypour (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}), he came with an impressive turn of speed to post an eight-length score. Here he was produced to give his trainer and jockey their first Arcs, and his owner his second renewal, after Akiyda in 1982. Sent off the 8-5 second choice, he broke well, but jockey Johnny Murtagh must have had his heart in his mouth as pacemaker Raypour struggled to get to the front. Raypour managed to make the lead, however, and after a furlong Sinndar was sitting happily in second. Montjeu, looking for his fifth straight after wins in the May 28 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, July 2 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, July 29 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. and Sept. 10 G2 Prix Foy, was wide on the track, but travelling well in seventh. Volvoretta (GB) (Suave Dancer) was settled on the rail in fourth, while Egyptband trailed. Montjeu appeared to lose his balance slightly entering the 'false straight,' at which point Michael Kinane switched him inside, but he was five lengths off the pace still set by Raypour. As they approached the turn into the straight, Sinndar took over, and in a few strides he was clear and quickening away. Back in the field Montjeu had raced into third between Volvoretta and Hightori (Fr) (Vettori {Ire}), but he did not have his patented late kick. The only danger looked to be Egyptband, who was flying on the outside, but the winner pulled out more in the final 100 yards to grab his piece of history, becoming the first horse ever to complete the Epsom Derby, Irish Derby and Arc triple. Montjeu could find no more in the final furlong and lost third place to the game Volvoretta.

VICTORY SPEECH

Jockey Johnny Murtagh, winning his very first Arc, said after the race, "This has to be the thrill of a lifetime. The Arc de Triomphe is the greatest race in the world and to win it with Sinndar makes it the most wonderful day in my life. Before the race I told everyone, 'come to Longchamp to see Sinndar, he is unbeatable.' He is a great champion." Owner/breeder His Highness The Aga Khan was equally ecstatic. "No horse has won English and Irish Derbies and then this race--I think he's an exceptional horse. I do not want to compare him with other great winners that I've had, but he is among the very best with a horse like Shergar." He added, "A few days before the Arc John Hammond stated how difficult it is to keep a horse at his best, in Group 1 races throughout the season. John Oxx did it with Sinndar and this is his work. I am also full of admiration for Johnny Murtagh--together they have done a fantastic job." As for the future, the Aga Khan said, "Sinndar will not run again this season and we will discuss his future shortly. He will go to stud, and it will be at Giltown in Ireland, but we don't know when."

Amonita showed real speed at the finish to take this contest and place herself at the top of the class for juvenile fillies in 2000. Beaten first time in the Listed Prix Yacowlef at Deauville Aug. 1 by subsequent G1 Prix de la Salamandre third Wooden Doll, she then won in style over this course Sept. 10. Here she stepped up in class, but looked tailor-made for the company, rewarding her connections' leap of faith to give her first-season sire his most important success to date. Held up in the rear early as Prove (GB) (Daneshill), on the rail, and Ascension (Ire) (Night Shift) cut out the running, she was keen but covered up, and Thierry Jarnet had her settled near enough to produce a challenge. The filly was caught in traffic at a vital point in the final quarter of a mile, but finally found a gap between a tiring Ascension and Karasta and her burst of speed took her to the front with 200 yards remaining. From there she quickly settled the race with a decisive final flourish. Ladbrokes reacted by establishing her at odds of 10-1 for next year's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, behind the 8-1 market leader Regal Rose (GB). A delighted Pascal Bary, winning this race for the second time after saddling Aljabr's dam Sierra Madre to take it in 1993, said, "I thought she had a great chance and she proved me right. She will now be put away for the season and will come back next year with the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches (French 1000 Guineas) in mind first."

Namid has finally arrived at the stage that trainer John Oxx envisaged earlier in his career. Having always had faith in his colt, Oxx had to be patient, awaiting him to recover from problems and race to his true potential. The four-year-old started the season with a fine third to Giant's Causeway in the G3 Gladness S., then got to winning ways. He captured the Listed Cork S. May 8 and the G3 Greenlands S. at The Curragh May 27, but came out of that test with a knee problem. The bay underwent surgery, but returned to win the G3 Flying Five at Leopardstown Sept. 9 for his third straight. Here he came in for a beautiful ride from Johnny Murtagh, who left nothing to chance. Held up in mid-division early as Perryston View (GB) (Primo Dominie {GB}) and then Pipalong (Ire) (Pips Pride {GB}) took the field along, he was moved up as the pace increased and Superstar Leo drove for home. For a moment it looked as if the two-year-old had stolen it, but Namid rushed past to grab the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and quickly went clear. For Oxx, it was vindication. "It has always been in my mind that he could be champion sprinter, but he's had to overcome lots of problems," he said. "He started very well this year and we were very hopeful for him, but he had a little knee chip and he had to have it removed, so we had to rush him back. Luckily he came back around in time. Oxx added, "This might have been Namid's last race--he'll make a very nice sprinter stallion." The runner-up will head to the U.S., where she will be trained in New York by Phil Johnson.

