CALIFORNIA JUVENILE WARRIORS PREP
Flame Thrower (Saint Ballado) and Street Cry (Ire) (Machiavellian), first and second respectively in the GII Del Mar Futurity and GII Norfolk S. in their last two meetings, were out for work yesterday morning over a fast Santa Anita main track as they prepare for their third head-to-head confrontation in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Trained by Bob Baffert, undefeated Flame Thrower cruised through a bullet half mile in :46 2/5 with exercise rider Dana Barnes in the irons. Godolphin's Street Cry covered five furlongs in a co-fastest :58 2/5 for trainer Eoin Harty. California-bred Arabian Light (Fly So Free), third for Baffert in the Del Mar Futurity and winner of Keeneland's GII Lane's End Breeders' Futurity, breezed four panels in :47 2/5 and is expected to supplement for the Juvenile.

TIZNOW ON TO LOUISVILLE?

Wearing a Breeders' Cup hat, trainer Jay Robbins of GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. winner Tiznow (Cee's Tizzy) suggested that the full brother to last year's Breeders' Cup Classic runner up Budroyale will make his next start in the Classic. "As of right now, we're going," Robbins said yesterday, but cautioned, "unless he doesn't train well over the next four of five days." If he starts, his owners will need to be supplemented for $360,000.

COLSTAR WILL BE SUPPLEMENTED

Colstar (Opening Verse), who ran down Snow Polina to register an upset in the GI Flower Bowl at Belmont Park Oct. 7, will be supplemented to run in the Filly & Mare Turf. Owner Beverly Steinman will pay the $90,000 supplement for her four-year-old filly, who is trained by Paul Fout. Four-for-six on the year, the bay won her first three starts of the season, before back-to-back losses to divisional leader Perfect Sting. Fout indicated that Perfect Sting's loss in last Friday's GIII WinStar Galaxy S. was a contributing factor in his decision to send Colstar.

All Time High gave her sire his first Group 1 winner with this victory. The game filly settled last among 15 as 2-1 favourite So Gorgeous (Aus) (Brief Truce) rallied to take the lead before folding to finish last. Patiently ridden by jockey Steven Arnold, she produced a stunning burst of speed to win by two lengths from Ponton Flyer, a winner of the G3 Blue Diamond Prelude as a two-year-old, with Tanith a short head away third. "I was always going to ride her quietly and luckily they went quickly," said Arnold. Trainer Russell Cameron will send the a A$110,000 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale graduate to the Crown Oaks at Flemington Nov. 9 after she contests the Wakeful S. five days earlier. Having raced nine times for two wins and three placings, she resumed on Aug. 26 to finish runner-up to So Gorgeous in the Listed Quezette S. before filling third place behind that same rival in the G3 Tranquil Star S. on Sept. 23 and 2 1/2 lengths fourth, again to the same filly, in the G2 Manifold S. RIVER KEEN RETIRED River Keen (Ire) (Keen {GB}--Immediate Impact {Ire}, by Caerleon), a four-time graded stakes winner, has been retired from racing, according to Daily Racing Form. The eight-year-old chestnut, claimed by trainer Bob Baffert and owner Hugo Reynolds for $100,000 in 1998, won last year's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, GI Woodward S. and GII Bel Air H., as well as the 1997 GII California S. Winless in five starts this year, River Keen was an uninspired sixth in Sunday's GII Goodwood Breeders Cup H. "He just doesn't want to do it anymore," Baffert told the Form, adding the veteran runner had bled in the Goodwood. River Keen retires with 11 wins in 42 starts and earnings of $1,642,272.

TABASCO CAT TO JAPAN Overbrook stallion Tabasco Cat (Storm Cat--Barbicue Sauce, by Sauce Boat) has been sold to Japanese interests for $7 million, according to the Japanese newspaper Sankei Sports. The nine-year-old was purchased by the Japanese Bloodstock Breeders' Association for the Shizunai Stallion Station and has sired four stakes winners from his first two crops to race, including Paterson S. winner Cat's At Home, who is scheduled to make his next start in the $250,000 GII Pegasus H. at The Meadowlands Oct. 27. Overbrook Farm's farm manager Ric Waldman would not confirm the transaction, indicating there are details remaining which need to be hammered out.

IMPEACHMENT TO FLORIDA Impeachment (Dep-uty Minister--Misconduct, by Stick to Beauty), third in the 2000 Kentucky Derby and Preakness, is being syndicated and will stand the 2001 breeding season at Meadowbrook Farm in Ocala, Florida for a $5,000 stud fee. Dogwood Stable Inc. will act as co-syndicate manager along with Robert Candow. Impeachment's syndicated share price will be $18,000 per share. "Impeachment is a horse who danced every dance, faced the best horses in training all spring and summer and never flinched," said Dogwood president Cot Campbell. "Fusaichi Pegasus beat him only a head in the Preakness and that speaks volumes. We're excited about his future at stud."

Martinez Wins 2000th:

Jockey Willie Martinez scored the 2000th victory of his career when he guided Degas (Broad Brush) to a narrow victory in yesterday's sixth race at Keeneland. The 29-year-old native of Puerto Rico was greeted by his fellow jockeys in the winner's circle and was awarded a silver julep cup by Keeneland President Nick Nicholson. "I got number 2000 in the year 2000. I just hope I get 2001 before the year 2001," Martinez quipped. "It feels great. You dream of reaching certain milestones and when you win it the way we did, it was very exciting."

White Beauty, third behind Pratella in the 1999 renewal of the Bryan Station, outfinished that rival in this year's edition. Heroine of the Estrapade S. at Arlington Aug. 20, the nearly white mare had a wide trip when fifth in the Kentucky Cup Ladies Turf at Kentucky Downs Sept. 23. Tucked in along the rail well off the pace, she launched a five-wide bid off the turn and finished determinedly to edge favored Pratella. "I kept trying to get her to switch leads," said winning jockey Tim Doocy. "But she wouldn't switch for me, so I finally gave up and just rode her. She gave that extra effort all the way through the stretch."

 Lion Hearted made his second start off a layoff a winning one. Swept Away had earned herself a reputation as a speed queen and as a result was made the prohibitive favorite. Having taken the GIII Azalea Breeders' Cup at Calder, the sophomore filly shipped to Laurel off a head loss to Bourbon Belle in the Weekend Delight H. at Turfway Sept. 9. Content to let Cool Ashlee and 6-5 Tugger (Twining) slug it out in the run to the turn, Swept Away took charge at the quarter pole and quickly put daylight between herself and the others. "She's got an awful lot of talent," said assistant trainer Steve Flint. "When she made the lead at the top of the stretch, it was just it was just a matter of how far she would win by." Swept Away could make her next start at Laurel as well. "If she comes out of this okay, we will give serious consideration to bringing her back next month for the Safely Kept S. The winner of a Hollywood maiden at first asking, Princess Belle shipped east to contest the GIII Debutante S. at Churchill Downs July 8 and gave a good account of herself in a second-place finish behind once-beaten Gold Mover. Continuing the tour of the Midwest, the bay was a disappointing fourth in the Silver Spur S. at Lone Star in her most recent start to date July 23. The second choice pressed the pace three wide, took over in upper stretch and kicked away from her rivals for a decisive victory. "We figured we'd win that race in Texas, but when she came back she bled pretty good," commented winning trainer Bob Baffert. "Then we were going to run her in the Del Mar Debutante, but she got sick. Today she relaxed good though."

ECHO EDDIE (c, 3, Restless Con--Geri's Princess, by Siyah Kalem) was claimed for a mere $20,000 out of an 11-length win at Golden Gate last November and returned from a six-month absence to be third in Del Mar's Real Good Deal S. for Cal bred's Aug. 14. Most recently second against Bay Meadows open optional claiming company Sept. 8, the 4-1 third choice stalked the leaders down the hill, took a short lead at the midstretch marker and drew clear, despite drifting in, to win by 2 1/2 lengths. DEAUVILLE FINALE TOPPED BY DOUBLE BED