Petrushka overcame the ominous outside draw to give Johnny Murtagh a memorable Abbaye/Arc/Opera triple, and to secure her place amongst the best middle-distance fillies in Europe. The memory of her rather lacklustre third in the G1 1000 Guineas S. at Newmarket May 7, and seemingly unlucky fourth in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 9, are distant now, as she has rampaged her way through three Group 1 races. She destroyed the G1 Irish Oaks field at The Curragh July 16 by five-and-a-half lengths before reversing Epsom form with Love Divine (GB) in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 23. She handled the shorter distance here and thereby booked her ticket to Churchill Downs for the Breeders' Cup. The favourite broke well and settled in mid-division behind the pacemaker Hannabarbera (Fr) (Darshaan {GB}). Entering the straight, Reve D'Oscar (Fr) was asked to get serious by Frankie Dettori, and she got on top of Lady Upstage (Ire) (Alzao) with 100 yards remaining, but Murtagh had his filly in full flight on the outside. Petrushka quickened, and quickened again, and inside the final 50 yards she got on top of the game runner-up to win the prize. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute said, "Dubai has certainly been mentioned, but we'll see how she comes out of this race. If we're happy we'll ship her to Churchill now, but Dubai is very much on the agenda. The fact that she is staying in training as a four-year-old shows that she has a programme ahead of her."

Third in this race in 1999 and beaten a neck into second by Tajoun (Fr) (General Holme) last year, San Sebastian returned to avenge that defeat and win his first Group 1 race at the ripe age of six. Perhaps his best previous effort came when fourth to Kayf Tara (GB) in the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot June 22. He was third in his next start, the G2 Goodwood Cup Aug. 3, before disappointing when sixth last time in the G3 Doncaster Cup Sept. 7. Here he reversed form with those two horses and for once established himself above them with a spirited performance. Moved up early to race prominently behind Persian Punch, he did allow that horse a lead of at least five lengths for most of the way, but picked up the pace entering the straight and closed the advantage. Furiously driven towards the line, he got his head in front in the final 50 yards to deny the equally tough runner-up. A delighted jockey Davy Bonilla said, "I had the most perfect trip. When I asked my horse he responded well and when I gave him a breather half way down the straight, he had something left in the tank to quicken again and win safely. I am delighted. This is my second Group 1 win in one week for Mr. Dunlop, and I have to thank him for that." San Sebastian stopped the clock at 4:14.10 and established a new course and race record. He went 37 seconds faster than last year--run on heavy ground--and 2.3 seconds faster than Chief Contender in 1997.

Following on the heels of stablemate Slickly (Fr)'s success Saturday, Kabool led all the way to give Godolphin their second Group win of the weekend. Like Slickly, Kabool was formerly trained in France, where he won the G2 Prix Huillaume d'Ornano at Deauville under the care of Nicholas Clement. Transferred to Godolphin shortly after, he has been consistent without winning, his best effort coming when third in the G1 Dubai Champion S. at Newmarket in October. This year he had returned to finish fourth in the G3 Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25 and in the G1 Prix Ganay here Apr. 30. Last time he was third in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville Aug. 12, but he returned to winning ways under a bold ride from Frankie Dettori. Intent on making all, Dettori had his mount to the fore, where he settled to lead them along. He was challenged by Crimson Tide (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the straight, then tackled by Sugarfoot (GB), but their efforts failed to land a serious blow. Finally Kingsalsa and Olivier Peslier arrived to trade punches, but Kabool dug deep, thrusting himself towards the line, and had too much for the runner-up. Simon Crisford, racing manager to Godolphin, said, "Frankie was at his best. He gave the horse the demon ride and he kept enough to turn down the favourite. Kabool is a very consistent horse who deserved to win such a race. The horse has a wonderful pedigree and will be retired to stud at the end of the season. He should prove very popular. Will he race again? It is too early to say. If he does, we don't yet know where and when it will be."