COLT Top bid at the final session of the Deauville October Yearling Sale yesterday went to a Double Bed (Fr) colt, Lot 418, who sold for FF290,000. Out of Maousse (Fr) (Labus {Fr}), he was consigned by Haras du Cadran and purchased by Hubert Barbe. One of 113 yearlings sold from 167 passed through, a son of Hernando (Fr) was the second-highest price. Bought by MAB Agency for FF270,000 from the consignment of Haras du Favry, he is out of the Primo Dominie (GB) mare, Prima Mat (Ire). Completing the session's top three yearlings, Lot 518, a son of leading German sire Acatenango (Ger), went for FF260,000. Taken by Anthony Stroud Bloodstock and consigned by Haras de la Perelle, he is out of graded-stakes placed Habitat (USA) mare Propensity (GB). The last day of buying saw a five-percent decrease in the gross and average, but the sale's cumulative gross increased by 17 percent, up from 1999's FF25,174,000 to this year's FF30,193,000. Also up this year was the total average price, seven percent higher at FF89,860 over last year's FF83,913.

HIGH HOPES FOR DBS YEARLING Today sees the opening of the two-day October Yearling Sales at Doncaster and the omens are good after a strong Horses In Training Sale on Tuesday. A strong catalogue of over 300 lots has been assembled with sires such as Mark Of Esteem (Ire), Grand Lodge (USA) and Royal Applause (GB), Bahamian Bounty (GB) and Revoque (Ire) all represented, as well as recent favourites such as Fraam (GB). Fraam was responsible for Chagall (GB), winner of last year's DBS October Yearling S. here. That race is another reason for prospective purchasers to become involved today as it offers over £26,000 in prize money. A Dilum (USA) half brother to Chagall is offered as lot 590 this year, just one of a choice selection of yearlings which could follow in the footsteps of Superior Premium (GB), winner of this year's G2 Cork & Orrery S. at Royal Ascot or Far Cry (Ire), runner-up in this year's G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the same meeting. Grand Lodge's sole representative is Lot 581, a half sister to a stakes winner. Lot 623, the Bahamian Bounty colt out of a sister to Primo Dominie (GB), is bound to keep people at the sale to the end on Friday evening. Others related to stakes winners are Lot 573 by Piccolo (GB), 578 by Komaite (USA), 623 by Hurricane Sky (Aus) and 627 by Magic Ring (Ire). Henry Beeby, managing director of Doncaster Bloodstock Sales Ltd, is looking forward to a lively exchange, "We're expecting quite a steady trade for this middle-market sale, what with the strength of the yearling market this year," he said. "It offers tremendous value and a good selection for commercial buyers."

MURTAGH, KINANE TO HONG KONG Leading riders John Murtagh and Michael Kinane have been granted licenses by the Hong Kong Jockey Club to become part of the local jockey colony this winter. Murtagh, who piloted Sinndar (Ire) to victory in this year's Epsom and Irish Derbies and the G1 Arc de Triomphe, will ride in Hong Kong beginning Nov. 15 through Dec. 23, while Kinane will arrive after the New Year to ride Jan. 26 through Mar. 25, except Feb. 10, when he will fulfill a prior obligation to ride in Saudi Arabia. Murtagh has ridden eight winners in Hong Kong during two brief stints, while Kinane, a 10-time champion rider in Ireland, has registered 110 winners, including 1997 Hong Kong International Vase winner Luso (GB). Kinane is the regular rider of multiple Group 1 winner Giant's Causeway (USA) and Montjeu (Ire).

TOBOUGG TO GODOLPHIN Trainer Mick Channon announced yesterday that his G1 Prix de la Salamandre and Dewhurst S. winner Tobougg (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) will join Godolphin for his Classic year. He follows the path of Celtic Silence (GB), Rumpold (GB) and Equerry (USA), who have left their trainers for Dubai. Channon said, "Sheikh Ahmed and Sheikh Mohammed have decided that Tobougg will spend the winter in Dubai and will return next year to race under Godolphin. I have been extremely lucky to have had the opportunity to train some very good two-year-olds for Sheikh Ahmed in recent years, such as Bint Allayl, Josr Algarhoud, Maidaan and now Tobougg, and I hope to continue to do so. It is a great thrill to handle them for their two-year-old season and I have always understood that they are likely to continue their later careers elsewhere. Tobougg is clearly an extremely good horse and has been a pleasure to train and I hope he goes on next season to fulfill the potential he has shown this year."