Gary Tanaka's Moonlady, out of a daughter of the dual Classic-winning champion mare Majoritat, is closely related to the top young sire Monsun (Ger). She captured the G3 Deutscher Herold-Preis at Hamburg June 24 and the Listed Preis der Stadtsparkasse at Hannover Sept. 10. Being the very tough filly she is, she was able to win her fourth race in succession here, taking her first Classic and her third stakes race in the process. Entering the straight, she quickened well and, always in command, she drew away very easily.

Although he was sent off the odds-on favourite for last September's G1 National S. at The Curragh, Bernstein failed to cope with the winner Sinndar (Ire) and finished fifth. Obviously, that turned out to be no disgrace. The bay returned this season to finish 26th of 27 in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas, was given another break, then earned a win in a six-furlong conditions race at Ascot Aug. 12. Eleventh in the five-furlong G1 Nunthorpe S. last time at York Aug. 24, the colt stepped up in trip to gain his second stakes success here and book himself a place in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs next. He raced in mid-division early as Tushna (Ire) (Erins Isle {Ire}) set the pace, came under pressure from jockey Seamus Heffernan as they approached the final quarter of a mile and responded to deny Cobourg Lodge in the closing stages.

Poseidon is six, but he is still capable of mixing it in this company on this ground, and he was sent off the 5-4 on favourite to take this. He started the year in style, taking the Listed Premio Ambrosiano at this track Apr. 16. Here he was close to the leader London Bank early. As the runners spread across the track, he was brought with his challenge up the centre of the straight by jockey Sergio Dettori to join the new leader Jar. Heading that horse with a furlong and a half remaining, he had enough reserves to hold that rival safe for his most important success to date.

Le Grande Danseur was an impressive winner of his debut, an Aug. 28 maiden special weight for New York bred, but it wasn't quite enough to give fans confidence to make him favorite here. That role went to Backstreet Blues, one-for-five coming into this event, but a close second in open company last out at Delaware Sept. 10. Le Grande Danseur broke awkwardly, was steadied back into last place, but made a five-wide move around the turn and straightened away with the lead, widening his advantage toward the wire. "I couldn't believe the start he had," said trainer Dominic Galluscio. "I've worked so hard with him coming into this race and thought he lost all chance." Galluscio said the Oct. 21 Sleepy Hollow S. at a mile against New York-breds would be next.

POLISH TIMES (c, 3, Sea Hero--Olden Charade {MSW, $134,391}, by Hagley) broke his maiden in his second turf try, then was fourth in a pair of allowance tries, most recently finishing two lengths behind Brahms at Saratoga Sept. 2. Sent off as part of an entry that was the 2-1 second choice, the dark bay went right to the front, battled through the opening six furlongs, then drew off for a 2 1/4-length score. The winner is a 1/2 to Boca Juniors (Peteski), SW, $141,975. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-0, $70,200.

The 2-1 choice here, he contested the early pace, took over entering the stretch and drew off to win by 3 3/4-lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $54,910. O-Lazzinnaro Louis. Fifth that day, she was dropped back into the maiden ranks and was twice second before being sent back into stakes company, this time winning the Gill Natalma S. Sept. 9 at Woodbine. The prohibitive favorite off that win, she wired the field, leading her stablemates to a one-two-three finish.

MEMORABLE THREE BAGGER FOR MURTAGH

Yesterday will be a day that lives long in the memory for Johnny Murtagh, for he made the amazing treble of the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp, G1 Prix de l'arc de Triomphe, and G1 Prix de l'Opera. While Namid (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}), and Petrushka (Ire) (Unfuwain {USA}) all produced career -best performances, it was the man on board who stole the show. Holding aloft a three-finger salute in the winner's enclosure on Petrushka, the message was clear. He was clearly elated. "I feel very proud and just privileged to be here for it. It has been a fantastic day and you just dream about this happening," he commented. "I came here with five very strong rides, and I just said to myself just be positive, and do what you always do. I am delighted to have got three winners out of them, and they were all brilliantly prepared by Sir Michael Stoute and John Oxx. I just had to steer them in the right direction. Sinndar's victory in the Arc was obviously the best of the lot." Murtagh was also second on Karasta (Ire) (Lake Coniston {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp.