HEMINGWAY OUT OF TROPHY

A day after Listed Acomb S. winner Hemingway (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) was made the 13-8 favourite for Saturday's G1 Racing Post Trophy by Irish firm Cashmans, it was announced yesterday by trainer Aidan O'Brien that he would miss the race. O'Brien said, "Hemingway is a non-runner on Saturday. He had a little bit of heat in his hock at evening stables yesterday. It's nothing serious, but we've decided to leave him off for the season. Freud (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) is a probable runner. King Charlemagne (USA) (Nureyev {USA}), Darwin (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) and Bonnard (Ire) (Nureyev {USA}) are all possibles. But like Hemingway--Beckett (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}), Mozart (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) and Black Minnaloushe (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) have been left off until next season." Other O'Brien trainees: King's County (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}) heads to France for next Sunday's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud; Honours List (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) goes for the G1 Gran Criterium in Milan on Sunday; and Turnberry Isle (Ire) (Deputy Minister {USA}) goes for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Churchill Downs Nov. 4. With just a millimetre of rain falling on Doncaster on Tuesday and Wednesday, the going looks likely to ride at least good for the race on Saturday. Trainer Richard Hannon's Tamburlaine (Ire) (Royal Academy {USA}), an impressive Newmarket maiden winner, may head for the race if the rain keeps away. His trainer said yesterday, "I hope to run him on Saturday, but he wouldn't want it heavy. He doesn't mind a bit of cut in the ground, but he would not want it desperate. His form is working out and he'll have a good chance on Saturday." Trainer Mick Channon may be represented by both Cd Europe (Ire) (Royal Academy {USA}) and Dayglow Dancer (GB) (Fraam {GB}). The former was second to Noverre (USA) in the G2 Champagne S. at this course Sept. 8 and that colt went on to finish second in last Saturday's G1 Dewhurst S. Last time he finished fourth behind Okawango (USA) and King's County in the Grand Criterium. Channon said, "He was too fresh. He was too free for the first half of the race and, although he didn't run a bad race, he couldn't get going. He must settle."

JOSR ALGARHOUD RETIRED

Josr Algarhoud (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}--Pont Aven {Ire}, by Try My Best {USA}), a group-stakes winner as a two-year-old, has been retired and heads to stud duty at Lavington Stud in Sussex, England. Breaking his maiden in 1998's G2 Gimcrack S., the Godolphin four-year-old is a half brother to multiple group-stakes winner and multiple Group 1-stakes placed sprinter, Sainte Marine (Ire) (Kenmare {Fr}) and out of a G3 Prix de Saint Georges winning mare. "Josr Algarhoud has this terrific natural speed," said his trainer, Mick Channon. "He always showed himself to be an exceptional two-year-old. Whatever you worked him with, he'd beat." Retiring with $221,634 earned from a lifetime record of 7-3-1-2, this year's G3 Prix de La Porte Maillot victor's fee is £4,000 special live foal.

Third in Germany's highest ranked juvenile event, the G2 Zukunfts-Rennen at Baden-Baden Sept. 1, Sign Of Nike was tested further afield and garnered his first stakes success when winning the Listed Premio Eupili at Milan Sept. 25. As the only colt in this race, he doubled his stakes tally with a gallant performance, giving eight pounds all round. Former Henry Cecil apprentice, jockey Stephen Davies positioned Sign Of Nike at the rear of the five runners as La Parrala (Ire) (Night Shift {USA}) led from Nasmatt and Brownise. He was switched wide to deliver his challenge from the quarter-mile marker and cruised into a share of the lead with Nasmatt at the distance. The son of Mistertopogigo was pushed along soon after to take the outright lead inside the furlong marker and ran on well in the closing stages to repel the rallying bid of the Mick Channon-trained Nasmatt. The front pair finished safely clear of the running-on Brownise in third.