CAUSEWAY 3-1 FOR CHAMPION

If connections decide to steer him in that direction, the 'Iron Horse' Giant's Causeway (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) will be the likely favourite for the G1 Dubai Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 14. He was put in as the 3-1 favourite with Corals yesterday to win his seventh Group 1 race, after defeat in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 23 last time. He could yet go for the G1 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park the same afternoon before taking in the Breeders' Cup Classic at Churchill Downs Nov. 4. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute's Kalanisi (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), beaten twice by Giant's Causeway in the G1 Coral-Eclipse at Sandown July 8 and G1 Juddmonte International at York Aug. 22, is quoted at 7-2. Greek Dance (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), also runner-up to the 'Iron Horse' in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 9, is next best at 9-2. Coral spokesman Ian Wassell said, "The 10-furlong championship races this year have been really competitive and exciting, and the Champion S. looks sure to provide another fantastic race. Giant's Causeway may not be a certain runner, but even without him the likes of Kalanisi, Greek Dance, Indian Lodge and Indian Danehill make for an extremely interesting race."

+ HANS ANDERSON (USA) (c, 2, Deputy Minister {Can}--Sister Dot {USA} {MSP-US}, by Secretariat {USA}), sent off the 2-1 joint favourite, raced in fourth early as the other joint favourite, Honour The Pledge (USA) (Pleasant Colony {USA}), took them along. Asked to close as they entered the straight, the full brother to Dehere (USA), Ch. 2yo Colt-US, MGISW-US, $723,712, was short of room, but jockey Colm O'Donoghue was patient and when the gap came, he produced him to take the lead in the closing stages to beat the long-time leader by a neck, with three-and-a-half lengths back to the third. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, Ir£8,625.

+ LETHAL AGENDA (USA) (c, 2, Twilight Agenda {USA}--Mrs K {USA} {SP-US}, by Dixieland Band {USA}), sent off at odds of 12-1, bounced from the stalls, and soon had command. Despite the efforts of his closest pursuer, Frosty Wind (Ire) (Forest Wind {USA}), he was never in any danger, going clear to win by three-and-a-half lengths, with eight lengths back to the third. The winner is a 1/2 to Port Bayou (USA) (Ghazi {USA}), Hwt. 3yo-Ire at 9.5-11f, GSW-Ire. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, Ir£8,625.

GUINEAS PICTURE BECOMING CLEARER by Tom Frary

With the performances of Regal Rose (GB) (Danehill {USA}) in last Tuesday's G1 Cheveley Park S. and Minardi (USA) (Boundary {USA}) in Thursday's G1 Middle Park S., Newmarket offered vital clues to the Classics it will host in 2001.

Regal Rose did not impress everyone in Tuesday's race, coming from off a steady early pace to win by a length from 66-1 shot Toroca (USA) (Nureyev {USA}), but she is now quoted as low as 6-1 for next year's G1 1000 Guineas with William Hill. She shares that quote with stablemate Karasta (Ire) (Lake Coniston {Ire}), who finished second as the 7-5 favorite in the G1 Prix Marcel Bousac at Longchamp. Toroca is on offer at 20-1 with William Hill, while stablemate Sequoyah (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), fifth in the Cheveley Park, is 16-1. Enthused (USA) (Seeking the Gold {USA}) was sixth, but is still 8-1 with the same firm, giving Sir Michael Stoute a stranglehold on the Classic.

That position is shared by Aidan O'Brien with regards the G1 2000 Guineas, as he has Minardi and undefeated Acomb S. winner Hemingway (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) as first and second favourites. Ladbrokes and William Hill make the Middle Park S. winner the 6-1 favourite for the Classic, over his stablemate, next best at 10-1. He will be hoping to emulate Rodrigo De Triano in 1992, and Known Fact in 1980, the last two colts to complete the Middle Park/Guineas double, two of only 16 colts to have done so in the last 100 years.

11-19	Roma	Rome

Mozart (Ire) (Danehill {USA}), winner of the Houghton Sales S. on Tuesday, is also under the care of O'Brien, and is now available at 20-1. Tamburlaine (Ire) (Royal Academy {USA}) underlined the prospects of Marcus Tregoning's Nayef (USA) (Gulch {USA}) in a Tuesday maiden at Newmarket, as that half-brother to Nashwan (USA) and Unfuwain (USA) had beaten him last time in the Haynes, Hanson & Clark S. at Newbury Sept. 15. Nayef is on offer at a top-priced 25-1 to emulate Nashwan.

More will be unfolded at the course on Champion Day at Newmarket Oct. 14, when it hosts the G1 Dewhurst S., as well as the G2 Rockfel S., won last year by subsequent G1 1000 Guineas winner Lahan (GB) (Unfuwain {USA}).
